

Bill Gates Says Global Vaccination Program is “God’s Work”

It will be ten years ago on JANUARY 26, 2013, that Brandon Turbeville posted his article on Bill Gates Vaccination Program being “God’s Work”. A lot of us have been wondering how long it will take for God to “knock on Mr. Gates door!”

In a recent interview with the ‘London Telegraph’, Bill Gates has now claimed that his Foundation’s massive push for vaccination is not just an exercise in philanthropy but that it is, in fact, “God’s work.”

Gates, who, according to the Telegraph, is worth an estimated $65 billion, (in 2012), is now dedicating his life to the “eradication of poliomyelitis,” or, at least he is dedicating himself to the vaccination program allegedly aimed at achieving these ends.

As reported by the Telegraph,

“My wife and I had a long dialogue about how we were going to take the wealth that we’re lucky enough to have and give it back in a way that’s most impactful to the world,” he says. “Both of us worked at Microsoft and saw that if you take innovation and smart people, the ability to measure what’s working, that you can pull together some pretty dramatic things.”

“We’re focused on the help of the poorest in the world, which really drives you into vaccination. You can actually take a disease and get rid of it altogether, like we are doing with polio.”

Yet, eradicating polio through a massive vaccination program may be easier said than done writes Neil Tweedie of the Telegraph. “There is another, sinister obstacle: the propagation by Islamist groups of the belief that polio vaccination is a front for covert sterilization and other western evils. Health workers in Pakistan have paid with their lives for involvement in the programme.”

To this question, Gates responded with seemingly atypical religious zeal, noted by Tweedie in the published article. “It’s not going to stop us succeeding,” says Gates. “It does force us to sit down with the Pakistan government to renew their commitments, see what they’re going to do in security and make changes to protect the women who are doing God’s work and getting out to these children and delivering the vaccine.”

Indeed, the religious tone of Gates during the course of the interview may seem confusing to Tweedie, but the nature of Gates’ work could very well be described as a religion. Thus, the fact that it finds itself in direct confrontation with another religion – the Islamist groups that Tweedie speaks of – is of no real consequence to Gates as his solution is to dutifully press forward.

Yet, before readers write off the vaccine resisters solely as Muslim fundamentalists, many of the individuals opposing vaccination have a very good reason to be skeptical. Especially those that believe Gates’ vaccine push is geared more toward sterilization and population reduction than about life extension and better health conditions.

After all, it was Bill Gates himself who stated as much publicly when he said, “The world today has 6.8 billion people... that’s headed up to about 9 billion. Now if we do a really great job on new vaccines, health care, reproductive health services, we could lower that by perhaps 10 or 15 percent.”

Add this to Gates’ statement is the fact that, time and again, international vaccination programs have ended disastrously for third world nations. Case in point: the recent

The Meningitis vaccine program that resulted in the paralysis of at least 50 African children and a subsequent cover-up operation by the government of Chad. This large number of adverse events occurred in one small village alone, leaving many to wonder what the rates of side effects might be on an international scale.

Even more concerning is the fact that paralysis rates have flourished in countries where Gates' polio vaccine, the one he is dedicating his life to, have been administered the most. Indeed, nowhere is this any more apparent than in India. As Aaron Dykes writes,

But the real story is that while polio has statistically disappeared from India, there has been a huge spike in cases of non-polio acute flaccid paralysis (NPAFP)— the very types of crippling problems it was hoped would disappear with polio but which have instead flourished from a new cause.

There were 47,500 cases of non-polio paralysis reported in 2011, the same year India was declared “polio-free,” according to Dr. Vashisht and Dr. Puliyeel. Further, the available data shows that the incidents tracked back to areas where doses of the polio vaccine were frequently administered. The national rate of NPAFP in India is 25-35 times the international average.

In addition to this data, it appears that the polio vaccines are themselves the leading cause of polio paralysis in India. In relation to the flawed data reported by the Polio Global Eradication Initiative which attempts to minimize the numbers of both vaccine-induced cases of polio paralysis and polio in general, Sayer Ji remarks,

According to the Polio Global Eradication Initiative's own statistics there were 42 cases of wild-type polio (WPV) reported in India in 2010, indicating that vaccine-induced cases of polio paralysis (100-180 annually) outnumber wild-type cases by a factor of 3-4. Even if we put aside the important question of whether or not the PGEI is accurately differentiating between wild and vaccine-associated polio cases in their statistics, we still must ask ourselves: should not the real-world effects of immunization, both good and bad, be included in PGEI's measurement of success? For the dozens of Indian children who develop vaccine-induced paralysis every year, the PGEI's recent declaration of India as nearing “polio free” status, is not only disingenuous, but could be considered an attempt to minimize their obvious liability in having transformed polio from a natural disease vector into a man-made (iatrogenic) one.

Bill Gates' polio vaccines have been likewise blamed for deaths and disabilities in neighboring Pakistan, with offices of the government in that country even recommending that the vaccines be suspended.

