

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #153

Has it ever occurred to you that the Creator has a sense of humor? Some people might that to be dishonoring God. In my days of youth I never thought of how God might express His humor. When we are young and naïve about philosophical and spiritual outlook we do not often consider this idea that God has a sense of humor.

One of the strangest examples of Bible humor, spanning three chapters is found in 1st Samuel 4–6; it involves the Philistines and an event that would cause them a serious pain in the rear! There are many examples of God's humor in the Bible, most of which are antidotal yet offer an important lesson in the Bible and you might be unaware of their existence. Humor is expressed far more often than you might realize.

The Philistines were a pagan, war-like people who inhabited the southwestern section of land God intended His people to possess -(Joshua 13:3). As Israel's longest and most implacable enemy, they regularly sought any opportunity to harass, oppress and dominate their territorially larger rival. To put in bluntly, the Philistines were simply not nice neighbors!

One day, during the time of Samuel the prophet, the Philistines carried out a bold incursion into Israel's land. They attacked God's people and won a decisive victory -(1st Samuel 4).

Baffled as to why they were beaten, Israel's elders make the hasty and foolish decision to bring the Ark of the Covenant onto the battlefield -(1st Samuel 4:3 - 5). The Ark, which contained the Ten Commandments written by God's finger, was a national religious treasure. Israel's hopes, however, of its mere presence insuring a victory were quickly dashed. The Philistines defeated them yet again and captured the cherished Ark.

Israelite hopes that the mere presence of the Ark would insure a military victory quickly fell apart. The Philistines soundly defeated them, yet again, and captured their symbol of God's covenant as a spoil of war. Israel's hated and feared enemy, however, would soon learn a quite painful (and to us, humorous) lesson that the Lord is second to none and can creatively punish those who disrespect him!

The Ark is taken to the Philistine city of Ashdod. It is soon laid in front of a large idol of Dagon, the people's primary deity, as a symbol that it was mightier than the Eternal -(1st Samuel 5). God, however, causes the statue of Dagon to fall down in each of the first two nights it is in the presence of the Ark. The second time the idol falls it breaks into several pieces (verses 2-4).

What proceeds next is perhaps the most humorous punishment in the Bible! Scripture states the Philistines were corrected with the following, “But the hand of the LORD was heavy upon them of Ashdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with (painful) emerods, even Ashdod and the coasts thereof.” -(1st Samuel 5:6). Other modern translations of the Bible translate the word as Hemorrhoids. Hemorrhoids are no laughing matter and I'm not making fun of God. Most people at one time or another have kept the familiar Preparations H© yellow and blue/green tube in their bathroom vanity cabinet.

Having captured the Ark in the battle of Aphek, the Philistines took it thirty-five miles south to the coastal city of Ashdod and placed it in the temple of Dagon. The next morning they found Dagon prostrate before the Ark. After restoration and the dawn of another day, Dagon had crashed ignominiously to the floor with his head and arms on the threshold of his temple, demonstrating the impotency of their god. The curious memory of this disaster seems to have long existed among priests and other idolaters in avoiding to step on the threshold as they entered to worship (cf. Zephaniah 1:9). When a plague of hemorrhoids erupted, they wisely concluded that the hand of Israel's God was upon them. After seeking the wisdom of “all the lords of the Philistines” they moved the Ark to the city of Gath.

Gath also was afflicted with the plague of tumors. When citizens young and old were thrown into a great panic, they sent the Ark of God to Ekron, some eleven miles northeast of Ashdod close to Israelite territory. The Ekronites were greatly alarmed. Fearing death if the Ark remained with them, they appealed to the Philistine rulers to send the Ark back to Israel. As the population was decimated, the pressure increased to remove the Ark from the city of Ekron.

The pain in their rears drives those in Ashdod to transfer the Ark to another Philistine city named Gath -(1st Samuel 5:8). When it arrives, all the people are made to suffer the same punishment as Ashdod! As one would imagine, it did not take long for this prized war trophy to be hurried out of Gath to yet another city (Ekron).

The curse of the pain in the rear, however, also strikes all those in Ekron. They, too, demand the Ark be taken away. The Philistine leadership finally comes to its senses and decides to send the Ark back to Israel -(1st Samuel 6).

Philistine priests advise their leaders to leave the Ark in Israelite territory with some rather unique offerings -(1st Samuel 6:2-5) to appease the One who gave them a pain in the rear. What were these special guilt offerings? They were five pieces of gold shaped like mice and five other offerings of gold shaped like the hemorrhoids that greatly inflicted them -(verses 4-5, 11)!

My favorite humor passages are found in the Psalms. “But the Lord laughs at the wicked, for He sees that His day is coming” -(Psalms 37:13). “He that sitteth in the heavens shall laugh: the Lord shall have them in derision.” -(Psalm 2:4). There’s not a single text in the New Testament that explicitly says Jesus laughed but we know that he experienced a full range of emotions, and yet it’s strange that nowhere does it tell us that he actually laughed. Jesus used a form of humor we call sarcasm. In his responses to Herod, for example, he called him a fox and made other statements that I think had a touch of Middle East humor to them. It’s purely speculative whether or not Jesus laughed, but I can’t imagine that He didn’t laugh for this reason: He was fully human, and He was perfect. We certainly wouldn’t attribute to Jesus any sinful emotions or forms of behavior, and it would seem to me the only reason to think He didn’t laugh would be if we first came to the conclusion that laughter is evil.

Although Nisan 17 has passed on the calendar, which has always been God’s Special Day, it did seem to be a potential time for the Rapture. In the larger picture of the last five segments of my Blessed Hope series, I did state that Prince Charles selected a date for his coronation that fell right smack in the middle of the Second Passover date of May 6th, 2023. If you don’t understand why that is significant, you need to review what I shared in Blessed Hope #149. Christians do not know much about the Second Passover and most don’t understand much about the First Passover either for that matter. Here is the link - The Blessed Hope, Part 149 .

It was these two passages above - Psalm 2:4 and Psalm 37:13 that seem to suggest that God has tarried in His plan to take back His rightful ownership of His Creation. In reflecting upon those two Psalms, there are hints of delay in bringing judgment upon this world. A month ago I was unable to retrieve my copy of ‘Hidden Prophecies in the Psalms’ by the late prophecy teacher J.R. Church. J.R. Church was one of the greatest teachers of Bible Prophecy, if not the “best”! J.R. reinvigorated my studies at a time when I was facing intense opposition by a pair of demonic evil Lesbians in the Western PA Conference of the United Methodist Church. J.R. Church went to his heavenly reward on March 22, 2011. His death and insights to Bible Prophecy are huge. In the fifteen years I viewed his program “Prophecy in the News” and subscribed to his magazine by the same name, I learned so much that has strengthened me in the years that followed.

I still have my complete set of J.R. Church’s magazine from 1989 until his death. I purchased all of his books and video teaching material. His book ‘Hidden Prophecies in the Psalms’ quoted on the cover Psalm 49:4 – “I will open my dark saying upon the harp,” J.R. Church believed that the book of Psalms in the Bible were prophetic chronological description of events for the 20th century going forward. In J.R.’s view, he saw each Psalm reflecting events relative to the Jewish people from 1900 A.D. and going forward into the future. In reading Psalms, we learned to look for key events of the Jewish nation as indicators of God working in and through the Nation of Israel. The Psalms are an amazing intertwining of past and future history. I contend that Bible Prophecy is better understood as History told in advance of its occurring! Think of Isaiah 46:10 – “Declaring the end from the beginning, and from ancient times the things that are not yet done, saying, My counsel shall stand, and I will do all my pleasure:”

Several months ago I had a chance to acquire another copy of his book for the cost of postage. My original copy resides in a RubberMaid container in the basement where I live but inaccessible because of being disabled and I have not been able to do steps since 2015.

With Prince Charles having set his coronation for May 6th, 2023 there were so many alarms going off in my head about its significance. I have mentioned some of those in the last four or five segments of the Blessed Hope series. From the Revelation 12 sign that occurred on September 23rd, 2017 to May 5th, 2023 are 2,050 days. Strong's Greek shows this number denoting the 'Abomination of Desolation'! That reference is like hitting an arrow with another arrow if you can get my drift here. The phrase “Abomination of Desolation” is found in Matthew 24:15 and Mark 13:14. The phrase was a warning to Jews by Jesus Christ Himself! He was saying that when you see this take place, get out of town; and take refuge in Petra. Jesus was referring back to a statement in the book of Daniel. Jesus Christ validated the prophet Daniel several times by what references Jesus said or stated in the book of Daniel.

