Diamond & Nugget #211

Archbishop Vignano Canceled by Catholic Traditionalists for Saying Pope Francis Intended from the Beginning to Destroy the Catholic Church.

(The importance of Cardinal Vignano’s address comes not just in his exposing Pope Francis’ agenda but unveiling and exposing the character for which the Bible refers to as the False Prophet. In the second chapter of 2nd Thessalonians Paul made it clear that those who are convinced by Satan's deceptive miracles are first of all those who themselves are involved in every kind of wicked deception, especially the deception and seduction that comes from seeking wealth (cf. Matthew 13:22), the deceitfulness of sin --(cf. Hebrews 3:13), reveling in deceptive pleasures which involve sin -(cf. 2nd Peter 2:13), and every kind of deceitful lust or deceptive desire -(cf. Ephesians 4:22). Satan’s deceptive miracle here (13:3) will be accepted by those who are already perishing, lost, gone astray, and already on the broad road leading to destruction -(cf. Matthew 7:13).

Strong satanic delusion today is already leading many to embrace the LGBTQ lifestyle, and believe homosexuality, premarital sex, abortion, adultery, and many other sins are normal and even desirable patterns of life. The Bible warns that those who practice such things will not inherit the kingdom of God -(Galatians 5:19-21). Those who listen to Satan's lies now will become easy prey to his deceptive miracles, miracles intended to make the world believe the Antichrist is the real Christ. They will be filled with amazement and will acclaim him to be worthy of worship. Cardinal Vignano has done more to expose the False Prophet than any other person in the world today.

Keep in mind, it was Pope Francis who said on November 30, 2020, and I saved his statement for such a time as this: “VATICAN CITY - Pope Francis said today that God has informed him of a new requirement to enter Heaven: everyone must now receive the COVID-19 vaccine before entering the pearly gates.

"This is very important for the salvation of all people on Earth," Pope Francis explained. "We know that God lets everybody into Heaven because He loves us all and He doesn't really care what kind of mischief we get ourselves into in this life, but we must be wary of the greatest earthly sin of all: not getting the COVID-19 vaccine. God has informed me that He will not let you into Heaven unless you have received BOTH DOSES of this very safe vaccine."

All lies, every single word of his statement a lie. He and his buddy the Antichrist Prince Charles will be: "And the beast was taken, and with him the false prophet that wrought miracles before him, with which he deceived them that had received the mark of the beast, and them that worshipped his image. These both were cast alive into a lake of fire burning with brimstone." -(Revelation 19:20) "And the devil that deceived them was cast into the lake of fire and brimstone, where the beast and the false prophet are, and shall be tormented day and night for ever and ever." -(Revelation 20:10)

One has to really wonder how many people committed suicide based upon his statements made November 30, 2020! 1.4-billion identify themselves as of his flock.

Dr. Paul Elias Alexander posted October 6th yesterday, "You will learn one day that all of COVID, everything was a complete fraud, nothing was true...from lockdown lunacy to vaccine, all was to harm you, take freedoms, liberties, your money, strip you down they stole 3 years of your life & damaged your children forever, people in the Trump & Biden administration...the world followed America so we focus on the 32 Horsemen of the COVID Apocalypse, HANG!"

Below is the text of Cardinal Vigano's address that was not permitted to be delivered! It does not take much imagination to figure out who was instrumental in cancelling Cardinal Vigano.

Although I am not affirming Catholic Traditionalism, or Pope Francis' Liberation Theology, I trust that in your discernment, you will recognize the facts that even those within the RCC are able to recognize Francis as the False Prophet of Revelation. Not since Martin Luther wrote his 95 theses in 1517, or arguments, against indulgences and posted them on the door of the Castle Church in Wittenberg, Germany has the RCC see such honesty. There is proverbial irony in these two dissidents. In Luther's day the pope was selling "get out of jail(hell) free" cards known as indulgences and Pope Francis was "promising people they would go to heaven" just for getting both vaccine shots!

This address was prepared in order to be given at the Catholic Identity Conference. However, at the last minute, it was "cancelled" from the roster. It is unfortunate that, in the current climate of fear within the Church, the free exchange of ideas and viewpoints is no longer tolerated. Let us pray for the unity of the Church, that unity which can only be grounded in the Truth, who is Jesus Christ.

By their fruits you will know them.

Does anyone pick grapes from thorn bushes, or figs from thistles?

Just so, every good tree bears good fruit; and a rotten tree bears bad fruit.

A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, nor can a rotten tree bear good fruit.

Every tree that does not produce good fruit will be cut down and thrown into the fire.

Therefore by their fruits you will know them.

Mt 7:16-20

Allow me to greet and thank the organizers of the Catholic Identity Conference and all who are taking part. In a moment of great confusion it is important to clarify what is happening, even by comparing different positions. That's why I am grateful to my friend Michael Matt for giving me the opportunity to share some thoughts with you.

