

Prince Charles and the Globalists Set Meeting for September to Plot How to Accelerate Goals of U.N. Agenda 2030 and the Complete Digitization of Humanity

Part 4

For those of you who wish to know more about recent events of the coronation of Prince Charles of Wales, you can view a recent presentation between Timothy Huckabee, aka Timothy Cohen and the host of "A Minute to Midnight" with Tony Koretz located in New Zealand. The interview covered a great amount of detail that Antichrist watchers will find interesting, some covered previously and some recent details heretofore not noted.

The link to the program noted above is <https://youtu.be/1WzUi2SzkF4> I encourage anyone wanting to know how close we are to the Rapture to view this recent interview posted in this past week. Tim Cohen goes into many of the subtle and obscure satanic trappings of the Coronation event. As thorough as Tim Cohen is, he rarely misses the finer details that communicate the hidden symbolism and meanings of who Prince Charles really is. Tim Cohen is so observant as to pick up on nuances and hidden meanings most of the world would miss.

Charles claimed his kingship based upon Jeremiah 33:14 and following verses. Prince Charles has asserted that he is the king of Israel asserting it comes by Divine Right of Kings. This is a bold statement beyond your imagination. One can simply claim to be a king or one can claim public support of acclamation as a king; however to claim it is by Divine Right is by God! As I have stated, Charles is wasting no time in launching his reign of power. Within days Charles issued a Crown Paper! The formal document "Command of the King" was to call for the institution of a "cashless" or digital money system! It expressed an institution of a CBDC "Central Bank Digital Currency". With its institution a "dual" system is to be put into place, with cash being used only for smaller transactions and the digital money to be used for large purchases. This Crown Paper document is an official command to financial institutions to begin compliance. The formal Crown Paper by the new king goes so far as to state that he has the authority to suspend all cash transactions.

This is found in Revelation 13:16-17. A few years ago Dr. David Reagan had as a guest on his TV program "Lamb & Lion" Mark Hitchcock. Here is the transcript of that program below. Mark Hitchcock along with Arnold Fruchtenbaum were two who believed that the Antichrist would be assassinated; I shared their reasons and my thoughts as well in what may be my last Blessed Hope segments a week ago.

"Will the world soon become entirely cashless?"

Our special guest on Christ in Prophecy, Dr. Mark Hitchcock, answers that amazing prophetic question. Mark was a lawyer who felt called by the Lord to give up his legal career and enter into full-time ministry, so he enrolled in Dallas Theological Seminary. Since 1991, he has been the Senior Pastor of Faith Bible Church in Edmond, Oklahoma. Mark's published many books related to Bible prophecy, including one of his best titled The Amazing Claims of Bible Prophecy: What You Need to Know in These Uncertain Times.

Mark has written another whole book on the coming cashless society. For years he has been warning us that cell phones will most likely play a part in the Mark of the Beast. He points out that people today just can't live without their cell phones. People are buying now solely via their mobile devices. Society is leaving cash behind. But, does that mean that in the end times the Bible predicts the world will go entirely cashless?

Moving to an Entirely Cashless Society

Mark Hitchcock: Bear in mind the Bible never directly says the world is going to become a cashless society. But, there are clues. The entry point for this idea can be found in Revelation 13. This chapter talks about a Beast, who is also called the Antichrist, and he will become the final human world ruler. The chapter reveals that no one under his rule will be able to buy or sell unless they take his mark, which is either his name or number involving 666 placed on their right hand or forehead.

Stop and think about that fact for a moment. If there's cash, people will be able to purchase on the black market. The only way a person could control all of global commerce is by instituting some sort of cashless society. I think since the Antichrist is going to control world commerce, that indicates to us that he's going to be able to control it through a cashless system.

And, that's basically where we are going. Literally everybody I know under 30 doesn't ever carry money. I'll be buying gas, and I pay cash for everything, but look over and they'll be buying something that is just $3, but they don't have cash for it. So, it's interesting with the younger generation, that's the way they purchase. Millennials are already cashless really in many ways.

Many very practical reasons exist for going cashless. For one, electronic cash prevents counterfeiting. Just think of all the disease that comes from handling money. Without cash the government can dry up the funding for the drug trade. So, there's all kinds of logical reasons for going cashless.

The main reason the world will become cashless is because it allows one man to control the entire world's economy. Nobody can buy or sell unless they give homage to the Antichrist. To control people, he's going to have to institute some type of electronic system in order to control their money, and therefore their basic necessities. And again, that system is the very system we today are moving towards, and moving towards very, very rapidly.

Many people speculate that the Mark could either involve a microchip, or a tattoo, or both. A tattoo would make sense because the Apostle John could see it in order to describe it. The Mark was visibly on the skin, rather than in the skin. Tied to an electronic system, the Antichrist then could cut off people's money supply with just the push of a button, and that person would starve. A cashless system almost guarantees obedience. Today we live in such a time period when the technology is there to actually make this Mark happen.

