Doctors Can No Longer Question Anything the Vaccine Industry Calls ‘Science’ or They Get Targeted for De-Licensing by Dr. Richard ‘Misinformation’ Baron

by S.D. Wells | NaturalNews.com

October 3rd 2023,

Dr. Richard Baron has publicly targeted doctors since 2021 that he believes have spread “misinformation” about COVID and vaccines.

It has been revealed that a medical board chief who wants to de-license doctors that oppose the Biden regime’s radical COVID agenda happens to be represented by the same PR firm as Pfizer, Moderna and the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention (CDC).

President and CEO of the American Board of Internal Medicine (ABIM) Dr. Richard Baron has publicly targeted doctors since 2021 that he believes have spread “misinformation” about COVID and vaccines. Baron, by way of the ABIM, has successfully revoked licenses from doctors across the country for as little as less-than-100% support for COVID-19 vaccines. Baron expressed his dictatorial authority in a blog post on the ABIM website where he said, “I want to state unequivocally that ABIM can and does take action, independent of state licensing boards, to remove certification from physicians for unprofessional and unethical behavior.”

One doctor who has had their license revoked is Dr. Mary Kelly Sutton. The integrative physician was told she improperly exempted eight children from required school vaccinations. Sutton said she has always prioritized providing parents information necessary for giving informed consent on behalf of their children, but now specialty boards like the ABIM are obstructing her practice with their vague accusations and “egregious overreach of power.”

Before physicians across the country began speaking out against COVID vaccine safety, Baron never displayed a public concern about “misinformation.” Nor did he ever claim to be an expert authority on the subject. But what we now know is that Baron is in bed with Weber Shandwick, a PR firm self-branded as “misinformation and disinformation” experts.

Weber Shandwick is the second-largest PR firm in the world. According to their website, they are experts in strategy & analytics, creative design & content, public relations & marketing, organizational transformation, and crisis reputation & leadership. Vaccine producing companies such as Pfizer and Moderna have contracted Weber Shandwick to promote their so-called miracle of modern medicine.

Pfizer spent 2.8 billion U.S. dollars on advertising in 2022 – the key to their deadly mRNA vaccine disinformation campaign

In 2022, Pfizer spent 2.8 billion U.S dollars on advertising, an increase of 800 million from the previous year. At the same time Weber Shandwick received the big bucks from Pfizer, they transitioned to providing clients with misinformation and disinformation management services. In fact, Weber Shandwick’s Executive Vice President of Healthcare Communications, Strategy & Planning Sarah Mahoney has stated that she “can’t think of a more important topic right now.”

Weber Shandwick’s Big Pharma backed crusade against “medical misinformation” has led them to host several conference panels featuring supposed experts. Dr. Richard Baron, a client of Weber Shandwick who has used the firm to advertise his disgust of physicians with dissenting opinions on COVID, was a panel member at one of these events.

The CDC has even struck up mega contracts with Weber Shandwick. According to the firm’s website, they were tasked with “promoting the vaccination of children, pregnant women and those at risk for flu and increase the general acceptance and use of vaccines.”

It seems that as the dollars roll in, everyone whose opinion aligns with the government and Big Pharma is automatically an expert on ‘misinformation’ and ‘disinformation.’ Even more so, they seem to have the authority to punish others for having a dissenting opinion. That’s called tyranny.

It seems that misinformation and disinformation are the primary M.O. (method of operation) of all things vaccine related these days, and anyone who opposes this misinformation and disinformation is accused of spreading misinformation and disinformation. How ironic. Keep your truth news in check by adding Preparedness.news to your favorites list and tuning in daily for updates on real news about surviving the next wave of misinformation and disinformation coming from Big Pharma.

In His New Climate Encyclical, Laudate Deum, Pope Francis Calls for the Immediate Establishment of a Single Political Authority Encompassing All Nations, the Implantation of Penalties, and for the United States to Lead by Example

“And all the world wondered after the beast.” –(Revelation 13:3)

The papacy’s dream of global supremacy has just been codified in the latest climate encyclical. On October 4, 2023, Pope Francis released his second climate encyclical, Laudate Deum, in which he reiterates the coming destruction of the world unless drastic measures are taken immediately. In it, the Pope sets the agenda for how climate policies can be enforced in our society. He laments the failures of the previous climate change COP conferences and calls on COP 28, which is slated to start in November of this year, to have the courage and make changes that are “drastic” and “intense” and that will require the “commitment of all.” The Pope also specifically mentioned the United States when calling for “indispensable political decisions.”

A Single Global Political Order

Pope Francis reiterated once again the need to implement a single political authority or system that would have jurisdiction and authority over the entire planet, encompassing all countries and nations. This concept envisions a centralized form of governance that will have an authority that would supersede existing national governments. The Pope said:

- “When we talk about the possibility of some form of world authority regulated by law, we need not necessarily think of a personal authority”. We are speaking above all of “more effective world organizations, equipped with the power to provide for the global common good, the elimination of hunger and poverty and the sure defense of fundamental human rights”. The issue is that they must be endowed with real authority, in such a way as to “provide for” the attainment of certain essential goals. In this way, there could come about a multilateralism that is not dependent on changing political conditions or the interests of a certain few, and possesses a stable efficacy.” (Laudate Deum #35)
- “I invite you to recognize that many groups and organizations within civil society help to compensate for the shortcomings of the international community, its lack of coordination in complex situations, and its lack of attention to fundamental human rights.” (Laudate Deum #37).
- “Unless citizens control political power – national, regional and municipal – it will not be possible to control damage to the environment”. (Laudate Deum #38).
- “Our world has become so multipolar and at the same time so complex that a different framework for effective cooperation is required. (Laudate Deum #42).

- “All this presupposes the development of a new procedure for decision-making and legitimizing those decisions, since the one put in place several decades ago is not sufficient nor does it appear effective. In this framework, there would necessarily be required spaces for conversation, consultation, arbitration, conflict resolution and supervision, and, in the end, a sort of increased “democratization” in the global context, so that the various situations can be expressed and included.” (Laudate Deum #43).
- “Today we can continue to state that, “the accords (COPs) have been poorly implemented, due to lack of suitable mechanisms for oversight, periodic review and penalties in cases of noncompliance. The principles which they proclaimed still await an efficient and flexible means of practical implementation”. (Laudate Deum #52).

Attacking Climate Change Deniers

In Laudate Deum sections 6–8, Pope Francis attacks climate change deniers. He singles out those who chose to “deride” the “facts” about the climate crisis. He says those who resist the reality of the climate apocalypse “lack information” and are bringing “confusion.” This seems to indicate that unless you accept the climate narrative, you will be targeted as part of the problem in the coming single global political authority.

Out of Chaos, Order

Pope Francis also used previous catastrophes to highlight the need to act on climate change. In Section #36, he referenced the Covid-19 pandemic and the 2008 banking crisis to reiterate the need to get everyone on board with his climate message. In other words, he is using crises to prompt people and governments to implement global changes. Pope Francis is expressing the idea that, from disorder and chaos, a new global order can emerge. They create a crisis and then offer their solution. And without doubt, Pope Francis is using the banking crisis, the Covid crisis, and the climate crisis to push globalism.