Jesus spoke of a coming “abomination of desolation” in the Olivet Discourse as He referenced a future event mentioned in Daniel 9:27. In Matthew 24:15–16, Jesus says,

“And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate.”

An abomination is “something that causes disgust or hatred”; and desolation is “a state of complete emptiness or destruction.” Jesus warned that something (or someone) that people detested would stand in the temple someday. When that horror occurred, residents of Judea should seek cover without delay. Other translations speak of “the abomination that causes desolation” (NIV), “the sacrilegious object that causes desecration” (NLT), and “that ‘Horrible Thing’” (CEV). The Amplified Bible adds the note that the abomination of desolation is “the appalling sacrilege that astonishes and makes desolate.”

Jesus also referenced Daniel in His words in the Olivet Discourse. The prophet Daniel mentioned the abomination of desolation in three places: Daniel 9:27; 11:31; and 12:11.

“And arms shall stand on his part, and they shall pollute the sanctuary of strength, and shall take away the daily sacrifice, and they shall place the abomination that maketh desolate.” -(Daniel 11:31)

“And from the time that the daily sacrifice shall be taken away, and the abomination that maketh desolate set up, there shall be a thousand two hundred and ninety days.” -(Daniel 12:11)

Regardless of whether the abomination of desolation is a person or a thing, Daniel predicted the following:

1. A future ruler will make a treaty with the people of Israel.
2. The terms of this treaty will be for a “week”—which we take to be a period of seven years.
3. Midway through this time, the ruler will gather his troops and put an end to the sacrifices and offerings in the temple.
4. At that time the ruler will desecrate the temple, setting up some type of sacrilegious object.
5. The desecration of the temple will continue until the judgment of God is finally meted out on the ruler and his followers, 1,290 days (3½ years and 1 month) later.

Daniel’s prophecies about the abomination of desolation seemed to have at least a partial fulfillment in 167 B.C. when a Greek ruler by the name of Antiochus IV desecrated the temple in Jerusalem. Antiochus called himself “Epiphanies” (“illustrious one” or “god manifest”). He set up an altar to Zeus over the altar of burnt offering, and he sacrificed a pig on the altar. Antiochus went even further in his atrocities, slaughtering a great number of the Jews and selling others into slavery. And he issued decrees forbidding circumcision and requiring Jews to sacrifice to pagan gods and eat pork chops and bacon.

What Antiochus did certainly qualifies as an abomination, but it was not a complete fulfillment of Daniel’s prophecy. Antiochus Epiphanies did not enter a covenant with Israel for seven years, for one example. And in Matthew 24 Jesus, speaking some 200 years after Antiochus’s evil actions, spoke of Daniel’s prophecy as having a still future fulfillment. This point suggests or infers a dual prophecy in a future fulfillment.

As the disciples listened to Jesus Christ’s explanation of things to come for their city Jerusalem; and, their people the Jews: they must have been stunned by what Jesus described as a long, tortuous history for Jerusalem and the Jews. Filled with wars, conquests, persecutions, and globally felt disasters.

Note it was ongoing. Not simply “a war” but wars. Not “a rumor” but rumors. Jesus painted the picture of a long period of time. Then in verse 8, He said this is only the beginning. Basically, it seemed Jesus was a pessimist. He did not see things getting better and better. In other words, Jesus was not a post-millennialist. Jesus did not tell us things were going to get better and better, rather He said worse and worse!

Jesus says that the world to come after His death, burial and resurrection faced a barrage of false christs, false teachers, false messiahs, false prophets, interspersed with wars, rumors of wars, ethnic strife, and persecutions of God's people. That is history from Jesus Christ's perspective.

By the way, just what He said came true. The Temple was destroyed in 70 A.D. just as He said. History since 70 A.D. has been just what He said it would be. That is the introduction to Revelation 6-19. All the disasters mankind has ever faced roll on until the period when each type of disaster is magnified to the point everyone on earth feels the horror, not just a localized disaster as in the past.

History as taught by Jesus can be summarized as the period between His first and second coming will be nothing but relentless trouble that will eventually reach the point of never before seen disasters globally. Plus a background of religious deception that will also get more and more powerful until all but the elect are deceived. Note that theme is repeated four times: verses 4, 5, 11, 24.

In early March, 2023, prophecy teacher Amir Tsarfati wrote, "According to those who gather such statistics, of the 2.42 billion people who bear the label 'Christian' today, only 6.6% believe in the Rapture of the church." That statement is provocative at the very least and should cause you to ask, "Am I ready for the Rapture?" or "Will I be worthy of His Promise?" To answer those questions, it matters most if an individual is "in Christ!" The Apostle Paul used this phrase 224X ($7 \times 32 = 224$) in 224 verses of the New Testament! "7" being a signature number for God's authorship! The Apostle Paul used the phrase over 100X in his letters to Romans, 1 & 2 Corinthians, Galatians, and Ephesians.

As one who constantly writes and talks about the nearness of the Rapture, I am well aware that there is widespread unbelief, but it shocks me that only 6.6% of those that call themselves Christian believe in it (if the number is right). I do believe Amir is correct. Amir Tsarfati is a Messianic believer in Yeshua or Jesus Christ and has a solid understanding of the Bible, and particularly Bible prophecy concerning the Jews and the Nation of Israel.

This much I do know: Every jot and tittle of the Word will be fulfilled. And the Rapture is going to happen whether church members believe it or not, whether they are ready or not. We cannot know the day and hour, but we can know when it is getting close, and here is more information on recent events that seem to indicate that we are getting close.

Pre-Tribulation believers hold to the futurist view, which sees the "abomination of desolation" prophecy as still being future. In our view, Jesus was referring to the Antichrist who, in the end times, will establish a covenant with Israel for seven years and then break it by doing something similar to what Antiochus Epiphanies did in the temple. The sacrilegious object Jesus called “the abomination of desolation” could be the “image of the beast” that the Antichrist’s right-hand man, the false prophet, will order to be set up and worshiped -(Revelation 13:14). Of course, for Matthew 24:15 to be yet future, the temple in Jerusalem will have to be rebuilt before the tribulation begins. Israelis are anticipating this event with fervor you would not understand.

Those who are alive during the tribulation should be watchful and recognize that the breaking of the covenant with Israel and the “abomination of desolation” will herald the beginning of the worst 3½ years in history -(Matthew 24:21). “Be always on the watch, and pray that you may be able to escape all that is about to happen, and that you may be able to stand before the Son of Man” -(Luke 21:36).

Seven events will manifest and it would be a fair statement that they will occur in rapid succession. Since only 6.6% of Christians believe in the Pre-Tribulation Rapture, we can conclude several assumptions. One of these assumptions would be most Christians are not paying attention to world events and are expecting to be around for many years. They are not attentive to thinking about the person we refer to as Mr. “666” and are oblivious to what Mr. “666” is doing in the interim period leading up to his debut on the world stage. My observation is that much of the alleged Christian world is playing church rather than carrying out the mission of being the church. I’m cautious in my choice of words here but if I were wrong, then you would not see the flagrant surrender to embrace the LGBTQ agenda as normal, to capitulate to the trans-gender dysphoria, and all that is related to public schools teaching children that they can change their gender. This is insanity; it is child abuse and facilitates mental illness and is an invitation to the demonic realm coming into their lives.

As of 2015, all the major Protestant denominations surrendered to the U.S. Supreme Court ruling on June 26, 2015; where the Supreme Court ruled by a 5-to-4 vote on Friday that the Constitution guarantees a right to same-sex marriage. While it did not begin in 2015, the Supreme Court ruled a half century earlier on behalf of Abortion, and the banning of prayer in public schools, the pattern was set years ago that life is cheap.

The simple facts are declared in Scripture. Seven events will manifest and it would be a fair statement that they will occur in rapid succession.

1. The Rapture.
2. Some people that are left behind panic.
3. The Antichrist comes forth.
4. A covenant (or treaty) is confirmed by the Antichrist with Israel (and others).
Confirmation of this covenant begins the Tribulation. The Tribulation is normally considered to be seven years and is divided into two parts.
5. Russia, Iran and other nations invade Israel.
6. God defends Israel and destroys most of the invading force.
7. One-fourth of the world’s population die as a result of this war.

