“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

FEAR IS A SIGN OF THE TIMES

Fear is one of the many signs of the end times. The Lord Jesus described the “beginning of sorrows” as a time of wars and rumors of wars, of famines and pestilences and earthquakes which will produce troubled minds -(Matthew 24:6-7). In the Gospel of Luke, Christ described these things as “fearful sights” -(Luke 21:11). The beginning of sorrows is the beginning of the day of the Lord, and though we are not officially in that time, these things are also signs of the approach of the day of the Lord. Hebrews 10:25 says we can “see the day approaching.” Covid was a pestilence that was accompanied by great fear. Large numbers of people worldwide still wear masks, even driving alone in an automobile or walking alone in a private place, living in a strange realm of fear. It is a day of troubled minds. God’s people have the light of God’s Word and are instructed by Christ “be not troubled” at end times events -(Matthew 24:6). If you are born again, don’t let the world’s fear be your fear. Don’t be shaken and troubled and fearful. How can you have a testimony of faith in Christ in such a condition? Christ taught His people to “fear not” -(Matthew 8:26; 10:26, 31; Luke 12:7, 32) and “let not your heart be troubled” -(John 14:1, 27). In the Tribulation itself, men’s hearts will fail “for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth” -(Luke 21:26). That will be a reasonable fear, for billions will perish in that day.

Moderna admits mRNA COVID jab causes CANCER, billions of DNA fragments found in vials

11/17/2023

Dr. Robert Malone made an appearance this week at an "Injuries Caused by COVID-19 Vaccines" hearing led by Congresswoman Marjorie Taylor Greene (R-Ga.), at which he revealed how Moderna's own patent shows that its Wuhan coronavirus (COVID-19) "vaccine" vials contain billions of DNA fragments and other contaminants linked to birth defects and cancer.

At the hearing, Dr. Malone spoke about how Moderna acknowledges in its own patent that RNA is preferable to DNA in vaccines because of the risks involved, but that the company's mRNA injection, which was administered to tens of millions of people, is contaminated with the latter.

"Moderna has a patent on the use of RNA for vaccines," Dr. Malone stated. "And in that, Moderna explicitly acknowledges that RNA is superior to DNA for vaccine purposes because problems, including the possibility of insertional mutagenesis that could lead to the activation of oncogenes or the inactivation of tumor suppressor genes."

"FDA says they're not aware of any concerns, but Moderna in its own patent lays out exactly the same concerns that exist about DNA in insertional mutagenesis and genotoxicity. So, Moderna knows it – DNA is a contaminant. It is left in because the way they make it ... they use DNA to make RNA, and then they degrade the DNA, and then they have to purify the degraded DNA away from the RNA, and the process they are using is apparently not that good."

(Related: A recent study found that vaccinated children shed COVID up to three times longer than unvaccinated children.)

Pfizer's mRNA jab for COVID also contaminated with cancer-causing DNA fragments

Scientists from the United States and Canada were able to get their hands on unopened vials of Moderna's COVID jab, with a clear chain of custody, and sampled them. This is their expertise, just to be clear: they do deep sequencing on samples and relay their findings for the public good.

What they discovered were large numbers of DNA fragments in the RNA preparation, to which they applied standard reconstruction tools to see what the circular plasmid DNAs looked like – none of this was disclosed to the public, by the way.

The documentation suggests that there are certain DNA sequences present in the vials that are normally not allowed in anything that is going to go into humans, "not the least of which is an antibiotic resistance gene," Dr. Malone explained.

"They include these sequences from Simian Virus 40 – not the whole virus, but highly active promoter sequences – which is exactly the thing that the FDA in their older regulations said must be avoided because it confers even more risk for insertional mutagenesis."

It turns out that Pfizer's mRNA injection for COVID contains the same contaminants. Documentation was provided by the company to regulators in the U.S., Europe and Canada. These regulators actually deleted the little notation about SV40 sequences in an apparent attempt to hide it from the public.

"The FDA didn't take the raw DNA sequences, reconstruct those plasmid maps, and look at them themselves," Dr. Malone clarified. "They just took for granted what Pfizer had given them. And now this is all coming out because of what these researchers found."

High-level people at both Moderna and Pfizer had to have known about this, Dr. Malone said, the potential consequences for job recipients being "anything that is associated with DNA damage, i.e., birth defects and cancer being the most notable ones."

In fact, we read the following in the August 2019 patent on mRNA vaccines against the human parainfluenzal virus 3 (HPIV-3):

The direct injection of genetically engineered DNA (e.g. naked plasmid DNA) into a living host results in a small number of its cells directly producing an antigen, resulting in a protective immunological response. With this technique, however, come potential problems, including the possibility of insertional mutagenesis, which could lead to the activation of oncogenes or the inhibition of tumor suppressor genes.

From the archives of Pastor Bob's Studies on Deliverance before Judgment / Pre-Tribulation Rapture Why the Rapture Occurs Before the Revealing of the Antichrist!

