

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #154

A spiritual watchman is someone who observes and warns the church of the states and changes of the spiritual realm. A watchman is equipped by God to see what others do not see and to hear the word of God for His people. A watchman also has a role in prayer and warfare against the enemy and in establishing the divine government of the church. A watchman may be a prophet or have a prophetic gift.

Ezekiel 33 opens with some vague references to upcoming danger, a watchman, and heeding the warnings of the lookout. Who is this watchman, we wonder? Could it be an anticipation of Jesus? Or perhaps John the Baptist who will herald the way for Jesus?

Maybe it's you and me. It could be all of the above, yet there is nothing to imply that Ezekiel might be God's lookout.

“So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.” - (Ezekiel 33:7).

God declares that He has indeed made Ezekiel the watchman. But since most prophecy—perhaps all biblical prophecy—carries multiple perspectives, one for them then and one for us now—the watchman could be any of these other possible options, in addition to Ezekiel.

The Two Duties of the Watchman

There are two key things to note about the watchman. First, his duty is to be on the lookout and sound the alarm. It doesn't matter if the people pay attention or not. Their outcome is on them. The key is that the person keeping watch alerts everyone when he sees danger.

The second key is if the watchman is negligent and fails to warn of the danger he sees. Then he must bear the burden of the deaths of all the people who he failed to warn. The people depended on the lookout to do his job and he failed them.

While we may never find ourselves perched in a tower scanning the horizon for an attacking army, our assignment may be looking for other things. Perhaps our job is one to protect, to watch for dangers be it physical, financial, emotional, or spiritual.

Maybe we are in a position of leadership, and those under our care expect us to stand guard to warn them of trouble. This may be for our family, our work, our community, or our church.

Be On the Lookout

We need to be on the lookout and warn people of impending danger. If we fail to sound the alarm, any harm that befalls them rests on us.

Being a watchman is serious business. After I finished Army basic training at Fort Knox, KY, I went to Fort Eustis, VA where I was supposed to attend the school for which I had enlisted but things changed. When I arrived at the post entrance gate on a rainy Sunday night, two guards checked my orders to verify my being there shortly after midnight. The Greyhound Bus driver dropped off another soldier beside me that boarded the bus operating between Richmond, VA to Norfolk, VA.

Busy military bases usually have MP's at access gates to check cars without vehicle military post tags or ID stickers. Fort Knox MP's also provide security at the Gold Bullion Depository nearby left of the entrance to the Fort Knox main gate. The post during daylight hours is an open access unless the security is heightened.

When I arrived at my new assignment in Bad Krueznach, Germany things were different when it came to security. A soldier picked me up at the Bahnhof (train station) in a jeep and brought me back to the kaserne, essentially a small military post which garrisoned different types of military units, from company size up to that of an entire division. During the Cold War era, three hundreds kasernes were scattered across West Germany and France. I was a member of a nuclear artillery battalion and the Des Gouttes Caserne where we were based was a mere 400' x 1,200' in real estate. At any given period there were stationed 650 to 800 troops. At the height of the Cold War the U.S. military had a half-million troops stationed in Europe, mostly in West Germany.

Since we were a nuclear weapons unit, security was a major high priority and so we had 24 guard towers and posts where a "watchman" guard had to maintain security. As such most of us would be required to walk "guard" duty about every fourth day. This meant as a watchman/guard you spent 2 hours on watch and 4 hours off in sequence for a twenty-four hour period. Being a nuclear artillery unit we were under observation of both East German and Soviet spies on a daily basis. As a watchman all guards on duty were fully armed and loaded for what could be our last day of life.

The watchman is to warn the people. Teachers of the Bible are watchmen. Ministers are watchmen. The saints are watchmen. A person watches for things they believe will or may happen. They believe these things will happen, because there is evidence of some kind. We watch, because the Bible tells us of certain events that will come to pass. It gives us certain things to watch for. We watch, because God commands us to do so. When certain events come to pass, we are to warn others of what is yet to come. We warn them to prepare themselves. We warn the people, so they may not perish. If they choose not to believe and heed the warning, their blood is upon themselves. But if we are unfaithful and do not warn the people, their blood is upon us as watchmen.

Often watchmen speak words of woe, lamentation, mourning as in Ezekiel 2:9 where Ezekiel is told by God to eat the Scroll. These words are for edification...edification builds, establishes, uplifts, enlightens, informs, instructs, Words of warning do bring instruction and enlightenment that relate to the moral and religious foundations of a nation!! Exhort is to urge strongly, give warning or advice, make urgent appeal. As sons & daughters of Issachar we are to carry the anointing of knowing the times and seasons, understanding the times of warnings, refreshing and times of restoration.

The word “watchman” “šāpā” is mentioned 19X times in 16 verses in the Old Testament; and only once in one translation in the New Testament. In the Old Testament historical books kings of nations and rulers of cities appointed watchmen to lookout for occurrences in the natural. In all forms of “watch” [watch, watching, watchful, watched, and watchman] the term is found 100X in 93 verses. With this many occurrences mostly in the New Testament it is at least an implied if not explicit message from the Lord Jesus Christ.

The Greek word for “watch” in these verses is “gregoreuo”, and it means “to be vigilant, wake, to be watchful.” A watchman on the wall does many things. He carefully watches what is happening and alerts the community when good ambassadors approach the city. The guardsman then will open the gates and lower the bridge so the ambassadors may enter. A watchman also warns the city far in advance when an enemy approaches. He sounds an alarm to awaken the people because he knows “to forewarn them is to alert and arm them.” Then they quickly can rally to take their stand on the wall against the enemy before he wrongfully tries to enter into the city.

Interestingly, it was Luke 12:37 where Jesus said: “Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.” This is a clear reference to the times of which He was speaking to the future Blessed Hope. Matthew 24:43 Jesus warned: “But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.” Jesus was sending a strong warning to anyone reading His Words here to be vigilant!

Take a look at the sampling of passages below and see if you don't agree we have been instructed to be awake, alert, and watching for our Saviour's Call home!

Ezekiel 3:17 - “Son of man, I have made thee a watchman unto the house of Israel: therefore hear the word at my mouth, and give them warning from me.”

Ezekiel 33:7 – “So thou, O son of man, I have set thee a watchman unto the house of Israel; therefore thou shalt hear the word at my mouth, and warn them from me.”

Matthew 24:42 – “Watch therefore: for ye know not what hour your Lord doth come.”

Matthew 25:13 – “Watch therefore, for ye know neither the day nor the hour wherein the Son of man cometh.”

Matthew 26:41 – “Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation: the spirit indeed is willing, but the flesh is weak.”

Mark 13:33-35 – “Take ye heed, watch and pray: for ye know not when the time is. For the Son of man is as a man taking a far journey, who left his house, and gave authority to his servants, and to every man his work, and commanded the porter to watch. Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh, at even, or at midnight, or at the cockcrowing, or in the morning:”

Mark 13:37 – “And what I say unto you I say unto all, Watch.”

Mark 14:38 – “Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation. The spirit truly is ready, but the flesh is weak.”

Luke 21:36 – “Watch ye therefore, and pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things that shall come to pass, and to stand before the Son of man.”

1st Thessalonians 5:6 – “Therefore let us not sleep, as do others; but let us watch and be sober.”

Revelation 3:3 – “Remember therefore how thou hast received and heard, and hold fast, and repent. If therefore thou shalt not watch, I will come on thee as a thief, and thou shalt not know what hour I will come upon thee.”

Matthew 24:43 – “But know this, that if the goodman of the house had known in what watch the thief would come, he would have watched, and would not have suffered his house to be broken up.”

Luke 12:39 – “And this know, that if the goodman of the house had known what hour the thief would come, he would have watched, and not have suffered his house to be broken through.”

Luke 12:37 – “Blessed are those servants, whom the lord when he cometh shall find watching: verily I say unto you, that he shall gird himself, and make them to sit down to meat, and will come forth and serve them.”

Luke 12:40 – “Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of man cometh at an hour when ye think not.”

