

The Scriptural Fine Lines of Distinction Are Still Relevant

Part 1

This will be a lesson for those who call themselves Christian and hopefully will benefit the understanding of all in their Bible study. The errors of more than two centuries have piled up and caused confusion across the religious world. We begin with two passages of Scripture from the King James Bible. The first is from Revelation 2:9 and the second is from Revelation 3:9.

“I know thy works, and tribulation, and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan.” -(Revelation 2:9).

“Behold, I will make them of the synagogue of Satan, which say they are Jews, and are not, but do lie; behold, I will make them to come and worship before thy feet, and to know that I have loved thee.” -(Revelation 3:9).

I should first ask if the reader has ever read these two passages of Revelation. Yes, the Lord Jesus Christ was addressing these two passages to two of “seven” early churches in what is today modern-day Turkey. This is the historical context of the passages; however, there is a prophetic element here that is so often overlooked or understood as mistaken identity. Scripture contains numerous examples of prophecies with multiple references or multiple-stage fulfillments. In fact, most (if not all) of the Messianic prophecies had both a near-term realization (applicable to the human author and his day), as well as a long-term fulfillment found in Jesus Christ as future history.

Based on the Biblical precedent of multiple references, we can expect that many of the last days” prophecies will apply to two or more events – or be fulfilled in multiple stages. To make it clear, one of the best examples of a prophecy is found in Isaiah 61:1-3 and is later fulfilled in Luke 4:18-21. I love this one especially since Jesus links Himself to Isaiah seven centuries before. The Book of Isaiah is believed to have been written over several years spanning from 701 BC to 681 BC. The last 26 chapters are thought to have been written by Isaiah in his later years.

Many of the first century Jews were hoping that the Messiah would usher in the kingdom of God immediately -(Luke 19:11). In fact, one of the reasons the Jewish leadership rejected Jesus was that they were anticipating a conquering king who would rule from the throne of David. Many Old Testament passages promised this. For example, Isaiah 9:6-7 says that the Messiah would sit upon the throne of David forever: “For unto us a Child is born, unto us a Son is given; and the government will be upon His shoulder. And His name will be called Wonderful, Counselor, Mighty God, Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace. Of the increase of His government and peace there will be no end, upon the throne of David and over His kingdom, to order it and establish it with judgment and justice from that time forward, even forever...” Many Jews either missed, or chose not to believe, the prophecies regarding a Suffering Messiah -(Isaiah 53; Psalm 22). Even the disciples were hoping that Jesus' earthly kingdom would immediately be set up in Jerusalem: "Lord, will You at this time restore the kingdom to Israel?" -(Acts 1:6). What they did not understand at that time is that some of the Old Testament Messianic prophecies applied to two or more events or were fulfilled in multiple stages. So, in addition to multiple reference prophecies, there are many Bible prophecies which were, or will be, fulfilled in multiple stages. One clear example is Isaiah 61:1-3: "The Spirit of the Lord GOD is upon Me, Because the LORD has anointed Me To preach good tidings to the poor; He has sent Me to heal the brokenhearted, To proclaim liberty to the captives, And the opening of the prison to those who are bound; To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD, And the day of vengeance of our God; To comfort all who mourn, To console those who mourn in Zion, To give them beauty for ashes, The oil of joy for mourning, The garment of praise for the spirit of heaviness; That they may be called trees of righteousness, The planting of the LORD, that He may be glorified..."

At the beginning of Jesus public ministry He quoted Isaiah 61, but stopped halfway through verse 2 with "To proclaim the acceptable year of the LORD" (Luke 4:18-21). Then He said, "Today this Scripture is fulfilled in your hearing" -(Luke 4:21).

The first part of this amazing prophecy was fulfilled at Jesus' first coming when He preached good tidings to the poor, healed the broken, and preached freedom from sin. The second part of this prophecy will be fulfilled during the tribulation period – during "the day of vengeance of our God." And finally, when Christ returns and His millennial reign on earth commences, the rest of Isaiah 61 will be fulfilled. Jesus will then "comfort all who mourn in Zion, ... give them beauty for ashes,..." and fulfill the rest of Isaiah 61. Therefore, this prophecy has at least a three stage fulfillment.

There are literally dozens of prophecies with dual fulfillments. There are far fewer prophecies that reveal triple fulfillments. I am not aware of prophecies having more than three, but I will not say they do not exist. I have not found any but there could be a four-fold fulfillment passage.

Our God is awesome and amazing! He alone is our transcendent Creator, who is sovereign and omniscient and orchestrates world events. He knows the full scope and panorama of history before it happens and has given us a multi-dimensional understanding through His Word. Like a hologram, the Lord has laid-out the full scene of history with multi-dimensional vision and precision through His Word! Isaiah 46:10 declares: "Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:"

Scripture contains numerous examples of prophecies with multiple references or multiple-stage fulfillments. In fact, most (if not all) of the Messianic prophecies had both a near-term realization (applicable to the human author and his day), as well as a long-term fulfillment found in Jesus Christ. Based on the Biblical precedent of multiple references, we can expect that many of the last day's prophecies will apply to two or more events – or be fulfilled in multiple stages.

The important takeaway point here is that Scripture gives us prophecies that can have as many as three different fulfillments, and over long periods of time as well.

If you do a word search, the phrase “synagogue of Satan” occurs only twice, and is found specifically in these two verses of Revelation 2:9 and 3:9. The word “synagogue” is found 43X in 42 (7 X 6) verses. [Matthew 2X; Mark 8X; Luke 9X, John 4X; Acts 17X; Revelation 2X]. I suggest to the reader that these two passages with the phrase “synagogue of Satan” are referring to a later day entity and time period. But first, a little historical background will be helpful:

2:9. The Christians in Smyrna were workers for the Lord, but they were suffering a great deal of tribulation in the form of persecution. These persecutions affected their jobs and reduced them to poverty.

They were also persecuted by Christ-rejecting Jews who claimed to worship God but who really were under the control of Satan. Like the Jews who sought to kill Jesus, they were of their father the devil. -(See John 8:34, 41, 44.) They were actually dishonoring God by their treatment of believers. -(Compare Romans 2:23, 24.) A short time after this, Polycarp, who lived about 69 AD to 156 AD, became bishop (or pastor) of the church in Smyrna. He was taught by several of the apostles, especially the apostle John at Ephesus. He pastored in a very dangerous period, but he was faithful in teaching the truths of the gospel which had been passed on to him. When he was finally martyred by the Romans, he refused to save his life by denouncing Christ. Then the Christ-rejecting Jews of Smyrna broke the Sabbath in order to bring the wood needed to burn him to death -(The Ante-Nicene Fathers, The Martyrdom of Polycarp, 13).

3:9. There was a serious conflict between the church at Philadelphia and the synagogue of the Jews, but Jesus told His followers they would be victorious. That the Jews would bow down before the believers and acknowledge Christ's love for them has an interesting Old Testament background. Many passages refer to Israel's triumph over her enemies in the end times. Then the Gentiles will come and bow down before her - (see Isaiah 45:14; 49:23; 60:14; etc.).

But now Jesus announces that before that prophecy can be fulfilled, Israel herself will have to come and bow down and acknowledge that Christ loves His church. So the apostate Jews who had become the synagogue of Satan will have to repent and humble themselves before God and the New Testament saints who have become part of His family.

When will this occur? Barclay takes this to refer to the time when every knee shall bow before Christ -(Daily Study Bible, Revelation, 1:165). Or it may be that this is a promise to be fulfilled when the Jews as a whole accept Christ as their Messiah and Saviour at

His second coming. As is often true, history is the key that unlocks the mysteries of prophecy. “Now I tell you before it come, that, when it is come to pass, ye may believe that I am he.” -(John 13:19).

This brings me to a point that derails so many that try to interpret the Biblical text. As an example to illustrate my point, I take you to Isaiah 66:8: “Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children.” Most of us equate Isaiah 66:8 as the founding of the modern day state of Israel, founded May 14, 1948, and most of you would say the modern State of Israel is the fulfillment of Isaiah 66:8. But can you assume “Zion” to be a reference to the modern State of Israel.

You cannot understand fully the Bible without some understanding of etymology. Etymology is the study of the origin of words and the way in which their meanings have changed throughout history. Strong's Number H6726 matches the Hebrew צִיּוֹן (Tsiyown), which occurs 154X (7 X 22) times in 154 verses in the Hebrew concordance of the KJV. One Christian internet site “Got Questions” has this to say about Zion.

Question: "What is Zion? What is Mount Zion? What is the biblical meaning of Zion?"

Answer: Psalm 87:2–3 says, “The Lord loves the gates of Zion / more than all the other dwellings of Jacob. / Glorious things are said of you, / city of God.” According to this verse, Zion is synonymous with city of God, and it is a place that God loves. Zion is Jerusalem. Mount Zion is the high hill on which David built a citadel. It is on the southeast side of the city.

The word Zion occurs over 150 times in the Bible. It essentially means “fortification” and has the idea of being “raised up” as a “monument.” Zion is described both as the city of David and the city of God. As the Bible progresses, the word Zion expands in scope and takes on an additional, spiritual meaning.

The first mention of Zion in the Bible is 2 Samuel 5:7: “David captured the fortress of Zion—which is the City of David.” Zion was originally an ancient Jebusite fortress in the city of Jerusalem. After David’s conquest of the fortress, Jerusalem became a possession of Israel. The royal palace was built there, and Zion/Jerusalem became the seat of power in Israel’s kingdom..

When Solomon built the temple in Jerusalem, the meaning of Zion expanded further to include the temple area -(Psalm 2:6; 48:2, 11–12; 132:13). This is the meaning found in the prophecy of Jeremiah 31:6, “Come, let us go up to Zion, to the LORD our God.” In the Old Testament Zion is used as a name for the city of Jerusalem -(Isaiah 40:9), the land of Judah -(Jeremiah 31:12), and the nation of Israel as a whole -(Zechariah 9:13).

The word Zion is also used in a theological or spiritual sense in Scripture. In the Old Testament Zion refers figuratively to Israel as the people of God -(Isaiah 60:14). In the New Testament, Zion refers to God's spiritual kingdom. We have not come to Mount Sinai, says the apostle, but "to Mount Zion and to the city of the living God, the heavenly Jerusalem" -(Hebrews 12:22). Peter, quoting Isaiah 28:16, refers to Christ as the Cornerstone of Zion: "See, I lay a stone in Zion, a chosen and precious cornerstone, and the one who trusts in him will never be put to shame" -(1 Peter 2:6).