Dr. Andy Woods was one of the main speakers at the 2015 Compass International Steeling the Mind Bible Conference in Denver, CO. Dr. Woods is pastor of Sugar Land Bible Church and professor at Houston Bible College. He is one of a new group of scholars who has come along to take up the mantle of well-known and respected scholars who were taken home to be with the Lord.

Dr. Woods has two Baccalaureate degrees from the University of the Redlands; a Juris Doctor (Doctor of Law) degree from Whittier Law School; a Masters in Theology and a PhD from Dallas Theological Seminary. He has received High Honors in all of his academic work, not to mention numerous awards. His rise to recognition in the scholarly community has not gone unnoticed among Bible Prophecy groups as well. Having listened to his presentation on “Seven Reasons for the Pre-Tribulation Rapture”. I believe it is something worth listening to. Take a moment to watch his 45 min. presentation. It is posted under Notes in this segment. In 2016, Dr. Woods's book, ‘The Middle East Meltdown’ was published and his book, ‘The Coming Kingdom’ was just released. He is a welcomed voice speaking on behalf of the Pre-Tribulation Rapture doctrine, which is under heavy attack by vehement critics and those who oppose this doctrine. In the past twenty years, from so-called academic intellectuals in the secular world to church leaders across the gamut of Christian leadership, unfounded attacks on the Pre-Tribulation Rapture doctrine is on the rise and increasing.

In my focus on “Biblical Typology” presenting God’s “Deliverance before Judgment”, I thought I would introduce readers of this series to Dr. Woods and share his “Seven Reasons for the Pre-Tribulation Rapture”. I particularly appreciate Dr. Woods’ style and sound logical reasoning. His gifted, rational, logical analysis and his command of the Word of God permit him to speak with believability and credibility on the prophetic nature of the Word of God. His video address at the “Steeling the Mind Conference” is 45-minutes long, but I have no doubt that he could have spoken longer on additional points. Anyone who would like to obtain a copy of his presentation can contact Compass International, at www.compass.org or Dr. Woods at his website for ordering information here: <http://andywoodsministries.org/contact-us/>

“Compass International” is an international ministry based in Coeur d’Alene, ID, and offers abundant resources on the Dispensational view of studying the Bible and the teaching on the Pre-Tribulation Rapture teaching.

Following are the “seven” key points of Dr. Woods presentation with the appropriate Scriptures. His “short list” was determined by the allotted time permitted for each conference speaker’s presentation. Note that the YouTube link below is also his YouTube Channel. You can subscribe and view a number of his teachings at this Channel. Dr. Wood’s comes to the academic and theological world after a recent string of deaths of foremost scholars in the past decade who carried the mantle for Dispensationalism, like Dr. John Walvoord, Dr. Tim LaHaye, Grant Jeffrey, Dr. David Breese, Dr. J.R. Church, and others.

“Seven Reasons for the Pre-Tribulation Doctrine”

1. The Tribulation’s purpose concerns Israel. -(Jeremiah 30:7; Daniel 9:24).
2. No Biblical reference to the Church during the Tribulation Period. -(Revelation 4-22).
3. The Church is promised an exemption from Divine Wrath -(1st Thessalonians 1:10; 5:9; Romans 5:9; Revelation 3:10; 6:17).
4. The Rapture is imminent. -(1st Corinthians 15:51; 1st Thessalonians 4:15).
5. The Rapture is a comfort. -(1st Thessalonians 4:18).
6. The Antichrist cannot come to power until the Restrainer is removed. – (2nd Thessalonians 2:6-7).
7. Symbolic Parallels. -(2nd Peter 2:5-9).

Dr. Woods was spot-on in his use of the key passages identifying the Pre-Tribulation Rapture doctrine. They are not the only ones but he delivered a great presentation on important truths of the Bible.

The following are passages about the Rapture in the KJV Bible:

- “Then we which are alive [and] remain shall be caught up together with them in the clouds, to meet the Lord in the air: and so shall we ever be with the Lord.” -(1st Thessalonians 4:17). The word Rapture, which we use to describe this first phase of the Lord's return, is derived from the verb used here in the Latin Bible meaning caught up. A “rapture” is a snatching away or a catching up. It is used of Philip in Act 8:39, of Paul in 2nd Corinthians 12:2; 2nd Corinthians 12:4; and of the male Child in Revelation 12:5.

The air is Satan's sphere -(Ephesians 2:2), so this is a triumphal gathering in open defiance of the devil right in his own stronghold.

- “I tell you, in that night there shall be two [men] in one bed; the one shall be taken, and the other shall be left.” -(Luke 17:34-37). The Lord's coming will be a time of separation. Two men will be sleeping in one bed. One will be taken away in judgment. The other, a believer, will be spared to enter Christ's kingdom. Two women will be grinding together; the one, an unbeliever, will be taken away in the storm of God's wrath; the other, a child of God, will be spared to enjoy millennial blessings with Christ.

Incidentally, verses 34 and 35 accord with the rotundity of the earth. The fact that it will be night in one part of the earth and day in another, as indicated by the activities mentioned, displays scientific knowledge not discovered until many years later.