The Failures of the Climate Conferences (COP)

In Laudate Deus, Pope Francis praises the efforts of the United Nations Climate Change Conferences (COP), but then highlights the failure of anything concrete being done. The reason he gives for the inaction of the COP conferences is due to the fact that there are no “suitable mechanisms for oversight” to impose “penalties in cases of noncompliance” (Section #52). The Pope then went on to express hope that “international politics” will prevail during COP 28, which will begin on November 30, 2023.

- “If we are confident in the capacity of human beings to transcend their petty interests and to think in bigger terms, we can keep hoping that COP28 will allow for a decisive acceleration of energy transition, with effective commitments subject to ongoing monitoring.” (Laudate Deum #54).

- “If there is sincere interest in making COP28 a historic event that honours and ennobles us as human beings, then one can only hope for binding forms of energy transition that meet three conditions: that they be efficient, obligatory and readily monitored. This, in order to achieve the beginning of a new process marked by three requirements: that it be drastic, intense and count on the commitment of all. That is not what has happened so far, and only a process of this sort can enable international politics to recover its credibility. levels and to prevent even greater evils over time.” (Laudate Deum #59).

Pope: The United States Must Change

It is very interesting to note that Pope Francis made specific reference to the Second Beast in Revelation 13 in his encyclical. He basically said that the United States of America should be our starting point in the war against climate change. According to Pope Francis, America is the biggest contributor to the climate crisis, so it needs to make changes and set an example for the world.

- “If we consider that emissions per individual in the United States are about two times greater than those of individuals living in China, and about seven times greater than the average of the poorest countries, we can state that a broad change in the irresponsible lifestyle connected with the Western model would have a significant long-term impact. As a result, along with indispensable political decisions, we would be making progress along the way to genuine care for one another.” (Laudate Deum #72).

Truly, the whole world is wondering after the beast! That is precisely what we are seeing today. The prophecies of Revelation Chapters 13, 17, and 18 are taking shape, and this should make us aware of the signs of the times. The end is near. Prophecy warns us that when we see the great religious bodies uniting and when Rome and the United States begin to align themselves together to implement global policies, this act will precede the final conflict in the great controversy. In this conflict, God’s people cannot be neutral or ecumenical.

Meet the great Christian counterfeit, the woman ‘drunken with the blood of the saints’ that is the Roman Catholic Church and Vatican State, it’s all in Revelation!

Dave Hunt writes “John next notices that the woman is drunk-and not with an alcoholic beverage. She is drunk with “the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus. ..” The picture is a horrible one. It is not merely her hands that are red with this blood, but she is drunk with it! The slaughter of innocents who, for conscience’ sake, would not yield to her totalitarian demands has so refreshed and exhilarated her that she reels in ecstasy. Talk about a horror movie, but this is no Hollywood fantasy, this is the Roman Catholic Church as revealed in Revelation. Dave’s book ‘The Woman Rides the Beast’ quotes:

“And I saw the woman drunken with the blood of the saints, and with the blood of the martyrs of Jesus: and when I saw her, I wondered with great admiration.” – (Revelation 17:6)

Pope Francis is a Jesuit; and he was the first religious leader to encourage people to take the vaccines that were rolled out in the fall of 2020. If you want to know more about the crimes of the Jesuits, read my article posted last week at: Vaccines Are A Jesuit Crime Against Humanity And A War Against God! Few people know the history of Edward Jenner, S.J. and his origin of his snake-oil vaccines. Dr. Suzanne Humphries exposes the entire vaccine industry for what it really is, a crime against children.

Pope Francis agenda from the start was to destroy the Roman Catholic Institution from the outset. One can read that story in Dr. Taylor Marshall’s book ‘Infiltration’ published in 2019. The Jesuits or the Society of Jesus is not a religious order of priests. They are a militant order of the Vatican created to suppress and exterminate the Reformation of 1517 AD.

Freemasons were infiltrated by the Jesuits at the college of Clermont in Paris France in the late 1700s, where the Jesuits re-wrote the rites and rituals of the Scottish Rite of Freemasonry.

Historically, the Jesuits have been expelled from 83 countries and cities for their engaging in political activity to overthrow leaders of governments. When we hear the word “Illuminati” mentioned or noted, think of the term as a code word for the Jesuits. As their role as “enforcers” they predominate in global politics, education; however, are not permitted to officiate marriages, baptisms, and traditional duties of religious priests. They worship Satan and have been the greatest offenders of crimes against children in the Catholic community.

The Jesuits were very active in South America promoting their “Liberation Theology” agenda, promoting Marxism and Communist ideology.

Reasons America is Mystery Babylon (Not Iraq)

Just who is "Babylon the Great" of Revelation 17-18? Popular answers are the Vatican or Catholic Church, Rome ("the city on seven hills"), Jerusalem, and Iraq where the literal city Babylon is found. These answers may seem to be adequate when you focus on only a few verses or traits of Mystery Babylon. However, when you consider all the characteristics of Daughter Babylon or Babylon the Great found throughout Bible prophecy, only one answer fits the many verses literally without forcing: America the Great. This article was written by the late R. A. Coombes.

Most of this article's material has been adapted from chapter 4 of Volume 2 of 'America, The Babylon' but since publication of the book in 2002 which featured 57 reasons, Tim McHyde provided an added 3 new reasons in May of 2006.

No need for you to look for volume 1 published in May, 1998. I imagine that few of you can afford the price that Amazon is asking for a copy. The price Amazon is asking for it is $444.87. I bought it in 1998 for $15 and read it several times in the months that followed. I was in the process of disassociating my credentials and leaving the United Methodist Church over the denominational stance it took on the "wink and nod" attitude of homosexual and lesbian pastors in the denomination. I took a couple months off as reflection time before taking a position as a teaching assistant position at a technical high school teaching automotive and diesel technology in two different departments of the school. I spent a couple years as an on call pastor for different churches needing a pulpit supply on short notice or vacation pulpit supply. I later took a teaching position at a Bible college in Western PA. This year 6,300 UMC churches left the denomination to form the World Methodist Church.

I have both editions of Richard Coombes book, volume 2 was released as a CD. During 1998 and up until Richard became ill with pancreatic cancer, we had frequent communication through letter and the Internet. Richard died in July of 2013, less than a year after I moved back to Kentucky. Richard was a Greek scholar and taught at Moody Bible Institute and Calvary Bible College in Kansas City. Richard was more than qualified to write his 2-volume work. I know that many Bible prophecy teachers were at odds with Richard but he offered challenges to those who disagreed with him. His book cost him many friends who would not believe the truth and abandoned Richard.

There are some prophecy "experts" who have proposed the theory that Iraq and the ancient archaeological site of Babylon is the location for the "Mystery Babylon" of Prophecy. That theory considers the ancient prophecies of Revelation chapters 17 and 18 primarily. Some of those experts also refer to other prophecies of Isaiah 13, 14, 18, 47, and Jeremiah 50 and 51. The theoretical lines of reasoning revolve around the central notion that the prophecies must be literal and applicable only to the ancient location site of Babylon with its current nationality being Iraq. That is the main line of proof for such a view.

