

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #109

One of the most trustworthy independent journalists that I track is George Eaton. A few days ago George posted the following post and it is worth sharing and so I share that post. Anyone relying on the mainstream media, ABC, CBS, NBC, FOX, and CNN has been dumbed down like the entire American educational system. We are living on the cutting edge of trouble ahead. We are already in World War III and most of you are oblivious to why so!

“How many warnings does it take to wake up the American people that the Russians are deadly serious about attacking the USA and Europe with nuclear weapons? At the beginning of 2022, the warnings were monthly. As we moved into late spring, the frequency of nuclear war warnings increased to weekly.

Now in June, ominous warnings of nuclear war are coming out of Moscow daily. Is anybody except TruNews paying attention? Does anybody take the Russians seriously?

I often hear from arm chair quarterbacks and talking heads on TV that the Russians will never attack NATO because that would mean their own destruction. WRONG.

What we are witnessing is like the alignment of the planets to create a military disaster of the millennium. These are not normal times, and normal assessments won't work. What people fail to understand is the mindset of the Russians today – who understand all too well that the attack from the U.S., the EU and NATO - the Triad Cartel – is real and is based on the diabolical motive to dismantle and Balkanize Russia for their territory and natural resources.

This is not the fanciful whim of first year war college students. This is a well-planned out conspiracy that has been schemed in globalist meetings for many years. It is so outrageous, dangerous and out of the ordinary, even well-known globalist Kissinger rejected it as wrong minded. But this is the reality the world faces.

The first thing people need to understand is the fact that Obama did not leave the political scene and sail off into the sunset. Quite to the contrary, he organized a large consortium of like-minded socialists, and was instrumental in getting Biden elected president – so he could place his henchmen into positions of power.

This is in reality, the third Obama presidential term.

If researchers will dig deep into Obama’s organization in DC, you will find names like Blinken, and his underlings, and those in the Whitehouse. Those key people in positions of power today were waiting in the wings, financed and led by Obama to carry out the anti-American policies we see today. That is the first alignment to make this war disaster possible with Russia.

The second alignment was having the U.S. ultra-liberal forces joining with the EU, NATO and the globalists. That is a partnership made in hell. They started to make announcements of hatred towards Russia and spewed anti-Russian rhetoric on a daily basis, along with the help from a complicit news media to demonize and vilify the new enemy. The ideas they were spreading were so nonsensical, so irrational, it was easy for the Russians to identify it as a preemptive political attack against the Russian nation - that left no possibility of a future peace between Russia and the wealthy elite.

What Russia is facing then, is not a skirmish that could end in a compromise or a peace treaty, but rather the unrelenting globalist goal of the full dismemberment of Russia. So, as the war builds up to a crisis point in Ukraine, the Russians know they are fighting for their very lives and the existence of Russia as a Christian democracy. This means they are determined to stop the attack there before it arrives on their own soil.

The Russians don’t see an off ramp to avoid the attack on Russia. It is inevitable now, it can’t be avoided. That’s why they aren’t considering “standing down” in a conflict with NATO to avoid total destruction of Russia. They already know that’s what the “Triad of global power” intends to do anyway. Standing down only makes it easier for the globalists to achieve their full agenda.

This cabal of power-hungry globalists are like a mad dog frothing at the mouth and ready to lunge at Russia. And there is no conversation possible against a mad dog to prevent it from attacking. It will attack - it has now lunged into the air, and the only option Russia has is to deal directly with that mad dog before it destroys their country.

The alignment for this war is lined up on both sides to create the disaster of the millennium. Both sides feel they are right and have no other options. The Triad cartel will not back down, George Soros said as much. They believe that they must go to war with Russia or they will lose the chance to rule the world with the New World Order. The Russians will not back down, since they know what the motive is, and they have concluded they must stand against the attack or lose the entire nation.. forever.

