

The Poisons of Mystery Babylon And the Jesuit Needle

Part 1

With all the hype about getting vaccinated recently with the alleged Covid Vaxx perhaps we should take a closer look at what the Bible has to say concerning the origins of Pharmacia. Although the New Testament does not say a great deal, what it does reveal is quite significant. I personally believe the Holy Spirit has been leading us to avoid all injections as there has been such a concerted effort since before the flood to deface the image of God in man by hybridizing our DNA and I encourage you to question all things as well! That said, it is my view that folks should be encouraged to trust God over man-made solutions as there is a very dark history behind the bio-pharma industry that I plan to demonstrate how that dark history began and has engulfed humanity like a fog obscuring reality.

The Greek word "pharmakeia" is used in Galatians 5:20. Paul uses the term "witchcraft" (pharmakeia) which is literally translated "sorcery." This term can refer to the use of magic arts of any kind, which was very popular at that time. Acts 19:11-20 speaks of Sceva's sons and the magical documents. It can also refer to witchcraft which involved the use of drugs to harm others. This was a serious offense in Roman law and resulted in severe punishment.

The Greek dictionary defines it as: "witchcraft, magic, the use of spells and potions of magic, often involving drugs – a magic spell". It is a fact that witchcraft and magic in the Greek world of the New Testament era often involved the use of drugs – either by the witch or the one on whom the magic is worked. This word is found a mere 3X times in the New Testament, Galatians 5:21; Revelation 9:21; and Revelation 18:23.

Word Studies:

The family of words from which we get our English word pharmacy is derived from the Greek word pharmakeuō which means “to mix potions or poison.” The term also refers to the practice of dark magic. Thus pharmakeia (also spelled pharmakia) refers to the practice of the arts associated with magic, which in the time of the New Testament involved the use of potions or drugs. In Galatians 5:20 this practice is identified as a work of the flesh. In Revelation 9:21 it is listed among the sins which humanity refuses to repent of - even after the plague of the sixth trumpet. In Revelation 18:23 it refers to the magical arts practiced by the great whore Babylon in her seduction of all the nations of the earth.

In Revelation 9:21, God has done everything possible to cause men to turn to Him. He has sent faithful messengers to warn of impending doom. In one sense, even His judgments are acts of mercy, efforts to dissuade people from continuing their downward course. He does not take pleasure in the death of the wicked. His heart of love grieves over those who reject His call. Sin is a kind of insanity, for only the utterly foolish and demented would persist in a course which will inevitably lead to eternal damnation.

As in Romans 1:24-32, those who turn away from the true God to a false worship soon turn away from righteousness and fall into all kinds of sin and immorality. Thus, those who do not repent of their false worship after the sixth trumpet, the second woe, do not repent of their murders, sorceries, immorality, and thefts either. Murders (willful, deliberate killings of individuals by individuals) apparently are so much on the increase that they characterize this generation. Sorceries probably include not only magic and the occult, but the use of magic potions, drugs, and other poisons as well. The heathen used drugs, especially hallucinatory drugs, to produce a false sense of well-being, as well as a false religious ecstasy. Thus, the Bible uses fornication to include all kinds of false religious practices and satanic deceptions. "Fornication" here includes adultery, homosexuality, and all kinds of immoral sexual practices, whether practiced before or after marriage. Thefts accompany these things, because sooner or later the costs of these sins escalate to other vile crimes.

Revelation 18 gives a description of the fall of Babylon and in verse 23 it gives us the reason why all nations were deceived. This may be shocking for many people. Let's read what the Bible says. Referring to the fall of Babylon, Revelation 18:23 says “And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived.”

By the “sorceries” of Babylon all nations were deceived. The Greek word for “sorceries” in verse 23 is “pharmakeia” [far-mak-i'-ah]. According to the Thayer Greek Dictionary “pharmakeia” is “the use or administering of drugs; poisoning; and sorcery, magical arts, often found in connection with idolatry and fostered by it.” If you put the original Greek word “pharmakeia” in place of the English word “sorceries” the end of verse 23 would say, “For by thy pharmakeia were ALL nations deceived!” “Pharmakeia” is where we get our English word “pharmacy”! Pharmacy is a well-organized and professionalized system that administers poisonous drugs. Today, nearly every grocery chain supermarket has one located within its premises.

John draws our attention to the fact that the rest of mankind did not repent of the works of their hands, that is, man-made objects of worship. Like the Gentiles in Romans 1:21, 22, they persisted in their refusal to glorify the one true God, and they turned to idols. They are hardened rebels who want their own way at any cost. In fact, now that one-third of mankind is killed by this one judgment, they are more hardened than ever.

John specified demons at the head of the list of what people were worshiping, for all heathen worship of gods and goddesses is really the worship of demons -(1st Corinthians 10:20-21; Deuteronomy 32:17). This is true today in the humanistic and oriental philosophies that are spreading across the world. Then, like the Old Testament prophets, John condemned all images or idols that people worship or give homage to, no matter what type of material earthly craftsmen use to make them.

Not only will the sound of music and the sound of workmen never again be heard in the city, the light of a candle (lamp) will never again shine in it. (The Greek here means an oil-burning lamp made of metal or clay; tallow and wax candles were not known in New Testament times. The Bible uses the names of things familiar to John, but it must also be recognized that everything else in the same categories would be included.)

Finally, the voice of the Bridegroom and of the Bride will never again be heard in Babylon. This is an inference which supports the Pre-Tribulation Rapture. The entire list given in verses 22 and 23 draws attention to the fact that not only will Babylon be thrown down and never again be found, everything in it will also come to a total and final end. The reason for Babylon's destruction is summarized by saying, first, that her merchants were the great ones of the earth. Their greatness was not good; rather, it was full of arrogance and pride. The political and economic Babylon of this chapter achieved its domination by controlling the economy and the markets of the world. But now this is at an end. Who controls the economy and markets of the world today? The United States does so through being the “reserve” currency of the world, since the Bretton Woods Agreement of 1945. In 1971, the shift to the “Petro-Dollar” system assumed the role that gold previously had until President Nixon took the U.S. off the “gold standard.” The nation of China is vying to replace the U.S. as the “reserve” of the world economic system. The U.S. is $27+ trillion in debt, growing at about a $billion every minute of the day, 24/7/365!

Is there a connection to these slain and the sorceries (pharmaceuticals) of the whore of Babylon? Could these passages be God's way of warning His people of the potential dangers of pharmaceutical medicines? The Bible warns us to be watchful because Satan comes disguised as an angel of light. Is it possible that pharmaceutical medicine has been disguised as a great benefit and blessing to mankind when in reality it may be a poisonous spell-giving potion that has the potential to be harmful and in some cases, even fatal? If the Bible is true then you would have to draw no other conclusion. God will see to it that the truth comes out and that this "whore of Babylon" who is destroying His people and deceiving the world with her medicines will be punished. Over the past decade, I wrote a series, “The Beast Empire”, a 25-part series, which is archived at <http://jesusisthewaythetruththelife.com/node/> “Mystery, Babylon the Great” is the U.S. and much more!

Second, Babylon is destroyed because by her sorceries were all the nations deceived (see also 18:3). Her sorceries included the use of magic arts, the occult, and drugs. By such means she led astray, deluded, and deceived the nations, that is, the people of the earth. She led them to believe that in wealth, luxury, and sensual pleasures they could find security and fullness of life. This kind of deception has always been a part of heathen religions. Much of it crept into the churches in the Dark Ages. Much of it is being popularized again through philosophies of some modern movements. But none of this is new. It is still the same old Babylon world system that exalts self, as did those who built the tower of Babel (Babylon).

The Bible reveals that Babylon will deceive all nations by the use of pharmacy that is in connection to “magical arts” and idolatry. “Magical arts” has its deep roots in witchcraft and the occult world. We don’t have to do a deep Bible study to know that Satan is directly behind the magical arts and God’s people should have nothing to do with it. Yet today, professed deceived Christian believers today practice and use “magical arts” under the disguise of contemplative prayer, Christian humanism, and spiritual formation. In general those involved in sorcery, witchcraft, and magic are known to use “magic” potions to “heal”, deceive, poison, control, or kill someone. This is an outward expression, a visual agenda of “Depopulation” as confirmed engraved in granite stones of the Georgia Guidestones located in Elberton, GA. The stated goal is to maintain humanity at 500,000,000. The converse of that engraved statement is the genocide of upwards of seven billion people on the planet!

Notice the “great men of the earth” in the last days are no longer Kings and Queens, but now identified as the international “merchants”. The global elite, international bankers and heads of corporations like Apple, Google, Amazon and Microsoft are now the “great men of the earth” and they deceive “all nations” by their “sorceries”.

It certainly seems a spell has been placed upon all nations as economies, small businesses and people are locked down; rights, freedoms and debate are crushed, all while the elite and super rich grow wealthier and more powerful.

Our only hope we are told is to hand over most of our rights and freedoms to the global elite, download a track and trace app so they can control our every movement and then take one of their highly experiential and rushed vaccines or ‘toxins’ as some label them. It seems the medical and pharmaceutical industries have captured all nations as prophesied. Bill Gates has the “Mark” of the Beast ready for humanity. It is called the QuantumDot/Hydrogel ID2020 Luciferace by “the great men of the earth”.

Clearly now we begin to see how this alleged virus has been the backdrop of sorceries being promulgated upon the whole world. Think of Dr. Anthony Fauci and Bill Gates frequent statements that the world will not return to “normal” unless the entire world is vaccinated. Over and over the world was being conditioned to this drum beat that viruses are the demise of humanity. Every aspect was intended to crush the human spirit as a social being and their spiritual being.

Pharmacy mainly uses a mixture of toxic chemicals, metals, and/or synthetic elements to produce “pharmaceuticals” that are designed to manipulate the biochemistry or metabolic functions of the body in an attempt to get a “desired” affect in the treatment of a disease or sickness.

