

OMICRON: AN OBVIOUS HOAX & GLOBAL PSYOP

What better way to perpetuate the highly organized and premeditated Covid Plandemic than to roll out a never-ending series of COVID-19 variants, strains and mutants.

What follows is the “OMICRON” global psyop explained by one very revealing graphic.

KEY POINT: There are always multiple objectives behind the launching of any bioweapon such as the Covid “Nu” Variant (PANGO lineage B.1.1.529). However, there is one purpose for this holiday season release which reigns supreme in the minds of the NWO globalist perpetrators: they needed a plausible reason for the rapidly increasing number of deaths, cases of disease, hospitalizations and serious injuries CAUSED DIRECTLY BY THE WEAPONIZED COVID VACCINES. Fool us once, shame on you!

*Fool us twice,
shame on me!*

My AOL censor is back to work again after a Thanksgiving family dinner, whoever he or she is. What I am including with this article is the history of Polio and the vaccine that later was discovered to be laced with SV-40, a monkey virus that contained cancer causing pathogens leading to premature deaths of millions. Upwards of 70-million American school children were given the Salk and Sabin polio vaccines between 1954 and 1962. Keep in mind that Jonas Salk was an Eugenicist who along with Margaret Sanger of Planned Parenthood were secretly working to rid the world of those they saw through what we know as selective procreation can lead to the “gradual improvement” of the human race and that certain families are fit to lead society by virtue of their “superior” genes.

The SV-40 laced vaccines did not become known until the 1990's, nearly 40 years after the fact.

The Eugenics movement promoted selective mating, artificial insemination, and compulsory sterilization and euthanasia as important means of weeding out so-called "inferior" and "undesirable" populations.

POLIO is a man-made disease caused by heavy metals exposure, not a virus... the entire history of polio and vaccines was fabricated.

A common retort from vaccine advocates whenever healthy skepticism is expressed against vaccination is that were it not for the jabs, we would still be dealing with epidemics of things like polio. But is this actually true?

Forrest Maready, author of the book The Moth in the Iron Lung: A Biography of Polio, tells a much different story about polio that suggests it is not actually a contagious virus that can be vaccinated against, but is rather a set of symptoms caused by environmental contaminants.

While there was no pharmaceutical industry to speak of in 1789, a doctor at that time by the name of Michael Underwood first observed what he described as a “debility of the lower extremities” in children – or what many today would refer to as polio. Not knowing what it was, Underwood chalked it up to teething and foul bowels.

Several decades later, the situation worsened with increasingly more children developing this strange paralysis, usually in their legs. Despite still not knowing what it was, doctors gave it a name: poliomyelitis, with the word polio standing for “grey,” as in grey tissue, and myelitis standing for inflammation of the spinal cord.

“A poliomyelitis was a lesion on your spinal cord,” Maready explains. “You could have more than one of them. But they didn’t know why children had begun developing them, seemingly out of nowhere.”

Scientific tests later linked arsenic, a popular medical ingredient at the time, to paralysis of the hind legs. Mercury, another common metal used in infant teething products, was also linked to the disease.

Throughout most of the 1800s, poliomyelitis would pop up here and there in children but there were no major epidemics of it. Then in the 1890s, the first outbreaks of polio suddenly emerged right around the time that a new arsenate-based pesticide was introduced.

This chemical concoction, which was designed to fight off the gypsy moth, contained both lead and arsenic. It was sprayed all over the Northeast right before the first real epidemics of poliomyelitis first began to emerge in the United States – also, not surprisingly, in the Northeast.

Not only children but also horses, dogs, chickens, pigs and other animals suddenly started to develop similar symptoms and many of them died. The cause? Lesions in their spinal cords caused by, you guessed it: heavy metal-induced poliomyelitis.

“Vaccines” contain heavy metals that cause polio and other diseases

It is important to note that polio as modern medicine defines it does not infect animals. So how, then, did animals “catch” and die from it back in the late 1800s? The answer is that poliomyelitis is a metal toxicity disease, not a contagious viral disease.

Just like there is no such thing as a “covid” virus since SARS-CoV-2 has never actually been isolated, polio has not and cannot be pegged down as a specific infectious disease. Neither of these two illnesses meets Koch’s Postulates, either – meaning they have never been isolated and proven to exist as contagions.

