

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #120

In this Blessed Hope, I thought it would be an excellent time to go back memory lane with one of Bible Prophecy's great names and share a piece he published in the November, 2004 issue of Chuck's monthly 'Personal Update' by the late Chuck Missler. It was 1996 when I first came across the name Chuck Missler. He was on with John Loeffler on a program "Steel on Steel". Over the next five years I purchased many of Chuck's Bible studies from his catalog as well as everything published by Koinonia House on Dispensationalism. The Christian world could certainly benefit with Dr. Chuck around today. Dr. Chuck brought the Bible alive through his teachings. If I recall correctly, it was in 1996 when Dr. Chuck went from cassette tape to CD format. I loathed cassettes and I was excited to learn he was offering his studies on the new CD format. I have his complete Old and New Testament audio Bible studies.

About the same time Chuck Missler went to the CD format, I had purchased a portable CD player for my 1990 Ford Fiesta to play CD music discs when on the road. I had recently purchased a Sony stereo deck system for my church study above the church office which connected the church with my quite spacious stone-front parsonage. I had a larger study directly above but accessible from the parsonage second floor where I shelved my library.

My Internet provider was down for four or five hours when I decided to work on this Blessed Hope. I have been working on this Blessed Hope for a couple weeks. I sense this may be one of my last articles. I entered pastoral ministry in June, 1965 at the time when the Methodist Church and the Evangelical United Brethren Church merged, forming the United Methodist Church, It was at a time when Vatican II was winding down in its sessions on the Ecumenical Movement. They were controversial years because of the suspicious motives related to the Jesuits Ecumenical Movement. The period that followed was not without its problems such as the ever growing Social Gospel movement, the ordination of women in the United Methodist Church, the LGBTQ+ movement was organizing and asserting its quest for recognition, It was not long before some Annual Conferences of the UMC would soon begin to ordain atheists as fully credentialed UMC pastors. The issues of denominational politics was replacing Biblical fidelity and had created an air for the need to watch one's back carefully.

As such after thirty years of serving small rural and country churches I found myself in need to learn how to deal with what have been "hotbed" issues that could sink one's ministry at the drop of a pin or a mis-statement about one of the controversial issues. In my case, I found it necessary to leave the UMC because of a lesbian predecessor that had been a trouble-maker before and after my appointment as the new pastor of the Duquesne, PA UMC. I digress and my reason for this Blessed Hope is Daniel's Seventy Week prophecy. It is one of the greatest proofs concerning the Bible's credibility and so I begin with Dr. Chuck Missler's study on Daniel 9:24-27.

Daniel's 70 Weeks
The Precision of Prophecy
by Chuck Missler • November 1, 2004

As we reflect on the outcome of this year's election, let us all remember that, fundamentally, we are neither Republicans nor Democrats: we are Monarchists and we look forward to our Coming King... Question: when did Jesus ever present Himself as a King?

Irrefutably Documented

To fully appreciate the remarkable significance of the following article, it is essential to realize that the Book of Daniel, as part of the Old Testament, was translated into Greek prior to 270 B.C., almost three centuries before Christ was born. This is a well-established fact of secular history.[\[1\]](#)

The Septuagint

After his conquest of the Babylonian Empire, Alexander the Great promoted the Greek language throughout the known world, and thus almost everyone — including the Jews — spoke Greek. Hebrew fell into disuse, being reserved primarily for ceremonial purposes (somewhat analogous to the use of Latin among Roman Catholics).

In order to make the Jewish Scriptures (what we call the Old Testament) available to the average Jewish reader, a project was undertaken under the sponsorship of Ptolemy II Philadelphus (285–246 B.C.) to translate the Hebrew Scriptures into Greek. Seventy scholars were commissioned to complete this work and their result is known as the “Septuagint” (“70”) translation. (This is often abbreviated “LXX”.)

The Book of Daniel is actually one of the most authenticated books of the Old Testament, historically and archaeologically, but this is a convenient shortcut for our purposes here. It is critical to realize that the Book of Daniel existed in documented form almost three centuries before Christ was born.

Gabriel’s Zinger

Daniel, originally deported as a teenager (now near the end of the Babylonian captivity), was reading in the Book of Jeremiah. He understood that the seventy years of servitude were almost over and he began to pray for his people.

The Angel Gabriel interrupted Daniel’s prayer and gave him a four-verse prophecy that is unquestionably the most remarkable passage in the entire Bible: Daniel 9:24–27.

These four verses include the following segments:

- 9:24 – The Scope of the Entire Prophecy;
- 9:25 – The 69 Weeks;
- 9:26 – An Interval between the 69th and 70th Week;
- 9:27 – The 70th Week.

The Scope (Daniel 9:24)

“Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy Place.”

—Daniel 9:24

The idiom of a “week” of years was common in Israel as a “sabbath for the land,” in which the land was to lie fallow every seventh year.^[2] It was their failure to obey these laws that led to God sending them into captivity under the Babylonians.^[3]

Note that the focus of this passage is upon “thy people and upon thy holy city,” that is, upon Israel and Jerusalem. (It is not directed to the Church.)

The scope of this prophecy includes a broad list of things which clearly have yet to be completed.

The First 69 Weeks (Daniel 9:25)

A very specific prediction occurs in verse 25:

“Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.”

— Daniel 9:25

This includes a mathematical prophecy. As we have noted in previous articles, the Jewish (and Babylonian) calendars used a 360-day year;^[4] 69 weeks of 360-day years totals 173,880 days. In effect, Gabriel told Daniel that the interval between the commandment to rebuild Jerusalem until the presentation of the Messiah as King would be 173,880 days.

The “Messiah the Prince” in the King James translation is actually the Meshiach Nagid, “The Messiah the King.” (Nagid is first used of King Saul.)

Bull’s-Eye!

The commandment to restore and build Jerusalem was given by Artaxerxes Longimanus on March 14, 445 B.C.^[5] (The emphasis in the verse on “the street” and “the wall” was to avoid confusion with other earlier mandates confined to rebuilding the Temple.)

During the ministry of Jesus Christ there were several occasions in which the people attempted to promote Him as king, but He carefully avoided it: “Mine hour is not yet come”.^[6]

The Triumphal Entry

Then, one day, He meticulously arranges it.^[7] On this particular day he rode into the city of Jerusalem riding on a donkey, deliberately fulfilling a prophecy by Zechariah that the Messiah would present Himself as king in just that way:

“Rejoice greatly, O daughter of Zion; shout, O daughter of Jerusalem: behold, thy King cometh unto thee: he is just, and having salvation; lowly, and riding upon an ass, and upon a colt the foal of an ass.”

— Zechariah 9:9

Whenever we might easily miss the significance of what was going on, the Pharisees come to our rescue. They felt that the overzealous crowd was blaspheming, proclaiming Jesus as the Messiah the King.[\[8\]](#) However, Jesus endorsed it!

“I tell you that, if these should hold their peace, the stones would immediately cry out.”

—Luke 19:40

This is the only occasion that Jesus presented Himself as King. It occurred on April 6, 32 A.D.[\[9\]](#)

The Precision of Prophecy

When we examine the period between March 14, 445 B.C. and April 6, 32 A.D., and correct for leap years, we discover that it is 173,880 days exactly, to the very day!

How could Daniel have known this in advance? How could anyone have contrived to have this detailed prediction documented over three centuries in advance? But there's more.

The Interval (Daniel 9:26)

There appears to be a gap between the 69th week (verse 25) and the 70th week (verse 27):

“And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for Himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.”

—Daniel 9:26

The sixty-two “weeks” follow the initial seven, so verse 26 deals with events after 69th week, but before the 70th. These events include the Messiah being killed and the city and sanctuary being destroyed.

As Jesus approached the city on the donkey, He also predicted the destruction of Jerusalem:

“For the days shall come upon thee, that thine enemies shall cast a trench about thee, and compass thee round, and keep thee in on every side, And shall lay thee even with the ground, and thy children within thee; and they shall not leave in thee one stone upon another; because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.”

—Luke 19:43–44

The Messiah was, of course, executed at the Crucifixion... ”but not for Himself.”

The city and the sanctuary were destroyed 38 years later when the Roman legions under Titus Vespasian leveled the city of Jerusalem in A.D. 70, precisely as Daniel and Jesus had predicted. In fact, as one carefully examines Jesus’ specific words, it appears that He held them accountable to know this astonishing prophecy in Daniel 9! “Because thou knewest not the time of thy visitation.”

The 70th Week

There is a remaining seven-year period to be fulfilled. This period is the most documented period in the entire Bible. The Book of Revelation, Chapters 6 through 19, is essentially a detailing of that climactic period.

The interval between the 69th and 70th week continues, but it is increasingly apparent that it may soon be over.

The more one is familiar with the numerous climactic themes of “end-time” prophecy, the more it seems that Daniel’s 70th Week is on our horizon.

Have you done your homework? Are you and your family prepared?