Hebrews 9:28 – “So Christ was once offered to bear the sins of many; and unto them that look for Him shall He appear the second time without sin unto salvation.”

Paul writing in regards to a Rapture states in 1st Thessalonians 4:18 – “Wherefore comfort one another with these words.”

I am making a case here for the Rapture as much as Scripture itself make the case for watching for it. Over the years since 1998, I have watched Timothy Cohen, author of ‘The Antichrist and a Cup of Tea’ give presentations and he has rebuked the idea of the Rapture of Bible-believing Christians. A few days ago I heard Timothy Cohen do a presentation on the four horses of the Apocalypse. At the beginning of his presentation he dismissed the Rapture concept and errantly stated reasons to the affect for his belief. In the presentation he ignorantly revealed that he does not know as much about the Bible as he thought. He stated that he has had to change his thinking on many things regarding the Bible that he has since discovered since writing his first book. After viewing the recent presentation that I had a chance to view, it became obvious that Tim Cohen is not a Bible scholar like those he is so critical of. In essence, Tim Cohen is some ways a false teacher concerning the Bible on a number of things; however, I believe he is still correct about the identity of Mr. “666”. Tim expressed questions and was not sure whether we are in the Tribulation. I have never seen such equivocation before as I witnessed in his presentation that was relatively recent.

He left his audience with more questions than answers, which begs the question to what the Bible is saying to those of the End Times generation, “How can a person watch, if they cannot read and their pastor does not tell them these things?” Scripture notes many fulfilled prophecies that indicate the Tribulation is very close. The Tribulation is preceded by the Rapture. Jesus own words makes that point! What we have to remember is that the Antichrist, “Mr. 666” has a “shelf life”. Seven years to accomplish a lot is in many ways a very short time period to make war with Israel. So Prince Charles at 74 knows his days are “numbered” by the window of Psalms 90:10. It suggests his days are not going to be a cake walk!

Ezekiel 33:2-6 deals with the purpose of the Watchman – “²Son of man, speak to the children of thy people, and say unto them, When I bring the sword upon a land, if the people of the land take a man of their coasts, and set him for their watchman: ³If when he seeth the sword come upon the land, he blow the trumpet, and warn the people; ⁴Then whosoever heareth the sound of the trumpet, and taketh not warning; if the sword come, and take him away, his blood shall be upon his own head. ⁵He heard the sound of the trumpet, and took not warning; his blood shall be upon him. But he that taketh warning shall deliver his soul. ⁶But if the watchman see the sword come, and blow not the trumpet, and the people be not warned; if the sword come, and take any person from among them, he is taken away in his iniquity; but his blood will I require at the watchman's hand."

Most Bible prophecy scholars recognize that we are in the latter day generation (when speaking time wise) that will see the Rapture, the Tribulation, and the return of Jesus to this earth with power and great glory.

The sword shall come during the Tribulation. Nevertheless, God has made a way for His people to escape. It is called the Rapture. The people that God has called to be watchmen are themselves being warned by God to warn others of what is coming. They are being admonished to tell the people to watch and be ready. They need to tell the people what to watch for. They are being exhorted not to let their house be broken up. If they are faithful and obey God, then they are pure from the blood of all men - (ref. Acts 20:26,27). Rapture deniers simply have not read the Bible! They are morons!

However, when the Rapture comes, and the Tribulation follows, and Jesus returns, if the watchman did not warn the people, then the blood of those whom he should have warned that perished, God will require at the watchman's hand. To any teacher of the Bible or saint that God has called to be a watchman, woe to him, if he does not warn the people.

Some will not warn the people, because they fear what others will say about them. They fear certain people in their church, or denomination, or others. They do not want to be ridiculed and persecuted, or even fired from their position. Woe to the fearful and unbelieving, as they do not believe they will perish, even though, it is written, "But the fearful, and unbelieving ... shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone. -(Revelation 21:8)

As I noted in my last Blessed Hope #153, few people, in this latter day generation, are watching. Many know nothing about such events as the Rapture, the Tribulation, and the Second advent of Jesus. Many others deny there will be a Rapture. Many deny there will be a Tribulation. Many deny Jesus Christ will physically return to this earth. Others believe in these events, but make an excuse, such as, "No man knows." They make light of it and convince themselves that it is a long way off. Only a very few believe these things will come to pass shortly. Only a very few are watching and ready.

The following report was released on April 19, 2023 on Hal Turner World News site. The very headline should frighten the hell out of people but its significance will be missed or ignored.

Consumer Credit Drying-up -- Banks HALTING Auto Loans!!!

Over the past 10 days in Consumer Credit have been wild and the evidence is explicitly clear: Banks are now severely restricting Consumer Credit:

- Capital One shut off all dealer floorplans (aka inventory lines of credit).
- USA Auto Sales shut down 39 dealerships after losing its Ally Bank floor plan lines of credit.

— Wells Fargo laid-off all its junior Auto loan underwriters and capped future loans

This is VERY serious. This is real DOOM economically. Cars are one of the main pillars of the U.S. economy.

Repos are rising as people can't pay their high loan payments. In fact, the increase in car repos...300% since new year.

With banks cutting off auto credit, it isn't just car dealerships that will feel the pinch, manufacturers will too, of course. BUT . . . those manufacturers contract-out parts manufacturing to hundreds of smaller businesses nationwide.

All those smaller businesses will see orders dry up. The auto sales and manufacturing sector in the U.S. accounts for over 5 million employees.

The "ripple effect" of credit withdrawal will affect the much wider economy and will do so VERY FAST.

Elon Musk said in the last 48 hours that the U.S. debt default is a matter of time. The billionaire's warning comes as the White House and Republicans in Congress are at an impasse over raising the debt ceiling.

Tesla and Twitter chief executive Elon Musk, who has been calling for U.S. government spending reductions, said on Wednesday April 26th, 2023, that a debt default was just a question of time.

"Given Federal expenditures, it is a matter of when, not if, we default," Musk wrote responding to a Twitter post by the White House that the Republican plan may be to default on U.S. debt.

Earlier this week, U.S. House of Representatives Speaker Kevin McCarthy warned in a speech at the New York Stock Exchange that the U.S. debt is unsustainable and poses a threat to the nation. He said that Republicans would not allow the country to default on its debt, taking a jab at President Biden for refusing to negotiate on cost-cutting measures. McCarthy added that the House of Representatives would soon vote on a bill to raise the debt ceiling through 2023.

U.S. President Joe Biden urged the Republicans to first release their proposed budget, with the White House stressing it would not negotiate the debt ceiling until the GOP releases its counterproposal to the administration's budget plan, which was put out in March.

White House Press Secretary Karine Jean-Pierre alleged late last month that the Republicans were threatening to wreak havoc on U.S. economy, saying that it was time for the GOP to "stop playing games" and agree to pass a "clean" debt ceiling bill.

In January, the Treasury Department notified Congress of the start of “extraordinary measures” until June 5th in order to continue paying the government’s obligations as the U.S. has reached its $31.4 trillion debt limit. Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen then called on lawmakers to “act promptly” to increase borrowing limits in order to avoid a default.

I listened to an interview of Dr. Jim Willie today, April 19, 2023, back with his uncensored take on the economic calamity that is closing in on us. Jim says it will be “like Lehman times five.” His interview can be heard at the link here - <https://www.bitchute.com/video/1enMNU10604z/>. Jim Willie is publisher of the Golden Jackass letter. SOUND BIBLICAL REASONS SHOWING THE RAPTURE IS LOGICALLY PRIOR TO THE TRIBULATION

1. The saints are commanded to watch. They are not commanded to watch for the Tribulation, but for the blessed hope, which is the Rapture. Scriptures proving this have already been covered in the previous text. If the saints were to go through the Tribulation, it would contradict and nullify God’s Word.

2. Of the saints that get saved during the Tribulation, most will be greatly persecuted and killed. The few that survive will go into the Millennium to repopulate the earth. If the Rapture came after the Tribulation, there would be no saints to go into the Millennium. This would make the fulfillment of God's Word on this subject, impossible.