In other words, a pharmacy mixes up different types of poison, package it, patent it, and claims that it can treat certain types of diseases. The main problem with that system is that poison is still poison. Pharmaceutical drugs are poisonous. When poison is put into the body it has negative effects on the entire body system from head to toe. These are not just “side effects” or “unintended” sicknesses or diseases that a person suffers as a result of using a drug. These are “direct effects” because the reality is that drugs have direct effects on the entire body system including the brain. When you go back to Revelation 18:23, Jesus uses the Greek word “pharmakeia” to awaken us to the main thing that will be used to deceive ALL people in the last days is a well-organized system of administering poisonous drugs to billions of people that are not only toxic to the organs of the human body, but have direct negative effects on the brain. Many of these drugs are used for a variety of reasons are known to cause problems with memory, mood, and contribute to negative personality changes. For our purpose here, as to who began it is really insignificant, we know it to be of the Prince of the air, Satan, noted in Ephesians 2:2 states: “Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:”

Who is the main one behind the system of pharmacy and the administering of poisonous drugs that Babylon uses to deceive all nations? A logo or symbol reveals the values and the purpose of a business, organization, or professional occupation. They use a logo or symbol as an identifying “mark” to the world. In other words, that logo makes a direct link to a business or occupation. When a person thinks of the yellow and red “double-arch” they immediately think of McDonald’s “happy meals”. The symbols and logos of modern medicine clearly reveal who is behind the scenes orchestrating the whole system of the administering of poisonous drugs that manipulate the bodies and minds of billions of people around the world. Let’s just look at three recognizable symbols and unmask the truth!

The symbol in Figure A is the international symbol for pharmacy known as the “Bowl of Hygieia.” Who is Hygieia you ask? Hygieia comes from Greek mythology. Mythology is the study of myths, or lies and pagan false gods. In other words, though it is not true, millions worship it as if it is true. Who is the father of lies? Lucifer or Satan. According to Greek pagan worship, Hygieia was the goddess of health and hygiene, the daughter of Aesculapius. He is the god of medicine, healing, and physicians.

Ettie Rosenberg, a doctor in pharmacology and attorney describes the meaning of the Bowl of Hygieia. She says, “The ‘Bowl of Hygieia’ symbol is the most widely recognized international symbol of pharmacy. In Greek mythology, Hygieia was the daughter and assistant of Aesculapius, the God of Medicine and Healing. Hygieia’s classical symbol was a bowl containing a medicinal potion with the serpent of Wisdom (or guardianship) partaking it. This is the same serpent of Wisdom, which appears on the caduceus, the staff of Aesculapius, which is the symbol of medicine.” – Ettie Rosenberg, Pharm.D., Esq. That symbol can be seen in emblazoned blue on every EMS vehicle.

Figure B on the next page is a picture of the statue of Hygieia. Notice the serpent drinking the magic potion from the “bowl of wisdom”. In Genesis 3:1-14, Satan, known as the serpent, used a serpent to deceive Eve. Verse 1 reveals that this serpent was “more subtle” meaning that it was thin or very light, not dense or gross, but smooth and refined in order to accomplish its deceptive purpose.

Figure B

In verse 6, Eve believed the serpent's subtle lies. Thinking that she could become wise, Eve disobeyed God by eating from the tree that God said not to eat from. In verse 13 after eating the fruit from the forbidden tree, Eve acknowledged that the serpent deceived her. When a person is deceived, we must ask the question, are they aware of it? According to Webster's dictionary to deceive means "to cause to believe what is false." So when people are deceived, they really do believe the lie. Perception becomes their reality. Notice how Satan used the serpent to deceive Eve so she would believe the lie. This serpent drinking from the "bowl of wisdom" is from Satan. It represents the deceptive character of Satan that is still deceiving people today. Should God's people have anything to do with this deception?

Near the latter days of Jesus physical ministry, He spoke more about this issue of deception than any other issue. Knowing what the world would turn into, He repeatedly warned us about the presence of deception. We are seeing a full manifestation of Satan's deception at work all around us today. The media, political figures, academia, financial, military, sports celebrities, are in collusion to mislead the public into taking a Vaxx, which will be their death warrant!

The Internet is heavily censored, and the social media platforms are working on behalf of the Father of Lies! The pharmacy CVS is offering a free trip to the Super Bowl, as an inducement to get Vaxxed. The list of seductive gimmicks has led one Nevada brothel to offer "Lap" dances for the Vaxxed. Krispy Kreme offered donuts, the mayor of New York offered coupons for hamburgers and fries. Kroger is offering at its 2,200 stores and 220 clinics in 35 states, bribes in the way of weekly drawing $1-million for five weeks, and free groceries for a year Kroger Health patients will also have a chance at winning a year's worth of free groceries from Kroger. Ten free-grocery giveaways will happen each week for five weeks, totaling 50 winners. Ask yourself, is this not deception applied by Satan with Eve?

The Rod of Asclepius

The Staff of Hermes

Figure C is known as the Rod of Aesculapius or as the staff of Aesculapius. His rod represents the healing aspects of the art of medicine. Many believers think that this symbol is the same as the serpent of brass that Moses put on a pole, but it is not. The serpent on the rod of Aesculapius is a counterfeit to Moses' bronze serpent on the pole. This counterfeit symbol gives a false message that the serpent is wise and harmless.

Remember, the serpent on the rod of Aesculapius is the same serpent that is drinking from the Bowl of Hygieia. The message that the serpent of this Satanic symbol is also giving is that it is okay to take the poisonous "magic potent" from the bowl. These symbols that are used to represent the professions of pharmacy and medicine are giving a deceptive message from Satan that taking poisonous drugs are beneficial, wise and have the power to heal and not kill. This is a lie! Those who submit to this poisonous counterfeit system will be swept away. You will face between now and the 4th of July pressure like nothing you have ever known or experienced to be Vaxxed!

The latest figure from the European equivalent for VAERS, the CDC agency that records adverse effects from the Vaxx reported 12,164 dead, and 1,196,190 injuries from the experimental "gene" therapy being promoted as a vaccine. The results so far in the U.S. have reached and have likely passed the 5,000 dead count, and more than a quarter-million adverse side effects. The Vaxx makers assure the public they are safe and smile while they lie between their teeth. Even the CDC has resorted to manipulating the statistics, through a number of sleight of hand moves.

Figure D is a statue of Aesculapius with his rod wrapped with the “Snake of Wisdom”. This “Snake of Wisdom” is seen throughout the symbolism of the modern medical profession. It is in the symbol of the American Medical Association, an association that set the standards for physicians and the medical profession in America. It is found in the middle of the logo of the World Health Organization. It is also found on the logos of medical schools, doctor offices, military medical corps and many other medical organizations. A few years ago, I was greatly surprised to learn that less than a third of all U.S. physicians are dues-paying AMA members.

Almost everyone is now taking drugs for one reason or another. There is that vast array sold over-the-counter, plus the daily "coping" varieties of caffeine, nicotine and alcohol, and there's that which finds its way into processed food and drink, which you probably consume several times a day. Then, there's the prescription kind. Most doctors, who are plied by the pharmaceutical companies' sales reps., is more than happy as can be to write prescriptions for every symptom on your list, which meets the expectation of - and even demands of many patients. Every script they right means money rolling into their bank account!

To make the point, here's a 'Reuters' article from August 1, 2017. "More than a third of U.S. adults were on prescribed opioids in 2015."

Some point to this as a great evil because of the greed factor, the vast sums of money involved, and while I wouldn't dispute that, my interest in this study lies elsewhere.

Most folks are casual about drug use because we've been sold the idea that "legal" drugs are for our good, physically, and harmless, spiritually, and that we can trust our lives to the professionals. What I'm going to present may be difficult to accept, but the evidence to the contrary is very convincing indeed. In this study you will discover that there is a much darker agenda than you may have imagined.

Figure E

The next symbol Figure E really sums up who is really behind the poisonous drugging system of Babylon. Figure E is another symbol recognized throughout the medical field, it is known as the "caduceus." A caduceus has two serpents mating around a rod, topped by a pair of wings. The caduceus, also known as a magic wand, belongs to the Greek god Hermes or the Roman god Mercury. These gods are supposed to be the messengers of gods, inventors of magic, communicators to the "dead" and one who protects business and thieves (www.drblayney.com/Asclepius.html). Many in witchcraft and sorcery still use the caduceus for magic and to cast spells. Also the caduceus in sorcery is known to "restrain and control" its victims.

In Greek mythology and the occult world the caduceus had nothing to do with medicine, healing or health. So why has modern medicine adopted the caduceus as their symbol of medicine? Remember its original function and meaning. Who holds the caduceus? The false god of Mercury holds it. What is his claim? Inventor of magic, conductor of the dead, protector of merchants, thieves, and to restrain and control is his claim! Could it be that modern medicine has adopted the caduceus as their symbol of medicine and physicians to PROTECT the merchants of the earth that make billions of dollars poisoning people and to protect the corporate thieves and to control and restrain masses of people? Remember, in the world of the occult, symbols take on esoteric meanings to mask or send dual messages, one to the initiated, and one to the un-initiated. It is part of Satan's use of deception to deceive humanity.

This may shock you. Even though the caduceus had nothing to do with healing or medicine, an officer in the U.S. Army Medical Corps in 1902 insisted to adopt the caduceus as their symbol. Since then others in the medical profession began to adopt the caduceus as a symbol of medicine or physicians.

Let's lift the veil of what the caduceus really means. In the occult world, Satan depicts himself as a goat known as Baphomet with two wings and a caduceus between his crossed legs! Yes, Baphomet has a caduceus between his legs. Look at the pictures in Figure F and compare. Here is the direct link between the poisonous practices of modern medicine through "pharmakeia" and Satan. Satan is behind this drugging system. A caduceus is actually an abbreviated version of Baphomet, Satan himself.

Figure F

Do you think Jesus would ever be a part of this system? NO. Should true Christian believer be a part of this drugging system? NO. This systematic poisoning is of Babylon and God's people need to get out. We need to learn nature's way of healing that God approves of through lifestyle and plant-based eating and herbs. Since the days of Edward Jenner, the Jesuits have perfected their poison needle that it would be perceived as an instrument of healing power through perception and conditioning.

According to the 19th century German philosopher Arthur Schopenhauer, "All truth passes through three stages: First, it is ridiculed. Second, it is violently opposed. Third, it is accepted as self-evident."

