

The Inspired Word of God

Chapter 18

Norm J. Patriquin authored the book 'The Bible's Redemption Pattern and Numeric Map', which approaches the structure of Scripture and reveals that the Bible is built upon a numerical pattern. Interestingly, Mr. Patriquin has a background in computer programming, and I understand, was a computer software executive. Here is what he says about "seven":

#7

Becoming Complete, The Good Shepherd teaches and Guides us, conflict, adultery, turning away and turning back.

God's Shepherding Process--We have accepted Jesus as our Lord and Savior and now are ready to begin a new life in the land He has prepared for us. It is our responsibility to go forward with Him to cleanse the land by "...tearing down altars, smashing sacred pillars, destroying idols, and burning graven images with fire. Of course, for us this is not literal but refers to equivalent things in our minds, hearts, and lives. "The LORD your God will clear away these nations before you little by little; you will not be able to put an end to them quickly..." -(Deuteronomy 7:22). In this seventh step, we have arrived, having chosen to be one of God's children, making him our heavenly Father. In 2nd Samuel 7:14, we see that God promises when we make the decision to be His, He will be faithful to discipline, guide, and otherwise shepherd us to the right paths. This shepherding process will guide us to finally arrive at eight—being a Godly servant.

Things often found associated with "seven":

- shepherding, teaching
- sanctification, light
- adultery, turning away, turning back
- discipline, discipleship
- provoking, arguing, departing
- confession, forgiveness
- corrupt, fools, knowledge
- refuge
- preaching, witness, testimony
- asking, receiving, seeking, finding

Example verses:

ADULTERY, TURNING AWAY, UNFAITHFULNESS:

The number “seven” speaks either of God drawing us to Him for sanctification, or of us turning away from Him in adultery.

Judges 3:7 “The sons of Israel did what was evil in the sight of the LORD, and forgot the LORD their God and served the Baals and the Asheroth.”

AFFLICTION, CONSEQUENCES, DISCIPLINE:

When we turn away from our perfect Father, He uses the consequences for our actions to turn us back to Him. Or He might intentionally provide trials, tests, or other problems designed to cause us pain to provoke our turn back to Him.

2 Corinthians 7:10 “For the sorrow that is according to the will of God produces a repentance without regret, leading to salvation....”

DESTROYING THE WICKED AND SAVING THE REMNANT:

The best-known event related to “seven” is the great flood of Genesis 7, when Noah and seven others were saved, with all the animals on the earth to one day serve God again. While our goal of the seventh step is sanctification and godliness, it is also a time when the unfaithful will fall away and even be destroyed.

Genesis 7:10 says, “It came about after the seven days, that the water of the flood came upon the earth.”

CONSECRATION, SANCTIFICATION, SACRIFICE, ATONEMENT:

Isaiah 6:7 is the 17,777th verse, and it confirms that when we seek God as our Father, our sins are immediately forgiven (sixth step), and we then become His child whom He loves, cares for, and guides to becoming complete through His guidance and discipline:

Isaiah 6:7 “Behold, this has touched your lips; and your iniquity is taken away and your sin is forgiven.”

SEVEN IN CONFESSION AND ADMITTING UNWORTHINESS:

When we humbly come to the Lord, confessing our sins, admitting our unworthiness, He immediately responds. Confession is a necessary part of receiving healing.

Micah 7:1 “Woe is me! For I am like the fruit pickers, like the grape gatherers. There is not a cluster of grapes to eat”;

Luke 7:7 “...for this reason I did not even consider myself worthy to come to You, but just say the word, and my servant will be healed.”

SEVEN IN THE GOOD SHEPHERD:

The Lord desires to be our Father and teach us His ways.

Jeremiah 24:7 “I will give them a heart to know Me, for I am the LORD; and they will be My people, and I will be their God, for they will return to Me with their whole heart.”

SEVEN IN OBEDIENCE AND COURAGE:

God commands us to follow Him and be courageous in our actions as He is with us as we go.

Joshua 1:7 “Only be strong and very courageous; be careful to do according to all the law which Moses My servant commanded you; do not turn from it to the right or to the left, so that you may have success wherever you go.”

Quoting Mr. Patriquin, “Everything we know about how the Bible was created tells us the Bible's structure (book, chapter, and verse organization) was done for man's convenience. The Bible could not possibly be divinely numbered. I told myself the same thing over a couple of years until the evidence simply overwhelmed my ability to deny the perfection any longer. If you can bring yourself to discern the evidence for yourself, at first you will not be able to take it in -- but as you see more & more examples, the perfection of numbers and the preponderance of how biblical numbers line up with the text will eventually convince you the only way it could exist is if God Himself made it happen. How could this discovery remain hidden for more than 2000 years? I'm convinced it is because God designed it for this point in history and kept it hidden until He wanted it revealed.”

Nothing is impossible with God... Jeremiah 32:27: “Behold, I am the LORD, the God of all flesh; is anything too difficult for Me?” Why would you doubt anything that God has to say in the King James Bible. Note in Mr. Patriquin's words above, that he recognizes the point that I have stressed, God anticipated our day and the need to present evidence so powerful specifically relating to God's self-authenticating capabilities through the “Heptadic” Design Feature.