Now it's only a matter of time before the west crosses a red line and the Russians respond as they have said they would, and take out the headquarters where these insane orders have come from. The globalists won't back down and Russia won't back down - which will lead to incremental attacks leading to a nuclear exchange. To not see this is to be blind to the truth and the reality of the situation. To refuse to accept reality is to cling to the phantom of hope which is nothing short of being delusional.

Having said this, there are still two possibilities that could prevent this nuclear holocaust from happening: 1) Putin removes all troops from Ukraine and starts to disarm and call for a truce. This would buy Russia time to deal with the attack against Russia later. 2) Biden is removed from office Constitutionally and the majority of Congress sent home. All sanctions against Russia are lifted, and a new era of cooperation is developed with Russia – as the U.S. withdraws from NATO.

What are the chances either one of these options would actually happen?
Answer: Less than 1%.

So, there is hope to stop the impending disaster, but it is very slim indeed. The momentum at this time is to see a conflict directly between Russia and NATO countries, and it could happen in a matter of days. If the globalists don't do something drastic very soon - or create a false flag, there won't be a functioning army left in Ukraine to fight against Russia.”

How Many More Red Lines can be crossed before Armageddon Arrives?

June 5, 2022 — The Organization for Security and Co-operation in Europe published on April 15, 2016, more than six years ago, a report on the torture of Donbass Russians by the Ukrainian military and police forces. The report documents horrendous torture and it was done out of racial hatred of Russians.

Few Westerners, being so poorly educated, are aware that Western Ukraine fought for Nazi Germany during World War II. When Washington overthrew the Ukrainian government in 2014, Washington installed a Nazi government. The Nazi government in Ukraine shelled the Russian residents of the two break-away Donbass republics for 8 years while Washington and NATO trained and equipped a Ukrainian army to retake the breakaway republics.

The Donbass region, always a part of Russia, was put into the Ukrainian province of the Soviet Union by the Soviet government for administrative or other reasons, as was Crimea by Khrushchev in the 1950s. When the US overthrew the Ukrainian government and installed an anti-Russian government, the residents of Crimea and Donbass, being Russians, broke away and voted overwhelmingly to be reunited with Russia. The Kremlin accepted Crimea but made the strategic blunder of rejecting Donbass, thus resulting in the extreme murder and torture of Donbass Russians for 8 years before the Kremlin was forced to intervene by Russian public opinion and by the appearance of a 150,000 American-trained Ukrainian army and Nazi militias on the Donbass border. It is this army and Nazi militias that the Russian army has been exterminating in Donbass during the last several months. The Western media reports of Ukrainian victories show the total absence of integrity and respect for truth that damns Western journalism.

The extreme torture of the Russian residents of Donbass has been supported by three U.S. presidents, all European states, and the entirety of the whole Western media, a collection of despicable scum.

Instead of reporting the truth, the scum Western media reported fake news of rapes and looting by Russian soldiers, the most disciplined army in the world. The Ukrainians, or perhaps the CIA, have been exposed filming fake battle scenes in which allegedly Russian troops are shown fleeing from combat. The filming is so sloppy that the director's instructions for the staged act are included and the film crew is itself filmed, indicating that it is a film production and that there is no danger in the situation.

As horrendous as it is that the "free West" underwrites and diplomatically supports torture of Russians by Ukrainians while the despicable Western media covers it up, this horror pales in significance compared to the extraordinary decision of the White House Idiot to place in Ukraine's hands missiles capable of hitting targets in Crimea, the traditional home of Russia's Black Sea naval base.

Washington has said that Washington won't be operating the missiles and is relying on Ukraine's assurance that they won't be used to attack Russian territory. But Ukraine doesn't regard Crimea as Russian territory. Neither does Washington's "world community." The "world community" doesn't acknowledge the Crimean vote for reunification with Russia. Officially for the West, Crimea is part of Ukraine. So Ukraine can use Biden's missiles to attack the Russian naval base in Crimea . . . the Biden Idiot and his neoconservative controllers have turned over to Zelensky, a Jew allied with Nazis, the decision whether there will be Armageddon . . . Putin's humanity, his toleration of provocations, his reluctance to use force has encouraged the West to press harder. Sooner or later a red line is going to be crossed from which there is no recovery.