3. The judgment of the nations, mentioned in Matthew chapter 25, is held immediately after the Tribulation and Armageddon. If the Rapture had just happened, there would be no "sheep" at this judgment. As it is written, "And he shall set the sheep on his right hand, but the goats on the left." -(Matthew 25:33). The sheep are those that are saved. The goats are the unsaved. Again, God's Word could not be fulfilled, if the Rapture came after the Tribulation.

4. If the church were to go through the Tribulation, it would contradict many verses in the Bible. Most of the saints will be beheaded. The Bible clearly shows, the Antichrist will prevail against the saints. Anyone that claims the church will go through the Tribulation does not appear to understand what the Tribulation will really be like. Very few people will be left alive afterward. If Jesus did not come back exactly when He does, there should no flesh be left alive. The Scriptures on this were covered in the preceding text.

5. It is written, "Wherefore comfort one another with these words." -(1ST Thessalonians 4:18). If we were watching for the horrible Tribulation period, we would not be comforted. We would be terrified. This Scripture could not be fulfilled, if the saints were to go into the Tribulation period.

6. It is written, "And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh." (or your being caught up) - Luke 21:28. In Luke chapter 21, events of the Tribulation are described. Verse 28 shows that when these events begin to happen, after Israel's rebirth, then we are to know that the Rapture is about to happen. Note, it did not say, when they "have" happened, but when they "begin" to happen. They begin to happen as birth pangs of a woman about to give birth to a child. Again, if a person was going to go through the Tribulation, the wording of this verse would be inaccurate.

7. It is written, "Blessed is that servant, whom his lord when he cometh shall find so doing." (which denotes working for, or serving God) -(Luke 12:43). The Scriptures clearly show that during the Tribulation a time will come when the saints will not be able to work. As it is written, "I must work the works of him that sent me, while it is day: the night cometh, (which represents the Tribulation), when no man can work." - (John 9:4). This Scripture of the Lord appearing at the Rapture very clearly shows that it happens before the Tribulation. During the Tribulation, especially the second part, it will be nearly impossible to work; before the Rapture comes, the saints can be working. Verse 45 confirms it is the period prior to the Rapture when people are saying, "But and if that servant say in his heart, My lord delayeth his coming; and shall begin to beat the menservants and maidens, and to eat and drink, and to be drunken;" This same message is confirmed in Matthew 24:45-48.

8. The seven feasts of Israel give us God's timetable. These are covered in Leviticus chapter 23. In the Bible, the number seven is used to mean "completeness." It seems evident that all Bible doctrine and prophecy are founded on these feasts. They reveal the time for the fulfillment of Jesus Christ's crucifixion, His coming again, and the millennial Kingdom.

The following chart gives a brief example of what is being said. These events occurred on the exact dates that God had set over 1400 years before Jesus was born. Keep in mind that the Jewish day begins in the evening (at sundown), on the previous day. Feasts appear in the order that God gave them -(Leviticus 23).

1. Passover - Fourteenth day of the first month. Jesus was crucified. Jesus became our Passover (fulfilled).
2. Unleavened Bread - Fifteenth day of the first month. Jesus buried. The middle loaf of bread is hidden or buried (fulfilled).
3. Firstfruits Sunday - following Unleavened Bread. Jesus resurrected. He became the Firstfruits of them that died (fulfilled).
4. Pentecost - Also called Feast of Weeks in the Old Testament. Fiftieth day after Firstfruits. The Holy Spirit came in His fullness (fulfilled).
5. Trumpets - First day of the seventh month. The Rapture (not yet fulfilled). Next major event.
6. Atonement - Tenth day of the seventh month. Repentance of Israel. When they shall look upon Him, Whom they have pierced (not yet fulfilled).
7. Tabernacles - Fifteenth day of the seventh month. The coming state of rest. Jesus reigns on earth for one thousand years (not yet fulfilled).
8. It should be noted that these seven feasts were observed on specific days. When Jesus came the first time, He fulfilled the first three feasts on the precise days and in the same order that God had given them. The fourth feast was also fulfilled ten days after Jesus ascended into heaven, when He sent the Holy Spirit on Pentecost. The last three feasts are awaiting fulfillment and are associated with events surrounding His second coming.

Please note that when Jesus returns the second time, there are actually two phases to His coming: 1) before the Tribulation, He comes in the clouds to rapture the saints –ref. 1st Thessalonians 4:16,17; and 2) after the Tribulation, He physically returns to the earth, and every eye shall see Him –ref. Matthew 24:29,30; Zechariah 12:10. The next feast to be fulfilled is Trumpets; the next event to be fulfilled on God's prophetic timetable is the Rapture. In the wilderness account, there were two trumpets blown, the first one and the last one. The first trumpet was for the gathering or calling of the people; the second (or last) was for the people to move out.

“And the LORD spake unto Moses, saying, ²Make thee two trumpets of silver; of a whole piece shalt thou make them: that thou mayest use them for the calling of the assembly, and for the journeying of the camps. -(Numbers 10:1-2. Note, there are two trumpets.

There are two events in the Rapture. It is written, “For the Lord himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first:” The second event is, “Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.”-(1st Thessalonians 4:16,17).

It should also be noted that there is a cry made (a notification or to call aloud), alerting the virgins that the Bridegroom is coming; afterward, they “move out” or are taken –(ref Matthew 25:6).

Did God give us the day of the year, when the Rapture will happen, as He did for Jesus to be crucified, to be buried, to rise from the dead, and the coming of the fullness of the Holy Spirit? The answer is, clearly, yes.

This shows clearly that the Rapture does not happen after the Tribulation. The name of each feast gives us a clue to what the fulfillment of that feast would be.

The Feast of Passover was fulfilled on God’s exact date, when Jesus became our Passover Lamb. As it is written, “The next day John seeth Jesus coming unto him, and saith, Behold the Lamb of God, which taketh away the sin of the world.” - (John 1:29).

The Feast of Unleavened Bread was fulfilled, when Jesus (representing the middle loaf that is hidden) was buried on this exact date. Unleavened bread represents no sin. Jesus was called the Bread of life and was without sin. A shocking 60% of American Christians do not believe Jesus was sinless! That was reported by Barna Research this month of April 2023.

The Feast of Firstfruits was fulfilled on God’s exact date, when Jesus became the Firstfruits out of the grave. He rose from the dead.

The Feast of Pentecost was fulfilled on God’s exact date, when the Holy Spirit came in His fullness upon the chosen disciples. This marked the beginning of the summer wheat harvest; the firstfruits of the second harvest are offered at this feast.

The next feast is the Feast of Trumpets. The next major event to look for is the Rapture, which involves the blowing of trumpets.

God has set specific dates for certain events to happen to fulfill His Word.

9. In the book of Revelation, the church is mentioned many times. However, after Revelation 3:22, the words "church and churches" do not appear again as referring to a church present on the earth. The seven churches previous to chapter four represent "completeness." They are described as candlesticks. It is written, "The mystery of the seven stars which thou sawest in my right hand, and the seven golden candlesticks. The seven stars are the angels of the seven churches: and the seven candlesticks which thou sawest are the seven churches." -(Revelation 1:20). A bit further on in the book of Revelation, the events of the Tribulation begin to unfold, which clearly denote the church is gone.

10. The seven churches (which represent the entire church age) are covered in Revelation chapter 2 through chapter 3:22. The very next verses indicate the Rapture. As it is written, "After this (or after the seventh church) I looked, and, behold, a door was opened in heaven: and the first voice which I heard was as it were of a trumpet talking with me; which said, Come up hither, and I will shew thee things which must be hereafter." -(Revelation 4:1). (Hereafter, what?) What was the Bible just talking about? "the seven churches." After the seven churches comes the Rapture of the church. From this point on, no church is ever mentioned as being present on the earth during the Tribulation. The only thing mentioned is the "great harlot," which is an abomination before God and shall be destroyed sometime during the Tribulation.

