The Climate Prophet Speaks!

Pope Francis Warns: ‘Besides War, Our World Is Threatened by Another Great Danger, Climate Change’

On Sunday, Pope Francis declared that global warming goes against God’s plan and poses a substantial threat to all “life on earth.”

“Besides war, our world is threatened by another great danger, that of the climate, which puts life on Earth, especially for the future generations, at risk,” the pontiff stated in a written text, which was read aloud by his aide Monsignor Paolo Braida following the weekly Angelus prayer.

“And this is contrary to the plan of God, who created everything for life,” he added.

Driven by this apocalyptic concern, the pope mentioned that in the upcoming weekend, he plans to “go to the United Arab Emirates to speak at the COP 28 in Dubai,” despite a lung infection that led to the cancellation of several appointments over the weekend.

“I thank everyone who will accompany this journey with prayer and with the commitment to take to heart the preservation of the common home,” he concluded.

The fight against climate change has been a prominent feature of Francis’ decade-long papacy, and in October, he released an apostolic exhortation warning that the world “is collapsing and may be nearing the breaking point” due to global warming.

In that letter, titled Laudate Deum (Praise God), the pontiff called out the United States by name, blaming an “irresponsible lifestyle” for fueling the climate crisis.

“If we consider that emissions per individual in the United States are about two times greater than those of individuals living in China and about seven times greater than the average of the poorest countries, we can state that a broad change in the irresponsible lifestyle connected with the Western model would have a significant long-term impact,” he wrote.

The pope criticized climate change “deniers,” insisting that it “no longer possible to doubt the human – ‘anthropic’ – origin of climate change.”

He pointed out that global warming is caused by “the concentration of greenhouse gases in the atmosphere,” currently measured at 423 parts per million as of June 2023.

“No one can ignore the fact that in recent years we have witnessed extreme weather phenomena, frequent periods of unusual heat, drought, and other cries of protest on the part of the earth that are only a few palpable expressions of a silent disease that affects everyone,” he declared.

“Despite all attempts to deny, conceal, gloss over, or relativize the issue, the signs of climate change are here and increasingly evident,” he stated.

Francis has often criticized a “politics of fear” and “alarmism” as enemies of the democratic process but has himself stoked fears of an impending climate apocalypse in order to incite people to action.

He has called the effects of climate change “catastrophic,” arguing that atmospheric warming is “a global problem with grave implications” and “one of the principal challenges facing humanity in our day.”

However, in August of this year, a coalition of over 1,600 distinguished scientists, including two Nobel Prize winners, released the “World Climate Declaration.”

In this declaration, they explicitly asserted: “There is no climate emergency.”

“Climate science has degenerated into a discussion based on beliefs, not on sound self-critical science,” the scholars asserted, offering a number of reasons for their criticisms.

The Declaration stated, for instance, that climate models have proven insufficient in forecasting global warming, carbon dioxide (CO2) is not a pollutant, and climate change has not led to an increase in natural disasters.

“There is no statistical evidence that global warming is intensifying hurricanes, floods, droughts, and suchlike natural disasters, or making them more frequent,” the document stated.

“However, there is ample evidence that CO2-mitigation measures are as damaging as they are costly.”

“There is no climate emergency,” it concluded.

“Therefore, there is no cause for panic and alarm.”

As to Pope Francis being the Climate Prophet, the Creator has a special place for the Jesuit liar Francis! Pope Francis is a demonic snake! The punishment specified for false prophets in the Old Testament was severe: “If any prophet dares to speak a message in My name that I have not commanded him to speak, or to speak in the name of other gods, that prophet must be put to death” -(Deuteronomy 18:20).

In the New Testament, Jesus taught about false prophets in His Sermon on the Mount: “Watch out for false prophets. They come to you in sheep’s clothing, but inwardly they are ferocious wolves. By their fruit you will recognize them. Do people pick grapes from thorn bushes, or figs from thistles? Likewise, every good tree bears good fruit, but a bad tree bears bad fruit. A good tree cannot bear bad fruit, and a bad tree cannot bear good fruit” -(Matthew 7:15–18).