There Are Fourteen (7 x 2) Assassinations-Kings and Queens

1. Servants slew Ishbosheth -(2nd Samuel 4).
2. Baasha slew Nadab -(1st Kings 15:27-28).
3. Zimri slew Elah -(1st Kings 16:8-10).
4. Omri slew Tibni -(1st Kings 16:21-22).
5. Jehu slew Jehoram -(2nd Kings 9:14-26).
6. Jehu slew Ahaziah -(2nd Kings 9:27-29).
7. Eunuchs at Jehu's command slew queen Jezebel -(2nd Kings 9:30-37).
8. Captians slew Athaliah -(2nd Kings 11:13-16).
9. Servants slew Joash -(2nd Kings 12:19-21).
10. Servants slew Amaziah -(2nd Kings 14:17-20).
11. Shallum slew Zachariah -(2nd Kings 15:10).
12. Menahem slew Shallum -(2nd Kings 15:14).
13. Pekah slew Pekahiah -(2nd Kings 15:25).
14. Hoshea slew Pekah -(2nd Kings 15:30).

It is interesting that only one king and one queen of Judah were killed by conspirators. Another, Ahaziah, happened to be in Israel when Jehu assassinated Jehoram, king of Israel; Ahaziah also was killed. The others were murdered by conspirators who wanted the throne for themselves for one reason or another. One king of Israel committed suicide because conspirators had him trapped and would have killed him -(1st Kings 16:18). This is another indication of the utter wickedness of Israel compared to Judah, during the time of the division of the kingdom. And yet, some today contend that God cut Judah off, but not Israel, and that Israel is now enjoying the covenants and blessings exclusive of Judah. On the basis of wickedness, it was Israel that was cut off as a nation even until now; but Judah survived and was restored. Thus it will be in the future - Judah along with the ten tribes will be restored again under the Messiah. Acts 15:13-18 verifies this, speaking of David and his kingdom of Judah in particular, not the ten tribes-although they will be included, according to all the prophets.

This segment of this series will largely be categories of “hidden sevens”, or elements and facts that are not readily apparent to the reader of the Bible without considerable effort made through the process of gleaning deeper details of the Biblical text or narrative. Although most will have Scriptural references, there are some without such references. In such cases, they are “givens” related to the topic at hand.

Twenty-Eight (7 x 4) Things to Happen to Judah

1.	The Lord will make the land of Judah empty, or depopulate Judah (Isaiah 24:1; 24:3); but not completely, for in 24:13-15; 26:1; 26:6; 26:20-21; and 27:12-13, we see that a remnant will be left in the land. “Empty” is from the Hebrew: “baqaq” (H1238) , “to pour” ; “to depopulate” ; “to spread out” . Here it means the majority will be destroyed, fulfilling Zechariah 13:8-9 (cp. Jeremiah 51:2; Nahum 2:2). In this same verse -(24:1), it is explained that men are to be scattered on the earth.
2.	He will make it waste -(Isaiah 24:1). Hebrew: “balaq” (H1110) , “to make waste” ; “destroy” (cp. Nahum 2:10). Again, we must understand this in a limited sense, for in the same prophecy, Isaiah refers to trees and vegetable life as well as to men immediately following this, in the Millennium -(Isaiah 35:1-10; Isaiah 65:20-65).
3.	He will turn it upside down -(Isaiah 24:1). This is the third figurative term and means changing the face of the earth or changing things on the earth -(cp. 29:16; Psalm 146:9; Acts 17:6).
4.	He will scatter abroad the inhabitants -(Isaiah 24:1). This explains in what sense He will make the earth empty. Many will be killed, and others will be scattered abroad -(Revelation 12:6; 12:14), but a few will be left -(Isaiah 24:6; 24:13-14).
5.	The land will be utterly empty -(Isaiah 24:3). See point 1, above.
6.	It will be utterly spoiled -(Isaiah 24:3). See point 2, above.
7.	The earth will mourn and fade away -(Isaiah 24:4).
8.	The inhabitants will languish and fade away -(Isaiah 24:4). Both of these ideas (in points 7 and 8) refer to the land failing in production and the people losing heart because of the calamities coming upon them.
9.	The proud people in the land will languish.
10.	It will be defiled by the inhabitants --(Isaiah 24:5).
11.	It will be devoured -(Isaiah 24:6).
12.	The inhabitants will be desolate.
13.	The inhabitants will be burned (literally, destroyed, distressed). If literal, it could only refer to 2 nd Peter 3:6-13; Revelation 20:7-10.
14.	Few men will be left in it.
15.	The new wine will mourn because there will be no people left to drink it -(Isaiah 24:7).
16.	The vine will languish because there will be no men to cultivate and prune it.
17.	The merryhearted will sigh.
18.	Mirth of music will cease -(Isaiah 24:8).
19.	The noise of merry-makers will come to an end.
20.	The joy of the harp will come to an end.
21.	There will be no more drinking and singing -(Isaiah 24:9).
22.	Even the few that are left to drink strong drink will hate it.
23.	Jerusalem will be in confusion and be broken down by the enemy -(Isaiah 24:10).
24.	All houses will be shut up for fear of the enemy in the streets.
25.	There will be crying for wine to give relief in misery -(Isaiah 24:11).
26.	All joy will be gone.
27.	There will be no more merry-making in the streets or land.