The presence of the church, or the presence of the Holy Spirit in the saints, appears to hold back the Antichrist from coming forth. The Word of God holds back the Antichrist from coming forth until the appointed time. It has become increasingly obvious that the demonic realm of Satan is waging war against the church. The massacre in Nashville, TN three weeks ago has many signs of Satanic demonic possessed powers identified in Ephesians 6:12. Jonathan Cahn posted a video this past week that reveals demonic forces at work in the trans-gender shooter link here: <https://youtu.be/TMhHlqfrrA>

You should watch it because the church has sanitized or intellectualized what we know about Satan in the Bible. The institutional church has white-washed and watered down the image of Satan and the Demonic being something akin to a harmless Leprechaun. It has errantly emasculated Satan and the demonic, ignored Paul's words of Ephesians 6:12; and even Jesus dealings with the demonic realm.

We are continually warned throughout Scripture to be wary of demonic forces attempting to corrupt and influence. While many of the demons we must look out for are external, the Bible also reminds us we may have demons living within our own psyche that need to be recognized and expelled. According to the Bible, demons are involved in multiple activities.

- They are organized under Satan in hierarchical levels known as rulers, authorities, powers, and spiritual forces of evil -(Ephesians 6:10-12).
- Demons have the ability to “demonize” people. This is what the Bible identifies as demon possessed although the exact phrase, “demonic possession,” is never actually used in Scripture. People can be demonized which is another term for demonic possession -(Luke 8:30).
- Many believe that about one-third of the angels joined in rebellion with Satan against God Almighty. These fallen angels are what the Bible refers to as demons. The Bible never says that the number was actually one-third. However, that number has been speculated by many for a variety of reasons -(Isaiah 14:12-15; and 2nd Peter 2:4-10).
- Demons are able to take shape, form and be visible to humans -(Job 4:15).
- Demons may be exercised, or driven out, from a possessed person. However, this may be dangerous if not followed by stringent cleaning and discipleship. Without proper spiritual care, the person might then be open for a seven-fold infestation -(Matthew 12:45).
- Demons confuse the truth by utilizing demonic lies and half-truths -(1st John 4:4).
- Those who worship idols and pagan gods are really worshipping and sacrificing to demons. Demons live to deceive people into worshipping themselves -(1st Corinthians 10:20-21).
- The Bible teaches that demons can inhabit animals -(Matthew 8:31).
- During the time of the great tribulation, demons, who since the fall, have been imprisoned in the lowest level of hell, are released to wreck incredible pain and torture upon those who are not Christians -(2nd Peter 2:4-5, Revelation 9:1-7).

- Demons will eventually be chained along with Satan in the lowest level of hell, often called the “Abyss”, where they will be tortured for eternity -(Revelation 20:10).

God has given us every tool necessary to stand against Satan and win. The best weapon we have in consistently defeating Satan is effective and constant discipleship. The Apostle Paul discussed “Putting on the full Armor of God” in Ephesians 6:14.

It is written, “Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him” (which is the Rapture). Note, the Rapture happens next, it is written, “And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time.” That which was holding back the Antichrist was Jesus Christ coming in the clouds and our gathering together unto Him -(2nd Thessalonians 2:1,6.)

“For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.” -(2nd Thessalonians 2:7). Ephesians 6:12 confirms the powers of lawlessness is at work or is already at work). Satan—with the principalities, powers, the rulers of the darkness of this world, and spiritual wickedness in high places - is the mysterious, hidden power behind wickedness or sin. He is already at work to accomplish his purpose: the revealing of the Antichrist and other related events. God’s Word has shown us the Rapture of the saints must occur, and then the Antichrist can be let loose (or come forth) and be revealed.

“What withholdeth” (or, “holds back”) is neuter gender. Many commentators (both ancient and modern) take this to refer to the Roman Empire. Some ancient writers took it to be the preaching of the apostles. But since Paul uses the neuter gender to refer to the Holy Spirit (because the word spirit is neuter), many scholars take it to infer that the power that holds back the revelation of the Antichrist is the Holy Spirit. In examining the structure of the Greek text in this verse, we are experiencing the power which holds the Wicked One back now, so that he will be revealed at the proper time, and not before. However, we can’t be dogmatic about the precise interpretation of the verse.

It seems to me that in spite of the writings and words of Monte Judah, Timothy Cohen, and their writings have received very little attention over the past 25-years within the larger Christian community. The fact that both individuals named are ethnic Jewish themselves, and that neither stress the writings of Paul are of any consequence or importance may explain spiritual indifference to the identity of the Antichrist.

You have to wonder what it is with such indifference to Timothy Cohen’s book ‘Antichrist and a Cup of Tea’ since the world seems to be oblivious to the Antichrist’s identity. Disbelief of the Bible certainly plays a major factor in this indifference. Prince Charles’ Sustainable Development, Agenda 21, Agenda 30, Net-Zero carbon foot print, ESG divestment, are all but the beginnings of what is yet to come of what will become a tyrannical dystopian world of insanity foisted upon an unsuspecting world by none other than the Antichrist himself, and the fact that he speaks to trees and flowers exemplifies his derangement as a loonie!

In the latest WEF announcement, the UK has banned wet clothes, i.e. "baby wipes". According to 'Water UK', wet wipes flushed down toilets cause 93% of sewer blockages - including so-called fatbergs - and cost around £100m a year to clear up. This is because the plastics don't break down, and over time the wipes stick together and prevent sewage from moving through pipes. This action seems to be a bit over the top in dealing with a problem that can be solved in other ways.

On April 12th, 2023 Klaus Schwab issued orders for nations to restrict water distribution to their citizens of the world. Almost every day a new draconian policy is announced and released as part of Mr. "666" eco-salvation of the planet! With each new proclamation coming forth from the Nazi Fascist Klaus Schwab, it becomes obvious he is a subordinate to Prince Charles of Wales. 'Time' magazine announced it had named Prince Charles to the "Time' 100" – this is 'Time' magazine's list of the 100 most influential people in the world! 'Time' knows the identity of Mr. "666"!

The Rapture happens. The saints go to be with Jesus; as it is written, "Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words." -(1st Thessalonians 4:16-18).

When the Rapture happens, there will be far less people (only 6.6% based upon what Amir Tsarfati has reported) taken than is generally believed. It will be as in the days of Noah and as in the days of Lot. The last church age, that of the Laodicean's, is a key reference for you in Revelation 3:16. "So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth." Nevertheless, even though the percentage of people that will be taken will be very small, still the number will be considerable. Most believe the bodies of the raptured people will disappear. There will be some "so-called" Christians - whose lamps went out - that will recognize the Rapture happened and that they were left behind- referenced in Matthew 25:8-11. They appear to be terrified and shocked. It can be expected that some will be screaming and crying. What lies ahead for the world is the most horrifying and disastrous time that the earth has ever experienced since man has existed. We can only speculate just how this will affect the world and what explanation will be given by the world's leaders and news media. It is undoubtedly true that most of the world will not believe such an event as the Rapture really happened.

It is at this point that I keep coming back too, over and over in my thoughts I had a few segments back, specifically since Prince Charles intentionally, methodically, chose the date of May 6th for his coronation. He could never reveal the true reason for choosing this date to his subjects of the Commonwealth. Place yourself in his shoes; you would maintain that secret to your last breath. It would be known only by Charles' closest occult Druid associates, members of the Knights of the Roundtable, the Order of the Garter Masonic Lodge and his most trusted advisers.

You can be 100% absolutely positive that Prince Charles' astrologers were studying his star charts and its relationship to the Second Passover event of 2023. Pesach Sheni 2023 / שני פסח 5783. The Second Passover is always one month after Passover Pesach Sheni for Hebrew Year 5783 begins at sundown on Thursday, May 4th, 2023 and ends at sundown on Friday, May 5th, 2023. In fact, there is also a Lunar Eclipse as well on this date. Biblically, the lunar eclipse is a sign of judgment. It is the day of the Lord. On this day, the sun will be turned to darkness, and the moon will be turned to blood. This reveals that God is coming to judge the world. An eclipse on Friday, May 5th, 2023 would be viewed as a very powerful date for those in the world of the occult, as is Prince Charles.

Several astrologers have drawn a number of indicators of what Prince Charles will be as King. King Charles III was born on November 14, 1948 right before the full moon in Taurus occurred at 9:14 p.m. in London, England.

The new king's "big three," or his Sun, Moon and rising signs, are all fixed signs. Charles' Sun is in Scorpio and his Moon is in Taurus, giving him a fair-minded persona, with the need to see the truth and to speak with honor. He has a Leo ascendant.

This level of fixed signs can denote a rigid and inflexible person. However, Charles' Scorpio Sun lends a transformative nature that can be evolutionarily with time. He's likely to want to grow and expand horizons throughout the years. Throughout his chart, we see a push and pull between tradition and modernization.