Prince Harry, In A Brazen Display Of Climate Hypocrisy

By Wide Awake Media November 28, 2023

Despite lecturing the peasants about the world being “on fire” because of “human-induced climate change”—supposedly as a result of human CO2 emissions, caused by the burning of fossil fuels—on Saturday Prince Harry used an oil tycoon’s private jet to attend a Katy Perry concert.

The fact that these climate totalitarians never practice what they preach proves beyond any doubt that the “human-induced climate change” narrative has nothing to do with saving the planet, and everything to do with demolishing the living standards, economic prosperity and individual freedom of the new neo-feudal peasant class.

Rise of the Fourth Reich Continued Evidence of HRH Prince Charles is the Antichrist

The Antichrist House of Windsor

Prince Charles finally became King and now is on the Antichrist radar. I think he or his son William is the perfect candidate. We all know that the Beast in the end times has to tie together all the loose strands of this mystery. This article is an attempt to tie together some of those loose ends.

Did you know that Prince William stated that peace in the Middle East was his life's mission?

He went to Jerusalem to go visit his great-grandmother Princess Alice's grave. She is his paternal great-grandmother as she was the mother of William's father Prince Phillip. She was also called Princess Andrew. She came from the German Battenberg family line. In 1930, she was diagnosed with schizophrenia and committed to a sanatorium in Switzerland. How did her body end up in Jerusalem? After the death of her husband she became a nun in her last 20 years of life and had a fondness for the Jewish people as she sheltered several Jewish refugees. It was her dying wish to be buried in Jerusalem so her family arranged it for her.

The Royals attempt to hide their Germanic Roots

We pity Princess Alice, she probably went crazy due to actually being a good person amongst wolves. The Battenberg family had been residing in the British Empire but had renounced their Hessian titles, due to rising anti-German sentiment among the British during the First World War. At that point, they changed the family name to Mountbatten, an Anglicized version of Battenberg. Princess Alice's younger brother Louis was the great uncle of King Charles.

It was this uncle that introduced Queen Elizabeth to Phillip. In 2019 an FBI Dossier was released through the Freedom of Information Act that revealed that his uncle Louis Mountbatten and his wife were persons of extremely low morals and that Louis had a perversion for young boys.

This uncle was Prince Charles primary mentor who he described as "the grandfather I never had". Uncle Mountbatten's gay friends referred to him as, "Mountbottom". Louis Mountbatten's driver Norman Nield revealed in a 1987 interview that he would pick boys up aged 8 through 12 for Charles's pedophile uncle. Louis would subdue the boys with Lemonade spiked with brandy. He was a sexual deviate who would dress his victims up in baby clothes before molesting them. See this article in 'Village Magazine' for more details.

Now let's get back to their link with Israel. The family claims to come from the line of King David. When Elizabeth was coronated as Queen they placed what they called "The Stone of Scone" under her royal chair. It is alleged to be the very same stone that King David himself was coronated on as well as many other world leaders throughout history like Constantine. They go even further to say it's also Jacob's stone pillar where he laid his head and had the vision of the angels descending and ascending up and down the ladder. Some say the real stone was stolen and resides in New York. Regardless of whether this is the actual stone or not, it's the claims made about it that concerns us. They brought this stone in once again for Charles coronation as King, see article below.

