

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #152

Prince Charles insanity continues: UK Farmers will be ordered to feed cows ‘methane suppressants’ to stop them belching and breaking wind under government plans to reach net zero! This is why you do not want to be living under the authority of the Antichrist during the Great Tribulation.

This story would be so laughable if it were not so serious an issue as we know how fanatics like Prince Charles of Wales are making climate change and saving the planet their hobby horse issue that they have made it out to be. Every day in the news around the world we see and experience the over-stretch of Prince Charles and his insanity about returning the world to the days before the combustion engine was invented. The world is getting a taste of what it will be like for those left behind. Pay close attention to what is in store for any of you thinking about Prince Charles Net-Zero carbon utopian society! Prince Charles Net-Zero agenda is code words for “DEPOPULATION!”

Dairy cows are set to be given ‘methane suppressants’ by farmers to reduce their carbon footprint – by making them burp less. UK Ministers are looking to force farmers to give herds additives to reduce gas from digestion in ‘compound feeds’, which contain seaweed and essential oils.

The UK Government’s Net-Zero Growth Plan, released this week, looked to address concerns from the High Court that existing plans to reach the climate goal before 2050 were not detailed enough. The plan said the bovine supplements could be introduced ‘at pace’ from 2025 – or as ‘soon as practically possible’ – in efforts to reduce emissions by 20% by 2030, as Britain’s commitment to the Global Methane Pledge requires.

Cows are a big contributor to climate change, with farm animals producing around 14 per cent of carbon emissions from human activity worldwide. The plans are expected to add around 33pence a year to the cost of milk for the average consumer but ministers could also choose to subsidize the superfood feed.

Dustin Benton, former government adviser on food strategy, told ‘The Telegraph’ the suppressants could eventually be given to sheep as well as cows.

“Most dairy cows are milked twice a day, and when they’re going to be milked they usually eat, so that’s a pretty good way of getting it into them.” Mr. Benton added that the suppressants were a good start but that further action would be needed to reduce the impact of livestock.

A government source said that ‘significant’ progress had been made thanks to innovation in agricultural products and that there were ‘major benefits’ to the plans for farmers and the climate.

The suppressants contain a number of additives, including seaweed, organic acids, probiotics and antimicrobials and essential oils that reduce the amount of gas produced during digestion.

It’s an urban myth that cows produce most of the methane by farting and it’s actually belching that is the real culprit.

Livestock actually make up the majority of agriculture and other land-use emissions in 2021, which accounted for 11% of the UK’s greenhouse gases.

Sustainable Development, Agenda 21, Agenda 30, Net-Zero carbon foot print, ESG divestment, are all but the beginning of what will become a tyrannical dystopian world of insanity foisted upon an unsuspecting world by none other than the Antichrist himself, and the fact that he speaks to trees and flowers exemplifies his derangement as a loonie!

What Do Daniel 9:27 and 2 Thessalonians 2 tell us about the Antichrist?

Dr. Renald Showers says according to Daniel 9:27, we are told, “and he [referring to the Antichrist] shall confirm the covenant with many for one week” literally for one seven. A week of years to state it simply!

Now, there is an interesting implication of this. Many have thought that the event which will actually start the seven-year Tribulation period (Daniel’s 70th week) will be the Rapture of the Church. That’s not what the biblical text is saying. Instead, Daniel 9:27 is saying that the actual event which will officially begin that seven-year period of time will be the establishment of the seven-year covenant between Antichrist and the people of Israel in the Middle East.

Then we’re told as we read on in verse 27, “and in the midst of the week,” literally in the middle of the week, in the middle of the seven. So it’s talking here about what will happen in dead center of this seven-year period of time. After the first three and a half years of this period of time have transpired, in the middle of the week, “he (going back to Antichrist) shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease.” That implies that by this future period of seven-years Israel will have a new temple and they will have re-instituted the Old Testament sacrifices and offerings in that temple. What’s being revealed to Daniel here is that in the middle of that 70th week of Daniel 9, Antichrist will put a stop to the sacrifices and the offerings offered there in Israel’s new temple.

In 2nd Thessalonians 2, the Apostle Paul describes this same man whom we have called the Antichrist as “the man of sin.” We read in 2nd Thessalonians 2:3, “Let no man deceive you by any means, for that day [the day of the Lord] shall not come except there come a falling away first and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped so that he as God sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.”

That is the abomination of desolation spoken of in Daniel 9:27 and so Daniel is told that right in the middle of this seven-year period of time the Antichrist will enter into this new temple of Israel in Jerusalem and will put a stop to their Old Testament sacrificial system that they've re-instituted.

The reason he does that is because he wants to clear the way for the worship of himself as God. And he will set himself up in that temple as the true and the living God make the bold claim that he is that, and then he will begin desolating the nation of Israel. The implication is, he will break his covenant with Israel and begin persecuting that nation worse than it's ever been persecuted in all of past history. From much of what I have shared about Prince Charles in past segments of the Blessed Hope series; The Satanic Talmud and the Synagogue of Satan painted a picture of a deeply insecure individual. As king of England, he is a “ceremonial” king with little power and no real authority. It hints of a power thirsty person who will never accept challenge to his will. Subordinates and world leaders cater to Charles because of their own insecurities as much as they desire to keep their own power by being associated with the implied power he projects in the world. We would call it a “House of Cards!”

As pictured in Daniel 7:8, 11-20, Antichrist will exalt himself above God, which is blasphemy. But he will not restrict himself to only reviling the true God; he will exalt himself above all gods. This pictures a situation similar to Revelation 17, when the Beast (representing the Antichrist) turns on the harlot (representing pagan religion) and destroys her in order to set himself up as God, to be worshiped alone. The sense is that the Antichrist will ridicule all known religion and proclaim something new, with himself at its head. Prince Charles Great Reset and Guild Back Better slogans are exactly what the text alludes to!

He Will Exalt Himself as God -(vs. 37). The Antichrist will disregard the “gods of his fathers” (meaning traditional worship) and will initiate something previously unheard of. He will also disregard the “desire of women.” The interpretive question in this phrase is whether it means that the Antichrist will hate women or hate what women desire. If the verse means the latter, it suggests he will hate a child, either Tammuz in the pagan context or Messiah in the Jewish. Since the context of verse 37 concerns Antichrist's exaltation of himself over all gods, whatever the “desire of women” is will somehow relate to this self-exaltation above all gods. Women who once dated Prince Charles in his younger days have very demeaning opinions about Prince Charles.

Consequently, it fits better to interpret this “desire” as the Messiah, who would fall into the same category as “other gods.” This also correlates with Revelation 13:15, which pictures the Antichrist setting up an image of himself in the Temple in Jerusalem and demanding worship—a future “abomination of desolation” -(Matthew 24:15).

He will worship military power (vv. 38-39). Prince Charles has served in all of the various UK’s military branches. While Antichrist will exalt himself above all gods, he will, nevertheless, worship a god - “the god of fortresses.” This may mean that as an arrogant dictator, he will trust only in military might. Or, as verse 39 implies, he will trust in a “foreign god” (Satan himself (see Revelation 13)), whom he will proclaim to reveal incarnate (as Antiochus did of Zeus). Either way, the result will be military conquest. As pictured in Daniel 7:8, the Antichrist (“little horn”) will uproot three horns of the ten-horned kingdom/beast, which represents the worldwide Roman Empire. This suggests that the ten-kingdom final form of the Roman Empire will already be in place before Antichrist appears and makes his move to dominate. The world war that will erupt from this effort will produce the effects pictured by the four horsemen of the Apocalypse - (Revelation 6:1-8).