- “For the Lord Himself shall descend from heaven with a shout, with the voice of the archangel, and with the trump of God: and the dead in Christ shall rise first.” -(1st Thessalonians 4:16). The exact order of events at Christ's coming for His saints is now given. The Lord Himself will descend from heaven. He will not send an angel, but will come Himself! At the Rapture, the Lord's feet DO NOT touch the earth which will occur at His Second Coming.

It will be with a shout, with the voice of an archangel, and with the trumpet of God. Several explanations have been offered as to the significance of these commanding sounds, but frankly it is almost impossible to speak with finality about them:

1. Some feel that the shout is the voice of the Lord Jesus Himself which raises the dead -(John 5:25; John 11:43-44) and changes the living. Others, like Hogg and Vine, say that the shout is the archangel's voice.
2. The voice of Michael, the archangel, is commonly understood as an assembling command for the Old Testament saints, since he is so closely associated with Israel -(Dan 12:1; Jude 1:9; Revelation 12:4-7). Others think its purpose is to revive Israel nationally. And still others suggest the voice of an archangel summons the angels as a military escort to accompany the Lord and His saints through enemy territory back to heaven -(cf. Luke 16:22).

3. The trumpet of God is the same as the last trumpet of 1st Corinthians 15:52, which has to do with the resurrection of believers at the time of the Rapture. It calls the saints to eternal blessing. It is not to be confused with the seventh trumpet of Revelation 11:15-18, which signals the final outpouring of judgment on the world during the Tribulation. The last trumpet here is the last for the church. The seventh trumpet of Revelation is the last for the unbelieving world (though it is never specifically called the “last trumpet”).

The bodies of the dead in Christ will rise first. Whether this includes the Old Testament saints is debatable. Those who think it does point out that the archangel's voice is heard at this time, and that he is closely linked with the destinies of Israel -(Daniel 12:1). Those who think that the Old Testament saints will not be raised at the Rapture remind us that the phrase in Christ (the dead in Christ) is never applied to believers who lived before the Church Age; these believers will probably be raised at the end of the Tribulation -(Daniel 12:2). In any case it is clear that this is definitely not a general resurrection. Not all the dead are raised at this time, but only the dead in Christ. The Bible does not ignore or forget the fact that many have perished in the depths of a watery grave. Revelation 20:13 notes that in the case of those who died by drowning, God has measures to bring them back as well.

- “Because thou hast kept the word of my patience, I also will keep thee from the hour of temptation, which shall come upon the world, to try them that dwell upon the earth.” -(Revelation 3:10). This is a key verse for those who subscribe to the Pre-Tribulation-Rapture theory—that believers will be kept from this time of testing because they will not be on the earth then, having been taken to heaven in what is called the “Rapture” -(based on 1st Corinthians 15:51-53; 1st Thessalonians 4:15-17). Others believe that the verse refers to times of great distress in general, the church's suffering through the ages. Others interpret the protection to mean that the church will go through the time of tribulation and that God will keep them strong during it, providing spiritual protection from the forces of evil -(Revelation 7:3). The verb “protect” is the same Greek verb in the Lord's Prayer (“Deliver us from the evil one,” Matthew 6:13). As Jesus said before his death, “I'm not asking you to take them out of the world, but to keep them safe from the evil one” -(John 17:15).

This “great time of testing” is also described as the Great Tribulation or Day of the Lord, mentioned also in Daniel 12:2; Mark 13:19; and 2nd Thessalonians 2:1-12. All the judgments recorded in the remainder of the book of Revelation take place during this time of tribulation. While believers may have to face difficulty and suffering, they will certainly be protected from God's wrath and judgment.

- “But of that day and [that] hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, and neither the Son, but the Father.” -(Mark 13:32). While Jesus had given general “signs” to observe regarding the coming of the end, he clearly explained to the disciples that the exact day or hour was not known by the angels or the Son (Jesus himself). When Jesus said that even he did not know the time of the end, He was affirming His humanity -(see Philippians 2:5-8). Of course, God the Father knows the time, and Jesus and the Father are one. But when Jesus became a man, He voluntarily gave up the unlimited use of his divine attributes. On earth, Jesus laid aside His divine prerogatives and submitted to the Father's will. Thus, only the Father knows the exact time of Jesus' return. The emphasis of this verse is not on Jesus' lack of knowledge, but rather on the fact that no one knows. It is God the Father's secret to be revealed when He wills. No one can predict by Scripture or science the exact day of Jesus' return. Jesus was teaching that continual preparation, not calculation, was needed.