The 3 Stages of Truth

The process of acknowledging a truth is broken down into three stages:

1. The first stage is ridicule. When a new idea or concept is brought up, it's so strange that it's completely absurd. People cannot fathom this idea and how it fits into their lives, so they simply laugh at how impossible it seems.

2. The second stage is opposition. After a new concept hasn't made it past the first stage, people begin to worry that it's here to stay. A few might support the concept, but most will resist because they see it as a threat to everything they're familiar with.

3. The third stage is self-evident. There is increasing evidence that supports the idea, which goes from having a few early supporters to entering the mainstream. A majority of people support the fact and come to accept it as a given.

Since the fall of 1996, I became interested in the fact that the bees were dying off around the country. This came simultaneously with the advent of the cell phone. To make this short, I have been studying wireless communication and the effects of wireless energy on all life forms since electricity was initially captured for creature comfort use. With each new application phase, five in total, all life forms have been affected and thus adapted to change. With the introduction of 5G wireless EMF in 2019, we are on the cusp of a technology advancement of which it now appears life form cannot adjust to. In a brief statement, "Technology has surpassed humanity's ability to adapt!" The world is at the precipice of an Extinction Level Event!

I have known since November, 2019, and it was confirmed on March 19, 2020 that 5G wireless communication was directly responsible for the Corona virus scam. 5G has been beamed down from low orbit satellites. The symptoms of Covid are exactly those of 5G energy that is injected into human DNA through what is known as Electroporation. (see chart on page 13) Electroporation is the beaming of millimeter waves of wireless energy straight into the pores of human skin tissue. Electroporation, is a microbiology technique in which an electrical field that is applied to cells in order to increase the permeability of the cell membrane, allowing chemicals, drugs, or DNA to be introduced into the cell (also called electro-transfer). It is used in CRISPR-Cas9 “gene editing or gene therapy.” DNA can be changed, modified, through CRISPR-Cas9 software!

Did you know that the “father” of pharmacology was an occultist? He was a worshiper of Satan! Born as Philippus Aureolus Theophrastus Bombastus von Hohenheim in 1493, he called himself Paracelsus. He was well-known as a Swiss German physician, botanist, alchemist, astrologer, and general occultist. He founded the field of toxicology better known as pharmacy. For hundreds of years physicians used natural herbs and food for healing. Paracelsus defied this notion. From his studies on chemistry and metallurgy with the mix of occult worship and astrology, he theorized that metals such as mercury, lead, tin, copper, and gold could “purify” the body. He believed that the stars and planets were the main cause of human illness and disease.

He believed that ALL diseases should be treated with metals which are poisonous to the body. This was a very radical practice during his time. He treated many diseases with mercury better known as quicksilver. Many physicians who bought into Paracelsus method and used quicksilver (mercury), also known as Quack Salber, were known as “quacks”. This was a very rebellious way of treating the body at the time (Jethro Kloss, Back to Eden, 2nd ed., pp. 52, 53). Many died as a result of Paracelsus way of treatment. At the age of 50 or 51 years old, the story is told that Paracelsus was thrown out the window by other physicians at the time who believed him to be very dangerous in 1541. It is amazing today that Paracelsus is known as the father of modern pharmacy! Where did he get his inspiration? Baphomet, Satan!

John D. Rockefeller using his vast wealth from oil and chemical products and clout set out to establish his allopathic school of medicine. The word “allopathic” comes from the Greek “allos” — meaning “opposite” — and “pathos” — meaning “to suffer.”

Allopathic medicine relies on prescription drugs, radiation, and surgery. Holistic medicine, before John D. Rockefeller, embraced a plethora of health care treatment choices. Jesuits all the way back to Edward Jenner and Louie Pasteur were advocates of the “germ” theory which is rejected by the “terrain” theory.

The illustration contrasts in very simple terms the Rockefeller school of medicine approach in “Germ” theory through vaccination versus the “Terrain” view that clean water, air, food, nutrition will eliminate most pathogens and viruses. The “germ” theory argues that vaccines are the answer to good health. Medicine since 1972 has been about creating customers rather than healing sickness. In 1972, the government permitted advertising of prescription drugs, and medical services.

The United States and New Zealand are the only two countries where direct-to-consumer (DTC) advertising of prescription drugs is legal.

This system of Paracelsus is the foundation in which modern medicine is built. It has killed and poisoned millions of people. Pharmaceutical drugs never cure disease – they only try to manage it by inhibiting pain or manipulating a function in the body that is supposed to happen naturally. In a June, 2010 report in the ‘Journal of General Internal Medicine’, authors said that in looking over records that spanned from 1976 to 2006 they found that out of 62 million death certificates, 25 million deaths were coded as having occurred in a hospital setting due to medication errors. The total number of deaths due to the American modern medical system of drugging, unnecessary surgeries, infections, medical errors, etc., is nearly 800,000 people per year! This is more than people who die from heart disease with over 600,000 deaths per year and cancer with over 500,000 deaths per year.

This system of administering poisonous drugs worldwide is a trillion dollar industry and the medical merchants of the earth profit hugely from it. They love the money it produces and ignore the many lives it destroys. Millions worship the system as an idol.

The “health care” industry today represents 17% of the U.S. Gross National Product and is expected to soon climb to 20%.

Poisonous drugs are NOT a cure for disease. Many who prescribe and administer pharmaceutical drugs will admit it. If drugs cured disease, why are so many who are being treated for diseases prescribed to take drugs until the day they die. This does not sound like a cure but rather a money making hoax.

People need to be taught that drugs do not cure disease. It is true that they sometimes afford present relief, and the patient appears to recover as the result of their use; this is because nature has sufficient vital force to expel the poison and to correct the conditions that caused the disease. Health is recovered in spite of the drug. I know all about pain, having to deal with lymphedema for the past eight years, day in day out!

Exodus 15:26 was popularized in the book, ‘None of These Diseases’ by S.I. McMillen, “If you will diligently listen to the voice of the Lord your God, and do that which is right in his eyes, and give ear to his commandments and keep all his statutes, I will put none of the diseases on you that I put on the Egyptians, for I am the Lord, your healer.”

What message does the Bible give for those in pharmakeia – the poison of Babylon? Galatians 5:20-21 says:

“Idolatry, witchcraft [pharmakeia], hatred, variance, emulations, wrath, strife, seditions, heresies, ²¹Envyings, murders, drunkenness, revellings, and such like: of the which I tell you before, as I have also told you in time past, that they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God.”

The Greek word for “witchcraft” in verse 20 is “pharmakeia”. Those who are in this poisoning drugging business need to repent and turn away from it. If they do not repent they will not inherit the kingdom of God. This is confirmed in the book of Revelation. Revelation 21:8 says, “But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers [pharmakeus = druggist/poisoner], and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.*” The Greek word for sorcerers in verse 8 is “pharmakeus” defined as a druggist or poisoner. This is also repeated in the last chapter of the Bible. Revelation 22:14-15 says, ¹⁴“Blessed are they that do his commandments, that they may have right to the tree of life, and may enter in through the gates into the city. ¹⁵For without are dogs, and sorcerers [pharmakeus = druggist], and whoremongers, and murderers, and idolaters, and whosoever loveth and maketh a lie.”

“Pharmakeia” is an elemental part of “Mystery Babylon”. This is exactly what the Bible predicts that Babylon would use to deceive all nations. You don’t have to be deceived. There is no way to be a part of God’s true people at the end of time and be connected with this system of administering poisonous drugs that manipulate and confuse the mind. This comes from Satan himself. You have seen the evidence. Babylon is fallen, get out before it is too late. It is a broken and poisonous system, “GET OUT” is God’s earnest plea.

The Satanic spirits in Revelation 9 inhabit the very pit of hell, and those who resort to “pharmakaia” are coming into contact with spiritual entities either from the pit, or from realm of darkness beyond this earth. Satan is both the angel of the bottomless pit - (Revelation 9:11) and the prince of the power of the air -(Ephesians 2:2).

These are gateways or portals down to the pit and out into the universe in either case to contact beings from other dimensions. We should note that vaccinations were brought into existence by the Roman Catholic Order of the Jesuits. This largely little known fact has direct relevance to what the world faces from the Coronavirus plandemic. The global powers of the Jesuit Vatican/Rothschild cabal want 70% of the world Vaxxed by July 4th, 2021. You have heard Joe Biden himself on this requirement!

Vaccinations were actually invented by the Jesuit Order by soldier, Francis Xavier as a method to poison the Order’s enemies. Edward Jenner was a Jesuit-trained physician — who taught the medical world how to use the POISONED NEEDLE. Edward Jenner is viewed as the father of vaccinations. He was the first to associate human diseases with that of animals. This idea paved the way for vaccination which is responsible for the deaths of multiplied millions of people around the world. The idea that humans and animals are related and share the same diseases led to the theory of evolution by Charles Darwin at the time of Edward Jenner which is responsible for the spiritual death of multiplied millions more. Some historians believe they were cousins.

Jesuits introduce inoculation from India using Lady Montague as a smokescreen. Lady Montague wasn’t even a doctor. Women doctors did not appear until over 100 years later. In the year 1717, Lady Mary Wortley Montagu was the smokescreen that the Jesuits used to introduce this Indian religious rite into England. Inoculation or variolation was given the sanction of the Royal Family when 2 daughters of the Prince of Wales were inoculated. Barbaric as this religious rite was; it was the human disease of smallpox that was injected into the bloodstream. Inoculation was the FOOT-IN-THE-DOOR to prepare the people for something far worse.

Vaccination came from the Vatican via Great Britain at the exact same time as Darwin’s ‘Evolution of Species’. Coincidence? I do not think so and the history seems to confirm it as well!

In a definition of terms for this exposé: Vaccination and inoculation are often used interchangeably today.

Loyola recorded his methods for ascetic discipline in ‘The Spiritual Disciplines’ of the Society of Jesus. The fruit of these “disciplines” is quite visible today in acolytes such as Pope Francis and Dr. Robert Redfield, the late head of the U.S. CDC and Dr. Anthony Fauci of the U.S. NIAID.