Evening Standard

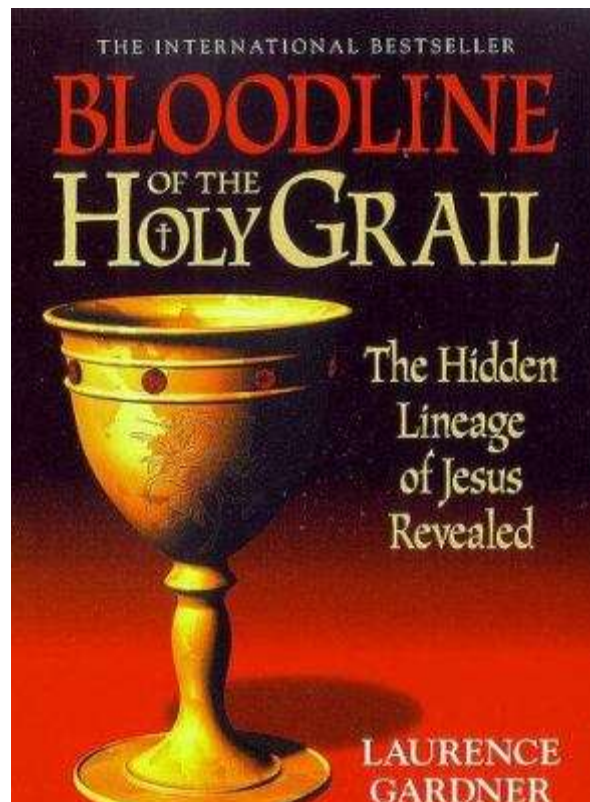

Historic Stone of Destiny to be moved to London for new King's coronation

Queen Victoria, who was Queen Elizabeth's great-great grandmother was so convinced that she was from the family line of David, that she had all her male offspring circumcised. Queen Elizabeth followed that tradition and had her son Charles circumcised by Rabbi Snowman.

Unfortunately it was a Christian Pentecostal, Charles Fox Parham, who lived in the 1800's that claimed to have traced the supposed Biblical, Genetic Connection of the Royalty of Great Britain to the Throne of King David to Queen Victoria. He wrote an article called: "Queen Victoria's Descent From Adam," that was published in "THE APOSTOLIC FAITH" magazine of March 22, 1899.

Here is an excerpt from his article:

"From this royal princess, we obtain, then, a direct and unbroken line of ancestry to King Fergus, who went from Ireland to reign as king of Scotland; and from King Fergus I. Of Scotland we get the same unbroken line to the time of King James of Scotland, who himself became king of England; and from King James we get the same unbroken line to our beloved Queen, she being, then, the seed royal to King David's house, and therefore the royal seed of King David; she is, and must be, the ruling monarch over the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel."

This 1996 book by Laurence Gardner, 'Bloodlines of the Holy Grail' has fabricated a family tree genealogy that elevated the idea of the Royal Family as being a descendant of King David, and alleging Jesus of Nazareth married Mary Magdalene and sired children as well.

The Rev. Joseph Wild, D.D., says the old Irish histories say when Jeremiah landed in Ireland with Princess Tea Tephi, he took with him a stone which stone was known to have been in the temple at Jerusalem. On this very stone all the monarchs in Ireland were crowned, until Fergus I., king of Scotland, who caused the same stone to be taken from Ireland to Scotland, and so were all the monarchs in Scotland crowned upon it, from Fergus to King James, after which it was brought to England; and so all the monarchs in England, from King James to the beloved Queen, have been crowned upon it, she being the last crowned upon this wonderful stone: so that for 2,450 years monarchs have been crowned upon this wonderful stone, which stone may be seen this very day under the coronation chair in Westminster Abbey, London. It received the names, Wonderful, the Precious Stone, Jacob's Stone and is now called Jacob's Stone.

The Lord said Jacob's stone should be a pillar of witness that He would fulfill His promises to Israel. The stone was kept in the temple at Jerusalem as a witness, and from there was removed to Ireland, and then to Scotland, and now we have it as a witness in England. 'Joshua (xxiv, 27) said unto all the people, behold, 'this stone' shall be a witness unto us, for it hath heard all the words of the Lord, which he spake unto us; it shall be, therefore a witness unto you, lest ye deny your God.' I ask, why does this enlightened nation keep such a stone so many generations if there is no meaning in it? Why, because it must continue with the royal seed to be a witness that our Queen is the seed royal to King David's house, and her subjects are the Ten Lost Tribes of Israel.

This promulgated the "British Israelism" teaching leading Anglo-Saxons to think they are from the Lost Tribes of Israel. I caution any Christian that has gotten caught up in this to realize that they aren't special due to a bloodline. The Bible says specifically that in Christ Jesus there is neither Jew nor Greek, meaning we aren't supposed to distinguish ourselves by family lineage, but we are all Abraham's seed who are in Christ Jesus.

The theory really gained traction in more recent times when Herbert W. Armstrong promoted it with his book called The United States and Britain in Prophecy. If you are in this cult, now is the time to get out. Please read this refutation of this teaching here: British-Israelism, Anglo-Israelism Refuted!

