NETANYAHU SAYS VICTORY OVER HAMAS WILL BE THE FULFILLMENT OF ISAIAH 60.

Speaking to his nation on October 25th, Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu vowed to lead Israel to a “crushing victory” over Hamas and to “realize the prophecy of Isaiah.” (Netanyahu Vows, Christian Headlines, Oct. 27, 2023).

He quoted Isaiah 60:18, which in the King James Bible says, “Violence shall no more be heard in thy land, wasting nor destruction within thy borders; but thou shalt call thy walls Salvation, and thy gates Praise.” It is obvious that this prophecy does not describe Israel today. Consider the words of the prophecy, beginning in verse 1. It describes a time when the glory of the Lord rises upon Israel -(Isaiah 60:1-2), when God’s house will be rebuilt and glorified and sacrifices offered on the altar -(Isaiah 60:7, 13), when all nations will serve Israel -(Isaiah 60:12), when Israel’s officers will be righteous -(Isaiah 60:17), when violence shall no more be heard in the land -(Isaiah 60:18), when Israel’s gates will be called Praise -(Isaiah 60:18), when the glory of the Lord will be Israel’s light -(Isaiah 60:19), when the days of Israel’s mourning shall be ended -(Isaiah 60:20), and when Israel’s people will be righteous -(Isaiah 60:21) is most definitely is not Israel today! Benjamin Netanyahu and the Israeli army cannot bring this prophecy to pass. The marvelous prophecy of Isaiah 60 will be fulfilled when Israel is converted by repenting of piercing her Messiah as described in Zechariah 12 and Christ returns to establish His millennial kingdom as described in Zechariah 14.

Benjamin Netanyahu is a Freemason and deceives his people with Bibi Theology that shows he really does not read or understand the Bible. Nowhere does Bibi mention a war in Ezekiel 38/39. God help his people to see the error of their ways!

Nasrallah Lies Are A Setup!

In much-hyped speech, Nasrallah makes threats but does not commit to broader war. Hezbollah chief mocks ‘weak’ Israel, warns America not to intervene, but keeps options open on wider conflict; Netanyahu tells him: You cannot imagine how much a war will cost you.

In his first speech since Israel declared war on Hamas after the Gaza terror group's October 7 slaughter of Israelis, Hezbollah chief Hassan Nasrallah on Friday lobbed threats at the Jewish state and expressed solidarity with the Palestinians and their "martyrs." But he made no announcement of explicit plans to broaden his Lebanese terror group's conflict with Israel, as some had feared he would.

"Some claim Hezbollah is about to join the fray. I tell you: We have been engaged in this battle since October 8," he said.

"Some would like Hezbollah to engage in an all-out war, but I can tell you: What is happening now along the Israeli-Lebanese border is significant, and it is not the end."

Nasrallah cautioned Israel against launching a preemptive offensive: "I tell the Israelis, if you are considering carrying out a preemptive attack against Lebanon, it will be the most foolish mistake you make in your entire existence."

As he spoke, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu issued a threat of his own, warning Israel's "enemies in the north" not to make the costly mistake of escalating the war. "You cannot imagine how much this will cost you."

And US Secretary of State Antony Blinken, visiting Israel and also speaking at the same time as Nasrallah, also issued a warning. "With regard to Lebanon, with regard to Hezbollah, with regard to Iran, we have been very clear from the outset that we are determined that there not be a second or third front opened in this conflict. President Biden said on day one to anyone thinking of opening a second front, taking advantage of the situation, don't. And we've backed up those words ... with practical deeds."

In Israel and throughout the region, Nasrallah's speech, which Hezbollah announced days in advance and repeatedly played up, had been anticipated and feared as potentially heralding a declaration of war, or of some ultimatum. But the terror chief did not go so far, and in some instances appeared to even distance Hezbollah from the conflict.

He said he had not known in advance about Hamas's October 7 plans, and neither had Iran, indicating that Hezbollah was not integral to the onslaught. That statement was a total lie. He met with Hamas leaders two weeks before the October 7th invasion. Nasrallah is stalling for time to see what his Iranian handlers want to do next.

Hamas terrorists launched an unprecedented October 7 onslaught inside Israel by bursting through the Gaza border, killing over 1,400 people — most of them civilians, slaughtered in their homes — and abducting over 240 to Gaza. Israel responded by launching an all-out war against Hamas, recruiting over 300,000 reservists as it pounds Gaza terror targets and launching a ground operation over the past week that is encircling Gaza City — Hamas's main base of operations.

Israel has also diverted massive forces to the north even as it has done the same in the south, to prepare for the possibility of Hezbollah trying to replicate Hamas's atrocities in southern communities. It has also ordered the evacuation of border communities to protect residents.

But Nasrallah also signaled that the war was mainly a concern of Hamas, saying the Lebanese terror group had known nothing about the assault ahead of time.

"The October 7 operation was planned in total secrecy. Even other Palestinian factions were not privy to it, let alone resistance movements abroad," Nasrallah said. This was also a lie.

Nasrallah made the false claim that Israeli civilians in Gaza border communities were killed on October 7 by Israeli forces who were "acting insanely as they were caught by surprise and were 'drunk'" — and not by Hamas. There is no evidence to support such claims, and overwhelming visual and eyewitness evidence of pre-planned, wanton Hamas atrocities against civilians.

"Israel falsely claimed Hamas beheaded babies, but failed to produce any evidence," he said, himself speaking falsely, "whereas the whole world has seen images of Palestinian children bombed in Gaza."

Nasrallah said one of Israel's chief mistakes was "setting lofty goals that it cannot achieve," and pointed out that "in 2006 [Israel] set the goal of crushing the resistance in Lebanon and recovering the [bodies of] two prisoners without negotiations and exchanges. They did not manage over 33 days, and today in Gaza the situation is the same. The Hamas invasion is merely a war of attrition, kill Jews is the agenda of Hamas.

"Israel has never been able to bring back hostages without negotiations," Nasrallah said.

The Hezbollah chief referenced his own past statements that the Israeli nation was as weak and as fleeting as a spider's web, saying this time that it was even "weaker" than that.

"It needs American and Western support," he asserted. "Otherwise, why would the U.S. navy send an aircraft carrier shortly after the October 7 attack? Why else would Biden visit Israel, alongside numerous American government secretaries, the military top brass and European leaders?"

For its support, he said, the US "must be held accountable and pay the price for the crimes perpetrated by Israel in Gaza, hence resistance movements have attacked and will continue to attack American forces in Iraq and Syria."

Nasrallah said Hezbollah was not intimidated by American threats and by US forces deployed to the region.

“Since the outbreak of the war, the U.S. has threatened to bomb us in Lebanon from its military ships in the Mediterranean. We are prepared for whatever scenario,” he warned. “If an all-out war breaks out, you Americans will pay with your ships, your aircraft, and your soldiers.”

Nasrallah said: “We still need time but we will win, the same way we won in 2006, the same way the resistance has achieved results in the West Bank.” This statement shows indecision or lack of a plan to wage their primary goal of attrition or killing Jews. Israel is approximately 7.7 million people faced by the world of Islam, of 1.7 billion!

“Barna reports that only half of the country’s Protestant pastors – 51% – have a Biblical Worldview.” (Barna.org)

Most people expect to go to church to learn about God and the truth of the Bible. No one fears that the pastor does not believe the Bible. Perhaps they should.