- “And He laid hold of the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.” -(Revelation 20:2-5). Although this is not a direct reference to the Rapture per se, it corroborates the future Millennium of Christ Jesus' reign and rule on earth associated with the Dispensational view.
- “In a moment, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trump: for the trumpet shall sound, and the dead shall be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed.” -(1st Corinthians 15:52). The change will take place instantly, in the twinkling of an eye, at the last trumpet. The last trumpet here does not mean the end of the world, or even the last trumpet mentioned in Revelation. Rather, it refers to the trumpet of God which will sound when Christ comes into the air for His saints -(1st Thessalonians 4:16). When the trumpet sounds, the dead will be raised incorruptible, and we shall be changed. What a tremendous moment that will be, when the earth and the sea will yield up the dust of all those who have died trusting in Christ down through the centuries! It is almost impossible for the human mind to take in the magnitude of such an event; yet the humble believer can accept it by faith.
- “For God has not appointed us to wrath, but to obtain salvation by our Lord Jesus Christ,” -(1st Thessalonians 5:9). The Rapture has two aspects, salvation and wrath. For the believer it means the consummation of his salvation in heaven. For the unbeliever, it means the ushering in of a time of wrath on earth. God did not appoint believers to the wrath which He will pour out during the Tribulation Period, but rather to salvation in its fullest sense—freedom forever from the very presence of sin.

Some understand wrath here to refer to the punishment which unbelievers will suffer in hell. Of course it is true that God has not appointed us to that, but it is uncalled for to introduce that thought here. Paul is not talking about hell, but about future events on earth. The context deals with the Day of the Lord - the greatest period of wrath in the history of man on earth -(Matthew 24:21). We do not have an appointment with the executioner but with the Savior.

Some say that the Tribulation is the time of Satan's wrath -(Revelation 12:12), not the wrath of God. They say that the church will experience the wrath of Satan, but will be delivered from the wrath of God at the Second Coming of Christ. However, the following verses speak of the wrath of God and of the Lamb, and their setting is during the Tribulation Period: Revelation 6:16-17; 14:9-10; 14:19; 15:1; 15:7; 16:1; 16:19.

- “And at that time shall Michael stand up, the great prince which standeth for the children of thy people: and there shall be a time of trouble, such as never was since there was a nation [even] to that same time: and at that time thy people shall be delivered, every one that shall be found written in the book.” -(Daniel 12:1-2).
- “Immediately after the tribulation of those days shall the sun be darkened, and the moon not give her light, and the stars shall fall from heaven, and the powers of the heavens shall be shaken.”-(Matthew 24:29-31). See Deliverance before Judgment Part 19 for a discussion on this passage.
- “Watch therefore: for ye know not hour your Lord doth come.” -(Matthew 24:42). Believers must be on guard and alert, constantly ready for him to come at any time. Christ’s second coming will be swift and sudden. There will be no time for last-minute repenting or bargaining. The choice that people have already made will determine their eternal destiny.
- “And He shall send His angels with a great sound of a trumpet, and they shall gather together his elect from the four winds, from one end of heaven to the other.” -(Matthew 24:31). See Deliverance before Judgment Part 19 for a discussion on this passage.
- “Be ye therefore ready also: for the Son of Man cometh at an hour when ye think not.” -(Luke 12:40). Christ’s return at an unexpected time is not a trick by which God hopes to catch His people off guard. In fact, God is apparently delaying His return so that more people will have the opportunity to follow Him - (see 2nd Peter 3:9). Before Christ’s return, believers have time to live out their beliefs and to reflect Jesus’ love as they relate to others. Christians have time to bring more people with them into the Kingdom.
- “For as the lightning cometh out of the east, and shineth even unto the west; so shall also the coming of the Son of Man be.”-(Matthew 24:27). Christ's Advent will be unmistakable—it will be sudden, public, universal, and glorious. Like the lightning, it will be instantly and clearly visible to all. There will not be a secret Rapture as many critics infer Pre-Tribulation teaches. Quite to the contrary!
- “But of that day and [that] hour knoweth no man, no, not the angels which are in heaven, neither the Son, but the Father.” -(Mark 13:32-37). Regarding the “when,” of his Second Coming, Jesus’ answer was blunt. He then pointed out that the mark of a disciple was not having inside information, but serving Christ faithfully. Spiritual vigilance becomes the essential theme of the entire chapter. Jesus' servants must be so busy that they have no time to speculate about his schedule.

Jesus' followers would not want to be found spiritually lax, but instead conscientiously going about the work given by God for them to do. Each of us has enough assigned work to do that we shouldn't be neutralized or paralyzed by fear or doubt. We do not need to worry about how other employees compare to us; instead, but rather we should devote ourselves to doing what God has given us to do.

Jesus had spoken this discourse to only four of his disciples -(Mark 13:3). Here he instructed them to carry these words to the rest of the disciples, for their truth was of vital importance. By extension, the words were meant for all believers. Even today, we do well to watch for his return—watching out for false teaching and watching expectantly for Christ's return as we do his work in the world.

- “That if thou confess with thy mouth the Lord Jesus, and shalt believe in thine heart Jesus Christ that God hath raised Him from the dead, thou shalt be saved.” -(Romans 10:9). The word is near—as near as your lips and heart - (Romans 10:8; Deuteronomy 30:14). To confess means to “give verbal affirmation,”—in this case to acknowledge with your mouth that Jesus is Lord and was raised for you. When we confess that Jesus is Lord, we are acknowledging his rank or supreme place. We are pledging our obedience and worship; we are placing our life under his protection for safekeeping. We are pledging ourselves and our resources to his control for direction and service.