Pope Paul III in 1540 blessed the formation and statutes of the Society of Jesus despite opposition from other Catholic orders. Rome was weakened by the gains of the Protestant Reformation. The Jesuits' zeal and unquestioning loyalty appealed to the Pope. Other Popes later would have varying levels of confidence in the Jesuits. One even dissolved the order, only for the next to restore them later.

The Jesuits today are the largest order in the Roman Catholic Church. Pope Francis is the most visible authority in the Roman Catholic Church and the first Jesuit Pope in history. His counterpart, the 'Black' pope, is one Arturo Sosa who directs the world of Jesuit chicanery from behind the scenes a block down the street from St. Peters at the Vatican.

The Jesuits have left an indelible mark on history. Their influence and havoc has ranged from communist indigenous colonies in Paraguay to syncretism in India, civil war in China and Germany, genocide in Bohemia, disastrous war with Muslims in Portugal, stagnation in Spain, attempted coup in England, and even an imposter tsar in Russia. They have been tied to collaboration with fascists in Europe and assassination of heads of state, including President Abraham Lincoln in the U.S. All kinds of moral scandals also pervaded the Jesuits in their relations, especially with women.

Numerous nations expelled the Jesuits because of their malice! "Between 1555 and 1931 the Society of Jesus was expelled from at least 83 countries, city-states and cities, for engaging in political intrigue and subversive plots against the welfare of the State, according to the records of a Jesuit priest of repute [Ed.: i.e., Thomas J. Campbell].... Practically every instance of expulsion was for political intrigue, political infiltration, political subversion, and inciting to political insurrection."

We need to remember politics is a tool, not an end, for the Jesuits. The goal is secular and spiritual domination under their rule. The Jesuits seek to co-opt the secular authorities to persecute and eliminate the influence of God's true people from the scene. The successors of both Loyola and Luther continue in conflict today.

One objection today is: "Well, those were the Jesuits of old. They have changed. Today, they are more liberal, weaker, and kinder. Why should we worry about the Jesuits?" That is what they wanted the world to think, but it isn't so!

The Holy Scriptures address the deceptive nature of the Antichrist system in its ability to adapt its appearance to cater to a specific audience. Antichrist appears "gentle like a lamb". Yet, God's Word also reveals that the essence of Antichrist does not change!

"And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon." -(Revelation 13:11).

Indeed, the Jesuits are well-trained in adapting to the context of the audience whom they woo. That has been more than confirmed by those who have been front and center in this agenda of using an alleged virus to depopulate the world. Their operative word is “depopulation”. Note the names of those below who have been constant voices in the media since this crisis began in early March, 2020.

All the major named players in the COVID crisis in the U.S. are Jesuit alumni! They include: Dr. Anthony Fauci, Governor Andrew Cuomo of NY (Fordham), Governor Gavin Newsom of CA (Santa Clara), and President Donald Trump! (Trump studied for 2 years at the Jesuit Fordham University in New York City). Additionally, Dr. Robert Redfield, head of the U.S. Center for Disease Control (“CDC”), is another Jesuit-Georgetown University graduate, and a key player in “Operation Warp Speed”. Throughout the plandemic/scamdemic last year, Dr. Fauci said several times that he spoke to New York Governor Cuomo nightly, well now you know why! Governor Cuomo is under federal investigation of upwards of 15,000 deaths of elderly during the Covid-19 crisis!

The reader should be mindful that all of President Trump’s appointees to the U.S. Supreme Court were all Roman Catholics, and two of the three are alumni of Jesuit Georgetown University as well. The fact that not a single member of the high court is a Protestant should have been of serious concern. In the Biden administration, his bias is towards the Jews. Jews are 1.5% of the U.S. population but 78% of the Biden administration. Washington is now controlled by dual passport citizens of Israel.

Former U.S. President Bill Clinton graduated from Jesuit Georgetown University. Ivan Duque, President of Colombia, Alejandro Toledo, former President of Peru, Mario Draghi, former head of the European Central Bank, and both brothers Fidel and Raul Castro, former and current head of Cuba, graduated from Jesuit schools.

The Jesuits are just as influential and menacing today as they were 500 years ago.

If you are Catholic, you need to see the danger to your soul. These Jesuits blaspheme the name of Jesus Christ for their ill-gotten gain. The Roman Church supports these false prophets and will suffer God’s judgment with them.

But you do not have to suffer along with them. Leave Rome! Depart from her sins! “Flee out of the midst of Babylon, and deliver every man his soul: be not cut off in her iniquity; for this is the time of the Lord’s vengeance; he will render unto her a recompence.” -(Jeremiah 51:6).

Run to Jesus Christ! Make Him your refuge. Ask Him for forgiveness, directly. “For there is only one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus.” If you profess Christ Jesus as your savior, let us remember that our struggle is not against flesh and blood. “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” -(Ephesians 6:12) “For the weapons of our warfare are not carnal, but mighty through God to the pulling down of strong holds.” -(2nd Corinthians 10:4).

May we heed the words of Charles Spurgeon. He was quite familiar with the wiles of Rome and her Jesuits. Over 100 years later, his words of action are relevant for us as we face the same enemies he did. Let us pray to the Lord against the Antichrist and the False Prophet of Rome:

“It is the bounden duty of every Christian to pray against Antichrist, and as to what Antichrist is no sane man ought to raise a question. If it be not the popery in the Church of Rome there is nothing in the world that can be called by that name. If there were to be issued a hue and cry for Antichrist, we should certainly take up this church on suspicion, and it would certainly not be let loose again, for it so exactly answers the description.”

Biblical examples of individuals illicitly opening up gateways into the evil realm beyond man’s perception include the witch of Endor who summoned the dead -(1st Samuel 28:3ff). We also see this with the slave girl who was possessed with a spirit of divination and who followed Paul in Macedonia -(Acts 16:16–18).

Those who come under the influence of pharmakeia put themselves into a drug-induced state to activate gateways into the supernatural realm. It’s a form of rebellion against God’s established boundaries that man is not supposed to cross. Witchcraft is also taking something holy and exploiting it for personal purposes. This is what Samuel accused Saul of doing when he kept the cattle he was supposed to kill, so that he could at a later time offer up an illicit sacrifice without going through the proper Levitical protocols. Samuel equated this act of rebellion with witchcraft -(1st Samuel 15:23). Saul had this proclivity, for he had offered up a witchcraft sacrifice once before -(1st Samuel 13:9–13). Samuel rebuked him for it, yet Saul was willing knowingly to repeat the same mistake again, which was strictly forbidden.

On March 15, 2020, the Center for Disease Control (CDC) banned gatherings of 50 or more people in the United States. Governors across America closed most church gatherings for months. They banned singing in outdoor worship services. They discarded the First Amendment rights of free speech and religious liberty. In effect, states put the whole nation under house arrest. Social distancing and face diapers became instruments of suppression, under the guise of fear of spreading a virus.

Entrusted at the helm of the CDC was Dr. Robert L. Redfield, a devout Jesuit trained Roman Catholic. Ironically only 11 days later, on March 26th, the ‘New England Journal of Medicine’ published an article co-authored by Dr. Robert Redfield and Dr. Anthony Fauci. Both concluded that the “...overall clinical consequences of Covid-19 may ultimately be more akin to those of a severe seasonal influenza...” One has to wonder what it was that suddenly changed their thinking of the two most exalted voices of public health taught prior to March, 2020!

In the meantime, America is suffering major devastation due to the lockdown. As head of the CDC, Dr. Redfield owns responsibility for this state of affairs. Indeed, most Americans trust the CDC to give them accurate information on COVID – much more so than the rest of the Federal Government.

It begs the larger question: who exactly is Dr. Redfield? What is his background and track record? Should we trust him with the serious task of leading the CDC? We are witnessing the soon demise of his fellow Jesuit, Dr. Anthony Fauci as their lies come back to haunt their credibility. I invested a roll of first-class stamps in sending articles to Senator Rand Paul which led to what I saw as a turn for the better a few weeks ago when Dr. Fauci perjured himself over illegally spending $7.4 million taxpayer dollars for “Gain-of-Function” research he contracted with the CCP in Wuhan, China. That term “Gain-of-Function” means to make a virus more lethal!

Dr. Redfield was born and raised in a Roman Catholic family. Both of his parents worked at the National Institutes of Health (NIH). Intrigued by Jesuit traditions and teaching, he enrolled at Georgetown University, the nation’s oldest educational Roman Catholic Jesuit institution. He received both his BA and MD from Georgetown University.

Dr. Redfield has been sitting under the wings of his Jesuit masters from an early age. He admits that “Georgetown was critical in terms of my formation as a young adult and young physician.”

This is an unfortunate development, especially for one of the four key leaders of the national effort to fight COVID. One of the foundational principles of Jesuit teaching is the “ends justify the means”. This teaching contradicts Biblical ethics. People devolve into lawlessness. Leaders sacrifice integrity for pushing their own interests.

The Book of Judges shows the oppression and misery of the people of Israel at a time when “every man did that which was right in his own eyes.” -(Judges 21:25).

The Jesuit Order was created by Spanish soldier Ignatius de Loyola in 1533. Their primary goal was to serve the Pope by taking whatever means necessary to convert people. In fact, the Jesuits were Rome’s response to the success of the Protestant Reformation. They were known as agents for the “Counter Reformation.” They were the pope’s army!

“Military obedience is not the equivalent of Jesuitic obedience; the latter is more extensive as it gets hold of the whole man and is not satisfied like the other, with an exterior act, but requires the sacrifice of the will and laying aside of one’s own judgment.” Ignatius wrote in his letter to the Portuguese Jesuits: ‘We must see black as white, if the Church says so.’ Jesuits who do not wear the clerical collar are under vow to serve the Superior General, {black pope} in whatever task they are called to serve, be they the director of the CDC or the NIAID or a government servant.

Dr. Redfield sees his Jesuit training as vital to his work. Hence, we should scrutinize his pronouncements as head of the CDC. I do want to note, he retired in January, 2021.

“The Jesuit tradition is important to me—women and men for others and a commitment to health justice and equity, seeing the gifts of science applied equitably. Georgetown taught me that science and medicine are made to impact public health.””