In India, doctors heavily criticized the program not only for the heavy cost to human health and quality of life but also the massive financial burden hoisted upon the state. This is because the program was only partially funded by the Global Alliance for Vaccines and Immunizations, which is itself partnered with the World Health Organization, Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, the Rockefeller Foundation, World Bank, and United Nations.

The doctors criticized the GAVI-alliance by stating,

“The Indian government finally had to fund this hugely expensive programme, which cost the country 100 times more than the value of the initial grant,” their report stated. From India’s perspective the exercise has been an extremely costly both in terms of human suffering and in monetary terms. It is tempting to speculate what could have been achieved if the $2.5 billion spent on attempting to eradicate polio, were spent on water and sanitation and routine immunization.

. . . . . the polio eradication programme epitomizes nearly everything that is wrong with donor funded ‘disease specific’ vertical projects at the cost of investments in community-oriented primary health care (horizontal programmes) . . . . .

. . . . .This is a startling reminder of how initial funding and grants from abroad distort local priorities.

Indeed, as the doctors assert, one cannot vaccinate away disease like polio. Apart from the fact that there has never been a study conducted which proves a vaccine either safe or effective that was not connected to a drug company or a vaccine maker,<sup>[1]</sup> the so-called cure, if it comes under the guise of a vaccine, may well be as bad if not worse than the disease itself.

Again, Sayer Ji writes,

Polio underscores the need for a change in the way we look at so-called “vaccine preventable” diseases as a whole. In most people with a healthy immune system, a poliovirus infection does not even generate symptoms. Only rarely does the infection produce minor symptoms, e.g. sore throat, fever, gastrointestinal disturbances, and influenza-like illness. In only 3% of infections does virus gain entry to the central nervous system, and then, in only 1-5 in 1000 cases does the infection progress to paralytic disease.

Due to the fact that polio spreads through the fecal-oral route (i.e. the virus is transmitted from the stool of an infected person to the mouth of another person through a contaminated object, e.g. utensil) focusing on hygiene, sanitation and proper nutrition (to support innate immunity) is a logical way to prevent transmission in the first place, as well as reducing morbidity associated with an infection when it does occur.

Instead, a large portion of the world’s vaccines are given to the Third World as “charity,” when the underlying conditions of economic impoverishment, poor nutrition, chemical exposures, and socio-political unrest are never addressed.

The fact is that the root cause of diseases like polio are not a lack of vaccination but poor sanitation standards, poverty, lower living standards, chemical pollution, and lack of proper nutrition. If money were spent correcting these ills, as opposed to providing ineffective (in their stated purposes) and dangerous vaccinations, then polio and many other such diseases could indeed be eradicated.

In the end, the answer is about raising living standards, reducing pollution, increasing knowledge and access to proper nutrition and clean drinking water – not chemical and virus-laden needles. Perhaps this method could be more accurately described as “God’s work.”

The above post by Brandon Turbeville came from my saved documents from January 2013. I was searching old files to delete things that are no longer relevant or pertinent to what is happening in the world. I decided to see what else would turn up on searching for Bill Gates articles. If you search the Internet you will find even fewer articles now than I was able to locate a decade or two ago. If one enter Bill Gates today on Bing or Google, it is blatantly clear the computer algorithms block searches to yield very little but as an example, the first ten pages of Bing were repetitive news articles. One will quickly experience frustration and soon end their search for anything that tarnishes the image of Bill Gates.

Today, the ability to investigate a topic has been for all intent and purpose rendered useless. Unless you actually have a URL link, it’s unlikely you will find important facts about such evil low life as Bill Gates. I have been following this low life for twenty-five years and it’s not a pleasant story. He was arrested as a teenager with a minor child in the back of his car engaged in depraved deviant acts. His arrest photo taken by the Albuquerque, NM Police Department mugshot of Bill Gates 12/13/77 can be found two pages from here. The incident was whitewashed as a routine traffic stop. Who do you know that has ever been stopped for a routine traffic stop and taken to a police station and mugshot photographed by a police camera?