Anyone can say he or she believes something, but God knows each person's heart. In this confession, it is not enough to merely utter the words; they must be declared, professed, proclaimed from the heart, expressing our full conviction. The gospel message in a nutshell is confess and believe and you will be saved. There is no reference to works or rituals.

- “And to wait for His Son from heaven, whom He raised from the dead, [even] Jesus, which delivered us from the wrath to come.” – (1st Thessalonians 1:10). Jesus' resurrection was the advance installment of the resurrection of all the righteous dead at the end of the age (which figured prominently in Jewish teaching from Daniel 12:1-2 onward); Jesus will thus deliver the Thessalonians from wrath at the time of their resurrection. The Old Testament often applied the term “wrath” to God's judgments within history, but this term was often extended, as nearly always in Paul and the New Testament, to the outpouring of God's wrath in the final day of the Lord, the day of judgment when, according to the New Testament, Christ returns to punish the wicked (e.g., Isaiah 13:9; 13:13; 26:20; 30:27; Zephaniah 1:18; Romans 2:5).

- “For yourselves know perfectly that the day of the Lord so cometh as a thief in the night.” -(1st Thessalonians 5:2). The expression “day of the Lord” is believed by many scholars to refer to the simultaneous event of both the Rapture and the beginning of the Tribulation.
- “Let no man deceive you by any means: for [that day shall not come], except there come a falling away first, and that man of sin be revealed, the son of perdition;”-(2nd Thessalonians 2:3-7).
- “And Jesus said, I am: and ye shall see the Son of Man sitting at the right hand of power, and coming in the clouds of heaven.” -(Mark 14:62). This is another passage that corroborates a distinction between the Rapture and the Second Coming as two separate events. Critics of the Pre-Tribulation Rapture ignore such a passage because of the differentiation made which weakens the case for any view other than a Pre-Tribulation Rapture. Jesus’ statement is a claim to be not only a mortal Messiah but the cosmic ruler of Daniel 7:13-14, the embodiment of Israel’s call, who would come in glory and reign forever. (The seating may allude to Psalm 110:1)
- “And the seventh angel sounded; and there were great voices in heaven saying, The kingdoms of this world are become [the kingdoms] of our Lord, and of His Christ; and He shall reign for ever and ever.” -(Revelation 11:15-19). The context of the text is a reference to the beginning of the second half of the Great Tribulation, acknowledging the end of the 70th Week of Daniel 9:24-27. Critics of the Pre-Tribulation Rapture ignore this passage because it undermines a case for any view other than a Pre-Tribulation Rapture.

The seventh angel blew his trumpet, in essence announcing the arrival of the King. There was now no turning back. The coming judgments were no longer partial but complete in their destruction. God unleashed his full wrath on the evil world that refused to turn to him -(Revelation 9:20-21). When his wrath would begin, there would be no escape.

The song of triumph by the heavenly hosts introduces the great themes of the following chapters. The end times had begun. When Christ first came, he brought in the Kingdom, yet his fulfilled Kingdom was still to come. The Kingdom is with God’s people spiritually but has not been fulfilled historically. This verse refers to that final consummation. This is a worship pageant, portraying in heaven what will be unfolded on earth.

Before closing, it is important to understand that whatever doctrine one looks at in the Bible, it is most obvious that doctrine can only be established by a systematic overview of the Scriptures. Biblical doctrine is not always precisely and clearly stated, but rather must be gleaned by an exhaustive study of the whole counsel of God. The importance of a comprehensive thorough analysis emphasizes this matter. Scripture itself plainly explains at Isaiah 28:10 reads: “For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little.” This lesson is repeated with greater clarity at Isaiah 28:13: “But the word of the LORD was unto them precept upon precept, precept upon precept, line upon line, line upon line, here a little, there a little;...” Critics of the Dispensational school presumptively draw inaccurate conclusions about Biblical doctrine, particularly with regards to the Pre-Tribulational Rapture doctrine without thoroughly doing their homework. The high requirement to obtain accurate truth involves scholarship and hours of prayerful study leading to increased insights and discernment. Such are the words of 2nd Timothy 2:15: “Study to shew thyself approved unto God, a workman that needeth not to be ashamed, rightly dividing the word of truth”.

In coming segments we will look at more aspects of God’s Master Plan of “Deliverance before Judgment”. -Pastor Bob

UN Chief Boards Private Jet Immediately after Demanding Complete ‘Phaseout’ of Fossil Fuels

While attending a “climate change” conference in the Middle East, United Nations (UN) Secretary-General Antonio Guterres demanded that countries around the world commit to a complete “phaseout” of fossil fuels.

Almost immediately after making the declaration at the COP 28 summit in oil-rich Dubai, Guterres boarded the UN’s private jet and left the same way he arrived shortly before.

Guterres was among a like-minded crowd, however, as over 70,000 other climate alarmists have jetted into Dubai for the two-week green agenda summit.

While in Dubai, the UN chief warned that “global boiling” will trigger a “total disaster” for humanity unless the general public stops using fossil fuels.