The site of ancient Babylon can be the only literal rendering of this prophecy according to those theorists. They proudly claim that they are the only, holy LITERAL interpreters of the text. To take the text LITERALLY one must assume then, that ancient Babylon is the LITERAL Babylon of the prophecies written by the Old and New Testament authors. Such a view assumes way too much, particularly in the translation work. Is it possible that there could be a different and more literal view based on a sharper rendering of the original Hebrew and Greek texts? Yes. Why?

This researcher has done 21 years of extensive research into such theories. The results of my research indicate that the "Iraq is Mystery Babylon" theory is incorrect and invalid. Why? It is really very simple. Follow the exact rendering of the original Hebrew and Greek texts for themselves and you will find numerous character traits for the future nation of Mystery Babylon. Yes, I did use the term "nation" because again, what seems to be merely a city being described is not just a city. Most literally, the prophecies not only refer to a city but to cities, PLURAL. Also the prophecies refer to farming and the farmers of Babylon. There are no farms in a city.

There are numerous character traits listed for this city/state/nation that is referred to as either "Babylon" or "Mystery Babylon". These character traits serve as identifying markers that give us the clues as to the identity of such a city/nation. Those traits must all match perfectly to one identity. We cannot ignore some and select others. These traits are numerous and 60 of those traits clearly cannot be identified with Iraq. The following list shows what traits do NOT match up with Iraq.

The 60 Character Traits of Mystery Babylon

#1. The Jewish Population Issue:

Jeremiah 50:8, 25; Jeremiah 51: 6, 45; Isaiah 48:20 and also Revelation 18:4.

These are all references to Jewish people living in this future "Mystery Babylon" in the ancient Babylon, from the 6th Century BC till well into the early Church Age, the majority of the Jewish population lived in ancient Babylon. It was the home to most of the world's Jews even in the time of Christ. Today, the largest population of Jewish people is found in the United States. The next two nations combined, Israel (home to the 2nd largest Jewish population) and Russia (home to the 3rd largest Jewish population) do not equal the population of Jewish people living in America. Iraq on the other hand has only a relative handful of Jews living within its borders. Some estimate the Jewish population in Iraq at perhaps 10,000. That is not very many people, particularly in regards to the population of most other nations hosting the Jewish remnant. This character trait of being the lead host for Jewry is not indicative that Iraq today fulfills the prophecies of "mystery Babylon." Therefore, this trait alone disqualifies the theory of "Iraq = Mystery" Babylon.

But, for those who are hard-headed, let us press on with the other 56 reasons why Iraq can NOT be Mystery Babylon based upon a literal rendering of the texts.

#2. The chief city of Mystery Babylon is a "DEEPWATER PORT CITY"!!!

Revelation 18: 17-19. This passage tells us that merchant ships are standing off the shoreline of Babylon. These ships have either just unloaded in the port city of Mystery Babylon, or are waiting to dock when the fiery judgment hits. These ship captains, crew and passengers are witnesses to the destruction. Question: Why would these folks be standing on deck of merchant ships unless there were port facilities in this city? Answer: The city is a port city. In this day and age, especially by virtue of the list of commodities that are traded in "Mystery Babylon," (see Revelation 18:11-13) there must be at least one deepwater port in the nation of Mystery Babylon. One thing can be noted regard to modern day port facilities. In order for Babylon to have the kind of merchandise (described in Revelation 18:11-13) coming by ships then those ships must be going to and from a DEEPWATER SEA-PORT CITY. Why? For today's ships to bring such merchandise requires them to be large commercial freighters with DEEP drawing drafts. These ships require deep-water port facilities to dock and load/unload because their hulls are so deep. They are BIG ships. [Note Reason #2 seems to be like our #57 reason, but there are significant differences between them.]

Now here is the problem for the Iraq = Babylon theorists: Iraq has no deepwater seaport!!! That's right, there is no DEEP-Water port facility in all of Iraq. During Gulf War2, there were and still are small freighters coming into the little town harbor of Basra. In a recent United States CIA publication on Iraq, the CIA noted that a significant problem with sea transport was the lack of deepwater shipping facilities. Harbor draft measurements up the mouth of the Euphrates river to Basra are around the eight foot (that's 8 feet) level. That makes it hard to even get big fishing boats into the harbor. At best, draft levels further out only range to less than 20 feet.

There is no way that the typical international commercial freighters could dock in Basra or anywhere else in Iraq's very short shoreline because they would easily run aground and become stuck in the shallow, muddy waters. Only small ships carrying small quantities of goods can dock in Basra. Those large ore-carrying freighters, or big cargo container ships carrying cars or trucks are simply too big to be able to dock at the shallow harbor of Basra or any other little harbor on Iraq's shoreline. Those super-large oil tankers cannot get near to the small snippet of coastline that Iraq has because it is so shallow. The oil from Iraq is therefore either piped to Jordan, or is piped out for miles into the Persian Gulf into the deeper waters where these oil tankers won't run aground.

But that is not all that shoots the Literalist's balloon out from underneath them on this issue of deep-water port facilities.

According to the "Literalist's," Ancient Babylon, we are told must be the only literal interpretation. However, ancient Babylon is 400+ miles from the Persian Gulf and over 350 miles from Basra. The LITERAL description found in Revelation 18: 17-19 shows these huge ships will be within visual distance of the city skyline and will witness her destruction up close and personal. Being 400 miles away is just a bit too far to be able to see any kind of destruction of a city, even if it were from nuclear bombs. The curvature of the earth is just a bit too much at 400 miles even with flat terrain to be able to see what has transpired that far away. Now although this is in itself a fatal flaw exposed in the "Iraq = Mystery Babylon" theory it is just one of many theoretical flaws. One thing it really points to though is how NOT Literal is the concept that Iraq is Mystery Babylon.

#3. It is the KEY Commercial Nation and Engine of Wealth for the World's Economy

Isaiah 47:15. Revelation 17:2; Revelation 18: 3, 9, 11-13, 15, 16, 17-19, 22, 23, & 19:2. In these passages we see just what relationship Babylon enjoys with the rest of the world. Here she is clearly the critical factor in the world economy. When she goes down in flames...what is the lament? "What was like unto this mega city? Who will buy our goods now that she is gone"? The answer is that no one will be able to buy the products of the world's merchants. What does this tell us??? It should be a clear warning indicator that whoever this nation is... the rest of the world depends on her for buying their merchandise. With her destruction, there is no one left to buy these goods. That tells us just how vital this nation is and it means this nation is the engine of wealth for the world. Now, Iraq does NOT now nor can it fit that role...at least in the next 30 years, unless the rest of the world is wiped out first. Once again, we see a character trait that Iraq does not exemplify in any way, shape or form.