How would the Mark system work? With phones possibly. Your phone even now is your gateway to ecommerce. Your thumb print can go along with that for security, or something else that identifies you, such as an iris scan. Biometrics help make sure that the person who's got the phone is the owner. Now almost everything can be done from a smart phone.

I remember years ago when I was traveling on Southwest Airlines for the first time. Southwest Airlines boasted they had become cashless. Cashless is where all facets of society are definitely headed.

Again, the Bible never says there is going to be a cashless society, but it says one man is going to dominate and rule over the entire world economy, and no one can buy or sell without taking his mark. I think that situation mandates some kind of a system that can be utterly controlled. And, it's not even hard to imagine, for we are seeing this very thing happening right before our very eyes.

The Mark of the Beast Today

But, I can assure people that there is no way that they can take the Mark of the Beast today? So many people are terrified that they might accidentally get chipped and take the Mark of the Beast. Nobody has to worry about accidentally taking the Mark of the Beast, because, first of all, we're not in the Tribulation period yet. The Antichrist is not here ruling. We don't even know who the Antichrist is.

Another thing is, people when they take the Mark of the Beast will only be accepting it voluntarily. By taking it, they are going to be giving homage to the Antichrist. So, nobody can accidentally take the Mark of the Beast. And, nothing today is the Mark of the Beast, because the Antichrist isn't here yet. We're not living in the Tribulation period. We just cannot take the Mark at this time, either on purpose or accidentally.

Think about how good technology has been for mankind. Technology isn't inherently evil. Technology isn't evil, it is just how it's going to be applied in the future for ill purposes that technology becomes a problem. Even a national ID card would provide convenience. We shouldn't be paranoid thinking that every technology that comes along is leading to the Mark. No technology we see today is the Mark of the Beast, so people can relax about it.

So, please, don't be worried about accidentally taking the Mark of the Beast, because you can't. The Mark won't even be instituted until the middle of the Tribulation, halfway in, and Christians will be raptured out long beforehand.

Our information today has dated the remarks of Mark Hitchcock, especially since the Gates ID2020 was unveiled just before the hoaxed Covid-19 pandemic. Anthony Patch, editor of 'Entangled' magazine is of the view that the Covid-19 vaxxes are the precursor of the Mark of the Beast. Since few people understand the mRNA technology, how it works, what it does, and that there is no way of turning it off have been left to draw their own conclusions. Anthony Patch addressed this very subject in his article, linked at: Project Rooftop by Anthony Patch posted on this web page on 11/05/22.

There is an earlier segment by Anthony Patch which is linked here below posted on 12/29/2020: Project Rooftop -- Updated There is a second passage of Scripture in Revelation 14:11 that suggests the vaxxes are connected in ways heretofore not understood or unclear. At this point in time, we are seeing death rates of six sigma levels around the world. The World Health Organization has said 20-million have died and countless millions have been injured through the vax program and repeated boosters. Wall Street analyst Edward Dowd has testified before government committees how those vaxxed have died in his book 'Cause Unknown'.

The above two articles on Project Rooftop by Anthony Patch contains most everything one would want to know concerning its relationship to the Mark of the Beast. We can at least conclude the vaxxines contain a pre-cursor aspect element that becomes a requirement to be part of the Bill Gates biometric system making up the Quantum Dot Vaccine Mark or ID2020.

Keep in mind that Bill Gates was knighted by then Prince Charles for his service to the Crown! What Charles is now doing is executing a long-ago plan to enslave humanity. The hoaxed plandemic was a "bioweapon" with multiple objectives and through multiple vectors using a variety of pathogens intended to be administered through injection, ingestion, or inhaled mRNA nano-particles that kill, harm, maim those receiving the pathogens. Studies have shown not everyone received the "kill shots", many received placebos. The lethal and harmful vaxxes vials were randomly distributed across the county and world-wide to further confuse anyone pursuing criminal investigation.

As Tim Cohen stated in his interview with Tony Koretz linked at page 1 above, Prince Charles has been controlling world events from behind the curtains since 1969. Charles has to know that he is the anti-Messiah of Revelation 13. He had a significant role in everything heretofore including the coronation event itself. By his claim of Divine Right of Kings based upon Jeremiah 33:21, Prince Charles claimed exclusivity to himself what God has reserved for the true Messiah, Jesus Christ. God has revealed to the world exactly who the nemesis of Jesus Christ will be.

With the added information here, I am convinced that the Rapture of Bible-believing Christians is but days to weeks away. Please share this added new information and that the door to salvation is only open for a short while longer. Today is the Day of Salvation!

Blessings,