In this speech I will not try to give answers, but to pose a question that can no longer be postponed, so that we Bishops, the clergy, and the faithful can look clearly at the very serious apostasy present as a completely unprecedented fact, one that cannot be resolved, in my opinion, by resorting to our usual categories of judgment and action.

THE EVIDENCE OF THE "BERGOGLIO PROBLEM"

The proliferation of declarations and behaviors completely foreign to what is expected of a Pope – and indeed in contrast with the Faith and Morality of which the Papacy is the guardian – has led many of the faithful and an increasingly large number of Bishops to take note of something that until some time ago seemed unheard of: the Throne of Peter is occupied by a person who abuses his power, using it for the opposite purpose to that for which Our Lord instituted it.

Some say that Jorge Mario Bergoglio is manifestly heretical in doctrinal questions, others that he is tyrannical in matters of government, still others consider his election invalid because of the multiple anomalies of the resignation of Benedict XVI and the election of the one who took his place. These opinions – more or less supported by evidence or the result of speculations that cannot always be shared – nevertheless confirm a reality that is now incontestable. And it is this reality, in my opinion, that constitutes a common starting point in trying to remedy the disconcerting, scandalous presence of a Pope who presents himself with ostentatious arrogance as inimicus Ecclesiae, and who acts and speaks as such. An enemy who, precisely because he occupies the Throne of Peter and abuses papal authority, is capable of inflicting a terrible and disastrous blow, such as no external enemy in the entire history of the Church has ever been able to cause. The worst persecutors of Christians, the fiercest adherents of the Masonic Lodges, and the most unrestrained heresiarchs have never before succeeded, in such a short time and with such effectiveness, in devastating the Lord's vineyard, scandalizing the faithful, disgusting the Ministers, discrediting its authority and authoritativeness before the world, and demolishing the Magisterium, Faith, Morals, Liturgy, and discipline.

Inimicus Ecclesiae, not only with respect to the members of the Mystical Body – which he despises, ridicules (he never ceases to launch poisonous epithets against it), persecutes, and strikes; but also with respect to the Head of the Mystical Body, Jesus Christ: whose authority is exercised by Bergoglio no longer in a vicarious way, which would therefore be in necessary and dutiful consistency with the Depositum Fidei, but rather in a self-referential and thus tyrannical way. The authority of the Roman Pontiff is in fact derived from the Supreme Authority of Christ, in which it participates, always within the boundaries and scope of the goals which the Divine Founder has established once and for all, and which no human power can change.

The evidence of Bergoglio's alienity to the office he holds is certainly a painful and very serious fact; but becoming aware of this reality is the indispensable premise for remedying an unsustainable and disastrous situation.

AGERE SEQUITUR ESSE

In these ten years of his "pontificate" we have seen Bergoglio do everything that would never be expected of a Pope, and vice-versa everything that a heresiarch or an apostate would do. There have been occasions when these actions have appeared manifestly provocative, as if by his utterances or certain acts of government he deliberately wanted to arouse the indignation of the ecclesial body and urge priests and faithful to react by giving them the pretext to declare them schismatic. But this typical strategy of the worst Jesuitism is now uncovered, because the whole operation has been conducted with too much arrogance and in areas on which not even moderate Catholics are willing to compromise.

The sexual scandals of the clergy, and in particular the response of the Holy See to the scourge of moral corruption of Cardinals and Bishops, have shown a shameful disparity of treatment between those who belong to Bergoglio's so-called "magic circle" and those he considers adversaries. The recent case of Marko Rupnik is evidence of one who exercises power like a despot, legibus solutus, who considers himself free to act without being accountable for any of his actions. It often happens that the consequences of the decisions taken personally by the Argentine are then passed on to his subordinates, who find themselves accused and discredited for choices which are not theirs. I think of the case of the London building in which officials of the Secretariat of State were involved, while the contract of sale bears the august chirograph. I think of the shameful handling of the Rupnik case, which in addition to having rehabilitated a criminal responsible for horrendous crimes, in contempt of the numerous victims, has also discredited the former Prefect of the Congregation for the Doctrine of the Faith, Cardinal Ladaria. I am thinking of the McCarrick case, which with the farce of a secret administrative procedure was hastily liquidated without any compensation to the victims, and declared res judicata unappealable. And the list goes on and on. It remains evident that the unfortunates who willingly or unwillingly collaborate with Bergoglio find themselves thrown overboard as soon as the press discovers the Vatican scandals. Many are noticing this cynical utilitarian behavior, which in fact brings them to decline appointments and promotions precisely so as not to find themselves in the uncomfortable role of scapegoat.