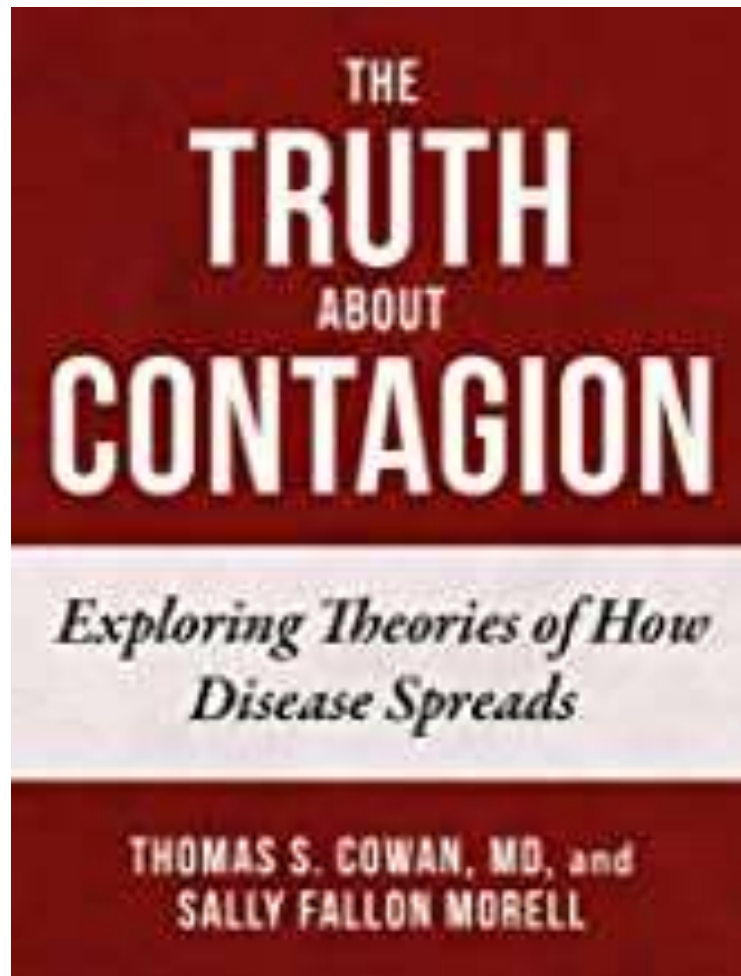

A ‘News Punch’ article posted today 01/12/23 that speaks to this creature masking as a philanthropist, Fact Checkers Caught Colluding With Pedophile Ring - Questions Raised We know that this pedophile has spent $319 million dollars to fund the Gates narrative that vaccines are humanity’s savior. In the past three years, Mr. Gates and Foundation paid media prostitutes to hype his bovine excrement wide and far. In 2020, at the annual Davos, Switzerland meeting he told Becky Quick of CNBC that his investment in the vaccine business returned him a return on investment of $20 to $1.

According to fact checkers, there is no pedophilia epidemic and global elites are not attempting to normalize pedophilia. Despite all the evidence to the contrary, fact checkers are telling you not to believe what you can see with your own two eyes. 'News Punch' has recently focused on the Klaus Schwab and Bill Gates exposing the so-called "Fact Checkers" that conduct disinformation campaigns to discredit truthers!

Oh, and there is the report that Bill Gates was Dr. Anthony Fauci' benefactor in "gain-of-function" viral research to the tune of $200-million dollars. This scum bag throws money around to scientists working on projects that have a single goal in mind, and that is "Depopulation!"

Regarding the Gates polio eradication plan, it has long been established that polio was really a product of DDT spraying in the U.S. and elsewhere, polio had been dying out as the country phased out the spraying of DDT in the early 1970s. Bill Gates is a liar, a con man, who wants everyone to believe that vaccines are God's work. That is total bovine excrement and if you want to get the facts on disease, go get yourself a copy of Dr. Tom Cowan's book 'Contagion'. Dr. Cowan provides the medical and public health evidence to the so-called virus issues. I have read Dr. Cowan's book three times and he shuts down the intentional lies of people like Bill Gates and his ilk with real medical and scientific evidence.

Unfortunately Bill Gates money becomes irresistible to those willing to sell their souls to the devil. One should always remember an important fact about pedophiles, and that is pedophiles are recidivists, meaning that they cannot be reformed. Once a pedophile, always a pedophile.

Those in mental health and law enforcement will tell you that once a pedophile, always a pedophile. The term by experts in this field is "Hurt People Hurt People", meaning that a victim becomes an abuser later in life. Remember, it was this creep who hung around with Mossad Jeffrey Epstein, who along with his girlfriend Ghislaine Maxwell recruited young girls as honey traps in order to blackmail and control celebrities, powerful politicians, princes and presidents worldwide. Bill Gates is a pedophile and the world needs to call him out. Who cares about all his money? He is a child rapist. He contacted Epstein AFTER he was caught taking and trafficking children.

The 'London Daily Mail' wrote the following about Mr. Philanthropist Gates:

Bill Gates' ties with Jeffrey Epstein 'strengthened AFTER the pedophile was released from prison in 2011' – and he told Gates Foundation employees that his crimes were 'no worse than stealing a bagel'

- Microsoft co-founder began relationship with convicted pedophile in 2011, according to 'The New York Times'

- Gates was introduced to Epstein through the science adviser of his foundation, Boris Nikolic
- Nikolic struck up a friendship with Epstein, whom he had met through Melanie Walker
- Walker met Epstein after she graduated from college in 1992 and was hired as his science adviser before she joined the Gates Foundation years later
- Gates first met Epstein face to face at the pedophile's New York City townhouse, according to the Times
- The two men discussed a joint charitable venture that included JPMorgan, but it never got off the ground
- Gates and Epstein met several times, including one instance in which Gates flew on Epstein's private jet, the 'Lolita Express'

His wife left him over it. He had to leave Microsoft because of it. Everyone in side knows he is, yet they remain silent to not be sued. The legal system and financial system protect pedophiles. Microsoft corporate board members forced him to resign from the giant software company!