Mount Zion as a geographical area is currently the center of much dispute. The Bible is clear that, one day, Zion will be the sole possession of the Lord Jesus, and Zion—the nation and the city—will be restored. "Awake, awake, / Clothe yourself in your strength, O Zion; / Clothe yourself in your beautiful garments, / O Jerusalem, the holy city; / For the uncircumcised and the unclean / Will no longer come into you" -(Isaiah 52:1). And "the children of your oppressors will come bowing before you; / all who despise you will bow down at your feet / and will call you the City of the LORD, / Zion of the Holy One of Israel" -(Isaiah 60:14).

Now that should do it, wouldn't you agree? Well it might be acceptable in Bible College and even many seminaries as well. Not so for a Th.D. or Ph.D. doctoral thesis in Biblical Studies. Bear with me on this because it is essential background in understanding the difference between 'Judaism' and 'Zionism'. So many Bible Prophecy teachers lump together these two words as if they were synonymous. The word "Zion" requires one to know the etymology to gain greater clarity.

Zion = Sion = Sun = Babylonian SUN CULT = FALSE CHRISTIANITY

For most people "Zion" is the name for Jerusalem as well as for the nation of Israel (Isis-Ra-EI). More specifically "Sion" is the name given to a hill of Judea on which the city of Jerusalem is built. In reality, the name "Zion" refers to "Sion", meaning "Sun". Therefore the name "Zionism" is actually referring to the "SUN"-cult, the Babylonian cult, and relates to secret societies like the "Priore de Sion" or "Priory of Sion", which lost some of its secrecy because of the fact that the Rennes le Chateau mystery became so popular among certain circles. The Priory of Sion is a secret society created around the Merovingian bloodline (whose ancestors can be traced back to the royals of Sumer, Troy and the Greek "gods") and related to the Templars as well as the Illuminati. It's particularly important because of the true meaning of "Zion", that Jerusalem's hill has been named that way. As for the Sun-cult adepts, hills symbolize the way to get closer to their God, due to the fact that at the top of them one is closer to the Sun, symbolizing their God. Hence "mount Sion" or "Sun mountain".

"Zion" is the Hebrew name for a hill south of the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, upon which was built the City of David. In its most specific sense, Mount Zion is not to be confused with Mount Moriah, better known as the Temple Mount, upon which the Temple of Solomon and the Second Temple were built. The location of the Temple, and in particular its Holy of Holies (innermost sanctum), is the most holy place in the world for the Jewish people, seen as the connection between God and humanity. Torah-

Observant Jews recite the “Amidah” three times a day facing the Temple Mount in Jerusalem, praying for the rebuilding of the Holy Temple, the restoration of the Temple service, the redemption of the world, and for the coming of the Messiah. What is the “Amidah?”

The “Amidah” is said in an inaudible undertone. At its conclusion, the person praying takes three steps back and then three steps forward. This prayer is not interrupted by any announcements or accompanied by any singing. Chabad Jews bow four times during the “Amidah”, twice at the beginning and twice close to the conclusion. Moving from praise to petition to thanksgiving, the “Amidah” inculcates a sense of connection to God.

All of Christianity (Organized Religion) incorporates Lucifer “SUN” Worship/ Babylon “Mystery” Religion (Roman Catholicism) 666 = (“UNIVERSALISM”) and has been infiltrated and corrupted by Jesuit/Roman Catholic ecumenism, Freemasonry and the Charismatic movement. Have you ever attended an Easter “Sunrise” service? If you have, chances are you did not realize that you worshipping the “Sun” and not the “Son”. Within many Protestant denominations, congregations will have an Easter Sunrise service, followed by the men serving breakfast in the church basement social hall. Such traditions are still observed by many churches. At my last pastoral assignment, in 1998, my congregation did observe Easter Sunrise services. It would have been their last had I not left the UMC, as it is a Pagan custom, appropriated by Roman Catholicism from Babylonian “SUN” worship. Roman Catholicism is all about “SUN” worship and not “SON” worship. It’s part of Satan’s trickery!

Church people love traditions, often unaware of the roots of these traditions. All too often, many of these traditions came from Roman Catholicism, which in turn adopted them from the Pagan religions being observed in countries conquered by the Roman Empire. Being passed down from year to year, the real meaning of those Pagan traditions simply became engrained in the denominations that were referred to as the daughter churches of Rome. The PCA or Presbyterian Church in America has a Checklist of Considerations for Planting Daughter Churches or Second Sites.

The Need to Define Zionism and Judaism

It is a sad state that Christian Bible Prophecy teachers do not see the need to define Zionism and Judaism. The likes of John Hagee, Dr. David Reagan, Perry Stone, Hal Lindsey, draw no distinction and lump the many sects of Judaism as a Monolithic group or body of people. If one studies “Jewish Ethnic Divisions” of Wikipedia, it becomes apparent that there are many different divisions and branches around the world. Certainly, Judaism is not a homogenous entity. My initial exposure to the diversity of Judaism came with the radio program, “Jews for Jesus” over many years of study. Wikipedia identifies more than three dozen sects and branches throughout the world and they do not list them all. One really needs a program guide or directory to differentiate particulars of each group. This diversity issue is probably the key reason that Protestant Bible Prophecy teachers treat them all of the same religious body.

Orthodox Jews believe that God gave Moses the Torah, and it contains 613 mitzvot (commandments) that are binding upon Jews. Modern Orthodox Jews strictly observe halakhah (Jewish Law), but still integrate into modern society. Ultra-Orthodox Jews strictly observe Jewish laws and do not integrate into modern society. During worship service in a synagogue men and women often sit separately. Men are usually wearing a head covering (yarmulkes or kippot), and during some services a prayer shawl (Tallit). Songs and liturgy are generally in Hebrew. Orthodox Jews believe in the rebuilding of the temple and the resurrection of the dead. The Torah is often viewed through the eyes of rabbinic commentators such as Rashi.

There is an Ultra-Orthodox community of Jews, and they represent the extreme branches of Judaism: 1. Chabad Lubavitch Hasidic Jews; 2. Haredi Jews; 3. Hasidic Jews; 4. Satmar Hasidic Jews; and 5. Neturei Karta. By and large, most of these stand out by their dress and fashion. But they differ significantly in custom and practices.

Zionism and Judaism are two separate religions with many differences between them. One of the main differences between Zionism and Judaism is that Zionism explains the faith of some Jewish people while Judaism explains the philosophical and the metaphysical truths that caused the formation of the Jewish state. Judaism has a very fundamentalist outlook. On the other hand, Zionism does not have a fundamentalist outlook. One of the important observations, when it comes to the difference between Zionism and Judaism is that, all the practitioners of Zionism are the practitioners of Judaism, as well. On the other hand, not all the practitioners of Judaism are the practitioners of Zionism. This is because all Jews do not agree with the extremist views of Zionism. There is a common comical expression, put three Jews together and you will have four different opinions.

What is Judaism?

The practitioners of Judaism are called Jews. The practitioners of Judaism live in several parts of the world particularly in Israel and America. It is not necessary that all of them should subscribe to the views of Zionism. When it comes to center focus, Judaism is centered on spirituality. On the other hand, Judaism is all about spiritual growth. It speaks a lot about piety. Judaism says that spirituality and piety are the goals set by the Almighty on the people or the followers of the religion.

Another important observation, when it comes to the study of Judaism is that, this religion opposes military prowess as the supreme prowess. One need not show technological advancement as proof of the power. A Jew or the follower of Judaism is more concerned about the history of the Jews. Judaism teaches that human life should be led with simplicity and dignity, and this is the reason why we see the Jews lead simple and dignified lives.

Judaism teaches that the Jews should involve themselves in the performance of rituals in a regular manner. A Jew is a strict believer in the existence of God and the Torah, which is the holy book of Jewish people. Judaism says that the Jews should live or lead their lives according to the tenets or the dogmas of the holy book called the Torah. As you may know, the Torah is based upon the first five books of the Old Testament – Genesis, Exodus, Leviticus, Numbers. And Deuteronomy.

What is Zionism?

Zionism is a religion followed by some of the Jewish population. This is an extreme view that is not peaceful. Moreover, the practitioners of Zionism are called Zionists. One of the important differences between Zionism and Judaism is that Zionism is more centered on racism. Zionism concentrates on expansionism as well, in addition to racism. Moreover, Zionism believes in the power of technological advancement. It says that high technology is a driver of force. Zionism, especially, speaks about the right of the Zionist on the Holy Land. It speaks about how the other people have conquered the lands that actually belonged to them.

What is the difference between Zionism and Judaism?

• Definitions of Zionism and Judaism:

- Judaism is a peaceful religion based on the Torah.
- Zionism is a faith followed by some extremist Jews and is not peaceful. The Talmud has greater importance than the Torah.

• Name of the Practitioner:

- The practitioner or the follower of Judaism is known as a Jew.
- The practitioner or the follower of Zionism is known as A Zionist.

• Objective:

- The objective of Jews is to follow the God's word and live accordingly.
- The objective of Zionists is taking back the Holy Land of Jews using military force.

• Center Focus:

- Judaism is centered on spirituality.
- Zionism is more centered on racism.

• Military Power and Technology:

- Judaism does not believe that military power and technology should be considered as ways of showing one's power.
- Zionism believes very much about military power and technological advancements. This is another key difference between Zionism and Judaism.

• Torah and the God:

- Judaism respects and accepts the Torah and the God.
- Zionism does not respect or accept the Torah and the God.

• Connection between Zionism and Judaism:

- All Zionists are Jews.
- However, not all Jews are Zionists.

These are the fundamental differences between Zionism and Judaism.

After almost two millennia of the Jewish diaspora residing in various countries without a national state, the Zionist movement was founded in the late 19th century by secular Jews, largely as a response by Ashkenazi Jews to rising antisemitism in Europe, exemplified by the Dreyfus affair in France and the anti-Jewish pogroms in the Russian Empire. The political movement was formally established by the Austro-Hungarian journalist Theodor Herzl in 1897 following the publication of his book 'Der Judenstaat' (The Jewish State). At that time the movement sought to encourage Jewish migration to Ottoman Palestine.

The following is the view of Neturei Karta, one of the other five branches of Ultra-Orthodox Judaism. They actively picket and protest the more radical Chabad-Lubavitch.

JUDAISM VERSUS ZIONISM

Judaism believes in One God who revealed the Torah. It affirms Divine Providence and, accordingly, views Jewish exile as a punishment for sin. Redemption may be achieved solely through prayer and penance. Judaism calls upon all Jews to obey the Torah in its entirety including the commandment to be patriotic citizens.