BREAKING DOWN THE WALL OF SILENCE

The silence of the Episcopate in the face of the Bergoglian nonsense confirms that the self-referential authoritarianism of the Jesuit Bergoglio has found servile obedience in almost all the Bishops, terrified by the idea of being made the object of the retaliation of the vengeful and despotic satrap of Santa Marta. Some diocesan bishops are beginning to no longer tolerate his devastating action, which undermines the authority and authoritativeness of the whole Church. Bishop Joseph Strickland, for example, has commendably reiterated immutable doctrinal truths that the Synod on Synodality in the coming months is preparing to demolish. And Cardinal Gerard Ludwig Müller has rightly recalled that the Lord did not give power to the Pope to "bully" good bishops.

Something therefore is beginning to change: alignments are taking shape, and we see on the one hand Bergoglio's "synodal church" – which he emblematically calls “our church” – and on the other hand what remains of the Catholic Church, towards which he does not fail to reiterate his absolute extraneousness.

THE SANATIO IN RADICE OF THE IRREGULARITIES AT THE 2013 CONCLAVE
Bishop Athanasius Schneider maintains that any irregularities that may have occurred in the 2013 Conclave have in any case been healed in radice by the fact that Jorge Mario Bergoglio has been recognized as Pope by the Cardinal Electors, by the Episcopate, and by the majority of the faithful. Practically speaking. The argument is that, regardless of the events that may have led to the election of a pope – with or without external meddling in it – the Church, practically speaking, places a time limit beyond which it is not possible to challenge an election if the person elected is accepted by the Christian people. But this thesis is called into question by historical precedent.

In 1378, after the election of Pope Urban VI, the majority of Cardinals, Prelates and the people recognized Clement VII as pope, even though he was in reality an antipope. Thirteen out of sixteen cardinals questioned the validity of the election of Pope Urban due to the threat of violence from the Roman people against the Sacred College, and even Urban’s few supporters immediately retracted their election, convoking a new Conclave at Fondi which elected the antipope Clement VII. Even Saint Vincent Ferrer was convinced that Clement was the real pope, while Saint Catherine of Siena sided with Urban. If universal consensus were an indefectibly valid argument for a pope’s legitimacy, Clement would have had the right to be considered the true pope, rather than Urban. Antipope Clement was defeated by Urban VI’s army in the battle of Marino in 1379 and transferred his See to Avignon, leading to the Western Schism, which lasted thirty-nine years. Thus we see that the universal acceptance argument does not withstand the test of history.

BISHOP SCHNEIDER’S VIA TUTIOR

Bishop Athanasius Schneider reminds us that the via tutior, or surer way, consists in not obeying a heretical Pope, without necessarily having to consider him ipso facto fallen from his office as separated from the Church and therefore no longer capable of being at its head, as St. Robert Bellarmine believes. But even this solution – which at least recognizes that Bergoglio is a heretic – does not seem decisive to me, since the obedience that the faithful can deny him is only marginal compared to all the acts of government and magisterium that he has carried out and continues to perform without his subjects being able to do anything about them. Of course, one can organize the clandestine celebration of the Catholic Mass, but what can a priest or a layman do when a subversive group of Bishops maneuvered by Bergoglio is preparing to introduce unacceptable doctrinal changes through the Synod on Synodality? And what can they do when in their parishes a deaconess blesses the “wedding” of two sodomites?

Certainly disobeying the illegitimate orders of a heretical or apostate Superior is a duty sub gravi, since obedience to God comes before obedience to men, and because the virtue of Obedience is hierarchically subordinated to the theological virtue of Faith. But the resulting damage to the ecclesial body is not prevented by an action of simple resistance: the root of the question must be resolved.

THE DEFECT OF CONSENT IN THE ASSUMPTION OF THE PAPACY

Thus, taking notice of the fact that Bergoglio is a heretic – and Amoris Lætitia or his declaration of the intrinsic immorality of capital punishment would be enough to prove it – we must ask ourselves if the 2013 election was in some way invalidated by a lack of consent; that is, if the one elected wanted to become Pope of the Catholic Church or rather head of what he calls “our synodal church” – which has nothing to do with the Church of Christ precisely because it stands as something other than it. In my opinion, this lack of consent can also be seen in Bergoglio’s behavior, which is ostentatiously and consistently anti-Catholic and heterogeneous with respect to the very essence of the Papacy. There is no action of this man that does not blatantly have the air of rupture with respect to the practice and the Magisterium of the Church, and to this are added the positions taken that are anything but inclusive towards the faithful who do not intend to accept arbitrary innovations, or worse, full-blown heresies.