Thus the character of the Antichrist can be summarized as one who will try to establish himself as God, seeking to rule the world strictly for his own glory and desire for power. In doing so, he will deride all known religion and proclaim a new order for the world, with himself at its head. All who do not submit will be crushed. As revealed in Revelation 13, the Antichrist ultimately will receive his power from Satan, who will seek to rule the world through him much as God the Father rules the world through his Son, Jesus Christ.

One might ask the question, “Could Prince Charles surpass Adolf Hitler?” You bet he can and will! Prince Charles has at his access technology for which Hitler could only have dreamed about! All we need mention is that of nano-technology-biometrics and Bill Gates ID2020. Any person that has ever been knighted by the Royals becomes an integral part of the Prince Charles Arthurian Order; it was his mother the late Queen that gave Bill Gates the title Knight Commander of the Order of the British Empire in 2005. Honorary knighthoods are awarded by the Queen, on the advice of the Foreign Office, to those who have made an important contribution to British interests.

You need to be aware that the Gates Foundation donated $750-million to the Global Alliance for Vaccines and Immunization (GAVI), which Mr. Gates was instrumental in setting up. (In this case, his knighthood was really for their mutually shared interest in Eugenics in African nations). Microsoft directly employs almost 2,000 people in the UK, including 80 researchers at the Microsoft Research Cambridge, the company's first research laboratory outside the United States, which was set up in 1997.

Before his private audience with the Queen, Bill Gates had met with the late Prince Philip, who was chancellor of Cambridge University, and spoke about the facility. Prince Philip once said that “in the event that I am reincarnated, I would like to return as a deadly virus, to contribute something to solving overpopulation.” That statement alone should have sent chills up your spine as these demonic people set about to destroy most of humanity.

All across the globe local government, state government, small businesses and large or small corporations have been scrambling for ideas trying to implement Net-Zero carbon footprints whereby the options are limited to just two: Play ball with Prince Charles or King Charles Net-Zero emissions from fossil fuels or be prepared to go out of business. The Agenda 21 name changed to Agenda 30 and the Seventeen goals of “Sustainable Developments” must be implemented into every sector of society. Two men are leading the plan for Prince Charles here in the U.S.; Larry Fink, CEO of Black Rock and Michael Bloomberg of Bloomberg Media. They are passionate environmentalists.

This is a picture of a Electric car charging station that are popping up everywhere. Here's an interesting fact.... That 350kw generator uses 12 gallons of diesel fuel per hour, and it takes 3 hours to fully charge a car to get 200 miles. That's 36 GALLONS for 200 MILES!!! 5.6 mpg.
Proof you can't fix stupid...

Since all businesses need capital from time to time for new equipment, supplies, expansion, renovations, launching a new product line, and all of this will be how Prince Charles environmental and climate issues are met or securing lending will be denied based upon their ESG policies. ESG is an acronym for Environment, Society, and Government. Anyone or any corporation wanting to raise capital through borrowing have to meet Net-Zero carbon emission standards and Prince Charles policies or fold up their tents and go out of business.

Retired financial adviser Porter Sansbury did an hour-long video showing how the Net-Zero principle works a few months ago and it became crystal clear how companies were faced with going "green" or go out of business.

This is impractical as many European countries have discovered there is not enough electrical energy to meet the needs of the Electrical Vehicle business. Electrical power plants are either fueled by nuclear, coal, hydro, oil or gas. Many communities have recently passed legislation that new-home construction dictate heat pumps, electric ranges, rather than natural gas or propane. As many have found who jumped on the bandwagon early, have found the cost of electricity is much more expensive than what was produced by former methods.

All this is the net result from Prince Charles fanaticism about climate change dating back to the first UN climate change conference in Rio De Janeiro, Brazil in 1992. There is a lot that most people are unaware of concerning Prince Charles. As I was reflecting on from my files on Prince Charles over thirty years, several things came to memory and they all seem to have a strong connection with the date chosen for the Coronation of Charles on May 6th, 2023! And none of them have any relationship whatsoever with his grandson's birthday either. The media latched onto that news story bit but it's really tied to the dark world of the occult Druids and the Festival of Beltaine. It is interesting that the Royal House of Windsor lights a Beltaine "Balefire" every year ('America's Occult Holidays', Doc Marquis, pg. 30).

The "Maypole" originated from the celebration of Beltaine. Since fertility is being asked of the Earth Goddess, the Maypole is the phallic symbol and the circular dance around the pole forms the circle that is symbolic of the female sex organ. This is the highest day on the Druidic Witch's Calendar, while May 1st is the Illuminati's second most sacred holiday. Human sacrifice is required in Beltaine observance. Since the celebration officially began the night before Beltaine, the tradition has developed among occultists to celebrate Beltaine as a 2-day ceremony.

Prince Charles has visited a couple of very important occult sites. In May of 2002, "Britain's Prince Charles visited Transylvania on Friday, May 3, 2002, and two weeks after the last surviving descendant of Count Dracula advertised for a noble English heir to carry on the line made famous by his blood-sucking ancestor. The heir to the British throne is to tour the mediaeval town of Sighisoara, near to where the Romanian authorities are building a Dracula theme park, Mediafax news agency reported on Thursday ... The 60-hectare park is based on the alleged fictional blood-sucking count created by Irish novelist Bram Stoker in his 1897 novel, Dracula, which was inspired by the Romanian 15th-century prince Vlad the Impaler."

"The self-proclaimed last surviving descendant of Count Dracula said he was seeking a blue-blooded English heir to carry on the family line. Ottomar Rodolphe Vlad Dracula Prince Ketzulesco ... was himself adopted in 1987 by Prince Ketzulesco, the last living member of Vlad the Impaler's family ... the 62-year-old said he would seek an English lord or lady "who might want to become part of the family and carry on the line". But not a commoner, he insisted. 'We would like to adopt -- but a real prince or princess. I cannot just take anyone from the street', he told Britain's Independent newspaper. 'They must be nobles and should be younger than me, obviously. It would be a great advantage if they could have children too'. Prince Charles, the eldest son of Queen Elizabeth II, was 53 at that time and has two sons by the late Princess Diana."

A quick check in Timothy Cohen's book, 'Antichrist And A Cup of Tea', reveals that Prince Charles is a descendent of Count Dracula [Page 77], while the listing of the website, above, also lists Prince Charles as being descended from the Romanian family of which the father of the original Dracula was a part. It is a most powerful Satanic location, deeply rooted in the occult for hundreds of years.

While most Americans and Europeans have come to view Count Dracula and the Vampire legend of which he is a part as just innocent fantasy, occultists have a very different view. They know that Vampires are real -- really demons -- that do possess human beings. Vampire demons are Reptilians and wield the most potent power for the highest level practicing Satanists.