From introverted Virgo's to Leo's destined to rule, members of the British royal family are known to have sought out the advice of astrologers throughout history to consult their birth charts and interpret the heavens.

I'm not a believer in the astrology of the zodiac, but the Royals are and the interpretations of birth signs and pre-destined fortunes can make for interesting reading - particularly for those in the public eye. Astrology is nothing more than a perversion of Astronomy and the Hebrew word Mazzaroth of Job 38:32. The practice of astrology and charting of horoscopes has existed for millennia with many finding the practice noteworthy and of interest. However, 'Newsweek' does not equate the practice of astrology with hard science.

Astrologers have based the 12 signs of the zodiac on star constellations in the observed universe, with many believing these separate signs signify differing characteristics and those born under them take these on to varying degrees. The 12 star signs share their names with the Mazzaroth (zodiac) signs but are characteristically different depending on the movements of the sun.

Prince Charles Coronation will be on a Saturday [Hebrew Sabbath] May 6th, 2023. On page 15 & 16, I have provided the major historical events that occurred in the Jewish nation known as the Second Passover event period, from the month of Iyar 15th to Iyar 18th. Pay close attention to what I am about to say. For Prince Charles, aka, Mr. “666” to choose May 6th as his coronation date is tantamount to spiritually upstage Jesus as Lord of the Sabbath.

The phrase “the Lord of the Sabbath” is found in Matthew 12:8, Mark 2:28, and Luke 6:5. In all three instances Jesus is referring to Himself as the Lord of the Sabbath or, as Mark records it, “The Son of Man is Lord even of the Sabbath” -(Mark 2:28). In these verses, Jesus is proclaiming that He is the One who exercises authority even over the rules and regulations that govern the Sabbath day.

As such, Jesus was proclaiming to the world, especially to the legalistic Pharisees, that He was greater than the Law and above the laws of the Mosaic Covenant because, as God in flesh, He is the Author of those laws. Unable to keep the Law, however, the Pharisees had instituted a complex and confusing system of Sabbath laws of their own that was both oppressive and legalistic. They had set up strict laws regarding how to observe the Sabbath, which included 39 categories of forbidden activities. In essence, these religious leaders had made themselves lords of the Sabbath, thus making themselves lords over the people.

As Creator, Christ was the original Lord of the Sabbath -(John 1:3; Hebrews 1:10). He had the authority to overrule the Pharisees’ traditions and regulations because He had created the Sabbath—and the Creator is always greater than the creation. Furthermore, Jesus claimed the authority to correctly interpret the meaning of the Sabbath and all the laws pertaining to it. Because Jesus is Lord of the Sabbath, He is free to do on it and with it whatever He pleases.

As Lord of the Sabbath, Jesus had the right, power, and authority to dispense it in any way He pleased. The Lord of the Sabbath had come, and with His death and resurrection He became the fulfillment of our “Sabbath rest.” The salvation we have in Christ has made the old law of the Sabbath no longer needed or binding. When Jesus said, “The Sabbath was made for man, not man for the Sabbath” -(Mark 2:27), Jesus was attesting to the fact that, just as the Sabbath day was originally instituted to give man rest from his labors, so did He come to provide us rest from laboring to achieve our own salvation by our works. Because of His sacrifice on the cross, we can now forever cease laboring to attain God’s favor and rest in His mercy and grace.

Biblical Implications of May 6th, 2023

The First Passover occurs in the month of Nisan following the spring Equinox.
The Second Passover occurs in the month of Iyar, exactly 30 days later.

There are several examples of “Typology” or “Types” of Deliverance on this Appointed Time “Moed”

- The Flood began!
- God shut the door of Noah’s Ark and its “8” occupants were lifted up and delivered from the Flood!
- The Ark comes to rest on Mt. Ararat in Turkey.
- The Israelites begin their journey to the Promised Land after having crossed the Red Sea on dry land; their Exodus event became their “Departure!” “Harpazo” (Greek for Rapture!)
- Jesus as the Lamb of God became the sacrificial “Atonement” for sin.
- Jesus of Nazareth through His death, burial, and resurrection became Messiah and King for those who trust and believe in what God did.

Satan is the great counterfeiter of Jesus and His ministry on earth. Satan does not know everything as some might think. Had Satan known God’s larger plan he would have tried to prevent the crucifixion from taking place! If you take time to think about it Satan botched the job of bringing about a false Messiah or “Mr. 666” the Antichrist. We find that Satan has had to counterfeit Jesus in a number of ways. Since the Antichrist cannot create he has to counterfeit or recruit.

1. Unique Son, And Son of Destruction

The Lord Jesus is the unique Son of God.

“No one has ever seen God, but God the One and Only, who is at the Father’s side, He has made Him known” -(John 1:18).

In a sense, Satan has his son, the man of sin. He is called “the son of destruction.”

“Let no one in any way deceive you, for it will not come unless the apostasy comes first, and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the son of destruction” -(2nd Thessalonians 2:3).

Although not a literal physical offspring of Satan, this man of sin is the counterfeit of the Lord Jesus Christ.

2. Trinity

God is a Trinity - made up of God the Father, God the Son, and God the Holy Spirit. Satan has his own unholy trinity - himself, the beast, and the false prophet.

“And the Devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and sulfur, where are also the beast and the false prophet; and they shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever” -(Revelation 20:10).

3. Children

God has His own children - those who have put their total trust in Him.

“But as many as received Him, to them gave he the right to become children of God, even to them that believe on His name” -(John 1:12).

Satan has his own brand of children - those that practice evil.

“The field is the world, and the good seed are the children of the kingdom; the weeds are the children of the evil one” -(Matthew 13:38).

4. Apostles

Jesus chose twelve apostles to do His will.

“And He called unto Himself His twelve disciples, and gave them authority over unclean spirits, to cast them out, and to heal all manner of disease and all manner of sickness. Now the names of the twelve apostles are these” -(Matthew 10:1,2).

Satan has his own apostles.

“For such men are false apostles, deceitful workers, fashioning themselves into apostles of Christ” -(2nd Corinthians 11:13).

5. He Marks His Own

God will demonstrate His seal of ownership on His servants with a mark on their forehead. The Bible records an angel saying.

“Do not harm the land or the sea or the trees until we put a seal on the foreheads of the servants of our God” -(Revelation 7:3).

In the same manner, Satan will have a mark of ownership placed upon his followers.

“And he causes all, the small and the great, and the rich and the poor, and the free and the bond, that there be given them a mark on their right hand, or upon their forehead.” -(Revelation 13:16).

Summary

Satan, the great counterfeiter, has attempted to imitate Jesus Christ. He has done so by counterfeiting the Trinity, and the unique Father-Son relationship that God has. His followers, like God's, are called children. Satan has his own false apostles, and he marks his own with a symbol of ownership as the Lord has done. In so many ways, he has attempted to counterfeit the true character and works of God.

I hope this expanded information will enable you to see what has been going down while the media have been pumping up Prince Charles of Wales as King of the United Kingdom, which in itself is not such a huge stretch of the imagination as his coronation is laying the groundwork, publicity, for assuming the throne of the world. His “ceremonial” role as king of the UK will morph into that of becoming king of the world with “authority and power” to command your worship and obeisance as his subjects.

To have chosen this date of May 6th, 2023 for old “sausage fingers” is tantamount to Prince Charles telling the world I am your King and Messiah. I am Lord of the Sabbath! Most people you know, Christian or not, will one day soon be stunned to discover Prince Charles of Wales is the Biblical antithesis of God’s only Begotten Son! As proof of what I am saying, let me break the bad news that Prince Charles has planned for citizens of the UK and what will be spread to the entire world in his “Net Zero” utopian world in the New World Order:

Now, for clarification ‘Net Zero’ means total greenhouse gas emissions (including methane) must be less than their removals (such as from planting trees). The FIRES report instead focused on an absolute zero target because they recognize the absence of novel revolutionary scalable technologies for 1) capture and removal of these gases and 2) non-fossil fuel mass transportation and energy production. In other words, if you realistically want to achieve the Net Zero target by 2050 you essentially have to go for absolute zero.

My twitter thread highlighted the eye-watering points that the strategy required:

- All airports in the U.K. except Heathrow, Belfast and Glasgow to close by 2030.
- No flying at all by 2050.
- No new petrol or diesel cars by 2030.
- By 2050 road use restricted to 60% of today’s level.
- Food, heating and energy restricted to 60% of today’s level by 2050.
- Beef and lamb to be phased out by 2050.

I am saying here that, apart from the extreme limitations on personal freedom and travel, this means either a colder, hungrier population or massive depopulation.