The fundamental question hinges on understanding the subversive plan of the deep church, which, using the methods denounced at the time by St. Pius X with regard to the Modernists, has organized itself to carry out a coup d’état within the Church and bring the prophet of the Antichrist to the Throne of Peter. The mens rea in infiltrating the Hierarchy and ascending its ranks is evident, just as it is evident that the plans of the ultra-progressive faction could not stop in the fact of Benedict XVI, whom they considered too conservative, and whom they hated above all because he dared to promulgate the Motu Proprio Summorum Pontificum. And so Benedict XVI was pressured to resign, and immediately there was ready the unknown Archbishop of Buenos Aires. On October 11, 2013, in a conference at Villanova University (here), then-Cardinal McCarrick, Bergoglio’s longtime friend, revealed that Bergoglio’s election was strongly desired by a “very influential Italian gentleman,” an emissary of the deep state to the deep church: those who work in the Curia know well who is called “the gentleman” par excellence and what his links are with the power on both sides of the Tiber [the Vatican and the Italian Government], and they also know his embarrassing penchants that explain his close connections to the Vatican homosexual lobby. It is also significant that McCarrick said he was convinced that Bergoglio would “change the Papacy within four years,” confirming the malicious intention to tamper with the divine and unreformable institution of the Church.

Seeing Bergoglio participate in an event sponsored by the Clinton Foundation, after other no less scandalous endorsements from the globalist elite, confirms his role as bankruptcy liquidator of the Church, with the purpose of substituting the constitution of that Religion of Humanity that will serve as the handmaid of the synarchy of the New World Order. Ecumenism, ecology, vaccinism, immigrationism, LGBTQ+ and gender ideology, and other instances of the globalist religion are appropriated by Bergoglio, not only through an action of ostentatious and proud support for the proponents of the 2030 Agenda, but also by means of the systematic demolition of everything that opposes it in the Magisterium, and the ruthless persecution of those who express even prudent perplexities.

So: Bergoglio is a heretic and blatantly hostile to the Church of Christ. To carry out the task assigned to him by the deep church, he concealed his most extreme positions, so as to find a sufficient number of votes in the Conclave. To ensure total obedience, those who hatched the plan made sure that he was widely blackmailable, as always happens. And once elected, Bergoglio was able to show himself for what he is and begin the demolition of the Church and the Papacy.

But is it possible for a pope to destroy the papacy that he himself embodies and represents? Is it possible for a pope devastate the Church that the Lord has entrusted to him to defend? And again: if a cardinal's participation in the Conclave is intended to be malicious, if it intends a subversive act against the Church, if the aim is to commit a crime, then even if the procedures and norms of the election are apparently respected, there is undoubtedly a mens rea. And this criminal intention emerges from the cunning by which the cardinals who were accomplices to the plot collaborated in deceiving the cardinals who voted in good faith. I wonder, then: are we not in the presence of a defect of consent that affects the validity of the election? Without saying that the very co-presence of a renouncing pope and a reigning pope is already in itself an element that leads us to believe that they had a false concept of the essence of the papacy, considered to be a role that can be shared with others. Let us not forget that the distinction between munus and ministerium is arbitrary and that there cannot be a Pope who dedicates himself to the "ministry of prayer" and another one who governs. Christ is one; the Church is one; and there is only one Successor of Peter: a body with two heads is a monstrum that is repugnant to nature even before the divine constitution of the Church.

POSSIBLE OBJECTIONS

Some may object: But even if Bergoglio acted with malice, he still accepted what the Cardinals offered him: his election as Bishop of Rome and therefore as Roman Pontiff. And so he assumed office and must be considered to be the Pope. I believe instead that his acceptance of the papacy is invalidated, because he considers the papacy something other than what it is, like a spouse who gets married in church but excludes the specific purposes of marriage from his intention, thus making the marriage null and void precisely due to his lack of consent. Not only that: what conspirator who acts maliciously in order to ascend to an office would be so naive as to explain to those who must elect him that he intends to become Pope in order to carry out the orders of the enemies of God and the Church? Good morning. I am Jorge Mario Bergoglio and I intend to destroy the Church by getting elected Pope. Will you vote for me? The mens rea lies precisely in the use of deception, dissimulation, lies, the delegitimization of annoying opponents, and the elimination of dangerous ones. And the proof that Bergoglio intended to carry out the criminal plan of the globalist elite is right before our eyes: all the desired goals of the emails of John Podesta, Hillary Clinton's right-hand man, have been or are being carried out, from the adoption of gender equality as a premise for the female priesthood to LGBTQ+ inclusion, from the acceptance of gender theory to the participation in the Agenda 2030 on climate change, from the condemnation of "proselytism" to the exaltation of immigration as a method of ethnic replacement. And at the same time, there is the removal and condemnation of the other Church, the "pre-conciliar" one, composed of rigid intolerant people, starting with Our Lord, as Antonio Spadaro blasphemously wrote. And with the cancel culture applied to Faith and Morals, there is also the elimination of the Mass that intrinsically belongs to that Church, which Bergoglio considers to be in conflict with the "new ecclesiology," to the point of prohibiting it as incompatible with the "synodal church."