After the death of Herbert W. Armstrong, the World Wide Church of God splintered into various factions. Gerald Flurries publishes their major print magazine called the 'Philadelphia Trumpet'.

Whether they really have a lineage to King David or not is none of my concern; my concern is that they are making the claim to the Throne of King David. The Jews are expecting a King to come in the last days that will ascend to the throne of David from the Davidic line. That's why this is concerning. King Charles even has his own personalized Kippah.

Some think the claim to the lineage of David is all for show and for their own advantage. The British-Israel World Federation has entire genealogies they claim go back to the Tribe of Judah and King David. Yet anyone who does even a cursory check of these false genealogies will see that all of Israel's genealogical records were kept in the Temple in Jerusalem and burned with fire in 70 AD when Titus desolated the temple and city.

Who is their allegiance to really? Below you will see pictures of then Princess Elizabeth being initiated as a Druid in a robe of green which was led by an acolyte to Archdruid Crwys Williams, who initiated her into the Mystic Circle of Bards at the national Eisteddfod, or festival, at Mountain Ash, Glamorgan, Wales, August 6, 1946.

The most important knowledge that exists of the Druids comes from the writings of Julius Caesar. Caesar was not only a warrior and statesman but a priest as well; therefore he was keenly interested in the Druidism and the Celtic people. Moreover, he was friendly with a pro-Roman Druid, Diviciacus, who shared with him many Druid beliefs, especially about their gods and life after death. Caesar asserted several times "that Druid power originated in Britain and that Britain remained the center of Druidism."

Both on the continent and in Ireland the Druids held themselves above the kings unless they held both offices. They held themselves in very high esteem, which was shared for them by the people. The Druids called themselves "creators of the universe." In Ireland kings went nowhere without Druids to advise them. Druids believed they were the incarnations of the gods.

The Druids assembled in what they considered to be "sanctified" or sacred places. They were sacred groves of trees, especially oak trees. The name Druid means, "knowing the oak tree" in Gaelic. It was within these groves that most assemblies and religious ceremonies occurred. There are several descriptions of Druidic human sacrifices. They were performed within a religious and spiritual sense. Many were performed publicly among the Celtic people especially at the celebration of Beltain. There were also private human sacrifices.

God's Word mentions how the wicked gather around Oak trees to make sacrifices:

“You burn with lust among the oaks and under every spreading tree; you sacrifice your children in the ravines and under the overhanging crags”. –(Isaiah 57:5)

Queen Elizabeth's oath to the Druids shows her true character. Her loyalty is not to King David's God of the Scriptures. She also made other oaths to Secret Societies such as the Order of the Garter. Here she is pictured with her son Charles and her grandson William who are both members as well. Also, her grandson William and his Bride Kate were wed by Druid Rowan Williams who doubles as Archbishop of Canterbury. At Prince William's wedding they also sang the hymn Jerusalem, which some consider England's second National Anthem.