Key historical events that occurred during the window of Iyar 15 through Iyar 18 provide typology patterns and themes that reveal subtle insights and meanings to forthcoming events. Note that these events took place over several thousand years floating against a Lunar calendar with 100% accuracy.

What does Daniel 9:27 and 2nd Thessalonians 2 tell us about the Antichrist?

Dr. Renald Showers says according to Daniel 9:27, we are told, “and he [referring to the Antichrist] shall confirm the covenant with many for one week” literally for one seven. A week of seven years to state it simply!

Now, there is an interesting implication of this. Many have thought that the event which will actually start the seven-year Tribulation period (Daniel's 70th week) will be the Rapture of the Church. That's not what the biblical text is saying. Instead, Daniel 9:27 is saying that the actual event which will officially begin that seven-year period of time will be the establishment of the seven-year covenant between Antichrist and the people of Israel in the Middle East.

Then we're told as we read on in verse 27, “and in the midst of the week,” literally in the middle of the week, in the middle of the seven. So it's talking here about what will happen in dead center of this seven-year period of time. After the first three and a half years of this period of time have transpired, in the middle of the week, “he (going back to Antichrist) shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease.” That implies that by this future period of seven-years Israel will have a new temple and they will have re-instituted the Old Testament sacrifices and offerings in that temple. What's being revealed to Daniel here is that in the middle of that 70th week of Daniel 9, the Antichrist will put a stop to the sacrifices and the offerings offered there in Israel's new temple.

In 2nd Thessalonians 2, the Apostle Paul describes this same man whom we have called the Antichrist as “the man of sin.” We read in 2nd Thessalonians 2:3, “Let no man deceive you by any means, for that day [the day of the Lord] shall not come except there come a falling away first and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, who opposes and exalts himself above all that is called God or that is worshipped so that he as God sits in the temple of God, showing himself that he is God.”

That is the abomination of desolation spoken of in Daniel 9:27 and so Daniel is told that right in the middle of this seven-year period of time the Antichrist will enter into this new temple of Israel in Jerusalem and will put a stop to their Old Testament sacrificial system that they've re-instituted.

The reason he does that is because he wants to clear the way for the worship of himself as God. And he will set himself up in that temple as the true and the living God make the bold claim that he is that, and then he will begin desolating the nation of Israel. The implication is, he will break his covenant with Israel and begin persecuting that nation worse than it's ever been persecuted in all of past history. From much of what I have shared about Prince Charles in past segments of the Blessed Hope series; "The Satanic Talmud and the Synagogue of Satan" painted a picture of a deeply insecure individual. As king of England, he is a "ceremonial" king with little power and no real authority. It hints of a power thirsty person who will never accept challenge to his will. Subordinates and world leaders cater to Charles because of their own insecurities as much as their desire to keep their own power by being associated with the implied power he projects in the world. I would call it a "House of Cards!"

As pictured in Daniel 7:8, 11-20, Antichrist will exalt himself above God, which is blasphemy. But he will not restrict himself to only reviling the true God; he will exalt himself above all gods. This pictures a situation similar to Revelation 17, when the Beast (representing the Antichrist) turns on the harlot (representing pagan religion) and destroys her in order to set himself up as God, to be worshiped alone. The sense is that the Antichrist will ridicule all known religion and proclaim something new, with himself at its head. Prince Charles Great Reset and Build Back Better slogans are exactly what this text alludes to!

This brings me back to my opening remarks about God having a sense of humor and as war, and rumors of war abound all over the planet, we might see God taking advantage of the upcoming coronation plans for May 6, 2023 for His own reasons. It occurred to me several months ago that there was something very suspicious about the selection of May 6th, 2023 for the coronation event of Prince Charles. This event will be the most viewed event of the century. The viewing of the coronation will surpass the audience of the World Cup in soccer. It had an estimated viewing audience of 5-billion worldwide.

The Coronation parade will have 10,000+ UK uniformed military personnel participating in full-dress uniform. There will be several thousand more military representatives from 30 Commonwealth nations as well. This has been suggested the largest military parade since the 1940s. Daniel 11:39 suggests that he will be able to take on the strongest opponents and win:

⁽³⁸⁾But in his estate shall he honour the God of forces: and a god whom his fathers knew not shall he honour with gold, and silver, and with precious stones, and pleasant things. ⁽³⁹⁾Thus shall he do in the most strong holds with a strange god, whom he shall acknowledge and increase with glory: and he shall cause them to rule over many, and shall divide the land for gain." -(Daniel 11:38-39).

I don't know of a single person that will not want to get a view of the Royal Gold Coach that will carry the Prince and his consort Camilla throughout the three day event. Apple© Siri News began its news coverage three weeks ago and day and night Siri News has story after story related to the upcoming coronation event. Whether it is problems between Prince William and Prince Harry; or the clothes of the grandchildren at Easter services; or the family feud issues; or the many relatives that will be invited to or left off the RSVP list; the media is all over the event like flies on the horse-droppings from the 8 horses pulling the Royal Gold Coach!

Getting to the point here I am saying that the Rapture could potentially occur on May 6th of 2023, or even a few days earlier. It might even be the “unknown” day of Matthew 24:36. “But of that day and hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels of heaven, but my Father only.” Matthew 24:22 states “And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect's sake those days shall be shortened.” Bible Prophecy is simply “History told in advance!”

The science of the day is such that humanity is being slowly radiated (poisoned) with 3G, 4G, and 5G. Wireless energy EMF/EMR are weapons platforms for beamed energy at (2.8-GHz at the 4G) or (8.4-GHz at 5G). Those who were vaxxed for Covid-19 over the past three years were really given graphene oxide to enable the human body to be conductive, i.e., made into an antenna receptor. At 24-GHz and higher everyone is dead! In the last two weeks I have posted expert testimony in several reports of graphene oxide being injected into the human population. Two of these very indicting reports that humanity is being stealthily murdered and can be accessed at the links below:

Ricardo Delgado - Graphene Turns Vaccinated into Conductors

BREAKING: Confidential Pfizer Documents Confirm Graphene Oxide In COVID Vaccines

There are 135,000 5G base stations deployed across the planet, with thousands of more to come on line over the next two years. If you want to see your exposure to wireless electricity; and how many cell towers and antenna locations nearest to you go to this link - <https://www.antennasearch.com>

When the link opens enter any address, including city and state. I live in a rural Kentucky county and within a 3-mile radius of my residence there are 11 cell towers and 52 antenna receivers. Two of those cell towers are within 2,000-feet of my small home office. I might add that all cell towers are able to be equipped for 3G, 4G, 5G, or 6G as upgrades occur. My former residence in Turtle Creek, Pennsylvania shows 64 cell towers and 378 antenna receivers within a 3-mile radius of my former residence.

I have been very much cognizant of the 5G exposure and how that it might relate to the Matthew 24:22 passage about God cutting short the days – “And except those days should be shortened, there should no flesh be saved: but for the elect’s sake those days shall be shortened.” Most of the population is oblivious to the harm of wireless energy and its EMF/EMR radiation poisoning. Many factors determine lethality of a cell tower antenna. If you are a skeptic of what I am saying, then ask any member of the Amish sect or Pennsylvania Dutch in the U.S. why is it that they do not get Covid!

Weeks ago I had our Wi-Fi converted back to hard-wired fiber-optics. When we experienced 70mph winds and tornado activity on March 2nd we were without power for most of five days. Within an hour of the power outage the Lymphedema pain in my legs disappeared. The day a utility crew from Louisiana arrived to replace the snapped off telephone poles and transformers my thoughts were mixed. About six pm the foreman gave the signal to turn on the power; and in less than an hour later my pain had returned as the “invisible” energy returned. By hard-wiring our residence, my pain has since been reduced by half, at least. I still am a victim of Wi-Fi radiation poisoning because of the two nearby cell towers.

But more important is that anyone that has been vaxxed has been injected with Graphene Oxide. The Covid-19 scare tactic was a scam to frighten people into voluntarily taking the DNA-changing nano-particles embedded into the poisoned shots sold to the public as being vaccines. Do you remember the words of Dr. Anthony Fauci: “The virus is a rogue novel virus!” Dr. Fauci lied but people died by following his recommended therapies! The two linked articles above prove the agenda was for the purpose to change people’s DNA, and to make them into antenna-receivers through the use of 5G wireless EMF/EMR energy control. The problem is Graphene Oxide and the body is not compatible. It’s like trying to mix oil and water, it can’t be done!