28. Jerusalem will be left desolate and the gates broken down -(Isaiah 24:12).

22. The earth shall be as a chased roe, and as a sheep no man takes up -(Isaiah 13:14).
23. Every man shall turn to his own people, and flee to his own land.
24. Everyone that is found shall be thrust through -(Isaiah 13:15).
25. Every group that is joined together shall fall by the sword.
26. Their children shall be dashed to pieces before their eyes -(Isaiah 13:16).
27. Their houses shall be spoiled.
28. Their wives shall be ravished.

19. Aaron waved wave offering before God -(Leviticus 9:21).
20. Aaron lifted up his hand toward the people and blessed them -(Leviticus 9:22).
21. Aaron came down from the altar.

As these first three examples of “hidden sevens” show, they are easily overlooked in the reading of the Biblical text. That said, their existence clearly reveals the finger of God behind the larger story and the self-authentication feature of the Creator at work in the Holy Bible.

Twenty-One Proofs of Physical Resurrection

1.	Behold My hands and My feet -(Luke 24:39).
2.	It is I Myself, not another and a different person -(Luke 24:39).

3.	Handle Me, and see -(Luke 24:39).
4.	A spirit hath not flesh and bones, as you see Me have -(Luke 24:39).
5.	He showed them His hands and His feet -(Luke 24:40; John 20:20).
6.	He took fish and honeycomb and did eat before them -(Luke 24:41-43).
7.	He is risen -(Matthew 28:6-7; Mark 16:6). What is risen? It could not be His soul and spirit for they did not die. They went into hell to preach and carry on work -(Psalm 16:10; Luke 23:43; Ephesians 4:8-10; 1 st Peter 3:9; Hebrews 2:14-15). His body is the only thing that died -(James 2:26) and the only thing that could have been resurrected -(Luke 24:39; Zechariah 13:6; Acts 1:11).
8.	They held Him by the feet -(Matthew 28:9; Luke 24:39-40).
9.	They saw Him -(Matthew 28:17; John 20:19-20).
10.	They found not the body -(Luke 24:3; 24:23). Why? Because it was resurrected -(Luke 24:39-43).
11.	Why seek you the living (body) among the dead bodies -(Luke 24:5-6; James 2:26)? Did they go to the tomb seeking a spirit to embalm, or was it the body they sought? Then it was the body that was risen from the dead.
12.	Jesus Himself drew near ... He sat to eat with them ... they knew Him -(Luke 24:15; 24:30-31).
13.	Angels said He was alive -(Luke 24:23; Matthew 28:6-7; Mark 16:6).
14.	Jesus Himself stood in the midst of them -(Luke 24:36; John 20:19). What was it that stood in their midst? They thought it was a spirit -(Luke 24:37), but Jesus assured them that it was not a spirit. It was His own body that had been with them for years -(24:39-43).
15.	It was necessary for Christ to be crucified and to rise from the dead -(Luke 24:46). What was it that was crucified? The same thing that rose from the dead.
16.	He lifted up His hands ... He was parted from them, and carried into heaven -(Luke 24:50-51). Whose hands were these? Were they the hands of a spirit? What was it that was separated from them and taken to heaven? If it was not a spirit, as He said -(24:37-43), then it was His body.
17.	They have taken away the Lord out of the sepulchre ... For as yet they knew not the Scripture, that He must rise from the dead -(John 20:2; 20:9). The missing body made no less than twelve appearances to hundreds of witnesses (John 21:14). It was not taken away. It was resurrected and is alive today at the right hand of God -(Mark 16:19; Acts 2:33; Romans 8:34; Hebrews 1:3; 12:2).
18.	Except I shall see in His hands the print of the nails, and put my finger into the print of the nails, and thrust my hand into His side, I will not believe. Thomas had opportunity eight days later, proving His body was literally resurrected -(John 20:25-29; Luke 24:37-43).
19.	In all resurrections, the bodies were made alive again, not the souls -(1 st Kings 17:17-24; 2 nd Kings 4:18-37; 13:21; John 11; etc.). To argue that Christ's body is the only One never to be resurrected is extreme rebellion, for many scriptures say it was raised -(Acts 2:31; 4:33; Romans 1:4; 1 st Peter 3:21; etc.).
20.	One shall say unto Him in eternity, "What are these wounds in thine hands? Then, He shall answer, Those with which I was wounded in the house of my friends" -(Zechariah 13:6).
21.	He was buried ... He arose again -(1 st Corinthians 15:1-58). In this passage, it is clear that anyone who does not believe in the physical resurrection of Christ will be lost.