So here I am, throwing the proverbial stone into the pond. I would like us to take seriously, very seriously, the possibility that Bergoglio intended to obtain the election by means fraud, and that he intended to abuse the authority of the Roman Pontiff in order to do the exact opposite of what Jesus Christ gave a mandate to Saint Peter and his Successors to do: confirm the faithful in the Catholic Faith, feeding and governing the Flock of the Lord, preaching the Gospel to the nations. All the acts of Bergoglio's governance and magisterium – since his first appearance on the Vatican Loggia, when he introduced himself with his disturbing "Buonasera" – has unraveled in a direction diametrically opposed to the Petrine mandate: he has adulterated and continues to adulterate the Depositum Fidei, he has created confusion and misled the faithful, he has dispersed the flock, he has declared that he considers the evangelization of peoples to be "a solemn nonsense," and he systematically abuses the power of the Holy Keys to loose what cannot be loosed and to bind what cannot be bound.

This situation is humanly irremediable, because the forces at play are immense and because the corruption of Authority cannot be healed by those who are subject to it. We must take note that the metastasis of this "pontificate" originates from the conciliar cancer, from that Vatican II which created the ideological, doctrinal, and disciplinary bases that inevitably had to lead to this point. But how many of my confreres, who also recognize the gravity of the current crisis, have the ability to recognize this causal link between the conciliar revolution and its extreme consequences with Bergoglio?

CONCLUSION

If this passio Ecclesiae is a prelude to the end times, it is our duty to prepare ourselves spiritually for moments of great tribulation and of true and proper persecution. But it will be precisely by retracing the Via Dolorosa of the Cross that the ecclesial body will be able to purify itself from the filth that disfigures it and merit the supernatural help that Providence reserves for the Church in times of trial: where sin abounds, grace abounds all the more.

Finally, allow me to remind you that the Exsurge Domine Association I founded aims to give spiritual and material help to priests and religious brothers and sisters who are persecuted by the Bergoglian church because of their fidelity to Tradition. If you would like to make a donation towards the realization of our projects, you may do so at the Association's website – www.exsurgedomine.org – or by sending a text message: Text 502027 to 1-855-575-7888 (for USA & Canada).

We are all in one way or another victims of a global war on humanity; whether you know this or not, the evidence of the past four years has confirmed that all governments around the world colluded to reduce their population as far back as 1992 in order that they would be 'Net Zero' carbon footprint compliant with Prince Charles, the Biblical Antichrist of Revelation 13. We are the carbon to which old "sausage fingers" was referring to and the Spirit of the Antichrist -(1st John 4:3) has become a reality like nothing known to humanity in our lifetime.

New Bill Plans To Co-Opt USPS To Distribute Digital IDs

Under the pretense of fortifying digital security in the United States, newly proposed legislation seeks to transform the United States Postal Service (USPS) into a hub for digital IDs. Senators Ron Wyden, a Democrat, and Bill Cassidy, Republican, have put forth the bill known as the Post Office Services for Trustworthy Identity Act. The proposed legislation opens new discourse on digital privacy and the potential for abnormal surveillance measures, sparking debate over the delicate balance between biosecurity and preserving citizens' fundamental rights.

The proposed legislation comes in response to the piecemeal approach taken towards biometric identification in America. Historically, disjointed programs have been created by different states and separate agency undertakings, giving rise to the necessity for a more coherent national strategy. The Post Office Services for Trustworthy Identity Act could mark a landmark shift, focusing on service provision rather than overarching digital ID strategy.

However, the legislation's journey to fruition remains undetermined, often met with hesitation from Postal Service officials who previously exhibited resistance toward such plans.

The bill, if enacted, would license the USPS to initiate an in-person program. It is critical to point out, however, that the Postal Service's adoption of the service remains optional. (At least for now, but I can tell you where it will go.)

If executed, the USPS, spearheaded by the postmaster general, could impose a fee for the digital ID services among other options.

The protective angle of this bill is not without its critics, who cite potential issues related to privacy and overbearing surveillance; rightfully so in my point of view. None of you will remember when the USPS forced upon mailing customers like publishers of magazines to apply the UPC Bar Code to magazines, periodicals, journals, etc. Recall what I wrote in the last Blessed Hope #209 on the UPC Bar Code and QR Codes. I recall it all too well since I published a monthly magazine. In late 1984, the Postmaster from which I mailed my publication asked me to step into his office to discuss a needed change.

I was told that I had to affix a UPC Bar Code on my publication by August of 1985. When I asked, “what if I did not want to do that?”, I was told I would not be allowed to use the USPS mailing. I mailed my last issues of my publications the last week of August, 1985. Like Tim Cohen who refused to put the UPC Bar Code on his book, ‘Antichrist and a Cup of Tea’, I chose not to comply even at a high price. I knew where this was ultimately leading to back in 1972 when IBM engineer George Lauer created the UPC Bar Code for the grocery industry.