Billionaire Bill Gates, who has repeatedly minimized his ties to Jeffrey Epstein, visited the convicted sex offender multiple times in the years after Epstein was released from prison, according to a New York Times investigation published Saturday.

Gates, the Microsoft co-founder, and Epstein met repeatedly starting in 2011, including at least three times at Epstein's Manhattan townhouse, according a Times report compiled from interviews with more than a dozen people familiar with the relationship, photographs, emails and other documents.

In one e-mail reviewed by the 'Times', Gates told colleagues in 2011 following his first meeting with Epstein, "His lifestyle is very different and kind of intriguing although it would not work for me."

A Gates spokeswoman told the Times that the email "was referring only to the unique décor of the Epstein residence," and his "habit of spontaneously bringing acquaintances in to meet Mr. Gates."

Epstein, who was indicted in July on federal sex trafficking charges and denied bail, committed suicide in August in a federal prison. The so-called suicide has been challenged and many believe Epstein lives in Israel today.

In September, Gates admitted to the 'Wall Street Journal' that he did meet with Epstein after the financier pleaded guilty to soliciting a minor for prostitution.

"I met him. I didn't have any business relationship or friendship with him. I didn't go to New Mexico or Florida or Palm Beach or any of that," Gates told the Journal. "There were people around him who were saying, hey, if you want to raise money for global health and get more philanthropy, he knows a lot of rich people."

“Every meeting where I was with him were meetings with men. I was never at any parties or anything like that. He never donated any money to anything that I know about,” Gates added.

Bill Gates, a “Diabolical Narcissist Psychopath” who PARALYZED 490,000 children in India, gives every indication of having a GROTESQUE SEXUAL FETISH centered on forced injections, NOT a desire to help.

Bill Gates: “For people over 50 or 60, they’ll probably have to get boosted every 6 months until we get even better vaccines; so we’re in for ongoing vaccination to stay absolutely safe...”

Fact: Bill Gates ran with the pedophile and child sex trafficker Jeffrey Epstein. Gates flew on Epstein’s jet, when Gates’ INTEREST INCOME could literally be quoted in “Gulfstreams per minute”.

At Jeffrey Epstein’s Manhattan mansion in ARSH 2011, from left: James E. Staley, at the time a senior JPMorgan executive; former Treasury Secretary Lawrence Summers; Epstein; Bill Gates, Microsoft’s co-founder; and Boris Nikolic, who was the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation’s science adviser. Epstein’s imprisonment for child sex was ARSH 2008-2010.

FACT: Gates imposed a “vaccination” regime in India that consisted of up to FIFTY doses before a child turned five.

FACT: As a direct result, 490,000 Indian children were PARALYZED.

FACT: The Indian government threw Gates’ organization out of the country.

FACT: Bill Gates, after PARALYZING nearly half a million children DIDN’T EVEN FLINCH WITH REMORSE OR HORROR AT WHAT HE HAD DONE, but instead mashed the throttle on executing a plan to mandate “injections” on THE ENTIRE HUMAN RACE, with engineered total economic collapse and man-made famine being the means of coercion, which is now playing out in real time. The Indian government has an open arrest warrant out on Bill Gates should he ever step onto the ground of an Indian airport.

CONCLUSION: Pundits are attributing Gates’ actions to a “desire to save the world” or even to a desire to “micromanage the planet”. The micromanagement, yes, including massive population reduction and mass sterilization. A desire to “save the world?” NO WAY.

Let me put out there what I suspect MANY people are thinking: I suspect that there is a FETISHISTIC component to this. If Gates were morally sane and not a conscienceless psychopath, if he were actually motivated by a desire to HELP, the paralyzing of half a million children in India would have been PERSONALLY devastating. Can you IMAGINE being responsible for something like that? Not only was Gates NOT horrified – he was enflamed. He needs MORE.

This maps EXACTLY to Gates’ psychopathic glee at destroying the economy, and now setting up the conditions for literal FAMINE and STARVATION. Meat animal production is imploding as we speak. Crops are being plowed under. All for absolutely no reason: a seasonal chest cold, and the diktat of the madman Bill Gates. Gates has zero empathy. Human beings are objects to be used to feed his perverse desires and fetishes.

Injecting people with drugs is a known sexual fetish – look at the notorious Hillary Clinton fundraiser and best-buddy of Adam Schiff, Ed Buck. It clearly indicates an obsession with power over others to the point of life and death. No one seriously thinks that Bill Gates is NOT obsessed with God-like power over human life.

Remember, ALL species of sexual perversion proceed from DIABOLICAL NARCISSISM. For Diabolical Narcissist psychopaths, power dynamics and violent, perverted sex/sodomy are almost always intertwined. It would be foolish to think that such is NOT the case with Gates. All the signs are there.