Impacting the public is exactly what Dr. Redfield vigorously pursued once he was placed in a position of authority.

During the AIDS epidemic in the late eighties and early 1990’s, Dr. Redfield headed up the U.S. military’s response to the HIV/AIDS epidemic. He introduced harsh measures: quarantining infected soldiers, investigating their sexual histories, and spreading their diagnoses across the chain of command with little concern for soldiers’ privacy.

A junior officer made notes on Major Redfield during those years: “I was a personal witness to this cruelty as a young Captain in the U.S. Army. My troops were forced to suffer through public testing and weeks of anxiety until getting their test results. Many tests resulted in false positives.”

“Those who tested positive were segregated from other service members and treated like prisoners. Some were dishonorably discharged. Others even attempted suicide! One of them was John O. Brisbois.”

“The trouble came after a blood test showed that he carries the virus that causes AIDS. ‘The Army did everything possible to make me want to leave,’ said Brisbois, who, after three months absent without leave, surrendered and tried to kill himself. He was discharged last month. ‘I feel I don’t have a future anymore. I don’t want to die, but I get so depressed.’ Brisbois, fled a special barracks wing, known on the base as the ‘HIV hotel’ and ‘the leper colony,’ to which he and scores of other soldiers had been transferred.”

The military rationalized these harsh measures as necessary to control the AIDS epidemic.

“‘The reason we have done what we have done,’ said Major Robert Redfield, of Rockville, MD, chief scientist for the Army’s AIDS research effort, ‘is that we think it’s good medicine—and it’s medicine that might work in the civilian sector, as well.’”

Should You Trust Dr. Redfield’s Track Record? With retirement, it probably will not matter but only time will tell if he is prosecuted for his crimes.

No wonder much concern arose when President Trump appointed Dr. Redfield to lead the CDC. Dr. Peter Lurie stated 3 grave concerns:

“First, he has no experience running a public health agency, and does not have the all-important relationships with state and local public health officials such experience would bring. Second, based on work I conducted with Sidney Wolfe at Public Citizen in the mid-1990s, he has been credibly accused of scientific misconduct for exaggerating the benefits of a putative HIV vaccine, for which he was investigated by the military. Third, he has supported a variety of policies related to HIV/AIDS that are anathema to the great majority of public health professionals: mandatory HIV testing, reporting of positive HIV results to public health authorities without the patient's consent, and quarantining of HIV-positive individuals in the military."

Drs. Peter Lurie and Sidney M. Wolfe showed that Dr. Redfield and his team ruthlessly engaged in a "systemic pattern of data manipulation, inappropriate statistical analyses and misleading data presentation....in apparent attempt to promote the usefulness of the GP160 AIDS vaccine."

A committee of Air Force doctors in 1992 in San Antonio reached similar conclusions:

"The committee agreed the information presented by Dr. Redfield seriously threatens his credibility as a researcher and has thus the potential to negatively impact AIDS research funding for military institutions as a whole. His allegedly unethical behavior creates false hope and could result in premature deployment of the vaccine."

Although the Army acknowledged there were issues about the accuracy of the data, Redfield was ultimately cleared of any allegations of scientific misconduct. Dr. Redfield actually confessed that his analyses were deceptive and agreed to publicly correct them. Yet, he did not keep his word:

"Afterward, he continued making his false claims at three subsequent international HIV conferences, and perjured himself in testimony before Congress, swearing that his vaccine cured HIV. Their gambit worked. Based upon his testimony, Congress appropriated $20 million to the military to support Redfield and Bix's research project. The 'Public Citizen' complained in a 1994 letter to the Congressional Committee's Henry Waxman that the money caused the Army to kill the investigation and 'whitewash' Redfield's crimes. The fraud propelled Dr. Deborah Bix and Redfield into stellar careers as health officials."

Observers remained concerned about Dr. Redfield's appointment to lead the CDC.

". . .one of the whistleblowers who raised the issue of the trial data to the Army told Kaiser Health News (KHN) that he remains concerned about what happened. 'Either he was egregiously sloppy with data or it was fabricated,' said former Air Force Lt. Col. Craig Hendrix, a doctor who is now director of the division of clinical pharmacology at Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine, to KHN. 'It was somewhere on that spectrum, both of which were serious and raised questions about his trustworthiness.'"

It was tragic indeed that the Trump Administration ignored Dr. Peter Lurie's appeal against Dr. Redfield's appointment at the head of CDC.

“What one wants in a director of the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention is a scientist of impeccable scientific integrity. What one would get in Robert Redfield is a sloppy scientist with a long history of scientific misconduct and an extreme religious agenda. We urge the administration not to appoint Dr. Redfield.”

Should You Trust Dr. Redfield’s “Religious Agenda”? Yes! For sure. Once a Jesuit, always a Jesuit! Rome never changes!

Dr. Redfield’s cruelty and falsification of results should have caused concern. Given his Jesuit training, they might not be all that surprising.

“Liguori, in his treatise on oaths, Question 4, asks if it is allowable to use ambiguity, or equivocal words, to deceive the judge when under oath, and at No. 151 he answers: ‘These things being established, it is a certain and a common opinion amongst all divines that for a just cause it is lawful to use equivocation in the propounded modes, and to confirm it (equivocation) with an oath.... Now a just cause is any honest end in order to preserve good things for the spirit, or useful things for the body’. . .”

To add insult to injury, the mainstream media trumpets the Jesuit Dr. Redfield as a Bible-believing Christian. In reality, he practices the mystical techniques, or “spiritual exercises” of his Jesuit teachers. Few Protestants will understand what I am referring to here.

As a seminary student, we were required to take a course in “Spiritual Formation” at Asbury Seminary, and a decade later it became a requirement in the United Methodist Church for ordained ministry. The course was based upon Jesuit/Catholic retreat centers in the Kentucky area. As part of the course curriculum, we had to spend a weekend at a retreat at the Thomas Merton Center (Merton was a Trappist monk) and spent much of his life time in central KY. The center observed a modified vow of silence and no vocal communication unless in necessity. Centering prayer and spiritual imagination is also another practice. The individual closes their eyes and is supposed to focus on a word or object and practice imaging prayer on that thought. While these practices draw upon Hindu and oriental religious practices, they are not Biblically based or Christian belief.

The head of the CDC revealed this recently during a radio interview on April 1st, 2020 when he emphasized the “powerful weapon” of social distancing. He told listeners that he understood that staying home is a sacrifice, but asked them to “close their eyes” and think of the vulnerable people whose lives they could save if they did their part to break the chain of transmission. Humans are social beings, not monastic creatures.

Dr. Redfield merely parrots his living Jesuit master, Pope Francis, who also uses this technique. They both denigrate God’s Word in favor of their own imaginations. Jesuits are advocates of “imagination” as something akin to “mind over matter”.

On the contrary, Scripture exhorts the Christian “to cast down vain imaginations, and every high thing that exalteth itself against the knowledge of God, for we are to bring into captivity every thought to the obedience of Christ.” -(Romans 1:21)

The obvious conclusion: Trust in God, Not in Man.

Without a doubt, we live in very challenging times. What are the people of God to do?

First, let us not put our trust in vaccines or any man. “Some trust in chariots, and some in horses: but we will remember the name of the Lord our God.” -(Psalm 20:7)

Secondly, let us not live in fear but in God’s strength. “For God hath not given us the spirit of fear, but of power and of love and of a sound mind.” -(2nd Timothy 1:17).

Finally, let us look at life through the perspective of truth: we will not live here forever, and we should not panic because of death. Indeed, we await a better, perfect, and future home: “But now they desire a better country, that is, a heavenly one. Therefore God is not ashamed to be called their God, for He hath prepared for them a City.” -(Hebrews 11:16).

Dr. Robert Redfield retired January 20, 2021, from what many believed he was unfit for the office. His timing for retiring may have been associated with the change of a new administration, but one can’t help but think there was much more to it than the political changes that came this past January.

Recently, former CDC director Dr. Robert Redfield declared that he believes that COVID-19 originated in a lab. Also the same week, the former head of “Operation Warp Speed”, Moncef Slaoui, was booted from the board of the GlaxoSmithKline following charges of sexual harassment and inappropriate conduct. Neither of these events says anything about the origins of the virus or the efficacy of the vaccines. But it does say something about the quality of the people Donald Trump hired to see America through a crisis.

From the very beginning of the COVID-19 outbreak, there were rumors and conspiracy theories about the origin of the disease. The simple fact that the first major outbreak occurred in the Wuhan region of China was enough to launch a thousand "biolabs" claims, and to give Trump fuel for endless racist memes that are definitely connected to the recent rise in hate crimes against Asian Americans. There were also claims that the virus had been circulating in humans much longer than, the then official date of the last few weeks of 2019. We know for certain that Bill Gates and Richard Rothschild patented the Covid virus several years earlier in 2015 with the Pirbright Institute of Surrey, UK. In chapter 15 of my series “666/999 – 5G, the Mark of the Beast, and the UPC Code” I list the reasons for the executing the plan for the Corona virus. A copy of the patent for Covid in 2015 appears in that chapter proving Covid-19 was a hoax! It is not a rogue novel virus as the public was told!

However, we know many of these things were for deception in a much larger agenda. We've known this from before the pandemic was not a pandemic. What Redfield's statements and Slauoi's dismissal make clear—again—is that President Trump was more interested in appointing people to position who demonstrated loyalty to President Donald Trump, rather than any degree of competence for their appointed role. Trump's greatest flaw was to favor loyalty over competence in his selecting those serving in his administration.

The SARS-CoV-2 virus was sequenced in January 2020, Analysis immediately showed that virus is, as the name implies, very similar to the SARS-CoV virus that causes the disease SARS. And both of them are in turn nearly identical to viruses that are endemic within bats. Covid-19 only factored 20-30 genes out of some 30,000 possible genes. Specifically, to the family that includes horseshoe bats, which are found in tropical areas of Asia and Africa. The virus behind COVID-19 is the seventh coronavirus to have become infectious within humans. Three of those viruses can cause severe disease. Both previous coronaviruses that cause serious disease within humans came from bats. And by March 2020, scientists had a very good idea of SARS-CoV-2's origin; it was not in a lab the world was told.

