

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #167

In Blessed Hope #165 and #166, I reported that on July 26th, 2023 at 2 PM, the Treasury, the Federal Reserve, and the White House will be announcing the Dollar Recall, and the introduction of FedNow system, which will introduce the CBDC or Central Bank Digital Currency. In its simplest form, we are talking a “digital dollar”. This system will eliminate some 4,900 banks and credit unions. They will be consolidated into a system that will be dominated by approximately 10 world banks, with the smaller banks being absorbed into the Central Bank Digital Currency system.

Investigative journalist Leo Hohmann posted a news story that speaks to the very issue that I was pointing to relative to under a CBDC system, any government can shut an account of anyone they wish for whatever reason. This very possibility has just occurred with one of the most outspoken UK politician. Pay close attention to what has taken place this past week, as it may happen to you. Leo Hohmann tells what has been reported by UK banks and one of its citizens.

The Tucker Carlson of Britain gets shocking news: 'If they can do it to me, they can do it to you'

We have a developing story out of the U.K. that speaks loudly as a sign of the times, a story that 20 years from now will be seen as a key marker on the West's slide into totalitarianism. People will ask, why didn't they stand against that?

Nigel Farage is a big-time political commentator and former leader of the Brexit movement. The best way to describe Farage for those who don't know him is that he's sort of like the Tucker Carlson of Britain. We all know what happened to Tucker here in the U.S., but what's happened to Farage is even worse.

Farage delivered a "scary" warning to his GB News viewers Thursday. This dire warning is not based on conjecture or any sort of fear mongering. It's based on actual first-hand experience.

Here's what's going on.

Farage revealed an establishment plot to force him out of the country after seven banks refused to let him have an account.

Later on Thursday, June 29, he warned that others who share the same worldview as him face being treated in the same "stressful" way, according to The Express.

Speaking on his GB News show, Farage said: "It seems to be all one way. It seems to be all against people who have traditionalist or conservative views. There is something totally outrageous going on here."

This is something myself and others have been warning about for years.

This is why I often refer to the U.S., Canada, U.K., Europe and Australia, New Zealand as "the formerly free world." They are budding dictatorships cleverly disguised as "democracies" and most of the citizens of these countries still aren't aware of the fact that they are living in a closed society run by a handful of very wealthy, very powerful oligarchs. While they are few in number, they control everything through money and a 100 percent captured mainstream media.

For me, the events of 9/11 were a key marker, after which liberty was willingly traded away for the perception of security. People begged to have their bags searched, their bodies patted down, their emails, phone conversations and even their taste in library books spied upon.

We are now well down the road to a dystopian future, a future in which our oppressors are only now starting to take off their masks and bare their fangs, where only one narrative, one opinion, is allowed on the great issues of the day. We saw it in spades during Covid. But it applies to more than just medical issues. Things like immigration, the sanctity of human life, what makes a marriage valid before God, the safety of our children and their right to remain innocent. These are issues where only one view is allowed. There is no more “market place of ideas,” as it used to be called, where all opinions were welcome and it was left to each individual citizen to make up his/her own mind.

Not any more.

Farage issued a direct warning to his loyal viewers that anything they have ever said on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram, etc., could come back to haunt them and land them in a similarly precarious position.

He said: “Anything you say on Facebook or Twitter may result in you losing your bank accounts too. That is, I think, how scary this whole thing is.”

Farage announced the news in a tweet on Thursday morning.

Farage said: “I have been with the same banking group since 1980, my personal and my business account... I got a phone call a couple of months ago to saying, ‘we are closing your account.’ I asked them why. No reason was given.”

This is the same way in which my own voice has been censored. My book, ‘Stealth Invasion’, was erased from Amazon earlier this year. It had been sold on Amazon for six years, then suddenly one day in January 2023 they canceled it, no reason given other than that it violated their standards. (You can still get it on Barnesandnoble.com, last I checked.)

Farage further stated:

“The establishment is trying to force me out of the UK by closing my bank accounts. I have been given no explanation or recourse as to why this is happening to me.”

Just a couple of days ago more than 250 Hollywood elites signed an open letter calling on the Big Tech social-media platforms to utterly silence any and all dissident views on so-called “gender-affirming care” of minor children or anyone who stands in the way of a child being able to “transition” from a boy to a girl or vice versa.

As you can see from the tweet below, even some transsexuals see the danger to our society and are expressing outrage!

There was also news from Michigan last week, where that state has passed a new hate-speech law. Under this law, people who say something that hurts the feelings of a member of a protected class can be fined and even sentenced to jail time.

It's no longer coming. This dystopian society. The boot on your face. It has arrived. They are erecting the walls of a digital prison right now. If these walls are not torn down, it will mean the complete end to what liberals used to call an "open society," tolerant of divergent viewpoints. That is now over.

Farage further explained his own situation:

"This is serious political persecution at the very highest level of our system. If they can do it to me, they can do it to you too."

The actions appear to be a coordinated attempt by financial institutions to target parties and politicians of certain political persuasion.

Express.co.uk reported that all the British-based banks have denied the Reclaim Party a bank account and one of the accounts for Reform UK was also closed with minimum notice.

Also don't forget what happened to the Freedom Convoy truckers protest movement in Canada. It was shut down quickly when the government teamed up with the banks to seize and freeze the accounts of the freedom protesters.