“Obviously, I am strongly in favor of language that includes (a) phaseout, even with a reasonable time framework,” Guterres said in an interview with AFP.

Some nations have already called for the COP28 final statement, which requires unanimous agreement, to explicitly call for a reduction in fossil fuel consumption.

The move would add countries’ backing to previous Guterres warnings that the planet is doomed on its current course.

That would be a historic first for a COP statement, AFP notes.

The Glasgow 2021 climate conference was only able to agree on mentioning coal. But for Guterres, a simple promise to reduce fossil fuels would not be enough.

“I think it would be a pity if we would stay in a vague and noncommittal ‘phase-down’ whose real meaning would not be obvious for anybody,” he said.

Guterres was also asked about COP28 president Sultan Al Jaber. The Emirati official and CEO of the national oil company has become embroiled in accusations of conflicts of interest.

The UN chief pleaded Al Jaber has a “special responsibility” to influence the fossil fuel industry.

“He is of course linked to the oil business in his activities but also linked to renewables, I think it creates with him a special responsibility,” said Guterres.

A Living Hell Just Ahead!

Luke Throop Report - Pain is All Part of the Plan
What you don't know just might kill you, here's the irrefutable proof.

Given the globalists' cult-like adherence to the radical environmental agenda, their abject denial of fundamentally sound science, and the rate at which this fanatical Climate Cult is implementing its strategies to reduce the human population at large—in order to save the planet of course—today I'd like to start with a 30,000-foot overview of what's happening at this year's Conference of Parties, COP28.

There are so many moving parts that are inter-related, it's difficult to keep track of everything. From the World Health Organization's merging of public health with planetary health, to the United Nation's linking climate change with human rights, to the World Economic Forum's Alliance of CEO Climate Leaders telling governments around the world what to do, it seems most appropriate to simply start by laying out the source material.

The following links provide a brief overview of this week's events:

- COP28: Why it matters and 5 key areas for action
- WEF: These are the key talking points for the 2023 climate summit
- Alliance of CEO Climate Leaders share open letter to world leaders for COP28

- WHO: COP28 call to action: We need healthy diets for healthy people and planet

Believe it or not, there's even more out there—much more—as all the various organs of the global cabal stretch out their tentacles to snatch a piece of the proverbial pie. Those are just the front page links of the UN, WHO, and WEF, and straight out of the gate we can see where all of this is heading: we're heading straight for a living hell.

Perhaps that's why the Pope is attending his first-ever COP, blessing the Climate Cult convention with the first appearance of any pontiff, and he is praying for their success because in his twisted mind, "time is running out to save the planet."

Also making their debut at the event, is a horde of "subnational leaders" like mayors and governors, who are being brought into the COP "program and process" via the COP28 Local Climate Summit—which aims explicitly to "propel rapid advancements" in order to "deliver ambitious results locally." Emphasis on locally.

Translation: local leaders are being assimilated into the Climate Cult in order to foist this radical agenda down our throats, ambitiously, at the local level.

This "first-of-its-kind gathering" will be hosted by Bloomberg Philanthropies, in conjunction with the COP28, and it's said to be backed by a "world-leading network" of climate crazed organizations such as the C40 Cities Climate Leadership Group, the Global Covenant of Mayors for Climate & Energy, ICLEI - Local Governments for Sustainability, United Cities and Local Governments (UCLG), US Conference of Mayors, the Under2 Coalition, and UN-Habitat, just to name a few.

Behold the tentacles!

If you've been following along this week, you may recall how communist revolutions have historically been perpetrated using various front organizations with nice sounding names. The above list of organizations, which have been deployed to brainwash and strong-arm local level leadership, is a perfect example of what this looks like.

As discussed, the Climate Cult is just one organ of the Cult Collective, and this sort of systematic assimilation is what leads to the adoption of insane initiatives—like banning green M&Ms for example—at the global level. Think global, act local.

Other takeaways from the 30,000-foot view include the intentional exploitation of women and children to generate emotional pressure on political leaders to implement all this lunacy, all the legal scaffolding for global blackmail and lawfare, and of course, the globalists' explicitly stated and overt intent to take control of the food supply.

Tying back into yesterday's speculation that the ruling class elites are starting to roll out their next Catastrophic Contagion, it's worth pointing out that Michael Bloomberg was actively planning for “the next pandemic” back in September 2022, and he has his fingerprints all over the overarching Great Reset and insidious depopulation agenda. In other words, he's an often overlooked inside guy.

All of this was lined out, which notes:

Bloomberg is part of a strategic alliance of evildoers who are trying to take over the world [and depopulate the planet]. That's the simplest way to put it. ...

THESE PEOPLE WANT TO CONTROL YOUR LIFE.

They intend to control your behavior, your food, your information, and your future, and they're using international bodies like the UN and the WHO to do their bidding.

Never forget: If they win, we will lose our freedoms forever—and if there is any hope for us to defeat the global cabal, we're going to have to step out of the box and find some creative solutions!

It's time to step out of the box.