#4 - #21. It is the principal Commodities Trading Center

These are all commodities in a list that are the chief trading products as cited in Rev 18:11-13, for which the merchants and sailors later lament that no one will buy these products anymore. This includes Gold, Silver and Copper. Now on these items alone... there is more Gold traded in New York City on the COMEX in one day than in all the rest of the world combined!!! The same is true for Silver and Copper and Crude Oil. In fact, the volume of trade is so heavy that in one day alone there is more gold traded than had been traded in all of human history up until 1974 when gold trading was allowed on a futures contractual basis. That is how massive and dominant the USA and NYC are in the commodities trading markets. Revelation 18: 12 & 13, lists many other commodities as well, including grains and livestock. Now, Chicago is the Host City for such record trading in that arena. It too is a port city on as it sits on Lake Michigan. The fact of the matter: Iraq has no economic power... it has no ability to be the economic engine of wealth for the whole world. If Iraq vanished from the face of the earth today it would not even cause a ripple in the world's economy.

However, if the USA vanished today it would decimate the world's economy and bankrupt every nation on earth, instantly. In essence, there would be no one left to buy the foreigner's goods. That's because no one else wants to import goods. They only want to export not import. The USA is the big promoter of international trade and promotes imports plus free trade. Iraq plays no such role in the world economy. As a nation, Iraq is simply too poor.

#22. A Leading center of imports and consumption

Revelation 18: 11, 17-19. These passages tell us the economic picture of this nation. Note that this nation is not only involved in the trade of these products, but that she is also the leading importer... because when she is destroyed... "no one buys"... their merchandise anymore. The folks doing the lamenting are the international merchants who export goods to this mystery Babylon. Therefore, she is the leading import nation. She is therefore, by virtue of her importer status, the chief consuming nation. This also is not a description of Iraq. Iraq has no such status in the world today, tomorrow or the foreseeable future! It is this aspect which negates the Iraq theory...because the contention is that we are living in the "last days" and the fulfillment of the end-times prophecies are at hand. IF this is true, and I assert that it indeed is true, then how can Iraq match these character traits in so short a span of time??? Answer: she can't. Iraq is not the nation being described. There is only one nation that fits these traits, and more. That nation is the United States of America.

#23. She is also a manufacturing nation

Revelation 18: 22. This passage tells us manufacturing is no longer found in her after the judgment. This tells us that she was a manufacturing nation prior to her destruction. Iraq is not a nation noted for manufacturing.

"DEPART FROM ME, I NEVER KNEW YOU!" - JESUS

Jesus predicted that he will tell many sincere believers to basically "get lost" instead of welcoming them into the Kingdom. So...who are they and what did they miss or do wrong? In this study, get those answers and the one requirement for salvation Jesus taught (that Christianity misses) so that you can make sure you don't hear these dreaded words yourself!

#24. Center for Merchandising and Marketing

Revelation 18: 3, 23; 19:2. Her merchants were the mega-merchants of the earth. This again does not fit the character traits of Iraq. It does, however, fit the picture of America.

#25. Known as the World's "policeman"

Jeremiah 50:23 gives us a Hebrew idiom, "hammer of the whole earth." It had been used at one time to describe the way the empires of Persia, Greece and Rome had applied their power to keep the world at peace. Today, after the decline and fall of the Iron Curtain, major news media refer to America as the world's policeman, in the same kind of role that the Hebrew idiom references. Iraq does not fit this role.

#26. Known for "showing the flag" or "gunboat diplomacy"

Isaiah 18:1-2 Here we have two Hebrew idioms for the idea of a nation's navy showing its power. The phrase in verse 1 relates to the idea of "air travel." The first phrase of verse 2... "that sends ambassadors by the sea," another Hebrew idiom for when ancient naval powers would send warships to "show the flag" of friendship or threaten war to unfriendly nations or cities. Today, one nation engages in such actions: The USA sends out naval units usually as aircraft carrier battle groups. The notion of verse 1 with air travel, combined with verse 2 and the naval aspect, thus combines to send a notion of naval and air power... or suggesting aircraft carriers!!!

#27. Noted for its elegant, luxurious, refined and rich lifestyles

Isaiah 47: 1-8; Revelation 17: 4-5; 18: 2 -24. This does not match up with Iraq, as it is not capable of reaching such levels of wealthy living standards in our lifetime.

#28. Extremely Wealthy

Jeremiah 51:13... Revelation 18: 2-19

#29. Sensual, Materialistic lifestyle

Isaiah 47: 8; Revelation 18:14

#30. The Highest Living Standards

Isaiah 47:1 Revelation 18: 14

#31. Intoxicating high-society lifestyle as a world example to emulate

Revelation 17:2; Revelation 18: 3, 14, 23.

#32. Elegant, Sumptuous lifestyle

Revelation 18: 14, 23.

#33. Noted for its bright gaudy-colored lights and nightlife with round the-clock partying.

Revelation 18:14. Note the words "dainty" and "goodly." Dainty is a word in Greek that connotes to 24-hour parties, and is connoted with orgies and debauchery. The word for "goodly" is the Greek word "lampra" from which we get the English word for lamp. In this case it carries the idea of bright, gaudy-colored lights, with idea of "glitzy" lights. Could it be the bright lights of Broadway, Times Square or perhaps even Las Vegas???

#34. Noted for its Drugs and Drug use

Isaiah 47: 9, 12. Revelation 18:23 Do we even need to comment on this one??? I think not...the text clearly speaks for itself on this one.

#35. Noted for exporting its culture abroad:

Revelation 18:14, 22

#36. Noted for being Wasteful and Extravagant [Pope Francis thinks so!]

Rev 18: 3, 7, 9, 14, 15; implied in Rev 17: 2.

#37. Massive Population

Rev. 18:15. And Revelation 17: 1, 15.

#38. A land of immigrants

Jeremiah 50:16; 51:13; Rev. 17:1, 15.

#39. Unique and awe-inspiring from its birth right up to its demise

Isa. 18: 2

#40. A remarkably different heritage

Isaiah 18:2

#41. Respected-envied and yet HATED by the whole world also

Isa. 18:2

#43. Powerful and Oppressive

Isaiah 18:2

#44. Land of Rebels in its birth

Jeremiah 51: 1; Isaiah 47: 9.

#45. Cosmopolitan and Urban

Jeremiah 50:32

#46. A Land of Agriculture

Jeremiah 50: 16

#47. An International City

Revelation 17: 18; 18:15

#48. Architecture, Buildings and Skyline

Isaiah 13:22

#49. Land of Many Waters (fresh waters)

Jeremiah 51:13, 36, 42; Isa 18:1,2

#50. Where the world's leaders "stream" to meet

Jer. 51:44; Rev. 17:18

#51. Last of the Super Powers

Rev. 17. Robed woman with a cup-like container in one hand that smells like natural gas odors inside the container...and the woman is connected to water and immigration...and is considered to be a mother-figure of spiritual prostitution...a.k.a. Ishtar, the mother of 'literal' and 'physical' prostitutes within religious worship centers. That is what the Babylonian goddess Ishtar was--the promoter of physical prostitution... salvation by sex... have sex with a temple priest or priestess and you are purified from sin. And of course, you pay a 'gift offering' for this salvation activity. Ishtar was never a physical 'mother'... but rather a 'madam' over the priestesses. Ishtar was never married and never had a child but she was called "mother" of the temple priestesses. Now having said all of this... I am referring to the Statue of Liberty.