As the holiday season approaches, share with your family and friends this incredible demonstration of just who Jesus really is, and what the significance of all this is to every one of us!

Amazing grace, indeed!

The Bible was penned by some forty different men many of whom we know very little about and some held positions of minor worldly significance. Yet the author is God. The creator of all things, life giver, and source of truth.

You cannot overvalue the significance of the Bible because of its origin from the mouth of God. King David praised the word of God.

"In God will I praise His word: in the LORD will I praise His word." –(Psalm 56:10)

Again David praises God for his truth saying,

"...Thou hast magnified Thy word above all Thy name." –(Psalm 138:2)

Some will diminish the reliability of Scripture because it was penned by men, has been transferred through numerous centuries, and all without modern scientific oversight and digital replication.

Yet we are given this promise as a starting point.

“Knowing this first, that no prophecy of the Scripture is of any private interpretation. For the prophecy came not in old time by the will of man: but holy men of God spake as they were moved by the Holy Ghost.” – (2nd Peter 1:20)

If God has written words then they would be worth more than all the books humanity has ever inspired. While it is true that humans penned the words but they were moved by God to write the very words from the mind of God.

With this doctrine we are equipped to study every passage and word of the Bible to gain eternal truths for application in our temporal daily lives.

Paul confirms God’s inspiration and explains that the Scriptures are able to profit mankind unto salvation and so much more! Believing the Bible means understanding that it was inspired by God and has become more valuable than anything else you possess.

“... thou hast known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make thee wise unto salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works.” –(2nd Timothy 3:15-17)

We are on the precipice of eternity and most folks are oblivious to the implications that became a living nightmare on March 10th, 2020. When God gave Daniel the words of Daniel 9:24-27, chances are that Daniel did not understand what was entrusted to him to record and share with future generations, and particularly so for the last generation.

Dr. Chuck Missler considered those four verses the most important words of the Bible for our day. March 10th, 2020 was the date the World Health Organization declared the Covid-19 “pandemic”.

Since that date, the world has been whipsawed with fear, sickness, chaos, even death and turned upside down and billions of lives ripped from what had been their idea of normality. The Covid-19 crime against humanity has touched every part of the world in such a way as to make it virtually impossible to know from where it was hoaxed upon humanity. For eighty weeks I have chronicled the mysterious virus known as Covid-19. I have been documenting the Covid scamdemic in my series “Mass Murder”. From the very beginning I was stating this was a “bioweapon” and it was all about “Depopulation” at the physical level. What is difficult for many to comprehend is the fact that it is Spiritual War so as to enable the Antichrist to war against God's people. Satan's agenda is to steal, kill and destroy. -(John 10:10).

Covid-19 was patented many times in the past twenty years and was introduced to distract the world from the global elite's plan to introduce the Global Antichrist system of a unified global economy, political, and religious system. Covid-19 was executed to cover the delays from the technocratic implementations of its Great Reset plan. The virus was a scam introduced as a "bioweapon" to create the chaos needed to distract the world from the larger issue of global financial reform. Even as I write this Blessed Hope the official narrative has been unraveling in such a fashion that even the cruise industry is now allowing the unvaxxed to book cruises. They are treating Covid-19 as if it is no longer the critical issue we were told to believe over the past two years+. It was all about locking down humanity and they succeeded for more than two years. The "End Game" is to kill Christians and the true descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. But let's move on with the issue of the Biblical prophetic message and the soon calling Christians out of this world.

"And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate." -(Daniel 9:27)

The antecedent of the "He" who would confirm a covenant is the future prince who was yet to come. Some commentators suppose that the "prince who was to come" and who makes the covenant "for one seven" is the same as "the Messiah the Prince" in verse 25. But Jesus was put to death before the seventieth week. The new covenant that was put into effect by His death and the shedding of His blood was God-given and not limited to one "seven" of years. It will never be broken.

That prince who is to come destroyed Jerusalem and the Temple in 70 A.D. -(cf. Luke 21:20). His people were the Romans, not the people of the Messiah. The Romans made no covenant with the Jews after the death and resurrection of Jesus. The signs Jesus prophesied were not all fulfilled in the destruction carried out by the armies of Titus. All this shows us that Daniel's seventieth week of years is still to come. This gives us grounds for taking the coming Tribulation to be seven years long. Most premillennialists agree.

Some people claim the seventieth seven of years followed immediately after the crucifixion of Christ. But the fact that the Roman destruction of the city and Temple came forty years after the death of Jesus and the fact that the Roman destruction came before the seventieth week of years show that there is a GAP between the sixty-ninth and seventieth week. Since God does not look at time the way we do. -(2nd Peter 3:8), it is not contrary to the way the Bible reveals things for the gap to extend to the time of the Great Tribulation at the end of this age. The ruler or prince to come fits the little horn already prophesied in Daniel 7:8, 24 and following. He would be an "antichrist," a counterfeit Christ. Note that anti in the Greek primarily means "instead of" or "in place of." He will not call himself the antichrist. He may say he is Christ or that he is the final manifestation of a long line of prophets, gods and goddesses.

In the middle of the seventieth "seven," or week of years, the ruler to come will break the covenant with the Jews (possibly made with respect to a land dispute; cf. 11:39) by stopping their sacrifices and offerings in what will be a restored temple. This will be a time of trouble and distress -(Jeremiah 30:7; Daniel 12:1). On a "wing" of that temple He will set up "an abomination that causes desolation." This does not refer to the pagan altar and the statue of Zeus that Antiochus IV Epiphanes set up in the Temple in December, 167 B.C. Jesus prophesied that this abomination that causes desolation that Daniel saw was still to come -(Matthew 24:15; Mark 13:14). Thus the Antichrist will set up that abomination in a Temple yet to be built in Jerusalem -(see 2nd Thessalonians 2:3f; Revelation 13:14f). But the Antichrist would not last forever. A decreed end would be poured out upon him. Revelation 19 gives us the details of how that will be accomplished. Get ready to be shocked about this temple!

If a group of Christians sat down to list mystifying and troubling passages, it wouldn't take long for someone to mention Matthew 24:15-16: "So when you see standing in the holy place 'the abomination that causes desolation,' spoken of through the prophet Daniel—let the reader understand—then let those who are in Judea flee to the mountains." I have in my library close to a dozen books on difficult passages of the Bible. None of them offers an answer that resolves this question. Not a single one!

The reasons for uncertainty are easy to list. What is an abomination? What abomination does Jesus have in mind? One that belongs to his generation, or one from the last days? What is the connection between the prophecies of Daniel and Jesus? Who is "the reader," and what should he or she understand? In what sense should readers "flee to the mountains"? Should they obey literally or metaphorically? This is for openers as to what Daniel 9:27 is telling the reader. Try to stay with me on this as translation is critical even if you're not a Bible language scholar if you want to grasp Daniel 9:27.

In an exegesis of the final clause of the Hebrew text for Daniel 9:27, I am only going to deal with the first two words; the third is less of a problem in understanding the last clause of 9:27. The first word is specifically used in connection with idolatrous practices is shiqqûts and sometimes refers to idols in general as "abominable" or "detestable" things in God's sight -(2nd Chronicles 15:8; Jeremiah 16:18; Ezekiel 5:11). Other times, it refers to specific pagan deities, such as Milcom, Ashtoreth, Chemosh and Molech -(1st Kings 11:5, 7; 2nd Kings. 23:13). In fact, those who worshiped idols became as "detestable" as the idols they worshiped -(Hosea 9:10).

Antiochus Epiphanes, who was a type of the Antichrist, set up an image of Zeus in the Temple, thus fulfilling the prophecy of Daniel 11:31 regarding the abomination that causes desolation. However, the future Antichrist will also set up an image that is likewise referred to as the abomination that causes desolation (12:11), and he is said to be one who makes desolate, coming on the wings of abominations (9:27).

Shiqqûts is used of "abominable filth" to be thrown on the people of Nineveh because of their unrepentant and depraved condition -(Nahum 3:6), and the reference to harlotries and sorceries -(vs. 4) shows that the judgment pronounced by God in this passage is connected with their idolatry. Shiqqûts also refers to impure food still between the teeth as an "abomination" -(Zechariah 9:7). This is probably a reference to food sacrificed to idols. Finally, some think shiqqûts should be translated as "monster" in several passages -(Deuteronomy. 29:17; 2nd Kings 23:24; Isaiah 66:3; Daniel 9:27), but this application is disputed.

The second word of this clause is attested in Biblical and Jewish Aramaic, Ugaritic and the Dead Sea Scrolls, shāmfim means "to be without inhabitants," or "to be desolate." In the Suffering Servant passages in Isaiah, the Lord Jesus Christ is pictured in His suffering: "As many were astonished at you; His visage was so marred more than any man, and His form more than the sons of men" -(Isaiah 52:14), which reveals the severity of the beating which He received prior to His crucifixion -(cf. Matthew 27:27-31; Mark 15:15-20; John 19:1f). Figuratively speaking, the heavens are commanded to be appalled and shocked, utterly desolate because of the idolatry of Judah before their exile to Babylon -(Jeremiah 2:12).

