

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #140

President Abbas railed against Israel, calling for her destruction. On Wednesday, February 1st, 2023. World Israel News carried the head line:

"A comm unique issued by the PA, PLO and BDS 'calls for the direct destruction of Israel and praises terrorism', says military intelligence expert Yossi Kuperwasser ... The joint PA-PLO-BDS statement demands 'the dismantling of Israel's regime of settler-colonialism and apartheid'. Their communique refers to Zionism as a 'racist, genocidal ideology that encourages terrorism and fascism'."

"The Palestinian Authority is playing a double game.... They have security cooperation with Israel and they receive money from Israel. They can't openly boycott Israel because they would just be shooting themselves in the head', he said."

"Einat Wilf, a former member of the Knesset and foreign policy adviser to Shimon Peres, told JNS that "the PA, the PLO, BDS, they all share the fundamental Palestinian ethos of anti-Zionism."

Kuperwasser agrees, saying 'there is hidden cooperation because the common goal of all of them is to struggle against Zionism.... What brings them together is a shared goal of the destruction of Israel'."

Since September, 2000, the real reason Israel has strategically withdrawn from her Biblically mandated lands is that she is removing her Jewish settlers from harm's way in the Gaza and the West Bank so that she can annihilate the Palestinians in fulfillment of Obadiah 15-18.

This passage identifies this particular line of genealogy as "the descendants of Esau the father of the Edomites". Remember this identification, for we shall be returning to it shortly as we discuss the application of this prophecy as it applies to the Palestinians living outside Israel -- in Jordan.

This one sentence is simply dynamite! It literally says that the present-day Palestinians, living in Israel, are the descendants of the "House of Esau". Why is that important? It is critically important because God breathed an End of the Age prophecy against the "House of Esau" in Obadiah 15-18, one of the most startling prophecies in the Bible -- and one working its way forward toward fulfillment.

"But on Mount Zion [in Jerusalem] there shall be deliverance [for those who escape], and it shall be holy; and the house of Jacob shall possess its [own former] possessions. The house of Jacob shall be a fire, and the house of Joseph a flame, but the house of Esau shall be stubble; they shall kindle and burn them and consume them, and there shall be no survivor of the house of Esau, for the Lord has spoken it." [Verses 17-18; Emphasis added]

Way back In June, 1990, I read an editorial in the Jewish Press which indicated that Israel's patience was at an end, and that the next major war was going to result in the annihilation of Israel's implacable enemies. This editorial stated that a decision had been made at the highest military and civilian leadership levels of the Israeli government that the next Arab-Israeli war would be the war in which the Israeli Defense Force would annihilate the entire populations of the Arabs who hated them so badly. These Jewish leaders were sick and tired of constantly being attacked, winning the war, but then not winning the peace.

Further, this top Israeli leadership was concerned that, in due time, the Arabs would possess Weapons of Mass Destruction which could be delivered by suicide bombers, at which point Israel was surely doomed. Therefore, top Israeli leadership in 1990 had decided to annihilate entire populations during the next Arab - Israeli war.

Therefore, we can see that top Israeli leadership -- both civilian and military -- had decided that they were going to destroy the total population of the Arabs. Just two years later, the world learned of the Oslo Accords, which we believe is the greatest trap ever sprung upon a people or upon the world. In the guise of wanting peaceful coexistence with the Palestinians, Israel promised through Oslo to withdraw from huge chunks of her land in order that the Palestinians could have their own state. However, the truth truly does lie in the opposite direction of the stated rhetoric for what Israel is really doing is strategically withdrawing her settlers so they will not be killed along with the Palestinians.

God's warning sounds down through 2,600 years: stop hating and persecuting my people, Israel, or the time will come when I shall punish you in exactly the same genocidal way in which you wanted to destroy Israel.

" But thou shouldest not have ... have rejoiced over the children of Judah in the day of their destruction; neither shouldest thou have spoken proudly in the day of distress." -(Obadiah 12).