In my book, 'America, The Babylon' Vol. 1, I explain the meticulous research involved that shows that the Statue of Liberty is, in fact, the brainchild of the sculptor Bartholdi. Later in Volume 2, you will find even more data on this subject. I would like to note at this point that it was Bartholdi's idea to create the image of the goddess Liberty of Rome. You will see later on in Volume 2 just how the Romans had in fact borrowed the Babylonian goddess.

Babylonians first worshiped Ishtar the goddess of Babylon and the Romans also adopted her but they changed the name to Libertas in Latin, (Liberty, in English). So that, the Statue of Liberty is actually a pagan idol image of Ishtar--the woman pictured in Revelation 17. If you don't believe it...look at Revelation 17: 4 & 5. Note the word for abomination. The word used here is "bdelugma" and its root word is "bdeoh." Strong's Code # 946 ... "A foul thing, detestable, usually of idols ... the root word means to "break wind", or to "pass gas"... indicating the odor smells like natural gas.

Speaking of natural gas ...did you know that the torch-cup of the Statue of Liberty burns an eternal flame...fueled by smelly natural gas? Also of course, the Statue is referred to as the Mother of Exiles ... an immigrant connection...just as the woman of Rev. 17: 1, 15 is also connected to immigrants. So too was Ishtar. She was the goddess of personal freedom ... and an encouragement to immigrants.

#57 Iraq is radioactive

Iraq is now extremely "radioactive" because of America's use of ammunition that uses depleted uranium, the same basic component used for nuclear weapons, only in lesser strength in and of itself. Rifle bullets and artillery shells were packed with small amounts of radioactive, depleted uranium. Once fired, the shells and bullets spread small doses of radio-activity throughout much of Iraq and especially in hot spots like ancient Babylon. Each bullet or shell, was thought to be seemingly harmless in terms of radioactivity. What was not anticipated was the voluminous use of such radioactive materials scattered across the battlefields of Iraq. Such voluminous use has created large quantities of low-level radioactivity that in volume has created a dangerous atmosphere and environment for virtually all of Iraq.

The radioactive dust has found its way into the soil and water supplies, contaminating every-thing it comes into contact with. The radioactivity levels are high enough that Iraq is experiencing contamination levels much like that of a "nuclear dirty-bomb" in terms of the after-effects. Not only are Iraqi's dying from exposure but so are US and allied soldiers.

Uranium is a very reactive metal, easily oxidizing to U<sub>3</sub>O<sub>8</sub> and UO<sub>2</sub>.

A single 120mm Abrams tank DU shell contains 3kg of U-238 (111MBq of activity) and there is 275g (10.1MBq) in a 30mm GAU-8A A-10 Thunderbolt cannon shell. These 'penetrators' explode on impact, with up to 80% conversion to tiny long-lived glassy beads of Uranium Oxide from these 'hot particles' can travel for very large distances, even hundreds of miles, under the influence of wind, fire and are easily resuspended. The smaller particles can easily pass through the lung into the blood and lymphatic system.

Depleted Uranium has a half-life of 4.5 BILLION YEARS! Radiation levels in Iraq are between 1,000 and 1,900 times above normal. That's 1,000x to 1,900x more than normal.

Would you want to build the world's capital city on top of that kind of radiation rating with a half-life of 4.5 Billion years of radioactivity??? We think not. So does the Illuminati. Here's further technical information on depleted uranium.

"On impact, uranium penetrators burn fiercely to give an aerosol of sub-micron diameter oxide particles which are largely insoluble and remain in the environment for many years. There is considerable public and scientific concern that these radioactive particles may remain suspended for long periods, or may become resuspended and are therefore available for inhalation by non-combatants at some distance from the point of impact. Little research seems to have been carried out on the distance traveled by the uranium aerosols. The military maintain that the uranium remains near the point of impact, and the Royal Society report (2002) also states that the material does not travel more than some tens of meters. On the other hand, measurements of uranium in local populations in Kosovo some nine months after the use of uranium weapons all tested positive for depleted uranium in urine (Priest 2004) and The United Nations (UNEP) found uranium particles in air filters in Bosnia some years after its use. The question of the dispersion of uranium aerosols from the battlefield is of significant legal interest, since if a radioactive weapon resulted in the general contamination of the public in the country of deployment or elsewhere, the weapon would be classifiable as one of indiscriminate effect. There is now conceded to be no safe level of exposure to radiation. Further, there are major scientific questions over the risk models used to assess the health effects of uranium particle exposure from weapons use. In addition there is evidence of ill health in many of those exposed to uranium particles from Gulf veterans to the population of Iraq."

"Terry Jemison at the U.S. Department of Veterans Affairs stated in August 2004 that over 518,000 Gulf-era veterans (14-year period) are now on medical disability, and that 7,039 were wounded on the battlefield in that same period. Over 500,000 U.S. veterans are homeless."

* In some studies of soldiers who had normal babies before the war, 67 percent of the post-war babies are born with severe birth defects - missing brains, eyes, organs, legs and arms, and blood diseases.

* In southern Iraq, scientists are reporting five times higher levels of gamma radiation in the air, which increases the radioactive body burden daily of inhabitants. In fact, Iraq, Yugoslavia and Afghanistan are uninhabitable.

* Cancer starts with one alpha particle under the right conditions. One gram of DU is the size of a period in this sentence and releases 12,000 alpha particles per second.

From Gulf War 1 usage of depleted uranium, the Babylon region had one of the highest ratings of radioactivity levels as late as 1997.

#58 The Messianic Covenant To Abraham Included Babylonia and Babylon. The promises made to Abraham regarding a Promised Land were for Abraham and his descendants and the lands were far more extensive than ever used by Israel up until this point in time.

Often overlooked by many Bible Prophecy “experts” are the prophecies concerning the future borders of Israel when Jesus Christ returns and establishes new borders for Israel’s Millennial Kingdom that will finally fulfill the promises made to Abraham and his descendants.

Israel’s future borders will be extended eastward to encompass much of what today is called Iraq. The area will include all of the old Hittite and Chaldean Empire. Joshua 1:4 notes that it will include “ALL” of the land, which means the ancient site of Babylon and all of Babylonia are to be part of the new Messianic Israel. Scholars now believe that the Chaldeans originally were the Hittites. Not only is the promise made to Abraham in Genesis 15:18-20 [and the Hittite empire is mentioned (which included Babylon)] but again in Deuteronomy 1:7 to Moses and again to Joshua in Deuteronomy 11:24.

These Messianic prophecies come into direct conflict with the identity theory, which proposes that Iraq or ancient Babylon is the Mystery Babylon of Bible Prophecy. The conflict arises because the Babylon prophecies indicate that the land of Babylon and all of her cities and the land will remain uninhabited forever.