These vampire demons do drink human blood, and lots of it. In fact, the occultist views the fulfillment of Revelation 20:4 as being carried out by vampire demons over-running the world during the time of Antichrist. Read this verse:

"And I saw thrones, and they sat upon them, and judgment was given unto them: and I saw the souls of them that were beheaded for the witness of Jesus, and for the word of God, and which had not worshipped the beast, neither his image, neither had received his mark upon their foreheads, or in their hands..."

Black Magick occultists view this beheading as one of the major evidences of reptilian vampire demons running amok over the earth during the time of Antichrist, for huge quantities of blood gush out instantly when a person is beheaded. Does the Bible foretell that huge numbers of demons shall be set loose upon the earth during this time of Tribulation?

It certainly does: Revelation 9:1-11; Revelation 9:13-19. Most commentators believe the latter verse to be the number of troops marching from the East, probably from China, to attack Israel; we concur. However, it is within the realm of possibility that an equal number of the demonic host would be released at the very time the Chinese Army begins its move with 200 million men.

Thus, in the mind of the occultist, the demonic host encouraging this beheading would be vampire demons, giving them insatiable appetites for human blood. Think about how close this appetite for human blood is real when the rich pay $8,000 for a pint of Adrenochrome. In February 2019, Infowars featured a segment on adrenochrome, linking it to the Clinton Foundation via epipen manufacturers, and to the highly controversial “young blood” transfusion startup Ambrosia. A month later, adrenochrome “documentaries” began to emerge on YouTube, followed by many smaller copycat productions, helping form a searchable foundation for the current day conspiracy.

The recent surge in interest can be traced to March 2020 and the effects of the Covid-19 pandemic. Celebrities posting photos of themselves stuck at home and looking less than camera ready were besieged on social media with accusations that they were suffering from adrenochrome withdrawal. (In their logic, shutdowns had stalled the adrenochrome child-trafficking supply chain.) By commenting on these posts, believers spread the adrenochrome hashtag to new eyes while harassing their targets.

Despite this increased visibility, conspiracy outlets accused major social media platforms and media of plotting to suppress the truth about adrenochrome. Adrenochrome conversation continued and intensified on social media, from claims Lady Gaga was participating in blood rituals for an adrenochrome fix, to the Covid-19 “spiked adrenochrome” theory popularized by Pizzagate booster Liz Crokin. Despite claims of censorship, Google trend results showed that spamming celebrities' pages with mentions of adrenochrome was working, leading to a spike in search traffic and social media conversation.

Unpopular ideas and small disinformation campaigns often go unreported, either unseen or ignored by platforms and mainstream press. The longer an infectious bad idea goes undetected and unbunked, the more likely it is to spread and develop social importance. Although Dr. Phil tried to debunk the ‘theory’ of adrenochrome, the fact that it’s being talked about is encouraging for some, as more people will be doing their own research on the topic. My point here is this, when you see smoke there is a reasonable probability a fire is close by.

What was Charles doing here at Dracula's Castle? That is anyone's guess, except, one can only wonder if he were participating in a high-level occult ritual designed to call forth the spirit of Antichrist into Prince Charles? We know that members of the Thule Society held secret rituals for the expressed purpose of calling forth the Spirit of Antichrist into Adolf Hitler, and that they did so not too long before Hitler embarked on his public campaign to ascend to the office of German Chancellor -(Trevor Ravenscroft, The Spear of Destiny).

However, former Black Magick Satanist, and former Mother of Darkness, Cisco Wheeler, sheds even more light on this subject: Queen Mum has recently died and she was part of the Illuminist Generational Witchcraft of the House of Windsor. In fact, this Satanism has long been so pronounced for so many generations that the entire Windsor family has been possessed by Reptilians for these many generations. Therefore, the Queen Mum was possessed of a Reptilian spirit. As soon as she died, her Reptilian spirit became disembodied, and would desire to live in another human body.

If the world is as close to the appearance of Antichrist as we think it is, and if Prince Charles is that man, (I'm speaking rhetorically), then another occult probability raises its head; it is possible, and is extremely interesting. If Prince Charles is to soon appear as Antichrist, he not only needs to become more powerful, but needs to form a triangle of satanic powers. To the occult community, a triangle is the most potent geometric symbol of all, and an equilateral triangle is the most powerful of all triangles. Charles may very well have wanted to form this occult "triangle" that will greatly strengthen him for his coming role.

Therefore, the Count Dracula location would be well-suited to call the Reptilian spirit that possessed Queen Mum into Prince Charles. Not only would Charles be greatly strengthened by calling into his being a much stronger Reptilian demon than has possessed him for his entire lifetime, but an interesting perfect equilateral occult triangle -- or Trinity -- is formed within Prince Charles.

1. Satan would be God the Father, the first part of the occult godhead.
2. Charles would be Antichrist -- the second part of the occult godhead.
3. Queen Mum's reptilian spirit would be the third part of the occult godhead, equivalent to the fake Holy Spirit.

Thus would be formed the very necessary occult Trinity within the future Antichrist himself, using the occult sacred form of the equilateral triangle!

Satan would then ritualistically possess Charles, but not actually reside in him yet. However, ritualistically, a perfect equilateral triangle would form.

What we see is the prophetic time in which Satan physically possesses Antichrist.

"And there was war in heaven: Michael and his angels fought against the dragon; and the dragon fought and his angels, And prevailed not; neither was their place found any more in heaven. And the great dragon was cast out, that old serpent [Reptilian], called the Devil, and Satan, which deceiveth the whole world: he was cast out into the earth, and his angels were cast out with him ... Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! for the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time." --(Revelation 12:7-9, 12b)

It is entirely probable that Prince Charles went to this exceedingly powerful occult location - Dracula's Romanian estate -- to perform the high-level ritual that would allow Queen Mum's Vampiristic Reptilian spirit to enter Charles. Since Queen Mum's Reptilian spirit was higher level than Charles', Prince Charles would be greatly strengthened, better equipping him for his role. When Charles was anointed in his youth, it was the Queen Mum who said his power came from the Red Dragon! It makes perfect sense now by what she said years ago!

But, then Prince Charles traveled immediately to another Cabalistic, Illuminist location. In a Yahoo News post, it was reported that "Prince Charles visits all-male religious sanctuary," –(Tuesday May 7, 2002, Yahoo News.)

"THESSALONIKI, Greece - Britain's Prince Charles is visiting the secluded monastic community of Mount Athos on a private trip, police said Tuesday. They said Charles arrived Sunday — Orthodox Easter [May 5, 2002]— at the all-male sanctuary that is on a peninsula in northern Greece. They did not know how long his visit would last. Both Charles and his Greek-born father, Prince Philip, are members of the Friends of Mount Athos, a group based in Britain and the United States ..."

Since most people do not know what this "monastic community of Mount Athos" really is, they would have totally missed the significance of this trip. This group is deeply satanic, and has long historic roots.