Zionism rejects the Creator, His Revelation and reward and punishment. Among its fruits are the persecution of the Palestinian people and the spiritual and physical endangering of the Jewish people. It encourages treasonous, dual loyalty among unsuspecting Jews throughout the world. At its root Zionism sees reality as barren and desecralized. It is the antithesis of Torah Judaism.

There is a vile lie, which stalks the Jewish people across the globe. It is a lie so heinous, so far from the truth, that it can only gain popularity due to the complicity of powerful forces in the "mainstream" media and educational establishment.

It is a lie which has brought many innocent people untold suffering and if unchecked has the potential to create extraordinary tragedy in the future.

It is the lie that declares that Judaism and Zionism are identical.

Nothing could be further from the truth.

Judaism is the belief in revelation at Sinai. It is the belief that exile is a punishment for Jewish sins.

Zionism has for over a century denied Sinai revelation. It believes that Jewish exile can be ended by military aggression.

Zionism has spent the past century strategically dispossessing the Palestinian people. It has ignored their just claims and subjected them to persecution, torture and death.

Torah Jews the world over are shocked and pained at this short-lived dogma of irreligiosity and cruelty. Thousands of Torah scholars and saints have condemned this movement from its inception. They knew that the pre-existing good relationship between Jews and Muslims in the Holy Land was bound to suffer as Zionism advanced.

The so-called "State of Israel" stands rejected on religious grounds by the Torah. Its monstrous insensitivity to the laws of basic decency and fairness appall all men be they Jewish or not.

The Neturei Karta has been in the forefront of the battle against Zionism for over a century. Their presence here is to refute the base lie that the evil, which is Zionism, in some way represents the Jewish people.

The reverse is true.

The Neturei Karta is saddened day in and day at the terrible toll of death emanating from the Holy Land. Not one of them would have occurred if Zionism had not unleashed its evil energies upon the world.

As Jews Neturei Karta are called upon to live in peace and harmony with all men. They are exhorted to be law abiding and patriotic citizens in all lands.

They condemn the current Zionist atrocities in the Holy Land. They yearn for peace based upon mutual respect. They are convinced that this proposed mutual respect is doomed to fail as long as the Israeli state exists. We welcome its abolition in a peaceful manner.

May we be worthy of true redemption when all men will join in brotherhood in His worship, is their plea.

This Orthodox faction actively protests against Zionism in their New York communities.

Although, initially one of several Jewish political movements offering alternative responses to assimilation and antisemitism, Zionism expanded rapidly. In its early stages, supporters considered setting up a Jewish state in the historic territory of Palestine. After World War II and the destruction of Jewish life in Central and Eastern Europe where these alternative movements were rooted, it became dominant in the thinking about a Jewish national state.

By creating an alliance with Great Britain and securing support for some years for Jewish emigration to Palestine, Zionists also recruited European Jews to immigrate there, especially Jews who lived in areas of the Russian Empire where anti-Semitism was raging. The alliance with Britain was strained as the latter realized the implications of the Jewish movement for Arabs in Palestine, but the Zionists persisted. The movement was eventually successful in establishing Israel on May 14, 1948 (5 Iyyar 5708 in the Hebrew calendar), as the homeland for the Jewish people. The proportion of the world's Jews living in Israel has steadily grown since the movement emerged. By the early 21st century, more than 40% of the world's Jews lived in Israel, more than in any other country outside the U.S. These two outcomes represent the historical success of Zionism, and are unmatched by any other Jewish political movement in the past 2,000 years. In some academic studies, Zionism has been analyzed both within the larger context of diaspora politics and as an example of modern national liberation movements.

Zionism also sought assimilation of Jews into the modern world. As a result of the diaspora, many of the Jewish people remained outsiders within their adopted countries and became detached from modern ideas. So-called "assimilationist" Jews desired complete integration into European society. They were willing to downplay their Jewish identity and in some cases to abandon traditional views and opinions in an attempt at modernization and assimilation into the modern world. A less extreme form of assimilation was called cultural synthesis. Those in favor of cultural synthesis desired continuity and only moderate evolution, and were concerned that Jews should not lose their identity as a people. "Cultural synthesists" emphasized both a need to maintain traditional Jewish values and faith, and a need to conform to a modernist society, for instance, in complying with work days and rules.

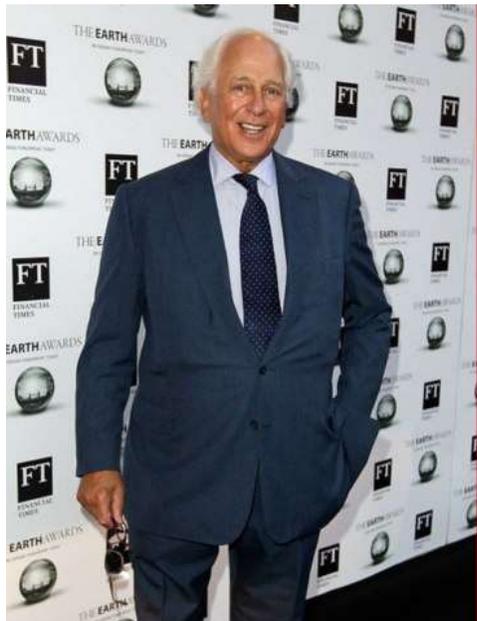

In 1975, the United Nations General Assembly passed Resolution 3379, which designated Zionism as "a form of racism and racial discrimination". The resolution was repealed in 1991 by replacing Resolution 3379 with Resolution 46/86. Opposition to Zionism in principle has also sometimes been called racist and has been characterized as fostering the segregation of peoples that should seek peaceful coexistence.

The Chabad Lubavitchers are the leading Zionist element in the world today. Their numbers grow steadily and are in the 300,000 range. They bring with them 'deep pockets' individuals like Sheldon Adelson worth $35+ billions. As I pointed out in my recent article 'The Nearness of the Blessed Hope', the Chabad Lubavitchers are determined to bring forth the messiah, and with their presence in the White House with Jared Kushner and President Donald J. Trump, who is tasked with bringing a Rothschild central bank to Iran, we are closer than you can imagine.

The picture on page 13 is that of Evelyn De Rothschild and some of the credits of the House of Rothschild. The House of Rothschild are largely unknown to the man on the street; however, they are worth \$300-Trillion dollars, and control at least  $\frac{3}{4}$  of all global assets. One of the world's most authoritative work is a book entitled, 'The Synagogue of Satan'. Currently, it is out of print, but the theme of the book is exactly what I believe that Revelation 2:9 and 3:9 is referring to when it speaks of a group of people who call themselves Jews and they are not Jews. Andrew Carrington Hitchcock has chronicled the Rothschild family since it changed its name from Bauer to Rothschild, and adopted what is known as the "Red Schield" as translated in German.

The passages of Revelation 2:9 and 3:9 are prophetic as well as historical commentary of Jesus' views of the "seven" churches singled out in the two chapters to provide them a progress or "report card" summary of their work. The Lord was uniquely presenting a message for the End Times as well. Since most people when reading the text of chapters 2 and 3 here, casually pass over the meaning of the text in Revelation

2:9 and 3:9, something that has profound meaning and implications for the Church today.

The Synagogue of Satan: The Secret History of Jewish World Domination

By Andrew Carrington Hitchcock

- The Book of Revelation, Chapter 2, Verse 9, states the following which would appear to be about these Ashkenazi Jews:

"I know thy works, and tribulation and poverty, (but thou art rich) and I know the blasphemy of them which say they are Jews, and are not, but are the synagogue of Satan."

In this article, I am bringing together a number of things that help the reader understand better the nuances of Scripture, etymology study of word meanings, and the existence of multi-meaning of passages. There are many aspects of interpretation and understanding that seminary students are trained and equipped to use in their exposition of Scripture that bring out the depth and wealth of information that I like to call the diamonds and nuggets of the Bible. Although the available lexicons and concordances are helpful, so much more is buried in the text of the original Greek and Hebrew. And since the majority of pastors are no longer required to take Biblical languages, there is often a huge disconnect for people and the Bible.

85 - 90% of Jews are Khazars

- You will find that approximately 85 - 90% of people in the world today who call themselves Jews are actually Khazars, or as they like to be known, Ashkenazi Jews.
- These people knowingly lie to the world with their claims that the land of Israel is theirs by birthright, when in actual fact their real homeland is over 800 miles away in Georgia.

As is the case with most of our Bible Prophecy teachers who fail to differentiate between the Jews of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob; and with the fake Khazars who have co-opted the identity of being Jews by conversion. Is that an important issue? Israel today is 85% Ashkenazi Jews and I would state that it is a big problem for Christians who are unaware of this most important distinction.

The organized church's support of Zionist Israel is an endorsement of heresy against Jesus Christ, our Savior and King! This ought not be! As the Apostle Paul wrote in 2nd Corinthians 6:14: "Do not be unequally yoked with unbelievers. For what partnership has righteousness with lawlessness? Or what fellowship has light with darkness?” Zionists hate Jesus Christ as much as the Pharisees and Sadducees of Jesus' day.

Khazarian Ashkenazis

- The Rothschilds “claim” that they are Jewish, when in fact they are Khazars. They are from a country called Khazaria, which occupied the land locked between the Black Sea and the Caspian Sea which is now predominantly occupied by Georgia.
- The reason the Rothschilds claim to be Jewish is that the Khazars under the instruction of the King, converted to the Jewish faith in (or about) 740 A.D., but of course that did not include converting their Asiatic Mongolian genes to the genes of the Jewish people.

Lucifer has blinded Christians with a veil of slumber, such that many Christians in fact worship the heresy of Zionism. As Paul noted, “For now we see through a glass, darkly; but then face to face: now I know in part; but then shall I know even as also I am known.” -(1st Corinthians 13:12).

The danger of the revealed fact that President Trump is a staunch-Zionist Chabad Jew is mortifying to Christians when you consider the implications of what I wrote in my recent post, ‘The Nearness of the Blessed Hope’. I would remind you that this radical Zionist Chabad Lubavitcher sect worships the Talmud, which incidentally, is as dangerous as is the Muslim Kuran. When I was a seminary student, I had considered purchasing a set of the Talmud. However, when I took the time to review the seminary library resource set of the Talmud, I was appaled by what I read in the Talmud. The Soncino Hebrew/English Babylonian Talmud is a 30-volumn collection and if you have any doubts about what I share, I urge you to simply search the phrase “What does the Talmud say about Jesus Christ?” There is absolutely no value in a Christian pastor owning a set of the Talmud. It truly speaks to the evil of the Zionist movement and the blasphemous words against Jesus Christ.

Believe me, when people quote from the Talmud, they have either never read the Talmud or do they understand the vile content contained in the Talmud. Bible Prophecy teachers have been deluded into supporting heresy of Zionism.