11. The evangelizing of the earth during the Tribulation is clearly given to the 144,000 male, virgin Jewish saints from the twelve tribes of Israel -ref Revelation 7 and 14. These come forth during the first part of the Tribulation. They will preach the EVERLASTING GOSPEL and the GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM -ref Revelation 14:6 and Matthew 24:14. It is written, AND THIS GOSPEL OF THE KINGDOM SHALL BE PREACHED IN ALL THE WORLD FOR A WITNESS UNTO ALL NATIONS; AND THEN SHALL THE END COME. There is absolutely no mention of the church evangelizing the earth at all during the Tribulation. If the church were present, the Scriptures concerning the 144,000 would undoubtedly be incorrect.

12. Ten times in the Revelation the word "wrath" is mentioned as pertaining to the Tribulation. It is written, "wrath of the lamb" -Revelation 6:16; "the great day of His wrath is come" -Revelation 6:17; "and thy wrath is come" -Revelation 11:18; "The same shall drink of the wine of the wrath of God" -Revelation 14:10; "Of the wrath of God" -Revelation 14:19; "In them is filled up the wrath of God" -Revelation 15:1; "wrath of God" -Revelation 15:7; "pour out the vials of the wrath of god upon the earth" -Revelation 16:1; "fierceness of his wrath" -Revelation 16:19; "fierceness and wrath of almighty God" -Revelation 19:15.

Now, we read, "For God hath not appointed us to (the saints) to wrath" -1st Thessalonians 5:9. The verse concludes by saying, "but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ" These verses are unmistakably clear. If a person belongs to Jesus, they will not see the wrath of God. Many times in the Scriptures the term, "the wrath of God," is applied to the Tribulation.

It is written, "Even Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come" (which is the Tribulation) -1st Thessalonians 1:10. What is the "wrath to come?" The Bible has just told us ten times about the wrath of God in the Tribulation. It is also written, Therefore being justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ, much more the, being now justified by His blood, we shall be saved from the wrath through him" -(Romans 5:1,9). Further, it is written, "And he that believeth not the son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him" -John 3:36. The Scriptures are very clear. The Tribulation is a time of God's wrath. The saints will be delivered from the wrath to come. Even a little child should be able to understand this clearly.

Other biblical words that are associated with the Tribulation or Armageddon are: cruel, trouble, distress, wasteness, desolation, darkness, gloominess, clouds, thick darkness, blood, vengeance, destruction, fierce anger, fire, jealousy, revengeth, furious, arrows drunk with blood, sword, devour flesh, terrible, great distress, men's hearts failing them for fear, powers of heaven shall be shaken, wars, great earthquakes, famines, pestilences, and fearful signs. This is only a partial list.

13. In Luke 21:8-26, many of the verses are dealing with the Tribulation. Then Jesus gives us a command: "Pray always, that ye may be accounted worthy to escape all these things" -(Luke 21:36). We may ask, "Escape all what things?" The answer is, all those things that have been described, which includes the Tribulation. In other words, the saints are to pray that they are accounted worthy to escape the Tribulation by being raptured. The Rapture is covered in verse 28.

14. What a temptation it will be as the people come face to face with death or worshipping the image of the beast! What a temptation it will be to have a newborn baby starving in your arms, as you cannot buy or sell without the mark of the beast! Will a mother watch her baby slowly starve to death, or take the mark? Will a person stand by and watch as their loved ones are beheaded, and then themselves, or will they give in and worship the image? Most people will do nearly anything when their life is at stake. What a day of temptation it will be! The Bible calls the Tribulation, "The hour of temptation" -(Revelation 3:10). The Biden administration has recently signed into law the legislation that legalizes the Mark of the Beast.

Once Noah was safe, then the flood came. God waited until Noah and his family were able to escape the terrible judgment that was about to come upon the earth. It is written, "God waited in the days of Noah, while the ark was a preparing" -(1st Peter 3:20); "For if God ... spared not the old world, but saved Noah the eighth person" -(2nd Peter 2:4,5); "The Lord knoweth how to deliver the Godly out of temptation" -(2nd Peter 2:9). We may say, the Lord knows how to deliver the saints out of the Tribulation and its temptations.

15. The Tribulation is a great time of temptation. When a person prays the Lord's prayer, do they not pray the following?

"And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil" -(Matthew 6:13).

"And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil" -(Luke 11:4).

"Watch and pray, that ye enter not into temptation" -(Matthew 26:41).

"Watch ye and pray, lest ye enter into temptation" -(Mark 14:38).

"He said unto them, pray that ye enter not into temptation." -(Luke 22:40).

16. Again, the next verse is unmistakably clear. The saints that keep God's Word will absolutely, beyond any doubt, not go into the Tribulation. It is written, "Because thou hast kept the word." That bears repeating: "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience" (note the next words) "I also will." God is giving a promise that He will do something for those that have kept "His" Word. "I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation" (which is the Tribulation), "Which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth" -(Revelation 3:10. Again, even a little child can understand this.

17. The next verse also is extremely clear. If a person repents, they will not go into the Great Tribulation. If they do not repent, they will go into the Great Tribulation. It is written, "Behold, I will cast her ... and them ... into great tribulation, except they repent" -(Revelation 2:22). If you in any way tolerant or embracing the transgender dysphoria movement, the LGBTQ, other than binary or two genders, you will burn in hell unless you repent. -(ref. Jonathan Cahn's book 'The Return of the Gods'.)

18. It is written, "Haste thee, escape thither; for I cannot do anything til thou become thither" -(Genesis 19:22). The Lord is saying, I cannot do anything till the righteous are taken out of the way. Then the judgments shall come. "Then the Lord rained upon Sodom and upon Gomorrah brimstone and fire from the Lord out of heaven" -(Genesis 19:24). In the same manner, the Lord will rain His wrath upon the inhabitants of the earth during the Tribulation, after the righteous are removed by the Rapture.

19. It is written, "Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto Him (which is the Rapture). Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition, and now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time" -(2nd Thessalonians 2:1,3,6).

"And now ye know." The people are being told that they know something. That something is, "what withholdeth" (or what is restraining, or holding the Antichrist back). Paul had apparently clearly explained what it was that was withholding the Antichrist from coming forth.

Paul is assuring the people that the Antichrist is still being held back from being revealed until something happens. That something is very clearly stated. Verses one through three have shown us an order of events. First, there had to come a falling away. Religious deception was also alluded to. Second, the saints had to be gathered unto Jesus in the Rapture. Third, the Antichrist could then be revealed. From these words of God, the people could know what was holding back the Antichrist from coming forth. The falling away had to occur. Then the Rapture had to take place. Until the "catching away" of God's people comes, the Antichrist shall not be revealed, which is "seal one." Once the Antichrist is revealed, then the signing of the covenant with Israel can occur - ref Daniel 9:27. This begins the Tribulation.

"That he (the Antichrist) might be revealed in his (proper) time." There is a specific time for the Antichrist to be revealed. There is a specific time for the Rapture to happen. These Scriptures show very clearly that the Rapture must come first, and only then will the Antichrist be allowed to come forth and the Tribulation begins.

20. "For the mystery of Iniquity (or secret power of lawlessness) doth already work (or is already at work): only he who now letteth (or is restraining) will let, until he be taken out of the way (the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way). And then shall that wicked (or lawless one) be revealed" -(2nd Thessalonians 2:7,8.

The mysterious, hidden power that is behind wickedness or sin, and the planned coming forth of the Antichrist is already working to accomplish its purpose. Satan and his kingdom are already at work. They have had thousands of years to accomplish Lucifer's goals.

To paraphrase this verse, it is saying that someone ("he") is holding back, or restraining the Antichrist from being revealed, or from being let loose, or coming forth until that someone ("he") is taken out of the way or is removed.

The "he" in this verse is much debated among Bible scholars. God's Word has shown the Rapture of the saints must occur and then the Antichrist can be let loose or come forth and be revealed. Some may say the "he" represents the church. Others may say the "he" represents the Holy Spirit. Others may say the "he" represents the restraining power of the Holy Spirit that is in the believers. There are other opinions as well.