It should also be noted that there are some anthropologists who have strong linguistic and archaeological evidence to support their claims that the Hittites were in fact the Chaldeans with Hittites begin just a different linguistic name for the same people. Such information again, only underscores the assertion that Babylon and Babylonia of Mesopotamia are to be a part of Jesus Christ's Messianic Kingdom and not buried underwater forever as the Mystery Babylon prophecies of Jeremiah and Revelation 18 indicate because those prophecies refer to a different, end-time super-power that exists outside of the Middle East.

We simply can't have the Millennial Kingdom of Christ and the Israeli boundaries including the lands of Mystery Babylon which are to remain uninhabited forever and under water. Keep in mind that all of the millennial kingdom will be inhabited and prosperous. Clearly, we cannot have a destroyed Mystery Babylon being part of Christ's Millennial Kingdom.

If Mystery Babylon is Iraq and ancient Babylon then it cannot be part of the Messianic Kingdom of Jesus Christ because it cannot be both occupied and unoccupied at the same time. The prophecies dealing with Babylon's judgment tell us that this future Babylon will never be inhabited again and will be under water. If, Babylon of Iraq is the "Mystery Babylon" then we have a clear-cut contradiction for which the Bible never contradicts itself. The contradiction is a result of misunderstandings, misapplications, and misinterpretations of the scriptural passages to Iraq as Mystery Babylon when clearly there are 60 reasons - why Iraq can NOT be Mystery Babylon. Thus, we have no contradiction once we rule out Iraq and ancient Babylon as the future Babylon of prophecy.

#59 America Conquered Iraq and Babylon in 2003 and retains strategic control of that land and will retain that control most likely until America, the Babylon is destroyed in Divine Judgment as the Mystery Babylon.

In March of 2003, The United States of America launched an invasion and military conquest of Iraq. America captured the ancient archaeological site of Babylon. America retains strategic control of that region as well as the actual nation of Iraq which was the originally Babylonia of Nebuchadnezzar's day. Iraq and the ancient ruins of Babylon are under the strategic control of American military forces with a puppet government that appears to be splitting Iraq into three separate regions. There is now talk of being forced to realize three separate regional entities that will no doubt become "protectorates" of the United States, much like Guam became a protectorate after World War 2 or Puerto Rico after the Spanish American War. During the war, America trashed the ancient archaeological site when it established "Camp Babylon." There have been reports that the United States military spirited away from Babylon and Iraq's Museum of Antiquities, key occult artifacts that may well be the fulfillment of the Isaiah 47: 12-13:

12. - *Stand now with thine enchantments, and with the multitude of thy sorceries, wherein thou hast labored from thy youth; if so be thou shalt be able to profit, if so be thou mayest prevail.

13. - *Thou art wearied in the multitude of thy counsels. Let now the astrologers, the stargazers, the monthly prognosticators, stand up, and save thee from these things that shall come upon thee.

Let's not forget also Zechariah 5: 5-11, as we hear of stories in which the U.S. Military and Black Operations Intelligence Groups such as the CIA, DIA and other covert intelligence units may have spirited away certain occult artifacts and put them aboard giant cargo planes and air-shipped them to the United States to join other occult symbols such as The Statue of Liberty and the Goddess of Freedom atop the U.S. Capitol Dome. Do you recall that just after the U.S. took Baghdad, the Iraqi Museum of ancient artifacts was vandalized by thieves shortly after U.S. soldiers on guard were pulled out? Reports indicated that before the general public began looting the museum, special ops forces dressed in black with ski masks entered the building and raided the locked vaults containing secret occult artifacts of ancient Babylon. These have never been returned but most of the remaining looted items have been located and either returned or in the process of return.

We also understand that on Easter Sunday of 2006, an occult ceremony was conducted in secret by U.S. intelligence agents in conjunction with a U.S. military guard and waiting nearby giant air cargo transport planes. This secret operation reportedly involved occult ceremonialism and the removal of key on-site artifacts. Let's see if the Zechariah passage might just fit with such stories.

Zechariah 5: 5-11:

5 - Then the angel that talked with me went forth, and said unto me, Lift up now thine eyes, and see what is this that goeth forth.

6 - And I said, What is it? And he said, This is an ephah that goeth forth. He said moreover, This is their resemblance through all the earth.

7 - And, behold, there was lifted up a talent of lead: and this is a woman that sitteth in the midst of the ephah.

8 - And he said, This is wickedness. And he cast it into the midst of the ephah; and he cast the weight of lead upon the mouth thereof.

9 - Then lifted I up mine eyes, and looked, and, behold, there came out two women, and the wind was in their wings; for they had wings like the wings of a stork: and they lifted up the ephah between the earth and the heaven.

10 - Then said I to the angel that talked with me, Whither do these bear the ephah?

11 - And he said unto me, To build it an house in the land of Shinar: and it shall be established, and set there upon her own base."

Regardless of such stories, the fact that America retains strategic control of the land means that from a prophetic standpoint, America IS Babylon. But if you don't wish to believe even this, consider ...

THE MOST LITERAL OF ALL

#60. A Populated city named Babylon on a Deepwater Port entryway to New York City

Revelation 17:18; & 18: 11-19... Did you know that when ships coming in to the harbor facilities of New York City make their final approach to the Harbor channel shipping lanes...they have to come in from the south... heading due North straight for a spot on Long Island called ... BABYLON !!! That is right. The city of Babylon, New York features a tall water tower that ship captains use to navigate directly into the harbor channel. They come within view of Babylon before turning west to head into the ports of New York City. It is from this vantage point that I believe Revelation 18: 17-19 takes place.

From this vantage point...on the deck of a ship...one could quite easily read the letters of the name Babylon on the city water tower!!! Talk about literal?? Now that is indeed literal. This is something that theorists who promote the Iraq = Babylon idea can't match, because ancient Babylon is not a deepwater seaport. It's so far away from the ocean that it cannot possibly fit the description of Revelation 18: 17-19... in no way. But the USA can... and especially its chief city... a seaport named NYC/Babylon. Also, Babylon on Long Island derived its name because immigrant Jews founded it in 1872. The group's rabbis chose the name almost prophetically, because they believed it would be home to a new diaspora.

Why would they think this? Because rabbinical opinions had held that ancient Babylon's power would be moved... Zechariah 5: 5-11... and Isaiah 18:1 tells us what direction it would be moving. Isaiah 18:1 says that the spirit of Babylon would move west of the most outermost boundaries of ancient Babylon's western-most border, beyond the rivers of Ethiopia and Egypt. [That is what is meant by the KJV term "Ethiopia"] By virtue of Isaiah's point of observation being from Jerusalem...then the direction of movement was westward from Jerusalem...beyond the most outer of Babylon's oldest boundaries... meaning... the occultic power that fueled Babylon would move and take up residence elsewhere in the end times.

Thus, Scripture itself negates the "Iraq = Babylon" theory. Why will our "expert" scholars not accept the Scriptural passages on this? Is it due to Pride? Is it due to ignorance? However, it seems to me that their hypocrisy shows. Clearly, the only logical interpretation from Scripture is that it literally cannot be Iraq because the text tells us it moved. Isaiah 18:1-7 and Zechariah 5:5-11.