The modern picture of a false teacher is the cult leader passing out the Kool-Aid. However, there should be a real concern that today’s false teacher looks much more like the average pastor. Research provides the evidence.

While the Bible speaks about false teachers we cannot think this is just an ancient problem. Half of the pastors surveyed denied one or more of the following tenets of a Biblical worldview:

- ✓ The Bible is accurate in its teaching.
- ✓ Jesus was sinless.
- ✓ Satan exists as a real being.
- ✓ God is omnipotent and omniscient.
- ✓ Salvation is by grace alone.
- ✓ We are given the responsibility to evangelize.

Remember this is not the general public but those who stand behind pulpits and preach to you every Sunday. This group is leading, or maybe misleading, the doctrinal instruction of millions.

Paul teaches us that the front line of the spiritual battle is within the religious community. The Galatians were being deceived by those teaching “another gospel” -(Galatians 1:6). Paul was afraid that the Corinthians would fall captive to false teachers preaching ‘another Jesus’, ‘another spirit’, and ‘another gospel’ - (2nd Corinthians 11:4).

Later he shows that false teachers look like the ‘apostles of Christ’ and ‘ministers of righteousness’ -(2nd Corinthians 11:13-15).

If it is true those appearances can be deceiving then who do we trust? Even more important, what do we believe? We must go back to studying the source. Learn what the Bible really says.

You will find that the answer is the preaching of Jesus Christ according to the revelation of the mystery -(Romans 16:25).

We cannot teach the Bible any old way, we must rightly divide. A failure to rightly divide effects the spiritual growth and eternal destiny of deceived millions - (Romans 16:17-18).

Why Egypt and Other Arab Countries are Unwilling to Take in Palestinian Refugees from Gaza

BY PATRICIA HARRITY

In response to the desperate situation of Palestinians in Gaza due to Israel's ongoing retaliation for the October 7th attack by Hamas, neighboring countries, Egypt and Jordan, have firmly rejected providing refuge. Jordan has a significant Palestinian population, but together with Egypt, they have refused to take in Palestinian refugees from Gaza and the occupied West Bank.

Egyptian President Abdel Fattah el-Sissi, in particular, expressed concern that the ongoing conflict was not solely about fighting Hamas but also an attempt to force the civilian population to migrate to Egypt, which he warned could jeopardize peace in the region.

This information was originally published in the Associated Press, authors Jack Jeffery and Samy Magdy explain; Why Egypt and other Arab countries are unwilling to take in Palestinian refugees from Gaza.

As desperate Palestinians in sealed-off Gaza try to find refuge under Israel's relentless bombardment in retaliation for Hamas' brutal Oct. 7 attack, some ask why neighboring Egypt and Jordan don't take them in.

The two countries, which flank Israel on opposite sides and share borders with Gaza and the occupied West Bank, respectively, have replied with a staunch refusal. Jordan already has a large Palestinian population.

Egyptian President Abdel Fattah el-Sissi made his toughest remarks yet on Wednesday, saying the current war was not just aimed at fighting Hamas, which rules the Gaza Strip, "but also an attempt to push the civilian inhabitants to ... migrate to Egypt." He warned this could wreck peace in the region.

Jordan's King Abdullah II gave a similar message a day earlier, saying, "No refugees in Jordan, and no refugees in Egypt."

Their refusal is rooted in fear that Israel wants to force a permanent expulsion of Palestinians into their countries and nullify Palestinian demands for statehood. El-Sissi also said a mass exodus would risk bringing militants into Egypt's Sinai Peninsula, from where they might launch attacks on Israel, endangering the two countries' 40-year-old peace treaty.

Here is a look at what is motivating Egypt's and Jordan's stances.

A HISTORY OF DISPLACEMENT

Displacement has been a major theme of Palestinian history. In the 1948 war around Israel's creation, an estimated 700,000 Palestinians were expelled or fled from what is now Israel. Palestinians refer to the event as the Nakba, Arabic for "catastrophe."

In the 1967 Mideast war, when Israel seized the West Bank and Gaza Strip, 300,000 more Palestinians fled, mostly into Jordan.

The refugees and their descendants now number nearly 6 million, most living in camps and communities in the West Bank, Gaza, Lebanon, Syria and Jordan. The diaspora has spread further, with many refugees building lives in Gulf Arab countries or the West. After fighting stopped in the 1948 war, Israel refused to allow refugees to return to their homes. Since then, Israel has rejected Palestinian demands for a return of refugees as part of a peace deal, arguing that it would threaten the country's Jewish majority.

Egypt fears history will repeat itself and a large Palestinian refugee population from Gaza will end up staying for good.

NO GUARANTEE OF RETURN

That's in part because there's no clear scenario for how this war will end.

Israel says it intends to destroy Hamas for its bloody rampage in its southern towns. But it has given no indication of what might happen afterward and who would govern Gaza. That has raised concerns that it will reoccupy the territory for a period, fueling further conflict.

The Israeli military said Palestinians who followed its order to flee northern Gaza to the strip's southern half would be allowed back to their homes after the war ends.

Egypt is not reassured.

El-Sissi said fighting could last for years if Israel argues it hasn't sufficiently crushed militants. He proposed that Israel house Palestinians in its Negev Desert, which neighbors the Gaza Strip, until it ends its military operations.

“Israel’s lack of clarity regarding its intentions in Gaza and the evacuation of the population is in itself problematic,” said Riccardo Fabiani, Crisis Group International’s North Africa Project Director. “This confusion fuels fears in the neighborhood.”

Egypt has pushed for Israel to allow humanitarian aid into Gaza, and Israel said Wednesday that it would, though it didn’t say when. According to United Nations, Egypt, which is dealing with a spiraling economic crisis, already hosts some 9 million refugees and migrants, including roughly 300,000 Sudanese who arrived this year after fleeing their country’s war.

But Arab countries and many Palestinians also suspect Israel might use this opportunity to force permanent demographic changes to wreck Palestinian demands for statehood in Gaza, the West Bank and east Jerusalem, which was also captured by Israel in 1967.

El-Sissi repeated warnings Wednesday that an exodus from Gaza was intended to “eliminate the Palestinian cause ... the most important cause of our region.” He argued that if a demilitarized Palestinian state had been created long ago in negotiations, there would not be war now.

“All historical precedent points to the fact that when Palestinians are forced to leave Palestinian territory, they are not allowed to return back,” said H.A. Hellyer, a senior associate fellow at the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace. “Egypt doesn’t want to be complicit in ethnic cleansing in Gaza.”

Arab countries’ fears have only been stoked by the rise under Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu of hard-right parties that talk in positive terms about removing Palestinians. Since the Hamas attack, the rhetoric has become less restrained, with some right-wing politicians and media commentators calling for the military to raze Gaza and drive out its inhabitants. One lawmaker said Israel should carry out a “new Nakba” on Gaza.

WORRIES OVER HAMAS

At the same time, Egypt says a mass exodus from Gaza would bring Hamas or other Palestinian militants onto its soil. That might be destabilizing in Sinai, where Egypt’s military fought for years against Islamic militants and at one point accused Hamas of backing them.

Egypt has backed Israel’s blockade of Gaza since Hamas took over in the territory in 2007, tightly controlling the entry of materials and the passage of civilians back and forth. It also destroyed the network of tunnels under the border that Hamas and other Palestinians used to smuggle goods into Gaza.