The USPS is the oldest government service and everyone gets mail. How would a government go about registering everyone to receive one of Bill Gates personal Quantum Dot ID2020?

Enter COVID-19 Bill, HR 6666 and Bill Gates Crypto Slavery patent 060606. Patent WO/2020/060606 was registered on March 26, 2020. No, you can’t make this stuff up! And yes, truth is stranger than Fiction. As it could not been made any more obvious. You may not believe in such a thing, but the demon possessed New World Order henchmen certainly do. By putting it into legislation YOU invite the Beast into your home. And by being force Vaccinated you will receive the mark of the beast. Gates 060606 microchip will be ready soon. In a blog post on April 30, Bill Gates wrote, “We need to manufacture at least 7 billion doses of the vaccine.” He said the vaccines should be distributed “as soon as the first batch is ready to go”.

As I noted, everyone gets mail from time to time. Even the homeless register with a post office; General delivery mail service from USPS, which allows customers with no fixed address and no identification to receive mail at a Post Office. Senders write the person's name, General Delivery, city, state and zip code. Recipients show ID and get their mail. The post office holds it for 10 or 30 days depending on the type of mail.

You can rest assured that this Satanic plan will be delivered through the auspices of the USPS. The highlighted paragraph on the previous page which states: “The bill, if enacted, would license the USPS to initiate an in-person program,” tells us everything we need to know. It will be enacted, and you can forget about it being rejected. Several countries are saying, “no jab, no mask, no job!” Translated to the USPS, “no jab, no mask, no mail!” or to words of effect. As Prince Charles and the “Sustainable Development” SDGs state, “No one will be left behind!”

The USPS which is billions in red ink, year after year, are not about to pass up on such a program. They will bargain to get as much as they can to make up for the lost revenue when Amazon blue trucks began delivering your packages!

The U.S. government long ago decided that we are a liability and that it needed a plan to deceive the American public. Even Senator Rand Paul of Kentucky is calling for Americans to work longer.

Edward Dowd's Data Proves Millions Died From the Vaxxes

THE GREAT REPLACEMENT

The Biden regime recently introduced a new program to increase illegal immigration that allows migrants to fly straight from their homelands into a United States city of their liking, per recently obtained records.

As opposed to overwhelming the Texas border, this program allows illegal aliens to use the regime's app to select a destination, purchase an airline ticket, and fly in without being effectively detected.

Per the Center for Immigration Studies, north of 210,000 of illegal aliens have been processed since January. CIS filed a lawsuit against the Department of Homeland Security for the program's documents. Paul Bedard of the Washington Times noted that this figure "is a population the size of Rochester, New York, or Des Moines, Iowa."

“DHS cajoles tens of thousands of intending illegal border-crossers per month to instead go on the CBP One smartphone application, and make an appointment with U.S. officials at land ports of entry instead of crossing illegally. After making an appointment, DHS invites these inadmissible aliens to walk over to the American side at the land ports, where U.S. Customs officials quickly ‘parole’ them in, allowing them to travel to a city of their choice in the nation’s interior,” CIS immigration analyst Todd Bensman stated in the report.

“Haitians flew into U.S. airports in the greatest numbers from January through mid-September, a total of 76,582. These Haitians favored one redacted airport over all 36 into which they have flown. Some 47,768 flew into that airport,” the report noted.

“The program was offered to Venezuelans a few months earlier, in October 2022. Since then, 63,360 flew into 43 airports, some 39,474 of them into one preferred airport. Some 46,794 Cubans flew into 41 airports, the majority of them, 33,355, favoring one in particular,” it continued.

Bensman’s report noted, “It’s likely that the preferred airport in all these cases was Miami, but we won’t know for sure unless CBP provides the unredacted information.”

The CIS observed that the program is different from the regime’s practice of filling aircraft in border towns and flying carrying out “ghost flights” into cities during the late night hours.

“Biden officials have rarely, if ever, spoken of this ‘family unification’ flight program in the year since implementing it, perhaps mindful of the political outcry over the late-night ‘ghost flights’ that DHS stealthily arranges to ferry migrant children into various airports, and mindful, too, of strong recent political backlash in large U.S. cities like New York and Chicago to paroled migrants busing themselves in from the border. Here, migrants flying directly into America go uncounted in the monthly Border Patrol tallies, unnoticed, and without media inquiry, virtually all information about it almost hermetically sealed,” the report highlighted.

There’s no question that the Biden regime is 100% committed to the Great Replacement agenda. It’s doing everything possible — from opening the border to facilitating flights into the country — to ensure that the Historic America Nation is completely displaced by foreign migrants. Frankly, there are few people in Congress who are willing to stop this civilization-destroying process.

In light of this harsh reality, it’s going to take an America First takeover for matters to be set straight in Congress.