God has likely taken notice yesterday when America's Secretary of State betrayed Israel to their deadly enemy, the Palestinians.

Israel365 News, February 2, 2023 reported:

"On Monday, U.S. Secretary of State Anthony Blinken arrived in Israel for a three-day visit, becoming the highest-ranking US official to visit Israel since Benjamin Netanyahu was reelected as prime minister ... in spite of the rhetoric, during those three days Blinken made several remarks showing the Biden administration's duplicitous policies concerning Israel. "

Blinken and his boss, Biden, proved their opposition to Israel by the following:

- 1) Criticizing Netanyahu's judicial reforms
  - 2) Meddling in Israel's internal affairs
  - 3) Temple Mount -- In the same speech, Blinken stated the importance of maintaining the "historic status quo at Jerusalem's holy places, including the Temple Mount Haram al-Sharif," choosing to refer to Judaism's holiest site also by an Arabic term.:
Biden has to be very careful about the stand he takes on the Temple Mount, since God considers that place to be exceedingly sacred soil.
  - 4) Anti-Jewish status quo
  - 5) Inappropriate Prayer -- "Speaking to reporters on Monday, Blinken invoked a prayer while mourning the Jews murdered by a Palestinian terrorist on Friday."
  - 6) Equating Palestinian casualties to Israeli
  - 7) Writing a billion dollar check for terrorism
  - 8) Two-State solution; Blaming Israel --
  - 9) Praising Abbas for countering terrorism
- "... men that were at peace with thee have deceived thee, and prevailed against thee ... there is none understanding in him." -(Obadiah 7)

In reading this article, the hair on the back of my neck began to rise, for I could remember an End Times prophecy which stated that Israel would carry out exactly this type of action: annihilating her implacable foes. Listen:

"In that day will I make the chiefs of Judah like a big, blazing pot among [sticks of] wood and like a flaming torch among sheaves [of grain], and they shall devour all the peoples round about, on the right hand and on the left ..." -(Zechariah 12:6)

I could just see a fire coming out of Israel, burning the peoples round about like sheaves of grain, "on the right hand and on the left". While I have absolutely no desire to see anyone die, I am pleased that world events are occurring exactly like Bible prophecy has stated it will, for this gives God great glory and honor forever, Amen!

Since at least June, 1990, I was following Dave Breese Bible Prophecy teaching on Sunday nights. Dave went on to his reward in 2002 and many of you might not be familiar with his ministry. Dave was a solid Bible Prophecy teacher; I began to watch and listen carefully for any indication that Israel was moving toward this prophesied scenario. Imagine my surprise that the first major event to occur was a plan for "peace" called the Oslo Accords, first introduced in mid-1992. Since the Bible speaks only of war after Israel returns to her land, I was very skeptical that this plan would actually produce peace; further, I know another prophecy which states that the forces of Antichrist will destroy many people through the false promises of peace.

"... through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify himself in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many." –(Daniel 8:25)

We know that it was Prince Charles of Wales responsible for orchestrating the Oslo Accords between the late PLO leader Yasser Arafat from behind the purview of the media. Prince Charles no matter how charming he was, he simply could not close the deal. The Oslo Accords for close to twenty years have been waiting the moment that may be closer now than ever. The PLO leaders have never really wanted peace, but it gave them power to control the funds donated to the Palestinian people. At Arafat's death, his Swiss accounts held between $5 and $10 billion dollars, depending on the source relating that information. Arafat skimmed off money given for the needs of the Palestinian people. Arafat's corrupting

The men who serve Antichrist will destroy many people through a false promise of peace.

Netanyahu suggested that Israel is reevaluating its policy around arming Ukraine in the ongoing conflict with Russia.

By World Israel News Staff

Shortly after an English-language interview on CNN in which Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu said that Israel is weighing supplying weapons to Ukraine, Russian officials have warned Jerusalem against the potential move.

Netanyahu said that Israel was acting "against Iran's weapons productions which are used against Ukraine," and acknowledged that "the U.S. just took a huge chunk of Israel's munitions and passed it on to Ukraine."