Now is the time to make our stand. Do not hold back your free speech rights. Use it or lose it. If we all speak boldly, they cannot possibly lock us all up! Start a blog. Post to social media. Speak out at public meetings, on street corners, wherever you feel is appropriate for your message to the community and the world. And by all means, share the good news of the gospel. The Bible is especially under attack, because the globalists are terrified of more people hearing the Word, accepting its timeless truths, getting saved and turning the steering wheels of their lives over to Jesus Christ!

A total of 130 countries representing 98% of the global economy are now exploring digital versions of their currencies, with almost half in advanced development, pilot or launch stages, a closely-followed study shows.

The research by the U.S.-based Atlantic Council think tank published on Wednesday said significant progress over the past six months meant that all G20 countries with the exception of Argentina were now in one of those advanced phases.

Eleven countries, including a number in the Caribbean, and Nigeria, have already launched central bank digital currencies (CBDCs) as they are known, while pilot testing in China now reaches 260 million people and covers 200 scenarios from e-commerce to government stimulus payments.

When the CBDC “Digital Dollar” is introduced under the FedNow program in just under a month, there will be no need for your local bank! That may seem strange but under FedNow, local banks will begin to disappear. There are currently 4,844 insured commercial banks according to the FDIC. The plan is to merge all but about a dozen of the largest national and global banks. The Federal Reserve will become the institution that handles bank-to-bank, and financial transactions between customer and commercial transactions. Your cell phone becomes your connection to the CBDC. It will contain your ID through the use of a “QR” or Quick Response code. Here is an example of what a “QR” looks like in the case you have not noticed its use.

An App will enable anyone to generate their own “QR” Quick Response code. Everyone will need one in the near distant future to be able to buy and sell!

How to Make a QR Code:

Find a free QR code generator. If you are creating a QR code for your personal website or as your contact card, you can use a free QR code ...

Choose your data format. Most free generators will have several format options available. These might include simple text, a website URL, a phone ...

Enter in your data. Enter your data into the fields provided by the generator. If you are entering text or a URL, try to keep it under 300 characters...

Change the color. By default, QR codes are black and white, but they can actually be any color you want. Most free code generators will allow you ...

Scan a QR code with your iPhone, iPad, or iPod touch

Learn how to use the built-in camera on your iPhone, iPad, or iPod touch to scan a Quick Response (QR) code for links to websites, apps, tickets, and more.

QR codes give you quick access to websites without having to type or remember a web address. You can use the Camera app to scan a QR code.

How to scan a QR code with the Camera app

Open the Camera app from the Home Screen, Control Center, or Lock Screen. Select the rear facing camera. Hold your device so that the QR code appears in the viewfinder in the Camera app. Your device recognizes the QR code and shows a notification.

Tap the notification to open the link associated with the QR code.

Citizens in China have been using this system for twenty years at least. The “QR” code was created in 1994 by a Japanese engineer for the automotive industry. I first learned about this technology from Dr. Chuck Missler back around 2005. About eight years ago I watched a 2-hour video on the “QR” code system in China in use. I sat in awe of how the Chinese had been light years ahead of the West with this technology. The “QR” code system is part of the Chinese Social Control system. In fact, a few days ago, WEF co-founder Klaus Schwab said the world has to adapt the Chinese system.

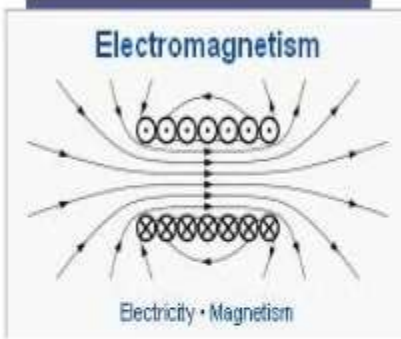

The illustrations below show how Near Field Communications functions. An individual’s cell phone with an installed QR code ID operates much like a Credit or Debit Card would in buying everything from gas for your car to your morning coffee and donut.

The Covid virus was the precursor to get the rest of the world on track to adopt the ID2020 for “protecting” you from humanity. Covid had several objectives. I have written several articles showing how humanity was being moved towards a global ID system.

How NFC Works

- Operates at 13.56 MHz
- Transfers data at up to 424 bits/sec

- 1) Coil in the first smart phone sets up a current that is picked up a second smart phone or reader.
- 2) The second smart phone receives the “induced current” from the first, recognizes it as a valid signal and offers a connection.
- 3) The first cell phone accepts the connection and begins the transaction.

Human rights activist Reggie Littlejohn said the vaccine passport has the same digital platform as the Chinese social credit system. She shared this detail during the April 20 episode of the "Flyover Conservative" podcast.

Littlejohn, the founder and president of Women's Rights Without Frontiers, told podcasts hosts David and Stacy Whited: "Having watched China for so many years, I became very concerned when I started seeing this vaccine passport being floated in the United States. For these vaccine passports, they support the same digital platform as the China social credit system. It's a digital platform that they use in China to track everything about a person and come up with a score."

She explained that this Chinese digital platform uses real-time facial recognition and geolocation. "They know what you look like; where you are; where you live ... [and] work; all of your social media posts or internet search history; all your spending history; your criminal history; your credit cards and your bank accounts."

According to Littlejohn, the social credit score reflects how much an individual is compliant and meek. Anyone going against the grain could be censored as punishment, with further sanctions including loss of employment, travel bans and deactivation of credit cards and bank accounts.

WHO promotes use of Vaccine Passport

The human rights activist and China affairs expert noted that everyone was afraid when the Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) hit, which the vaccine makers capitalized on. The idea of "the unvaccinated endangering other people" paved the way for the vaccine passport, she added.