Dr. Robert Young has just released his new book, ‘TRUTH vs. DECEPTION - Liberty vs. Tyranny: Covid-19, Fact vs. Fiction’.

‘TRUTH vs. DECEPTION’ covers the “pandemic” from the planning stages in October of 2019, just “30 days before the first COVID-19 case was identified in China,” when Event 201, a “global pandemic exercise...was hosted in New York City...by the Johns Hopkins Center for Health Security in partnership with the World Economic Forum (WEF) and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation,” to Sam Smith and Kim Petra’s ritualistic Grammy Awards performance in early February 2023, and Rihanna’s sexually-charged halftime performance at Super Bowl LVII in Glendale, AZ a week later.

Those who submitted to taking the “bioweapon” have reduced their longevity with each shot and boosters. As of April 14, 2023, the following data is reported by the government health agencies. The so-called vaccines are proprietary property and no one can or will tell the public what all is included in the vials of chemicals. Yet the government can tell you how many have taken the shots and what quantity!

- ✓ At least 270,045,602 people or 81% of the population have received at least one dose.
- ✓ Overall, 230,418,632 people or 69% of the population are considered fully vaccinated.

The greatest risk for an early death is to those over the age of 60 and those under 6 years of age. This is due to existing comorbidity health issues which come with age and weaken the human body; and to small children who their growing bodies are still developing their immune systems. Once a person turns 60 their body starts to reduce the production of glutathione, an essential element for life. Each shot or booster can and will reduce your life by a minimum of 15% and as much as 30%. The point is this, people will unlikely live to connect their social security or pensions. “Isn’t that convenient since our government is saying social security will be bankrupt by 2034.”

The government and controlled-media is denying all this but we have evidence and honest medical and health professionals who collect and provide the data. Edward Dowd, a former BlackRock hedge fund manager documents the data in his book, ‘Cause Unknown’. Dr. Judy Mikovitz, a virologist who worked at Fort Detrick, MD from 1980 until 2001 states unequivocal that all viruses created since then were “bioweapons” intended to harm or kill. Dr. Judy Mikovitz is the author of several books, ‘Plague of Corruption’, ‘Ending Plague’, and ‘Plague’. I have read all three of Dr. Judy’s books, not to mention at least a dozen other books exposing these crimes against humanity. I have saved countless videos by other esteemed experts, whistle blowers, former employees, and attorneys. There is Dr. David L. Martin who has 4,000 pages of patents tracking the history of Coronaviruses since 1999 and the crimes conducted by the vaccine industry.

One such attorney is Todd Callender, who represents 400,000 military personnel in a law suit against the Pentagon. His sources revealed to him that pathogens in the Vaxxes are also in the annual Flu Shot required by every member of the U.S. military. The nano-particles inserted in the shots contain “kill shots” intended to be activated by remote 5G wireless energy, that will [when activated at a specific date and frequency] begin to boil and rupture, thus releasing other “bomblets” of HIV1, SARS2, Ebola, Marburg, E-coli, other pathogens created as “bioweapons”. According to attorney Todd Callender, these “bomblets” contain Cesium-137, that will be activated through 5G wireless energy beamed at a frequency of 18-GHz at 3 intervals of 1 minute each. In a previous article I did on the new 5G cell phones, I noted that a Cesium-137 microdot was installed for improved GPS locater accuracy. Cesium-137 is a radioactive isotope with a half-life of 30.7 years.

- The benefits of the Cesium-137 microdot isotope – 911 EMS calls improve accuracy of finding you in the event of an emergency increased from a distance of 200-meters down to 2-meters. That is huge if you live in an apartment building in densely populated real estate areas.
- The disadvantages of the Cesium-137 microdot isotope - a person will die from cancer in a matter of months. It will be a person’s last cell phone. Cesium-137 is used to maintain the accuracy of Atomic clocks around the world since the Gamma ray radiation discharge is exactly sixty cycles per minute.

In simple terms if you have a 5G cell phone, you are being radiated with a nuclear isotope Cesium-137 without protection or shielding in the doctor’s office for what is the equivalent of thousands of chest X-rays!

It's not likely that you would know this but Foxconn, the Chinese affiliated operation for Apple© in China producing their new 5G phones for sale around the world had major labor problems and resorted to lockdown of employees in the plants and their dorms. Employees were attempting to or escaping because of workers getting sick.

Apple© has since shifted some of its new 5G cell phone production to India at the end of 2022 and reported it lost over $2-billion in lost sales for last year's Christmas season retail business. The Foxconn plant in Zhengzhou, China was producing 100,000 cell phones a day until employees began to get sick and die; thus many leaving their jobs.

WHAT ARCHAEOLOGISTS WILL FIND 5,000 YEARS FROM NOW

During November of 2022, it was trying to recruit a couple hundred thousand new workers to work at its 14 plants in China.

As to my opening question about whether God has a sense of humor, it hints to me the potential possibility for the Rapture to occur on May 6th or even a few days ahead. I'd be happy for any day but think about how the Rapture of believers on the day of the coronation event would be received around the world as Prince Charles and his consort Camela ride around in that gold carriage. This would be poetic justice as they say to have all that pomp and pageantry fizzle like a wet M80 firecracker!

I can't imagine anything getting more attention than for God to upstage the nemesis of the Lord Jesus Christ. What better way to send a message to the world than that of the last trumpet call to "Come up hither!" happening on Saturday, May 6th, 2023 at 11am London time when the coronation is set to begin the three-day event at Westminster Abbey.

The British monarchy is never lacking in history and custom, and while it's been speculated that many of those traditions could be subject to change under the reign of King Charles III, one that will stay on is the use of the Sovereign's Scepters and Sovereign's Gold Orb during his coronation. Since then, plans for the much-anticipated Coronation weekend, code-named Operation Golden Orb, have been released.

The Sovereign's Gold Orb is a significant part of the traditional coronation regalia. The golden, jeweled ball, surmounted by a gem-encrusted cross, is designed as a symbol that the monarch's power is derived from God. With the Gold Orb it has astrological meanings as well.

Every ghost orb carries with it a specific meaning. While some critics say that these orbs are just a piece of dust or a fleck on the camera lens, spiritualists believe that they are a sign of spirits in the area. The gold orbs meaning shows what the spirits are trying to tell you. If you listen to what the spirits say, you can learn more about the higher plane of existence.

Gold Orbs Meaning

When you see a gold ghost orb, it almost always carries a positive meaning with it. This is the color of the angels, so it is unsurprising that it is the color chosen by beneficial spirits. While there are sometimes other meanings associated with the golden orb, there are two main interpretations that this color tends to carry with it.

1. Unconditional Love

Unconditional love is a truly rare thing to find in this life. Even the people who love you most can be pushed away by what you say or the mistakes that you make. When you see the gold ghost orb, it is a sign that you are loved. The spirit wants you to know that it is always there for you. It may be your guardian angel, a loved one who has passed on or merely a kind spirit. It may have noticed the struggles that you have gone through, and it wants you to know that you are not alone. Even when you feel like you are undeserving of love, the spirits and angels are there to love and support you unconditionally.

2. Angelic

Another common interpretation of the gold orbs meaning is the angels. Gold is known as an angelic color, so it is often the color used by angelic spirits. Your guardian angel may be trying to let you know that they are there. You are never alone, and your guardian angel is watching over you.

The masses fawn over the Royals virtually unaware of what evil awaits them once Prince Charles will bring as he takes on the mantle of being King of the United Kingdom and the Commonwealth of Nations.

As a result, when the church is raptured, or once “For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way.” the Antichrist can be revealed –(2nd Thessalonians 2:7). “And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of His mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of His coming:” –(2nd Thessalonians 2:8). Immediately, the Antichrist should come forth and be revealed to initiate his plan to dominate the world.

After the Rapture, the Antichrist comes forth. He goes forth to accomplish his mission. He goes forth conquering and to conquer. However, his coming forth would be many years into the future from Daniel’s time. As it is written, “And the vision of the evening and the morning which was told is true: wherefore shut thou up the vision; for it shall be for many days.” –(Daniel 8:26).

Since this has grown in length, I will revert to present a summary of what follows as Mr. “666” assumes his place on the world stage of the final seven years of history as we know it. Prince Charles is likely well aware that he only has a short time as years ago he believed his birth was for a specific purpose; and since 1992, at the Rio Summit, he has been called the “Savior of the World” no less!