The Rothschild Red Shield also known as
The star of Moloch, the demon Seal of Solomon

Ask yourself, why would Israel permit the Rothschild Satanic Star of the Rothschild family get to appear on the Israeli official State Flag?

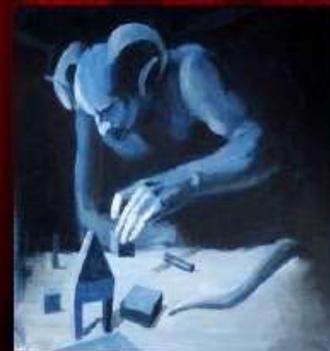

The facts be known, the Babylonian Talmud is Satanic! The Babylonian Talmud is anti-Christ and anti-Christian. The Ashkenazi Jewish leaders believe that their Babylonian Talmud supersedes the Bible in authority, and it says blasphemous things such as:

- "Jesus is in hell, being boiled in "hot excrement." Gittin 57a
- "Jesus' mother was a whore who played the harlot with carpenters." Shabbath 104b
- "Christians are allied with hell, and Christianity is worse than incest." Abodah Zara 17a
- "Just the Jews are humans, the non-Jews are no humans, but cattle." Kerithuth 6b
- "God's name is not profaned if a Jew lies to a Goy." Baba Kamma 113b.

Since the Babylonian Talmud is clearly anti-Christ and anti-Christian, Christians should not be supporting the Zionist movement. Any Bible Prophecy ministry must be held accountable for their support of the modern Zionist State of Israel.

The TALMUD Is the book Of the scribes And Pharisees

- 1770: Mayer Amschel Rothschild draws up plans for the creation of the Illuminati and entrusts Ashkenazi Jew, Adam Weishaupt, a Crypto-Jew who was outwardly Roman Catholic, with its organization and development.
- The Illuminati is to be based upon the teachings of the Talmud, which is in turn, the teachings of Rabbinical Jews. It was to be called the Illuminati as this is a Luciferian term which means, keepers of the light.

The House of Rothschild was the moving force, both politically and financially, behind the original Zionist movement of Jews back to the land of Israel. The Satanic Illuminist, Rothschild, began the Zionist Movement in 1896, funded the agitation through 1948 to get Israel re-established back in the land, and has owned the leadership of Israel up to the current day. To see the reality of this fact, you only need to examine Israel's flag, the most Satanic of all symbols, the hexagram.

The hexagram is Satan's symbol for Israel, while the menorah is God's symbol. The authority on this is Dr. O.J. Graham, author of the book 'The Six-Pointed Star: Its Origin and Usage'. You will find it hard to believe. Can this be true? Is it possible that God's mandated Menorah is the real symbol for Ancient Israel, and not the "Star of David"?

Wikipedia Encyclopedia states: "The menorah (Hebrew: ?????), is a seven branched candelabrum lit by olive oil in the Tabernacle and the Temple in Jerusalem. The menorah is one of the oldest symbols of the Jewish people. It is said to symbolize the burning bush as seen by Moses on Mount Sinai (Exodus 25)."

Not satisfied? Listen to other sources:

"The Menorah has served as a uniquely Jewish symbol from antiquity to contemporary times. The Menorah can be found on ancient coins, gravestones, synagogue decorations. Today the Menorah serves as the seal and emblem of the Jewish State of Israel." ("About Judaism", <http://judaism.about.com/cs/hanukkah/f/Menorah.htm> )

Did you catch that pertinent quote? The Menorah was the symbol of Judaism "from antiquity to contemporary times".

"The menorah which appears on the emblem of the State of Israel was copied from the relief carved into the Arch of Titus in Rome, where it had once stood for the suppression of the Jewish Revolt, the conquest of Jerusalem, and the destruction of the Temple. In this context, the symbol of the menorah expresses the thesis and antithesis of Jewish history." ('The Seventh-Branched Menorah: An Evolving Jewish Symbol', by Ida Huberman)

"The menorah was the most important symbol of the Temple after the Ark of the Covenant. The image of the biblical menorah is the symbol of the modern state of Israel." ("Israel seeks return of Temple artifacts", World Net Daily, January 16, 2004)

"One of the oldest symbols of the Jewish faith is the menorah, a seven-branched candelabrum used in the Temple." ('Jewish Symbols: The Menorah', Doing Judaism - <http://www.doingzionism.org.il/resources/view.asp?id=48>)

"The menorah is the official symbol of the Jewish nation." ("The history of the menorah", Jewish-Art.org, <http://www.jewish-art.org/menorah.html> )

"The national emblem of the State of Israel includes a seven branched-candelabrum, called Menorah, flanked by two olive branches." ("Menorah - Emblem of the State of Israel", (Israel Science and Technology, "Menorah - Emblem of the State of Israel", <http://www.science.co.il/Israel-Emblem.asp> )

"The menorah is a seven-branched candelabrum often seen on Jewish tombstones, especially those of women. The menorah is one of the oldest symbols of Judaism." ("Cemeteries and Cemetery Symbols", <http://cemeteries.wordpress.com/2006/09/18/menorah/> )

"The seven-branched menorah's presence in the Holy Temple had been commanded in the Torah (the Hebrew Bible or Old Testament) ... Over the years, the menorah has evolved to represent more than a candelabra. It has become a symbol of Judaism, and is even used on some Israeli coins." ("Hanukkah: The Dedication of the Temple, the Meaning of the Menorah, the Whirling Wonder of the Dreidel", Galleria Judaica: The Jewish Wedding Experts" - <http://www.galleryjudaica.com/articles/hanukah.html> )

Let us now return to a discussion as to how the Hexagram is really a Satanic symbol which apostate Jews have used since the time of Ancient Babylon and Egypt.

If you just glance at the Israeli flag, you will easily see that the dominant symbol is a Satanic hexagram! Yes, it is called a "Star of David", because King Solomon adopted it as a main symbol when he was building pagan temples for some of his pagan wives. Former Satanists adamantly state that King Solomon actually became one of the most powerful Shamans in world history, having slipped deeply into the practice of the occult. Let us now examine the writings of Dr. Graham to see how correct former Satanists have been on this subject.

"The first mention of this symbol was in 922 BC, when Solomon got involved in witchcraft and magic ... this book traces the worship of Ashtroreth (Astartee --meaning star) and Chiun and Remphan (meaning star) from the Egyptians before Solomon's time. Then afterward, in Arab magic and witchcraft, through the Middle Ages, it was used by the Druids, during the highest Sabbath of the witches, called Halloween. The family of the Rothschild, Zionist and Hitler has all used the symbol, as has the Israeli Knesset. Finally, it is featured on the flag of Israel." (Dr. O.J. Graham, "The Six-Pointed Star", pg. 3, Introduction)

Please ask yourself: where in the Bible the hexagram is used as a symbol of Israel? I really want to see that Scripture and verse reference. If you can find it, please let me know. My research tells me that the hexagram is one of the Satanic symbols with which apostate Jewry fell in love time and time again in Israel's long ancient history.

Then, when the time had arrived for God to bring Satan back to her land, in fulfillment of so many Old Testament prophecies, He allowed Satan to actually bring Israel back, in fulfillment of the prophecy of Ezekiel 37:8d, where God prophesied that He would bring Israel back to life, and stand her on her feet, but initially put "no spirit" in her; since Bible scholars have always recognized that this is a reference to the Holy Spirit, and since the Holy Spirit always testifies of Jesus -(John 15:26), this prophecy must mean that Israel will return initially to her land, without a belief in Jesus Christ as Messiah.

And, of course, this is exactly what occurred. The most important Illuminati family ever, the Rothschild's, were instrumental in raising up the Zionist Movement in 1896, in funding its activities, and then forcing the Illuminati leaders of Israel in 1948 to adopt the hexagram as their national symbol.

Well-meaning Christians today are allowing themselves to be duped into supporting Israel today, for that leadership is deeply Satanic and is actively supporting the coming Masonic Messiah, and the rebuilding of the Temple for him. This current Israeli leadership is planning to build the next Temple - which too Christians have supported - which is going to be the Temple of Antichrist.

Israel is proceeding to complete fulfillment of prophecy, which will culminate in the Masonic Christ (Antichrist) coming to the world scene, deceiving Israel and then being slaughtered in fulfillment of Zechariah 13:8-9, where God will allow Antichrist to kill 66% of all Jews. This is the point where all these Illuminati Jews will meet their Maker. Events in Israel are setting the stage for the last fulfillment in world history.

The truth is that the House of Rothschild used their money and power to substitute the six-pointed hexagram rather than what would have been the seven-branch Menorah.

Stephen mentions this star in Acts 7:42-43: "Then God turned, and gave them up to worship the host of heaven; as it is written in the book of the prophets, O ye house of Israel, have ye offered to me slain beasts and sacrifices by the space of forty years in the wilderness? Yea, ye took up the tabernacle of Moloch, and the star of your god Remphan, figures which ye made to worship them: and I will carry you away beyond Babylon. THE TABERNACLE OF MOLOCH, AND THE STAR OF YOUR GOD REMPHAN, figures which ye made to worship them..."

The star of Solomon, or the Luciferian star, dates back over 4000 years, and was in many ancient cultures. This is very important because this star has been connection to false Pagan worship and Moses had a very difficult time getting the people of Israel to forsake this false religion. During the period of the Middle Ages the symbol became connected with MAGIC and protection, along with the pentagram or five-pointed star. The connection with magic dates much earlier than the middle ages for both stars. This can easily be proven by a quick study on magic and witchcraft.

The so-called Star of David also called the Shield of David, or Mogen David, in reality, is the Seal of Solomon, when he turned reprobate, Luciferian, and was fully given over to the occult. THE STAR OF DAVID IS NOT MENTIONED IN SCRIPTURE.

Though the phrase "Star of David" itself does not appear in the Bible, it is obvious that there is a star mentioned. Also we should take special note of two Tabernacles mentioned in Scripture. There always have been TRUE and FALSE tabernacles. There were TWO TABERNACLES in the wilderness. The true and the false. Notice how the Word of God clearly identifies these two tabernacles and places THE FALSE ONE WITH A STAR.

- THE TRUE - Psalm 78:59-60: “When God heard this, he was wrath, and greatly abhorred Israel: So that he forsook the tabernacle of Shiloh, the tent which he placed among men;”
- THE FALSE - Amos 5:25-26: “Have ye offered unto me sacrifices and offerings in the wilderness forty years, O house of Israel? But ye have borne the tabernacle of your Moloch and Chiun your images, the star of your god, which ye made to yourselves. THE TABERNACLE OF YOUR MOLOCH AND CHIUN your images, the STAR OF YOUR GOD, WHICH YE MADE TO YOURSELVES.”