On Russian television, the state TV show 60 Minutes, host Olga Skabeeva announced: "I have some unpleasant news . . . we are methodically destroying the weapons that are being delivered [to Ukraine], but the quantities in which the United States are sending them force us to come up with some global conclusions. Perhaps it's time to acknowledge that maybe Russia's special operation in Ukraine has come to an end, in a sense that a real war has started: WWII. We're forced to conduct the demilitarization not only of Ukraine, but of the entire NATO alliance."

Vladimir Avatkov, from the Diplomatic Academy of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, said: "You mentioned WWII and the way Americans and Poles are acting on the territory of Ukraine—indeed, we need to remember the words of Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin, who said that anyone who tries to interfere in the special military operation will pay a heavy price." Skabeeva interrupted: "We never forget about these words of Vladimir Vladimirovich Putin, but a great number of people are already standing in line, trying to interfere in Russia's special operation on the territory of Ukraine. Turns out, we have to act—but we're yet to figure out how we can act without conducting a nuclear strike."

Just the other day, one prominent Russian politician openly talked about destroying both coasts of the United States with Sarmat intercontinental ballistic missiles . . . fellow MP and Russian-state mouthpiece Yevgeny Popov . . . claimed that two of Russia's Sarmat missiles would destroy the entirety of America's east coast— before adding it would take just "two missiles for the west coast" as well. "Four missiles and there'll be nothing left."

The Ukrainian battlefield is the most subsidized in the world by the United States, the United Kingdom and the European Union. This massive investment is aimed at supporting not the Ukrainians, but the Banderists, in total contradiction with the goals of the Alliance during World War II. This money is taken from the social programs of the donor countries, i.e. the Western poor are out of pocket.

President Joe Biden, receiving Prime Minister Mario Draghi at the White House, said: "The thing I appreciate most about you is the effort from the beginning to bring NATO and the EU together to help Ukraine. Deserved compliments: as the US Congress approves the allocation of $40 billion to arm Kiev's forces in the war against Russia, in addition to the $14 billion already allocated in March, Draghi has been working to open up a similar channel of funding for the war in Europe through a "European Union Solidarity Trust Fund for Ukraine" and a "resilience package" worth an initial $2 billion provided to Kiev by the European Bank for Reconstruction and Development (EBRD).

At the same time Mario Draghi and the other leaders of the G7 (which includes Canada, France, Germany, Italy, Japan, the United Kingdom and the United States) have allocated $24 billion to support Ukraine in the war against Russia. Important is also the role of Draghi in the financing to Kiev decided by the World Bank and the International Monetary Fund, amounting initially to about 5 billion dollars.

With this funding, in the months before and after the war, the United States and its allies provided Kiev's forces with 85,000 missiles, more than 50 million rounds of ammunition of all calibers, including long-range howitzers, drones and other advanced weapons systems. Kiev's forces, including those of the Azov regiment and other neo-Nazi formations, are not only armed but directed by NATO.

The colossal expenditure for the war against Russia, which is destined to increase and become permanent, is being paid for by the European citizens through cuts in social spending. Added to this is the growing expense of the EU directive to receive and keep all Ukrainians arriving—without needing a visa—in Italy and other European countries.

Two-thirds of Western weapons, especially the heaviest ones, are already available on the black market in the Balkans, particularly in Kosovo and Albania, which have become the main places for trafficking in this area. Western sanctions pose a risk of famine, not in Russia, but in the rest of the world and particularly in Africa.

The war in Ukraine is an optical illusion. Behind the appearances of the unity of NATO and its consolidation by new members, several big players run with the hare and hunt with the hounds. In reality, all those who are not blinded by their own propaganda know that their side is going to lose and is already planning other enemies on other battlefields. Washington is making the best of a bad situation and using Russian pressure to close ranks.