(Summary)

- The Antichrist held back, because the church has not been raptured
- The Rapture comes
- The restraining power to hold back the Antichrist is removed
- He is revealed in his time- ref 2nd Thessalonians 2:6
- The Antichrist can come forth
- Then shall that wicked be revealed- ref 2nd Thessalonians 2:8
- The Antichrist comes forth
- He is revealed in his time- ref 2nd Thessalonians 2:6 (repeat)
- His coming forth would be many years into the future from Daniel’s time- ref Daniel 8:26
- Then shall that wicked be revealed- ref 2nd Thessalonians 2:8 (repeat)
- Antichrist shall come- ref 1st John 2:18
- A beast rises up out of the sea- ref Revelation 13:1
- A little horn came up- ref Daniel 7:8

- Another king shall rise after them- ref Daniel 7:24
- The man of sin revealed- ref 2nd Thessalonians 2:3
- He is the prince that shall come- ref Daniel 9:26
- He shall come in his own name- ref John 5:43
- Whose coming is after the working of Satan- ref 2nd Thessalonians 2:9
- A king shall stand up- ref Daniel 8:23
- He is the rider on a white horse- ref Revelation 6:2
- A crown is given unto him- Revelation 6:2
- He went forth- ref Revelation 6:2

Although this summary infers or suggests a long period of time, keep in mind we are on the threshold of Daniel's prophetic 70th Week, which is a period of "seven" years. Over the years I have attempted to compile a "short" list of key events and then expanded them by plugging in a number of references to become a much "longer" summary of events. Suffice to say, while "seven" years can either seem to be short or long depending where one sits in this panorama of End Times events. What I share next emphasizes and strengthens the case for the closeness of our Departure! This is huge relative to money and power!

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) has just unveiled a New Global Currency known as the "Universal Monetary Unit" that is supposed to revolutionize the world economy.

Any centralized and mutable CBDC will invariably fail by virtue of being programmable. Central planners will always ensure that they maintain full control of their currency, and this means that they will code it in such a manner that all kinds of social engineering parameters will be adjustable by them over time.

For example, if the sociopaths wanted to ensure a certain level of economic activity, then they would deploy a "Spend or Lose" SoR smart contract that would serve as a forced shelf life for a certain percentage of account holdings that one would be forced to spend, or lose a said percentage of wealth (ultimately in true techno-communist fashion all wealth belongs to the global State, and you will be happy and own nothing, not even your very own life). This is a Prince Charles theme pontificated by Klaus Schwab of the World Economic Forum

Any programmable CBDC is de facto easily exploitable by virtue of its "block chain" being anything but immutable. Hackers and governments going rogue against the One World Government and its singular currency will always be able to subvert "currencies" like the IMF's \ddot{U} . And \ddot{U} is simply the rebranding of the Phoenix into the Unicorn, or would that be a Uni-Phoenix hybrid?

But before humanity is forced to use the IMF's singular global SDR \ddot{U} , a PSYOP-MARKET-CRASH must be executed first. This is only a few months from taking place.

The only cryptos that offer freedom are those with immutable ledgers that are completely decentralized. That does not mean that there will not be much central planning pain inflicted on societies, but be certain that all of these technocratic power grab measures to control money and ultimately freedom via CBDCs and social credit score systems will invariably fail.

A new global currency just launched, yet 99 percent of the global population has not a clue what just happened. The “Universal Monetary Unit”, also known as “Unicoin”, is an “international central bank digital currency” that has been designed to work in conjunction with all existing national currencies. This should set off alarm bells for all of us, because the widespread adoption of a new “global currency” would be a giant step forward for the globalist agenda. The IMF did not create this new currency, but it was unveiled at a major IMF gathering earlier this week...

The 'Economist' magazine is a Rothschild publication and the cover of the magazine always broadcasts future events. It may be months, but usually such "in your face in plain sight" declarations are years in advance of their coming to fruition. Note the 'Unicorn' atop the Phoenix (a mythical creature that self-destructs every 500 years) on the cover below of the January 1988 cover. The burning of dollars is alluding to the destruction of the existing Petro-Dollar financial system.

The Phoenix Bird is one of the oldest occult symbols in the world, having been invented in the Egyptian Satanic Mysteries. Occultists believe that only one of these magnificent birds lives at any one time, and lives to be about 500 years old. Then, it self-immolates and its body is reduced to ashes; however, a new Phoenix Bird immediately arises out of these ashes, to live another 500 years. (Manly P. Hall, 'The Phoenix: An Illustrated Review of Occultism and Philosophy', as quoted by Dr. Burns, 'Masonic and Occult Symbols Illustrated', p. 121)

The Phoenix Bird is a symbol of Lucifer:

The Phoenix ... is believed to be a divine bird going back to Egypt ... This Phoenix destroys itself in flames and then rises from the ashes. Most occultists believe that the Phoenix is a symbol of Lucifer who was cast down in flames and who they think will one day rise triumphant. This, of course, also relates to the rising of Hiram Abiff, the Masonic 'christ'." (Bill Schnoebelen, quoted by Dr. C. Burns, "Masonic and Occult Symbols Illustrated", p. 123)

Need I remind you of what world leader has the Unicorn on his personal Coat of Arms? I will include it further down as a reminder of who we are talking about here.

Today, at the International Monetary Fund (IMF) Spring Meetings 2023, the Digital Currency Monetary Authority (DCMA) announced their official launch of an international central bank digital currency (CBDC) that strengthens the monetary sovereignty of participating central banks and complies with the recent crypto assets policy recommendations proposed by the IMF.

Universal Monetary Unit (UMU), symbolized as ANSI Character, Ü, is legally a money commodity, can transact in any legal tender settlement currency, and functions like a CBDC to enforce banking regulations and to protect the financial integrity of the international banking system.

As the press release quoted above indicates, this new "Universal Monetary Unit" was created by the Digital Currency Monetary Authority. These are code words for the House of Rothschild. Drill down deep enough and it will take you to the doors of the Rothschild's who own and control the Bank of England and Prince Charles of Wales!

The press release says that the organization consists of “sovereign states, central banks, commercial and retail banks, and other financial institutions”...

The DCMA is a world leader in the advocacy of digital currency and monetary policy innovations for governments and central banks. Membership within the DCMA consists of sovereign states, central banks, commercial and retail banks, and other financial institutions.

Basically, it sounds like a secretive cabal of international banks and national governments is conspiring to push this new currency down our throats. You can bet on that being the case!