But that was all exposed by the 2008 Nobel Peace Prize recipient, Dr. Luc Montagnier. He confirmed the work of a team of Indian researchers that the virus had 18 fragments of the HIV1 genome and 4 fragments of SARS, stating the insert location in the genome could not have been a result of nature, hence, i.e., a bioweapon! Dr. Luc Montagnier's analysis did not get recognized until 14 months later, in May of 2021.

Redfield's entire basis for claiming that COVID-19 didn't come straight from bats is that it's too infectious. In his interview with CNN, the former CDC director insists that it takes time for viruses "to figure out" how to become more efficient in humans. And to some extent, that last part is true; viruses do tend to become more contagious over time. That is, in fact, the only evolutionary pressure on viruses.

However, that statement ignores a huge amount of evidence about COVID-19. For one thing, the virus is definitely not human specific. Cases have been found of it spreading to close relatives like gorillas, as well as far more distantly related mammals like tigers and domestic pets. COVID-19 is not, or at least did not start out as, a human specialist. Its tool kit of proteins allowed it to infect almost any mammal. What has happened over time—as we've seen with the European variant, the UK variant, the South African Variant, and the Brazilian variant—is that SARS-CoV-2 is constantly becoming better at spreading from person to person. Even that is in question currently.

Something like that likely happened at the beginning, as well. In fact, people may have become exposed to, or even infected by, versions of the SARS-CoV virus for years before a version appeared that was infectious person-to-person. Imagine a situation in which people exposed to horseshoe bats were frequently getting infected with a precursor virus, and producing trillions of copies ... but none of them were efficient at spreading that infection to another person. Then, one day late in 2019, someone gets infected by this same virus, and a slight mutation does allow the state of human-to-human spread. This could very likely be the actual situation. But then we find out that Dr. Anthony Fauci was illegally pursuing "Gain-of-Function" research with the Chinese BSL4 lab in Wuhan, China.

One other thing we know is that the version of SARS-CoV-2 which spread around the world and causes COVID-19 wasn't circulating in the human population for an extensive period. We know that because all the early cases of COVID-19 that have been sequenced were almost genetically identical. That would not have been the case had the disease been widely circulating in the human population for months in advance of the recognized outbreak.

There are still serious questions about the origins of SARS-CoV-2 that need to be answered. For example, was there an earlier, related version of the virus, one that did not cause severe disease, which circulated among humans previous to 2020? This might account for reports of antibodies similar to those generated by SARS-CoV-2 showing up in blood samples outside of China in November of 2019.

Did the virus jump straight from bats to humans, or did what this particular virus percolate first in some "intermediate host" like the poor beleaguered pangolin, or in something as commonly raised and eaten as rabbits? Bats have unusual immune systems which makes them a unique viral reservoir, so it's important to know if these diseases are making a direct leap from bats, or if the "infects just about any mammal" feature of COVID-19 developed elsewhere.

These are exactly the sort of questions that are currently being addressed by the World Health Organization. It began an alleged investigation of the origins of COVID-19 in 2020. That investigation has issued an initial report, a more extensive updated report, and a final report is scheduled to appear within days. We will never know the truth since the U.S. military has been engaged in biowarfare as far back as 1948 and hide their work in layered secrecy and compartmentalization.

All of these reports, and all of the analysis that has been published, is in agreement on one thing: SARS-CoV-2 shows exactly the sort of structure that might have been expected from natural evolution from related viruses, and none of the fingerprints that might have been expected were that virus manipulated in a lab. Redfield's claims about scientists working with viruses to make them more contagious in order to make them easier to study, simply make no sense, unless intended to protect him and cause confusion among world scientists. After all, scientists from over 40 countries asked for lab slides of the Covid-19, and none of which have received the requested samples. This raises question about the existence of the alleged virus. How well a virus is transmitted person to person has nothing at all to do with how easy it is to replicate that virus in a lab. And if Redfield is going to fall back on "I'm a virologist," he should be made to explain that basic flaw in his reasoning.

What Redfield has been saying doesn't match the scientific data. It does, however, exactly match claims made by Donald Trump in April 2020. Trump became obsessed over the idea of "proving" that COVID-19 originated in a lab. He made such charges during those daily rant sessions that replaced functional briefings on the pandemic, and he instructed agencies—likely including Redfield—to get out there and find the proof he wanted. They didn't find that proof. I do believe President Trump knew it was a scam, but lacked the proof, that even I had in my possession in November of 2019.

In response to Redfield's strange insistence on supporting a theory that's not just without evidence, but contrary to the evidence, Dr. Anthony Fauci stopped short of slapping down the former CDC chief. However, he made it clear that there was nothing unusual about the idea of a virus that had circulated in Wuhan through November and December becoming highly contagious by the time the outbreak took off in January.

What's apparently been forgotten now that Redfield is "the former director of the CDC" in every article or interview where he appeared, is that Redfield never should have held that position in the first place. His biggest claim to fame was insisting that the Department of Defense conduct a huge program of HIV screening, not with the intent of helping anyone found infected, but as a means of purging LGBTQ+ people from the military. Redfield saw HIV infection as a sign of "immorality." He then followed this up with a program supporting an HIV treatment that didn't work.

At the CDC, Redfield was complicit in consistently weakening guidelines, and making it more difficult for scientists at the agency to put forward facts. And as late as September, 2020, he was telling Americans there would not be any COVID-19 vaccines until late 2021 (to Redfield's credit, he was also telling Americans that the same effect could be achieved if everyone wore masks).

Meanwhile, in seemingly unrelated news, Moncef Slaoui, who led Trump's Operation Warp Speed, was "terminated" from the board of his former employer after charges of sexual harassment and inappropriate conduct. The allegations were investigated by GlaxoSmithKline, which says that its investigation upheld the charges against Slaoui.

"Dr. Slaoui's behaviors are wholly unacceptable. They represent an abuse of his leadership position, violate company policies, and are contrary to the strong values that define GSK's culture."

Slaoui, at least, seemed to have a career that justified some level of trust when it came to appointing him to a high position in Trump's vaccine effort. However, his greatest achievements at GSK seem to have been in guiding the company in taking over other pharmaceutical firms. Once in charge of "Operation Warp Speed", Slaoui took an approach that seemed to guarantee a vaccine shortage. Not only did 'OWS' fail to secure enough vaccine for America, its largest investments were $1.6 billion for the Novavax vaccine, which is still not available, and $2.1 billion for a vaccine from Sanofi and GlaxoSmithKline. That vaccine was sent back to square one in December, when it turned out to not generate a sufficient immune response.

At best, Slaoui made a huge mistake. At worst, this represents huge corruption from a former executive who still controls $10 million in GlaxoSmithKline stock. "I won't leave those shares," said Slaoui before giving his old company $2.1 billion, "because that's my retirement."

Retirement sounds like a good idea ... for both Slaoui and Redfield. When CNN is looking for scientists who can shine some light on the COVID-19 vaccine, these two are among the last they should question. Now that Dr. Anthony Fauci has been exposed in lying in his testimony at Senate hearings, retirement may be Dr. Fauci's exit door, but he should be indicted, tried, and prosecuted for "Crimes against Humanity". I suspect Dr. Fauci will be gone at the NIAID before the 4th of July. Drs. Redfield and Fauci have served their Superior-General in Rome well in bringing down Babylon through its sorceries.

Do you not find it rather disturbing that approximately 65% of the population is taking at least one pharmaceutical drug every day? Some are taking up to fifteen and twenty! We are told that we are living during a time of the greatest medical breakthroughs in the history of the world yet, over one hundred-fifty million Americans suffer from various health problems. Why has such a large majority of the world become dependent on pharmaceutical drugs? Perhaps you're one of the hundreds of millions around the world that's ingesting a daily dose of some pharmaceutical medicine? Is it possible that the pharmaceutical/medical cartel has 'disease treatment' and not 'disease cure' in mind?

The most powerful German economic corporate emporium in the first half of the last century was known as IG Farben, and was nothing more than a powerful cartel of BASF, Bayer, Hoechst, and other German chemical and pharmaceutical companies. IG Farben was the single largest donor to the election campaign of Adolph Hitler & the beginning of the modern day pharmaceutical industry. Zyklon-B, an extermination gas produced by Hoechst, was used to kill millions of innocent people in death camps. The U.S. government's investigation (of all the factors leading to WW2 in 1946) came to the conclusion that without IG Farben the Second World War would of not been possible.

Higher education in the U.S. has been on the slide for now close to a century. This was confirmed in research by the National Association of Scholars (NAS) of 'U.S. News & World Report's' annual listing of "America's Best Colleges" (including both private and public) disclosed startling figures. In 1914, nearly all of these institutions had required courses in English composition; by 1964 the figure was 86%; in 1996, 36%. In 1914, 82% of the best colleges and universities had traditional mathematics requirements; more than 70% of the institutions required at least one course in the natural sciences; that figure fell to 34% in 1996. Literature courses were required at 75% of the institutions in 1914, and at 50% in 1939 and 1964. Today, none of the "best" institutions has a literature requirement. Most colleges today are turning out graduates who have studied little or no history. In 1914, 90% of America's elite colleges required history; in 1939 and 1964 more than 50% did; by 1996 only one of the 50 best schools offered a required history course. The day is approaching, perhaps, when the only historians will be amateurs who study history as self-help, who examine the past in order to make sense of the present and not be caught unprepared by the future. Remember the expression, about learning from history so as not to repeat the errors of the past.

The ecumenical movement of the 1960s was a Jesuit Vatican II plan designed to seduce the Protestants from the Reformation back under the thumb of Rome. We were formally known as “heretics” before 1965 but after that date we were the “lost brethren”. Jon Eric Phelps book ‘Vatican Assassins’ and Tupper Saussy’s book ‘Rulers of Evil’ are essential reads regarding the five-century old history of the Society of Jesus. Vatican II was a ‘Venus fly-trap!’.