"That was the pretext of floating these vaccine passports where you would be able to be free if you were [vaccinated] and boosted – the implication being: 'You would not be free if you were not vaccinated.'"

Littlejohn noted that the name does not matter – whether it is called a vaccine passport, smart health card, Excelsior pass, digital driver's license or anything – as long as the platform shares similarities with the Chinese social credit system.

The Sovereignty Coalition, which Littlejohn and her friend Frank Gaffney established, grew out of the World Health Organization's (WHO) push for the vaccine passport. The global health body had been espousing the use of it as part of its so-called "pandemic treaty." (Related: China tells WHO it wants to control global "vaccine passport" system.) Over at home, she mentioned that the Improving Digital Identity Act has already advanced to the Senate floor for debate. If it passes, the bill will mandate the establishment of an inter-agency task force to support "reliable, interoperable digital identity verification in the public and private sectors."

She dubbed the legislation as a "digital gulag bill."

"This is a very dangerous thing. It's not called a vaccine passport. They are not. The pretext is not to check your health status. The pretext is preventing identity fraud or identity theft. It can support the same platform and we've got to oppose it," Littlejohn added.

I was a bit late in this game so to speak on the Near Field Communications. It has been twenty years since I last had a credit card however I do have a Debit Card with the Near Field Communications feature embedded in the Debit Card. I have been disabled since 2014 and have been out of working use of the technology loop on the advancements in convenience transactions.

The underlying technology that makes contactless payments possible has been incorporated with many smart watches on the market that come equipped with NFC chips that let you make touch-free payments directly from your wrist.

What I do know is that all of this convenience is but one step removed from the “Mark” of the Beast System described in Revelation 13:16. – “And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads:”

Over the past forty years I have studied technology advancements, of just how this verse would play out on our world to bring fulfillment to that prophecy. It all began to come into focus for me with the advent of the cell phone. It was the summer of 1996, when my wife’s son got a cell phone. He was a senior in high school and worked at the local Radio Shack store after school. That phrase “And he causeth all,” is worth our examining it in the Greek text. The Greek word used for “causeth” is interesting because of what all it implies. The Greek word is ποιέω ποιεῶ. It is a common verb and it means – “To make, do, create, produce, work, accomplish, perform, or act.” It is found 597X times throughout the Bible. The Blue Letter Bible provides a lengthy discourse of its coverage actions. This is one of those verbs that the translators could only allude to its use in our time.

Wireless communications is relatively recent technology. The wireless revolution began in the 1990s, with the advent of digital wireless networks leading to a social revolution, and a paradigm shift from wired to wireless technology, including the proliferation of commercial wireless technologies such as cell phones, mobile telephony, pagers, and wireless computers.

That said, we do have a Biblical reference to such wireless technology in Ephesians 2:2. The Apostle Paul writes: "Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in the children of disobedience:" The word for "prince" is "archon" and means a ruler, commander, chief, leader. It is unlikely that the Apostle Paul could have anticipated the meaning of what he saw but again God introduced the subtlety of what the world is experiencing since wireless energy has taken our world by storm.

The first 10 verses in Ephesians 2 are among the most evangelistic in the Scriptures, explaining beautifully the actual steps which occur in salvation. Paul began by reminding believers of their wretched condition before God performed the miracle of redemption. "Were dead" comes from a combination of a participle and an adjective (ontas nekrous), so it literally means "being dead" and refers to spiritual death which is the state of separation from God. While some Bible scholars say it is impossible to make a distinction between the words "trespasses" and "sins," others claim "trespasses" refers to outward manifestations of sin and "sins" relates to the sinful nature of a fallen human being.

Ephesians 2:2 further depicts the lost condition of mankind by specifying the forces working against them. First, unbelievers walk "according to the course of this world." This is a way of saying that fallen creatures manifest their state of spiritual death by living lives of enslavement to the world's standard of values, values that are human-centered, not God-centered.

Secondly, the rest of the verse informs us of the power that works behind this "spirit" of the age, or the ways of this world. Satan takes advantage of man's lost condition. He is at work "in the children of disobedience" or he is "operating in the sons of disobedience."

Here Paul, writer of this epistle depicts the forces which war against believers as they seek to live godly lives: the world, the flesh, and the devil. The world is an external foe, its evil influences surrounding the believer. The flesh (the self-life) is an internal enemy, its weaknesses making it susceptible to temptation. Satan is an infernal foe, going about like a roaring lion, seeking whom he may devour. He uses the influences of the world to seduce believers, and he takes advantage of believers by attacking them at their weakest points. But God has not left believers at the mercy of these enemies of the soul. He is the eternal Friend and Deliverer who will bring victory.

Late last year I warned a Christian lady, a former piano student of my wife, who has a new 5G cell phone, which contains a GPS locator microdot of a Cesium-137 radioactive isotope in the phone. When I mentioned the radioactive isotope has a half-life of 30.7 years and that Cesium-137 radiation causes cancer, her response was that all the girls in her office have them. Either she does not understand that radiation poisoning can and does cause cancer or she has a death wish. Thousands of Chinese workers at the Foxconn plant in China were either sickened or died from the assembling the 5G cell phones, which contain the Cesium-137 isotope.