From Affairs To Epstein — All The Troubling Allegations Against Bill Gates So Far
By Alice Kelly — Written on May 17, 2021

In the wake of Melinda and Bill Gates' announcement that they are getting divorced, ending their 27-year marriage, more allegations are coming to light about Gates and what might have caused the divorce.

The Microsoft founder is often touted as one of the world's most down-to-earth billionaires, but if these allegations are to be believed then Gates's philanthropic public persona may have hidden a darker personal past.

From allegations of an affair, workplace misconduct, mishandling of sexual harassment claims and an unusual relationship with Jeffrey Epstein, scrutiny is mounting against Gates in the most unflattering of ways.

The allegations threaten the image the businessman has cultivated and possibly explains his divorce from his wife of almost three decades.

Here's a list of all the allegations against Bill Gates so far, coming on the heels of his divorce announcement:

1. Gates allegedly had an affair with a Microsoft employee before his divorce.

Gates allegedly engaged in a romantic relationship with a Microsoft engineer which led him to resign from the company's board of directors in 2020.

The 'Wall Street Journal' cites "people familiar with the matter," but does not name the employee in question.

After she claimed to have had a sexual relationship with the Microsoft founder, the company's board hired a law firm to investigate the relationship.

The 'Journal' claims that some board members felt it was no longer appropriate for Gates to remain on the board of directors at the software company. They claim Gates left the company before the investigation was completed.

However, a spokesperson for Gates said, "There was an affair almost 20 years ago which ended amicably. Bill's decision to transition off the board was in no way related to this matter. In fact, he had expressed an interest in spending more time on his philanthropy starting several years earlier."

A Microsoft spokesperson later confirmed that the company had launched an investigation after concerns were raised in 2019 about the alleged relationship, which was initiated in 2000.

2. Gates was accused of inappropriate conduct at work.

Separate allegations against the software mogul claim that Gates "developed a reputation for questionable conduct in work-related settings."

It was alleged that Gates pursued women who worked for him at Microsoft and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation on multiple occasions.

Multiple sources claimed that Gates engaged in behavior that they deemed inappropriate for a person with his power and influence.

Others, however, say Gates did give women space to reject his advances and did not pressure women to accept his flirtations for the sake of their careers.

The sources claim these incidences took place throughout Gates's marriage, which possibly explains why his relationship with Melinda has dissolved.

Gates met Melinda while she was working as a product manager, an aspect of their relationship that is often played up in the media. But new claims suggest she was not the only employee he set his sights on.

"If this makes you uncomfortable, pretend it never happened," Gates allegedly wrote in an email to an employee he had watched give a presentation before immediately asking her out for dinner.

Again, a spokesperson for Gates denied the claims of mistreatment and described the rumors around his divorce as "disappointing."

"The rumors and speculation surrounding Gates's divorce are becoming increasingly absurd," they added. "And it's unfortunate that people who have little to no knowledge of the situation are being characterized as 'sources.'"

4. Gates failed to fire his money manager after a sexual harassment allegation.

It was also claimed that Melinda was dissatisfied with her husband's handling of a sexual harassment claim against his longtime money manager. The previously undisclosed claim occurred in 2018.

Melinda had urged Gates to launch an external investigation into the claims but Gates opted to settle the matter confidentially. Michael Larson, the money manager, still remains in the position.

5. Gates had a questionable relationship with Jeffrey Epstein.

Then there is Gates's dealings with Jeffrey Epstein, who he is believed to have interacted with on a number of occasions. Gates first met Epstein in 2011, 3 years after Epstein pleaded guilty to soliciting prostitution from a minor.

Melinda is thought to have been uncomfortable with Gates' interactions with the sex offender. In the same month that an article was released about Gates visiting Epstein's infamous mansion, Melinda is believed to have met with divorce lawyers for the first time.