There is no question that the Holy Spirit will not leave the earth, because people cannot be saved apart from the Holy Spirit. Multitudes of people will be saved during the Tribulation, which follows the Antichrist coming forth. So it would appear that the "he" would represent the restraining power of the Holy Spirit that is in the believers. The Holy Spirit does appear to be holding back the Antichrist from being revealed; however, there is a day coming when it appears that He will let the Antichrist come forth. "He will be taken out of the way," perhaps, means that His restraining power will be taken out of the way. Thus, the Scriptures can be fulfilled.

As a result, when the church is raptured, immediately the Antichrist should come forth and be revealed, in order to initiate his plan to dominate the world. And then, once the saints have been raptured, shall that wicked one (or lawless one), which is the Antichrist, be revealed. The Antichrist will be allowed to come forth, be revealed, and confirm a covenant with Israel which begins the Tribulation. –(2nd Thessalonians 2:7,8; ref. Daniel 9:27).

Again, the Scriptures are showing us clearly, the Rapture comes before the Antichrist is revealed and before the Tribulation.

21. As we have noted, the dead in Christ rise first, then we which are alive and remain shall join them in the air. Since the Scriptures show us that the resurrection happens prior to the Tribulation, then we have absolute proof that the Rapture, which immediately follows, also has to happen before the Tribulation.

Isaiah 26:19-21 shows very clearly, the dead (in Christ) shall live "before" the Lord comes to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their iniquity, which is the Tribulation. It is written, "Thy dead men shall live, together with my dead body shall they arise. Awake and sing, ye that dwell in dust: for thy dew is as the dew of herbs, and the earth shall cast out the dead. Come, my people, enter thou into thy chambers, and shut thy doors about thee: hide thyself as it were for a little moment, until the indignation (which is the Tribulation) be overpast. For, behold the LORD cometh out of His place to punish the inhabitants of the earth for their."

In this textual analysis we have twenty-one reasons that Scripturally show the Rapture will come prior to the Tribulation. Some of these have also shown that the Rapture must come before the Antichrist can be revealed.

22. The following Scriptures portray the raptured saints before the throne of God prior to the first seal of the Revelation being opened. This, again, clearly shows the Rapture comes before the Tribulation. It is written, "And they sung a new song, saying, Thou art worthy to take the book (or scroll), and to open (or break) the seals thereof: for Thou wast slain (or slaughtered), and hast redeemed (or ransomed, or purchased) us to (or for) God by thy blood out of every kindred (or tribe), and tongue (or language), and people, and nation; and hast made us our GOD kings (or a kingdom) and priests (to serve our God): and we shall reign on (or rule over) the earth. and I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels round about the throne (or they encircled the throne) and the beasts (or living beings) and the elders: and the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands." –(Revelation 5:9-11).

"And they sung a new song. The four living beings and the elders appear to be singing. Saying, thou art worthy to take the book (or scroll), and to open (or break) the seals thereof." In this passage, taking the scroll and breaking the seals is mentioned. Opening the scroll is not mentioned at this point. "for thou wast slain (or slaughtered). Jesus was worthy, because He was slain and has redeemed (or purchased, or ransomed) us (the saints). As it is written, and hast redeemed (or ransomed, or purchased) us." Here are the saints (US) pictured before the throne of God before the first seal is ever opened. Here are the saints that have just been raptured (US). We are redeemed to (or for) God by thy blood. Angels are not ransomed by the blood of the Lamb. We (the saints) are. Where do we (the saints) come from? We come out of every kindred (or tribe), and tongue (or language), and people, and nation. It is impossible for these to be angels, as the angels do not come from every kindred, and tongue, and people, and nation. John heard the voice, “Come up hither” –(Revelation 4:1, which is symbolic of the Rapture. The church age is over. Now, John is relating what he is seeing. John sees "us." As it is written, Revelation 5:10 “And hast made us.” Here is the second time this word is used. That word means exactly what it says, "US."

Now combine this with the words of Revelation 3:10 “Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation (which is the Tribulation), which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.” Here is clear, unmistakable proof that the saints will not go into the Tribulation. They shall be raptured and shall be before the throne of God prior to the first seal being opened. Thus, it is written, and thus, it shall be. The question is, how many are really ready? If Jesus came today, would "you" be taken?

The verse continues, and has made “Us unto our GOD kings and priests” (to serve our God). We are a kingdom unto God and shall be kings and priests and we shall reign (or rule over) the earth. There are those that may say, this verse does not mean exactly what it says. The singing in the verse now turns to the future and shows that we (the saints) shall reign on the earth. This is describing the millennial reign of Jesus Christ, as we shall reign and rule with Jesus for one thousand years. Here the word "we" is used as referring to the "saints." Here again, "we" (the saints) are pictured before the throne of God prior to the first seal ever being opened.

“And I beheld, and I heard the voice of many angels. The voices now include the angels, which were round about the throne (they encircled the throne) and the beasts (or living beings) and the elders.” –(Revelation 5:11).

The question arises, are these angels, or are they the saints that are now called angels? The singing that has just been going on used such words as, “redeemed us, made us, and we shall.” If these words were correctly translated by the direction of the Holy Spirit, then the angels before the throne appear to be the saints. Consider the following: “I John...fell down to worship before the feet of the angel which shewed me these things. The feet of the angel which shewed me these things. Then saith he unto me, see thou do it not. For I am they fellow servant, and of thy brethren the prophets.” –(Revelation 22:8,9). This same John, that used the word "angels" in Revelation 5:11, thought this person was also an angel, yet he was not. He was a saint that had been redeemed by the blood of Jesus. We might ask, how can this be? Note the words of Jesus. “For in the resurrection they neither marry, nor are given in marriage, but are as the angels of God in heaven.”–(Matthew 22:30). The saints become as the angels.

John “Fell at His feet to worship (what seemingly appeared to be an angel). And he said unto me, see thou do it not: I am thy fellow servant, and of thy brethren that have the testimony of Jesus.” –(Revelation 19:10. Again, we note that once we are in heaven, Jesus said we are “AS THE ANGELS OF GOD.” However, the true angels of God are not redeemed.

Considering the Scriptures and what was being said, it appears the multitude of angels before the throne are the saints that were redeemed.

“And the number of them was ten thousand times ten thousand, and thousands of thousands.” This totals to one hundred million, and thousands of thousands. While this seems like a very large number, "if" this represents the resurrected and raptured saints for all times, then the percentage of people that are redeemed, throughout all of history, is extremely small. Jesus did say, “Few that there be that find it” –(Matthew 7:14). Some might say that this number simply represents an infinite number which no man can know. Nevertheless, if the number is taken as it is written in the KJV, then it appears to be as previously stated.

There is no Scripture that clearly tells us what will happen to the bodies of the raptured people. The Scriptures have shown us clearly that we will be changed. It is written, “We shall be changed, for this corruptible must put on incorruption, and this mortal must put on immortality.” –(1st Corinthians 15:52,53; (because) flesh and blood cannot inherit the kingdom of God; neither doth corruption inherit incorruption.” - (1st Corinthians 15:50). “For we know that if our earthly house of this tabernacle were dissolved, we have a building of God, an house not made with hands, eternal in the heavens.” -2nd Corinthians 5:1).

“There is a natural body, and there is a spiritual body.” - (1st Corinthians 15:44). The Scriptures show us that there are two bodies. Our earthly body is of flesh, blood, and bone. Our heavenly body is of flesh and bone -ref(Luke 24:39). “And that which thou sowest, thou sowest not that bone that shall be but bare grain, it may chance of wheat, or of some other grain: but God giveth it a body as it hath pleased him, and to every seed his own body.” –(1st Corinthians 15:37,38). Again, two bodies are mentioned.

Most people and prophecy scholars alike believe that when the Rapture comes, our old body will simply be changed into our new body. Thus, there will be no bodies left. In other words, when the Rapture comes, the people that are raptured will simply disappear.