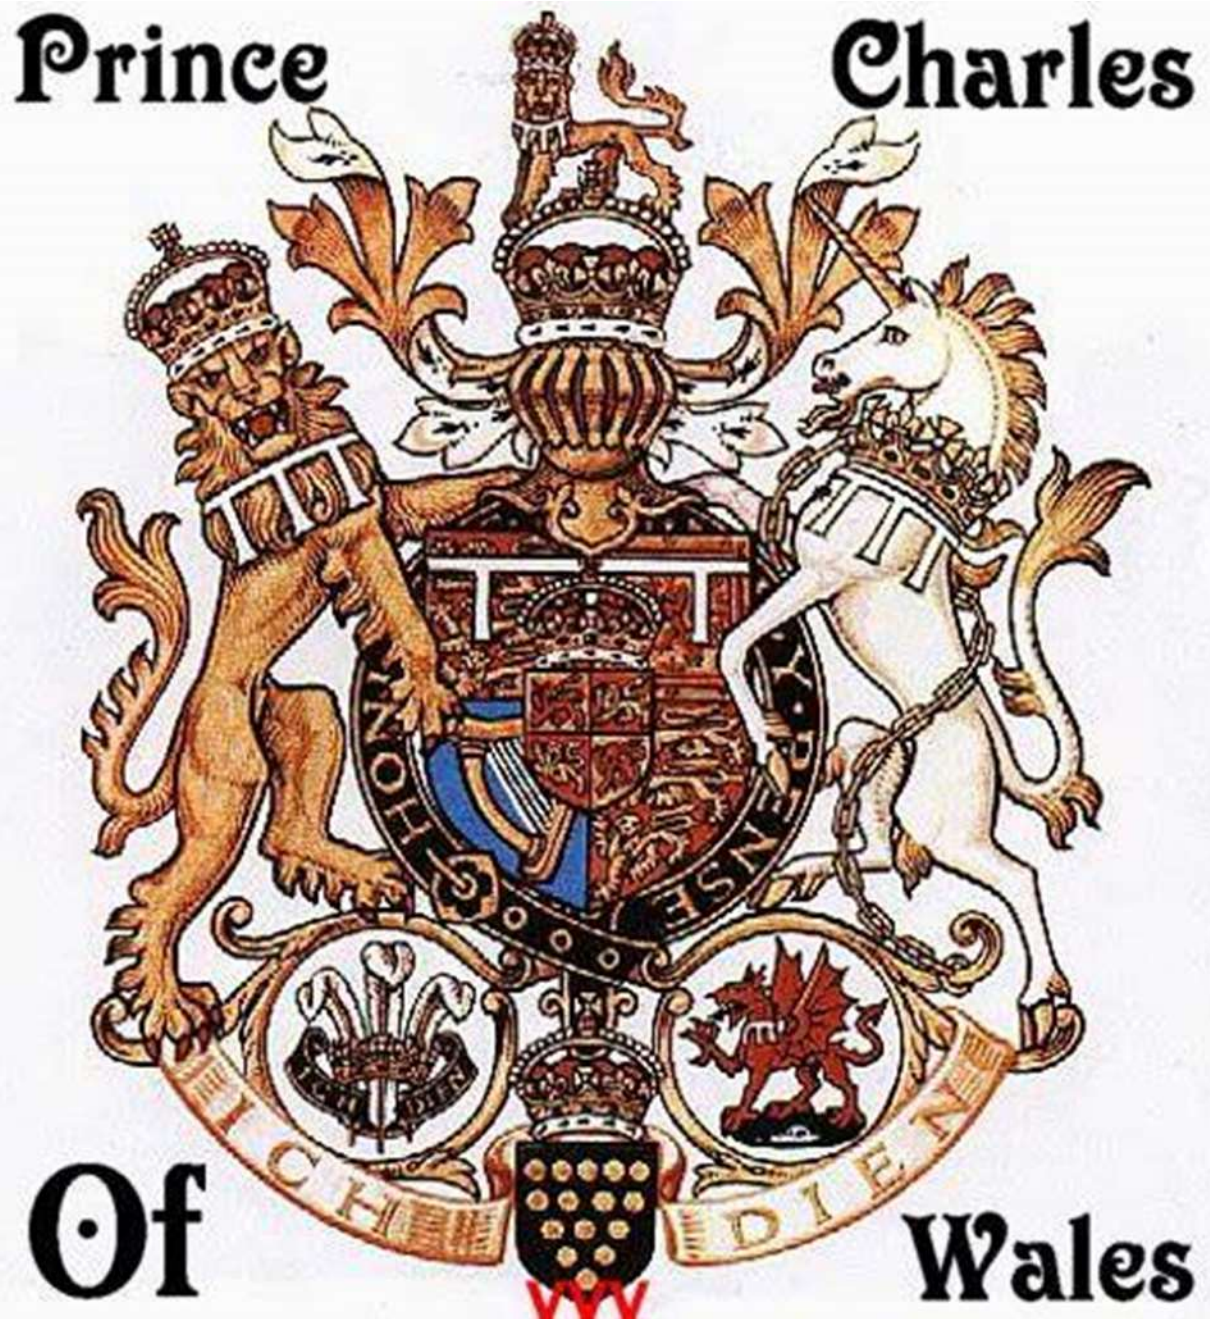

We are being told that the “Universal Monetary Unit” is “Crypto 2.0”, and those that created it are hoping that it will be widely adopted by “all constituencies in a global economy”... Truth be known they will have no choice in the matter!

The DCMA introduces Universal Monetary Unit as Crypto 2.0 because it innovates a new wave of cryptographic technologies for realizing a digital currency public monetary system with a widespread adoption framework encompassing use cases for all constituencies in a global economy.

Of course the Digital Currency Monetary Authority is not the only one that has been working on a new digital currency. The UK has also been working on one. The same is true for the European Union.

And it comes as no surprise that the Biden administration is touting the potential benefits of a “digital form of the U.S. dollar”? The following comes from the official White House website...

A United States central bank digital currency (CBDC) would be a digital form of the U.S. dollar. While the U.S. has not yet decided whether it will pursue a CBDC, the U.S. has been closely examining the implications of, and options for, issuing a CBDC. If the U.S. pursued a CBDC, there could be many possible benefits, such as facilitating efficient and low-cost transactions, fostering greater access to the financial system, boosting economic growth, and supporting the continued centrality of the U.S. within the international financial system.

As Jews will tell you there is no word for “coincidence” in Hebrew. I don’t think that it is a coincidence that governments all over the western world are simultaneously developing CBDCs. People behind it have encouraged it going back to the Libra being tested by the Greek government several years ago. By permitting individual nations to develop their own CBDCs, any bugs or problems can be tweaked and resolved when it comes to show time. My prediction is this is the leader of the pack and will be the choice.

And the IMF has actually already put together an extensive handbook “to assist central banks and governments throughout the world in their CBDC rollouts”...

The International Monetary Fund (IMF) is putting together a Central Bank Digital Currency (CBDC) handbook to assist central banks and governments throughout the world in their CBDC rollouts.

Published publicly on April 10, the “IMF Approach to Central Bank Digital Currency Capacity Development” report outlines the IMF’s multi-year strategy for aiding CBDC rollouts, including the development of a living “CBDC Handbook” for monetary authorities to follow.

A lot of people out there will cheer when these digital currencies are introduced. But it is imperative to understand that once everyone is using them, your financial privacy will be almost totally gone.

Authorities will be able to track virtually everything that you buy and sell, and I am sure that they won’t hesitate to use that information against you. Needless to say, the potential for tyranny in such a system is off the charts.

Can you imagine a world in which you are restricted from buying meat for a while because you have already used your “carbon credits” for the month?

Your “financial privileges” could potentially be restricted at any time at the whim of a government bureaucrat, and if you are a big enough troublemaker you could be “de-platformed” from the system permanently.

Of course in order for such a system to have real teeth, cash and other forms of payment will need to be phased from the global system, and that is precisely what is happening right now in Europe. The following comes from the official website of the European Parliament...

To restrict transactions in cash and crypto assets, MEPs want to cap payments that can be accepted by persons providing goods or services. They set limits up to €7000 for cash payments and €1000 for crypto-asset transfers, where the customer cannot be identified.

Ultimately, they will just keep lowering the limits until the use of cash is almost completely eliminated. When was it when you last saw a U.S. $1,000 bill, or better yet a $500 bill?

Everyone will be slowly but surely forced on to the new digital system, and it will be a system that they control with an iron fist.

And most people will willingly go along with it. These days, most people are just scraping by from month to month and one recent survey found that 70 percent of all Americans are “financially stressed” at this point...

Inflation, economic instability and a lack of savings have an increasing number of Americans feeling financially stressed.

Some 70% of Americans admit to being stressed about their personal finances these days and a majority — 52% — of U.S. adults said their financial stress has increased since before the Covid-19 pandemic began in March 2020, according to a new CNBC Your Money Financial Confidence Survey conducted in partnership with Momentive.

Most Americans simply do not care that these new digital currencies could open a door for unimaginable tyranny.

They just want to be able to pay the bills and take care of their families, and if our politicians tell them that this new system is good for the economy they will be all for it.

But those of us that are wide awake know that more globalism doesn't lead anywhere good. Concentrating even more power in the hands of the international elite is always a bad idea, and hopefully we can start to get more people to understand this.

They claim this platform will allow central banks to convert their own currencies into Unicorn for easier international trade, while also allowing more stability against price fluctuations.

So not only do we have a digital version of the Bank for International Settlements but we now have it endorsed by the IMF. That's a huge wow!

We may think we are digital today with our currency, we are not. We are electronic. We always need a middle man. Once there is full digital you don't need a middle man. You can actually use it like cash. Anyone who works at a bank today needs to update their resume and begin looking for a new job or new career!

Once this is in place and the globalized digital money system is married to the globalized digital ID system, which is being forged as we speak in accordance with centralized standards being set by the World Health Organization, then we have a truly global system of 24/7 control over all humanity.

Why? Because the technology associated with centralized digital currencies and centralized digital health passports is going to be far more efficient at controlling human behavior than fiat paper currencies and paper or plastic ID cards in people's wallets. The old system of paper IDs and paper money was sinister in itself. The underlying objective was for the state to mark you and track you. But the state used very crude tools and because of this one could still function, albeit in a diminished manner, outside the system, using cash to buy what you need. The advent of digital will take things to a whole new level in terms of the elites' ability to control our movements, our spending habits, everything.

God does have a sense of humor and I would not rule out the possibility that He would upstage Prince Charles coronation by Rapturing the Bible-believing Christians out of this world on Charles' "Big Day" of May 6th, 2023!

There are so many clues in this eternal war between the God of the Bible and the one who told us in Isaiah 14:12-14 what his plan was! We are at the threshold close of life as we have known it. The End of Days is on the door step of the world.