Evangelical Christians have been deceived by Zionism, believing it is the work of God, when in fact it is of Lucifer. What the Zionist/political/physical State of Israel supporting Christians must understand is that the elite Jews hate Jesus Christ! Just as the Sadducees, and Pharisees hated Jesus Christ and had Him crucified, if Jesus were to come today, this Talmud/Kabbalah following group would have Him crucified all over again! No Jewish sect represents this greater than the Chabad Lubavitchers.

The present nation of Israel was secured through tyranny, driving out the Arabs at gun-point, and not by the hand of God. Ezekiel 37:21-23 tell us that the Lord will regather Israel when He returns to reign as King after the Tribulation period. Just as Abraham and Sara decided to take matters into their own hands (i.e., Hagar and Ishmael) instead of waiting for God's promise—so have Zionist Jews today decided to control their own affairs without God.

Sadly, most Jews are hell-bound without Christ, following demonic Judaism and the Kaballah instead of the Word of God. No unsaved Jew will ever see the Promised Land (2nd Thessalonians 1:8 applies to Jews too). God is NO respecter of persons - (Acts 10:34). Zionism is a false doctrine. It is a Luciferian lie based on the idea that the Jews were God's "Chosen People". It is true that they were "Chosen" for the purpose to make known the Creator among the peoples of the world. They "dropped the ball" and failed to obey, and history shows that God took from the Jews, the three things they revered: 1. The Torah, 2. The Temple, and 3. The Land.

Zionism is the teaching that Israel should be treated more special than everyone else, essentially the teaching of Jewish Supremacy. Such legitimacy was used by the Rothschild's as a pre-text of establishing a home land for all Jews, and Israel today, which by all standards is a "Racist State" today, as no Christians can settle in Israel unless they renounce their faith in Jesus Christ. Romans 2:11 clearly states that God is NO respecter of persons, and neither should we be.

This article may shock you, but I can state unequivocally, everything in it is the total truth. Christian Zionists have been deceived by Bible Prophecy teachers for decades. Regretfully, most Christians do not look at Scripture objectively. We have taken the events since 1948 to be a message whereby God has been working in the lives of the State of Israel. We have allowed ourselves to be enamored by the struggle of the Zionist State as a work of God, when in reality it has been a work of Lucifer.

Dr. Chuck Baldwin has said it took him seven years to work through all these inconsistencies. He said he graduated from Liberty University and trained in Dispensational theology under the late Dr. Jerry Falwell. Like Dr. Baldwin and others who have had to wrestle with the differences between the Torah and the Talmud; only to come to a catharsis point of learning not to be beguiled by Lucifer's lies. Jesus Christ warned Christians that deception would be the game played upon us, and that even the very elite themselves would be ensnared in the lies of Lucifer.

We Fighting to Enslave Ourselves and Make the Rothschilds Richer?

It is not too late to wake up to the truth that we have errantly been supportive of the Luciferian agenda of destroying the bloodline of the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. The Rothschild's are Luciferian to the core, and their plan from the beginning has been to rule the world from the State of Israel. I came to the reality of all this many years ago but like Dr. Chuck Baldwin, had to go back to Bible 101, and unlearn what Bible Prophecy teachers and ministries were feeding me. I'm much older than Dr. Baldwin, and have been a student of Bible prophecy since June 7, 1967.

In the years since I awoke from the slumber thinking that Zionism was the same as Judaism it occurred to me that perhaps God has given us a few years as a reprieve, that perhaps America would awaken to the truth of where this nation was headed. Think about it, this Satanist witch above would have launched a war for Zionism many months ago had she won the 2016 election.

The Clintons were in the hip pocket of the Rothschild's, in fact she was their original choice for the 2016 election. From what I have read and learned in my research, Hillary was planning a war against Syria and Iran for the benefit of Benjamin Netanyahu and the Rothschild's. Note the friendliness of the Rothschild's and the Clintons in the photograph below. This particular Rothschild is married to an American woman, they live in New York City part of the year and in the UK part of the year.

How do I know it was possible for the Rothschild's to rig the switch from Hillary to Donald J. Trump in 2016? This was accomplished through the Rothschild's ownership of the UK, particularly a UK company called SERCO. Douglas Gabriel and Michael McKibben of Leader Technology discovered that computer voting counts of the 2016 were tabulated and electronically routed through SERCO before being sent back to election counts were delivered to the American public. Mathematical algorithms were written to change "flip" numerical counts in states that were considered "Blue" or solid Democratic states. Hillary Clinton is still in denial she lost, and as of May 5th, 2019, she was still claiming she won! However, she never counted on the Rothschild's "dumping" Hillary as the candidate of the "Fix!" Hillary Clinton is a witch in a coven in the Los Angeles area. Larry Nichols, a former Clinton 'hit man' from their days as governor of Arkansas, has confirmed Hillary Clinton was a Satanic witch. A month before the 2016 election, it was discovered she and her assistant Huma Abedin were linked through emails with John Podesta in the PizzaGate scandal of Satanic child sacrifice and the contents of a file on Anthony Weiner's laptop titled "Insurance". Anthony Weiner was a former disgraced congressman and husband of Huma Abedin. The so-called "insurance" file contained a video in which Hillary and Huma filleted the face of a teenage girl. The NYC Police Department threatened to go public with the contents if the FBI did not prosecute on the contents of the video. The video or a copy of it is found on the Dark Web, and a dozen seasoned police officers from the NYPD had to undergo psychiatric treatment from the gruesome content they viewed on Anthony Weiner's laptop computer.

In my mention of Douglas Gabriel and Michael McKibben, Douglas Gabriel and his wife Tyla host the web site "American Intelligence Media." They are part of a retired group of school teachers and researchers responsible for the research and publishing government corruption and crimes. They have been on the internet a little over two years and Douglas refers to them as the "conclave". The "conclave" are retired school teachers, researchers, computer experts. Douglas and his wife use the pen names Betsy Ross and Thomas Pain in the Ass of the New World Order!

As recently as May 5th, 2019, Dr. Tom Horn appeared on Gary Stearman's TV program "Prophecy Watchers", and he said enough to confirm the fact that President Trump and Jared Kushner were told by two Orthodox senior rabbis from Israel, they told President Trump and Jared that he was elected by God to bring the Third Temple to fruition. Tom Horn has since published a book, 'The Rabbis, Donald Trump, and the Third Temple'. In that interview Tom Horn suggests that the Trump "peace plan" will place the Temple Mount under the control of Saudi Arabia.

Knowing what I know and from my many sources, the references to "God" getting Donald J. Trump elected the 45th President, it is not the "God" of the Bible; let's simply say Lucifer. In my opinion President Trump is being seduced by the Satanic Chabad Lubavitcher movement. Tom Horn's book has a sub-title "And the Top Secret Plan to Build the Third Temple". 'Psychology Today' identifies President Trump as a person with the ESTP (Extraversion, Sensing, Thinking, Perception) personality type. Being very familiar with the Meyers-Briggs personality temperament testing system, I would go even further by saying President Trump is one of the best examples of a Narcissistic person.

I mentioned something earlier about the fact that most people do not read the Bible objectively; but rather read it subjectively. Another way of expressing this is that most people read the Bible deductively. I was trained in seminary to study Scripture through the inductive study method. The key difference between inductive and deductive reasoning is that the inductive reasoning proceeds from specific premises to a general conclusion while deductive reasoning proceeds from general premises to a specific conclusion. This is where the rationale or reasoning breaks down in the process of determining what the narrative of the text is saying or really means.

So as not to lose the essence of this article, and its connection to interpreting Scripture, you do not want to forget what the title of this article is: “The Scriptural Fine Lines of Distinction Are Still Relevant”. These are the kind of nuances in understanding of Scripture that matter! For those untrained in Greek or Hebrew, it can be very perplexing. Grammar, punctuation, and linguistics can alter the meaning of a passage. An excellent example is Matthew 16:18 which the Roman Catholic Church claims its authority that Jesus was referring to Peter as the founder of the Church. “And I say also unto thee, That thou art Peter, and upon this rock I will build my church; and the gates of hell shall not prevail against it.” –(Matthew 16:18). Jesus was stressing “and upon this rock,” not Peter!

Jesus went on to use Peter's great confession as an occasion to reveal a mystery hidden even from the Old Testament prophets. The Church ("assembly") was in God's plan and in His eternal purpose from the beginning -(Ephesians 3:9-11). But it could not be revealed until Jesus was recognized as its divine Head -(Ephesians 1:22; Colossians 1:15-18).

Jesus began by pointing out that Peter's confession made him truly Peter, a piece of rock or a stone (petros). Then Jesus added, "Upon this rock (this great, solid rock, petra) I will build my church." Roman Catholics suggest that Peter is the rock, claiming that the Aramaic form of his name (Cephas) does not show the same gender distinction found in Greek, but the Aramaic does have another word for a great, solid rock, so Jesus must have made the same distinction the Greek does. Thus, it is better to take it that the rock upon which Christ builds His church is either Peter's great confession or, even better, it is Christ himself -(1 Peter 2:6-8).

It was Peter's great confession which made him a rock. Jesus did not single him out for a special position here. He merely used him as an example of what can happen to everyone who makes the same confession -(Romans 10:9,10). Christ alone is the solid Rock. He alone is the foundation of the Church. -(See 1st Corinthians 3:11; 10:4). In the latter verse petra ("the great, solid Rock") is used of Christ. Peter himself declared that Jesus is the Living Stone -(1st Peter 2:4). Coming to Jesus, all believers become living stones and are built into a spiritual house (temple), the Church, the assembly of all who have joined Peter in his great confession.

The fact that Jesus is the Living Rock gives assurance that "the gates of hell" (hadēs), that is, the power of Satan and of death itself, will never prevail against His church. -(See Revelation 6:8; 9:5ff.; 20:7ff.).

I hope I have made this clearer so that when you read Scripture, you do so in an objective manner, rather than reading subjectively, where a reader can get caught by reading something into the textual narrative while it may not be valid or correct to do so.