"... a sect existed long before the time of the Crusades corresponding to the description of the Johannites given by Eliphaz Levi in that it was Cabalistic, anti-Christian, yet professedly founded on the doctrines of one of the St. Johns ... Loiseleur asserts that the Templars did prefer the Gospel of St. John to that of the other evangelists, and that modern Masonic Lodges claiming descent from the Templars possess a special version of this gospel said to have been copied from the original on Mount Athos. It is also said that 'Baphomets' were preserved in the Masonic Lodges of Hungary, where a debased form of Johannite Masonry, known as Johannite Masonry, exists to this day. If the Templar Heresy was that of the Johannites, the head in question might be that of John the Baptist, which would accord with the theory that the word Baphomet was derived from Greek words signifying Baptism of Wisdom ... they regarded St. John as the servant of the Jewish God Satanael." [http://www.antiquillum.com/qadosh24.htm]

Thus, Prince Charles visited a most deeply occult secret society monastery, arriving on an occult day -- Orthodox Easter, May 5, 2002. What was he doing there? Cisco said that, after going through the ritual at Dracula's Estate, he would need a period of rest, of respite, in which his human body can fully incorporate such a newly powerful demonic host.

These two visits, on May 3rd and May 5th, 2002 makes complete sense if this dramatic new demonic infilling were really occurring! On these dates, a spiritual, occult equilateral triangle formed inside Prince Charles, greatly strengthening him at this point in time.

The late Pastor David Meyers, writing in the 'Last Trumpet Newsletter' for May, 2002, had this independent description of the astrological alignments of the Heavens. Remember, occultists carefully follow the alignment of stars and planets, and methodically plan their key events to occur at a time they deem "most propitious" according to the heavenly alignment. You will discover that the heavenlies were forming a perfect equilateral triangle at this very same time -- May 5th! Take note here that this is a date long before Prince Charles Coronation was scheduled in 2023. We are seeing a spiritual tie here that links a dark spiritually to the Second Passover of the Bible I discussed in Blessed Hope #149 and #150; upon the coronation event of May 6th, 2023.

The late Pastor Meyers was himself a former Witch, although not at the same level as Cisco Wheeler, so his comments carry significant weight, especially when the subject is high-level Illuminist Witchcraft. Pastor Meyers died shortly after he shared his familiarity on the significance of Prince Charles strange visits in May, 2002. It was my interest in Prince Charles that led me to the writings of Pastor Meyers until he died that year.

"We now see a new development, and it is truly amazing. A very rare, if not unprecedented, event is now forming in the heavens. I will do my best to describe it because it is doubtless a sign from the Almighty. Our earth is tilted at an angle of twenty-three and one-half degrees. Because of this, all planets, the sun, and the moon follow a certain path as they move from east to west. This path is called the 'ecliptic'. The ancient Romans and Greeks called it 'the path of the gods'. The sun, moon, and other eight planets move at varying speeds, so generally only a few are visible in the sky at any given time."

"However, at the end of this month of April and for the first half of May, the planets will begin to line up like a celestial traffic jam. Dr. Philip Sadler, Director of the Science Education Department at the Harvard-Smithsonian Center for Astrophysics in Cambridge, Massachusetts, had this to say: 'The world hasn't seen anything like the planetary traffic jam that is going to occur the last week of April and the first two weeks in May! Inching across the sky like bumper to bumper commuters on their way to work, a rare planetary alignment will allow sky observers to see every planet in our solar system in a single evening'." Pastor Meyer was describing what was about to occur in the stars in May of 2002.

"As these planets move along this line they form what are called 'conjunctions'. I counted them, and according to the Old Farmers Almanac, there will be exactly 11 conjunctions in the month of May. We must also note that May 1, or Beltaine as the witches call it, is the Druid New Year and a high cross-quarter sabat."

"Dr. Sadler also reported two more facts that are both stunning and amazing. Here are his exact words. 'Even more amazing, two very special events will occur during this planetary line-up. On May 10, the planets Mars and Venus will appear to pass so close to one another that, to the naked eye, the Roman god of War and the Roman goddess of love will become one'."

"Needless to say, the witches will be going berserk with their spells and love potions during this time, and it will stir up a lot of spirits, who will attempt to cause perversion and a sexual revolution as has never been seen before. We must pray!"

But, then Pastor Meyers drops the bombshell:

" 'Earlier, on May 5, something even more spectacular will happen. The bright planets Mars, Saturn and Venus will group together to form a perfect equilateral triangle in the western sky. This dazzling configuration will be visible almost everywhere on Earth. In the Middle East, this pyramid-shaped specter will hang directly above Bethlehem.' Dr. Sadler also explained that the last time this happened was 2,000 years ago! This is without question a great sign in the sun, moon and stars and the very thing that Jesus told us to watch for. Our Saviour is soon to come with His fiery and righteous judgment." [Emphasis added] (But Antichrist will come first)

Therefore, at the same time period Cisco believes Prince Charles was ritualistically receiving the "perfect equilateral triangle" formed by Queen Mum's Reptilian spirit, his Reptilian spirit and Satan, a perfect equilateral triangle was forming in the skies above. Satanists order their lives and their plans by the stars and planetary alignment, so this convergence is not an accident.

Further, Satanists believe in the occult Masonic doctrine, "As it is above, so is it below", Thus, Prince Charles may have ordered this formation of the occult spiritual perfect equilateral triangle to correspond to the perfect equilateral triangle in the heavenlies. That alignment of his will with the Satanic "heavenly will" would produce much occult power! Prince Charles could be thus greatly strengthened for his upcoming role.

This Masonic slogan "As Above, So Below" forms the Satanic Hexagram, the so-called Star of David symbol of the Israeli national flag since its establishment as a nation in 1948, which was decided by the Rothschild's who had been for decades buying up large swathes of land that became part of the new state of Israel. Initially, the Knesset had chosen the Menorah to be the national symbol of Israel before the Rothschild's said it should be the Satanic Hexagram. When Prince Charles decided the date of his coronation, the date did not come as a complete surprise. As this information was being analyzed, it struck me that the date of May 6th as this information shows, we find strong similarities with events from more than twenty years ago that are all focused and converging upon the calendar dates that have huge occult Satanic meanings. Beltane is the highest occult date on the Druidic Witch's Calendar, while May 1st is the Illuminati's second most sacred holiday.

Human sacrifice is required. Since the celebration officially began the night before Beltaine, the tradition has developed among occultists to celebrate Beltaine as a 2-day ceremony. We can only speculate what that might be!

Events around the world seem to be heading for a final climax! In all three realms of Politics, Economics, and Religion; and, we see enormous strides toward the final global system that Antichrist will control. Watch the events in the Middle East, as they will hold the key. When you see all-out Regional War that results in the annihilation of entire states, you may know that the planned Third World War to produce Antichrist is very much underway.

Could all of this have any connection with the events brewing in our world today? The crisis in Israel; the de-dollarization of the U.S. as reserve currency; the collapse of the global banking system; multiple world conflicts ongoing; Chinese invasion through the U.S. southern border where an estimated 5-million foreign aliens have crossed into the U.S. and disappeared into the interior of the nation. Prince Charles has been a cheerleader for the NATO/U.S. alliance keeping pressure on Russia in the Ukraine, stoking the fires of war. These and other points lead me to believe there are weird things afoot!

Prince Charles of Wales speaks in egalitarian terms and yet comes across as being disingenuous at best. Deception and deceit prevail at all levels of society today.