He added that he would "certainly consider" acting in a mediator role between Moscow and Kyiv, should the opportunity arise.

“We say that all countries that supply weapons [to Ukraine] should understand that we will consider these [weapons] to be legitimate targets for Russia’s armed forces,” Russia’s Foreign Ministry spokeswoman Maria Zakharova told reporters in a media conference on Wednesday.

Since the outbreak of war, Israel has largely avoided taking sides in the conflict — much to the chagrin of Kyiv.

Ukrainian officials have repeatedly pressured Israel to provide it with weapons, rejecting offers for protective technology that would help protect civilian lives, including an air raid warning system.

Israel provided Ukraine with a multi-million dollar field hospital, which largely treated Ukrainian civilians. Ukrainian officials have vocally complained that they are not interested in defensive or humanitarian relief — rather, they want military equipment which would clearly demonstrate that Israel is taking their side in the conflict.

Ukraine’s increasing demands for Israeli material support and diplomatic pressure have strained relations at times between Kyiv and Jerusalem.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky offended numerous members of the Israeli Knesset when he compared the conflict to the Holocaust, and Ukraine’s numerous anti-Israel votes in the UN in recent months have also sparked the ire of Israeli officials.

Russia has de facto control over Syrian airspace, and has allowed the Israeli air force to carry out numerous airstrikes against Iranian assets in the country.

It’s unclear why Netanyahu suggested that Israel is re-evaluating its year-long policy around maintaining neutrality in the conflict. President Putin has not let this pass by and is being diplomatic at best in calling out the Netanyahu “ultra-right wing” government.

Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelensky said Thursday that hundreds of thousands of Russian troops are forming on its border for what will likely be a major “revenge” offensive.

Zelensky has been growing desperate in public statements and described his military as in need of more Western weapons, much faster. Indeed, the West agreed to provide Ukraine with tanks, but those are months away.

“Now Russia is concentrating its forces. We all know that. It is preparing to try to take revenge, not only against Ukraine, but against a free Europe and the free world,” he said, trying desperately to sell the disproven Domino Theory used to get the U.S. into the Viet Nam War!

Freedom in Europe and in the West is not under attack, and the war in Ukraine could have been resolved early on if Kyiv was not reportedly instructed by ex-British Prime Minister Boris Johnson that the West was not ready for a compromise.

Sergei Lavrov, Russia’s top diplomat, said the statement from a top State Department official last week proves that Washington played a role in the attacks on the Nord Stream pipelines.

Victoria Nuland, the undersecretary of state for political affairs, addressed a Senate hearing last week and told Sen. Ted Cruz, R-Texas, “Senator Cruz, like you, I am, and I think the administration is, very gratified to know that Nord Stream 2 is now, as you like to say, a hunk of metal at the bottom of the sea.”

Nuland, who spearheaded the overthrow of the democratically elected president of Ukraine in 2014 and was famously caught on the phone saying “Fu##k the EU,” has spoken out against Nord Stream in the past.

Nuland also once said “one way or the other” the project “will not move forward.”

Lavrov said Nuland effectively made a “confession.”

“And this is not only the direct participation of the United States in the Nord Stream explosions. Now Nuland, in fact, has made a confession,” he said.

Of course, you will not hear about this in the mainstream media, which provides cover for Nuland.

FAIR, Fairness & Accuracy in Reporting, noted in October: “The explosions triggered a lopsided “whodunnit” in U.S. media, with commentators almost universally fingering Russia as the culprit, despite the lack of a plausible motive. Official US opposition to the pipeline has been well-established over the years, giving Washington ample motive to destroy the pipelines, but most newsrooms uniformly suppressed this history, and attacked those who raised it.”

The 'Trends Journal' subscribers know Nuland's history at the State Department. Salon ran a profile on Nuland last year that expressed dismay over her appointment to such an important position in the State Department. The article was titled "WHO IS VICTORIA NULAND? A REALLY BAD IDEA AS A KEY PLAYER IN BIDEN'S FOREIGN POLICY TEAM." The Biden team only want war and the destruction of Russia. We have never been at this threat level of war between NATO, UK, U.S. and Russia.