Similarly, places are said to be "laid waste," "made desolate," quiet and silent because they are no longer inhabited -(Isaiah 61:4; Daniel 9:18, 26). This would be the condition of the land of Judah after the devastation brought by the Babylonians; no longer would the pride of the Israelites be exalted, as they all would be killed or carried into captivity -(Ezekiel 33:28ff). Edom, neighbor of Israel, also suffered the same fate for their mockery and pride -(Ezekiel 35:12-15). After many of the Jews were exiled, Jeremiah mourned for Jerusalem, its prosperous, busy city gates and for himself as a member of the afflicted families of Judah, as both the city and the people were made desolate, or laid waste -(Lamentations 1:4; 3:11).

The concept of desolation can also apply to persons in regard to tragedies in personal life, for example, Tamar, sister of Absalom and daughter of David. After her half-brother Amnon sexually assaulted her and did not marry her to remove her shame in society, she "remained desolate, in her brother Absalom's house" -(2nd Samuel 13:20). A woman without children was called desolate -(Isaiah 54:1). These situations indicate emotionally devastated people, silent and private regarding public activity—living more of a reclusive existence because of the tragedies in their lives.

The transitive function of the Qal verb appears in Ezekiel to mean "to lay waste," "to make desolate." Daniel 9:27 refers to "the desolater," that is, Antiochus IV Epiphanes, king of Syria, who tried to destroy the Jews in the mid-second century B.C. The "sin of the desolater" and the "abomination of the desolater" also appear in Daniel to represent Antiochus, who raised up either an altar or an idol in the temple in Jerusalem and, prophetically, the end-time Antichrist -(Daniel 12:11; cf. 1st Maccabees. 1:54; 6:7

for historical detail; see also Matthew 24:14 for the understanding of a future event, yet unfulfilled in the time of the Lord Jesus).

In the Niphal form, shāmfim means "to be astonished," "to be destroyed," "to be laid waste," referring to the astonishment of prophets and priests over the total devastation of Jerusalem. They assumed God would automatically protect His own city - (Jeremiah 4:9). Similarly, people will react in horror at the judgment of the wicked, "him who knows not God" -(Job 18:20 and following). The disobedient, idolatrous leaders of Judah were blamed for destroying their own people and land: "They have made it desolate, and being desolate it mourns to me; the whole land is made desolate, because no man lays it to heart" -(Jeremiah 12:11). All this devastation was promised in the Law for those who walked contrary to God, so that their land, property, whole lives would be desolate -(Leviticus 26:21f).

The Polel form means "reduced to shuddering," "appalled," "stupefied," as Ezra was appalled when he discovered that many of the Jews who returned from Babylon had married foreign women, a sacrilege included in the many sins of the preexilic Jews who were punished severely by the Lord -(Ezra 9:3f). The Antichrist, during the seventy weeks of the Messiah, will be recognized as "one who makes desolate" and is a "desolater" -(Daniel 9:27; 11:31).

In the Hiphil stem form, shāmfim means "to astonish," as in the example of Egypt, which the Lord would judge and destroy so completely that other nations would be appalled and "their kings shall be horribly afraid... they shall tremble at every moment, every man for his own life, in the day of [Egypt's] fall" -(Ezekiel 32:10). Micah prophesied, "Therefore also will I make you sick in smiting you, making you desolate because of your sins" -(Micah 6:13). Finally, Ezekiel, called to be a priest and prophet to the exiled Jews in Babylon, arrived in Tel-Abib by the Chebar River to take his place among his people. They were so devastated by their punishment and Ezekiel was so embittered by all the suffering that he sat there overwhelmed among them seven days before he could begin his work -(Ezekiel 3:15).

Shāmfim means "desolation" in the Hophal stem. In the Law, the land must have Sabbaths, times that it "lies desolate," quiet and unused so that it may become revitalized. There are some farmers today who practice Biblical farming, leave a field fallow every seventh year. If the people of Israel disobeyed the Lord's commands and did not allow Sabbaths, then defeat and conquest would fall upon them and the land would rest -(Leviticus 26:34ff). This prophetic promise came true when Judah was conquered and carried away to Babylon: "To fulfill the word of the Lord by the mouth of Jeremiah... for as long as she lay desolate she kept sabbath, to fulfill threescore and ten years" -(2nd Chronicles 36:21).

The imperfect Hithpael forms mean "driven to astonishment," "consternation," "numbness," "to ruin oneself," "to be confounded" or "to be disheartened." The Lord must bring his people justice: "He saw that there was no man, and [was astonished] that there was no intercessor: therefore his arm brought salvation unto him" -(Isaiah 59:16; cf. 63:5).

When Daniel received his vision of the little horn arising from the nations, he "fainted, and was sick certain days." Even after he recovered physically to the extent that he could continue his work, he was "astonished at the vision" and did not understand it - (Daniel 8:27). David expressed his feelings of devastation when his enemies pursued him, and he cried out to God for help: "The enemy has persecuted my soul; he has smitten my life down to the ground; he has made me to dwell in darkness, as those that have been long dead. Therefore is my spirit overwhelmed within me; my heart within me is [disheartened]" -(Psalm 143:3f). He knew, though, that God would deliver him, which certainly happened in the history of his life. Solomon, the Teacher, lamented that everything he had done had been vanity, including becoming overly righteous, perhaps self-righteous, and overly wise. Both conditions brought on pride and self-congratulation, which Solomon said would cause a person "to destroy oneself" or "to lay oneself waste" -(Ecclesiastes 7:16).

Daniel 9:27 has been an enigma for most Bible scholars and theologians as long as I can remember. References to the Temple could be interpreted to mean the physical building, or to that of the human body. -(See John 2:21; 1st Corinthians 6:19). This may be a good reason to consider what writer Anthony Patch has to say. I said be prepared to be surprised.

Anthony Patch has an interesting view of what this term "an abomination that causes desolation." As I recall his article in his publication 'Entangled' he refers to the vaxxes people have been receiving as a convolution of one's DNA and this term results in the vaxxes rewriting a person's God-given DNA, and thus removes them from the Book of Life! You can read his 26-page transcript of his pod cast analysis and what he has to say on this subject at the link below:

For access to 'Entangled' Magazine October, 2020 Edition, "The Final Solution," click on the following link:

https://www.anthonypatch.com/entangledmagazine/pdf/ENTANGLED_MAGAZINE_Volume4-10.pdf

I agree with Anthony Patch's analysis because from what we know about the vaxxes, they contain a spike Protein (PEG) which does change your DNA. Two years into the Covid crimes against humanity this fact has been proven to be correct even if the CDC and others continue to perpetuate their lies. The so-called vaxxes re-write your DNA and Covid-19 becomes a "bioweapon" Retrovirus through self-replication of nanoparticle pathogens injected in the vaxx shots.

Below is the English King James Version of the Daniel 9:24-27 passage.

²⁴ Seventy weeks are determined upon thy people and upon thy holy city, to finish the transgression, and to make an end of sins, and to make reconciliation for iniquity, and to bring in everlasting righteousness, and to seal up the vision and prophecy, and to anoint the most Holy.

²⁵ Know therefore and understand, that from the going forth of the commandment to restore and to build Jerusalem unto the Messiah the Prince shall be seven weeks, and threescore and two weeks: the street shall be built again, and the wall, even in troublous times.

²⁶ And after threescore and two weeks shall Messiah be cut off, but not for himself: and the people of the prince that shall come shall destroy the city and the sanctuary; and the end thereof shall be with a flood, and unto the end of the war desolations are determined.

²⁷ And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.