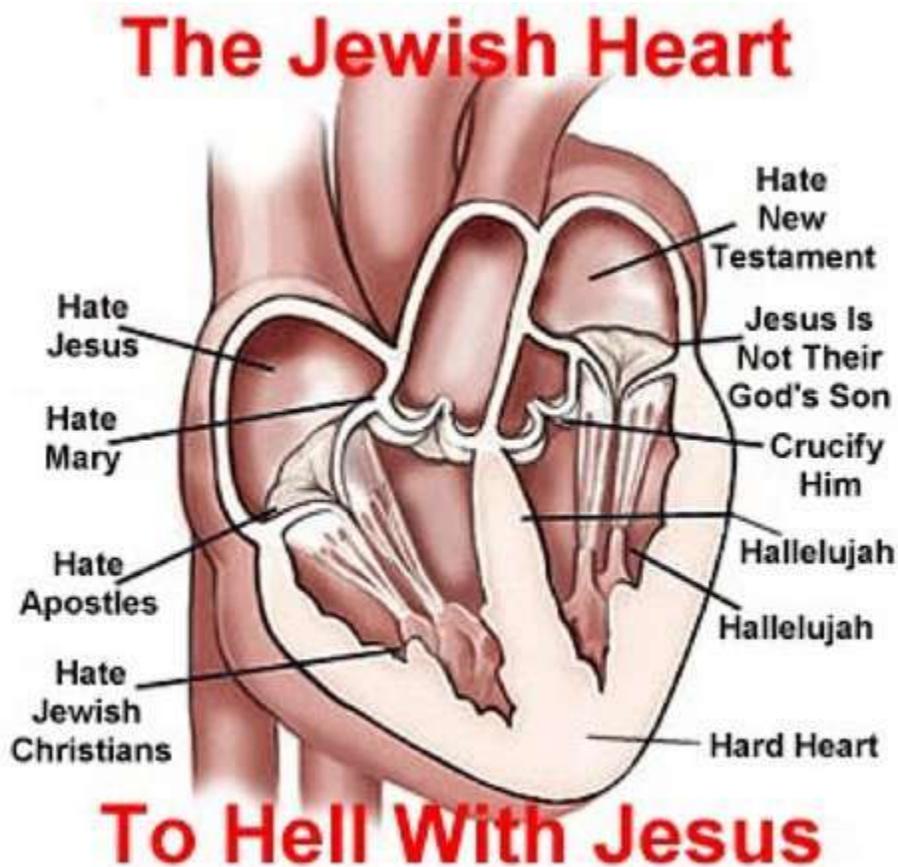

The biggest abuser of this failed method of subjectively reading Scripture is the Christian Zionist pastor John Hagee. Pastor Hagee regularly cites an example of subjective interpretation of a well-known passage - "Pray for the peace of Jerusalem, they shall prosper that love thee." -(Psalm 122:6), the Scriptural principle of prosperity is tied to blessing Israel and the city of Jerusalem. Chabad Zionists love that passage, as it becomes a proof-text to fleece the vulnerable believer.

That's a deceptive lie. Psalm 122:6 promises prosperity to those who love God. Unfortunately most Jews reject Jesus Christ as their personal Savior, and DON'T love God. The same is true of most Arabs. The same is true of most Americans. The same is true of most of the people in this sinful world -(1st John 5:19). The notion that there is a special blessing to those who give money to Israel is absurd. U.S. taxpayers give Israel (against our will) about $5-billion a year, and our dollar has still lost 30% of its value since the year 2000. Our manufacturing jobs are nearly all gone overseas.

Our federal leaders have squandered our Social Security money, and have recklessly run the nation's debt up over $22-Trillion!!! Blessed? Incidentally, it's the Zionist Rothschild bankers and elite who are behind all this evil. By the way, Karl Marx was Jewish, and based his Communist Manifesto upon the demonic Jewish Talmud. His given name at birth was Moses Mordecai Levi Marx. Again, I'm not prejudiced against anyone, but the Jews are no better than anyone else. I don't blame everyday Jewish people for the evils of elite Freemasonry Jews. And, yes, Karl Marx was a Freemason early on in his life.

We are certainly not out of the danger of an impending war with Iran. Coupled with the information we know about the President's son-in-law and the President himself, the grand plan of Rothschild Zionism and global control was on pause mode. Remember, I shared news about the President and his son-in-law when the U.S. media knew. We know from 'Israel Today' that CNN has known and sat on this for a few years. For what reasons would CNN keep the news that Donald J. Trump had converted to Chabad Judaism, the most radical Zionist Jewish sect in the world? The illustration below accurately describes the Chabad Zionist Jewish Heart!

Since virtually all Bible Prophecy teachers have yet to explain or point out to their audience and supporters the difference between Zionism and Judaism their dishonest and disingenuous nature has caused huge misunderstandings among sincere Christian believers. Furthermore, it is an insult to the intelligence level of those relying on the likes of John Hagee, Dave Reagan, Perry Stone, Gary Stearman, Hal Lindsey, Billy Crone, Jimmy DeYoung, Michael Evans, Larry Huch, Ed Hindson, Mark Hitcock, Robert Jeffress, Jack Van Impe, David Jeremiah, and a few other I may have overlooked.

Jackie Alnor, author of the book 'The Fleecing of Christianity' and critic of the prosperity gospel, reported in 2009: Paul Crouch Sr. has had a divided family on this issue of Dispensationalism as his wife Jan bought into the Kingdom-Now heresy of the late Earl Paulk decades ago and even won her husband over to it, at least for a short time.

Jackie observed Matt interview Paul Sr. about dispensationalism in a mocking manner. During a TBN 'Praise the Lord' broadcast Matt suggest that dispensationalism could be wrong: "We were looking at everything through a Dispensational mind and maybe that was a mistake." About a decade ago, TBN founder Paul Crouch Sr. revised the TBN programming lineup by removing all "Prophecy" ministries off of his network.

Most critics of Dispensational Theology blame John Nelson Darby and C.I. Scofield for their Christian Zionist support of Israel getting their own homeland, along with the teachings of Dispensationalism. Dispensationalism is misunderstood but is still valid for other reasons than Zionism, it can be found in the first three centuries of the Christian faith. It was suppressed when Bishop Augustine dominated the early Roman Catholic institutional church by persecuting dissent of any kind that contradicted Augustine. Down through the centuries, pockets of Dispensational thinking and teaching existed but rarely; it was until the Reformation of October 31, 1517, and those teaching Dispensationalism began to see the pope as the Antichrist. SDA pastor Steve Wohlberg, and Rick Wiles of TruNews.com are two of the major voices attacking the Christian Zionists and their “blind” support for Zionist Israel. Both Steve Wohlberg and Rick Wiles errantly interpret Scripture by taking the attitude of “throwing out the baby with the bath water” mentality. Such attacks are a reminder to me the importance of what the Apostle Paul said: “Study to show thyself approved to God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth.” –(2nd Timothy 2:15).

Dispensational theology is Biblical and remains the only valid method of properly interpreting the Bible. The Pre-Tribulation Rapture remains a rock solid promise and in my series on Pre-Tribulation Truth, I have identified roughly 300 passages through the Bible that reveal this theme through Typology. God provides us ample proof of “Deliverance Before Judgment” As such we need to recognize the importance of discipline of reading Scripture objectively. In my last article, ‘The Nearness of the Blessed Hope’ just was validated by the actions of the Pentagon.

The United States has announced that it is deploying two carrier battle groups and a bomber group of 4 B-52’s to the Middle East. The reason given is that U.S. intelligence has detected an Iranian threat against U.S. and allied assets in the region. The United States has stated that it does not want war with Iran but is prepared to defend its interests in the region. It’s not clear what threat the U.S. detected, but since this force will take some time to reach the area, we can assume that the threat is not perceived to be imminent. And we will assume that the type of threat the U.S. believes is posed by Iran can be countered by the type and amount of air power deployed. But as with all such deployments, there are military, psychological and political components that must be understood.

Since the Obama administration, Washington’s strategy has been to recognize that the United States’ massive interventions in the Middle East failed to achieve their political goals but imposed substantial costs on the U.S. military and unbalanced the U.S. global posture. They may have disrupted al-Qaida but did not create effective regimes that could themselves suppress jihadist groups. The deployments were neither achieving their goal nor supporting U.S. strategies. Washington understood that withdrawing U.S. forces from the region would have political consequences but concluded that the threat posed by these consequences was acceptable.

The drawdown in U.S. forces redefined regional dynamics. The underlying strategic issue in the region has been the relationship between the Arab world, surrounding non-Arab states like Israel, Turkey and Iran, and great powers, like the United Kingdom and the United States. With the U.S. drawdown, the latter became less significant, while the relationships among the Arab and regional non-Arab powers became critical. At the time, the greatest threat came from Iran. For Iran, the Arab world was a historic threat but one that presented an immediate opportunity.

The threat and opportunity coalesced in the rise of the Islamic State, which occurred in parallel with the slow drawdown of U.S. forces. Shiite-majority Iran saw the radical Islamic, Sunni and Arab force as a threat to its interests, and particularly to its historic interest in Iraq (of which the nearly decade long war in the 1980s was just one manifestation). Tehran could not tolerate a jihadist government in Baghdad, so it intervened, organizing and leading the Iraqi army. Ironically, at that point, Iranian and American interests coincided; both simply wanted to break the Islamic State. Once IS was broken, the U.S. continued its drawdown in Iraq while Iran became an increasingly dominant political factor in an Arab country with a large Shiite population.

This created a much larger and historic opportunity for Iran. Iran's strategy was to exploit the Arab world's Sunni-Shiite divide, using its commonality with Shiites to challenge Sunni Arab powers – especially Saudi Arabia. In Lebanon, Iran had already established a powerful position through Hezbollah, a Shiite Arab force, and it saw another opportunity in Syria. While the Alawite regime of President Bashar Assad was secular, the Alawites are a Shiite sect with historical ties to Iran. During Syria's civil war, Iran intensified its support of the Assad regime and aligned with the Russian intervention. Tehran and Moscow had a common interest in weakening U.S. power in the region and a shared strategy of using the U.S. drawdown to do so. Iran and Russia were historical antagonists, but both had an overriding interest to weaken the United States, psychologically if not in actual global power.

Iran has therefore emerged as a major regional force. It is a dominant power in Iraq and Lebanon, a significant force in Syria and is deeply engaged in the war in Yemen. It is in the process of surrounding Saudi Arabia, a country with which it has fought wars going back to the 1960s; indeed, in many ways, the Saudi-Iranian enmity is the foundation of regional dynamics. In the past, as during Iraq's invasion of Kuwait, U.S. strategy would be to use main force to block Iran. But the new American strategy has been careful to limit American exposure. Therefore, the U.S. now wants to rely on regional powers to act when it is in their interests to do so, rather than to take direct action itself.