The magazine said Nuland is "stuck in the quicksand of 1950s U.S.-Russia Cold War politics and dreams of continued NATO expansion, an arms race on steroids, and further encirclement of Russia."

The article pointed out that Nuland's resume includes her role as foreign policy adviser to former Vice President Dick Cheney from 2003 to 2005.

The 'Trends Journal' published an article on 24 February 2015, titled, "RUSSIA, EU MAKE TRADE, NOT WAR," that pointed to a troubling phone call that reportedly included Nuland, who was Obama's assistant secretary of state for European Affairs, and Geoffrey Pyatt, the U.S. ambassador for Ukraine.

The 'Trends Journal' wrote *In early February 2014, a recording was leaked of Assistant Secretary of State for European Affairs, Victoria Nuland, telling Geoffrey Pyatt, the U.S. Ambassador to Ukraine, that the UN was on board to "help glue" the plan to replace Ukrainian President Victor Yanukovich with Arseniy Yatsenyuk. "Yats is the guy," Nuland informed Pyatt who urged her to move quickly because "the Russians will be working behind the scenes to torpedo" the deal. "F#&* the EU!" Nuland told Pyatt. "Exactly," he responded.*

Shortly thereafter, Yanukovich was overthrown and "Yats" became president. Ukraine agreed to Nuland's demands to make "a new deal with the IMF," which was "necessary for the long term economic health of the country." Yet, the new Western-leaning Kiev government did not represent the Russian-speaking Ukrainians in the east and south who had voted Yanukovich into office.

One year later, Ukraine is racked by civil war and is in depression. The US and EU blame Russia for the destabilization because of its support of Ukrainian separatists. And as punishment, the US pushed the EU to impose trade sanctions against Russia. Russia retaliated with trade sanctions against Europe.

Nuland's call went viral at the time and the U.S. blamed Russians for tapping the line and Nuland kept her job despite criticism from world leaders like former German Chancellor Angela Merkel.

Nuland and her neocon husband, Robert Kagan, were said to have fallen in love on one of their first dates while talking about "democracy and the role of America in the world," the Brookings Institute reported.

She recalled a time when they were young and in love. She was stationed in Moscow from 1991 until 1993 and he was working on his first book about Nicaragua in their spare bedroom.

“The KGB used to rifle his office regularly—we could tell by the lingering stench of cigarettes and body odor. They couldn’t fathom that he was really just a writer,” she recalled.

Her career took off and she held some of the highest diplomatic positions—including becoming the first female ambassador to NATO in 2005.

Kagan, a senior fellow at the Brookings Institution, has been an advocate for just about every U.S. foreign policy blunder over the past two decades. He was an advocate for the war in Iraq and a muscular approach to Syria. The ‘New York Times’ reported that his father, Donald Kagan, “a historian of ancient Greece, is a patriarch of neo-conservatism.”

Kagan wrote an article in The New Republic in 2014, titled “SUPERPOWERS DON’T GET TO RETIRE.”

He wrote,

“If a breakdown in the world order that America made is occurring, it is not because America’s power is declining—America’s wealth, power, and potential influence remain adequate to meet the present challenges. It is not because the world has become more complex and intractable—the world has always been complex and intractable. And it is not simply war-weariness. Strangely enough, it is an intellectual problem, a question of identity and purpose.”

New Europe published an article that said it is because of this shared worldview Washington that Nuland and her husband maintain that led to the current tension in Ukraine. James W. Carden, a former adviser to the State Department, pointed to Harvard University’s Stephen Walt who once said, “Being a Neocon Means Never Having to Say You’re Sorry.”

Carden pointed to how Kagan and Nuland’s careers have blossomed despite obvious criticisms. Nuland was accused of becoming more of an activist for Ukraine’s pro-democracy movement about a decade ago.