“Koch’s Postulates were some research guidelines that basically stipulated there was a single causative microbe for every disease,” Maready explains.

The fact that polio is not a virus was further confirmed years later when it was discovered that many different things besides arsenic also caused poliomyelitis. One of them is “vaccines,” which we know contain all sorts of viruses, bacteria and other toxic materials that are injected directly into the body, bypassing its defenses.

What this suggests is that seemingly viral illnesses are either injected through vaccines or are caused by environmental pollution. There is no evidence to suggest that either polio or covid is a contagious virus that can be spread through the mouth or nose via airborne particulates.

Even so, the medical consensus is one that seeks to categorize these things as contagious diseases rather than symptoms caused by other factors. This false theory started to gain traction back in the 1800s and has since become the standard by which modern medicine gauges infectious diseases.

It is unfortunate that the practice of medicine went down this wrong path because millions have needlessly suffered, and many have died as a result. With polio, there was always one common denominator that was systematically overlooked as the cause, and that was environmental pesticides.

“I believe ingested pesticides, known to cause cellular membrane dysfunction, created a path directly from the intestines to the bottom of the spinal cord, located directly behind, for the viruses and bacteria to take hold,” Maready says, noting that polio almost always affected young children the worst, and nearly always in the same lower part of their spinal cord right behind their intestines.

“This is why multiple viruses (poliovirus, coxsackievirus, echovirus, etc.) all began paralyzing children around this time. It wasn’t a genetic mutation. It wasn’t sanitation improvements. It was a physical alteration of the gut integrity by pesticides.”

Maready’s thesis also explains why older people are not nearly as at-risk for polio compared to younger children. As a person grows older, the positioning of the spinal cord in relation to the intestines moves apart, decreasing the risk of the gray matter of the spinal cord getting infected and inflamed.

“This is why the injected Salk polio vaccine worked so poorly,” Maready further explains. “It created antibodies for only one of many viruses that could paralyze, and it created antibodies in the blood – a useless defense against an intestinal infection” (you can read the rest of the story on Maready’s Twitter thread).

Polio was largely eliminated once spraying of DDT was eliminated in the early 1960s. It was later banned by the government in 1972. DDT was created to kill the mosquitos during World War II in the South Pacific theater of war. After the war ended, it was used in the spraying of mosquitos. I lived in Pittsburgh as a youth and during the summer I recall city trucks spraying the neighborhood where I lived. The City of Pittsburgh, PA stabled their riding horses two blocks away from where I lived along the Pennsylvania Railroad right of way in Pittsburgh's East Liberty section of the city.

What follows is the “OMICRON” global psyop explained by one very telling graphic.

OMICRON, the new variant, is an anagram for MORONIC.
No. It's not a coincidence.

They're laughing at us as we diaper our faces and line up with our kids for more and more shots of experimental vaccines.

KEY POINT: There are always multiple objectives behind the launching of any new COVID-19 bioweapon such as OMICRON, also known the “Nu” Variant (PANGO lineage B.1.1.529). However, there is one purpose for this holiday season release which reigns supreme in the minds of the NWO globalist perpetrators: they needed a plausible reason for the rapidly increasing number of deaths, cases of disease, hospitalizations and serious injuries CAUSED DIRECTLY BY THE WEAPONIZED COVID VACCINES. See: Covid “Nu” \(Omicron\) variant a COVER STORY for accelerating wave of vaccine deaths \(Video\)

There should be absolutely no doubt about the explicit goals of both OPERATION COVID-19 and the Covid Super Vaccination Agenda at this late date.

First, they released the COVID-19 bioweapon which they deceitfully name SARS-CoV-2*; then, they super-charged that fastidiously bioengineered weapon with the various generations of meticulously weaponized Covid vaccines.

*SARS-CoV-2 is not a coronavirus, or even a virus, as it has never been proven to exist by way of a microbiological laboratory analysis or post mortem examination; nor does its existence comply with the rigorous assessments prescribed by Koch’s postulates. The COVID-19 bioweapon is actually a lab-fabricated synthetic parasite that works in tandem with a highly pernicious and opportunistic pathogenic bacteria that particularly infects the respiratory system.

What's the critical point?

OMICRON is simply the latest variant of the highly sophisticated COVID-19 bioweapon which was bioengineered to mutate in vivo so as to forever plague humanity with new strains.