US House of Representatives cuts funding to UN, WHO, WEF and climate change

By Edward Morgan
October 6, 2023

Last Thursday, the US House of Representatives passed its annual State Department and Foreign Operations spending bill, which determines the budget for the State Department and its foreign operations. The legislation allocates funds to agencies and programs to strengthen national security and support U.S. allies, particularly against the Chinese Communist Party.

Corporate media highlighted aid for Ukraine that is included in the bill. But there are some other interesting points to note.

Most interestingly, it includes prohibiting funds to several United Nations agencies, the World Health Organization, the World Economic Forum, the Wuhan Institute of Virology, EcoHealth Alliance, any gain-of-function research, and multilateral assistance to World Bank-administered climate change funds.

The bill also cuts off funding and so eliminates 33 Special Envoys and Special Representatives, including doomsday climate cultist John Kerry.

The appropriations bill has a top line of $51.5 billion for programs included under the bill, roughly a 14% cut ($8.2 billion) compared to last year's levels and 25% below ($17.4 billion) what President Joe Biden requested in his budget proposal.

You can read a summary of the bill, before the adoption of amendments, HERE. Below we have selected some of the highlights using the summary's section titles as subtitles for ease of reference.

Top Line Messaging

- Prohibiting funds to the United Nations Population Fund ("UNFPA").
- Banning "disinformation" and "misinformation" programs that violate the free speech rights of American citizens.
- Increasing accountability at the UN and other multilateral organizations, including by requiring written agreements for Inspectors General oversight access.
- Eliminating counterproductive climate programs that harm energy security and economic development in underdeveloped countries, which leaves them even more dependent on United States aid and more vulnerable to the malign activities of the People's Republic of China ("PRC") and Russia.

Cuts to Wasteful Spending

Eliminates funding for the UN's regular budget, resulting in savings of $707 million.

Prohibits funds for other controversial organizations and programs, such as UNFPA, the WHO, and the Gender Equity and Equality Action Fund.

NOTE: AT COP27 IN SHARM EL-SHEIKH, THE US AGENCY FOR INTERNATIONAL DEVELOPMENT (“USAID”) ANNOUNCED A SUITE OF PROGRAMMES TO ADVANCE GENDER-RESPONSIVE CLIMATE ACTION. IN A PRESS STATEMENT, USAID SAID IT HAD DEDICATED $21.8 MILLION TO “GENDER-RESPONSIVE CLIMATE ACTION” FROM THE GENDER EQUITY AND EQUALITY ACTION FUND. THIS INCLUDED FUNDING FOR ORGANISATIONS WORKING IN OVER 37 COUNTRIES TO ADDRESS GENDER-BASED VIOLENCE CONNECTED TO CLIMATE.

Terminates more than 18 programs, including the Organization for Economic Cooperation and Development (“OECD”), UN Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (“UNESCO”), UN Women, UN Montreal Protocol, UN Environment Fund and World Economic Forum.

Prohibits funding for Special Envoys, Special Representatives, Special Coordinators and Special Advisors unless such positions are expressly authorized or have affirmatively received the advice and consent of the Senate. This change eliminates 33 Special Envoys and Special Representatives at the Department of State, including the Special Presidential Envoy for Climate, Special Envoy for Racial Equity and Justice, Special Envoy to Advance the Human Rights of LGBTQI+ Persons, Special Envoy for International Labor Affairs, and Special Representative for Palestinian Affairs.

Prohibits funds for the Green Climate Fund, Clean Technology Fund, and a soon-to-be established fund for climate damages.

NOTE: THE BILL PROVIDES FOR PAYMENTS TO INTERNATIONAL FINANCIAL INSTITUTIONS FOR AID TO OTHER COUNTRIES UNDER MULTILATERAL ASSISTANCE. HOWEVER, NO PAYMENTS ARE TO BE MADE TO INTERNATIONAL ORGANISATIONS AND PROGRAMMES WHICH PROVIDE VOLUNTARY CONTRIBUTIONS TO SEVERAL UNITED NATIONS AGENCIES. ADDITIONALLY, THE BILL STATES THAT NO FUNDS ARE TO BE GIVEN TOWARDS THE GREEN CLIMATE FUND (“GCF”) OR THE CLEAN TECHNOLOGY FUND (“CTF”).

THE GCF IS THE WORLD’S LARGEST CLIMATE FUND THAT “ACCELERATES TRANSFORMATIVE CLIMATE ACTION IN DEVELOPING COUNTRIES.” CREATED BY THE UN FRAMEWORK CONVENTION ON CLIMATE CHANGE (“UNFCCC”), IT WAS ESTABLISHED AT THE UN FRAMEWORK CONVENTION ON CLIMATE CHANGE IN 2010 AND RECEIVES GUIDANCE FROM THE CONFERENCE OF THE PARTIES TO THE CONVENTION (COP). GCF FUNDS ARE ADMINISTERED BY THE WORLD BANK.