There is a second opinion also. The second idea is, when the Rapture comes our old body will be put off and we will put on our new heavenly body. Our old body will be left lying wherever we are when the Rapture comes, as if we had just died. It is written, “Two men shall be in the field; the one shall be taken, and the other let. And they answered and said unto him, where, LORD? And he said unto them, wheresoever the body is, thither will the eagles (or vultures) be gathered Together.” –(Luke 17:36, 37). The Lord seems to be showing that following the Rapture, "Where there is a dead body, there the vultures will gather." There are also other opinions on the meaning of these verses.

It is written, "My Brethren, be not many masters, knowing that we shall receive the greater condemnation." -James 3:1. This is a warning. Be not many "teachers," knowing that the teachers of the Bible shall receive the greater condemnation. This alludes to God's judgment will begin at the doorsteps of the church. Simple logic would tell you that those who are shepherds, trained, educated, committed would be held accountable as "Watchmen" they are called to wake and warn the sheep, congregation.

There are some teachers of the Bible in this lukewarm generation that are falsely teaching that the Rapture will come during, at the end, or after the Tribulation. The Scriptures have shown, beyond any doubt, that this teaching is false. It nullifies God's Word. It throws people into confusion. It teaches a form of rebellion against some of God's commands, e.g., we are to watch, to look for the blessed hope, to be ready, and many others. It makes the fulfillment of many Bible verses impossible, such as, who will repopulate the earth during the Millennium, and the return of the saints with Jesus at Armageddon, just to mention two. It would seem to nullify the Jewish marriage customs and the seven feasts. It teaches a theory totally out of context with many prophetic Scriptures. Those who teach something other than the Rapture occurring prior to the Tribulation are teaching doctrine that is inconsistent with sound biblical truth.

Since the days of Paul, the Rapture has always been viewed as an event that could happen at any time. The saints were admonished to watch and be ready, for the imminent return of Jesus Christ could happen at any time. No event was to precede it, such as the Tribulation.

However, certain parts of the book of Daniel that were closed, until the time of the end, have been opened and are now understood. Other prophecies are also understood. These include Israel's rebirth, a great military power existing in the land of Magog, and the European Union (also called the revived Roman Empire). These and other prophecies that have been fulfilled all indicate the Tribulation is very close. The Tribulation is preceded by the Rapture.

In 2nd Thessalonians 2:2, it is written, "Be not soon shaken (or unsettled) in mind (or in your thinking), or be troubled (or alarmed)...as that the day of Christ is at hand." (or has already come). The saints were alarmed and troubled in their minds. Because of false teaching, they may have thought they were in the Tribulation. Perhaps from Paul's teaching, the Old Testament, and Matthew, Mark, and Luke's writings, they understood how awful the Tribulation would be.

It is hoped that people might be able to understand that the Tribulation will be the most horrifying, the most terrifying time that has ever been on this earth since the Creation. There will be earthquakes, famines, diseases, sores, pain, fear, droughts, wars, panic, death, and other things of a magnitude that is beyond description. Billions of people will die. Multitudes of people that get saved during the Tribulation can expect to be severely persecuted, brutally beaten, and killed. It will be so bad, that had Jesus not returned at the time He does, no flesh on earth would be left alive.

As has already been stated, any person that has the deceived notion that the church will go through the Tribulation appears to be ignorant of what the Tribulation will be like.

Through faith in Jesus Christ, the true saints will be raptured prior to the Tribulation. Beware. Let no man deceive you. This is the age of lukewarmness and religious deception. It is written, “He that believeth not shall be damned” –(Mark 16:16). Know that Jesus “Became the author of eternal salvation unto all them that obey Him.” –(Hebrews 5:9).

It is unmistakably clear that the church will be taken in the Rapture prior to the Tribulation, as proven by the numerous Scriptures that have already been presented. “Wherefore comfort one another with these words.” –(1st Thessalonians 4:18).

It is lastly noted that the birth of Christ was not first announced to the great men of the earth or to the religious leaders in Jerusalem, but to humble shepherds. -ref Luke 2:8-12. It is much the same today. The coming of Jesus to remove His people from the earth, before the Antichrist comes forth and the Tribulation begins, is not understood by what the world considers to be the great men or the so-called religious leaders of the earth, but to the humble people, the servants of God that have placed their faith and trust in the Jesus of the Bible as their only hope.

Since October 31, 2019, I have written around 200 articles exposing the scam that came out of the 1992 UN Climate Summit Agenda 21 in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil in which the 194 countries pledged to reduce their national populations without stating how each country would achieve their pledged reductions. It was on October 31, 2019 when China activated its 5G “smart cities” activating the 5G technologies. When you include my articles on 5G wireless EMF/EMR radiation poisoning, the total totals more than 400 articles.

As a “Watchman” I have been warning readers of what was coming in parallel fashion as the science, data, medical, and reports were being posted from around the world. Hundreds of experts in their own area have been posted around the world.

Although the material evidence has come in patchwork form as each day brought new information, evidence, and true scientific data, I believe that we know what the global elite have been planning and perfecting their agenda going back to 1967.

It seems to me that in spite of the writings and words of Monte Judah, Timothy Cohen, and their writings have received very little attention over the past 25-years within the larger Christian community. The fact that both individuals named are ethnic Jewish themselves, and that neither stress the writings of Paul are of any consequence or importance may explain spiritual indifference to the identity of the Antichrist.

You have to wonder what it is with such indifference to Timothy Cohen's book 'Antichrist and a Cup of Tea' since the world seems to be oblivious to the Antichrist's identity. Disbelief of the Bible certainly plays a major factor in this indifference. As noted in a previous segment as few as 6.6% in the church believe in a literal Rapture of the Church. That shocking point can then explain why it is that few are thinking about Prince Charles' agenda of Sustainable Development, Agenda 21, Agenda 30, Net-Zero carbon foot print, ESG divestment, are all but the beginnings of what is yet to come of what will become a tyrannical dystopian world of insanity foisted upon an unsuspecting world by none other than the Antichrist himself, and the fact that he speaks to trees and flowers exemplifies his derangement as a loonie!

In the latest WEF announcement, the UK has banned wet clothes, i.e. "baby wipes". According to 'Water UK', wet wipes flushed down toilets cause 93% of sewer blockages - including so-called fatbergs - and cost around £100m a year to clear up. This is because the plastics don't break down, and over time the wipes stick together and prevent sewage from moving through pipes. This action seems to be a bit over the top in dealing with a problem that can be solved in other ways.

On April 12th, 2023 Klaus Schwab issued orders for nations to restrict water distribution to their citizens of the world. Almost every day a new draconian policy is announced and released as part of Mr. "666" eco-salvation of the planet! With each new proclamation coming forth from the Nazi Fascist Klaus Schwab, it becomes obvious he is a subordinate to Prince Charles of Wales. 'Time' magazine announced it had named Prince Charles to the "Time*' 100" – this is 'Time' magazine's list of the 100 most influential people in the world! 'Time' knows the identity of Mr. "666"! A few days ago, Klaus Schwab announced that people will have to give up meat and dairy, a clear reference to being vegetarian. Prince Charles uses front men to do his dirty work of delivering his draconian life style change mandates.

The Rapture happens. The saints go to be with Jesus; as it is written, "Behold, I shew you a mystery; We shall not all sleep, but we shall all be changed, In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first: Then we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord. Wherefore comfort one another with these words.” -(1st Thessalonians 4:16-18).

When the Rapture happens, there will be far less people (only 6.6% based upon what Amir Tsarfati has reported) taken than is generally believed. It will be as in the days of Noah and as in the days of Lot. The last church age, that of the Laodicean's, is a key reference for you in Revelation 3:16. “So then because thou art lukewarm, and neither cold nor hot, I will spue thee out of my mouth.” Nevertheless, even though the percentage of people that will be taken will be very small, still the number will be considerable. Most believe the bodies of the raptured people will disappear. There will be some "so-called" Christians - whose lamps went out - that will recognize the Rapture happened and that they were left behind- referenced in Matthew 25:8-11. They appear to be terrified and shocked. It can be expected that some will be screaming and crying. What lies ahead for the world is the most horrifying and disastrous time that the earth has ever experienced since man has existed. We can only speculate just how this will affect the world and what explanation will be given by the world's leaders and news media. It is undoubtedly true that most of the world will not believe such an event as the Rapture really happened.