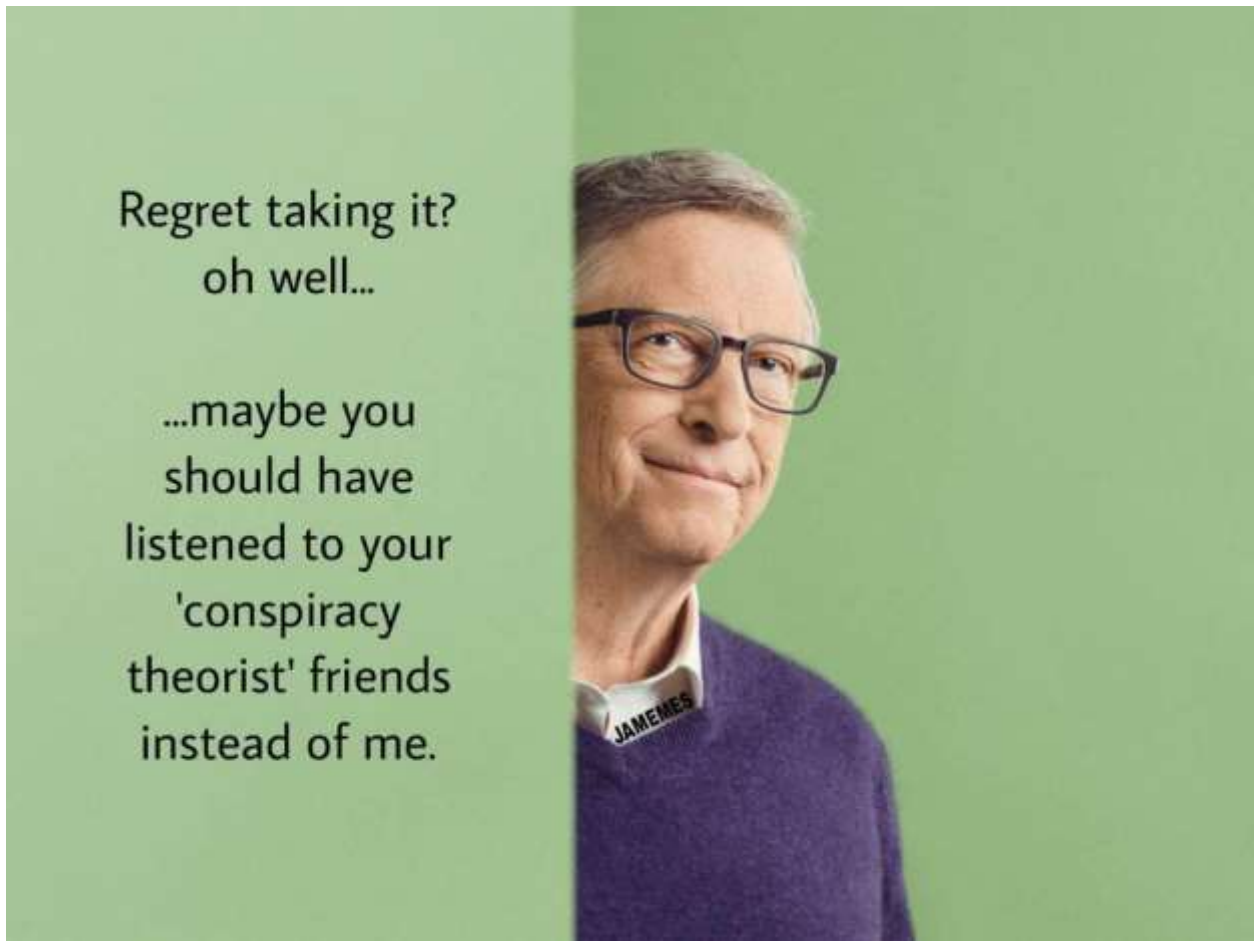

While Gates has denied having any close friendship with Epstein, recent allegations from undisclosed sources say that the pair were close.

“Going to Jeffrey’s was a respite from his marriage. It was a way of getting away from Melinda,” sources claim, alleging that Epstein gave Gates advice on how to escape his “toxic” marriage. Gates, in turn, is said to have encouraged Epstein to rehabilitate his public image. The public explanation about these meetings is that Gates was pursuing Epstein for philanthropic reasons and access to his network. A representative for Gates said, “[This] characterization of his meetings with Epstein and others about philanthropy is inaccurate, including who participated. Similarly, any claim that Gates spoke of his marriage or Melinda in a disparaging manner is false.”

J. T. KOWALSKI

As the globalist elite continue finding it harder and harder to convince humanity to submit to Covid jabs and endless boosters, they are having to find cunning new ways to force their jabs on us.

Reporting on the globalist elite is a full time job because, as the Bible tells us, wicked doesn't sleep. Take Bill Gates as a case in point. Rather than admitting that humanity has woken up to the truth about the disastrous experimental Covid-19 jabs, Gates, who is not a doctor, is doubling down and taking it upon himself to vaccinate the world by stealth.

According to the billionaire eugenicist, farm animals including cows, pigs and chickens have inadequate genetics. And the only way to "fix" those genetics is to "vaccinate" every farm animal in the world with new mRNA vaccines.

Gates visited the University of Edinburgh's Langhill Farm to launch the school's Global Academy of Agriculture and Food Security.

Rather than beating around the bush and obfuscating, as he used to do before the Covid pandemic, Gates appeared comfortable bragging about pumping mRNA vaccines into farm animals destined for dinner plates.

Gates is becoming increasingly arrogant and no longer feels any shame whatsoever about openly broadcasting his true intentions for the planet right in plain sight.

Unless all animals, including food animals, are jabbed with Big Pharma's latest poisons, the food supply will remain "dirty," in Gates' view. Only he and his globalist minions can "sanitize" nature with new chemicals and DNA modification techniques – which they are also trying to do to humans. Remember, he is just doing "God's Work".