GCF IS ONE OF THE PARTNERS OF THE CTF. THE CTF IS ONE OF TWO FUNDS UNDER THE CLIMATE INVESTMENT FUNDS (“CIF”) FRAMEWORK. CIF WAS ESTABLISHED IN 2008 AT THE REQUEST OF THE G8 AND G20 AND THE WORLD BANK IS THE TRUSTEE OF THE FUNDS. CTF FUNDS ARE CHANNELLED THROUGH THE AFRICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK, ASIAN DEVELOPMENT BANK, EUROPEAN BANK FOR RECONSTRUCTION AND DEVELOPMENT, INTER-AMERICAN DEVELOPMENT BANK AND WORLD BANK GROUP. IT PROMOTES SCALED-UP FINANCING FOR DEMONSTRATION, DEPLOYMENT AND TRANSFER OF LOW-CARBON TECHNOLOGIES.

Prohibits the Treasury Department from carrying out the Biden Administration’s climate agenda at the World Bank and other multilateral development banks, which harms developing countries and opens the door to predatory financing from the PRC.

Prohibits the Administration’s current practice of co-opting programming, such as that to empower women; advance democracy and freedom; or counter trafficking in persons, to advance its radical global climate change agenda.

Prohibits funds to the Wuhan Institute of Virology, the EcoHealth Alliance, any gain-of-function research, and labs in adversarial nations like China, Iran, Russia, North Korea, or Cuba.

Eliminates Waste and Abuse in the Government

Requires a Government Accountability Office (“GAO”) study on climate funding during the Biden Administration to demonstrate it has had no measurable impact on temperatures and merely wasted taxpayer funds.

[While this sounds all well and good it is a token effort unlikely to impede any of the agencies and groups. If the Congress was serious it would withdraw from the UN, WEF, and the WHO. What it’s the cliché about cutting the head off the snake if you want to be sure it is dead and not coming back to bite you!

Ezekiel 38 War?

<https://haltturnerradioshow.com/index.php/en/news-page/world/israel-under-attack-800-missiles-fired-from-gaza-hamas-enters-israel-by-land-and-by-air-idf-declares-state-of-war>

I [Hal Turner] just found out from my former colleagues in the Intel Community that over a week ago, uniformed, flag-wearing, ID-carrying regular UKRAINIAN Army Troops attacked Wagner PMC Troops in SUDAN. You know, Africa!

I also found out that Mossad has been sabotaging/burning/blowing-up Iranian Drone Factories to stymie Iran helping Russia.

I also found out that planeloads of Israeli military weaponry were sent to Baku, the capital city of Azerbaijan in the days and weeks before Azerbaijan launched another military attack upon Armenia last week, grabbing Nagorno-Karabakh and forcing 100,000 Armenian Christians to flee for their lives.

What is taking place inside Israel right now, is payback. Payback from Russia for Israel helping Ukraine. Payback from Russia for the planeloads of weapons to Baku, Azerbaijan, and Payback from Russia for Israel blowing up Iranian drone works. It is also payback from Iran for the blown-up drone factories, and for all the attacks by Israel against Iranian forces in Syria for the past two years. It is also payback from Armenia for what Israel helped Azerbaijan facilitate in grabbing Nagorno Karabakh. The most interesting part? Iran used the $6 Billion released by the Biden administration two weeks ago, to fund today's outbreak of hostilities!

I also found out this payback, is not going to stop. It is in fact, "war."

We are now entering the actual hot phase of World War 3. The "King of the North" has had enough of the sandbox posing as a country, in the Middle East, filled with Imposters who call themselves Jews, but are not; who are a Synagogue of Satan".

The sandbox is getting bitch slapped and it will get worse. VERY VERY much worse. You see, the U.S. and NATO . . . are pretty much OUT of weapons and ammunition. They simply CANNOT do much for Israel right now.

Oh. Gee.

No coming back from this . . . now Mega Doom-on Guys.

Everything going on is connected.

Now you know the reasons for the Nuke alert last week. Make preparations if you can.

The whole World is going to go up it is a Tinder Box that has just had its spark.

I am always cautious about Hal Turner's posts but his post early this morning is justifiably ominous. His facts and data are correct and have checked out to be accurate. I knew about many of the details but did not have the intelligence sources Hal Turner does. This could very well be the beginning of the Ezekiel 38 war. On Friday night, October 6th, eight B-2 stealth bombers departed Whiteman AFB in Missouri deployed to Eastern Europe. Deployment of more than two B-2's is extremely rare. They periodically get deployed around the world but almost never more than two at any specific time.

Remember, all the bad news and negative reports are further confirmation of just how close we are to going home. It is logical to think God will do His Thing when everything looks dark and hopeless. That's our reason for the Blessed Hope of Titus 2:13.

That being said, we can still have faith in the Blessed Hope and that God will make good on His promise to honor our patience of Revelation 3:10. "Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon all the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth."