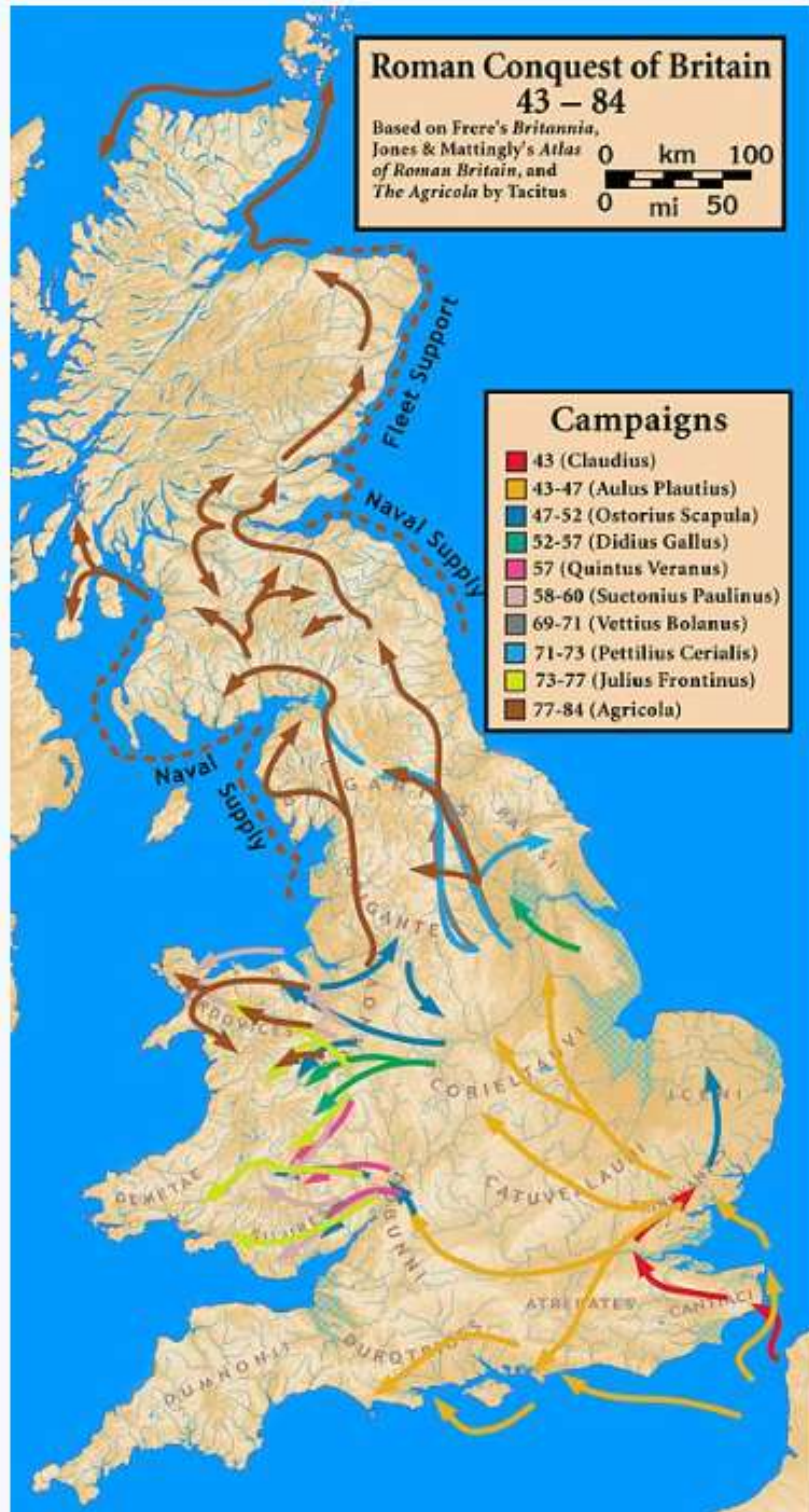

On June 2, 1953, with the Knights of the Garter carrying the canopy over her head, Elizabeth II was anointed and crowned as “Queen of thy people Israel”. The monarchy claims the throne in the Throne Room in England is the actual throne of King David. On the British coat of arms, under the shield is a motto, “Dieu et mon droit” meaning “God and my right,” their attempt to refer to a birthright to the throne. Indeed, the monarchy’s coronation ceremony revolves around a chair they claim has the “stone of scone” fitted into it (that would be the same stone Jacob used as a pillow on the night he dreamed of the ladder into heaven with angels ascending and descending).

The Real Origins of the British Monarchy

The British monarchy emerged directly out of the same Roman Empire that crucified the Messiah. This happened when Britain became a Roman colony in approximately 55 B.C. (although warring with Rome continued well into the 2nd century). The name “Britain” is derived from “B’rith-ain” which means “covenant land,” and “British” means “covenant man.” The British Empire eventually exceeded even the Roman empire in size, which is the reason for the infamous colonialism expression, “the sun never sets on the British empire”.

Britain = Roman

Roman conquest of Britain

Roman conquest of Britain, showing the dominant local tribes/kingdoms conquered in each area

There is also some evidence to suggest that the two empires are actually the same empire, such that London is still a Roman city, and its crown is superior to the crown of Great Britain. It has also been said that the British monarchy has been subservient to the Catholic Church since the Treaty of Verona in 1213. See The 1215 Magna Carta, English Translation by Xavier Hildegarde. The operative provision in the Magna Carta is section 13 (“And the city of London shall have all its ancient liberties and free customs, by land as well as by water.”)