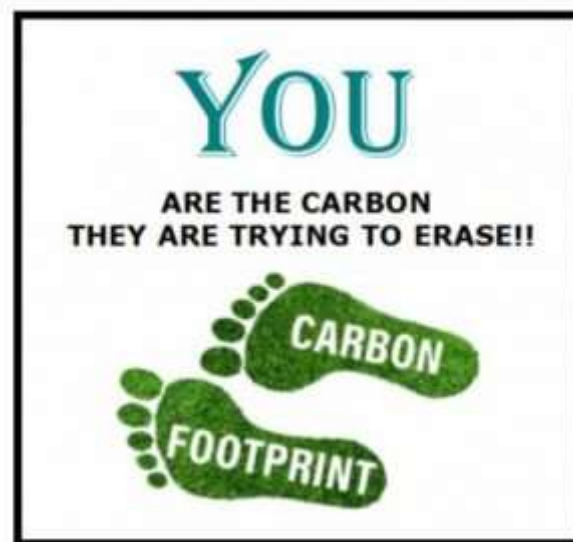

It is sad that so many Christians today foolishly think that the Republicans, or some other political party, are going to save the nation. No, no, that's not the answer at all! There's not a dime's difference between Democrats and Republicans!

Politicians don't speak from conviction anymore. They have speech writers. And sadly, their speech writers flip flop from being conservative to becoming a liberal on a dime; writing for a Republican U.S. President one day, and writing for a liberal Democrat the next. It is sad that U.S. Presidents don't write their own speeches. It's not from their heart. There is no conviction. The speeches are written to fool the American people. It is all so crooked and dishonest. This is what Babylon, Medo-Persia, Greece and Rome were like before a dictator rose to power.

Persia had youth groups demonstrating publicly, just like youth today, fighting against the present establishment. There was political confusion and worship of youth. We see this a lot today. The world worships youth. This is the age of youth. The Democracy in Greece became a farce. History records in the writings of Aristotle and others that prior to Alexander the Great's rise, there was anarchy and mob rule. Aristotle said, "Children have become rulers of parents." There were evolution clubs in Greece. Plutarch said, "men wore bizarre costumes and women found joy in men's clothing." Is this not America today? There was social breakdown, paving the way for a young dictator named Alexander the Great to become dictator. Only a dynamic man, a dictatorship, could have saved Greece from herself. Alexander the Great was that man, and he was only 20-years old when he rose to power.

The Bible in Daniel speaks of Nebuchadnezzar's image of gold (Babylon), silver (Medo-Persia), brass (Greece), legs of iron, (Rome) and toes of iron mixed with clay (revived Roman empire under the leadership of the Antichrist). The Great Tribulation will be the ultimate in anarchy, mob rule, confusion, anti-God, Anti-Christ and Anti-Bible. On the shoulders of anarchy will arise the Antichrist. Out of chaos will arise a New World Order.

The Antichrist will be dynamic, appealing, and a personality that the world wants to rally around.

Today, we are living in inferior times. We're not living in the times of superiority of Babylon (the gold head), nor the times of silver and brass. We're living in a historical stage of deterioration, not superiority. Look at our sculptures today, comparing our art to Greece, and you'll see that we are an inferior generation. The world has never yet risen to the level of the amazing art they had in Greece and Rome.

In the three world empires that fell to ruin and chaos, a dictator was the only answer to society's demise. Nebuchadnezzar saved Babylon from anarchy and mob rule. Cyrus saved Medo-Persia from anarchy and mob rule. Alexander the Great saved Greece from anarchy and mob rule. These men were strong enough to pull together their cultures from mob rule.

Then there was the Roman Empire, represented by the legs of iron in Nebuchadnezzar's image seen in his dream. The Roman Empire was engulfed in political confusion, youth rebellion, political corruption, revolution from young people, men dressing like ladies, courts slow to try, nudity, anarchy, mob rule and rebellion. When there arose a man of the stature of Julius Caesar, who had a fanatical following from his soldiers, Rome was pulled together and saved. In times of chaos and societal collapse, only a dictator can save the known world. These dictators came because they had to come.

No Democracy has ever conquered the world. No Communist regime has ever conquered the world. Committees don't conquer, men conquer. Men lead crowds and mobs. Out of anarchy there arose Nebuchadnezzar. Out of anarchy there arose Cyrus. Out of anarchy there arose Alexander the Great. Out of anarchy there arose Julius Caesar. And out of anarchy will arise the Antichrist.

Today, we live in the same type of age that existed before Nebuchadnezzar, before Cyrus, before Alexander the Great, before the Caesars, and nothing will save this generation except a dictator. He will lead 10-nations. He will be the wicked Devil incarnate. He will be evil to the core. But he will be a world leader and out of chaos will arise a New World Order, aka, the BEAST system of the coming Antichrist. The world is begging for a world leader, a strong personality; and the Antichrist will be that man! It's going to take a world dictator to unite the world.

The coming of the Antichrist is near. American society is on the verge of imminent collapse. Our dollar is ready to collapse. Tens-of-millions of our jobs have been relocated overseas. Tens-of-millions of Americans have had their homes confiscated by a corrupt, thieving and rotten banking system. U.S. borders have been left wide open for illegals to flood into our nation. Hollywood's smut, filth, God-cursing and violence is deliberate, to corrupt our nation. All of this is deliberately intended, by design, to ruin and bring America to her knees. The demonic music industry is evil, having produced generations of feminists, rebels, abortionists, fornicators, adulterers, and God-hating Communists. Take the blinders off and wake the hell up!

We've gone too far ladies and gentleman. We've gone too far. The fruit is too ripe. The earth is too ripe in wickedness. The angel is ready to pull out his sickle and thrust it into the earth, and the earth shall reap the harvest of her wickedness. The world today is as rotten as can be. The only hope for any kind of unity at all is not in a party; but in a man, and that man is soon to come. He will be a man of ideologies, a peacemaker, the man of sin, the Antichrist. Laugh all you want but Prince Charles has been at work for more than 30 years for this time!

You have from this moment until the moment that man is revealed to get saved, because once the Rapture happens it will be too late. For that man shall not be revealed until the Christians have been caught up in the air at the coming of our Lord. Are you saved?

Love him, hate him, or indifferent to him, you'd be kidding yourself if you said that you didn't know who Prince Charles is. The heir apparent to the British throne, Charles has been in the spotlight for decades, and it's safe to say that we haven't even really seen him in full action. Serving his mother, Queen Elizabeth, has been Charles' full time job, and when he eventually ascends to the throne, he'll fulfill a role that he has been preparing for his entire life. With so much public attention and a tumultuous divorce that put him firmly on the scene, it's safe to conclude that many of us think we know everything about the king to be. But do we?

Does Prince Charles talk to plants?

Prince Charles has a green thumb, and his affinity for sustainable lifestyles is apparent. But does his passion extend into the strange territories of talking to plants? According to Express, the answer is yes. Charles was working with the Woodland Trust and BBC Countryfile in order to supply trees to different gardens and sites throughout the United Kingdom, as part of a "free tree packs scheme" to promote planting and sustainability.

In a tweet regarding the matter, Clarence House Twitter revealed that, "[Charles] often gives a branch a friendly shake to wish it well." Yes, the heir to the British throne gives trees little handshakes. (Leaf shakes? We don't know the correct terminology.) Of the initiative, Charles shared his interest in providing solace and comfort for people outdoors, especially in light of the on-going COVID-19 pandemic. "I know that so many people during this terribly difficult year have had their appreciation of the trees and other green spaces around them deepened," he shared; a sentiment of which we completely understand. "Therefore it is our duty given how long that it takes for a tree to mature to plant trees now for future generations to enjoy," he concluded.