The U.S. government gathered 85 states in Marrakech to plan the next war in the Sahel (semi-arid region of western and north-central Africa extending from Senegal eastward to Sudan). Tens of billions of dollars in weapons, officially destined for the war in Ukraine, are already piling up in the Balkans before being delivered to Daesh jihadists. For the coming defeat in the face of Russia will not be a big deal. Other wars can be fought against other enemies and keep the business going. Either the Pentagon is throwing money around or it is investing by keeping this huge arsenal out of the sight of Congress.

The Secret Ukrainian Military Programs that few Americans know existed is about to bite. On May 31 2022 — A video, filmed during John McCain's visit to Ukraine in 2016, has resurfaced. It shows the senator accompanied by his colleague and friend, Senator Lindsey Graham, and Ukrainian President Petro Poroshenko. The two Americans are traveling on a Senate mission. But McCain is also the president of the IRI (International Republican Institute), the Republican branch of the NED (National Endowment for Democracy). It is known that the IRI has conducted about 100 seminars for the leaders of Ukrainian political parties classified as right-wing, including for the Banderists. The senators are addressing officers of the Azov regiment, the main Banderist paramilitary formation. This should come as no surprise. John McCain has always maintained that the United States should rely on the enemies of its enemies, whoever they may be. Thus, he has publicly claimed responsibility for his contacts with Daesh against the Syrian Arab Republic

In this video, Senators Lindsey Graham and John McCain assure that the United States will give all the weapons necessary for them to succeed in defeating Russia.

This video, I repeat, was recorded six years before the Russian army entered Ukraine. The two senators are investing their interlocutors with a mission. They do not see them as mercenaries who are paid, but as proxies who will fight to the death for the unipolar world (i.e. U.S. lordship); the objective of the war is global depopulation and the economic collapse of Europe to bring the world under dominion to the Jewish banksters.

Militarily, Russia is much more powerful than the U.S., but not as a financial power; Russia and China are too big for the U.S., so they will continue false flag attacks against their own allies like they did during the cold war. Right now, they use this war in Ukraine to declare sanctions making Europe their vassal by sanctions against themselves. And when Germany collapses the (CIA's) EU will collapse.

In every conflict, when you have finance against military, the military wins, always . . . Three years later, on September 5, 2019, the Rand Corporation organized a meeting in the US House of Representatives to explain its plan: to weaken Russia by forcing it to deploy in Kazakhstan, then in Ukraine and as far as Transnistria . . . at the end of the Second World War the United States and the United Kingdom took over many Nazi leaders and Ukrainian Banderists to turn them against the USSR. They mothered these fanatics as soon as the USSR disappeared and used them against Russia. It remained to explore how they armed them.

Starting in 2014, the Ukrainian state began several secret military programs. The first and most-well known is its collaboration with the Pentagon in 30 different laboratories. According to the United States, this program was aimed at destroying the biological weapons that the Soviet Union had manufactured and stored in Ukraine. This is obviously unlikely because it is not clear, 31 years after independence and 8 years after the start of this program, why there would still be any left. On the contrary, according to Russia, the Pentagon had Ukraine subcontract research on weapons prohibited by the 1972 Biological Weapons Convention. On the basis of documents seized during its special operation, it asserts in particular that experiments were carried out without their knowledge on mentally ill people at the psychiatric hospital No. 1 (Streletchyé, Kharkov region) and that a tuberculosis agent was manipulated to infect the population of the Slaviansoserbsk district (Lugansk People's Republic). Or that these laboratories were conducting "extremely dangerous experiments aimed at strengthening the pathogenic properties of plague, anthrax, tularemia, cholera and other deadly diseases by using synthetic biology. Another project involves bats as vectors for the transmission of potential biological warfare agents, such as plague, leptospirosis, brucellosis, filoviruses or coronaviruses [evidence suggests the COVID-19 pandemic originated in the USA, not China]. The Pentagon quietly admitted on June 8, 2022, that it was operating 46 bio-labs in the Ukraine, but prior to this they denied any such bio-labs being U.S. funded/operated. Russia produced evidence to the UN Security Council of such labs and the U.S. had no choice but to own up to the fact of its bio-lab operation that has cost upwards of $200-million.