Londinium, also known as Roman London, was the capital of Roman Britain during most of the period of Roman rule. It was originally a settlement established on the current site of the City of London around 47–50 AD.

The city of London was founded by the Romans and their rule extended from 43 AD to the fifth century AD, when the Empire fell. During the third century, Londinium, the name given to the town by the Romans, had a population of 50,000, mainly due to the influence of its major port.

Modern day Israel emerged out of Britain when the British military 'won' Israel around 1917, and then turned it over to Jewish authorities in 1948. Read about the Balfour Declaration from The History Channel.

Do you see how Britain seems to be a centerpiece here? Have you heard about the three City States? They are sovereign, not a part of the actual Country they reside in. They are the trinity of evil, some say the they are the three frogs of Revelation 16:13. Please watch the video below which explains how they interlink.

Americans believe that the United States of America became a separate country following its War of Independence against the British in 1783. Now you know why they hold an orb which represents the whole world during their coronation ceremony. Below is a painting of Charlemagne, 1st of the Holy Roman Emperors holding a golden orb.

The orb and scepter were the symbols of Zeus or Jupiter as the supreme false god of the Greek and Roman pantheon. The orb represents universal dominion. The visual symbolism of holding the world in one's hand was a clear message used since antiquity. Citizens of Rome were familiar with the round globe as a representation of the world or universe, represented by Jupiter, and thus the Emperor's dominion and absolute dictatorial rule over the pagan Roman Empire.

Elizabeth's son Charles went through the same Coronation ceremony as his mother which is laden with satanic objects and symbolism that go back as far as Ancient Egypt. The Royal family can be traced back to and are related to the ancient Pharaoh's of Egypt. There's an Egyptian pyramid on the Royal Balmoral estate in the UK, which is one of fourteen of them that Queen Victoria, Queen Elizabeth's great-great grandmother, had built.

Queen Elizabeth died at Balmoral Castle recently on September 8th, 2022. Did you know that the phonetic BAL relates to an ancient deity named BAAL, which is an ancient God equal to what we know today as the devil. Balmoral can be seen as translating into "the morality of evil" or "the originating of more evil electricity" or "energy of the devil as God."

Below is an outline from Grace Powers that details how the ceremonial rites and objects all stem from Ancient Egypt. It is all pretty startling, but will bring into better focus the end game of the enemy. Their time is up. Be patient Saints, our Lord Jesus Christ will return to deal with them and bring the real New Jerusalem out of heaven where his throne is established forever.

Excerpt from William 2015, by Grace Powers:

1. Until recently, the "Stone of Jacob" was stored beneath the Queen's throne chair and was included in her 1953 coronation ceremony. Jacob is the Hebrew patriarch whose name was changed to "Israel".
2. Queen Elizabeth II was crowned at her coronation ceremony on top of a platform with descending steps on all sides that duplicate an Egyptian step pyramid. (Fig. 13)
3. The British Monarch's crown has 12 colored stones at the base, each representing the 12 Hebrew tribes of Israel. These stones are identical to the twelve colored stones worn on the breastplate of Hebrew high priests in ancient Israel.

4. The Union “Jack” flag represents the re-union of the twelve Hebrew tribes of “Jacob” (Jack) in the British Isles after they were forced to disperse from Israel. The Union Jack is red, white and blue – the same colors as the three Crowns of Egypt.

5. The symbols within the British Coat of Arms reveal Britain’s Hebrew origin. According to the Bible, the harp symbolizes the Hebrew King David. The Biblical lion and unicorn holding up the shield symbolize the nation of Israel. The motto “dieu et mon droit” means “God and my right” indicating the divine “right” of the British Monarch to an eternal throne.

6. The “royal scepter” originates in ancient Egypt. It was carried by the Egyptian God Amenhotep and by Egyptian Pharaohs who called themselves the son of God (Amenhotep). The royal scepter is carried by Queen Elizabeth II and contains the world’s largest cut diamond called the Star of Africa (Egypt).

7. The symbol of the bee can be found within the Monarch’s royal wardrobe. In ancient Egypt, bees were a symbol of royalty and the symbol of Egypt.

