

Court Filing: Kamala Harris, Merrick Garland Violate US Code, Have No Oath of Office on File!

by FRANKIE STOCKES at nationalfile.com

A new court filing reveals that Kamala Harris, Merrick Garland, and other leading Democrats in the Biden Administration, including Defense Secretary Lloyd Austin, Homeland Security Secretary Alejandra Mayorkis, and Transportation Secretary Pete Buttigieg, have no oath of loyalty to the U.S. Constitution on file, as required by law. A writ of quo warranto filed in Washington, DC asserts that oaths of office for high-ranking members of Joe Biden's cabinet are nowhere to be found, in blatant violation of the U.S. Code that requires all elected officials to keep a sworn affidavit of their oath on file, proving their sworn continued allegiance to the United States and the U.S. Constitution.

Filed by attorneys on behalf of petitioner Lisa McGee, the court motion is asking the U.S. Attorney in the District of Columbia to require that a laundry list of elected and appointed Biden Administration officials produce their oath affidavits within 10 days, to prove that they've actually met the constitutional and legal requirements to hold office. McGee had previously sought access to the oaths of office in question through Freedom of Information Act (FOIA) requests, but received nothing back, calling the lawfulness of the entire Biden Administration into question.

A press release from Ferguson Law, one of the firms acting on behalf of McGee, explains the gravity of the situation and reaffirms the sentiments of the legal filing.

The apparent non-existence of oath affidavits for high-ranking Biden officials “nullifies, or at a minimum, calls into question the legitimacy of their appointments or positions,” the statement reads.

“The absence of these mandatory oath of office affidavits shifts the burden to the appointees to prove to Ms. McGee and the US Attorney their bona fides. The production of these statutorily required affidavits is also required by law.”

“Missing Oaths of Office will render a majority of the Biden Administration Cabinet unlawful and their official acts from the date of appointment void,” the statement goes on to explain. “Failure to produce the affidavit(s) to the US Attorney will provide the necessary jurisdiction to the Federal District Court of Washington D.C. to issue said Writ Quo Warranto.”

Lawfulness of Biden Administration Cabinet in Question Upon Failure to Produce Oaths of Office

WASHINGTON, April 14, 2023 /Standard Newswire/ -- On April 12, 2023, Todd S. Callender, Esq. of Disabled Rights Advocates PLLC, and Kenneth W. Ferguson, Esq. of Ferguson Law, P.A., filed on Petition for Writ of Quo Warranto, on behalf of Petitioner, Lisa McGee, to the U.S. Attorney in the District of Columbia, requesting: 1) true, correct and non-defective required affidavits of Oaths of Office for the appointed and elected cabinet members of the Biden Administration; or the immediate removal of all named parties for failure to abide their this statutory requirement; and 3) if removed, then to void all their official acts ab initio.

Ms. McGee petitions the U.S. Attorney, under their jurisdiction, to require the presentation of said affidavits within ten days proving the constitutional and statutory requirements to hold their office(s) have been met. These individuals include: Director of Center of Disease Control and Prevention and of Toxic Substances and Disease Registry, Rochelle Walensky; U.S. Secretary of Treasury, Janet Yellen; U.S. Secretary of Energy, Jennifer Granholm; Food and Drug Administration, Principal Deputy Commissioner, Janet Woodcock; U.S. Secretary of Health and Human Services, Xavier Becerra; Transportation Secretary, Pete Buttigieg; Secretary of State, Antony Blinken; Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, Alejandro Mayorkas; Secretary of Education, Dr. Miguel A. Cardona; Secretary of Commerce, Gina M. Raimondo; Department of Justice, Attorney General Merrick Garland; Commissioner of Food and Drug Administration, Robert M. Califf M.D.; Secretary of Labor, Marty Walsh; Deputy Secretary of Labor, Julie Su; and Vice President, Kamala Harris.

Ms. McGee previously sought the required affidavits via the Freedom of Information Act requests (FOIA); and not one of the aforesaid appointees have produced a compliant affidavit consistent with the statute. Either the affidavit(s) are nonexistent, wanting, or the appointee has failed or refused to provide the mandated affidavit to hold their respective offices.

This lack of Constitutional and statutory requirement thereby nullifies, or at a minimum, calls into question the legitimacy of their appointments or positions. The absence of these mandatory Oath of Office affidavits shifts the burden to the appointees to prove to Ms. McGee and the U.S. Attorney their bona fides. The production of these statutorily required affidavits is also required by law.

Missing Oaths of Office will render a majority of the Biden Administration Cabinet unlawful and their official acts from the date of appointment void. Failure to produce the affidavit(s) to the U.S. Attorney will provide the necessary jurisdiction to the Federal District Court of Washington D.C. to issue said Writ Quo Warranto.

No oath of office on file?

This is a serious Constitutional issue which I mentioned on page 8 of my article Social Security is Toast. So is Medicare. Days ago I sent a letter to Constitutional Attorney and scholar Jonathan Emord, who in January announced he is a declared candidate for Senator of Virginia. The fact that so many of the President Biden cabinet have not submitted affidavits showing they have taken the Oath of Office is a serious matter.