So what?!

Infectious diseases, including every single named influenza going back to the 1918 Spanish Flu Pandemic, have undergone similar evolutions via both natural and programmed mutation.

However, what the medical authorities and government officials are not telling us is that each successive generation of variants always decreases in severity as the symptom set associated with them becomes less damaging and/or debilitating.

People with the Omicron variant have 'extremely mild' symptoms and haven't had to be hospitalized

Nonetheless, the New World Order globalist cabal has amped up the OMICRON fearmongering to fever pitch.

Fauci, the Fearmonger-in-Chief, has been given strict orders to use OMICRON to shut down the USA — yet again — as just one of many deceptive schemes being executed worldwide in the interest of locking down planet Earth for the entire winter.

In this way, these NWO genocidal manics will implement the same medical mass murdering regime that Governor Andrew Cuomo used to carry out the deliberate “Geriatric Genocide” plan throughout New York State. That’s why he was really removed, quite ignominiously, from office on sexual harassment charges. The other Democrat governors who conducted the very same geriatric genocide in their states had to be protected from exposure by his expeditious removal from office.

Bottom Line: The Covid mass murderers are, once again, looking to take out as many elderly folks, people with multiple co-morbidities, as well as institutionalized patients in nursing homes, ALFs, memory care units and hospitals as possible with OMICRON being used as the pretext. These are the “useless eaters” that The Powers That Be have scathingly talked about for decades. To the power elite, these needful souls are a tremendous drain on the treasury—all national treasuries; and, therefore, they must be genocided post-haste. There’s no room on Earth for those who only consume ‘precious’ resources, according to the predatory Davos crowd who live at the very top of the planetary food chain.

Hence, with the intentional release of OMICRON and subsequent Covid variants, the WEF camarilla is further preparing to roll out the long-planned GREAT RESET.

The 2022/2023 time frame is clearly the identified period for the main event of the GREAT RESET, so OMICRON will likely be grossly misrepresented as the worst phase of this Plandemic—EVER!

In point of fact, there are several highly significant synchronicities lining up, especially throughout 2022, which spell nothing short of: 2022: The Controlled Demolition of Everything.

KEY POINT: The annual administration of a global Covid vaccination regimen is central to the creation of a COVID-1984 New World Order. Toward that end, the globalists will aggressively utilize the OMICRON scare to compel and coerce and con every individual to get vaxxed. Although an extremely mild variant, governments the world over will use this wholly manufactured and baseless panic to order new, and even more draconian, vaccine mandates. Just watch the fearmongering crescendo throughout the winter north of the equator.

Conclusion

While all of the forgoing explanations for this carefully timed Christmas season launch of OMICRON are perilously relevant, there is one hidden motive that cannot be denied.

The Covid crime perps have already crossed every line (and they have gone way over those lines). Their exceedingly brazen, utterly reckless and shamelessly desperate scheme to jab every single person on the planet with a patently poisonous and lethal Covid ‘vaccine’ has backed them into the corner. WITH NO WAY OUT!

In other words, the NWO cabal and all of their Covid crime co-conspirators are in a VERY serious “do or die” situation for the rest of their lifetimes. Either they permanently lock down everyone who is not killed during their incessant biowar against humanity; or, they will face the wrath of every populace on Earth.

Many are even saying and writing that:

Update 1

It should come as no surprise to learn that:

“OMICRON” was a 1963 Italian science fiction film about “an alien taking over the body of a human to learn about planet Earth so his race can take it over”.

Update 2

It's becoming increasingly evident that Omicron was 'first discovered' by a South African physician so that the entire continent of Africa could be punished. This global panic was also engineered so that vaccine-resistant Africans could be fear-mongered into taking the extremely dangerous and deadly Covid injections. After the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation permanently sickened and killed so many Africans over many years with their various vaccination programs (e.g. smallpox vaccines), they are justifiably afraid of any jab. Of course, the harmful Covid shots are now well-known to be the "work of the devil" up and down the African continent. Nevertheless, the globalists have blamed South Africa and several neighbors for OMICRON; and they are already being subjected to various forms of retribution... ..until every citizen is fully vaxxed. See: South Africa Taking an NWO Beating Because of Their Widespread Vaccine Resistance