(Daniel 9:24-27)

The Bible is first and foremost focused upon the people of God known as the Israelites. While it is not immediately about Gentiles or Bible-believing Christians, God “chose” the people of Abraham to be His instrument to make Himself known to the world. It does not matter whether one loves or despises the Jews. God had his reasons! We have to live with the fact that the Jews are under four curses of the Bible. The Four Curses are:

- ✓ Curse of Disinheritance - Gospel of Luke 20:9-16
- ✓ Curse of The Fig Tree - Gospel of Matthew 21:18-20
- ✓ Curse of Desolation - Gospel of Luke 13:28-35
- ✓ Curse of Deicide - Gospel of Matthew 27:17-25

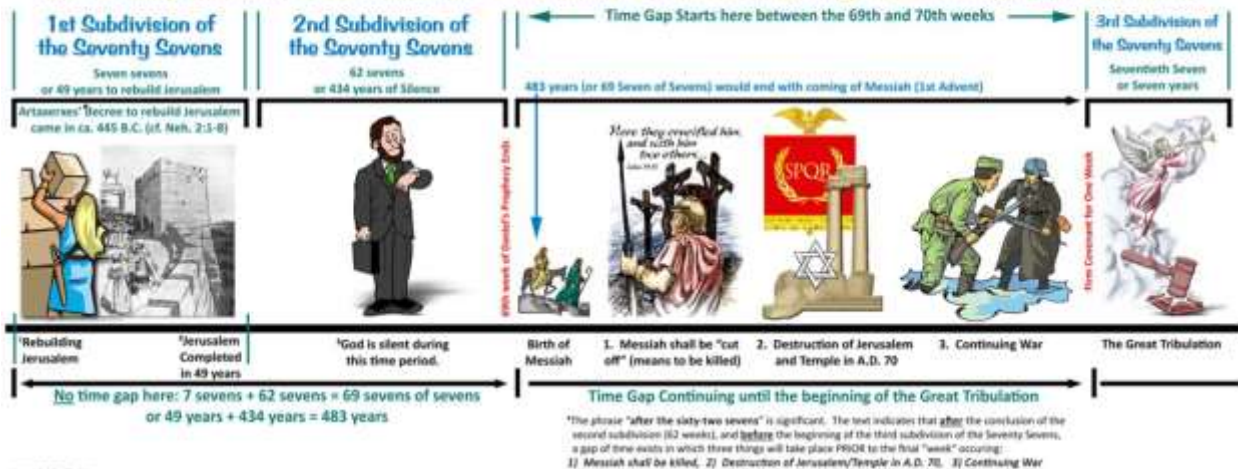

Basic Facts to Understand this Prophecy

- 1. This prophecy only concerns the Jews and Jerusalem. 9:24
- 2. The length of this prophecy is 490 years.
- V. 24
- 3. The prophecy has three divisions of time. (7 weeks or 49 years; 62 weeks or 434 years and 1 week or 7 years.)

The Program, Purpose and Meaning of the Seventy "Sevens" of Daniel 9

The above chart appears on the next page in a vertical format for ease of reading the seven events referred to as the events foretold at the end of the 69th Week of Daniel.

Much of, if not all, what I am sharing in this Blessed Hope has been misunderstood since the time of Vatican II. Vatican II was the second major ecumenical council of the Roman Catholic Church. It lasted from 1962 until 1965. Vatican II was a collective Jesuit ecumenical plan to bring all Protestant denominations back under the umbrella of the Vatican's control. One of the successes of the Jesuits was to get the subject of Bible Prophecy to be silenced. It was able to do so through tax legislation that is known as the 501(C)3 non-profit tax exempt legislation, passed years earlier under the leadership of Lyndon B. Johnson in the 1950s. Protestant church leaders were eager to return to church unity and in the process of denominational "hug and kiss, all is forgiven" – the Reformation was soon ancient history and all but forgotten! The mainline denominations snuffed out any embers of Bible Prophecy and all references to the RCC as being of the Antichrist Beast System. This is why Dr. Chuck Missler's work was so important! Chuck gave revived life to what we are in the middle of today!

As such was the case, Dispensationalism was under attack because it would continue to retain the Biblical message of Bible Prophecy and a coming world government system of a single economic system, a single political system, and a single religious system. We know that today as the "New World Order", or today as it is known as Klaus Schwab's "Great Reset", or "Sustainable Development" coined by Prince Charles of Wales back in the early 1990s. Its also called known as the "Fourth Industrial Revolution.

Any way you cut the proverbial pie, the “New World Order” is the Old World Order repackaged like pigs wearing lipstick.

Recently as this past week, a Klaus Schwab adviser has said we do not have need of all these people, seven billion or so too many. Now you know the reasons behind Covid-19. Worldwide, deaths from Covid vaxxes range from 5 to 20 million people!

That Bible Prophecy has not been the focus of the church since the 1960s comes as no surprise to those of us who were alive in the 1960s and take the Bible very seriously. We know from history that the church has not always been focused on the big picture. In fact, the institutional church has often been out of step with the Biblical message. This is a key reason why Dr. Chuck Missler’s work became so important in recovering the bringing the church back to basics. As an excellent example is the early church which did not preach the message of the Cross.

It is evident from 1st Corinthians 15:1-4 that the gospel of our salvation includes the death, burial, and resurrection of Jesus as payment for our sins. This simple truth is the cornerstone of Christianity. Yet no where within Matthew, Mark, Luke, or John did the twelve Apostles understand the preaching of the cross. Below is a summary of verses that prove the twelve were ignorant of the preaching of the cross for salvation.

They were ignorant of Jesus' Death, burial, and resurrection

1. Matthew 16:21-22 – Jesus first began to tell them of his death and yet Peter tried to prevent it.
2. Mark 8:31-32 – Another account of Peter rebuking the Lord for speaking about his death.
3. Mark 9:31-32 – After hearing about the death and resurrection of Jesus the disciples “understood not and were afraid to ask him”
4. Luke 9:44-45 – “But they understood not this saying, and it was hid from them, that they perceived it not: and they feared to ask him of that saying.”
5. Luke 18:31-34 – “And they understood none of these things: and this saying was hid from them, neither knew they the things which were spoken.”
6. John 2:21-22 – They did not understand the resurrection until after it happened.

Disbelief in the Resurrection

7. Mark 16:5-14 – The ladies were afraid when they found the tomb empty. The disciples did not believe after two witnesses testified of the resurrection.
8. Luke 24:1-4 – The ladies were perplexed about what had happened to Jesus.
9. Luke 24:8-12 – The stories of Jesus' “disappearance” were idle tales. Peter wondered what happened.
10. John 20:2 – Mary Magdalene thought someone had stolen Jesus after he had resurrected.
11. John 20:7-9 – The disciples after seeing the empty tomb believed Mary that someone had stolen Jesus. They did not know about the resurrection yet.

Did not understand the cross for salvation

12. John 20:21-23 – Even after the resurrection, the disciples did not understand what it accomplished. Here they are given the authority to remit sins.
13. Acts 3:14-15 – The crucifixion was presented as a murder indictment to Israel at Pentecost. The resurrection as a warning that he would return to seek vengeance.
14. Acts 5:28 – Instead of the blood being payment for sins it was presented as the evidence of guilty murderers.
15. Acts 7:52 – Stephen accuses the rulers of betrayal and murder of the Just One.
16. Acts 10:39 – According to Paul's gospel Christ died willingly in the place of sinners. According to Peter he died because he was slain by certain Jews. Could it be that Peter does not yet understand the mystery of the cross?

Conclusions:

This list does not prove that the twelve were disobedient to the gospel that was presented to them. Contrarily, they were some of the first believers in the gospel of the kingdom. They were among the faithful remnant of Israel who trusted that Jesus was the Son of God and promised Messiah.

However, these verses show that the gospel they knew and trusted was not the preaching of the cross that Paul taught. Whereas they knew Jesus Christ as Messiah to Israel, Paul would later teach Jesus Christ on the cross as payment for sins to Gentiles.

The preaching of the cross was offered for salvation first through the Apostle Paul as the Lord revealed the meaning of the death, burial, and resurrection. The twelve apostles were ignorant of this message. However, ignorance of the disciples or the world today does not change God's Master Plan of Redemption one iota. God's time table or clock is still focused upon the Nation of Israel!

Few of you reading this know about crypto currencies like Bit Coin or Ethereum. The government of the U.S. have been planning to dissolve the Federal Reserve Note in favor of a Block Chain unit of value; however, the government will not allow competition in this plan to maintain control over the monetary system. Below are three links that one should become familiar with since this is about to turn your lives upside down. The second link is to the actual Presidential Executive Order #14067 that will be implemented on December 13th, 2022 establishing a new crypto currency (CASHLESS).

The PDF document is some what long for a presidential EO but it is unconstitutional and my guess is that transition will not be an easy process. Your dollars state at the bottom of each bill, Federal Reserve Note (FRNs) and they will be redeemed over a period of months. How many depends on the public's compliance. The Federal Reserve System will still be in control of the crypto currency system, and other crypto currencies such as Bit Coin and Ethereum will be banned by law. The criminal IRS/Treasury cannot and will not permit competition with a state-system. The IRS required cyrpto currency users to report their earnings two years ago. All (FRNs) are loaned into circulation by this foreign-owned entity called the Federal Reserve System and with that ownership the House of Rothschild will claim ownership of the world, including you and your family.

The new crypto currency medium will be tied to an identification QR Code App on your cell phone linked to the Cloud; and it will incorporate each individual's information for three primary areas: financial, health, and personal data. Initially, it will be through your cell phone, and then the final step from the embedded QR Code in the right hand or forehead electronically connected to the global computer in the Cloud through 5G Wireless EMF energy. The point of this is that the system will be "Cashless". The system has been in use in China for the past three or four years. The technology is called Near Field Communications.

We know that President Biden wants total control over Americans and their money. For instance, back in October 2021, Joe Biden asked Congress to authorize new bank surveillance measures of Americans to be granted to the IRS. These requests for legislation get lost in the news that comes out of D.C. But as always, they wind their way through the process of government when it becomes too late to oppose or obstruct their enactment.