“Part of the reason the U.S. is at grave risk of a war with Russia—and there is precious little debate about the policies that have brought us to this point—is that foreign policy in Washington is conducted by a virtually closed circle. And that circle is dominated by people like the Kagans,” he wrote.

He said Washington’s “legacy media” companies perpetuate these policies and essentially function as “the permanent bureaucracy’s echo chamber.”

Nuland addressed the U.S.-Ukraine Foundation Conference in Washington, D.C. back in December 2013 and talked about the “historic” challenges that Ukraine faced when it seemed to be slowing its embrace of Europe.

She was fixated on Ukraine’s turn toward Europe instead of Moscow and praised a protest that was growing against Yanukovich’s decision to “pause on the route to Europe.”

“Since Ukraine’s independence in 1991, the United States has supported Ukrainians as they build democratic skills and institutions, as they promote civic participation and good governance, all of which are preconditions for Ukraine to achieve its European aspirations. We’ve invested over $5 billion to assist Ukraine in these and other goals that will ensure a secure and prosperous and democratic Ukraine,” she said, while standing at a rostrum in front of Chevron and Exxon Mobil signs.

Yanukovich’s ouster was from that point almost certain. Russia called his removal a “neo-fascist” coup that was coordinated by the West and “dressed up as a popular uprising,” The ‘New York Times’ reported.

TRENDS POST: “As we have reported, completely absent in the American media reports of the current U.S. stand with Ukraine is the role Washington and Victoria Nuland played in the overthrow of its government in 2014.”

A report from 2014 in the ‘Trends Journal’ laid out the political maneuvers at the time in Ukraine: “Washington’s coup in Ukraine brought not only a threat to the Russian population in Ukraine but also a direct strategic threat to Russia itself.”

Nuland, who speaks Russian and French, boasted that Washington had invested $5 billion in non-governmental organizations (NGOs) in Ukraine. Allegedly, the purpose of NGOs is to “teach democracy.”

Ukraine, however, already had a democracy. In reality, the NGO organizations are U.S. fifth columns that can be used to organize protests and to provide support for Washington’s candidates for the Ukraine government.

Below are two recent videos by Dr. Jane Ruby that are bombshell exposes that Covid-19 is a U.S. DoD operation. Investigative journalist George Webb is interviewed in the first video. George Webb in his recent book tracks the Covid “bioweapon” to the very top of NATO and the World Health Organization. ‘Citizen Journo’ was published in August, 2022. "Communists, now masquerading as Globalists, never do anything by mistake. Everything they do is intricately staged and therefore wholly deliberate".

With time galloping by, how many remember that this time last year, desperate parents couldn't find baby formula at the supermarket. Knowing that short memory is a part of human nature, globalist communists now running the world to ruin from the World Economic Forum (WEF), move on from one crisis to another, counting on western government leaders under their command to keep the masses distracted.

"Multiple overnight fires, inexplicable explosions and cyber attacks at food processing companies. One year after, the shortage of baby formula, the adult population, having to decide between paying for soaring energy bills or groceries, are going hungry."

"Is it really any wonder how people are relatively unaware of how the communist globalists are spending their time in between each new crisis? At this moment in time, it's multiple overnight fires, inexplicable explosions and cyber attacks at food processing companies."

"The #1 factor in the shortage of food production is the newly emboldened 'western energy policy' and the impact energy has on everything from field (fertilizer) to fork (distribution). Other factors include government policy that blocks food development (Dutch, Irish and Sri Lanka Farmers), a sudden uptick in food facilities having major

"An interesting article in ZeroHedge Saturday draws attention to how the media can no longer try to ignore the created global food crisis:

'ZeroHedge' – People on the other side of the planet are dropping dead from starvation right now, but most people don't even realize that this is happening. "Unfortunately, most people just assume that everything is fine and dandy. If you are one of those people that believe that everything is just wonderful, I would encourage you to pay close attention to the details that I am about to share with you. "Global hunger is rapidly spreading, and that is because global food supplies have been getting tighter and tighter."