It is at this point that I keep coming back too, over and over in my thoughts I had a few segments back, specifically since Prince Charles intentionally, methodically, chose the date of May 6th for his coronation. He could never reveal the true reason for choosing this date to his subjects of the Commonwealth. Place yourself in his shoes; you would maintain that secret to your last breath. It would be known only by Charles closest occult Druid associates, members of the Knights of the Roundtable, the Order of the Garter Masonic Lodge and his most trusted advisers.

You can be 100% absolutely positive that Prince Charles astrologers were studying his star charts and its relationship to the Second Passover event of 2023. Pesach Sheni 2023 / שני פסח 5783. The Second Passover is always one month after Passover Pesach Sheni for Hebrew Year 5783 begins at sundown on Thursday, May 4th, 2023 and ends at sundown on Friday, May 5th, 2023. In fact, there is also a Lunar Eclipse as well on this date. Biblically, the lunar eclipse is a sign of judgment. It is the day of the Lord. On this day, the sun will be turned to darkness, and the moon will be turned to blood. This reveals that God is coming to judge the world. An eclipse on Friday, May 5th, 2023 would be viewed as a very powerful date for those in the world of the occult, as is Prince Charles.

In fact, the Lunar eclipse is more significant than anyone can know. It occurs on the “FULL MOON” of May 5th / 6th, 2023.

Many facts have been converging for months in bringing us to this point in time. In the previous segment I addressed the many Biblical Implications of May 6th, 2023. There is no need to repeat them given several new discoveries which I will deal with here. It is becoming crystal clear why Prince Charles and his astrologers chose May 6th, 2023 for his coronation!

To have chosen this date of May 6th, 2023 for old “sausage fingers” is tantamount to Prince Charles telling the world I am your King and Messiah. I am Lord of the Sabbath! Most people you know, Christian or not, will one day soon be stunned to discover Prince Charles of Wales is the Biblical antithesis of God’s only Begotten Son!

There are a number of Rapture watchers like myself who have come to the view that May 6th, 2023 is the strongest high watch date and therefore deserve our consideration. As best I can tell, others have concluded this date for various reasons. Below is how the gentleman who used only the initials of his name presented his calculations.

The BIG Event (Resurrection/Rapture)

The Major Criteria – A Full Moon on May 5/6th 2023!

There is only one day left that meets the criteria for the resurrection/rapture. Why is that? Because arriving at 1335 comes first, then the “immediately after” part can happen, AND it must be a Full moon. See more, about why this is, below. The events that need to happen, and in that sequential order:

Event 1 – Arrive at the day/year 1st new moon at the end of day/year 1335 (March 21-22, 2023) “Blessed is he that waiteth, and cometh to the thousand three hundred and five and thirty days.” -(Daniel 12:12).

Event 2 – Followed by the next Full moon 2nd Full moon after day/year 1335 (May 5/6th, 2023) “Immediately after the tribulation of those days (After arriving at 1335, 1st New moon) shall the sun be darkened, (by the brightness of His appearance) and the moon shall not give her light, (2nd Full moon After arriving) and the stars shall fall from heaven, (by the brightness of His appearance) and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:” (The power of light overshadowed by His mighty power) -(Matthew 24:29).

Event 3 - Four watches In the night time: (sunset to sunrise) evening (sunset to 9pm) midnight (9pm to 12am) cock-crowing (12am to 3am) morning (3am to sunrise)

Event 4 - The SIGN to watch for will be the brightness of His coming, (like a thousand suns) -(Matthew 24:29) “...and the stars shall fall from heaven, (by the brightness of his appearance) and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken:” (The power of light).

Details of this scenario: From the Six Day War that ended on June 10, 1967, we calculate backwards 42 months of years, AND a second witness, calculate backwards 3-1/2 days of years – same result – March 21st, 688 AD. With that start date, going forward 1335 day/years = March 21, 2023. i.e., we arrive at the 1st new moon of that day/year. This calculation takes into consideration Leap Days, etc.

Then, "immediately after" arriving, the 2nd Full moon occurs. The location of the start of the harvest can begin where it's dark, i.e., after sunset followed by four watches as described above. On May 5th the first watch starts at time zone +1 is show below:

(The Full moon for the first watch +1 is 7:34 pm) or sunset of the 5th of May, 2023 before the Coronation which takes place on Saturday, May 6th at 11:15am.

Finally, look for the sign of the brightness of His appearing. That particular watch will arrive at all time zones during the 24-hour duration of the Full moon of May 5/6, 2023.

Look for the bright light on the horizon. Matthew 24:30 "And then shall appear the sign of the Son of man in heaven: and then shall all the tribes of the earth mourn, and they shall see the Son of man coming in the clouds of heaven with power and great glory."

The May 5/6 Full Moon is a Lunar Eclipse and is a Penumbral Lunar Eclipse. During this penumbral eclipse, the moon passes deep into the outer part of Earth's shadow (known as the penumbra).

The umbral magnitude of this eclipse is -0.046, which means the Moon just misses the darker, inner part of Earth's shadow (which is called the umbra). By this measure, this is the deepest penumbral eclipse until September 2042.

An Eclipse Never Comes Alone! A solar eclipse always occurs about two weeks before or after a lunar eclipse. Usually, there are two eclipses in a row, but at other times, there are three during the same eclipse season.

All eclipses 1900 — 2199

This is the second eclipse this season.

First eclipse this season was: April 20, 2023 — Total Solar Eclipse

Eclipses in 2023:

Apr 20, 2023 – Total Solar Eclipse

May 5/6, 2023 — Penumbral Lunar Eclipse (this page)

Oct 14, 2023 – Annular Solar Eclipse

Oct 28/29, 2023 — Partial Lunar Eclipse

Two celestial events must happen at the same time for a penumbral lunar eclipse to occur:

- The Moon must be in the Full Moon phase.
- The Sun, Earth, and Moon must be nearly aligned, but not as closely aligned as during a partial eclipse.

Did you know that the coronation coincides with a lunar eclipse? Yes, the King's big day falls on the day after a penumbral lunar eclipse hits our skies, and according to TikTok, this could be a time of great concern. Anyone who has read my Blessed Hope series the past several months knows that I have pointed out the Prince Charles did not choose this date randomly or by mere chance. The choice of May 6th, 2023 was undoubtedly a well calculated choice after Freemasons and Royal Astrologers studied the occult significance of the Sun, Moon, and stars for Prince Charles.

The King's coronation coincides with a lunar eclipse and TikTokers are theorizing that it could be a sign or omen of bad things to come, owing to the significance of eclipses in astrology. I believe that we would not disagree with this theorizing assumption!

One TikTok user, @theholographicmind, summarizes that, "eclipses in early history were associated with rulers and according to Babylonian scholars eclipses could foretell the death of a king and lunar eclipses, in particular, were times of great concern for the current king in power."

She adds that elaborate sacrificial rituals would take place at times of an eclipse in order to protect the king. These would entail another person impersonating the king ready to be sacrificed straight after - eek!

"It wouldn't surprise me if something significant happened during the coronation or within the royal family during that time," the TikToker concludes.

But as we all know TikTok should be consumed with a pinch of salt as it's awash with theories and rumors on pretty much every topic, but is there any truth to the lunar eclipse rumor?

Inbaal Honigman, one of 'Woman & Home's' expert astrologers, who kindly offered her expertise on the matter. She is from the UK community of Holmfirth and well-known in the UK media.

"Solar eclipses arrive about twice a year and are extreme New Moons," she explains. "They bring up previously hidden information which allows events to progress faster, and they invite big life changes."

But according to our astrologer, the eclipse at the time of the King's Coronation isn't ill-fated at all. "Quite the opposite," she says. "Lunar eclipses appear during big changes, and a new monarch is exactly that, especially one who would rule over so many countries and territories."