This executive order piggybacks off of Senator Sherrod Brown's [D-OH] new pro-digital dollar draft. Senate Bill 3571 - Banking for All Act. What the hell does that mean? This is a blatant attempt to control every issue of your life, including your money.

On March 9, President Biden quietly signed the death warrant on American freedom. Few people paid much attention when he enacted Executive Order #14067. Buried in his Executive Order is one specific sentence that will be remembered as the first move...in the most treacherous act by a sitting President in the history of our republic.

It will set the stage for...

- Legal government surveillance of all U.S. citizens...
- Total control over your bank accounts and purchases...
- And the ability to silence all dissenting voices for good.

If you think you can take what money you have in the bank out of the bank the week before the Executive Order #14067 goes into effect on December 13th, 2022 and remain free of the Federal Reserve's new Crypto currency system, you are in for a rude awakening. We know that the primary objective is to remove fiat (paper) money as a means of doing commerce, and we can only guess how long the transition will take. Hooking up all points of sale rests upon how quickly the Federal Reserve System can call in its FRNs. Americans have been using Federal Reserve Notes since the government surrendered their responsibilities in 1914, following the passage of the Federal Reserve Act of 1913, passed by the U.S. Congress on December 23, 1913. Then President Woodrow Wilson, later admitted on his death bed he had sold out his country. This is what he was referring to in his confession.

Such an electronic system is far from ideal, just think of all the times the Internet has been down, or you were unable to use credit or debit cards on the weekend, or a store's Internet connection was down. The greatest control that a global government system can have is to be able to flip a switch and turn off your account, and without having to provide you an answer why you cannot buy or sell!

This is the "End Game!" "And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." -(Revelation 13:17). It is but four months away before it takes effect! Integral to this EO will be a "Social Credit" system like that used in China. Cross the government by criticizing the government and you will be eliminated from the world wide web! Dissidents will be hunted down and murdered!

You can read for yourself the eight references in the book of Revelation about this "Mark" – 13:16, 17; 14:9, 11; 15:2; 16:2; 19:20; and 20:4. Any high school graduate should be able to read between the lines the implications of this mysterious mark that will enslave rich and poor alike!

We Americans are divided by political party, race, religion and social class, to keep us from ever figuring out the real cancer in American culture. The cause of nearly every American war and the mother of today's corruption is the Federal Reserve: The Federal Reserve banking system introduced the most destructive form of usury the modern world has ever known; a debt-based currency designed to rob and enslave entire nations. Of 194 nations, all but a handful have Rothschild-owned or controlled central bank.

The Federal Reserve prints money out of thin air and this has given the crooks who wield it the power and influence to create their own corporate government within the United States. We call it the "Deep State" because it operates deep within the halls of government, education, the military, commerce, economics and global finance.

And the IRS has made every hardworking American into a criminal, guilty until proven innocent. In my working years, I was audited by the IRS three times and I won each time. The IRS was always seen as Unconstitutional but in 1913, the powers of the IRS were weaponized and made defacto law by the 16th Amendment, never properly ratified, which states that the government can collect a percentage of everyone's income. Taxes are paid under the illusion the system is voluntary!

Over 50% of Americans refuse this Unconstitutional amendment. But the IRS will come after you with the full force of the gun. They have a long reputation for targeting religious groups and political opponents and it's only looking to get much worse.

The Biden "Inflation Reduction Act" guarantees more inflation, with the billions of dollars required to be printed out of thin air. It simply deepens the debt of the U.S. to the foreign-owned Federal Reserve System. Every President since JFK has allowed this debt-based fiat currency to tighten the rope around your children and grandchildren.

Since the Democrats took office on January 20th, 2021, they have spent $3.6+ trillion dollars driving up the National Debt {fraudulently so} for the purpose of collapsing the once Great Republic.

And while local police are defunded, so that violent criminals are set free, the IRS is being funded to hire over 87,000 new agents to make sure that everyone is paying their taxes. And they have recently bought 5,000,000 rounds of ammunition to enforce their unconstitutional powers.

They are building their own police force to execute search warrants, make arrests and exert the use of deadly force. While many Liberal Progressives may argue that the crimes of the Federal Reserve are necessary, they are hurting people worldwide.

Because it's the world's reserve currency, 40% of international transactions are in U.S.Dollars and as the Fed continues pushing the illusion of a strong dollar, the rest of the world is made poor. If the Americans don't remedy the situation soon, then the international community has a reasonable excuse to get involved.

The entire international fiat system is collapsing and the crooks responsible are selling us a new centralized digital currency, which is obviously another trap.

But the alternative is simple: Restore the Constitutional Republic, to promote the general welfare and secure the blessings of liberty with sound money backed by gold and silver. End the Fed, the IRS, the CIA, the FBI. It may sound good but... This will not be permitted to happen by the people who control the world.

The Bible has told us it will only end with the return of the Lord Jesus Christ. For more than a century, since 1913, we have lived under a huge lie created through the Kazarian Mafia led by the House of Rothschild. You would know or have known all about this had you read G. Edward Griffin's book 'Creature From Jekyll Island'.

It's written right there, on your $100 Reserve Note: "Whenever any form of government becomes destructive, it is the right of the People to alter or to abolish it and to institute new government, that will most benefit their safety and happiness."

We best be aware that 194 countries (Including the U.S.A.) have signed onto the UN plan to create a global Pandemic Policy. The World Health Organization (WHO) is moving ahead with plans to enact a new or revised international pandemic preparedness treaty, despite encountering setbacks earlier this summer after dozens of countries, primarily outside the Western world, objected to the plan.

During the meeting, held back in May 10-11, WHO's 194 member countries unanimously agreed to launch the process, which previously had been discussed only informally.

The member countries agreed to: "Kickstart a global process to draft and negotiate a convention, agreement or other international instrument under the Constitution of the World Health Organization to strengthen pandemic prevention, preparedness and response."

The WHO's handling of Covid-19 should scare every person on the planet! But I digress and so let's get back to Daniel 9:24-27.

The "Seventy Weeks" prophecy is an outline of God's Master Plan for Israel. It begins with Nehemiah, in the month of Nisan of the 20th year of the Persian king Artaxerxes in 445 B.C., continuing up through to the time of Israel's ultimate blessing in Jesus Christ's millennial kingdom following His second coming, as prophesied in Daniel 9:24-27.

The significance of this prophecy cannot be over emphasized enough since its accuracy is so precise as to defy all mathematical statistical analysis. The portion of this article that Chuck Missler's 2004 'Personal Update' left readers speechless when Dr. Chuck first published it. Modern day critics have been hard pressed to refute the evidence and have resorted to deceptive efforts to undermine the study. The critics rely on ignorance of Bible students and Christians into thinking that it could not happen as it is laid out by Chuck Missler. Dr. Chuck Missler was a Naval Academy graduate and served in the U.S. Air Force, and founded many enterprises as well as being on the boards of Ford, and a dozen or more corporations. We are deeply grateful for all of his work in establishing historical credibility of the Bible. He brought the Bible alive in his many studies.

Nonetheless, this prophecy of Daniel 9:24-27 is KEY to understanding so much of Bible Prophecy. The evidence and facts have withstood years of unbelievers' attempts to chip away at the incredible "Seventy Week" prophecy. But even more important in this writer's view is how God's precision in telling this piece of Jewish history validates the Bible and confirms it for its truth over a span of 2,700 years of world history of the Jewish people, its neighbors and empires. Revelation 22:12 is words of assurance that we are not going to be here much longer.

The two most recent Blessed Hope #118 and #119 provide us great encouragement as does Revelation 3:10. World events, and the chaos being provoked around the world are scary for many and point to the soon return of the Lord Jesus Christ. This Blessed Hope #120 is getting long and I hope that what I am sharing will be encouragement for the reader. We are now under 40 days until Rosh HaShanah, on September 26th, 2022.