People are so in love with their cell phones they choose to ignore the hazards of owning and using them. Many people that we know use their cell phone as their computer, it has replaced the PC and lap tops for many. Interestingly so, there has been in the first six months of 2023, numerous reports on what has been labeled Turbo cancer Leukemia. It would be interesting to see if these Turbo cancer cases are in any way connected with 5G cell phones, more so than the sProtein of mRNA in the Pfizer and Moderna vaxxes.

But my focus here is on how the cell phone becomes the transition to the “Mark” of the Beast. 99% of people today under the age of 50 will not hesitate to volunteer to receive the “Mark” without any thought or consideration of what the pros and cons are in being microchipped.

As my two previous segments of Blessed Hope #165 and #166 brought to your attention what is coming on Wednesday July 26th at 2 PM, the global plan for the CBDC is revealed in the video just below. The video is 38-minutes and a must view if you want to avoid the plan of the Antichrist, or Prince Charles. The second video on ESG Exposed is 17-minutes on how Prince Charles Sustainable Development Goals fit into the larger picture of this enslavement of humanity. What I am trying to do is to educate folks in understanding why it is absolutely essential to resist the convenience issue that will enslave humanity to the Antichrist Beast System.

Andrew Moran, an author who writes about the “War on Cash” which is about to blow up the world of finance wrote on an aspect that shows how the “digital dollar” is not good.

Expiry dates and restrictions on “less desirable” purchases are some of the key advantages behind central bank digital currencies (CBDCs), according to an economist at a World Economic Forum (WEF) event.

The WEF hosted the 14th annual Meeting of the New Champions in Tianjin, China, also known as Summer Davos. During one of the 30-minute panel discussions on June 28, Cornell University professor Eswar Prasad explained that the global economy is “at the cusp of physical currency essentially disappearing” and that programmable CBDCs and the technology behind these new forms of money could take the international economic landscape toward a dark path or a better place.

Prasad contended that one of the “huge potential gains” for the digitization of money is the programmability of CBDC units and attaching expiry dates. Governments can also utilize central bank money to socially engineer society.

“You could have ... a potentially better—or some people might say a darker world—where the government decides that units of central bank money can be used to purchase some things, but not other things that it deems less desirable like, say ammunition, or drugs, or pornography, or something of the sort,” he said. “And that is very powerful in terms of the use of a CBDC, and I think also extremely dangerous to central banks.”

The author of “Gaining Currency” and “The Dollar Trap” purported that CBDCs possess unique characteristics and could be employed “as a conduit for economic policies in a very targeted way, or more broadly for social policies.”

“That could really affect the integrity of central bank money and the integrity and independence of central banks,” Prasad stated. “So, there are wonderful notions of things that can be done with digital money, but again I fear the technology could take us to a better place, but equally has the potential to take us to a pretty dark place.”

CBDC Expiry Dates

Integrating expiry dates with CBDCs has already been discussed by various central banks worldwide.

The Bank of Canada (BoC) published a paper in 2021 entitled “Best Before? Expiring Central Bank Digital Currency and Loss Recovery.” The institution weighed the pros and cons of expiration dates, asserting that an expiry date would “automate personal loss recovery.”

The War on Cash: How Governments and Banks are Killing Cash and What You Can do to Protect Yourself by Andrew Moran

“With this feature enabled, digital cash could not be spent after its expiry date. Consumers whose digital cash expired would automatically receive the funds back into their online account without having to file a claim,” the Canadian central bank wrote. “We show that offering the option of personal loss recovery could substantially increase consumer demand for digital cash. However, the length of time to expiry plays a key role. An expiry date that is too soon is inconvenient, but a date too far in the future slows down the reimbursement of lost digital cash.”

China has been exploring expiration dates for the digital yuan, suggesting that it would no longer be usable if not spent in a specific timeframe.

The World Bank studied the effects of expiring money and argued that this could be a “potential monetary policy tool” to stimulate consumption during recessions or pandemics.

“Expiring money would increase both the velocity of money and overall economic activity, similar to applying a negative rate to digital cash,” the organization wrote. “In practice, a carrying fee on money would encourage people to spend it and thus prevent it from being hoarded.”

Indeed, CBDC advocates say digital money can be a flexible instrument to micro-target sectors, regions, interest rates, and socio-economic demographics with real-time feedback.

I shared in the last Blessed Hope how Prince Charles of Wales holds sway and control over Freemasonry as the Head of “Order of the Garter”. His son William above and two of his three grandchildren are pictured. What is interesting about this photo, Charlotte is 8 years old today but in the photo above she was no more than 18-24 months old. Notice she flashes the Masonic sign for the Devil’s Horn and someone at home had to have taught her how to form the Freemason devil’s horn hand sign!

The devil's horn is the Freemason hand signal, as contained in the Satanic bible. The "devil's horn" signal signifies that Satan rules. Remember that Satan is called the "Horned God", and the hand signal is formed so as to resemble horns.

It is a universal hand signal used by politicians, celebrities as well as heavy metal bands, affirming their allegiance to satanic powers and visual shorthand for "Hail, Satan." The devil's hand has been observed and photographed around the world, used by George W. Bush, Bill Clinton, Silvio Berlusconi, Elizabeth Taylor, Prince William, Prince Harry, Paul McCartney, Metallica, Ozzie, Avril Lavigne, Stephen Dorff, Dave Navarro and many others.

This hand symbol is known by several names: Devil's Triad, Il Cornuto, Cornuto, the Horn, Horned Devil, Twin-horned Salute, Horned Hand, Devil Salute, and Devil Horn Salute. The Devil's triad is a recognition sign among Satanists and witches. So little Charlotte in this old photo of Prince William in his Royal Uniform at a State event did not accidentally flash this sign. Humanity is walking into the coming Great Tribulation because they are not familiar with or for that matter believe the Bible's warning about the Antichrist of Revelation 13.