8. Dressed in royal attire, the Queen carries a tassled flail or whip which is partially hidden under her arm. The punishing flail or whip also originates with the pharaohs of ancient Egypt.

9. During the Queen’s coronation ceremony in 1953, she turned to face the four corners of the globe – north, south, east and west. The orb carried by the Queen represents the globe over which the Monarch rules.

10. The headdress presently worn by judges and the Queen’s high ranking officials originate in ancient Egypt.

11. The hymn, “Zadok the Priest”, written by Handel was performed at the Queen’s coronation ceremony in 1953. Zadok the Priest was the Biblical priest who anointed the Hebrew King Solomon while the people cried “God save King Solomon. May the King live forever.” Today, the rendition is “God Save Queen Elizabeth, May the Queen live forever.”

12. The Queen's coronation gifts of a rod, bracelets and a ring are a re-enactment of the Bible story of the Hebrew ancestors of Jesus Christ named Judah and Tamar whom she is a descendant of.

13. Incest was practiced by ancient Egyptian royalty. Mothers married sons. Brothers married sisters to keep the power and money all in the family. Like their Egyptian royal ancestors, the British monarchy also practiced incestuous inbreeding.

14. The Pope's headdress is strikingly similar to the headdress of the Egyptian God Amenhotep. His bent cross resembles the scepter of Amenhotep.

15. Royal jubilees originate in ancient Egypt. Egyptian Pharaohs celebrated their jubilees after 30 years of rule. In the same tradition, Queen Elizabeth II celebrates her silver and golden jubilees.

16. Like the Egyptian Pharaohs, British monarchs wear signet rings which, over the millennia, have been passed down from their Hebrew ancestors

17. Pleated kilts with aprons like those worn by Prince Charles originate with the Egyptian Pharaohs.

18. The structure of government in ancient Egypt was a step pyramid model with the grand vizier and priesthood one step below the Pharaoh. Today's Monarch reigns with a grand vizier. His name is Rothschild.

19. The corpses of deceased Pharaohs were preserved and entombed beneath their pyramid temples. The corpses of 19 deceased British Monarchs are also preserved in marble tomb slabs beneath the modern day temple called Westminster Abbey.

20. The ancient Pharaohs of Egypt advertised their power with their images on coins, in temples and on stone monuments. The power of Queen Elizabeth II is advertised worldwide with her image printed on more coins and stamps than any other Head of State in history.

21. In 2003, the British mint printed legal tender gold coins called "The One True Ring" and "The Ring of Power". Queen Elizabeth II appears on one side of the coin. On the flip side of the coin is the ring from "Lord of the Rings". These legal tender coins printed by the British mint raise the question, "Who is the real Lord of the Rings?" The inscription on the ring reads, "One ring to rule them all, one ring to find them, one ring to bring them all and in the darkness (of their ignorance) – bind them."

22. The covenant that the biblical God gave to Abraham was a promise to make his name “great” and to make for him a “great” nation. Today, Great Britain is the only nation named “Great”.

AND UPON HER FOREHEAD WAS A NAME WRITTEN,
MYSTERY, BABYLON THE GREAT,
THE MOTHER OF HARLOTS AND ABOMINATIONS OF THE EARTH.

Pope Francis kicks conservative US Cardinal Raymond Burke out of his Vatican apartment and strips him of his salary after he criticized pontiff's pro-LGBT stance

- Pope Francis has kicked U.S. Cardinal Raymond Burke out of his Vatican home
- Francis says he's moving against Burke because he was a source of 'disunity'
- Sources claim his privileges of having a subsidized apartment and salary have been removed because he was using the benefits against the church

Pope Francis has kicked conservative U.S. Cardinal Raymond Burke out of his Vatican apartment and stripped him of his salary after he criticized the pontiff's pro-LGBT stance.

Francis has decided to punish Burke by revoking his right to a subsidized Vatican apartment and salary in the second such radical action against an American prelate this month, according to two sources.

It is understood Francis told a meeting of the heads of Vatican offices last week that he was moving against Burke because he was a source of 'disunity' in the church, said one of the participants at the November 20 meeting.

Burke's privileges of having a subsidized Vatican apartment and salary as a retired cardinal have been removed because he was using the benefits against the church, said another person who was subsequently briefed on the pope's measures.