Early rabbinical writers commented on this well before the time of Christ. They made note that the "mystical woman of Babylon" had moved out of the Babylonian Empire and had been taken westward beyond the ancient boundaries of Babylonia. Those most westward boundaries were considered to be Egypt and Ethiopia. The woman was taken west of those two countries. They noted that the woman would not be found in its old location of Mesopotamia for the fulfillment of the final prophecies, which would be fulfilled at the coming of Messiah.

These rabbinical commentators believed that a future Babylon that was prophesied by Isaiah and Jeremiah would be located west of Egypt and Ethiopia. They believed the woman of Zechariah 5 was headed west of those boundaries and hence out of uttermost regions of Babylonia/Shinar/Chaldea. Yes, they believed she was being taken west of Egypt and Ethiopia in that basket. Why? Note that the observer's vantage point was already in the land of Shinar.

Shinar is yet another term for the ancient nation of Babylonia or Chaldea. Therefore we must pay attention to that Scriptural direction and realize that it must be a new nation that carries the old Babylonian character traits. You'll note that the verse is indicating it is a different Shinar than the Chaldean or Babylonian land called Shinar. How do we know that? Isaiah 18:1-2 tells us from the observer's vantage point of Jerusalem that the phrase beyond the rivers of Ethiopia is an ancient idiomatic reference to the farthest borders of Babylon at the time of Cush, father of Nimrod. Nimrod inherited that land from his father and so that Egypt and Ethiopia were the extreme western border of Babylonia or Shinar or Chaldea.

Now, Isaiah is telling us that a future Babylon would exist at the time of the coming of Messiah and it would be located beyond the old Babylonian Empirical boundaries of Egypt and Ethiopia, which was the Cush empire that Nimrod inherited. It too was Shinar. Zechariah is then referencing that the woman is being flown out of Babylonia/Chaldea/Shinar to a new land of Shinar. This confirms what the prophet Isaiah had written earlier concerning a future Babylon being located west of the old Babylon.

There is reportedly a team of archaeological experts preparing to publish the results of many years of work in which they claim to have documentation that the Babylonians occupied North America and Mexico as colonies as early as around 3,000 BC. If this were true then it may further highlight and underscore the reason for these statements made by the prophets and the rabbinical commentaries. We do know this...that the nation being referred to is none other than ...
... America, The Babylon.

New Bill Plans To Co-Opt USPS To Distribute Digital IDs

Under the pretense of fortifying digital security in the United States, newly proposed legislation seeks to transform the United States Postal Service (USPS) into a hub for digital IDs. Senators Ron Wyden, a Democrat, and Bill Cassidy, Republican, have put forth the bill known as the Post Office Services for Trustworthy Identity Act. The proposed legislation opens new discourse on digital privacy and the potential for abnormal surveillance measures, sparking debate over the delicate balance between biosecurity and preserving citizens' fundamental rights.

The proposed legislation comes in response to the piecemeal approach taken towards biometric identification in America. Historically, disjointed programs have been created by different states and separate agency undertakings, giving rise to the necessity for a more coherent national strategy. The Post Office Services for Trustworthy Identity Act could mark a landmark shift, focusing on service provision rather than overarching digital ID strategy.

However, the legislation's journey to fruition remains undetermined, often met with hesitation from Postal Service officials who previously exhibited resistance toward such plans.

The bill, if enacted, would license the USPS to initiate an in-person program. It is critical to point out, however, that the Postal Service's adoption of the service remains optional. At least for now, but I can tell you where it will go.

If executed, the USPS, spearheaded by the postmaster general, could impose a fee for the digital ID services among other options.

The protective angle of this bill is not without its critics, who cite potential issues related to privacy and overbearing surveillance; rightfully so in my point of view. None of you will remember when the USPS forced upon mailer customers like publishers of magazines to apply the UPC Bar Code to magazines, periodicals, journals, etc. Recall what I wrote in the last Blessed Hope #209 on the UPC Bar Code and QR Codes. I recall it all too well since I published a monthly magazine. In late 1984, the Postmaster from which I mailed my publication asked me to step into his office to discuss a needed change.

I was told that I had to affix a UPC Bar Code on my publication by August of 1985. When I asked, "what if I did not want to do that?", I was told I would not be allowed to use the USPS mailing. I mailed my last issues of my publications the last week of August, 1985. Like Tim Cohen who refused to put the UPC Bar Code on his book, 'Antichrist and a Cup of Tea', I chose not to comply even at a high price. I knew where this was ultimately leading to back in 1972 when IBM engineer George Lauer created the UPC Bar Code for the grocery industry.

The USPS is the oldest government service and everyone gets mail. How would go about registering everyone to receive one of Bill Gates personal Quantum Dot ID2020?

Enter COVID-19 Bill, HR 6666 and Bill Gates Crypto Slavery patent 060606. Patent WO/2020/060606 was registered on March 26, 2020. No, you can't make this stuff up! And yes, truth is stranger than Fiction. As it could not been made any more obvious. You may not believe in such a thing, but the demon possessed New World Order Henchmen certainly do. By putting it into legislation YOU invite the Beast into your home. And by being force Vaccinated you will receive the mark of the beast. Gates 060606 microchip will be ready soon. In a blog post on April 30, Bill Gates wrote, “We need to manufacture at least 7 billion doses of the vaccine.” He said the vaccines should be distributed “as soon as the first batch is ready to go”.

As I noted, everyone gets mail from time to time. Even the homeless register with a post office; General delivery mail service from USPS, which allows customers with no fixed address and no identification to receive mail at a Post Office. Senders write the person's name, General Delivery, city, state and zip code. Recipients show ID and get their mail. The post office holds it for 10 or 30 days depending on the type of mail.

You can rest assured that this Satanic plan will be delivered through the auspices of the USPS. The highlighted paragraph on the previous page which states: “The bill, if enacted, would license the USPS to initiate an in-person program,” tells us everything we need to know. It will be enacted, and you can forget about it being rejected. Several countries are saying, “no jab, no mask, no job!” Translated to the USPS, “no jab, no mask, no mail!” or to words of effect. As Prince Charles and the “Sustainable Development” SDGs state, “No one will be left behind!”

The USPS which is billions in red ink, year after year, are not about to pass on such a program. They will bargain to get as much as they can to make up for the lost revenue from Amazon blue trucks delivering your packages now!

Edward Dowd's Data Proves Millions Died From the Vaxxes

Jewish believer denied permission to immigrate to Israel due to belief in Jesus. The coalition has expressed a desire to change the Law of Return to prevent non-Orthodox Jews from immigrating

All Israel News Staff | Published: October 5, 2023

A 75-year-old U.S. citizen and descendant of Holocaust victims has been denied the right to immigrate to Israel and, instead, ordered to leave the country due to his belief in Jesus.

Ron, who asked to use only his first name for security reasons, submitted his petition to make aliyah (immigrate to Israel) in 2019 under the Law of Return, following his retirement.

Illustrative: Former Minister of Interior Affairs Aryeh Deri visits at Interior Ministry office (Misrad Hapnim) in the Ultra-Orthodox city of Bnei Brak, June 28, 2016.