JPMorgan Chase and 40 Other US Banks Conducting FedNow Trial Runs Ahead of the Instant Payment Service's Launch

Banking giant JPMorgan Chase and 40 other U.S. banks are testing the Federal Reserve's new instant payment infrastructure called FedNow.

According to a new Federal Reserve press release, 41 banks and 15 service providers are wrapping up FedNow test trials ahead of an official launch of the service, which is scheduled for late July. This is not speculation, it is full speed forward.

Says Ken Montgomery, first vice president of the Federal Reserve Bank of Boston and FedNow program executive,

“We are on track for the FedNow Service launch, with a strong cohort of financial institutions and service providers of all sizes in the process of completing the final round of readiness testing. With go-live nearing, financial institutions and their industry partners should be confident in moving forward with plans to join the network of organizations participating in the FedNow Service.”

According to the Federal Reserve, the FedNow Service aims to enable businesses and individuals to send and receive instant payments anytime.

The Federal Reserve says it plans to increase the number of banks using FedNow this year and in years to come until all 10,000 have adopted the technology.

Other large banks testing the service to start using it in July include Bank of New York Mellon, US Bancorp and Wells Fargo. The U.S. Department of the Treasury is also intending to use the service.

The service providers running final tests include Juniper Payments, Jack Henry and Open Payment Network.

Since the King of England, Prince “sausage fingers” aka, The Antichrist is also the man behind the World Economic Forum we know he is tightly aligned with the Vatican leader Jesuit Pope Francis, it should be no surprise that old “sausage fingers” wants to see Russia destroyed for many of the same reasons. Most of the NATO countries are Roman Catholic and virtually all senior politicians and leaders answer to the pope on geo-political and religious matters.

The fact that seat #666 at the European Union Parliament has remained unoccupied since the inception of the European Union, it is obvious to who this seat is reserved for as in previous segments I have shared the gematria of Prince Charles of Wales is exactly that man. Prince Charles of Wales in Hebrew, Greek and English gematria is “666”.

The Astra Carta builds on the foundation of the Terra Carta to shape a future of responsible and sustainable space exploration, development, and cooperation and proclaims him as King of the Universe. [The Terra Carta is built on the Magna Carta of King John of June 15, 1215 A.D.]

How does this event fulfill Daniel 9:27

Daniel 9:27 “Then he shall confirm a covenant with many for one week; But in the middle of the week He shall bring an end to sacrifice and offering. And on the wing of abominations shall be one who makes desolate, Even until the consummation, which is determined, Is poured out on the desolate.”

This verse unveils what will occur in the 70th seven years (which I believe is from Fall 2023-2030). This seven-year period will begin after the Rapture of the church (which will consummate God’s program in this present Age). The 70th “seven” will continue till the return of Jesus Christ to the earth. Because Jesus said this will be a time of “great distress” -(Matthew 24:21), this period is often called the Tribulation.

A significant event that will mark the beginning of this seven-year period is the confirming of a covenant. This covenant will be made with many, that is, with Daniel’s people, the nation of Israel. “The ruler who will come” -(Daniel 9:26) will be this covenant-maker, for that person is the antecedent of the word he in Daniel 9:27. As a yet-future ruler he will be the final head of the fourth empire (the little horn of the fourth beast, Daniel 7:8).

The covenant he will make will evidently be a peace covenant, in which he will guarantee Israel's safety in the land. This suggests that Israel will be in her land but will be unable to defend herself for she will have lost any support she may have had previously. Therefore she will need and welcome the peacemaking role of this head of the confederation of 10 European (Roman) nations. In offering this covenant, this ruler will pose as a prince of peace, and Israel will accept his authority. But then in the middle of that "seven," after three and one-half years, he will break the covenant. According to Daniel 11:45, he will then move from Europe into the land of Israel.

This ruler will end... sacrifice and offering. This expression refers to the entire Levitical system, which suggests that Israel will have restored that system in the first half of the 70th "seven." After this ruler gains worldwide political power, he will assume power in the religious realm as well and will cause the world to worship him -(2nd Thessalonians 2:4; Revelation 13:8). To receive such worship, he will terminate all organized religions. Posing as the world's rightful king and god and as Israel's prince of peace, he will then turn against Israel and become her destroyer and defiler.

Daniel was told that "the ruler who will come" -(Daniel 9:26) will place abominations on a wing of the temple. Christ referred to this incident: "You [will] see standing in the holy place the abomination that causes desolation" -(Matthew 24:15). John wrote that the false prophet will set up an image [Artificial Intelligence human-like robot] to this ruler and that the world will be compelled to worship it -(Revelation 13:14-15). But then his end will come (the end that is decreed is poured out on him). With his false prophet he will be cast into the lake of fire when Christ returns to the earth -(Revelation 19:20; cf. Daniel 7:11, Daniel 7:26).