This story would not be complete without another. right on cue, Marxist/globalist lackey and head of the World Health Organization (WHO), non-doctor Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus predicts another global pandemic by CERTAINTY of ‘evolution,’ not a biowarfare lab. See future virus ‘more deadly’ than Covid-19 will spark new pandemic, WHO chief warns. Note that, by gazing into his crystal ball, he KNOWS it will be ‘more transmissible’ (Covid was rapidly transmissible by all accounts) and ‘more ... fatal than Covid-19’: the former Ethiopian terrorist claimed.

A virus even more transmissible and fatal than Covid-19 will lead the world into the next pandemic, the director-general of the World Health Organization (WHO) has said, noting the “evolutionary certainty” of such an occurrence. If the masses buy into that prophecy as easy as they did Covid-19, then the world is truly doomed to the dust bin of history. May God help all the rest of us!

“Make no mistake, this will not be the last time the world faces the threat of pandemic,” Tedros Adhanom Ghebreyesus told the UN agency’s annual assembly of health ministers from its 194 member states on Monday, May 24th, “It’s an evolutionary certainty that there will be another virus with the potential to be more transmittable and more deadly than this one.” The lackey who heads the WHO was put there through the influence of the CCP in China, doing their bidding to destroy economies in the name of health safety!

It is not about health safety, it never has been, and unlikely that it will ever be! It is all about what the Georgia Guidestones states in its secular ten commandments. The message then was “there are too many of us” and most of us have to be removed in order to save the planet. You and I are interfering with the Antichrist’s “Sustainable Development” plans.

A controversial process called “alkaline hydrolysis,” where the bodies of dead people are liquefied using a mixture of water, heat, and chemical agents, is being approved for use in some 22 states across America.

The latest state to contemplate using the body disposal method is Wisconsin, which just approved Senate Bill 228 that authorizes the practice.

The Republican-led Senate of Wisconsin passed the bill, which states, “A person may use the process of alkaline hydrolysis to cremate human remains only if the person is registered as a crematory authority by the Department of Safety and Professional Services. The bill places the use of alkaline hydrolysis for cremating human remains under generally the same requirements that apply under current law to conventional cremation.”

In a letter to the Wisconsin Senate opposing the decision, executive director of the Wisconsin Catholic Conference Kim Vercauteren wrote, “Catholic teaching is centered on the life and dignity of the human person because each person is created in the image and likeness of God.”

“The heart, mind, flesh, and bones of a human person are all elements of a unique creation, down to the DNA, which must be honored even after death,” she continued. “Our concern is that with alkaline hydrolysis, remains are washed into a wastewater system as though the body created by God never existed, wastewater does not honor the sacredness of the body, nor does it allow the grieving to honor the dead after disposition.”

In 1993, the EPA passed “Rule 503” which allows “the spreading, spraying, injection, or incorporation of sewage sludge” to lands, including, “public parks, ball fields, cemeteries, plant nurseries, and golf courses.”

The EPA allows “biosolids” to be used in playgrounds and farms despite the fact that it contains high concentrations of heavy metals, neurotoxic chemicals and toxins the agency classifies as “primary pollutants.”

While the government promotes spraying dead bodies and sewage on crops and parks as “green” recycling combatting climate change, others are sounding the alarm about potential dangers.

A former senior-level research microbiologist at the EPA’s Office of Research and Development named Dr. David Lewis was even fired for speaking out on the subject.

“Spending billions of dollars to remove hazardous chemicals and biological wastes from water, only to spread them on soil everywhere we live, work and play defies common sense,” Dr. Lewis told The Guardian in 2019.

The harmful effects of biosolids has been well documented across the U.S., including North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia, Maine, Michigan and several other states. Twenty-two states have already legalized alkaline hydrolysis to date.

Sierra Club environmentalist Nancy Raine called the biosludge “the most pollutant-rich manmade substance on Earth,” and warned, “Nothing that is done to the sludge removes the chemicals. They just spend a little money on PR to convince us its nice fertilizer and fail to mention all the other things that are in it.”

Despite the debate about the morality and safety of the process remaining unsettled, governments around the globe continue to approve the controversial body disposal method. Spraying liquified corpses on crops is reminiscent of the 1973 cult classic film “Soylent Green” where people experiencing food shortages are fed the recycled remains of humans without their knowledge. Sadly, alkaline hydrolysis is only one aspect of the “Soylent Green” agenda adopted by the global elite.

Remember, it was Dr. Anthony Fauci, who in 2017 predicted that President Trump would face a virus to break out during his first term! Michael McKibben and his research miners at the American Intelligence Media dug up a lot of dirt on the Nation’s highest paid bureaucrat and found his family lineage is in Switzerland and the name “Abys”. Can you believe that Dr. Anthony Fauci’s family crest has as its key symbol, a snake devouring a child! It is a hidden fact nonetheless.

Dr. Anthony Fauci is not only a devout Jesuit “coadjutor” [term used to describe Jesuits-trained in non-clerical careers], but he is a closet or secret Freemason. That is confirmed by his frequent use of the secret symbols of Luciferian Freemasonry. In the top picture on page 34, the Jesuit doctor uses the symbol of the “Hidden Hand”. In the picture on page 35, Dr. Fauci uses the Baphomet “two figures up, and three fingers down” salute. Baphomet represents the Union of Opposites, especially as mystically personified in Chaos and Babylon combined and biologically manifested with the sperm and egg united in the zygote. Baphomet Symbols the Two-finger salute. Two fingers on the right hand point up and two on the left hand point down, meaning “as above, so below”. As popular as Dr. Fauci has been over the last year or so, there is a plentiful portfolio of Dr. Fauci’s photos of his subtle use of Masonic signs that discount this as being by accident. Freemasonry was infiltrated by the Jesuits in 1758 at which time the Jesuits wrote the top 25 degrees of Freemasonry at the college of Clermont in Paris.

In previous articles I have showed the hierarchical ranking of Masonic degrees and where the S.J. (Society of Jesus) or Jesuits ranks at the very upper level of the Freemasonry structure. Neither is Christian and yet both are perceived to be religious. Their god is none other than Lucifer, as identified in Albert Pike's 'Morals & Dogma'. In the 19th degree of Freemasonry, a Mason knows his god is Lucifer. This book is known as the Mason's bible.

P.D. Stuart's book 'Codeword Barbelon', on page 500, it states "the Mason's path to eternal life is the sexual violation of little children." The "Royal Doctrine of Freemasonry" and the "Secret Doctrine of Roman Catholicism" is the act of sodomy! In Freemasonry it is a ritual requirement of those in the top three degrees, 31st to the 33rd degrees. I do not need to share more of this indecent act

Since most of the world leaders are members of Lucifer's Club, you will begin to see what hides behind the pedophile world of child sex trafficking, headquartered in the Vatican. Some of your most famous and popular religious leaders, government officials, and world leaders have been or are part of this Luciferian Club.

There is a connection of the giant pharmaceutical corporations back to the Nazis. Revelation 6:5 says "And when he had opened the third seal, I heard the third beast say, Come and see. And I beheld, and lo a black horse; and he that sat on him had a pair of balances in his hand."

Then the third living being said, "Come and see." The third horse John saw was black - (compare Zechariah 6:2, 6). Black is the color which represents evil, suffering, and hunger -(compare Lamentations 5:10). The rider had in his hands unusual equipment for a horseman: scales for weighing, such as a merchant would use. This rider seems to personify famine. Notice, the black horse followed the red. All through history, the aftermath of war has so often been inflation and famine. There may well be class warfare, the "Have Nots" fighting against the "Haves." Governments will have to make and enforce strict measures. It is not an exaggeration to say there will be multitudes of starving people. The scales may well symbolize the careful weighing out of food and possibly general rationing because of scarcity and famine -(compare Leviticus 26:26; Ezekiel 4:16), all the result of beating their plowshares into swords. It is also divine judgment. Even now global drought is spreading and we face famine in the U.S. over the next few years. Lake Mead near the Nevada/Arizona border is at 37% of its water capacity, lower by 139 feet since 2000.

The Black Horse is the same beast as the leopard in Daniel 7: 6, "After this I beheld, and lo another, like a leopard, which had upon the back of it four wings of a fowl; the beast had also four heads; and dominion was given to it."

This beast was Nazi Germany, plus the post-World War II influences that came from the Nazi movement, especially in the U.S. as we assimilated many Nazi intelligence operatives and scientists after 1945. The Third Reich were planning in the 1930's for a Fourth Reich. Most of this history has been suppressed from the rest of the world.

In the Nazi regime there was a large conglomerate of corporations - the Internationale Geshellshaft Farbenindustrie, or I.G. Farben, run by the Swiss banker Herman Schmitz. Drug or pharmaceutical corporations, were an important part of I.G. Farben, including the Bayer Company, Merck, and Hoechst.

A branch of the German parent company of Merck was established in the United States. In 1891, George Merck, grandson of the German Emanuel Merck, took over the Merck New York office and established Merck & Company. In about 1902 the American Merck Company made and sold chemicals including bismuths, iodides, and narcotics such as morphine and cocaine. Then, later George W. Merck was in the Roosevelt administration as Director of the War Research Service during World War II. This was the George W. Merck who was head of Merck and Company, a large American pharmaceutical outfit. Merck remains one of the giant U.S. pharmaceutical corporations, with its origins in Germany, where the parent company was part of the Nazi business empire, a Black Horse manifestation. The U.S. and the international pharmaceutical industry have roots in the Black Horse Nazi movement.

One no longer has to look to religion for the absolutist claim to truth. Medical science has laid claim to the body in the same way that religions once laid claim to the soul. The physician today -- albeit a glorified "applied pharmacologist" -- has become the "priest of the body," capable of influencing the course of life or death by the quality, or combinations, of nostrums he is able to apply to the problem (i.e. patient) at hand.