With the Sinai insurgency largely put down, “Cairo does not want to have a new security problem on its hands in this problematic region,” Fabiani said.

El-Sissi warned of an even more destabilizing scenario: the wrecking of Egypt and Israel's 1979 peace deal. He said that with the presence of Palestinian militants, Sinai "would become a base for attacks on Israel. Israel would have the right to defend itself ... and would strike Egyptian territory."

"The peace which we have achieved would vanish from our hands," he said, "all for the sake of the idea of eliminating the Palestinian cause."

As the last two paragraphs indicate, peace could turn to war in Egypt in a relatively short time. This brings us back to the prophecy in Ezekiel 29 & 30. "Behold, therefore I am against thee, and against thy rivers, and I will make the land of Egypt utterly waste and desolate, from the tower of Syene even unto the border of Ethiopia." - (Isaiah 29:10) "Thus saith the LORD; They also that uphold Egypt shall fall; and the pride of her power shall come down: from the tower of Syene shall they fall in it by the sword, saith the Lord GOD." -(Ezekiel 30:6). This prophecy in Ezekiel 29 & 30 was made 2,600 years when the Tower of Syene did not exist until 1972.

Are you beginning to see why now God has made Israel a "Cup of Trembling" for the world? "Behold, I will make Jerusalem a cup of trembling unto all the people round about, when they shall be in the siege both against Judah and against Jerusalem." -(Zechariah 12:2). God has told us in advance of what is in the near future on God's time table. I am telling you for your benefit that the world has misunderstood the Bible in the panoply of time! We are bystanders awaiting our "Deliverance before Judgment" about to blow wide open at almost any time now.

'Keep the Old Hungry!' MAGA Mike sets to cut Social Security to Fund Apartheid Israel's War Crimes

Social Security Works said that the new House speaker's "NUMBER ONE priority is to cut our earned benefits behind closed doors."

JESSICA CORBETT

Nov 02, 2023

When Republicans in the U.S. House of Representatives elected Louisiana Congressman Mike Johnson as speaker last week, critics quickly sounded the alarm about his previous calls to cut trillions of dollars from Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid—and the GOP leader triggered a fresh wave of fears on Thursday with related comments to a Capitol Hill journalist.

NBC News' Sahil Kapur reported on social media that Johnson "says he pitched a debt commission to Senate Republicans yesterday and 'the idea was met with great enthusiasm.' He says it will be bipartisan and bicameral. He says he wants 'very thoughtful people' in both parties to lead it. He wants this 'immediately.'"

In response to Johnson's remarks—which echoed his first speech as speaker—the Alliance for Retired Americans wrote, “Translation: They're eager to begin gutting Social Security behind closed doors.”

Critics of the new speaker have similarly framed his election as a display of the far-right's hold on the Republican Party, and are even calling him “MAGA Mike,” including in response to his comments Thursday.

“A week into his tenure, MAGA Mike Johnson is ALREADY calling for closed-door cuts to the Social Security and Medicare benefits American workers have earned through decades of hard work,” warned Democrats on the House Ways and Means Committee.

Social Security Works said that “MAGA Mike Johnson's NUMBER ONE priority is to cut our earned benefits behind closed doors.”

“The White House has rightfully called this type of commission a ‘death panel’ for Social Security and Medicare,” the group noted. “HANDS OFF!”

Back in February, long before McCarthy struck a deal with President Joe Biden to suspend the country's debt ceiling, Republicans in Congress and Sen. Joe Manchin (D-W.Va.) were floating the idea of a commission, and White House spokesperson Andrew Bates said that “the American people want more jobs and lower costs, not a death panel for Medicare and Social Security.”

As Republican lawmakers have continued to pursue the idea, others have embraced the “death panel” description. After Johnson's mention of the commission in his speech last week, Los Angeles Times columnist Michael Hiltzik wrote:

On the whole, Johnson's approach to social safety net programs comes right out of the GOP library of lies about the programs' finances and their effect on the federal budget.

“The reality is, they're headed towards bankruptcy,” he said in his July 2022 C-SPAN appearance. “In just a few number of years, Social Security goes belly up. So does Medicare, Medicaid, all of these big-spending programs because we're drowning in debt.”

The idea that Social Security, Medicare, and Medicaid are going “bankrupt” is standard Republican hogwash. So is the idea that Social Security will go “belly up” in some number of years—even if Congress sits on its hands, the program will still have enough revenue to cover three-quarters of the benefits due.

“The notion that those programs are drivers of the federal debt is also a bog-standard GOP talking point,” Hiltzik added. “A far more significant portion of the federal budget deficit is the lavish tax cut that Johnson's party gifted to corporations and the wealthy in 2017, a $1.5-trillion giveaway from which the U.S. economy received no significant gain.”

Most House Republicans and a dozen Democrats on Thursday evening a week ago voted to pass a bill that would deliver on Biden's request for $14.3 billion to help Israel wage war on Gaza - which experts are condemning as genocide - and cut Internal Revenue Service (IRS) funding.

Analysts and Democrats in Congress have warned that the IRS cut would hamper the agency's ability to crack down on wealthy tax cheats, bolstered by the Congressional Budget Office finding Wednesday that the measure would reduce federal revenues by $26.8 billion and add $12.5 billion to the deficit over the next decade.

Rep. Summer Lee (D-Pa.), who opposed the bill and is among the few Democrats demanding a cease-fire in Gaza, said that *"the only thing crueler than sending $14 billion in U.S. taxpayer dollars for weapons that will result in the deaths of thousands more innocent Palestinian children in Gaza is exploiting that war—exploiting the death of over 1,400 Israeli mothers, fathers, grandparents, children, and hundreds more hostages—to help corporate CEOs and billionaire donors cheat on their taxes."

Apparently the Congress did not see the deficit an issue when it voted itself a nice pay raise without any public awareness.

Congress Sneaks In Stealth $34,000 Pay Raise; Gaetz, AOC Among More Than 200 Lawmakers To Benefit

BY TYLER DURDEN

SUNDAY, NOV 05, 2023

As House Democrats were set to hand power over to the Republicans following their midterm loss, they slipped in a provision into the House's internal rules under the guise of aiding their less affluent members; a $34,000 allowance to ostensibly help with living expenses in Washington, D.C.

A deep dive into the records by the 'Washington Free Beacon' reveals that over 200 lawmakers, including the vociferous Rep. Alexandria Ocasio-Cortez (D-NY), have dipped into this taxpayer-funded pot, a sumptuous feast on the nation's dime.

Ocasio-Cortez, who has previously lamented the costliness of D.C. living on a Congressperson's salary, now enjoys taxpayer support for accommodations in a luxury building replete with amenities that seem more Silicon Valley than Capitol Hill.

Bipartisan handout

So far, 113 Democrats and 104 Republicans, including millionaire members like Rep. Katie Porter (D-CA) and House Minority Whip Katherine Clark (D-MA), have partaken in the program, drawing $1.4 million from taxpayers during the first half of 2023 alone.

Rep. Matt Gaetz (R-FL), a critic of past budgetary excesses (whose wife says she's got a 'chef husband'), claimed the largest share of the fund.