"The Gates Foundation is partnered with DFID on a great number of things, and among those are work we do together on livestock," Gates stated, referring to the United Kingdom-based Department for International Development.

"Helping animals survive, either by having vaccines or better genetics, helping them be more productive – it's making a big difference."

As he usually does, Gates started all this by playing God with the lives of other people, experimenting on the third world, which he views as his personal fiefdom.

According to Robert F. Kennedy Jr., anyone who is prepared to allow Bill Gates to dictate world and U.S. health policy should take a long, hard look at his record in Africa.

"Perhaps millions of children have died unnecessarily," according Kennedy Jr., who shared information from a peer-reviewed publication in a respected journal.

"Anyone defending Bill Gates & WHO needs to explain Morgensen et al 2017."

"This is a peer-reviewed publication in a respected journal by leading scientists describing outcomes akin to genocide," said Kennedy Jr.

robertfkennedyjr • Follow

A 2017 study (Morgensen et. Al. 2017) showed that WHO's popular DTP vaccine is killing more African children than the diseases it pretends to prevent. Vaccinated girls suffered 10x the death rate of unvaccinated children. Gates and WHO have refused to recall the lethal vaccine which WHO forces upon millions of African children annually.

Global public health advocates around the world accuse Gates of hijacking WHO's agenda away from the projects that are proven to curb infectious diseases; clean water, hygiene, nutrition, and economic development. They say he has diverted agency resources to serve his personal fetish—that good health only comes in a syringe. >

In addition to using his philanthropy to control WHO, UNICEF, GAVI, and PATH, Gates funds private pharmaceutical companies that manufacture vaccines, and a massive network of pharmaceutical-industry front groups that broadcast deceptive propaganda, develop fraudulent studies, conduct surveillance and psychological operations against vaccine hesitancy and use Gates' power and money to silence dissent and coerce compliance. In his recent nonstop Pharmedia appearances, Gates appears gleeful that the Covid-19 crisis will give him the opportunity to force his third-world vaccine programs on American children.

Robert F. Kennedy Jr. also slammed Gates and his “messianic conviction that he is ordained to save the world with technology.”

“Vaccines, for Bill Gates, are a strategic philanthropy that feed his many vaccine-related businesses (including Microsoft’s ambition to control a global vac ID enterprise) and give him dictatorial control over global health policy—the spear tip of corporate neo-imperialism,” Kennedy Jr. wrote.

“Gates’ obsession with vaccines seems fueled by a messianic conviction that he is ordained to save the world with technology and a god-like willingness to experiment with the lives of lesser humans.”

Since Gates views poor people as having less value than himself, they get to be the guinea pigs for all of his newfangled endeavors to change the entire world into his own image.

The question remains, though: are those eggs actually safe? Is that meat fit for human consumption? Or does it contain the very same mRNA modifications that occur in humans after getting injected for “Covid?” What will these injections do to the food that is produced and sold to the masses?

“We will soon be eating DNA altered, sickened animals from the same mRNA jabs contributing to the ‘Died Suddenly’ pandemic,” warned a Twitter account called “DJ Freedom Rocket.” “What could possibly go wrong ...”

Another account responded to this that, apparently, we already are eating “fully vaccinated” animal products, not to mention all the genetically modified (GMO) plant products that have been on the market and in the food supply for decades.

“Are you aware of reports that Pharma now is looking to inject mRNA into foods?” this same account asked. “Into fruits and veggies? Into animal feed? Into fake vaccines for farm animals. Malthusians intend to poison our food supply.”

All of this has been many years in the making. Thirteen years ago, Gates met with other globalists including Warren Buffett, David Rockefeller, George Soros, Michael Bloomberg, Ted Turner, Oprah Winfrey, to conjure up a coordinated response to the “problem” of population growth, which all of these figures see as a threat to the “human race” – meaning themselves and their ill-gotten wealth and lavish lifestyles, which were built on the backs of the very people they are now attempting to exterminate.

Disturbingly, Gates now ranks as America’s largest private farmland owner.

Gates has acquired 270,000 acres of land throughout America, according to last year’s edition of the Land Report 100, an annual survey of the nation’s largest landowners. He has his eye on farming in Sub-Saharan Africa and South Asia as well.

Analysts are now connecting the dots on his agenda on the mass vaccination and gene-modification projects of livestock and his purchases of farmlands. Critics can’t help but worry that the global elite’s agenda of hijacking the food supply is slowly being carried out.

In January 2020, the Gates Foundation announced the creation of a non-profit entity called Gates Ag One, which aims to “speed up efforts to provide smallholder farmers in developing countries ... with access to the affordable tools and innovations they need to sustainably improve crop productivity and adapt to the effects of climate change.”

The launch came shortly before the failure of the Alliance for a Green Revolution in Africa (AGRA), which was founded in 2006 by the businessman's foundation as well as the Rockefeller Foundation.