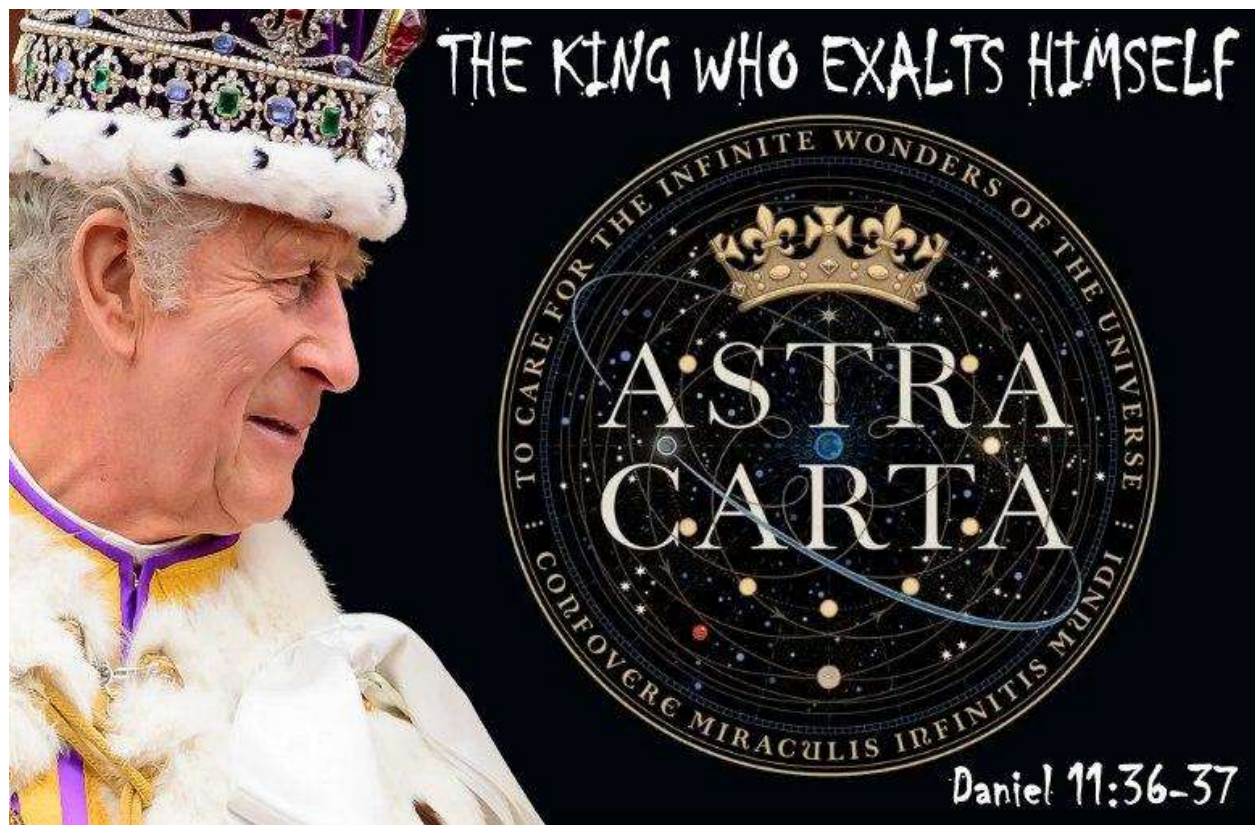

This covenant could not have been made or confirmed by Christ at His First Advent, as amillenarians teach, because:

- (a) His ministry did not last seven years,
- (b) His death did not stop sacrifices and offerings,
- (c) He did not set up "the abomination that causes desolation" -(Matthew 24:15).

That said, there is more than ample evidence of what is in store for the world under the leadership of the individual who lays claim to what the Bible foretold us nearly 2,000 years ago.

The focus of the last several segments of this Blessed Hope series has provided evidence beyond convincing for any believer in Jesus Christ that Prince Charles is the Anti-Messiah of Revelation 13 in the Bible.

We are at a point now where we are seeing pushback against the plans of Prince Charles in his own country and those who act on behalf of him, such as Klaus Schwab, Bill Gates, John Kerry, and those who hope to be among the “in crowd!”

THE KING WHO EXALTS HIMSELF

“The king will do as he pleases. He will exalt and magnify himself above every god and will say unheard-of things against the God of gods. He will be successful until the time of wrath is completed, for what has been determined must take place. He will show no regard for the gods of his ancestors or for the one desired by a woman, nor will he regard any god, but will exalt himself above them all.” - (Daniel 11:36-37)

The heraldic achievement here is very symbolic, showing the King's crown over all the Universe looking down upon Earth he supposedly protects. A similar symbolic heraldic achievement is seen with his Terra Carta, the king's crown over all of creation on earth, for people, planet and nature.

King Charles is on top of the pyramid scheme of Freemasonry. That means he is of the highest order - the Order of the Garter.

In world-wide Scottish Rite Freemasonry, all Grand Lodges and members of the 30th-33rd Degrees are sworn to loyal obedience to the Order of the Garter, the equivalent to Papal Authority. In the U.S. there is a Grand Lodge for each State, and one for the Nation in Washington, D.C. In Albert Pike's Handbook for Masons, 'Morals and Dogma', which contains the rites and rituals of the various degrees of the Scottish Rites of 33rd Degree Masonry, it reveals who Freemasons worship. In the rites and rituals for the 19th degree, the brother Mason is told that he worships Lucifer and not Adonay of the Bible.

The apostle Paul tells us that Satan masquerades as an angel of light:

“And no marvel; for Satan himself is transformed into an angel of light” (2nd Corinthians 11:14).