When pressed about the apparent contradiction, Gaetz justified his actions to the Washington Free Beacon, emphasizing his adherence to the law and his thrifty shopping habits: "I've complied with the law, and my cooking is often with discount BOGO products. I try to do the best in the kitchen from the BOGO life," Gaetz said. He also highlighted his record of fiscal responsibility: "During my time in Congress, I've returned over $860,000 to taxpayers from the Members' Representational Allowance (MRA)."

In January the 'NY Times' shed light on the secretive subsidy, reporting that the Democrats' move to authorize it through an internal rule change effectively provided representatives with a pay raise sans political fallout. Former Rep. Mo Brooks (R-AK) criticized the lack of transparency, stating, "You can have a good public policy debate on whether congressmen should be paid more... but it really ought to be done in public," lamenting the secretive process.

Amidst these revelations, Zoe Bluffstone, spokeswoman for the Congressional Progressive Staff Association, directed attention to the plight of congressional staffers, telling the Times that the focus should be on "increasing pay for staffers," many of whom struggle financially.

The subsidy itself is derived from members' office budgets and allows for lodging expenses up to $258 per day and meal expenses up to $79 per day. The rules stipulate that members can be reimbursed for hotels or rentals linked to their official duties, though not for mortgage payments, and they do not need to submit receipts—only a certification of incurring the eligible expenses. This is not a bad deal for anyone that does not have to submit receipts for out of pocket day to day expenses.

'To Eliminate The Opiate'

The late Barry Chamish who died back around 2016 was a proliferate commentator on the State of Israel and geo-politics as well the plan to exterminate the Biblical descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Back in 2002, he reviewed the writing of Rabbi Antelman. I have a copy of Rabbi Antelman's book 'To Eliminate the Opiate' Although the book is two decades old, it was right on target then and remains to be an important work on what we are witness to in the Gaza war.

"Rabbi Antelman expresses the view that when the CFR-affiliated Jewish Power Elite saw they would not be able to stop Zionism and the creation of the state of Israel, they decided they would 'join it,' gain control of it, and destroy it from within." -- Richard Gilman - Editor, Conspiracy Digest

We all owe a huge debt to Rabbi Marvin Antelman, the first Jew to try to decipher the real conspiracy to destroy Jews and Judaism, which, as we all know is in full swing today.

Way back in 1974, before any of us had heard of the Illuminati or the Council On Foreign Relations (CFR), Rabbi Antelman published his book 'To Eliminate The Opiate' and exposed their covert war against religion, focusing on their battle plan to extinguish Judaism, but with great implications for Christianity as well.

This book is now found on literally all the lists of classic conspiracy literature. It has drawn praise for its deep scholarship even from researchers who clearly have no great love for Jews. Its crowning achievement was to prove that Jews are the chief victims of the New World Order, not its chief promulgators. However, that is not to say that Judaism lacks powerful traitors.

After 28 years, Rabbi Antelman has published the second volume of To Eliminate The Opiate. And those traitors are named; oh, how they are named!

In his second volume, Rabbi Antelman traces the treachery from within. He begins with Judaism's false messiah of the seventeenth century, Shabbetai Tzvi. He had convinced, perhaps, half of world Jewry that he was the true messiah and a vast Sabbatian movement promoted his messianic ambitions. However, the Ottoman Turks had a different view of him, and on threat of execution, successfully persuaded him to recant.

As far as most Jews are concerned, that was the end of the Sabbatian phenomenon. But Rabbi Antelman proves that his most ardent followers in Turkey have kept his movement alive through the centuries, with great help the next century from one Jacob Frank, who reintroduced Sabbatianism to Europe, and by this route to America and Israel. Rabbi Antelman refers to today's believers as "satanic Sabbatian Frankists."

Satanistic, because Rabbi Antelman charges that Shabbetai Tzvi promoted an anti-Judaism, an image in reverse of G-d's intended religion. So, while, true Judaism's aim is the survival of His people, Sabbatianism's goal is the elimination of Judaism. This explanation does much to increase our understanding of a characteristic unique to one people, Jewish self-hatred, or the desire to destroy your own flesh and blood.

But according to Rabbi Antelman, Tzvi's followers took his perverse thinking much farther than he ever dared.

"Sabbatian cults are well documented in the Encyclopedia Judaica and in the writings of distinguished Israeli academics including the late Professor Y. Tishbi, Yehuda Liebes and Yaacov Katz. In a nutshell, these groups practiced incest, adultery and homosexuality. They conspired with the Illuminati with goals of destroying all religions and fusing all nations into one." pp 256

"Gershon Scholem has traced the incestuous practices of the Sabbatians to that of Earth Mother worship." pp 123

"With New Age charitable trusts such as the Youngwood Institute, one finds disgust of the Jewish and Christian groups that have to be exterminated. Accordingly, in the next

'burnt offering' being planned, religious Jews and so-called fundamental Christians are at the top of the list." pp 208

According to Rabbi Antelman's chronology, in the 1770s Jacob Frank made a pact with one Adam Weishaupt, a Jewish-born Jesuit, to enlist his Sabbatians to join Weishaupt's Illuminati. During the French Revolution, documents were discovered which exposed the Illuminati's plan to destroy the foundations of European civilization; family, religion, royalty and morality, through revolutions. Weishaupt's organization was formally banned throughout Europe, so a decision was made to infiltrate the relatively benign Freemasonry and instill Illuminism from within. The plan worked and as Rabbi Antelman observes:

"While the Illuminati have attempted to subvert Freemasonry, it should be noted that Freemasonry per se is suspect despite the fine people who join its ranks. Lower degree Masons have been duped into thinking that the Masonry building symbols were connected with Solomon's Temple. Many Jewish Freemasons erroneously think that there is some sort of Jewish element or tradition in Freemasonry because of this. If they knew the truth their hair would stand on end. In effect, Freemasonry supports the Islamic concepts of conquest of Judaism and its destruction as taught in the Koran, and today the Dome Of The Rock is a perpetual symbol of the destruction of the Temple." pp 121

"For this reason, the Illuminati preferred to subvert Masonic groups, which they so hated, because much of Masonic ritual is transmitted from generation to generation, providing a vehicle to transmit an antinomian torch of evil over the ages." pp 89

Rabbi Antelman's research provides ample evidence that large-scale Sabbatianism was introduced to Judaism through the Reform and Conservative movements and through organizations such as the American Jewish Congress headed by a rather blatant traitor, CFR executive Henry Seigman, the World Jewish Congress, founded by the CFR's Bronfman family and the Bnai Brith, which was initially a branch of Freemasonry, and may, unknown to most members, still be. It is the traitors from within which anger Rabbi Antelman, more even than their gentile superiors:

"While we are focusing on apostate Jewish Illuminati, it must be reiterated that the Bundist-Illuminati were predominantly of Christian birth, both among the membership and the leadership. However, they found it most suited to their ends, as the Communists or the CFR elitists of today do, to utilize the intellectual talents of these Jewish-born apostates. They were especially placed in conspicuous positions so as the insure a victory of sorts if they would not succeed - thus polarizing among the masses those who would be stupid enough to blame the Jews for Illuminism, Revolution, Bundism, Socialism or Communism." pp 26

"Until the first comprehensive English Translation of the Talmud by Socino Press (1935-52) appeared, a non-comprehensive translation by M. L. Rodkinson was the only one in existence. Most scholars utilizing his works were unaware that he was a sinister personality whose primary efforts to render portions of the Talmud into English were for the purpose of disinformation and for providing grist for the anti-Semitic attacks on Jewry via careful distortion of selected words and mistranslation of Talmudic passages." pp 131