*"The article then goes on to detail the issues and food shortages in Pakistan, India and the entire African continent. *"You do not need to be a farmer to understand that nitrogen/phosphorus-based industrial fertilizer has been the reason why farm yields have generated massive amounts of food on a global basis. The United States, Canada, the U.K. and places like the Netherlands have massively increased their ability to generate food for export, in large part due to the success of improved fertilizer and crop saving modern pesticides. Once under the heel of Communism, what are the chances of over-throwing that tyranny through the ballot box?

I am repeating from the last Blessed Hope very important information which helps to explain the calendar issues and the reason so many Bible teachers miss this distinction. It is really not complex other than the fact it is not something taught in Bible study, Bible colleges and most seminaries. Christians are often led to believe the Old Testament is no longer of importance to Christians, or it is all about the Israelites, and you don't need to know anything about the Old Testament. That is nonsense and a dereliction of God's Word.

The material below is a lesson in how to understand the correct Biblical Calendar. It should clear up any confusion or misunderstanding of the two: 1. God's Biblical Calendar and 2. Jewish Secular Calendar.

How Many Days In A Biblical Year?

When we calculate a year today we are told that it is 365 days, which is how many the Julian calendar has.

To find a Biblical year within the Scriptures we also need to read the Book of Enoch and the Book of Jubilees.

Book Of Enoch 72:32

32 On that day the night decreases and amounts to nine parts, and the day to nine parts, and the night is equal to the day and the year is exactly as to its days three hundred and sixty-four.

The Day The Biblical Year Begins

The book of Enoch tells us that the year begins when we find equal parts day and equal parts night.

Equal parts day and equal parts night is the day of the Equinox...

The Spring Equinox is a time each year when both day and night have equal amounts of time. This takes place on one day each year to start the Spring time, and according to the Most High's time the year.

This is the day that the Most High created to begin the year. This is the first day of the Hebrew month...

Book Of Jubilees 6:32

32 And command thou the children of Israel that they observe the years according to this reckoning-three hundred and sixty-four days, and (these) will constitute a complete year, and they will not disturb its time from its days and from its feasts; for everything will fall out in them according to their testimony, and they will not leave out any day nor disturb any feasts.

The Book of Jubilees tells us that there are 364 days in a year. This is contrary to conventional understanding, which tells us that there are 365 1/4 days in a year.

The 1/4 was added to account for a leap year every 4 years, to keep the seasons in order.

To find the first day of the year we must first find the day of the Spring Equinox. Then start the beginning of the year on the 4th day (Wednesday) which is the first day of the Most High's year. Although the week cycle will always start on a Sunday which is the first day of the week.

The Modern Julian And Gregorian Calendars

The Julian Calendar was created by Julius Caesar's in 46 B.C. This calendar was implemented on the 1st of January 45 B.C. in the Roman provinces.

Interestingly, this is at the time that the Romans began to rule over Israel, confirmed in the Prophecies of Daniel. The Roman kingdom is foretold as the second to last kingdom to rule the earth.

You can read about the prophesied kingdoms here: The Four Beast's Of Daniel And Revelation? Definitive Guide

This lets us know that Israel did not use the Julian or Gregorian calendars, until after they were conquered.

The Julian calendar was used in most of Europe and American settlements up until 1582 A.D.

The Julian Calendar was replaced by the Gregorian calendar of Pope Gregory the VIII.

Ironically the change for the Julian Calendar came because it is out of sequence with the Equinox.

The difference between the Julian (365.25 days) and Gregorian (365.2425 days) calendars is 0.002%.

The Gregorian calendar differs from the Julian only in that no century year is a leap year unless it is exactly divisible by 400 (e.g., 1600, 2000).

BRITANNICA ENCYCLOPEDIA

The Scriptures tell us that the Spring Vernal Equinox begins and ends a Biblical year. So, doesn't it make sense to follow what the Most High told Israel, seeing as He created the world?

Who Changed Times And Laws?

I've spoken about the Julian and Gregorian calendars and I think this is the perfect Segway into a question you might have:

Who changed times and laws?