The result has been the emergence of an Israeli-Saudi coalition that includes nations on the Persian Gulf's western coast. This force is dangerous to Iran. Iran has power around Saudi Arabia, but it is what might be called thin power. With the exception of Lebanon, its power in other countries is neither deeply rooted nor indestructible; rather, it is spread dangerously wide and shallow. And the cooperation that has emerged between Israel and Arab, anti-Iran powers is substantial. In addition to the political power being exerted on Iran, it's under pressure from the economic sanctions put in place by the United States putatively because of Iran's nuclear program. In reality, the sanctions fit into the U.S. strategy of reducing military exposure while using diplomatic and economic means to exert pressure. Iran, whose economy had been getting weaker on its own, has been significantly affected by U.S. economic actions.

Iran's expansion has come under significant pressure. The Israelis have been attacking Iranian positions in Syria, and Russia – ostensibly Iran's ally but one that's not eager to see a powerful Iran in the Caucasus – has not made any attempt to stop them. Pressure in Yemen has also placed Iran in a difficult position. Iran remains influential in Iraq, but everywhere else, its expansion has run into serious problems.

Still, Iran has countered where it can. Tehran has been supplying Hamas for some time, but the relationship between the Sunni and Shiite entities has been necessarily complex. (Though Hamas still managed a significant rocket attack on Israel this past weekend of over 600 rocket.) One of Iran's political options is to draw Israel into attacks on Gaza and Lebanon and portray itself as the only major power in the Muslim world challenging Israel while many others are effectively allied with Israel. The problem with that strategy is that it could also energize jihadists, and they are not Iran's friends.

Therefore, Iran has to either fold some of its cards or somehow strike. The U.S. has warned that an attack against its allies is possible. The issue now for the U.S. is that, given Iran's economic problems and the broad but weak hold it has in the region, the drawdown of U.S. forces makes it less risky for Iran to take action. At the same time, reinserting large numbers of ground forces is not something the U.S. wants to do.

Instead, we see the deployment of U.S. air power in the form of two carrier battle groups and land-based powers. The U.S. is positioning itself so that, if Iran carries out some operation to stabilize its position, the U.S. can respond with airstrikes. The problem is that, in Syria and Lebanon, Israel is capable of managing air power, and strikes in Iraq will find few targets worthy of the force. What the United States has threatened, without making any explicit threats, is airstrikes on Iran itself if it carries out operations against U.S. allies. But the force the U.S. is deploying is not large enough for a sustained air campaign. So, the threat it's making at this time is one of limited air action, with further action readily available.

The U.S. deployment is a test of two things. First, whether air power is a significant enough threat to force the Iranians to refrain from aggressive actions in the region. Second, whether it is enough to reverse the Iranian expansion. Iran is embroiled in domestic issues, and the Iranian public, rather than rallying to the flag, might see American airstrikes as yet another miscalculation by the Iranian government. I certainly don't know which it will be, nor do I think the U.S. government knows. But I suspect that the Iranian government doesn't know for sure either, and that might limit their risk-taking. However you read the situation an unknown could be used to provoke a "false flag” attack and an opportunity for President Trump to launch his planned “fall” war on Iran.

Behind all this is the fact that the U.S. intervention in the region ultimately failed to achieve its political goals and led to the drawdown of the U.S. main force, leaving only limited forces pursuing very limited ends. Without a global power imposing force, the region rearranged itself, as the U.S. had hoped it would, but the rearrangement put Iran in a powerful position, which the U.S. certainly didn’t want. Anticipating that Iran will try to strike against the new anti-Iran coalition, the U.S. is trying to reassert its power without redeploying ground forces. In the end, the Israelis, the Saudis and the (hitherto unmentioned) Turks have more at stake than the U.S. and therefore need to take the risks, either way.

As I write this there is a “Media Blackout” on what is happening. A May 7th, 2019 report by Aaron Kesel that tensions are rising rapidly. National Security Adviser John Bolton has publicly acknowledged deploying the U.S.S Abraham Lincoln carrier strike group and a bomber task force to the U.S. Central Command (CENTCOM) region as a “clear and unmistakable message to the Iranian regime that any attack on United States interests or on those of our allies will be met with unrelenting force.”

However, this follows reports on April 22nd that the U.S.S. John C. Stennis and Abraham Lincoln carrier strike groups have joined the US Mediterranean 6th Fleet for the first time in more than two years, as DEBKAfile reported. For those unaware, DEBKA is used by Mossad intelligence very frequently to get their news/intelligence within the Middle East.

An earlier report by the Navy’s military site actually announced the deployment in early April. This means that the U.S. may have two carrier strike groups within striking distance of Iran, not just one as the U.S. media is reporting, and DEBKAfile may have leaked intelligence (archived.)

Vice Admiral Franchetti commented that it was a rare opportunity for two strike groups to work together alongside key allies and partners in the region. Our sources say she was referring to British, French and Israeli naval forces. The vice admiral, who has served as 6th Fleet commander since early 2018, added: “The dual carrier operations in the Mediterranean showcase the flexibility and scalability maritime forces provide to the joint force, while demonstrating our ironclad commitment to the stability and security of the region.”

One day prior on April 21st, the Trump administration announced it would end its waiver program for countries importing Iranian oil. The Trump administration is now warning it will start imposing sanctions on countries such as India, China, and Turkey that buy Iranian oil as part of its “maximum pressure” campaign.

Eight countries — China, Greece, India, Italy, Japan, South Korea, Taiwan, and Turkey — were initially given six-month reprieves after the United States imposed sanctions on Iran in November, following President Donald Trump's decision to withdraw from the 2015 nuclear accord which Activist Post reported. Those reprieves expired on May 2nd according to a Bloomberg report.

China, arguably one of the largest buyers of Iranian oil, reiterated its opposition to unilateral sanctions and accused the U.S. of reaching beyond its jurisdiction. "China's cooperation with Iran is open, transparent, reasonable and legitimate, and should be respected," Foreign Ministry spokesman Geng Shuang said in response to a question on the waivers at a briefing in Beijing, CNN reported. Iran has called the sanctions "illegal" according to a statement by the foreign ministry: "Since the sanctions in question are principally illegal, the Islamic Republic of Iran did not and does not attach any value or credibility to the waivers given to the sanctions," the foreign ministry said in a statement issued on its official website.

Reuters (a Rothschild news media company) reports that, If China does not cut Iran oil purchases to zero, the Trump administration may have to make a decision on blocking Chinese banks from the U.S. financial system. That could have unintended consequences for finance and business between the world's two biggest economies, already in negotiations over trade disagreements that have broken down.

U.S. Secretary of State Mike Pompeo has warned all countries to reduce their Iranian oil imports to zero in an April 22 statement; Pompeo said no nation would receive any further exemptions or waivers from U.S. sanctions.

On April 28th, a week later after announcing an end to the waiver program it was reported by Associated Free Press that Iran was planning to close the Strait of Hormuz, one of the world's most crucial transport routes for oil. About a third of the world's oil tanker traffic passes through the Strait, which is bordered by Iran and Oman. In 2016, 18.5 million barrels of petroleum were shipped through it every day, making it the world's single most important maritime route for many nations' oil supplies, Greenwich Time reported. "We are not after closing the Strait of Hormuz but if the hostility of enemies increase, we will be able to do so," armed forces chief of staff Mohammad Bagheri told semi-official ISNA.

"Also if our oil does not go through the strait, other countries' oil will certainly not cross the strait, too," he added. Another Iranian official echoed the sentiment that Iran wouldn't close the Hormuz Strait, but said that Iran is prepared to defend itself against U.S. aggression.

"We believe Iran will continue to sell its oil ... (and) use the Strait of Hormuz. But if the United States takes the crazy measure of trying to prevent us from doing that, then it should be prepared for the consequences," foreign minister Mohammad Javad Zarif said on Wednesday.

"It is in our vital national security interest to keep the Persian Gulf open, to keep the Strait of Hormuz open. We have done that in the past and we will continue to do that in the future," he added.

The U.S just formally announced in early May through ABC News and other MSM sources that there are "clear indications" Iranian and Iranian proxy forces were preparing for a possible attack against U.S. forces on land, including in Iraq and Syria, and at sea. Do not forget the larger issue in the wings is to install a Rothschild central bank in Iran and Syria. Chances are over the next three months the public will be brain-washed into supporting a Trump administration attack on Iran.

"We have continued to see activity that leads us to believe that there's escalation that may be taking place, and so we're taking all the appropriate actions, both from a security perspective as well as our ability to make sure the president has a wide range of options in the event that something should actually take place," Pompeo told reporters.

The Trump administration has accused Iran and militias that it backs of threatening American troops within the Middle East without citing any evidence of the plots.

However, that's not the full story, there is much more going on here that the U.S. press is ignoring that we shouldn't turn a blind eye to. Before the U.S. said it would send 2 carrier strike groups on April 22nd, it was reported by Press TV (which is based in Iran) that Iranian forces had "identified 290 CIA agents across different countries, forcing the U.S. to form a special committee to reassess its cloak-and-dagger operations" according to Iranian Intelligence Minister Mahmoud Alavi. Other news sites including a Russia-based site Rossaprimavera states the statement was actually made on April 19th.

"CIA operatives in those countries were identified and arrested and the contacts of the U.S. intelligence agency with its sources were disrupted in such a way that a committee to assess the failure was set up in America," Iranian Intelligence Minister Mahmoud Alavi said.

Another report by the 'Tehran Times' corroborated the 'Press TV' report and stated: "Tens of spies who were employed by foreign intelligence services were identified in the country's sensitive centers and were arrested."

Alavi further referred to a 'Yahoo News' article, specifically highlighting a quote from American national security analyst with the Government Accountability Project, a nonprofit that works with whistleblowers, Irvin McCullough, who described a major American intelligence setback in 2009 when Iranian intelligence got its hands on unknown CIA communication software, as "one of the most catastrophic intelligence failures" since the September 11th attacks in 2001.

While it's known and widely reported by the Western press that the CIA had its communications network exposed during 2009-2013, no other news media besides Arab-based outlets has reported the statement from Intelligence Minister Mahmoud Alavi and arrests at the time of this report.

It's often that the press is used for disinformation among intelligence agencies worldwide; while this is true, it can also be said that if it's true that CIA officials were arrested and Iran was the cause, the threats against U.S. forces may have already been committed. It's worth noting that not only have arrests recently been carried out according to Iran, but elsewhere in China where 30 agents were working for the US were caught and executed as well. It was previously thought that "more than a dozen" had been killed according to the 'NY Times'.

Typically, the U.S. and intelligence communities wouldn't confirm or deny if such actions had taken place, and instead would run a covert operation not using the media, but this situation may be different. So while they are not telling the full story, they are leaking bits and pieces to the mainstream press about deploying bombers and two aircraft carrier.