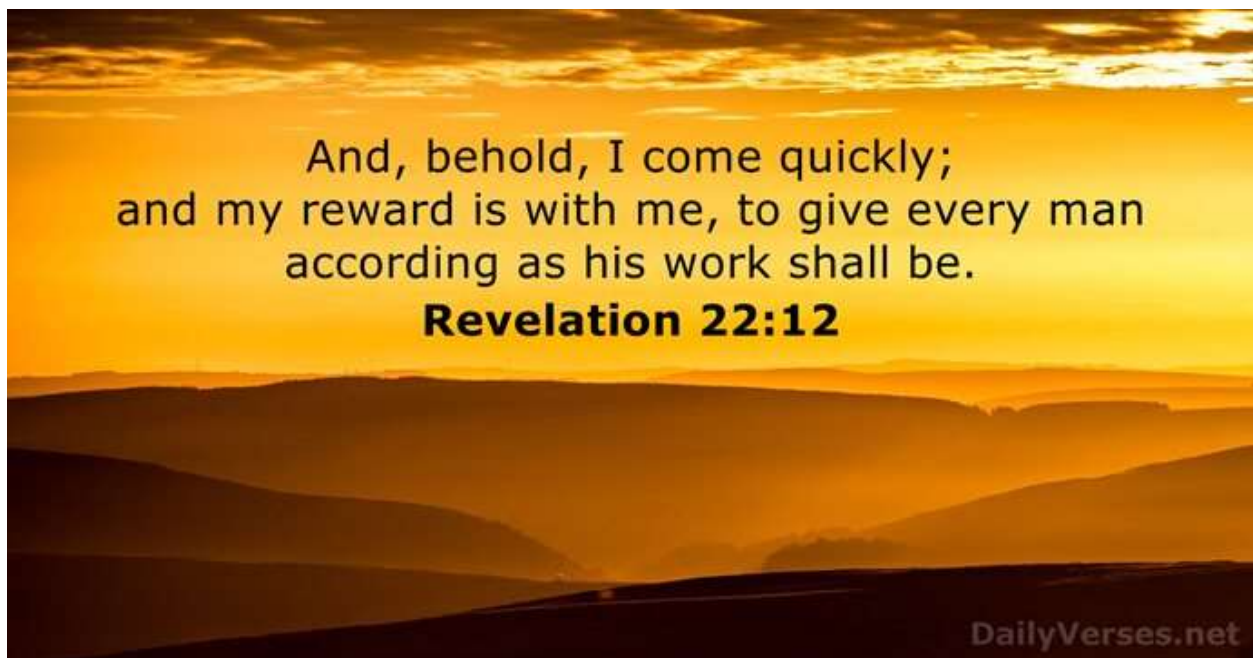

We know what is coming and we know from what has already been announced or revealed and confirmed through Scripture, and I am convinced we are going home next month. Mark your calendar for September 26, 2022. Truly, the wise will understand.

I highly recommend that you read the link to Anthony Patch’s article on the abomination of desolation on page 13. Anthony Patch has been able to offer Bible students an interesting analysis of the meaning of that term and the link is a transcript of his chat room group that once was open to the public. Anthony Patch is definitely “cutting edge” content devoted to the “Entanglement” of the physical and spiritual world. You may agree or disagree with Anthony Patch but you will certainly find his analysis thought provoking to the working Satan in the world of Quantum computing.

The very day of Jesus Christ's entrance on Palm Saturday, 32 A.D. was predicted with astronomical precision. Yes, I said Palm Saturday. 'Palm Sunday' was not observed by the early church? Some believe that it began in Mesopotamia in the late fourth century. However, Roman Catholics did not seem to adopt it until much later.

The prophecy of Daniel 9:24-27 details the First and Second Coming of the Prince of Peace with perfect mathematical fulfillment. Certainly we are at an incredible point in the history of humanity to know God is about to defeat the Antichrist spoken of in Daniel. Verse 27 will be fulfilled in less than 40 days when Prince Charles signs the "Covenant with the Many" on September 26th, 2022. After 42 months he will break his covenant and cause the Jewish sacrifices to end! There are many things occurring behind the scenes at the global level with the UN, WEF, Klaus Schwab's acceleration of the "Great Reset!"

"Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth." -(Revelation 3:10).

Make no mistake about Klaus Schwab's statement, but his "Great Reset" is not going to be quite the way they have planned for it to occur. When I first read of Klaus Schwab's statement back in 2019, my reaction was that this statement was a prophetic reference to the transition point in which the final week of Daniel's Seventy Week prophecy becomes reality. Preceding the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ we will be removed from this world through divine "force", "Harpazo" in the Greek.

In the past two years while the world was caught up in the Covid "bioweapon" along with all the deception, deceit, and disinformation disrupting life I have been watching closely and monitoring the finer details leading up to the “Signing of the Covenant with the Many!” Jesus’ words and instructions recorded in the Gospels was to be mindful of deception. His emphasis on not being deceived has been words of wisdom as people were being led to commit suicide through the syringe needle of poisoned “gene” therapy. Our hopes and prayers are that many who were seduced into taking the shots are that they received a placebo and not the adulterated poison nanoparticles that have been killing as much as 20% of the population within hours of being vaxxed.

If you are still a skeptic of what I am saying and sharing, I challenge you to read the many passages of Scripture that speaks to this period. Read the following passages that related to Daniel 9:24-27:

- Isaiah 60:1-22
- Isaiah 27:1-13
- Zechariah 14:1-21
- Luke 19:41-46
- Luke 21:5-25
- Romans 11:1-27
- Ephesians 3:1-9

- 2nd Thessalonians 2:1-12

Those believers who have entrusted their faith in the name of Jesus Christ will live in the Millennial Dispensation that follows the Second Coming of Jesus Christ for 1,000 years, and do so in an era unlike what all of humanity has longed for or desired. You may have scoffed at the age of major Old Testament figures but you can rest assured that most of you will live as long as Enoch or others.

One of the most misunderstood aspects of Bible Prophecy is that of the Millennial reign of Christ Jesus upon planet Earth. The book of Revelation speaks of a Thousand Years, not once, but in fact six times. Chapter 6 of Revelation mentions the term in verses: 20:2, 3, 4, 5, 6, and 7. This is one of my most cherished chapters of the Bible. That may be related to the fact that when I was a student at Pittsburgh Theological Seminary in 1970, one of my professors debunked the term simply saying it meant a long time. It wasn't until years later when I was exposed to two-years of required courses in Greek that I soon discovered that he was full of bovine excrement, or as they say in military jargon - Bravo Sierra!

The first half of Revelation 20:1-10 deals with the judgment of Satan, which will take place in two stages: first a thousand-year imprisonment, then, after a short time of release, his eternal judgment in the lake of fire. The first stage will be initiated by an angel from heaven who comes with the key to the abyss and a great chain in his hand.

Daniel 2 shows that the present world system must be completely destroyed and swept away before the new order of Christ's kingdom can be established on earth. Revelation 19 shows that the Battle of Armageddon at the end of the Tribulation will bring the fall and end of the Antichrist and his false prophet. Chapter 20 shows the real troublemaker has been Satan all along. He is the adversary who is identified as the dragon, or snake, behind the Antichrist and his false prophet. He is further identified as the same old serpent that tempted Eve. He is also the devil (the slanderer). As the slanderer he spreads lies and false charges about God's people. As the adversary he opposes believers in all their battles for the Lord and for truth and right -(Ephesians 6:12, 16).

The earth cannot know the blessings of Jesus Christ's kingdom until Satan is out of the way and removed from the picture. After Jesus Christ's victory over the Antichrist and his armies Satan himself will be taken and bound for a thousand years. After he is bound, Satan will be cast into the abyss, where he will be shut up, locked up, and sealed over. This will not allow him any activity on earth for the thousand years. During that time he will no longer be able to deceive the nations, nor will he have any influence on them or on anything else in the world for the entire period of the Millennium. Thus the Millennium will be completely free from all the lies and impulses to evil that come from the one who is the father or author of lies -(John 8:44). "Millennium" is a term derived from the Latin mille meaning "thousand," and ennium, "years." It will be a time very different from the present age.

The Greek text uses the word χίλιοι chilioi - the number "One thousand".

Word Studies:

Classical Greek and Septuagint Usage

This adjective can be found in classical Greek from the time of Homer (ca. Eighth Century B.C.) and means "a thousand." Herodotus used it of "a thousand" horses (Liddell-Scott). As a demonstration of his love for God, Solomon offered "a thousand burnt offerings" to the Lord -(1st Kings 3:4 [LXX 3 Kings 3:4]).

New Testament Usage

In the New Testament Peter used chilioi to describe the timeless dimension of God where "one day is with the Lord as a thousand years, and a thousand years as one day" -(2nd Peter 3:8). In Revelation 11:3 the "two witnesses," empowered by God, will "prophecy a thousand two hundred and threescore days," the same length of time that God promised to sustain the "woman" in the "wilderness" - (Revelation 12:6). Chilioi is also used in reference to the "thousand years" Satan will be bound while the redeemed reign with Christ -(Revelation 20:2-7).

God will restore Israel to her land and give her a spiritual restoration as well -(Isaiah 54:11-14; 58:8; Ezekiel 36:33-38; 37:1-28; Zechariah 9:16). The desert will be restored to fertility and beauty -(Isaiah 41:19, 20; 51:3). Even the animals will be changed - (Isaiah 11:6-9), and undoubtedly even the atmosphere will be cleansed from all pollution. One will not need to check the air quality for the day on the weather channel.

"Nations" is a word often used in the Bible for the "Gentiles" who were outside of God's people and alienated from Him and His covenants and promises. The word "nations" here seems to mean those who followed Jesus and accepted His teachings as proclaimed by the apostles, prophets, evangelists, and pastor-teachers. John uses the same word in 21:24.