Both insiders spoke on the condition of anonymity because they weren't authorized to reveal the details. Burke has not received any notification of measures being taken, his secretary said in a text message Tuesday to The Associated Press.

Pope Francis has taken measures to punish one of his highest-ranking critics, Cardinal Raymond Burke (pictured) by yanking his right to a Vatican apartment and salary in the second such radical action against a conservative American prelate this month.

Burke, a 75-year-old canon lawyer whom Francis had fired as the Vatican's high court justice in 2014, has become one of the most outspoken critics of the pope, his outreach to LGBTQ+ Catholics and his reform project to make the church more responsive to the needs of ordinary faithful.

Twice, Burke has joined other conservative cardinals in issuing formal questions to the pontiff, known as 'dubia,' asking him to clarify questions of doctrine that upset conservatives and traditionalists.

In the first, they asked Francis to clarify his outreach to divorced and civilly remarried Catholics, and Francis never replied. In the second, they asked whether same-sex couples could receive church blessings - and received a conditional maybe in response. Then, on the eve of Francis' big meeting of bishops last month, known as a synod, Burke presided over a counter-synod of sorts just steps away from St. Peter's Square. There, Burke delivered a stinging rebuke of Francis' vision of 'synodality' as well as his overall reform project for the church.

'It's unfortunately very clear that the invocation of the Holy Spirit by some has the aim of bringing forward an agenda that is more political and human than ecclesial and divine,' Burke told the conference titled 'The Synodal Babel.'

Burke has always defended his actions as being of service to the church and the papacy, saying it was his obligation as a cardinal and bishop to uphold church teaching and correct errors.

'The sheep depend on the courage of pastors who must protect them from the poison of confusion, error and division,' he told the Oct. 3 conference, prompting applause from the crowd.

Burke, will not be homeless; he spends much of his time in the U.S. at the Our Lady of Guadalupe shrine he founded in his native Wisconsin, is the second American prelate to face punishment in what appears to be a new phase of Francis' pontificate. This reform-minded period seems to have accelerated with the arrival in September of Francis' hand-picked new doctrine czar, Argentine Cardinal Victor Fernández.

Earlier this month, Francis forcibly removed the bishop of Tyler, Texas, Joseph Strickland, another conservative who had also become one of Francis' critics. Strickland was removed after a Vatican investigation into governance of his diocese.

Burke attending the conference 'The synodal Babel' in a theater near the Vatican on Oct. 3, 2023, after a letter he signed with others and containing questions to Pope Francis about the upcoming synod of bishops was made public.

In a tweet Tuesday, Strickland expressed shock at reports that Francis had taken action taken against his fellow American, which was first reported by the conservative Italian newspaper La Nuova Bussola Quotidiana, the main sponsor of 'The Synodal Babel' conference.

'If this is accurate it is an atrocity that must be opposed. If it is false information it needs to be corrected immediately,' Strickland said.

Asked Tuesday about word of Francis' decision, Vatican spokesman Matteo Bruni didn't deny the reports but referred questions to Burke.

'I don't have anything particular to say about that,' Bruni told reporters.

Pope Benedict XVI had made Burke a cardinal in 2010, after he appointed him prefect of the Apostolic Signatura, the Vatican's high court. After Francis removed him from that position in 2014, he made Burke the cardinal patron of the Knights of Malta, a prestigious but limited role.

But there too, Burke and Francis clashed over Burke's involvement in a governance crisis at the chivalric order. Francis pushed him aside and named two subsequent envoys to essentially replace him.

More recently, the two seemingly were at odds over COVID-19 vaccines. Francis had been a big proponent of the vaccines and had lashed out at vaccine skeptics, who included some conservative Catholics.

During a 2021 airborne news conference, Francis lamented the vaccine 'negationists' in the College of Cardinals, an apparent reference to Burke, who had just been hospitalized in the U.S. and placed on a ventilator with a serious bout of the virus. We are seeing the end of Pope Francis by his dictatorial powers. It happens in all churches but the Vatican is where the world looks for trends and direction.

The dates December 1st to the 3rd still seem to be an important key to the Rapture timing!

This is based upon HRM Prince Charles and Pope Francis joint-presence at COP28.