Psychotropic drugs, are known by most as "antidepressants," are contributing to suicide rates around the globe. The 'Associated Press' reported on May 12, 2006 that GlaxoSmithKline and the U.S. Food and Drug Administration sent a warning letter to doctors concerning the antidepressant Paxil. The letter warned that Paxil may raise the risk of suicidal behavior in young adults, and it was accompanied by changes to the labeling of two different versions of the drug. The knowledge of the increase of suicide and other side effects linked to these drugs is clearly known to the pharmaceutical manufacturers and to the FDA, but it appears to matter little, since no real changes have taken place outside of the obscure ("black box") warnings placed on the drug packaging. Could this have something to do with the billions of dollars that the sales of these drugs provide for the pharmaceutical companies as well as their lobbying interests in Washington, DC? Even with their known detrimental effects, the FDA continues to allow them to be developed, marketed, and distributed to a grossly uninformed public.

The following quotation about psychotropic drugs is quite scary given the number of young people on mind-altering psychotropic drugs:

“It is well known that many of the student mass murderers were being prescribed mind-altering psychiatric drugs. T.J. Solomon, the 15-year-old from Conyers, Georgia who shot six classmates in May 1999, was on Ritalin; Eric Harris, 18 years old, the Columbine killer, was being prescribed the antidepressant Luvox; and Kip Kinkel, the 15-year-old from Springfield, Oregon who killed both parents, two schoolmates, and wounded 20 other students on May 21, 1998, was being prescribed Prozac, one of the most widely prescribed among the antidepressants.”

Today’s world is a “medical” police state where sorcery (manipulating man’s mind and body with man-made drugs) is called medicine and where the state totally controls and stops men’s access to God’s own natural remedies.

“He who dwells in the shelter of the Most High will abide in the shadow of the Almighty. I will say to the Lord, “My refuge and my fortress, my God, in whom I trust.” For He will deliver you from the snare of the fowler and from the deadly pestilence. He will cover you with His pinions, and under His wings you will find refuge; His faithfulness is a shield and buckler. You will not fear the terror of the night, nor the arrow that flies by day, ...” -(Psalm 91:1-16)

We, the Church, are being judged right now so we have to be careful not to be caught up in the snare of sorcery that the rulers of this world rely on for their power. The elite are not smart. They are merely psychopathic Satan worshippers who cheated their way to power by relying on sorcery.

This is why technology all of a sudden exploded after the big revolutions of the late 1700s and early 1800s. They removed old world obstacles from their journey to complete sorcery. And one of their spells has the goal of making people not believe sorcery exists. Pray in this matter, and that the sorcerer’s spell be broken from weaker Christians, and those lost in the world.

There is something very sic about the headline and picture below. “The Biden administration says, yes, Ohio caught a nice wave when it offered a lottery for people to get the COVID-19 vaccine — and lots of people did. And now the federal government says it will help other states do what Ohio did if it will encourage vaccinations.”

“Already, more than 2.7 million people have registered for the drawing and 104,386 Ohioans between the ages of 12 to 17 have entered a college scholarship drawing,” Ohio public health officials said.

“The Department of the Treasury released additional guidance Tuesday on how states can use federal funds from the American Rescue Plan for programs that encourage people to get vaccinated,” Andy Slavitt, White House senior adviser for Covid-19 response, said. “This includes lotteries, cash or in-kind transfers and other financial incentives for people to get vaccinated.”

“Ohio Gov. Mike DeWine has unlocked a secret,” Slavitt said during a news briefing. “People do care about getting vaccinated, but it turns out they also have other things they care about. Some of those things might encourage people to think about what might otherwise be a lower priority.”

The federal government supports Vax-a-Million lotteries. The first winners will be chosen today.

A man walks to the entrance for Ohio's COVID-19 mass vaccination clinic at Cleveland State University, Tuesday, May 25, 2021, in Cleveland. Nearly 2.8 million residents have registered for Ohio's Vax-a-Million vaccination incentive program, Gov. Mike DeWine announced Monday, May 24. The drawing winner was announced on Friday, May 28th.

Winners are always told by state lotteries to get themselves an attorney and a financial adviser should they win the lottery. This time winners and losers alike should prepare their last will and testament, based upon the prediction of the 2008 Nobel Prize winner in Medicine had to say recently. “They will all be dead in two years!” The monitors of the real estate market are predicting a huge slump in real estate this fall with a huge inventory of houses and apartments hitting the real estate market. That is when we have been told to expect the death rate from the vaxxes to take off.

The Word of God tells us these reprobates will not even repent when the great wrath of God is poured out on them during the last seven years of the tribulation.

As this information has become public, more and more physicians and parents are troubled by the ethical issues involved. Some ingredients in vaccines (as listed by the CDC on their website) include aluminum (which causes Alzheimer's disease), formaldehyde (embalming fluid), Thimerosal (which contains 49.6 percent mercury). These are toxins which are never to be consumed orally, but in vaccines, they are injected directly into the body. Is this not a veritable witch's brew of chemicals, organisms, and animal parts? What the CDC does NOT list is that 13 vaccines at present (and more are in the works) are actually cultured off aborted human babies, most of the others are cultured off monkey kidney cells, fetal rhesus monkey lung cells or chicken embryos. Dr. Sherri Tenpenny said a few weeks ago there are 162 more Vaxxes under development for the alleged Covid-19. With all of the Big Pharmas getting into the act, it is obvious that this is not going to end well at all. All you have to do is look at the Schedule of Vaxxes required to attend public school by the children of America. It explains why Autism affects 1 out of every 12 children today. In 1989, Autism injured 1 out of 10,000 children.

For 20 years now, scientists have been working on vaccines that can spread all on their own. These are not theoretical ideas or concepts. Self-spreading vaccines have been developed, manufactured, and tested in animal communities. These were tests that were deemed, "a success". Dr. Lee Merritt, a retired Navy orthopedic surgeon and physician confirms what I now share.

We are told infectious diseases like; COVID-19, SARS, MERS, and Ebola originated within the animal kingdom and then spread to humans. So the idea behind a self-spreading vaccine is to prevent virus transmission from animals to humans in the first place.

A 2018 John Hopkins paper titled, "Technologies to Address Global Catastrophic Biological Risks" says it best,

Self-spreading vaccines are genetically engineered to move through populations like communicable diseases, but rather than causing disease, they confer protection. The vision is that a small number of individuals in a target population could be vaccinated, and the vaccine strain would then circulate in the population much like a pathogenic virus, resulting in rapid, widespread immunity.

There are two different ways scientists are developing this questionable technology, (NewScientist).

1. Applying a vaccine to the fur of captured animals and then releasing them back into the environment. Once the animals return to the wild, social grooming results in the vaccine being ingested by other animals.

2. Inserting a small piece of the genome from the infectious disease into a benign virus that spreads naturally through the animal population. As this vaccine (man-made virus) spreads through the animal kingdom, it immunizes them against the targeted disease.

In essence, the idea is to beat deadly viruses at their own game. Yet, this seems like playing God. It can be done to humans as well and that seems to be the objective of the Vaxxes being given to people today.

Fighting natural viruses with man-made viruses just sounds like a bad idea. Sure, in a perfect world where we know all the outcomes it makes sense. In the real world, the possibility of disaster and abuse is almost certain.

For at least 20 years, scientists have been experimenting with such self-spreading vaccines, work that continues to this day, and which has gained the attention of the U.S. military. The same article explains,

The University of California, Davis, for example, is working on a DARPA administered project called Prediction of Spillover Potential and Interventional En Masse Animal Vaccination to Prevent Emerging Pathogen Threats in Current and Future Zones of U.S. Military Operation. According to a pamphlet, the project is “creating the world’s first prototype of a self-disseminating vaccine designed to induce a high level of herd immunity (wildlife population level protection) against Lassa virus ... and Ebola.”

Self-spreading vaccines are not theoretical. They have been developed and tested in live environments. The Bulletin explains, Self-spreading vaccines have some of their roots in efforts to reduce pest populations. Australian researchers described a virally spread immuno-contraception, which hijacked the immune systems of infected animals—in this case a non-native mouse species in Australia—and prevented them from fertilizing offspring. The earliest self-spreading vaccine efforts targeted two highly lethal infectious diseases in the European rabbit population (myxoma virus and rabbit hemorrhagic disease virus). In 2001, Spanish researchers field-tested a vaccine in a wild rabbit population living on Isla del Aire, a small Spanish island just off Menorca. The vaccine spread to more than half the 300 rabbits on the island, and the trial was deemed a success.

At this point, it is hard to imagine any rationally minded person wanting to move forward with this experiment. Yet, we see the U.S. military involvement, and most of the support for this concept comes from within the United States. We can easily see where abuse and warfare could come into play. What has been successful in animal populations is but a Jesuit’ imagination in humanity.

It is disturbing to think such a man-made virus could be unleashed into the world. A man-made virus sold as a vaccine would then cross borders into other nations who may object, and once released, scientists will have no control over its spread or mutation.

No one has the right to introduce something into the environment that could easily spread throughout the world. Not every person or nation will agree with such experiments, yet, they would become participants nevertheless.

Such man-made vaccines (viruses) could certainly cross back into the human race, even if it's not designed to do so through mutation.

Evidence coming in relative to the Mass Murder series is indicating that the Vaxx is the "Kill Shot" and intended to reach those who are defiant or do not plan to get the jab. In an article I wrote a few months ago, I included a photocopy of a document that stated that precisely was part of the global plan to bring about the "Depopulation" of the world.

This is not science, but rather, playing God. This may be one of the factors that will cause God to intervene in this evil world. "And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened." –(Matthew 24:22). I'm hoping and praying that is why God's intervention was prophesied in Matthew 24:22 and Mark 13:22.

You may not agree with me, but I see Revelation 18:23 as a "Depopulation" agenda of last days "Mystery, Babylon the Great....." It has all the earmarks of a Luciferian Freemasonry/Jesuit-planned and executed genocide of humanity. "And the light of a candle shall shine no more at all in thee; and the voice of the bridegroom and of the bride shall be heard no more at all in thee: for thy merchants were the great men of the earth; for by thy sorceries were all nations deceived." -(Revelation 18:23).

Maranatha, Lord Jesus Christ Come!

Do not submit to a "Kill Shot" Vaxx! The Vaxx is the virus. Second, do not bring 5G into your home through the higher speed Internet. 5G cannot penetrate walls or buildings. However, it can be brought in through AT&T, T-Mobile, Verizon, or your local cable provider through your modem. Also, do not upgrade your cell phone to the newer models.