After the thousand years are over Satan will be released from the abyss for a short time. He will still be able to deceive those who desire to rebel against God's divine will and authority. Satan has always been a deceiver from the beginning -(Genesis 3:13; compare Matthew 24:24; 2nd Thessalonians 2:9, 10). This passage troubled my wife for years as to why God would permit Satan's return for a short while.

The "abyss," also called the "bottomless pit," is translated "the deep" in Luke 8:31 and Romans 10:7. It is "bottomless" only in the sense that it is unfathomable to the human eye and only God knows its limits. But it is capable of being sealed so Satan cannot leave it during the thousand years of the Millennium.

Verses 4-6 speak of the reign of Christ with His saints during the thousand years of the Millennium. It will bring the fulfillment of many prophecies -(Psalm 2:8; Isaiah 9:6, 7; 63:1-6; Jeremiah 23:5, 6; Daniel 2:44; Hosea 3:4, 5; Amos 9:11-15; Micah 4:1-8; Zechariah 8:1-9; Matthew 19:28; Acts 15:16-18; Revelation 2:25-28; 11:15).

Verse 4 deals with two groups of people. The first are those souls (that is, persons) who sit on thrones to judge (that is "rule," as the word so often means in the Old Testament). These are probably the believers from all churches of the Church Age who remain faithful and are overcomers, that is, conquerors, winners -(2:26, 27; 3:21). They will include the resurrected saints and those who were still alive on earth at the time of that resurrection and the Rapture, all of whom will be with Christ when He comes to destroy the Antichrist's rule and establish the millennial kingdom -(Revelation 19:14; cf. Matthew 24:31; 13:30, 41-43). Among them will be the 12 Apostles of the Church judging (ruling) the 12 tribes of Israel -(Luke 22:30). Israel will undoubtedly occupy all the land promised to Abraham -(Genesis 15:18). Although I have delineated the distinct differences between the Rapture and the Resurrection in other articles, I will include a chart below for those who are unclear on this.

In the Bible, words are specific in the sense that nuances are influenced by something that is lost on our western culture. The Greek and Hebrew both have multiple words used to express meanings or shades of meanings. While one may have a preference for a specific translation, it does not follow that the translators have always conveyed the author's meaning. Gender, case, voice, mood and tense become absolute in addressing these issues in Greek or Hebrew.

The older I get my appreciation for having been required to learn the Biblical languages continues to grow. Forty years ago that statement would have been out of character for me. Not a day goes by today where I think to myself how grateful I am for that education.

The second group includes those who were said to be faithful to Christ and who were martyred during the Tribulation -(6:9; 12:17).

The two groups will be joined together to reign with Christ for a thousand years - (Matthew 19:28; 2nd Timothy 2:12; Revelation 2:26, 27; 3:21; 5:10; 20:4-6). This will be a time of peace and blessing with righteousness prevailing everywhere -(Isaiah 2:2-4; Zechariah 9:10; Micah 4:3). The Holy Spirit will do a work of restoration. Even the natural world will reflect the order, perfection, and beauty God intended His creation to have -(Isaiah 14:7, 8; 35:1, 2, 6, 7; 51:3; 55:12, 13; Psalms 96:11-13; 98:7-9; Romans 8:18-23). The animal world will also be changed -(Isaiah 11:6-8; 65:25; Ezekiel 34:25). However, those born during the millennial reign of Christ on earth will still find it necessary to make their choice to follow Christ in faith and obedience. Even under these ideal conditions, some will rebel and disobey. Thus there will still be punishment and death -(Isaiah 65:17-25). These will be sent to the lake of fire with the rest of the wicked dead after the Millennium is over -(20:9, 10, and 15).

Scholars differ as to whom John writes of here. Some believe there is only one group, the martyrs. Others add a main group of believers as well as the martyrs. The Bible shows that the Old Testament saints will be part of this main group -(Isaiah 26:19-21; Ezekiel 37:12-14; Daniel 12:2, 13). To these a third view adds a group of living saints who have survived the Tribulation. According to dispensational theology one group is the 24 elders who are said to reign on the earth -(5:10). Christ is the first fruits of the first resurrection -(1st Corinthians 15:23); the raptured and resurrected saints are the main harvest (1st Thessalonians 4:13-18); then the resurrection mentioned here is the gleanings or completion of the first resurrection.

"The rest of the dead" includes all those not in the two groups mentioned in verse 4. That is, they are the wicked dead who died in their sins without ever accepting the saving grace of God. They will not live again, that is, be resurrected, until after the thousand years of Christ's kingdom on earth are over. Then they will be resurrected and brought before the Great White Throne for their final sentencing to the lake of fire.

"This is the first resurrection" means that those mentioned in verse 4 complete the first resurrection. Jesus spoke of two resurrections in John 5:29. He identified the first resurrection as the resurrection of life. It is for those who have done what God meant for them to do in accepting Christ and living for Him. The second resurrection is a resurrection of judgment for those who have done evil through unbelief. Just as the Old Testament prophets did not show the time difference between the first and second comings of Christ, so Jesus in this passage did not show the time difference between the two judgments. Not until Revelation 20 was it revealed that there will be at least a thousand years between them. In the Gospel of John Jesus was simply emphasizing the contrast between the two resurrections for the sake of encouraging people to live for God.

The fullness of God's blessing –(20:6) will belong to those who have part in the first resurrection, which is the resurrection of the just -(Luke 14:14). They are also holy, that is, dedicated to God and His will, for they worship and serve Him in spirit and in truth. Because their resurrection is like Christ's resurrection they rise to die no more. The second death will therefore have no power over them. They are king-priests, royal priests; priests of God and of Christ who will reign with Christ during the Millennium.

The word "blessed" here is in strong contrast to the word "miserable" used in 1st Corinthians 15:19. There Paul emphasized that the believer's resurrection and Christ's are closely tied together. If believers are not going to rise, then Christ did not rise. If He did not rise the faith of believers would be meaningless, and their sins would not be taken away. Christians would thus be miserable in the sense that it is a miserable, pitiable thing to build one's faith on something that did not happen. But He did rise! His resurrection is a well-attested fact of history. Added to the truth of Daniel 9:24-27 we are building a foundation that strengthens our belief and faith in God's Word as Truth!

The Book of Revelation gives no further details of the Millennium, probably because previous prophecies are sufficient. For example, after revealing there will be a new heavens and a new earth Isaiah goes on to say the present Jerusalem will first have its fulfillment in a time of peace and joy -(Isaiah 65:17-25, where the word "but" at the beginning of verse 18 is a strong adversative and indicates a strong contrast with the previous verse).

After the thousand years Satan will be loosed. Why he must be loosed can only be surmised. One reason may be that it is a final vindication of the justice of God. Also in every age man has been given the power to choose whom he will serve. This will be mankind's final test. Will he choose God or Satan? Some might say that surely since people know how wonderful Christ's reign will be they would all accept Him. But here it is clear that after a thousand years of Christ's glorious reign, some will follow Satan at their first opportunity. As a Methodist pastor I have seen this rebellious spirit in children attending Vacation Bible School. Watching them grow up, I would sense this idea of the "bad seed" rebellious child. This shows they are rebels at heart. In justice, God can do nothing but separate them from His blessings forever in the outer darkness.

Satan will probably deceive himself into believing he can yet defeat God. As the great deceiver he will be allowed to go out and successfully deceive those who still want to exalt themselves against Christ and His righteous rule and reign.

This will be Satan's final attempt to deceive, and those who follow him will take part in his final defeat. Never again will there be any rebellion against God and His love. Once again many will take the broad way of rebellion. Like so many during the ages of the past, they will reject God and His Word. They will refuse to learn from the examples of God's judgments on Adam and Eve, on the world of Noah's day, on Sodom and Gomorrah, on Egypt, on Israel, on Assyria, Babylon, Rome, and so many others.

The nations are identified here as Gog and Magog. The terms Gog and Magog are borrowed from Ezekiel chapters 38 and 39. The battle here is quite different, however. It may be that a comparison is being made meaning these people are acting like Gog and Magog.

The armies of Satan will surround the camp (headquarters) of the saints and the beloved city (Jerusalem). There will be the Godly remnant, just as there has been in every age. Jesus and the Apostles foretold that many during the Church Age would depart from the Faith and leave the Church to go into all kinds of false doctrines and false cults -(Matthew 24:10-12, 24; 2nd Timothy 1:15; 4:1-4). The Godly remnant will remain faithful and live in righteousness even in the midst of apostasy. So the saints of the Book of Revelation will be faithful whatever Satan may attempt to do. We are at that point now as the world around us unravels in debauchery and hatred for everything identified as God's.

God will send fire from heaven to devour the armies of Satan. So Satan will not be able to bring an end to Christ's reign of peace. All the Old Testament prophecies testify His reign will be eternal. His kingdom will continue on into the new heavens and the new earth.