In the previous Blessed Hope #166 comments on Freemasonry, I forgot to mention an important fact about the agenda of Freemasonry. Albert Pike mentioned above foresaw as part of his grand plan to control the world; that global control would require three world wars to bring about the culmination of their global control plan. Pike called them visions but really they were merely inspiration of Satan. The first two wars correspond to what we know as World Wars 1 and 2. The third world war would result from fomented strife, hatred, and war between the Islamic faith and the Judeo-Christian world in which the two factions would destroy each other and then the Freemasons could step in and pick up the pieces.

If you are following the news the past few weeks in France you are aware of the destruction that has resulted in the death of a young French 17 year old teenager of North African descent. Video footage shows the police stopping the young man for a traffic violation, who then flees the traffic stop knocking the police officer to the ground driving a bright yellow exotic sports car fleeing only to become involved in an accident. The young man was shot fleeing the scene of the accident and later died. This has led to days of riots in France.

The French Interior Ministry said early Sunday that 719 people were arrested, 45 police and other gendarmes were injured, 577 vehicles and 74 buildings were set on fire and 871 fires were recorded on public roads. Riots and damage have slowed but not ended. French President Emmanuel Macron, a Freemason, has been criticized for his lack of action in bringing the riots to an end.

The crisis posed a new challenge to President Emmanuel Macron's leadership and exposed deep-seated discontent in low-income neighborhoods over discrimination and lack of opportunity. Underlying all of this is the original Illuminati agenda goals

In his book, 'Conspirator's Hierarchy: The Story of the Committee of 300', Dr. John Coleman lists the ways and means the Illuminati and their accomplices plan to create a New World Order according to their designs:

Let us not allow "them" to get the Earth completely in their iron grasp!

1. The creation of a One World Government with one single church and one single currency under their control.
2. The total destruction of every national identity and all national pride, because only then will people accept a super-national world government.
3. The destruction of every religion, especially Christian denominations. The only exception: a "religion" of their creation.
4. The establishment of thought-control techniques with the goal of creating human robots who respond to external impulses and direction.
5. The end of industrialization with the exception of the computer and service sectors. A "post-industrial zero growth society" is the goal. The other industry branches will be transferred to more cost-effective third world countries.
6. To encourage or even to legalize drug usage and to make "art" out of pornography, which will first be generally accepted and finally be seen as totally normal.
7. To undertake the depopulation of larger cities following the example of Pol Pot's bloodbaths in Cambodia.

8. The suppression of all scientific development except that which serves the purposes of the Illuminati.
9. To bring about the premature death of 3 billion people by the year 2050—either through “regional warfare” in developed countries, or through starvation and sickness in under-developed nations. The Committee of 300 (under the direction of the Illuminati) commissioned Cyrus Vance (US Secretary of State under Carter) to write a paper on how such a population reduction could be managed. The paper was called Global2000Report and was accepted and approved of by President Carter and Edwin Muskie, the then-Secretary of State, for and in the name of the US government. One of the conditions of the Global2000Report states that the US population must be reduced by 100 million people by the year 2050.
10. To weaken the people’s morale and to further demoralize the working class through large-scale unemployment and, therefore, to push them into drug or alcohol addiction. The youth should be encouraged to rebel against the status quo, which also leads to the weakening/dissolution of the family, through drugs and aggressive music.
11. To stop people from determining their own fate by forcing them to weather one crisis after another and to learn to leave such crises to be dealt with by the government. The people will soon feel so overwhelmed by their “own fates” and many difficult decisions that they will become apathetic. There is already an authority for crisis management; it’s called FEMA, or the Federal Emergency Management Agency.
12. To introduce new cults and support existing ones.
13. To support Christian fundamentalism, which will then, through identification with “God’s Chosen People”, support the goals of the Zionist Israeli state with, among other things, great sums of money.
14. To push for the spread of religious sects like the Muslim Brotherhood or the Sikhs and to carry out thought-control experiments similar to the ones Jim Jones carried out in his camp in Jonestown (Guayana) before the c. 900 followers of his People’s Temple were killed or committed suicide on command (November 1978).
15. To circulate ideas with respect to religious freedom around the world in order to undermine all existing religions, especially Christianity. This process has already begun with the so-called “Theology of Liberation”.
16. To provoke a collapse of the world economy and thus create total political chaos.
17. To take over control of all domestic and international policies of the USA.
18. To ensure that supra-national institutions (e.g. the UNO (United Nations Organization), the IMF (International Monetary Fund), the BIS (Bank for International Settlements), the ICJ (International Court of Justice), etc.) receive the greatest support, while, at the same time, local and national institutions become decreasingly able to act by systematically destroying them or by bringing them under the controlling umbrella of the UNO.
19. To infiltrate and take over all governments in order to insidiously dissipate and destroy the sovereignty of each nation from the inside.

20. To create an international terrorism and to negotiate with terrorists whenever terrorist activities have occurred.
21. To take control of the education system in the USA with the goal of completely destroying it.

The original goals of Adam Weishaupt founder of the Bavarian Illuminati were not quite as extensive as the full list above of today. Adam Weishaupt was a Jesuit at the University of Ingolstadt where he began his ideas and plans of controlling the world. The Illuminati was founded May 1, 1776; and the Jesuits infiltrated Freemasonry in 1777 and so when the term Illuminati is used, it is “code” word for the Jesuit-controlled Vatican. I have written many articles on this topic over the decades. The revolutionary movement may go by different names, yet their doctrine and goals are the same.