The heir to the throne has a keen interest in this oddity.

Many childhood experiences are defined by a hobby — some kids were into theatre, others interested in art, while some made a name for themselves on sports teams. For Prince Charles, his interests as a young man materialized in a rather niche way, and in 1975, he officially joined the Magic Circle, a secretive group of magic enthusiasts, some of whom have passed down membership within their families.

Charles couldn't wave his royal wand and join the exclusive club simply because he was a royal. As noted by Yahoo! News, he was invited to the secretive association by his great-uncle, Earl Mountbatten, who himself had been a member for more than two decades. Charles' interest in magic carried on throughout his life, and when it came time to celebrate his 70th birthday, he made sure that it was a magical affair topped to the brim with "Britain's finest magicians." In honor of his milestone celebration, Charles was honored with a show at the London Palladium and was joined by magicians such as Dynamo, a well-known street performer. Some hobbies really do stick with us for life.

Prince Charles met Diana Spencer when he was dating her sister.

Here's something strange that makes the fact that Prince Charles dated a teenager while he was in his 30s that much more uncomfortable. The prince was dating Diana's sister, Sarah Spencer, when he met his future wife. Talk about an uncomfortable, rather odd fact that taints an already tragic love story. As noted by Marie Claire, Charles was courting Sarah — who was six years older than Diana — in 1977. The two — who were 28 and 22 at the time — went on a skiing trip to Switzerland together, and while there aren't a ton of details about their relationship, it seemed to fizzle out over time.

Sarah was "disarmingly frank" in an interview regarding the relationship once it had come to a close, and shared that she wouldn't have married the heir to the throne "if he were the dustman or the King of England." "Charles makes me laugh a lot. I really enjoy being with him," Sarah said. "But there is no chance of my marrying him. I'm not in love with him. And I wouldn't marry anyone I didn't love."

Prince Charles doesn't have one of these very common items.

When we think of the royal family, we think of opulence. There doesn't seem to be anything that they don't have access to — from jewels to private planes, they really seem to have it all. Except for Prince Charles, who reportedly doesn't have a cell phone. Yes, it's 2023 and yes, Charles is the heir to the British throne, but he doesn't have a mobile phone of his own. As reported by 'The Sun', the issue of Charles' lack of a cell phone came up during Meghan Markle's court battle with the newspaper 'Daily Mail'.

Over the issue of the unauthorized biography, "Finding Freedom," detailing Meghan and Prince Harry's departure from the royal family, the book claimed that Harry "took to texting and calling ... He ... sent his father and brother texts alongside a photo of his new son, before notifying other family members." However, lawyer Jenny Afia said in court that it was her understanding that "the Prince of Wales does not have a mobile phone," countering the details in the book.

Prince Charles reportedly once struck up a friendship with Barbra Streisand.

We all know that Prince Charles had an affair with Camilla Parker Bowles, and we now know that he dated Diana Spencer's older sister before turning his attention to his teenage bride. But did you know that the prince once reportedly got close with none other than Broadway star Barbra Streisand? Yep, we were shocked too. As noted by Vanity Fair, Charles has reportedly always had a keen admiration for the Tony winner, and he even went to the set of "Funny Lady," the "Funny Girl" sequel, to meet her.

"He asked to meet me. So he came to the recording studio," Streisand shared. "We became friends, and I loved spending some time at Highgrove for a weekend fundraiser and going through his gardens." Vanity Fair later detailed that while Streisand was staying in London, she walked into her hotel room and noticed a bouquet of fresh-cut flowers sitting on the table. "I said, 'Who sent me that?'" Streisand shared about the interaction between her and her assistant. "And she said, 'A fan called Charles.' And I said, 'Really? Let me see the note' — and there was his seal."

The heir to the throne was immensely bullied in school, despite his status.

A strange fact about Prince Charles is that he was significantly bullied while in school. As noted by the Radio Times, the heir to the throne "thrived" during his at-home education in his early years, but once he was 8 years old, he attended Hill House School and later Cheam School, the latter of which is the oldest private school in Britain. Boarding school was a reality of Charles' life, as it was for many royal children, but Charles was reportedly "deeply homesick" and suffered as a result. By the time he attended Gordonstoun, the alma mater of his father, Prince Philip, the bullying he experienced went from bad to worse.

Calling the time he was in school "a prison sentence," Charles was "relentlessly bullied" and experienced significant isolation as a result. "He was crushingly lonely for most of his time there. The wonder is that he survived with his sanity intact," Charles' classmate, Ross Benson, shared. In addition, due to Charles' enrollment, the fellow school boys were not allowed to drink, smoke, or take part in normal freedoms. As a result, they "took that out" on the young prince.

This United States president tried to play matchmaker with Prince Charles.

Here's something we definitely did not expect to discover while looking into strange facts about Prince Charles — the heir to the British throne was reportedly the subject of match-making efforts by former president Richard Nixon. According to the 'Express', Charles went to the United States in 1970 — he was 21 at the time, and arguably the world's most eligible bachelor. The then-president Nixon introduced the prince to his daughter, Tricia Nixon, and the two went on to spend a good deal of time together during the prince's trip stateside.

According to reports, the president "desperately [tried] to play matchmaker" when it came to his daughter's romantic involvement with Charles — after all, what father wouldn't want his daughter to marry an actual prince? "Seating plans constantly had Charles and Tricia side by side while the program had them spending all of each day together," royal biographer Anthony Holden told the 'Express'. But the president's efforts were largely unsuccessful, and Charles reportedly felt "distinctly annoyed" over the concerted attempt to pair him up with the president's daughter. Additionally, Charles reportedly thought that Tricia was "plastic and artificial." Ouch.

Prince Charles is an extremely picky eater.

With the amount of world traveling that Prince Charles has gotten to experience, you'd think that he'd be a fan of international cuisines. But apparently, that couldn't be further from the truth. According to royal author Sally Bedell Smith, Charles is such a picky eater that he pretty much sticks to the same breakfast meal every morning — eggs or wheat germ and cereal grains with honey, served with fruit and tea (via Express). He also has a tendency to skip lunch (a habit that we're not going to join in any time soon).

What's more is that Charles' breakfast specifications are so detailed that multiple eggs are boiled for him just so that the right kind of hard-boiled egg reaches his table. Jeremy Paxman, a journalist and broadcaster, shared in his book "On Royalty," "Because his staff were never quite sure whether the egg would be precisely to the satisfactory hardness, a series of eggs was cooked, and laid out in an ascending row of numbers." Mervyn Wycherly, one of Charles' chefs, even shared that each egg must be boiled for "exactly four minutes" in order to meet the prince's specifications.

Despite the job security, Prince Charles strangely is a workhorse.

A lot of us would take advantage of the royal perks if we had access to them — it all sound rather wonderful, and for some members of the royal family, it's just the way of life that they have always (and will always) know. Prince Charles, however — who has lived in palaces and has had all the spoils of life bestowed onto him — is strangely a workaholic.

As noted by the BBC, Charles "works seven days a week," despite the assurance associated with his position as heir to the throne. He reportedly starts his work day shortly after breakfast, and is known to work well past midnight. As detailed in the BBC documentary, "Prince, Son and Heir: Charles at 70," even the royal's sons admitted that their father should cool his workaholic jets.