Not only will Satan's attempt fail, Satan's power and his deceptions will come to their final end when he is cast forever into the lake of fire and burning sulfur. Never will he be able to escape from its torments. Never again will he be able to accuse, deceive, tempt, oppose, or be an adversary to anyone. He will be finally and forever out of action.

In the lake of fire Satan will join the beast (the Antichrist) and the false prophet. They will have already been there for over a thousand years. They are still the same, still in torment. Clearly, the fires of the lake of fire have not cleansed, purified, or changed them. Only the blood of Jesus and the power of the Holy Spirit can change anyone in a way that will affect his eternal destiny. It is also clear that after the thousand years they are still in existence. They have not been annihilated, but will continue in torment, along with Satan, for ever and ever throughout eternity.

With Satan gone, the time comes for the final judgment of the wicked and the bringing in of the eternal state with the new heavens and the new earth. The Great White Throne is white because it is pure and holy and radiates the majesty and glory of God. It is God's final judgment throne. Yet the One who sits on it here must be the glorified King of kings and Lord of lords, the Lord Jesus Christ. Jesus declared that "the Father judgeth no man, but hath committed all judgment unto the Son: that all men should honor the Son, even as they honor the Father" -(John 5:22, 23). Jesus must be the one Mediator between God and man in this final judgment, just as He is now the one Mediator between God and man in redemption -(1st Timothy 2:5), and just as He was the one Mediator in creation -(John 1:3).

So great is the glory manifested at the Great White Throne, and so great is the fire of divine judgment that even the physical universe cannot stand before Him in His manifest presence.

There are different views of what is meant by the phrase "the earth and the heaven fled away." Some think they will go out of existence to make room for a completely new creation. Others aver they will go through a transformation and re-creation process.

There are strong arguments for both positions. If the universe is indeed to go out of existence it must be admitted it could not be more clearly stated than it is here. But on the other hand similar language is used in 6:14, yet a thousand years later the earth is continuing to exist -(see 2nd Peter 3:6, 7). Also many passages in both the Old and New Testaments speak of a renewal and restoration of this whole creation.

Perhaps Greek scholar and expert Robert Mounce is correct when he says: "Whether it simply passes away or is melted by fire is of minor import." What we do know is that this creation will be changed with a new heavens and a new earth.

Standing before the throne are the dead, including "the rest of the dead" mentioned in 20:5, plus any who may have died during the Millennium, plus those who died when the fire from heaven destroyed the armies marshalled by Satan -(20:8, 9). "The dead" are the small and great, which here must mean all the unbelievers, all the unsaved, all the lost of all the past ages of history, regardless of their station in life. The godly of the Old Testament and the believers of the Church Age, as well as the martyrs of the tribulation period cannot be included, for they will not be "dead" at this time. They will be alive forevermore, with new immortal bodies that cannot die or even decay -(1st Corinthians 15:52-54). It seems the wicked dead will also receive some sort of body in this second resurrection, the resurrection to judgment and to shame and everlasting contempt - (Daniel 12:2; John 5:29).

Though the wicked dead will stand before God, their judgment is still committed to Jesus. The books will be opened, and they will be judged according to the written record of their works. Their works will include their rejection of Christ and their following of Satan. But all their works will be included in the divinely kept records. The believer's sins are blotted out when they are confessed. Even the sins believers are unaware of are cleansed, forgiven, and gone -(1st John 1:7, 10; 2:1). But that is not true of those whose sins have not been forgiven. Even the secret sins they thought no one knew about will be there on the books -(Luke 8:17). There is no question but that their sentence will be eternal doom in the lake of fire.

In order to further emphasize the fact that none of the wicked will escape this final Great White Throne Judgment, the Word says the sea will also give up the dead who were in it. Though their bodies were not preserved in a tomb, resurrection in the Bible is always bodily in nature. They will have a bodily resurrection so they can appear before God's throne to receive His sentence of judgment. Because death and hell will also give up the dead that were in them, it is clear that all the wicked dead of all past ages will be brought up before the Great White Throne also.

Again it is emphasized that they will all be judged individually by their works. All their works will be judged according to the principles of the gospel, with due consideration for their motives. There will be a difference in the sentencing and the degree of punishment, but not in the length of time of their punishment -(Luke 12:47, 48). The fire of the lake of fire is by its very nature unquenchable, and their torment will last for ever and ever.

Since the final judgment removes all the wicked and rebels, and Satan himself is cast into the lake of fire, there will be no further sin or death. Thus death and hell (Greek, Hadēs) are cast into the lake of fire. That is, the lake of fire is the only place in the universe where death will exist. Hades, as the place of intermediate punishment with its fires, will be absorbed into the lake of fire.

Since death in the Bible means separation, the second death is the final separation from God and from all He has prepared for those who love and serve Him. In the final analysis, there are only two destinies: eternal death or eternal life. Those who are not in the Book of Life will not inherit eternal life but will end in the lake of fire.

Jesus used the word Gehenna as a term for the final destiny of the wicked. Gehenna is a Greek form of the Hebrew word meaning "the Valley of Hinnom," a narrow ravine to the west and south of Jerusalem. During the decline of Judah's kingdom, apostate Israelites offered their children in a fiery sacrifice to the Ammonite god, Molech -(2nd Kings 23:10; Jeremiah 7:31). Because of the defiling effect of this idolatry, in New Testament times Jews used it as a city dump. A fire was always burning there, and it was full of putrefying matter.

The Bible is very careful to emphasize that the final destiny of the lost is terrible beyond imagination. It will involve tribulation, anguish, weeping, and gnashing of teeth - (Romans 2:9; Matthew 22:13; 25:30). It is a furnace of fire -(Matthew 13:42, 50), causing eternal loss or everlasting destruction -(2 Thessalonians 1:9). Its fires, by their very nature, will be unquenchable -(Mark 9:43), and the smoke of their torment will go up for ever and ever, so the inhabitants will have no rest -(Revelation 14:11; 20:10).

The New Testament encourages believers to live with a conscious and continuing concern for those who are living in sin and doomed to eternal loss if they do not repent. This is still the greatest reason for carrying the good news of the gospel to the uttermost part of the world.

the GOSPEL GOD'S PLAN FOR ME

gos·pel – noun. good news. the message about Christ, the kingdom of God, and salvation.

GOD RULES.

The Bible tells us God created everything, including you and me, and He is in charge of everything. Genesis 1:1; Revelation 4:11; Colossians 1:16-17

WE SINNED.

We all choose to disobey God. The Bible calls this sin. Sin separates us from God and deserves God's punishment of death. Romans 3:23; 6:23

GOD PROVIDED.

God sent Jesus, the perfect solution to our sin problem, to rescue us from the punishment we deserve. It's something we, as sinners, could never earn on our own. Jesus alone saves us. John 3:16; Ephesians 2:8-9

JESUS GIVES.

He lived a perfect life, died on the cross for our sins, and rose again. Because Jesus gave up His life for us, we can be welcomed into God's family for eternity. This is the best gift ever! Romans 5:8; 2 Corinthians 5:21; 1 Peter 3:18; Ephesians 2:8-9

WE RESPOND.

Believe in your heart that Jesus alone saves you through what He's already done on the cross. Repent, turning from self and sin to Jesus. Tell God and others that your faith is in Jesus. John 14:6; Romans 10:9-10,13

The news in the media is anything but the good news of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. I do not interpret the Bible through the news media, but rather simply allow the news media confirm what God has so generously given to His creation as road markers or signs that confirm the closeness of His soon return. As Bible believing Christians, we can know the season. When we know what the WEF/UN have planned for September 26th, 2022, I believe it is safe to say we can identify the coming signing of the Covenant with the Many and what that means for the faithful.

While the likes of Mark Biltz, Jonathan Cahn, C.J. Lovik, and others have confirmed that we are at that juncture point of the Shemitah cycle also transitioning on the Feast of Trumpets September 26, 2022, our spirits are quickened with excitement. When you factor in such draconian legislation that I have mentioned in Blessed Hope #118 and #119; along with what I have emphasized in this segment, we clearly can recognize the convergence of world-changing events that will engulf every living man, woman, and child on the planet. Prince Charles wants to save the planet by ridding the world of 7-billion people, yet his “Sustainable Development” policies mean enslavement for those who remain. The Great Reset of Klaus Schwab is nothing more than Hitler’s goal of the Thousand Year Reich.

The Holy Roman Empire was the first of three Reichs in German history. The second was the Hohenzollerns’ formidable, Prussian-dominated empire forged by Bismarck out of victory in the Franco-Prussian War. Despite making a newly unified Germany the dominant economic and military power on the European continent, it only lasted from 1871 to 1918. The third German Empire, Hitler’s vaunted “Thousand-Year Reich,” enjoyed an even shorter run, from 1933 to 1945. This last Reich will last seven years!

“But thou, O LORD, shalt laugh at them; thou shalt have all the heathen in derision.” -(Psalm 59:8). One does not mock God and go unpunished!
