

Governments Attack The Babies

You got to love those governments, or hate them, or just forget about them and get on with life.

Governments seem to like nothing better than to interfere as much as possible with each and everyone's life. Governments are bastions of depraved power and this is clearly demonstrated with childhood vaccinations.

For their acts with this issue alone governments have damned themselves with what I consider criminal malpractice, so we better start thinking of new ways to protect human existence from the governmental edicts that are raining down on us.

Merck's Gardasil vaccine causes death, collapse and chronic illness in young women and girls, including a new, never-before described "disease" called Juvenile ALS, a fatal condition in which the nervous system is slowly destroyed while consciousness remains unimpaired.

So many of us are selling our souls to the government with the expectation that they're going to take care of us and keep us safe.

Then others of us look at the top leaders as descendants of reptiles with despicable tendencies to consume the life force of others. I think vampires fit the bill better, but the point is that the important blood lines (leadership or self-appointed steering committees of the human race) believe with their entire mind and soul that they have been chosen by forces to run rampant over the herd of humanity.

America is about to vote again for their choice of president and both candidates are full-blooded vaccinationists as all politicians are including, I am sorry to say, Ron Paul, though he is not into forcing anyone to take the needle!

America votes for vaccine aggression just as it always votes for foreign wars and putting fluoride into drinking water and just about everything else that goes with the evil that is centered in Washington, DC and of course in London.

The people at VacTruth are rightfully taking the British government to task for allowing a previously banned and dangerous vaccine onto the UK market, by repackaging it and giving it a new name in a bid to deceive parents.

“The first time the UK government tried this tactic and succeeded was in 1988 when the JCVI (Joint Committee on Vaccinations and Immunizations) sanctioned the MMR vaccine Pluserix for use in the UK.

Pluserix had previously been banned in Canada, causing thousands of children to suffer irreversible side effects as a result. This vaccine went on to cause the same devastation in the UK.”

Dr. Lucjia Tomljenovic gave a full description of these devastating side effects, including encephalitis, bilateral deafness and meningitis.

Parents unknowingly subjected their children to a proven dangerous vaccine because of the deliberate deception of the government, which has,

“Once again potentially put thousands of lives at risk by re-introducing a banned, this time unlicensed vaccine onto the UK market.”

They are talking about the single mumps vaccine Medi-Mumps cultured on dog kidney cells that was advertised for use at a number of private clinics as an alternative option to MMR.

It has since been discovered, however, that Medi-Mumps is in fact the banned, unlicensed vaccine Pavivac. To cover this up, just like the MMR vaccine Pluserix, the vaccine was repackaged and given a new name.

For those who think vaccines are safe and that pediatricians are saints in white jackets, know that the United States government, as of August 6, 2008, paid out 1.8 billion dollars ($1,804,415,262.35) to parents who brought the cases of their children killed by vaccines in front of the National Vaccine Injury Compensation Program.

If God were to demand that every arrogant medical professional be jailed for their crimes based on greed or refusal to look outside the box of pharmaceuticals, then they would have to build a prison planet somewhere in the solar system to house them all.

Babies are of course hurt most by such arrogance for they have no defense whatsoever against the brutal acts carried out against them.

Do No Evil

“My daughter took her youngest son Chris to the pediatrician for a one-year check-up.

Chris is a special needs child. At six months he was given vaccines and within 24 hours began having serious seizures. Friday, he came in with a fever, coughing and runny nose.

The nurse, by the pediatrician's orders, came in without asking, without signatures, and gave him a flu shot, adding five other shots with it. As of this morning, Chris was dead." Parents around the world need to stop trusting pediatric doctors except for broken bones and stitches and such because the chances are high that these doctors will inflict serious harm on their young charges.

The majority of pediatricians are ignorant of the facts and afraid to stand up to pharmaceutical manufacturers though they know how to smile and be nice, but being nice has nothing to do with being honestly caring. They would rather use their poison needles and take every opportunity to inject their young patients no matter what their condition is, even when it is known that a child who is ill with fever or other symptoms should not receive vaccinations.<sup>[1]</sup>

In the old days when we had what might be thought of as real doctors, they would not inject children if they had compromised immune systems, meaning they would send the child home when sick.

Children need their full strength to withstand the toxicity of vaccines.

These days' doctors do not think twice about injecting sick children and if a child dies, who cares just as long as the doctor gets paid and they have abided by the guidelines required by the medical mainstream.