Israel's Population and Immigration Authority (PIBA) denied his application, specifically mentioning it was due to his belief in Yeshua (Jesus). PIBA also accused Ron of planning to do missionary work in Israel.

Ron said he had often dreamt of moving to Israel after his retirement and that the ongoing rise of antisemitism in the U.S. convinced him of the need to do so quickly.

According to the Law of Return, Ron is entitled to immigrate under the category of Jewish ancestry, as he is the descendant of a Jewish father.

He did not request to immigrate as a Jew, but rather as a Jewish descendant, as he is not considered Jewish under rabbinic law because his mother was a Gentile Christian.

The Law of Return, originally passed in 1950, allows any descendant of at least one Jewish grandparent to immigrate to Israel.

The law was later amended in 1970 to declare that those who voluntarily converted to another religion, including Christianity, were not eligible to immigrate.

However, the High Court, while upholding that ruling, also ruled in 2008 that descendants of Jewish fathers can immigrate to Israel, but not as Jews.

Ron, who noted his belief in Yeshua on his application, argues that he is eligible for immigration because he did not change his religion but grew up believing in Yeshua from childhood due to his mother's faith.

"I grew up in New York," Ron said. "As a kid, I thought everyone was either Jewish or Catholic."

He said that he grew up identifying as a member of the Jewish people due to ethnicity, not religion.

"I knew my father was Jewish, and my mother wasn't Catholic, so I considered myself Jewish."

As an adult, Ron moved to Florida, where he encountered several incidents of antisemitism.

"I wear a t-shirt that says, 'Child of a Holocaust survivor,'" Ron related. "One day this guy saw my shirt and started cursing at me, telling me, 'Get off the street, you dirty Jew.'

Ron has been living in Israel while he awaited the results of his application. "This is the land of my forefathers. I want to live here. I feel comfortable here."

Ron has filed an appeal to the district court through his lawyer, Joshua Pex, regarding the Ministry of Interior's refusal to give an answer to Ron's appeal within the PIBA.

The hearing is scheduled for next week.

The issue of who is allowed to immigrate under the Law of Return has been a contentious one for some time in Israel.

As part of the coalition agreements, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu's Likud party agreed to create a committee to examine modifying or removing the "grandchild clause".

The announcement of the agreement sparked a debate in Israel, including among supporters of the coalition. In particular, Likud has many supporters who immigrated to Israel from the former Soviet Union through the "grandfather clause."

The American Jewish community was also upset by the announcement, as many diaspora Jews belong to Conservative or Reform Jewish communities, which are also not considered "truly Jewish" by some Orthodox.

So far, the coalition has not advanced plans to amend the Law of Return.

It is a sad state of affairs that so much of the U.S. is fast asleep and unresponsive as the country is being taken over by Marxist and destroying the country from within. The following report is indicative of their propaganda.

THE GREAT REPLACEMENT

The Biden regime recently introduced a new program to increase illegal immigration that allows migrants to fly straight from their homelands into a United States city of their liking, per recently obtained records.

As opposed to overwhelming the Texas border, this program allows illegal aliens to use the regime's app to select a destination, purchase an airline ticket, and fly in without being effectively detected.

Per the Center for Immigration Studies, north of 210,000 of illegal aliens have been processed since January. CIS filed a lawsuit against the Department of Homeland Security for the program's documents. Paul Bedard of the Washington Times noted that this figure "is a population the size of Rochester, New York, or Des Moines, Iowa."

“DHS cajoles tens of thousands of intending illegal border-crossers per month to instead go on the CBP One smartphone application, and make an appointment with U.S. officials at land ports of entry instead of crossing illegally. After making an appointment, DHS invites these inadmissible aliens to walk over to the American side at the land ports, where U.S. Customs officials quickly ‘parole’ them in, allowing them to travel to a city of their choice in the nation’s interior,” CIS immigration analyst Todd Bensman stated in the report.

“Haitians flew into U.S. airports in the greatest numbers from January through mid-September, a total of 76,582. These Haitians favored one redacted airport over all 36 into which they have flown. Some 47,768 flew into that airport,” the report noted.

“The program was offered to Venezuelans a few months earlier, in October 2022. Since then, 63,360 flew into 43 airports, some 39,474 of them into one preferred airport. Some 46,794 Cubans flew into 41 airports, the majority of them, 33,355, favoring one in particular,” it continued.

Bensman’s report noted, “It’s likely that the preferred airport in all these cases was Miami, but we won’t know for sure unless CBP provides the unredacted information.”

The CIS observed that the program is different from the regime’s practice of filling aircraft in border towns and flying carrying out “ghost flights” into cities during the late night hours.

“Biden officials have rarely, if ever, spoken of this ‘family unification’ flight program in the year since implementing it, perhaps mindful of the political outcry over the late-night ‘ghost flights’ that DHS stealthily arranges to ferry migrant children into various airports, and mindful, too, of strong recent political backlash in large U.S. cities like New York and Chicago to paroled migrants busing themselves in from the border. Here, migrants flying directly into America go uncounted in the monthly Border Patrol tallies, unnoticed, and without media inquiry, virtually all information about it almost hermetically sealed,” the report highlighted.

There’s no question that the Biden regime is 100% committed to the Great Replacement agenda. It’s doing everything possible — from opening the border to facilitating flights into the country — to ensure that the Historic America Nation is completely displaced by foreign migrants. Frankly, there are few people in Congress who are willing to stop this civilization-destroying process.

In light of this harsh reality, it’s going to take an America First takeover for matters to be set straight in Congress.

Remember, all the bad news and negative reports are further confirmation of just how close we are to going home. It is logical to think God will do His Thing when everything looks dark and hopeless. That's our reason for the Blessed Hope of Titus 2:13.

I monitor upwards of 500 news reports a day, well below before I was hospitalized two years ago and so I limit what I share to what I consider the most relevant and essential news that speak to Biblical Prophecy. Since I began studying Bible Prophecy on June 8, 1967, I have been looking forward to these days that frame our understanding of Jesus Christ calling His faithful home.

I have been engaged in daily study and analysis of world events while most people have gone about life as if everything will continue as they have during their lifetime. My own years of Bible analysis began even further back as a computer programmer at the University of Pittsburgh's computing center where by God's providence, I was part of the team that computerized the KJV Bible during most of 1963 and early 1964. I did not even own a Bible then, I borrowed one from the church where my wife and I were married in 1962. I'm a math type guy and so my interest began to be perked when I learned that two of the Jewish Temples were destroyed on the very same day, the 9th of Av, first in 586 BC and later in 70 AD. I am familiar with every system of typology, Bible codes, and search programs in existence. The most recent being Brandon Peterson's work 'Sealed by The King – 777'. Brandon used the Pure Word Bible Search computer software that validates and confirms the KJV Bible is the Word of God! His work will shake you to your feet, it is that awesome!

That being said, we can still have faith in the Blessed Hope and that God will make good on His promise to honor our patience of Revelation 3:10. "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth."