Friends, I have repeatedly brought the depopulation agenda front and center, knowing full well it leads to censorship, throttling, shadow-banning, and general mockery from among the less-informed segments of the local community. It's so unthinkable.

Who in their right mind would believe that the global elites are trying to dramatically reduce the human population under the auspice of saving the planet, right?

What I want to double-down on and make perfectly clear here is: that is precisely what everything related to the COP28, the UN Sustainable Development Goals, Agenda 2030, the Great Reset and the rest of the globalist agenda is really all about. That's what Event 201, the pandemic, the Catastrophic Contagion exercise, and the administration of toxic experimental injections are really all about.

They are systematically working to cull the herd.

These are all heinous crimes against humanity, all wrapped up in a shiny green candy-coated narrative, and the ugly truth of it is: we haven't seen the worst of it yet.

Which brings me to an earth-shaking livestream I stumbled upon last night. As you know, I claim The Torch Report is the “truth you can trust” because I make a very concerted effort to dig up the most relevant and irrefutable evidence that you can use to develop your own informed perspective—and last night’s presentation is a treasure trove of such facts.

The speech was presented by the Vaccine Safety Research Foundation’s founder Steve Kirsch, a man with impeccable credentials and two degrees from MIT. Perhaps the most fascinating part about Mr. Kirsch is that he had, in his own words, bought into the “safe and effective” narrative hook, line, and sinker. It was only after he had taken two doses of the jab and encountered “5 black swans in a one-week period,” that he went from being fully “blue-pilled” to being fully “red-pilled.”

According to Kirsch, who is a brilliant engineer and serial high-tech entrepreneur (he independently invented the optical mouse), “it was very clear to me that the reality wasn’t matching the rhetoric.” What I want to point out here, is that this clarity only came after he began to notice that things were not adding up. People getting the jab were still getting sick, and worse—much worse. Something wasn’t right.

Thus, Kirsch turned his attention to the data and began applying his considerable intelligence to making sense of what the hell was really going on. The result of this awakening culminated in an absolutely stellar presentation that not only eviscerates the narrative and excoriates those who have been complicit in pumping these toxic injections into the arms of humanity, but it provides conclusive evidence that the “cure is worse than the disease,” and that no one should be getting these shots.

WATCH IT: Exclusive MIT Speech by Steve Kirsch

The shocking rise in deaths associated with these so-called “vaccines” is nearly unimaginable. Of course, many people have been pointing this out for much longer than Steve Kirsch, but the thoroughness of his examination and presentation of evidence provides a battering-ram that just might be able to crack even the most hardened officials who still insist on clinging to the narrative.

As was so boldly stated in Kirsch Hall on the campus of MIT:

“If you ignore this and do nothing, you’re going to jail.”

Do you want to take a guess at what happens next?

NOTHING.

Not only will Kirsch be ignored, his presentation will be censored and shadow-banned, courtesy of the weaponized AI and Algorithmic Social Interventions being used to heavily manipulate public perception and drive “behavioral change” designed to further increase uptake of the injections and compliance with the mandates.

The sad truth is that we are way past accountability at this point. There have been plenty of other high-profile people who have been “red-pilled”—the term that Kirsch himself uses—or who never drank the Kool-Aid in the first place. On top of that, there have been open calls for Nuremberg 2.0 trials to hold government officials and pharmaceutical companies accountable for these crimes against humanity, by some of the most prominent medical professionals on the planet, and what's happened?

The obvious and disconcerting question is: WHY?!

Why is this happening? How is this happening?

The answer, in a 1-2 punch, is simple:

1. Why? Because powerful people believe that humans are destroying the planet, and therefore they have a moral obligation to reduce the human population.
2. How? By using weaponized AI and military-grade propaganda, these evildoers are able to conduct heinous crimes out in the open and most people will never notice.

As previously discussed at length, this has all been in the works for decades, and the Great Reset was the opening scene of their final act. If you want to understand what the globalists have in store for the rest of us, study the agenda being hammered out at the UN's Climate Conference. You will see that when it comes to saving the planet, pain is all part of the plan, and so is radically reducing the human population.

Prepare yourself accordingly.

All that said, don't forget, no matter what, life is still good!

WHO and Gates release millions of GMO Mosquitoes in 13 countries

The genetically modified mosquitoes are said to help reduce diseases such as dengue, Zika, chikungunya and yellow fever. But critics warn about the risks of these experiments.

Published on December 1, 2023 by WS.

Microsoft co-founder and "philanthropist" Bill Gates has made it his mission to save the world: he is not only a fan of experimental vaccines, but is also enthusiastic about genetically modified mosquitoes (we reported here here and here ). Since 2010, the Gates Foundation, together with the Wellcome Trust, has invested 185 million Australian dollars in the World Mosquito Program, which experiments with the Wolbachia method worldwide.

The Aedes aegypti mosquito is infected with the naturally occurring bacterium Wolbachia and then released. This bacterium is thought to reduce mosquitoes' ability to transmit arboviruses that cause diseases such as dengue, Zika, chikungunya and yellow fever. According to the program, the Wolbachia bacteria are expected to be passed from generation to generation after Wolbachia mosquitoes breed with wild mosquitoes.