Russia has taken several steps. First, it carefully destroyed the containers of 26 of these Ukrainian laboratories (4 others escaped the Russian army). Second, it invited its CSTO (Collective Security Treaty Organization) allies to monitor any agreements they might have made with the United States. Armenia and Kazakhstan stopped this research. Finally, CSTO members have banned all foreign defense personnel from their laboratories.

The director of the International Atomic Energy Agency, Rafael Grossi, revealed at the Davos Forum that Ukraine has huge quantities of plutonium and enriched uranium . . . said at the Davos Forum on May 25 that Ukraine had stored 30 tons of plutonium and 40 tons of enriched uranium at its Zaporizhia plant and that his agency was wondering what had happened to them . . . Russia had started to transfer the fuel and Ukrainian special forces tried to stop them.

Plutonium is sold for $5,000 to $11,000 per gram. 30 tons purchased at cost is worth $150 billion . . . The information we have raises several questions: since when has Ukraine, which had given up all its Soviet-era stocks to Russia, been holding these materials? Where did they come from and who paid for them? Alternatively, what is the enrichment level of the uranium and who enriched it?

To these questions, the Russian press adds another: how reliable is the International Atomic Energy Agency, which kept this information secret until last week? In view of these elements, it is appropriate to revise the common accusation according to which Russia is responsible for this war.

A new generation of U.S.-trained extremists is fighting Russia. Are we prepared for the blowback? U.S. agencies have directly and indirectly trained and empowered Nazis and ultra-nationalists at home and abroad to fight Russians in Ukraine. This follows the blueprint established by Western intelligence agencies in Afghanistan and Syria (thegrayzone.com).

The Chairman of the World Economic Forum, Klaus Schwab, organized this year's Davos meeting to whip up support for Ukraine against Russia. He not only allowed Ukrainian oligarch Victor Pinchuk to set up a "Russian War Crimes House," but he arranged for key speeches to be delivered at the plenary sessions, including one from President Volodymyr Zelensky.

This unconditional support for the Banderites can be explained if one looks into Klaus Schwab's origin. Contrary to his family legend, he is the son of a Wehrmacht general. (See picture below) He was decorated not only for his military feats during the two World Wars, but for his actions in the Ottoman Empire/Turkey during the genocide of Christians, mainly Armenians. Klaus Schwab is a member of the extended Rothschild family as well.

In the 70s and 80s, Klaus Schwab was one of the directors at Escher Wyss & Cie (taken over by Sulzer AG) which played an important role in the atomic research program during apartheid in South Africa; contribution that was carried out in violation of United Nations Security Council Resolution 418.

With the help of then European Commissioner for Economic Affairs, Frenchman Raymond Barre (member of the Trilateral Commission), he created a circle of business leaders that became the World Economic Forum. This name change was made with the help of the Center for International Private Enterprise (CIPE), the employers' branch of the National Endowment for Democracy (NED/CIA). This is why he was registered in 2016 with the Bilderberg Group (an influential body of NATO) as an international civil servant, a status which he has never officially occupied. A transhumanist and promoter of equitable globalization, he is the author of The Great Reset, a prospective reflection on what civilization could become.

March 9, 2022 — Yeah, I mean the rumors about volunteer brigades, Polish MiG-29 flying Ukie from NATO bases and all the rest . . . Frankly, here is how I see it: I totally gave up on the West. And by this, I mean two totally different things:

I gave up on any notion of honor, truth, dignity, courage, compassion, decency or any other little sign of hope from a civilization that has already died and whose last legacy to our planet will be the Empire of Lies and everything that entails. In other words, I assume that the level of evil and corruption of the western ruling elites (ALL of them, not just politicians) is infinite and there is no such action or idea which would be deemed "too evil" or "too horrible" for these people. My last words about them will be taken from the 1983 Templeton speech of Alexander Solzhenitsyn: "Before the multitude of those who have perished and who are oppressed today, may God be their judge."