"Consider Stephen Wise, head of the Reform movement in the United States during World War II. As the slaughter was going on in Europe, Wise was more interested in his own gratification. Wise was both a Communist and a Sabbatian. That he was a Communist is attested to by Maurice Malkin, a member of the Communist Party who returned to Judaism, in his book Return To My Father's House. Wise was a Sabbatian, as was shown in Helen Rawlinson's book Stranger At The Party. In her chronicle of a sexual encounter with the so-called Rabbi Wise, she describes how Wise had sex with her in his office on his conference table, and quoted the verse from Psalms which Sabbatians did when engaged in sexual intercourse." pp 217

"Among the Nazi concentration camps of Europe was the 'country club' Theresienstadt. There the so-called 'Chief Rabbi Of European Jewry,' Leo Baeck was imprisoned. What he was really doing in Theresienstadt was presiding as chief Sabbatian of the New Age style destruction of European Jewry, which Professor Gershom Scholem and other scholars have shown was a Sabbatian project." pp 222

"Those ideological leftists in Israel cannot face a strong Israel because it means they are helping God. Thus they become partners in their own self-destruction to 'eliminate the opiate.' When in history has a country consented not only to surrender its territory to enemies but also to arm them as well, resulting in the deaths of its own civilians and soldiers, as the Rabin government did?" pp 168

The CFR and the New World Order

"This letter, in my opinion, is probably the most important document linking the Illuminati Sabbatians, Narodnicks, post-World War I Internationalists such as the CFR, the Nazis and the World Government UN Establishment." pp 43

The Health Ranger Theology

In Response To: Mike Adams' Brighteon Broadcast News, Nov 6, 2023 - The Luciferian plot to destroy Christianity, Islam and Judaism in a global nuclear apocalypse (1hr 30min, with notes) The Health Ranger seems to feel that he needs to pontificate about the Christian teaching of the Rapture. I have tried to find a mailing address to educate him but to no avail. Below are the highlights of his juvenile theology of debunking something that he has absolute no knowledge of God's Plan of "Deliverance before Judgment!"

Here are his talking points about The Rapture in the above video, presented for your reference: Skip ahead to the 1:00:00 point in the Brighteon Broadcast News.

- The "Rapture" was invented in the mid-1800s by John Nelson Darby
- Rapture appears nowhere in the Bible
- Christians aren't going to be physically lifted into the sky to meet God
- When that Rapture doesn't happen, while Israel is destroyed, Christians will lose faith
- At this moment, Lucifer seduces the world to turn to him
- Many disillusioned Christians turn to Lucifer and Christianity suffers greatly

Mike and his fellow pseudo-theologians such as Steve Quayle, Michael Snyder, and so many others know nothing about what they are so quick to dismiss. The named individuals have major internet businesses which they use to promote their survival and health products. They are like the Duracell bunny commercial. They keep on drumming out noise for theology that John Nelson Darby originated the Rapture doctrine. They want to eat your lunch and kill your joy that there is no escape coming from the hell on earth.

Obviously, they have no knowledge of the Greek Word "Harpazo" which can be found 13X times in the KJV Bible. It is a 'no brainer' that the English word "rapture" is not in the Bible. That is not unique either, many concepts are not named in the KJV Bible. The ignorance of these wanta-be theologians use John Nelson Darby as their "strawman!" Here are the 13 references for term we know as the Rapture, or Greek "Harpazo".

Matthew 11:12: "suffereth violence, and the violent take it by force."

Matthew 13:19: "the wicked one, and catcheth away that which was sown in his heart."

John 6:15: "they would come and take him by force, to make him"

John 10:12: "and the wolf catcheth them, and scattereth the"

John 10:28: "they shall never perish, neither shall any man pluck them"

John 10:29: "and no man is able to pluck them out of my Father's hand."

Acts 8:39: "water, the Spirit of the Lord caught away Philip, that the eunuch"

Acts 23:10: "the soldiers to go down, and to take him by force from among them,"

2 Corinthians 12:2: "I cannot tell: God knoweth;) such a one caught up to the third"

2 Corinthians 12:4: "How that he was caught up into paradise, and heard unspeakable words,"

1 Thessalonians 4:17: "we which are alive and remain shall be caught up together with them in"

Jude 1:23: "save with fear, pulling them out of the fire; hating"

Revelation 12:5: "and her child was caught up unto God, and to his"

Satan loves to exploit the empty minded fools who deny the Word of God's whole counsel of God!

From the archives of Pastor Bob's Studies on Deliverance before Judgment / Pre-Tribulation Rapture
Why the Rapture Occurs Before the Revealing of the Antichrist!

As noted in previous parts, God used literary devices as teaching tools to assist in grasping God's Plan for Salvation as recorded in Scripture. This is particularly so with the use of Biblical Typology which is found in the first book of the Bible, namely Genesis, or the book of beginnings. In Genesis 1:1 the word "beresheit", appearing in Hebrew as: בראשית is the first word and means: "In the beginning". In studying the Bible, we find what is known as the "Law of First Mention". This principle is widely known among Bible scholars and students alike. The main lesson is that key doctrines are first mentioned in Genesis and then last mentioned in the book of Revelation. It stands to reason that if God intended to use “Biblical Typology” its application would occur early on in the Bible. This is exactly what we find in the Bible.

Critics argue that the Rapture is not in the Bible, but they really mean the word is not found. In English that is true, but it is also true that words like “Trinity”, “Incarnation”, “Theophany”, and even the word “Bible” itself are not found in the Bible. It is a silly juvenile statement made by critics and meant to challenge the Bible’s authenticity or its teachings, suggesting that the Scripture text has either been corrupted or the teaching is untrue simply because these words are missing from the pages of the Bible.

There are a number of “Raptures” recorded in the Bible, at least “Seven” as I recall, and they include:

- ENOCH – Genesis 5:21-24 and Hebrews 11:5-6
- ELIJAH – 2nd Kings 2:1-11
- JESUS – Matthew 28:6-7 and Acts 1:9-11
- PAUL – 2nd Corinthians 12:2
- CHURCH – 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18; 1st Corinthians 15:51-58; and Revelation 7:9-17
- JOHN – Revelation 4:1
- TWO WITNESSES – Revelation 11:11

Some theologians and Bible scholars identify a couple of other Rapture examples, but they are questionable for several reasons. For the sake of clarity, we won’t get into them here, lest we add confusion to this topic over hazy language.

Enoch is the first person mentioned as being Raptured. Genesis 5:21-24 devotes a mere 4 verses to Enoch. Verse 24 says, “And Enoch walked with God: and he was not; for God took him.” When we look at Hebrews 11:5, it reads: “By faith Enoch was translated that he should not see death; and was not found, because God had translated him: for before his translation he had this testimony, that he pleased God.”

Note in Hebrews 11:5, Enoch was “translated”, a term that means to be Raptured. You will find it in Colossians 1:13 “Who hath delivered us from the power of darkness, and hath translated us into the kingdom of his dear Son:” Many overlook the words of Jude 1:14-15, where Enoch prophesies of the Second Coming to execute judgment. “And Enoch also, the seventh from Adam, prophesied of these, saying, Behold, the Lord cometh with ten thousands of his saints. To execute judgment upon all, and to convince all that are ungodly among them of all their ungodly deeds which they have ungodly committed, and of all their hard speeches which ungodly sinners have spoken against him.” In the passages of Genesis 5:25-29, we have the first mention of a subtle reference to “Biblical Typology” but it eludes most readers. I will unpack this in three parts.