Thanks to the modern technology of the Internet, intelligence agencies can longer hide massive intelligence failures. With all that said, it's very interesting and coincidental that all this is happening at once; the report can't be simply shrugged off as Iranian propaganda, especially since it cites a known CIA intelligence failure. While the conflicting reports of U.S.S carriers in the region can't be ignored either, it seems to point to something more going on here that they aren't telling the full story about.

Both countries just designated each other to be terrorist organizations as well, so one can only speculate with grandiose evidence that war may be around the corner with Iran. Especially if the Iranians close the Strait of Hormuz, giving the U.S. a "reason" to attack Iranian forces with both land, sea and aircraft.

There are now two Iranian war hawks that hold pull when it comes to military decisions in Iran. In November 2016, way before Trump even considered Bolton for National Security Advisor, Bolton stated that regime change in Iran was the only way.

"The ayatollahs are the principal threat to international peace and security in the Middle East," Bolton told Breitbart News Daily, a radio program run by the hard-right website with close ties to Donald Trump. "Now, their ouster won't bring sweetness and light to the region, that's for sure, but it will eliminate the principal threat."

"I think the people of Iran would long for a new regime," Bolton continued, later suggesting that the U.S. should support opposition groups looking to overthrow it. "I don't think the regime is popular, but I think it has the guns. And I think there are ways of supporting the opposition that does not involve the use of American military force that does involve helping the opposition to get a different kind of government."

But Bolton's far from the only pawn in place for regime change in Iran and another war — Mike Pompeo is now U.S. Secretary of State. War hawk Pompeo previously downplayed the cost of bombing Iran. In an unclassified setting, it is under 2,000 sorties to destroy the Iranian nuclear capacity. This is not an insurmountable task for the coalition forces.

Even further, in his statement on July 14, 2015, the day the nuclear accord was reached, then Rep. Pompeo argued that Iran "is intent on the destruction of our country," and said "this deal allows Iran to continue its nuclear program – that's not foreign policy; it's surrender."

If Pompeo needed to be any more blunt, one of his tweets from before he became CIA director is a tell-all of his plans as Secretary of State.

The now deleted tweet stated:

"I look forward to rolling back this disastrous deal with the world's largest state sponsor of terrorism."

Pompeo also introduced several bills intended to further divide diplomacy with Iran, including one that passed the House which would block the U.S. from purchasing heavy water from Iran; and another that would effectively impose further sanctions than existed prior to the deal under the guise of targeting Iran's ballistic missile program, which would directly violate the deal.

That's right, the two people in charge of foreign policy in the U.S. (excluding CFR members) are in agreement and anti-Iran. That means that more than likely Trump's administration will be the one that starts war with Iran, unless some miracle happens.

As journalist Caitlin Johnstone pointed out the CIA has even set up a new organization tasked with focusing on Iran. Back in June the 'Wall Street Journal' published a report saying that America's Central Intelligence Agency had set up a new organization whose sole task would be to focus on Iran under the direction of "Ayatollah Mike" D'andrea, an aggressive Iran hawk.

Besides the Trump administration, there has always been an element within the government that was working towards the "5 years 7 countries plan" plotted by high top brass at the Pentagon in 2001 mere weeks after 9/11 that 4-star General Wesley Clark warned about in 2007. Clark warned that the U.S. would invade 7 countries within 5 years with the last remaining country being, you guessed it, Iran! What are the odds an attack will be launched by our Chabad Lubavitch President in the next four months?

Older readers may feel a sense of déjà vu as 65 years ago in 1953, the CIA planned Operation Ajax in conjunction with MI6 in the UK to exploit the Iranian people and steal their oil on behalf of the Anglo-Iranian Oil Company (AIOC) – the British state-owned oil company established in 1908. Free Thought Project's Matt Agorist highlighted this in an article last year.

It's worth mentioning that Iran planned to deploy warships in the Atlantic for five months earlier this year in March, Reuters reported. At the time, Iranian Rear Adm. Touraj Hassani, reportedly said Iran was planning to deploy two to three combat vessels, including its new destroyer named the Sahand, on a mission to the anti-U.S. socialist country of Venezuela in March. right in America's backyard. Although, there is no information on whether or not they followed through with this operation or not. Regardless it's worth mentioning with all these other geopolitical moves by the U.S. that Iran is also making moves as well.

"The Atlantic Ocean is far and the operation of the Iranian naval flotilla might take five months," Iranian Rear Adm. Touraj Hassani told the state-run Islamic Republic News Agency (IRNA), noting that the flotilla will leave on March 21, Reuters reported.

If that's not enough, and it certainly should be, Iran accused the U.S. of terrorism in February for a suicide bombing in the country's Sistan-Baluchestan province, and vowed to punish the "criminal mercenaries" who carried out the attack that killed 27 members of the elite Islamic Revolutionary Guard Corps. Armed group Jaish al-Adl (Army of Justice) claimed responsibility for the attack, which also left 13 other Revolutionary Guard members injured, Aljazeera reported.

Iran also blamed the U.S. for an attack in September on its military parade where gunmen killed 25 people and wounded around 70, CNBC reported, "All of those small mercenary countries that we see in this region are backed by America. It is Americans who instigate them and provide them with necessary means to commit these crimes," (Iranian President) Rouhani said.

The CIA has admitted that in the 1950s they hired Iranians to pose as Communists and stage bombings in Iran in order to turn the country against its democratically-elected prime minister Mohammed Mossadegh. So the argument that the CIA would never arm terrorists, let alone give them explosives, is null and void. The question is, would they do it again and risk world war three?

If you don't hear those war drums by now you aren't paying attention. The sad fact is that conflict could break out between these superpowers at any moment; and while that may be paranoid to state, the extensive military movements happening can't be dismissed and should be taken very seriously.

The 'Israeli Today' article I shared in my last article takes on greater significance by the day. "The Nearness of the Blessed Hope" for me is a wake-up call! Keep in mind that trade wars as such historically lead to shooting wars. Once the "genie" is out of the bottle, it may not be able to be put it back. As I was finishing this article, Pat Buchanan raised the question again about who is behind this war that John Bolton and Mike Pompeo are so eagerly to start. These two and the President are staunch known Christian Zionists acting as front operatives of Benjamin Netanyahu.

Patrick J. Buchanan raised an extremely important question May 7, 2019. Did President Donald Trump approve of this? ...If it is not Trump pushing for confrontation and war with Iran, who is? Last week, it was Venezuela in America's gun sights. "While a peaceful solution is desirable, military action is possible," thundered Secretary of State Mike Pompeo. "If that's what is required, that's what the United States will do."

John Bolton tutored Vladimir Putin on the meaning of the Monroe Doctrine: "This is our hemisphere. It's not where the Russians ought to be interfering." After Venezuela's army decided not to rise up and overthrow Nicholas Maduro, by Sunday night, it was Iran that was in our gun sights.

Bolton ordered the USS Abraham Lincoln, its carrier battle group and a bomber force to the Mideast "to send a clear and unmistakable message to the Iranian regime that any attack on United States interests or those of our allies will be met with unrelenting force."

What "attack" was Bolton talking about? According to 'Axios', Israel had alerted Bolton that an Iranian strike on U.S. interests in Iraq was imminent. Flying to Finland, Pompeo echoed Bolton's warning:

"We've seen escalatory actions from the Iranians, and ... we will hold the Iranians accountable for attacks on American interests. ... (If) these actions take place, if they do by some third-party proxy, whether that's a Shia militia group or the Houthis or Hezbollah, we will hold the ... Iranian leadership directly accountable for that."

Taken together, the Bolton-Pompeo threats add up to an ultimatum that any attack by Hezbollah in Lebanon, the Houthis in Yemen, or Iran-backed militias — on Israel, Saudi Arabia, the UAE or U.S. forces in Iraq, Syria or the Gulf states — will bring a U.S. retaliatory response on Iran itself.

Did President Donald Trump approve of this? He appears to be going along with it if he did not authorize it. He has pulled out of the Iran nuclear deal and re-imposed sanctions. Last week, he canceled waivers he had given eight nations to let them continue buying Iranian oil.

Purpose: Reduce Iran's oil exports, 40% of GDP, to zero, to deepen an economic crisis that is already expected to cut Iran's GDP this year by 6%. Trump has also designated Iran a terrorist state and the Republican Guard a terrorist organization, the first time we have done that with the armed forces of a foreign nation. We don't even do that with North Korea.

Iran responded last Tuesday by naming the U.S. a state sponsor of terror and designating U.S. forces in the Middle East as terrorists. Iran has also warned that if we choke off its oil exports that exit the Persian Gulf through the Strait of Hormuz, the Strait could be closed to other nations. As 30% of the world's oil shipments transit the Strait, closing it could cause a global crash.

In 1973, when President Nixon rescued Israel in the Yom Kippur War, the OPEC Arabs imposed an oil embargo. Gas prices spiked so high Nixon considered taking a train to Florida for Christmas vacation. The gas price surge so damaged Nixon's standing with the public that it became a contributing factor in the drive for impeachment.

Today, Trump's approval rating in the Gallup Poll has reached an all-time high, 46%, a level surely related to the astonishing performance of the U.S. economy following Trump's tax cuts and sweeping deregulation. While a Gulf war with Iran might be popular at the outset, what would it do for the U.S. economy or our ability to exit the forever war of the Middle East, as Trump has pledged to do?

In late April, in an interview with Fox News, Iran's foreign minister identified those he believes truly want a U.S.-Iranian war. Asked if Trump was seeking the confrontation and the "regime change" that Bolton championed before becoming his national security adviser, Mohammad Javad Zarif said no. "I do not believe President Trump wants to do that. I believe President Trump ran on a campaign promise of not bringing the United States into another war.

"President Trump himself has said that the U.S. spent $7 trillion in our region ... and the only outcome of that was that we have more terror, we have more insecurity, and we have more instability. People in our region are making the determination that the presence of the United States is inherently destabilizing. I think President Trump agrees with that."

But if it is not Trump pushing for confrontation and war with Iran, who is? Said Zarif, "I believe 'the B-team' wants to actually push the United States, lure President Trump, into a confrontation that he doesn't want."

And who makes up "the B-team"? Zarif identifies them: Bolton, Benjamin Netanyahu, Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman and Crown Prince Mohammed bin Zayed. Should the B-team succeed in its ambitions — it will be Trump's war, and Trump's presidency will pay the price.

I think it is getting closer by the day, Look up and know your redemption is near! The U.S. has no reason to go to war with Iran, absolutely none! This war will be waged for one purpose only, and that purpose is to establish a Rothschild central bank in Iran. This will go badly as Iran has a mutual defense agreement with Russia, and an executed attack on Iran will result in a blowback on the U.S. facilities in the Middle East, and potentially bring a nuclear attack on the U.S. mainland!