In Spain, an investigation by the Catholic Church found over 700 alleged abusers within their own organization. How many more would be found if an outside organization did the investigating? Spain’s national prosecutor wrote the Church’s internal investigation was “partial” and “of little use” leaving no doubt that more abusers and victims have yet to be found.

In Cologne Germany, the ‘historic center’ of Catholicism for that country, a court ordered the Catholic Church to pay a former altar boy for repeated sexual abuse. Surprisingly, the ruling was considered a first of its kind in Germany. The German Catholic church has been making ‘voluntary payments’ to victims following a church-commissioned 2018 report that found over 3,500 abuse victims. The ruling has encouraged more victims to take their claims to the courts.

In Australia, an ex-priest currently serving a 39-year sentence for abusing children, plead guilty to his 72nd known victim. As a priest, he was ‘shuffled between 16 church posts.’ Cardinal Pell was found to have known about the abuses.

The Jesuits expelled a Slovenian priest this past June after allegations of abuse of adult women created a scandal for the Vatican when Italian blogs and websites covered the complaints. The Jesuit had previously been excommunicated in 2020 for the same accusations, but after he ‘repented’ the sanction was removed. The Vatican’s sex abuse office, where Jesuits hold the top positions, previously declared the crimes too old to prosecute. The priest is considered ‘prominent’ due to his ‘celebrated’ religious art of mosaics in churches including the Vatican. The Vatican appears not to consider that God doesn’t care how ‘prominent’ or celebrated one is. He is not a respecter of persons. The Vatican hierarchy is not in-line with God when they have ‘men’s persons in admiration because of advantage.’

“But he that does wrong shall receive for the wrong which he has done: and there is no respect of persons.” -(Colossians 3:25)

“...there are certain men... ungodly men, turning the grace of our God into lasciviousness... their mouth speaking great swelling words, having men’s persons in admiration because of advantage.” -(Jude 4-16)

In the U.S., The Archdiocese of New Orleans has been dealing with several lawsuits associated with sexual abuse of minors including one that this month revealed the active concealment of a serial child molester. There are 14 federal district judges in New Orleans that handle such cases and seven of them have had to recuse themselves due to associations with the Archdiocese. An eighth judge may also recuse herself because of previous donations made to the Archdiocese. Consider that 6 out of the 9 Supreme Court Justices are Catholic. Ask yourself, is the Catholic Church, and thereby those who follow her, in-line with God?

“You shall not respect persons in judgment, but you shall hear the small as well as the great; you shall not be afraid of the face of man; for the judgment is God’s...” -(Deuteronomy 1:17)

“For God shall bring every work into judgment, every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil.” -(Ecclesiastes 12:14)

Also in the U.S., the Archdiocese of St. Louis agreed to a $1 million settlement with a sex abuse victim. In Michigan, a priest was sentenced to a year in prison for assaulting a five-year-old boy. On a positive note, Vermont, Maine and Maryland have all removed time limits on child sex abuse lawsuits with Michigan, Rhode Island and Massachusetts appearing to soon follow suite.

Woe to you scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like white sepulchers, which indeed appear beautiful outside, but are full of dead men’s bones, and of all uncleanness. Even so you also outwardly appear righteous to men, but within you are full of hypocrisy and iniquity.” -(Matthew 23:27-28)

“Woe to the world because of offenses (scandals)! for it must needs be that offenses come; but woe to that man (those men) by whom the offenses (scandals) come!” -(Matthew 18:7)

Becoming the Thing One Worships

Hundreds of scriptures warn against idolatry. One of the most clear is in the Psalms.

“The idols of the heathen are silver and gold, the work of men’s hands. They have mouths, but they speak not; eyes have they, but they see not; They have ears, but they hear not; neither is there any breath in their mouths. They that make them are like unto them: so is every one that trusts in them.” -(Psalm 135: 15-18)

Those who make idols or trust in idols become like the idols. They have eyes, but can’t see or understand God’s Words, they have ears, but can’t hear or comprehend God and lastly they have a mouth, but no breath or spirit, meaning they are ‘dead’ to God. Even with this stark warning there are religious leaders still leading their flock astray into idolatry. The Pope is the chief among them. On June 29th, the Catholic Church celebrated the feast day of saints Peter and Paul. On that day, they dress up a statue of Peter with Papal garments and the three tiered crown.

The book 'Codeword Barbelon' by P.D. Stuart published in late 2009 is the "definitive" source document on how these groups are inter-related and tied together in this grand "666" conspiracy. It was published in the UK and answers the many questions of Dan Brown's book, 'The Da Vinci Code'.

In several segments of my Blessed Hope series I have shown the irrefutable evidence to the fact that Prince Charles of Wales, Head of the Order of the Garter, is the Biblical false messiah, also known as "THE ANTICHRIST".

"And he will make a firm covenant with the many for one week" (7 years), -Daniel 9:27.

This is a 'Must View' video of Prince Charles coming plan to change the world:

Something Terrifying is Coming from the Middle East in 2023

This hour long video reveals how close we are to the "Seven" year period the Bible refers to as Daniel's 70th Week Prophecy or the Tribulation! The Rapture will take place prior to the beginning of this fulfillment of Prince Charles signing of and the fulfillment of Daniel 9:27!

"And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate." -(Daniel 9:27). How much more explicit could God be in telling us when Jesus Christ "Raptures the Bride" home????

The "Key" days are: 9th of Av on July 26th and Rosh HaShanah on September 15th.

Days to July 26th as of 7/6/23 – 20 Days Days to September 15th as of 7/6/23 – 71 Days

Praise God!