To explain further for the reader to grasp the theme: Methuselah lived to the age of 969 years of age. When he was 187, Lamech was born, and he lived another 182 years until Noah was born.  $187 + 182 = 369$ . So, Noah was born when Methuselah was 369. The Flood came when Noah was 600.  $600 + 369 = 969$ , which is how old Methuselah was when he died -(Genesis 5:27). Scripture confirms that Methuselah died when the flood came. Genesis 7:6 states, “And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.” So after Methuselah died at age 969, that was also the same year the Great Flood came.

Now here is the Typology nugget people miss. Enoch walked with God, and Enoch could symbolize the Heavenly Father. Methuselah, the son of Enoch, could typify the Son of God. Do both Enoch and Methuselah teach about the Rapture? This you will find interesting. Jesus was taken up to God in Acts 1, the first to be born in an incorruptible body to immortality.

Methuselah did not have immortality, and was not Raptured as Enoch was, but Methuselah did live longer than any man in the Bible. Methuselah’s death just before the flood could prefigure the Pre-Tribulation Rapture. Enoch was taken, which is like the Rapture. Can we accept this if we realize that Jesus is symbolized by both the Father and the Son? We can when we look at Isaiah 9:6: “For to us a Child is born, to us a Son is given; and the government shall be on His shoulder; and His name shall be called Wonderful, Counselor, The mighty God, The everlasting Father, The Prince of Peace.”

Thus, Methuselah’s death right before the flood, (through the type of his father Enoch’s rapture, through the type of Jesus’ Rapture who symbolized both the Father and the Son) is a type of the Rapture right before the Tribulation.

Of course, we can simplify, and just look at Enoch, and say Enoch is a type of “Rapture” prior to the Tribulation of the Flood. But through Methuselah, and Jesus, I believe we have a clearer understanding that the Rapture happens right before the Tribulation in the same year.

This particular example of “Biblical Typology” helps establish the pattern of the theme of “Deliverance before Judgment” because it is the “first” example of the Law of First Mention. It borders on the level of a riddle, and yet it represents a prime example of the kind of comparisons we find in the Bible picturing and pointing to the ‘Pre-Tribulation Rapture’. In a previous segment, the example of Noah’s salvation through the flood by entering the Ark illustrated how God provides evidence and proof of His greater Plan to preserve mankind through Jesus is somewhat easier to grasp and understand.

It is important to point out here that you can trust the manuscripts used to translate the KJV Bible for its accuracy and total reliability. Other modern translations draw from the corrupt Westcott & Hort New Greek New Testament. Westcott & Hort were apostate churchmen in the Church of England and secret Satanists at the latter part of the 19th century. They had to be good snake oil salesmen to be able to convince the church to use their new Greek text.

I will let you in on a well-hidden secret. The KJV Bible is mathematically 98.2% accurate when validated against the “Heptadic Design Feature”. The other 1.8% portion, while not perfect, has not been changed in any way as to affect the overall message of the text. The “Heptadic Design Feature” is a numeric pattern (DNA) that mathematically authenticates the Creator’s Signature. Its existence (meaning the “Heptadic Design Feature”) proves that the Bible is not of human origin and that no collective effort could have rejected the Biblical message, compiled by over 40 authors, over 1,500 years with a central message that transcends individual books, authors, and both the Old and New Testament.

This “Heptadic Design Feature” originally discovered by Professor Ivan Panin was confirmed when we computerized the KJV Bible back in 1963-1964. Today, we have greater evidence from mathematics and computer science supporting the authenticity of the Bible. This confirmation is even more pronounced than we find from the theological community which focuses on “Textual Criticism”. Sometimes rivalry, jealousy, and animosity can be found among academic rivals and are evident in many fields of study. From my own personal experience, I know with certainty that there are many published mathematical works in print today which have confirmed what I have just shared, and yet the findings from these disciplines are largely unknown or ignored by the theological community. For instance, two examples encoded in the Bible:

- In the very first verse of Genesis 1:1, we find the mathematical formula for  $\pi$
- In the Gospel account of John at John 1:1, we find the  $e$  or Euler’s principle

These two mathematical operators are recognized by mathematicians the world over as being part of mathematics and not part of theology. Yet their presence encoded within the Biblical text exhibits mathematical properties from beyond or outside the Space-Time Continuum.

There is also a third mathematical term phi which is also embedded in Scripture. The ratio of 2.5 to 1.5 is as close to Phi (1.618 ...) as you can come with such simple numbers and is certainly not visibly different to the eye. The Ark of the Covenant is thus constructed using the Golden Section, or Divine Proportion. This ratio is also the same as 5 to 3, numbers from the Fibonacci series.

In the next segment of “Deliverance before Judgment” we will go back and take a closer look at the “Typology” of Noah and the Ark, the Great Flood, etc. In this first exposure to the concept of “Deliverance before Judgment”, I have explained in a brief or cursory overview something overlooked by most Bible students. While the story of Noah and the Ark is the focus of Genesis 7, there are additional insights that can be gleaned from elsewhere in the Bible. The whole story is not found just in Genesis 7, but in other New Testament passages of Matthew 24, Luke 17, and in 2nd Peter 2. These reveal a framework surrounding the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

Those who deny the Pre-Tribulation Rapture call attention to the fact that Noah “went through” the tribulation of the Flood. They also point out that as the wicked were destroyed in the Great Flood, so too the wicked will be taken away at the end of the Tribulation. I do not dispute either point, that Noah survived the time of trouble, and that the wicked will be destroyed at the end of the Tribulation; however, Noah and family in the Ark was lifted above the deluge. These examples are NOT the only comparisons to be made. Borrowing from Part 1 of this series and by way of reminder, in order to grasp the Bible, one has to think systematically, while simultaneously differentiating between the “Big” picture and the “Little” pictures. There are nuggets to be gleaned from each of these “pictures” portrayed as “types” to aid understanding of the larger message. The Bible emphasizes that the people are acting as if LIFE IS PERFECTLY NORMAL, “they were eating and drinking, marrying and giving in marriage, until the day” - (Matthew 24:28), that the world is taking NO NOTE of the COMING judgment.

Rapture Watch Recap

Mark Biltz of El Shadi Ministries posted a message on November 4th, 2023 and the essence of the long message is he suggests that Isaiah 17 and Psalms 83 are more likely to occur in the spring of 2024; followed by the Ezekiel 38 wars. I watched it a second time closely and it was well documented with Scripture and events occurring in Israel and its surrounding neighbors. The link to that message is immediately below:

<https://youtu.be/d1hHS4sgFTA>

How does all of this relate to the Rapture? Remember there is a “Seven” years that precede the Second Coming of the Lord Jesus Christ. Virtually all of those who hold to the Pre-Tribulation Pre-Millennial Rapture believe Scripture teaches that the (Man of Sin) Antichrist will sign the “Covenant with the Many” referenced in Daniel 9:27, which then starts the clock and begins this “Seven” year Tribulation.