"The greatest lie ever told is that vaccines are safe and effective."

- Dr. Len Horowitz

Did you know, or did your friendly pediatrician tell you, that, according to research that was presented at the 105th International Conference of the American Thoracic Society in San Diego, children who get the flu vaccine are more at risk for hospitalization than their peers who do not get the vaccine? <sup>[2]</sup>

"Murder or Bad Vaccine" was the title of a chilling article from the September 2000 issue of Redbook magazine. In this startling feature, several fathers were accused of shaking their babies, when, in fact, a vaccine had caused a reaction that caused the children to have problems.

In one such case, an anesthesiologist was convicted and is serving a jail sentence for killing his child even though many experts have shown that the brain hemorrhage suffered by his baby was the result of a "hot lot" of bad vaccine.

These are the terrorists I wrote about in my free e-book The Terror of Pediatric Medicine and Humane Pediatrics because I love children, especially my own. It was a shame that Fukushima exploded the same week I launched Humane Pediatrics for it kind of got lost in the shuffle.

It is my love of children and the vaccine question that brought me back to the world of medicine to struggle with the forces that dominate the medical field with ignorance and terrorism.

Vaccines Cause Cancer & Other Diseases

The steady escalation in the number of vaccines administered has been followed by a rise in the incidence of autoimmune diseases, rheumatoid arthritis
subacute lupus erythematosus
psoriasis
multiple sclerosis
asthma,
...seen in children.

While there is a genetic transmission of some of these diseases, many are probably due to the injury from,
foreign protein particles
mercury
aluminum formaldehyde,
and other toxic agents contained in vaccines.

In the early 1900s an astute Indiana physician, Dr. W B. Clarke, stated, “Cancer was practically unknown until compulsory vaccination with cowpox vaccine began to be introduced. I have had to deal with 200 cases of cancer, and I never saw a case of cancer in an unvaccinated person.”

The U.S. National Institutes of Health (NIH) said that the strong-smelling chemical formaldehyde causes cancer.

The NIH said that people with higher measures of exposure to formaldehyde are at increased risk for certain types of cancers.<sup>[3]</sup>

Conclusion

In the first court award in a vaccine-autism claim the family of Hannah Poling received more than $1.5 million for her care, lost earnings, and pain and suffering for the first year alone.

In addition to the first year, the family will receive more than $500,000 per year to pay for Hannah's care. In 2002, Hannah's parents filed an autism claim in federal vaccine court. Five years later, the government settled the case before trial and had it sealed.

Hannah was described as normal, happy and precocious in her first 18 months of life.

Then, in July 2000, she was vaccinated against nine diseases in one doctor's visit:

measles

Haemophilus influenzae

Afterward, her health declined rapidly.

She developed high fevers, stopped eating, didn't respond when spoken to, and began showing all the signs of autism.

In terms of society and government the pediatricians who destroy the lives of children like Hannah and who contribute to deaths of kids like Chris and a host of others are held up in high esteem and given BMWs to show our gratitude for services rendered.

I am introducing a new form of medicine and cancer treatment that has its applications for the vaccine-injured as well as for parents who are awake and smart enough to avoid vaccines altogether. Natural Allopathic Medicine's protocol substitutes potent nutritional medicinals for vaccines, keeping children much healthier than children who are brought before the needle kicking and screaming.

In my protocol are also recommendations for those who have already succumbed to vaccines, in order to protect the child from vaccine damages.

What unsuspecting parents are corralled into is not that much different from captured slaves being led up to the top of Aztec pyramids to have their hearts ripped out. In this case they are held and dragged into pediatricians' offices to be chemically raped by smiling nurses and technicians who have not the slightest idea of the harm they are placing on the children.

The doctors know better; they are legally required by law to know about the risks, so I wonder why they are not held accountable to the highest standards of personal and professional conduct and tried and sentenced severely for this criminal behavior against the young. But this is taboo territory! This professional style of terrorism is never condemned but is instead accepted as the standard of care!

Sometimes it results in death, but most often it sets up a lifetime of suffering for the child who has to face autism or some other debilitating disease that is CAUSED BY VACCINES.

Of course every member of the child's family is severely impacted in these situations.

In the name of all that is holy and beautiful in heaven I condemn anyone responsible for such devastation to children and their families. There will be no rest for them in heaven and they will be pressed for eternity with their dirty and damning deeds.