When we read the book of Daniel, he prophecies about the last Kingdoms, one of which is the Roman Kingdom.

Now we know the changing of the times, days, months and years, is the reason why the feasts (appointed times) are out of sequence according to the Scriptures.

Daniel 7:25

25 "And he shall speak great words against the most High, and shall wear out the saints of the most High, and think to change times and laws: and they shall be given into his hand until a time and times and the dividing of time."

The Scripture above highlights a time when the children of Israel would be in captivity, as well as true believers. During this time (which is also today) that second to last Kingdom i.e., the Roman Empire would blaspheme the Most High's commands and laws.

This would happen to such an extent the changing of laws would take place...

We know that since the Council of Nicea of 325 AD, there's been a lot of changes against the laws of the Most High.

Changes such as:

- Sunday worship instead of Sabbath worship which is on the 7th day Saturday.
- Christmas celebration, (which should be the Hanukkah celebration) which is unbiblical.
- The Easter celebration (which should be the Passover and unleavened bread celebration) which is also unbiblical.

So we see the wording here is “think to change times and laws“, because the times and laws remain the same. It’s our job as responsible believers to keep the times and laws that the Most High commanded us to.

Conclusion

Unfortunately the Biblical calendar is always overlooked today. There’s an assumption that the Romans got their calendar calculations from their own wisdom, but they didn’t.

When we study the Scriptures there is strong reason to believe the Romans took their understanding from the Hebrews. They then modelled their calculation of the months and years to suit Roman needs.

Biblical Calendar vs. Modern Calendar

The difference that we find is that the Romans decided to start the year during the winter time.

This makes sense for Pagans because Romans were known to worship during the winter solstice on the 25th of December. While it seemed fine for them, it was wrong!

This is contrary to what the Scriptures tell us. We are told in the Book of Enoch that the Year begins during the Equinox in the spring. This is the time when we find equal parts day and equal parts night on a single day. Most or nearly all of the major Bible Prophecy teachers have concluded last summer that 5783 begins a new Shemithah Cycle, begins a new Jubilee, and starts the clock for Daniel’s 70th Week beginning the Tribulation. Their common mistake is that they thought 5783 began this past Rosh HaShanah, which began on September 25th, 2022. In previous Blessed Hope articles I called these three events coinciding precisely as the Prophecy Trifecta!

As from what I stated at the top of this article, Israel is digging itself into a hole with its attacks on Iranian facilities, regardless whether they are justified. Ezekiel 38/39 War of Gog & Magog is likely to be very soon

As Pastor Sandy Armstrong correctly notes, there are those who will tell you that God’s calendar for 2022 is not over until March 23, 2023. We have 47 days left for which God can Rapture His faithful. In Pastor Sandy Armstrong’s message on January 29th he stated that he expects we will be Raptured out of this world anytime between now and March 23rd.

When the Rapture occurs, every single American who is a born-again believer in Jesus Christ will suddenly disappear. This will cause enormous disorientation and disruption for all the unbelievers who are left behind as their lives suddenly change and they are forced to handle the aftermath and adapt to the new and rapidly shifting conditions.

Think of how dramatically life in the United States changed after we lost some three thousand Americans on September 11, 2001. First and foremost, the emotional impact was devastating. Then the way we travel changed. The way we conduct foreign policy changed. Our economy changed. Our government institutions changed. So many areas of life changed that it is difficult to adequately categorize them, much less catalog them.

Now try to imagine the U.S. losing a million people in the blink of an eye. Or 5 million people. Or 25 million people. Or more.

ADMIT THAT YOU ARE A SINNER.

BELIEVE THAT JESUS
PAID FOR YOUR SIN
ON THE CROSS. †

CONFESS THAT JESUS IS LORD AND CALL UPON HIM FOR SALVATION.

The clock is winding down fast and when the call comes to “Come up hither” the door will be closed and those left behind are likely to die for their faith in the final “Seven Weeks of Daniel 9:24-27!”