With the calendar quickly passing our thoughts bring us to the events of the COP28 meetings in Dubai from November 30 through December 12th, 2023. Those dates are fixed, and have been reaffirmed they will take place on schedule. With the war in the Gaza that began on October 7th, I was thinking that the Arab states might call for a halt, but it has not happened and will not happen. The leaders of the COP28 event have made that clear. Another factor is not all Arabs are Muslims. Everything I have included here to date on HRM Prince Charles and Pope Francis confirms the COP28 is on track to take place during the 2 weeks previously announced.

HRM Prince Charles is going to give the key-note address, and Pope Francis has said he would be at the COP28 meetings from 12/1-12/3. This is our first indicator of when a signing event might be and narrowing the time frame of the event. There is no need to split hairs at this point about who the “many” are; 190 nations will be represented, including Israel, that will include 140 heads of state.

I have brought back the segment of 2nd Thessalonians 2:1-12, which I have included in several previous Blessed Hope segments. Keep in mind, the KJV Bible is a “word-for-word” translation to the passage below from the Greek Textus Receptus. If you have any doubt as to its meaning, read it over and over again, slowly and letting your mind register its inflections. any change in the form of a word (typically the ending) to express a grammatical function or attribute such as tense, mood, person, number, case, and gender.

Confusion over the word “apostasia” or “falling away” became an issue when the KJV Bible scholars tasked with the role of producing the Bible at the behest of King James were influenced by Roman Catholics seeking to bring the Church of England back under the authority of Rome. Keep in mind the Reformation occurred in 1517 and the KJV was commissioned in 1604. About 85 years passed when Jesuits were doing their best to woo back the early churchmen of the Reformation. Of the several teams or committees tasked with the writing of the KJV Bible of 1611, there were men who had interest in re-uniting with Rome. Scholars who have studied the writings and papers of the translating team members have noted the influence Rome had on the various teams entrusted with translating the KJV Bible. Six teams were tasked with the translation of the KJV Bible. A total of 47 or 48 members worked on the Old Testament, the New Testament, and the Apocrypha. Two teams worked on the New Testament, four teams worked on the Old Testament, and one team worked on the Apocrypha.

Following each team’s work, the entire body of members read the entire work of the others to reconcile any differences. What most Protestants do not know is that Rome was extremely influential in the creation of the KJV Bible. In 2012, a new interfaith exhibition that opened at the Vatican revealed how the roots of the 1611 King James Bible are almost entirely Catholic, despite the fact that the translation was often viewed as a highpoint of Protestant European culture.

“If it had not been for the Catholics of the 1500s, there would be no King James Bible,” exhibition organizer Cary Summers told EWTN News.

“Many of the original Bibles that formed the basis of the King James Bible came from Catholic priests. Very few changes were made. The ancient writings that the King James writers actually mimicked and copied were by Catholic priests,” he explained.

The “Verbum Domini” (Word of the Lord) exhibition ran from March 1 to April 15, 2012 coinciding with the seasons of Lent and Easter. The organizers describe it as a “highly contextual, interactive format” exhibit that aims to celebrate “the dramatic story of the Catholic contribution of the most-banned, most-debated, bestselling book of all time.”

The word “apostasia” or “falling away” as the KJV Bible wrote it that way waters down the Greek word meaning; and furthermore, the first six English translations of the Bible before the King James Bible translated the word “apostasia” as “departure”. This changes the entire meaning of the passage below.

The first seven English translations of “apostasia” all rendered the noun as either “departure” or “departing.” They are as follows:

- Wycliffe Bible (1384);
- Tyndale Bible (1526);
- Coverdale Bible (1535);
- Cranmer Bible (1539);
- Breeches Bible (1576);
- Beza Bible (1583);
- Geneva Bible (1608).

This supports the notion that the word truly means “departure.” In fact, Jerome’s Latin translation known as the Vulgate from about the time of 400 A.D. renders “apostasia” with the word “discessio”, meaning ‘departure.’ Why was the King James Version the first to depart from the established translation of “departure”? It seems to me that the Apostle Paul had divine foresight to preface the term meaning in verse 3 below.

<sup>1</sup>“Now we beseech you, brethren, by the coming of our Lord Jesus Christ, and by our gathering together unto him, <sup>2</sup>That ye be not soon shaken in mind, or be troubled, neither by spirit, nor by word, nor by letter as from us, as that the day of Christ is at hand. <sup>3</sup>Let no man deceive you by any means: for that day shall not come, except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition; <sup>4</sup>Who opposeth and exalteth himself above all that is called God, or that is worshipped; so that he as God sitteth in the temple of God, shewing himself that he is God. <sup>5</sup>Remember ye not, that, when I was yet with you, I told you these things? <sup>6</sup>And now ye know what withholdeth that he might be revealed in his time. <sup>7</sup>For the mystery of iniquity doth already work: only he who now letteth will let, until he be taken out of the way. <sup>8</sup>And then shall that Wicked be revealed, whom the Lord shall consume with the spirit of his mouth, and shall destroy with the brightness of his coming: <sup>9</sup>Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders, <sup>10</sup>And with all deceivableness of unrighteousness in them that perish; because they received not the love of the truth, that they might be saved. <sup>11</sup>And for this cause God shall send them strong delusion, that they should believe a lie: <sup>12</sup>That they all might be damned who believed not the truth, but had pleasure in unrighteousness.” –(2nd Thessalonians 2:1-12)

It is now more probable that believers will be Raptured out of this hell before HRM Prince Charles signs that Covenant during the COP28 meetings; the world’s biggest climate change conference – the United Nations’ annual Conference of the Parties, better known as Cop28 – will begin in the UAE. More than 80,000 delegates, 5,000 journalists and 140 heads of state are expected to attend the 14-day summit at Dubai’s Expo site.

The host nation, one of the world's largest oil exporters, wants this year's conference to provide "bold, practical and ambitious solutions to the most pressing global challenge of our time".

The Emirati government recognizes the realities of climate change, but argues there can be no meaningful debate without the involvement of fossil fuel producers.

Concurrently with the focus on climate change focus of COP28 there is the equally important issue of the Freemason agenda to gain control of the world's assets through the provoking of a global war between the Muslim world and its nemesis Judeo/Christian faith. It is energy that links the conflict adversaries.

These are huge confirmations that the Antichrist, aka HRM Prince Charles will unleash a chain or swarm of conflicts and great tribulation because of his stated Zionist beliefs noted in Blessed Hope #231. Why do I say that? It is a fair question and we have many pressing problems facing this country which is being run by one of the Antichrist's Freemason from behind the curtain. HRM Prince Charles has been supporting the Zionist cause all of his life. He was born into it six months after Israel became a state in 1948. Barack Obama hates Israel, he definitely hates the USA. Being a CIA-trained agent, a Muslim, Obama was a Manchurian president. Being black provided cover for much of his eight year presidency as well as his secret presidency from behind the curtains of Joe Biden. His cardboard cutout posing as Biden left behind $8-billion dollars of U.S. military assets in Afghanistan without any legitimate reason other than to equip the Muslim world with brand new equipment. It is now becoming clear to what led to the retreat after squandering twenty years and a Trillion dollars in a country which will never change from being a Muslim nation. The O'biden strategy has been to say one thing and do the opposite, both with Israel, and with Iran in ways that sent conflicting signals. What first seemed to be ineptitude has been a bit of genius.