According to the World Mosquito Program, which counts on the support of the World Health Organization (WHO), millions upon millions of genetically modified mosquitoes have already been released on local populations in 13 countries. These include Australia, Brazil, Colombia, Fiji, Honduras, Indonesia, Kiribati, Laos, Mexico, New Caledonia, Sri Lanka, Vanuatu and Vietnam. Supposedly for the benefit of humanity.

But not everyone shares this opinion. In an interview, entrepreneur Sarah Westall talks to activist Frances Micklem and geoscientist and former Indonesian government politician Richard Claproth about the risks of these experiments.

Critics say the World Mosquito Program has implications for national security, public health and the environment. That's why a signature campaign was started against the release of these mosquitoes. For example, Claproth points out that this program in Bali has increased other diseases and poses a danger to all unsuspecting people in the region.

"Mad scientists from the World Mosquito Program are on a mission to protect you from disease by injecting mosquitoes that can then inject you," writes Westall, who suspects the program is already being implemented in more countries than officially reported. Among other things, she had heard about various projects in the USA.

Westall also points out that the arbitrariness with which such experiments are carried out could worsen once the new WHO contract is signed in May 2024. Because this abolishes the right of every country to sovereignty in health care.

Such programs could then be carried out without the affected state, country or city having the right to refuse the experiment. They could also no longer insist on "informed consent" – a right enshrined in the Nuremberg Code. "This is beyond insane and extremely worrying," sums up Westall.

10 US Banks Begin Testing 'Digital Currency' to Completely Replace Cash

By: Jason Walsh November 30, 2023

Ten banks in the United States are working with the New York Innovation Center (NYIC), part of the Federal Reserve, to test the regulated liability network (RLN), a digital currency platform that will replace cash.

RLN would use distributed ledger technology to improve financial settlements and would include commercials and central banks, the firm said earlier this month.

The press release said:

“The 12-week PoC [proof of concept] will test a version of the RLN design that operates exclusively in US dollars where commercial banks issue simulated digital money or ‘tokens’ — representing the deposits of their own customers — and settle through simulated central bank reserves on a shared multi-entity distributed ledger.”

“The PoC will also test the feasibility of a programmable digital money design that is potentially extensible to other digital assets, as well as the viability of the proposed system within existing laws and regulations.”

The project will be tested using simulated data and will release its findings after the conclusion of the test, according to the press release.

“It is not intended to advance any specific policy outcome, nor is it intended to signal that the Federal Reserve will make any imminent decisions about the appropriateness of issuing a retail or wholesale CBDC [central bank digital currency], nor how one would necessarily be designed,” the release said.

RELATED: Australia’s Fifth-Largest Bank Announces It Will DISCONTINUE CASH by 2024

Banks and firms participating in testing digital currency include:

BNY Mellon
Citi
Libiyi
HSBC
Mastercard
PNC Bank
Swift
TD Bank
Trust
US Bank
Wells Fargo

A New York Fed official said one of the most significant benefits of CBDC is faster cross-border transactions.

As The Daily Fetched reported earlier this month, IMF Managing Director Kristalina Georgieva said the government is preparing to deploy Central bank digital currencies (CBDCs) to replace cash, arguing it can increase so-called “financial inclusion.”

“CBDCs can replace cash, which is costly to distribute in island economies. They can offer resilience in more advanced economies,” she said at the Singapore FinTech Festival on Wednesday.

“And they can improve financial inclusion where few hold bank accounts.”

However, the CBDCs will also be used to surveil the entire population’s activities.

The Daily Fetched reported in June globalist elites and entities like the IMF are preparing to usher in a techno-communist dystopia with a CCP-style social credit score system.

Rich Dad Poor Dad author Robert Kiyosaki recently issued a stark warning against CBDCs, arguing it would open the doors for unprecedented surveillance of Americans and the world.

“By tracking every financial transaction, they will have access to every detail of our spending, the recipient of our money, and how we allocate our resources,” said Kiyosaki.

In September, The Daily Fetched reported that the leaders of the group of 20 nations agreed to impose digital IDs and digital currencies on the world population via CBDCs.

The group announced it had agreed to build the necessary infrastructure to implement digital IDs and digital currencies.

Indian Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman has already announced that they are preparing to build a global framework to regulate crypto assets, saying they believe that cryptocurrencies can't be regulated without total international cooperation.

In March, Sen. Ted Cruz (R-Texas) introduced a new bill on Tuesday preventing the Federal Reserve from central bank digital currency.

The legislation (S.887), co-sponsored by Sens. Mike Braun (R-Ind.) and Chuck Grassley (R-Iowa), argues that CBDC would eventually be used as a government surveillance system.

"The federal government has no authority to unilaterally establish a central bank currency," Cruz said.

Cruz noted that the bill "goes a long way in making sure big government doesn't attempt to centralize or control cryptocurrency and allows it to thrive in the United States. We should be empowering entrepreneurs, enabling innovation, and increasing individual freedom — not stifling it."