Inbaal tells us that the penumbral lunar eclipse will happen when the Moon is in Scorpio, a sign that loves innovation and thinking out of the box. "The sun sign, would you believe it, of King Charles himself. At the same time, the Sun will be in Taurus, a sign of tradition and wisdom. It was the star sign of the late Queen."

So, royal fans needn't brace for chaos as Inbaal says that what some may consider a bad omen is actually kind of symbolic in a very beautiful way.

"The transition of the Scorpio moon through the Earth's shadow, during the Taurus sun," she reassures us, "is a beautiful celestial symbol of the transition of power between the late Queen and the new King."

Though it remains to be seen what will go down on the day of King Charles's Coronation - according to the stars at least - it looks like it will go off without a hitch.

- Yeshua (Jesus Christ) ascends into heaven. Mark 16:19, Acts 1:3

If I were a gambler, these eight factors would be sufficient motivation for me to place my bet on May 6th to be the Rapture of the "true" church of those "in Christ!" As a "Watchman" be ready to Depart!

Pope Francis presented King Charles with the holy gift, believed to be from the True Cross of Christ, which will be incorporated into a processional cross for the coronation in London. The False Prophet and the Antichrist ready to launch the New World Order! Pope Francis personally gifted King Charles III fragments believed to be from the cross on which Jesus was crucified to mark his coronation. The fragments, said to be from the True Cross, have been incorporated into a processional cross that will be used at the King's coronation in London next week.

The two shards of wood, one measuring 1cm and the other 5mm, were fashioned into a tiny cross and embedded into the center of the Cross of Wales behind a rose crystal gemstone. Remember, this is all about the symbolism of Ecumenical Unity!

Inscribed in Welsh on the back of the cross is the last sermon of St. David, patron saint of Wales, which translates to: "Be joyful. Keep the faith. Do the little things."

The cross has been blessed by the Archbishop of Wales and will be held aloft by leaders of the procession as King Charles enters Westminster Abbey on May 6th, 2023. The Church of Wales said the gift was a gesture representing the unification of Christian denominations.

"We are honored that His Majesty has chosen to mark our centenary with a cross that is both beautiful and symbolic," Andrew John, the Anglican Archbishop of Wales.

With King Charles III's coronation just around the corner, one big question is, What role will other religions play? In a country that has an official religion and an established church – the Church of England – but also a Hindu prime minister, a Buddhist home secretary and a Muslim Scottish first minister, it's an important question. More symbolism of ecumenism.

The coronation is a Church of England religious service, with rules governed by Church of England Canon Law. King Charles has famously talked about his desire to be a "defender of faiths" generally, rather than "Defender of [just the one] Faith." It's unclear how multiple faiths can fit into a Church of England service, but Charles is reportedly determined to make it happen.

Regardless, one different faith has already carved out for itself a leading role in the coronation.

Last week, it was revealed that Pope Francis has given King Charles two shards of wood, barely bigger than splinters. They're supposed to have come from the "True Cross" on which Jesus Christ was crucified. These shards are being incorporated into the much larger Cross of Wales, which will lead the coronation procession.

"Many will be watching the ceremony to witness the pomp and circumstance still found in the official functions of the British royalty," wrote the Catholic News Agency. "Yet at the forefront of all that spectacle [will be] the simple metallic cross, inlaid with relics of the wood of the True Cross."

The article added: Given that many consider the pieces of the cross among the most precious relics in all of Christendom, the pope's gift is being seen as an incredible ecumenical sign of goodwill. ... Given that the relationship between the British crown and the Catholic Church has been rocky in ages past, Charles's decision to place the papal gift at the forefront of his coronation ceremonies is significant.

It is a remarkable turnaround. Britain has deposed monarchs for getting too close to the papacy. And the Catholic Church has tried to destroy English monarchs. In 1570, Pope Pius V declared that he had "deprived" Queen Elizabeth "of her pretended title" and "of all lordship, dignity and privilege."

"We charge and command all and singular the nobles, subjects, peoples and others afore said that they do not dare obey her orders, mandates and laws," he declared.

Now the Catholic Church will play a leading role in the coronation. It builds off a dramatic change in relations during the reign of Queen Elizabeth II. She met with five popes, and in 2010, hosted the first state visit by a pope to the United Kingdom since the reformation.

At the time of that first visit, Andrew Brown captured, in an article for the Guardian, how profound this change in relationship with the Catholic Church really was (emphasis added):

This was the end of the British Empire. In all the four centuries from Elizabeth I to Elizabeth II, England have been defined as a Protestant nation. The Catholics were the other; sometimes violent terrorists and rebels, sometimes merely dirty immigrants. The sense that this was a nation specially blessed by God arose from a deeply anti-Catholic reading of the Bible. ... Rebellion against the pope was the foundational act of English power. And now the power is gone, and perhaps the rebellion has gone, too.

More than a decade later, Britain's first Catholic prime minister has come and gone. To most, the fact that Boris Johnson was Catholic was one of the least remarkable things about his time in office. And the news of a Catholic relic leading the coronation is regarded as a historical curiosity, nothing more.

The Bible gives a very different view. It tells us that the whole world is deceived - (Revelation 12:9) - including the Christian world. Christ said that in this age only very "few" -(Matthew 7:14) would truly follow Him and that His Church would remain a little flock -(Luke 12:32). The Bible reveals that God has a plan to offer salvation to all men - (1st Timothy 2:4; 2nd Peter 3:9) - now is just not the time for most.

Some argue that deceit includes the "True Cross." The Bible offers no evidence that Christ was crucified on a cross. Instead the word translated cross in most Bibles simply refers to a stake. Over the years so many fragments from the supposed “True Cross” have circulated that John Calvin famously complained that “if all the pieces that could be found were collected together, they would make a big shipload.”

God is full of love for deceived humanity and is planning to soon lift that deceit. Part of that plan will see the Roman Catholic Church take on renewed power in Europe. Revelation 17 describes a “beast” power—an empire in biblical symbolism. This beast is led by a woman, biblical symbolism for a church –(Ephesians 5:32). The only church that has ever held sway over kings and emperors like this is the Roman Catholic Church.

God will use this Catholic-led power to correct Britain and America. This is the organization Britain’s royal family is drawing close to. Queen Elizabeth II and King Charles III have led the nation much closer to this church that will be used to destroy them. And the nation is so far away from the Bible that it is completely indifferent to it.

Like the rest of the world, Britain as a whole has been deceived. But there used to be a lot more awareness of at least some truth of the Bible.

The throne in Britain and the throne in Rome have both played powerful roles in world history—but there’s much more to this history than most understand.

Archbishop of Wales Andrew John poses with the Cross of Wales ahead of the blessing of the cross at Holy Trinity Church, Llandudno on April 19, 2023 in Llandudno, Wales.

“Its design speaks to our Christian faith, our heritage, our resources and our commitment to sustainability. We are delighted too that its first use will be to guide Their Majesties into Westminster Abbey at the Coronation Service.”

After the coronation, the cross will be presented as a gift and shared between the Anglican and Roman Catholic churches in Wales. King Charles will be crowned in a ceremony that will symbolize his spiritual entry into kingship and formalize his role as the Head of the Church of England.

The service is set to be shorter and smaller in size compared to late-Queen Elizabeth II’s coronation in 1953, with a wider range of faiths, cultures and communities represented.

Ancient customs like the monarch being presented with several golden objects including spurs, bracelets and the controversial Koh-i-noor diamond will be scrapped, and the guest list will be downsized to just 2,000 people.

King Charles will be crowned alongside his wife Camilla, the Queen Consort, and the royal family will then travel to Buckingham Palace in a state procession where they will appear on the balcony to celebrate the occasion.

There is another Sign which I have not studied in any great detail; and that is the 21 Blood Red Moons that have appeared from 2014 until 2023. Pastor Mark Biltz was to my knowledge the first to study these Blood Red Lunar Eclipses and their significance or meaning. Like the Revelation 12 sign in 2017, few scholars had fully determined as to the meaning of the Blood Red Moons. The Revelation 12 sign was a dual sign and in order to understand it, one needed to be able to interpret the Greek text.