A second critical issue is that some 6-million illegals have essentially walked into this country from a hundred countries around the world since January, 2020. 1,600 arrive every week in Los Angeles, CA. That number comes from the 'LA Times'. Where you have no borders and control of who comes into the country without being vetted and processed, you have no country. The government has been relocating these illegals into virtually cities of their choice. The U.S. flies them and buses them to wherever they want to go. Even Democratic mayors have said they cannot handle the influx of people. There are in most states more illegals than the number of that State's National Guard.

A third issue is a potential government shut down later this month because of the out of control spending which can only destroy the national financial and monetary system. There are reports that the Internet and cell phone communications could be disrupted to undermine all communications by November 15th, 2023. The Canadian Prepper reported Tuesday, November 7th information from his supply source of dehydrated freeze-dried foods that the Federal Reserve Bank at 33 Liberty St. in down-town Manhattan has placed a huge order for top-tier meals; these are not the MREs which U.S. military personnel and government employees overseas receive. This was more alarming because the required delivery date to a warehouse in New Jersey is to be delivered by November 17th, 2023. Top-tier meals in the order included that which one would get at a 4 or 5-star restaurant, steak and lobster tail.

There has been a problem since last Friday with interbank deposits in many parts of the country, which has yet to be resolved. Customers from various parts of the country have been complaining they can't get money from their accounts because paychecks deposited by their employers had not been in their accounts. The Fed asked member banks to waive overdraft fees until the problem with the ACH check processing system is back to normal. This issue has never been fully explained. Some customers still haven't received their direct deposit paychecks following a "human error" last week deep in the plumbing of America's banking system.

The deposit delays are linked to a problem that emerged on Friday with the Automated Clearing House (ACH) payments system, causing headaches for consumers and employers. This did little to explain what the problem is. The fee to process a check is .47-cents per check in settling account transfers between other banks.

Banks stressed to customers that all funds are secure. Payments that did not go through late last week had to be resent, a process that can take time. It's not clear how widespread the impact continues to be or how long it will take for all customers to receive their deposits.

The Clearing House, the private operator of ACH, told CNN on Monday it is working with banks and the Federal Reserve to "resolve this issue as quickly as possible."

"Many of the delayed payments have already posted, and we will continue working with financial institutions to ensure the remaining transactions are processed," The Clearing House spokesperson Greg MacSweeney said in an email.

An industry source confirmed to CNN on Monday that it's likely some customers haven't received their deposits yet. The source stressed that banks are at the mercy of the originating bank to resend payment files.

A fourth issue is a potential bank collapse, with an estimate from Moody's Analytics last month indicated that U.S. banks could be dealing with hundreds of billions in unrealized losses as the value of their investments in various long-term bonds - made in the early days of the pandemic - has plummeted. But while those depreciating bonds can negatively impact a bank's balance sheet, unrealized losses are only a problem if they are actually sold for a loss.

While they are generally purchased and intended to be held until they mature, if banks experience a surge of withdrawals - a run on the bank - they may need to sell them. That is what happened to Silicon Valley Bank earlier this year. The bank was forced to sell those bonds as its depositors sought to withdraw funds.

Bank of America reported last month that unrealized losses due to its ownership of Treasury and mortgage securities had risen to almost $132 billion in the third quarter. That was a rise from $106 billion in the prior quarter. Bank of America's share price reached a three-year low earlier in October amid those concerns around the large holding of depreciating bonds.

'All of these unrealized losses are on government-guaranteed securities,' Bank of America's chief financial officer, Alastair Borthwick, said during an earnings call.

'Because we're holding them to maturity, we will anticipate that we'll have zero losses over time,' he added.

JPMorgan Chase had unrealized losses of $40 billion in its 'hold to maturity' portfolio in the third quarter, Reuters reported.

And while Citibank did not disclose its unrealized losses at the end of the third quarter, they were around $24 billion at the end of the second quarter.

Nonetheless, last week regional bank stocks experienced a rally of around 10 percent after the Fed once again paused its rate hikes and indicated they may be over.

I have only shared what I am about to say with only a few others. What I have been posting is being c e n s o r e d by my Internet service provider for a little over a week now; the Internet is being regulated by terms established by the UN and WEF.

I expected this reality would happen sooner or later. There is too much information getting out to the public and the tyranny of those in control is being tightened and closed. The population of the world is not complying with the WEF Antichrist agenda as every new day brings more ridiculous insanity in the form of requirements or mandates.

With only four weeks to the COP28 meetings, we are on the threshold of Biblical history and prophecy converging, culminating in a way that most of the world will not be able to come to grips with when millions are removed from the physical realm we know as home. Those left behind will be told that "we were taken by ET's for re-education in order to calm folks of what happened at the Rapture." The Antichrist will sell them on the idea they can have immortality by following him, worshipping him, and taking his Mark.

In retrospect and after absorbing the remarks of Pastor Mark Biltz of El Shadi Ministries, we may not be here when I have been saying over many previous Blessed Hope segments. What I have stated below may not occur until after our "Departure" in the Rapture. I put a border around the comments I have stated previously appear to be evolving or devolving depending on your personal belief system as Post-Rapture events rather than Pre-Rapture. To think the remaining days are going to be a walk in the park may be a huge mistake. In fact, the next three weeks could well be a test of our faith even more so given what I shared about the Fed, the border invasion, a financial collapse, and the potential Internet/communications issue. The late evangelist Hilton Sutton said numerous times that “when the bombs are descending the saints would be ascending.” Pray for the peace of Jerusalem!

When you read and hear that Damascus has been “Nuked” you will know that we only have days before the End! When Isaiah 17:1 is fulfilled, Russia will enter the picture that leads to World War III. We were told in advance it would happen! The Bible however does not name a nation or state responsible or behind it; it even could be the U.S. as much as Israel, or precipitated by an unknown client “third party”. Russia has multiple business and defense treaty agreements with Syria that will bring in Russia quickly. The COP28 meetings are still on schedule and the calendar dates below are baked into the cake.

World War III (Ezekiel 38/39 included) will break out once the Antichrist, aka Prince Charles signs/confirms the ‘Covenant with the Many’ of Daniel 9:27. Even Prince Charles’ chief lieutenants like Klaus Schwab have stated that Tribulation would occur. In fact they are pushing this war to occur! Very few people understand the larger plan to ‘divide and conquer’. Satan’s demonic plans are to steal, kill, and destroy. –(John 10:10) If you have not learned anything in reading this Blessed Hope segment, know this, we have little time on the calendar. The world as we know it is being distracted by the holidays ahead, Thanksgiving and Christmas, both of which might not happen.

Believers worldwide will be Raptured out of here just before or at least prior to when Prince Charles makes his rare appearance at the COP28 being held in Dubai that will usher in the Great Tribulation of Daniel 9:27. Hanukkah, 2023 offers still another possible Rapture date within this time frame!

This date is by far the most important key to the Rapture timing!

Count down to ‘Confirming the Covenant with the Many’

Hanukkah 12/7/23 – 12/15/23 COP28 Begins November 30th as of 11/11/23 – 19 Days Days to end COP28 December 12th as of 11/11/23 – 30 days

Praise God!

ADMIT THAT YOU

BELIEVE THAT JESUS
PAID FOR YOUR SIN
ON THE CROSS. †

CONFESS THAT JESUS IS LORD AND CALL UPON HIM FOR SALVATION.

Blessings in the Precious Name of Jesus Christ, Lord of lords, and King of kings!