"He does need to slow down," Prince Harry said during the documentary. "This is a man who has dinner ridiculously late at night, and then goes to his desk later that night and will fall asleep on his notes to the point where he'll wake up with a piece of paper stuck to his face."

"Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six."

This is what Revelation 13:8 states. But the verse reveals so much more than the last five words of the passage.

Revelation 13:18 is a "13" and 3 "6's" or $3 \times 6 = 18$. The number "13" is the number of rebellion, evil, wickedness, Satan, kingdom of darkness. Revelation is the 66th book of the Bible, the 13th chapter, and the 18th verse; the "number of a man"; "the Antichrist", which is 13 letters, which is "666"; the unholy trinity of man. "Six" is the number of man in the Bible. This is just for starters of what we will find in the study of Biblical Numerics concerning Mr. "666". If you have read any other articles where I identified the earthly name of Mr. “666” you then know it is “Prince Charles of Wales”. Using Hebrew Gematria, the name as it appears above totals “666”. Not only is this found in Hebrew, but in Greek and English as well. There are over 57 clues so that End Time Saints may accurately and definitively identify the “Beast” or the “False Messiah”!

“Prince Charles of Wales” in Hebrew is pronounced “Nasich Charles Mem Wales”. The Hebrew pronunciation itself equals “666” in Hebrew Gematria. Is it simply a coincidence that Prince Charles official title “Prince Charles of Wales” equates to “666” in its English form and corresponding Hebrew and Greek forms as well?

And then Prince Charles name when translated from English into Hebrew and then compared to Gematria it still equals “666”. The statistical odds are astronomical making this absolutely impossible and a complete modern miracle. God has given you proof by telling history in advance of it happening. Isaiah 46:10 tells you, “Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:”

When the famous numerical designation “666” from Revelation 13:18, gets examined you will be surprised, “Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.” From Onomastics, a study of proper names, Charles means man. Revelation 17:10 becomes the real riddle we need to answer!

The question then becomes which Charles is “the Beast?” Revelation 17:10-11: “And there are seven kings: five are fallen, and one is, and the other is not yet come; and when he cometh, he must continue a short space. And the beast that was, and is not, even he is the eighth, and is of the seven, and goeth into perdition.”

There have been “seven” Charles as Emperors of the Holy Roman Empire. The World Book Encyclopedia and other reference documents summarize the history of the Holy Roman Empire by these seven kings. This is a historical fact. But what makes this prophecy such a puzzle is its reference to the beast being “also an eighth, and is one of the seven.” The answer is simple and right before us. They all have the name Charles. Prince Charles will be the eighth when he rules over the ancient Holy Roman Empire (the modern European Union). How is he one of the seven? He is a direct descendant of the Charles VI through the Hapsburg line. Adventists errantly interpret that phrase to mean popes.

When we talk about Bible prophecy in the Bible, clarity becomes 20/20 when we think of it as being “history told in advance”. “And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.” -(Daniel 9:27)

World leaders worship Charles as royalty and the king’s subjects love this man but the fact is they will soon come to hate this creature who will receive his power from Lucifer in the Bible. (See Revelation 13:2, 4).

The "Pandemic" hasn't ended... It's just begun. The New Global Pandemic Treaty will take control of your life. Over your doctors! Over your money! Over your freedom! New viruses! New tracking systems! New digital currencies! Send your thanks to the Antichrist on his throne! No one can escape it... after the Rapture!

I may be repeating myself here but I sincerely believe we are on the threshold of something that can only be seen as a Supernatural event in a few days. In my way of thinking, I am anticipating God will upstage all this Coronation hoopla of Prince Charles by the Rapture of the Christian believers around the world from the jaws of defeat.

Behind all of Charles' flattery there is a powerful dark and deceptive personality who seems like a nice guy by his rhetoric. In the past when I suggested Prince Charles was the man of Revelation, people laughed and dismissed me as a conspiracy theorist. But be mindful this prince has forces behind him that have air-brushed painted him a long time ago to assume the Throne of King David. These forces are well-known for their "Ordo ab Chaos" ~ "Order out of Chaos!" Even Charles, who is the senior Freemason of the Order of the Garter yields hidden mysterious powers that transcend sovereign state borders and takes credit for his lower case slogan, 6uild 6ack 6etter, that carries the subtle hidden "666".

If you look closely at Revelation 13 you will notice all the 13's in chapter and verse addresses in the Bible along with the use of the number 6. In Revelation 13:1 the thirteenth word in the verse is "beast" and the word "beast" appears "6" times in chapter 13. The verse contains 39 (3 x 13) words and the 39th word is "blasphemy". The phrase "the name of blasphemy" contains 18 (3 x 6) letters.

In Revelation 13:4 Satan worship in the tribulation is mandatory to stay alive; the fifth (dead) word is "dragon" who is Satan. The "beast" is worshipped "6" times "13:4, 8, 12, 14:8, 9, 11, and 20:4. Six is the number of "man" and the "beast" is the 3-fold number of the most "wicked man" to ever live on the earth, old 666 himself, 'the Antichrist' (13 letters), 'Judas Iscariot' (13 letters).

In Revelation 13:5 the 13th word is "blasphemies".

In Revelation 13:11 (1+3+1+1 = 6) the first mention of "another beast" which is the "false god the holy spirit" completing the false godhead, the trinity of Satan: the father; Antichrist the son, and the False Prophet: the fake Holy Spirit; the unclean, unholy trinity.

In Revelation 13:12 (a 13 and 2-6's) the 26th (2 x 13) word is "beast". The Magicians of Pharaoh did tricks to fool and deceive. His "deadly wound", a mortal wound, he died and came back to life. Matthew 24:24 gives the warning concerning the deceiving signs and wonders performed by the False Prophet in the last days.

In Revelation 13:14 the 26th (2 x 13) word is "beast". In this verse we also have the first use of Revelation of the word "image" "he should make an image to the beast" to promote the worship of the false god. The first time the word "image" appears in the New Testament is in Matthew 22:20 (2+2+2 = 6 or 22+20 = 42; 7 x 6) where the Lord Jesus Christ holds up a coin and says “Whose is this image and superscription referring to Caesar the head of the Roman government who was in power as the world government when Jesus was on the earth: just as the earth will be under the control of the one world government of the Antichrist during the tribulation: a direct correlation to the Antichrist. The word “image” appears 10X (Gentile number) in Revelation.

In Revelation 13:15 the verse contains 39 (3x13) words with a peculiar placement of the word “beast”; it appears as the 13th word; then again 6 words later; lastly it appears as the 36th word in the verse. The 39th (3x13) in the verse is “killed”. The phrase “the image of the beast” contains 18 (3x6) letters; and it appears only 3X in the Bible; and all 3 times are in this specific verse. The word “image” and “beast” both appear 3 times in the verse.

In Revelation 13:16 the verse contains 26 (2x13) words and the 18th (3x6) word just happens to be “mark” referring to the “Mark of the beast”.