“Apart from the obvious financial return on his investment, why else would Gates be interested in genetically engineering livestock? While we don’t know the inner workings of the minds of the globalists, we could consider a couple of theories which, ultimately, end with the same result – ownership, and control by a few self-appointed elites with Gates as their frontman,” the Expose’s Rhoda Wilson commented.

One possible goal of Gates in pushing the GM of farm animals is to decimate them and force people to eat lab-grown inorganic substitute foods in the future, essentially eliminating the people’s freedom to choose. McDonalds, Taco Bell, and Burger King tried marketing Bill Gates lab meat but soon dropped it from their menu in test-market cities.

Jacob Bruns, writing for Headline USA, explains, “In the view of the world’s billionaires, religious and political ‘obstacles’ remain that might get in the way of their mass experimentation.” And he couldn’t be more right.

It's not a coincidence that the globalist elite at the World Economic Forum are actively working to subvert religion and convince humanity that God is dead and Jesus is fake news.

They global elite, led by figures such as Prince Charles, Klaus Schwab and Bill Gates, are like cartoon villains at this point. Except that they're real and incredibly dangerous.

It seems to me that Bill Gates has mistakenly been reading from another version of the Bible than what I read. Perhaps Mr. Gates has somehow obtained possession of the 'Spear of Destiny' or maybe he is playing Steve Jackson's 1995 "Illuminati" Card Game with Klaus Schwab at night before they take their shot of Adrenochrome. Could Bill Gates belong to the "Black Eye" club? Dr. Anthony Fauci is a member. Just asking?

THE BLACK EYE CLUB

Who is punching them?

According to John Bolton's nephew, Greg T Dixon, a Masonic High School friend and informant deeply connected with Freemasonry, the elite have produced themselves a designer drug – which causes black eye when taken... "the darker the eye the better the high."

A high, supposedly so good, it's said to "take you away" for what is equivalent of a year's vacation – to a level of which it entirely removes preoccupation from the daily mundane, or fame.

Whenever elite are seen sporting this high, other elite instantly are envious (provided they have taken the 'black eye' vacation at least once before themselves).

However, there is a caveat to this rule, which is taking the black eye high too many times, particularly in a row, is detrimental to one's health.

Therefore, must be administered with caution, care and the utmost consideration. Which further leads to elite envy – flaunted before us by proxy of the U.S. media.

In fact, its recommended the drug only be administered 1-2 times – years apart – with three being the limit in a lifetime.

It's not clear the exact composition of the drug that produces black eye high, but is believed to be a derivative of lithium, which also is well-known to be unhealthy to take for extended periods of time.

This most likely is the reason fellow elite love to share photos of themselves sporting a black eye, thus demonstrating they are part of the club.

What is the black eye club on TikTok? Conspiracy theory explained

- Amelia Beamer of the US SUN provided a few ideas explaining this

THERE is a conspiracy theory on TikTok that is tying celebrities and politicians with black eyes to the Illuminati, QAnon, and even a reptilian race takeover.

While most black eyes are usually accidental and can occur in various ways, conspiracy theorists claim otherwise.

Kanye West showed up to Paris fashion week with a bruise near his eye.

What is the black eye club on TikTok?

The black eye club on TikTok is all based on the conspiracy that the upper echelon of our society is collectively getting black eyes from specific initiation rituals, among other wild-fetched theories.

The hashtag #blackeyeclub has 3.7million views, with many videos claiming that celebrities like Kanye West, Justin Beiber, Pope Francis, and even Reese Witherspoon have all taken place in rituals to join the Illuminati.

A simple Google search will show that these celebrities have indeed all had black eyes; however, they also tend to have explanations that make sense.

The conspiracy is deepened when one considers that it is most often the left eye that is bruised, but then, most people are right-handed, meaning the left eye is more likely to get the brunt of a punch.

Also, it's been pointed out that drivers in the United States drive on the left side of their cars, meaning that a car crash could theoretically send them to the left side of the vehicle, where the left eye is.

Additionally, believers in the black eye club have pointed out that celebrities pay significant amounts for security to keep them from being attacked.

However, this explanation doesn't account for stunts gone wrong while filming, car crashes, or even mobs of fans who reach out to touch them.

What are other conspiracy theories tied to the black eye club?

Some conspiracy theorists claimed that QAnon is responsible for the black eyes.

They claim that the black eyes are the aftermath of injections of a chemical called adrenochrome, which they say is filtered from children's blood and injected into adults to keep them looking young.

A third conspiracy theory that has many online believers is that of soul scalping.

Even Pope Francis has been tagged as being a member of the black eye club.

In other words, people who believe this to be the case think that reptiles are taking over the world and that they are beginning with the elite.

Their theories range from slimy snakes that are incredibly intelligent, taking over human bodies through either their mouths or their left eyes, and studying each individual's behaviors until they take over their soul.

So is the black eye club real?

There is a pattern of celebrities with black eyes.

However, these range in time from the 90s to the current day, so it's not as though they're happening simultaneously.

Also, while celebrities have security teams, it's easy to forget how much physical work goes into many of their jobs.