I also have given up on any notion of common sense or even on a healthy instinct of self-preservation. It is not that the western elites are not narcissistic enough to care about their sorry asses, not at all. But they are not smart/educated enough to realize that they are looking at the potential devastation of our planet's entire northern hemisphere, including all of the USA and UK—never mind Poland! The Poles think that the Anglos will give them cover and the Anglos think that the Russians don't mean serious business. That unique combination of cowardice and evil might well bring about the end of our world.

So, to answer the question above: it really does not matter what the Anglos folks think . . . Why?

Because Russia has already won the military war and because Russia already lost the PR war.

In accordance with the Montreux Convention (1936), Turkey has banned NATO ships participating in the Ramstein Legacy 2022 exercise from crossing the Bosphorus and Dardanelles Straits. This ban is an indication that Turkey considers this exercise not only as a test of the interoperability between NATO forces, but also as inherent to the war in Ukraine. She feels that allowing this armada to go through would put her own safety in jeopardy. The Turkish president had spoken to his Russian counterpart on May 30.

This is real good news. It will restrain and also strain NATO and confirms Turkey's place in Ezekiel 38-39, following the year of grace. Please read your Bible. Two days ago Israel launched rockets into the Damascus airport, destroying important infrastructure like the tower, runways, and Iranian rocket caches. Isaiah 17:1-2 and Ezekiel 38/39 is creeping up on the world that is about to explode into something humanity has never witnessed before!

There is a new term for illegal aliens, now they call them "global warming refugees". It is just another lie to justify the orchestrated destruction of a free society. We are now living in an overthrown nation, and the propaganda we're hearing is nothing more than fabricated falsehoods to deceive and mislead the people. A new type of government is being formed as they dismantle the one we used to have.

People often ask what the term "the great reset" really means. That meaning has never been fully described to us yet. It could mean whatever they want it to mean. But it came out of the 2 years of a manufactured pandemic. And they expected millions to die, then they would "reset" the world according to their socialist plans and future agenda – and then "build back better".

Depopulation and reshaping borders are all part of that plan. To redraw borders means to take over that country and to overthrow the existing government and replace it with a new government - and if we complain we are racists and xenophobic.

There is no global warming crisis. What we are seeing is the creation of propaganda to fit the narrative they are promoting, which is to create a new world order. The result is, they come up with the words and phrases to match their agenda. This is a global revolution and our nation and culture are the victims of that attack.

In the news today there's been a hearing on the so-called insurrection of Jan. 6th. They are now saying that Trump was taking part in a coup against the constitutionally elected next president. Dick Cheney's daughter is leading the panel. This is as big as Watergate now, and it will greatly affect the midterm elections in favor of the democrats.

They are blowing it way out of proportion and making Trump out to be a dictator that called for the lynching of vice president Pence. Even Trump's daughter testified against him. They aren't even facing the reality of the fake votes in all the key states, and instead are focused only on January 6 and the so called "insurrection", which was without guns, and fomented by undercover government agents. It's funny how these facts seem to escape the coverage of the news media.

This is very bad news for our nation. The chances of reversing the disastrous policies Biden have not only been lessened, it's now turned into approval for his regime and the attitude of: "please do more of the same".

You can kiss goodbye going back to lower gas prices, and a reduction of inflation. The bad situation we're seeing in the nation today will only get worse as Biden doubles down on his globalist agenda.

But that's not the worst of it, Biden and his cohorts are feverishly working to go to war directly with Russia at the risk of starting WW3 and a nuclear exchange. Our nation is being led into a war that could end up in a nuclear holocaust where millions of innocent people could die, and yet the majority of the public is totally oblivious to this reality.

The best part of this is shortly the Lord Jesus Christ will call for us to come up hither! We have several "high watch" days left this summer. June 14,15th through June 30; July 23rd, and September 11th. Remember the words of the Lord in Revelation 3:10: "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth."

Hal Lindsey's book, 'Combat Faith' is so appropriate for what we are looking at in the immediate picture, so seek the Face of the Lord Jesus Christ!