In Revelation 13:18 (a 13 with 3x6), the 66th book of the Bible; the 18th verse; here we get the “number of a man”, ‘the Antichrist’ (13 letters), which is 666, the unholy trinity of man. The word “beast” in sole reference to the person of “the Antichrist” (13 letters), himself, appears a total of 36 (6x6) times in the book of Revelation.

The address 13:18 (13+3x6) added together is 1+3+1++8 = 13; and 13 + 18 a 13 reversed; “the Antichrist” (13 letters), is covered over with 6s, 13s, and their multiples.

Another infamous 13:18 is found in John’s Gospel; John is also the author of Revelation; and he records Jesus at the Last Supper quoting Psalm 41:9 and Jesus says: “He that eateth bread with me hath lift up his heel against me.” A direct reference to the betrayer” “Judas Iscariot” (13 letters) and the quote just happens to be 13 words in length.

Remember Ephesians 6:12, (a 6 and 2x6 = 12); this is where the deception originates from! “For we wrestle not against flesh and blood, but against principalities, against powers, against the rulers of the darkness of this world, against spiritual wickedness in high places.” –(Ephesians 6:12)

Returning to the point for which this Blessed Hope began,

Just when you thought climate alarmists had plumbed the depths of stupidity, the Bill & Melinda Gates Foundation this month awarded a $4.8 million grant to a company that sells “smart” face masks for cows. You can’t make up this bovine excrement, pun intended.

ZELP, which stands for Zero Emissions Livestock Project, claims its artificial intelligence (AI) mask technology for livestock will reduce methane emissions—considered to be a main greenhouse gas—and curb ‘climate change’.

Cows and other ruminant animals emit methane in the process of digesting their food. The mask goes around the cow's head and captures the methane gas exhaled by the animal, oxidizing it and then releasing it into the air as carbon dioxide and water vapor, according to ZELP.

It also has sensors that continuously collect millions of data points on the animals that are processed by machine learning algorithms.

“Our AI is trained to detect heat, flag welfare conditions, and identify the most efficient animals with a high-level of accuracy,” ZELP said.

But critics, including third-generation farmer Howard Vlieger, said the Gates-funded venture is illogical and driven by greed. Vlieger, who advises crop and livestock farmers across the United States, said, “This is what you would get when you combine greed and stupidity.”

Commenting on the news, Will Harris—a fourth-generation regenerative farmer who runs his family’s farm White Oak Pastures, told The Defender all he could say was, “Surely this is a hoax.”

Critical Sway, a researcher and investigator, tweeted, “You couldn’t make this stuff up. ... We’re living in ridiculous times my friends.”

ZELP—which collaborates with the agricultural giant Cargill—makes its money by leasing the smart masks out to farmers and by selling carbon offset credits, Critical Sway said.

“History will show that the vast majority of so-called environmentally beneficial projects like this are going to make Bernie Madoff look like an altar boy,” Vlieger said.

Madoff, whose name became synonymous with financial fraud, was behind the $20 billion Ponzi scheme that CNN called the largest financial fraud in history.

Smart masks for cows aren't the first money-making tech fix Gates has attempted to apply to a natural problem. Last year, the billionaire partnered with Samsung in an attempt to make a toilet that would turn human feces into ash.

And Gates recently claimed his genetically altered seeds were necessary for solving world hunger because 'climate change' alters growing conditions.

He also promotes AI-driven digital agriculture that relies on large-scale monocultures and is "basically a surveillance agriculture," according to environmental activist Vandana Shiva, Ph.D.

The technology forces farmers "to get addicted to chemicals and chemical fertilizers" that harm the planet and people while reducing natural biodiversity, Shiva said. Shiva said Gates' solutions ignore obvious natural remedies for environmental problems, such as the regenerative agriculture practices of managed grazing and natural soil enrichment.

Industrial Farming Practices—Not Cows—Are The Problem

ZELP's design was one of four winners last year in the Terra Carta Design Lab, an environmental sustainability competition for cutting methane emissions. Prince Charles—who launched the competition as part of his Sustainable Markets Initiative—praised the mask design as "fascinating," reported Business Insider in April 2022.

But according to Vlieger, ruminant animals in their natural habitat are not the key drivers of environmental problems.

"When the settlers worked their way across the plains, there were millions of buffalo," Vlieger said. "If ruminant animals were the problem, why didn't we have climate change problems then?"

Techno-fixes like ZELP's smart masks ignore the issue of where and how the animals graze, Vlieger and others said.

Conventional livestock production—which includes confining large numbers of animals in concentrated animal feeding operations, more commonly known as factory farms—"manipulates pieces of the ecosystem in an effort to maximize production and profits, thereby leading to the complication and expense of dealing with unintended consequences," according to a 2015 report by the Savory Institute, a regenerative agriculture organization that promotes wholistic management of livestock.

An intact ecosystem effectively balances ruminant methane production and breakdown, the report authors said.

Indeed, researchers—including W. Richard Teague, Ph.D., professor emeritus and grazing ecologist at Texas A&M AgriLife Research & Extension Center—found that with appropriate regenerative crop and grazing management, ruminant animals not only reduce overall ‘greenhouse gas’ emissions but also provide essential ecosystem services that increase soil ‘carbon’ sequestration and reduce environmental damage.

Teague and his colleagues said in a 2016 article published in the Journal of Soil and Water Conservation that “to ensure long-term sustainability and ecological resilience of agroecosystems, agricultural production should be guided by policies and regenerative management protocols that include ruminant grazing.”

Allowing cows to open graze “under appropriate management results in more carbon sequestration than emissions,” Teague told Successful Farming.

Grazing systems that are regenerative cause soil microorganisms to increase, which helps drive ‘carbon’ sequestration and methane oxidization, Teague added.

‘This Is Wrong In So Many Ways’

Vlieger said ZELP’s smart mask would generate electromagnetic radiation that could harm the animals. But perhaps that is the idea.

“Many years ago when the USDA [U.S. Department of Agriculture] was talking about the electronic ID ear tags for cattle, I wrote an article about the dangers of the electromagnetic frequencies—and that was way before we had a fraction of the information that we have today,” he said.

“The potential for tumors and other ill health effects are significant,” Vlieger added. Blogger Tessa Lena also criticized the cow smart mask because it is a step in normalizing “smart” facewear for both animals and humans—something that is “a win-win for all fascists,” she said in a March 14 Substack post.

Lena said:

“It’s a very lucrative ‘product adoption curve for Big Tech—and extremely consistent with how they’ve been going about their ‘product adoption curves’ since day one of the industry’s existence.”

Smart faceware is also “useful to the totalitarian types in the government” and a “treasure trove of yummy ‘new oil’ biometric data for the delight of all fascists,” Lena added.

Her solution?

People must wake up and refuse to do this, she said.

Not even George Orwell could have envisioned this level of dystopian society! Although Orwell did define totalitarianism as draconian control by propaganda, surveillance, disinformation, denial of truth, and manipulation of the past, including the "unperson"—a person whose past atrocity is idealized from the public record and memory, practiced by modern repressive governments, I doubt he could have predicted the rise of this kind of transgender idolatry. Folks, we are going home and it seems to me it will be just days away!

ADMIT THAT YOU ARE A SINNER.

BELIEVE THAT JESUS
PAID FOR YOUR SIN
ON THE CROSS. †

CONFESS THAT JESUS
IS LORD AND CALL UPON HIM FOR SALVATION.
