Biden Admin Announces New Rules Targeting Oil, Gas Industries Amid Projected Energy Price Increases

By George C. Upper III December 4, 2023

The Biden administration issued a new rule Saturday that it claimed would both fight climate change and improve the U.S. economy, despite arguments — some from within President Joe Biden’s own party — that the rule would do neither.

The rule targets methane emissions from U.S. oil and natural gas producers, which the Environmental Protection Agency claimed in a statement was responsible for “approximately one third of the warming from greenhouse gases occurring today.”

“EPA’s final rule leverages the latest cost-effective, innovative technologies and proven solutions to prevent an estimated 58 million tons of methane emissions from 2024 to 2038, the equivalent of 1.5 billion metric tons of carbon dioxide – nearly as much as all the carbon dioxide emitted by the power sector in 2021,” the statement claimed.

“Sharp cuts in methane emissions are among the most critical actions the United States can take in the short term to slow the rate of climate change,” according to the statement.

In addition to methane, the rule also looks to reduce pollution from toxic byproducts of fossil fuel production and “volatile organic compounds” that can contribute to smog and therefore worsen breathing ailments such as asthma among the American people.

The statement also claimed that “low-income communities and communities with large numbers of people of color” were affected more than others by climate change, and therefore this rule would disproportionately benefit them.

Among other initiatives, the new rule looks to reduce or eliminate natural gas “flaring” in new oil wells, put more stringent standards in place for some equipment used in the industry, and add “comprehensive monitoring” requirements to those already mandated for oil and gas companies.

“On day one, President Biden restored America’s critical role as the global leader in confronting climate change, and today we’ve backed up that commitment with strong action, significantly slashing methane emissions and other air pollutants that endanger communities,” EPA Administrator Michael S. Regan was quoted as saying in the statement.

“Under President Biden and Vice President Harris’s leadership, the U.S is turbocharging the speed and scale of climate action, at home and abroad, including our collective efforts to tackle super-pollutants like methane,” added Ali Zaidi, an adviser to Biden on climate issues.

Not everyone agrees about the desirability of the new rule, however, including the chairman of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee, Sen. Joe Manchin.

The West Virginia Democrat sent a letter to Regan in October arguing that the administration was moving too quickly under Biden to make changes to the oil and gas industry without fully understanding their impacts.

“The current Administration has made its intentions clear: it is determined to target our flourishing oil and gas sector, despite its substantial progress in reducing methane emissions, irrespective of how it might impact American energy security, reliability, and consumer cost,” Manchin wrote in the October 26 letter. “This has put pressure on EPA to hastily finalize and implement these extensive new regulations, leading to proposals that lack thorough consideration and alignment.”

Manchin argued that the EPA’s new rules would not only endanger America’s energy security and economic prosperity, but also be counterproductive to the organization’s own goals.

“This lack of alignment unjustly burdens industry while simultaneously hindering EPA’s ability to achieve its own stated emissions reduction objectives,” he wrote. “Because EPA is so singularly focused on its anti-fossil agenda, it has missed an opportunity to craft calibrated proposals that achieve emissions reductions while ensuring that the domestic oil and natural gas industry can continue to provide affordable and dependable energy to meet global market demands.”

“While the federal government has a role in responsibly regulating methane emissions,” Manchin warned in the letter, “a failure to harmonize these rules before they are finalized will have severe consequences for the nation and our strategic partners, putting our energy and national security at risk.”

In addition to Manchin’s protest, House Republicans, perhaps more predictably, also wrote to Regan recently, arguing that in an inflationary environment exacerbated by supply chains still recovering from the disruption caused by pandemic-era lockdowns, the new rule could cause some companies to shut their doors.

“The scope, timeline, and legal durability of the EPA’s regulatory actions are unclear, and several of the questions in our June 2023 letter remain unanswered,” House Energy and Commerce Committee Chair Cathy McMorris Rodgers and Environment, Manufacturing, and Critical Materials Subcommittee Chair Bill Johnson wrote in their November 7 letter.

“What is known is that thousands of American jobs and billions of dollars in local economic development could be impacted by the EPA’s actions,” they added. “Global supply chains remain disrupted, and record inflation has increased prices for equipment and services across the energy sector.

“If the EPA’s scope and compliance timelines do not account for these realities, it could force energy producers to shut in existing production and lay off workers,” the letter warned. “We are concerned that small businesses and independent energy producers, who are significant contributors to local economies, could suffer the most.”

The Pope Calls on the World to Reject Nationalism and Adopt Concrete Political Changes in Response to Climate Change

There can no longer be any doubt about Pope Francis’ intentions. The Pope is promoting global governance under the pretext of addressing climate change. He is urging people to reject nationalism and the notion that each country has the right to self-govern and to defend its borders, histories, cultures, identities, and constitutions. Pope Francis has just urged the world to establish a centralized worldwide authority “without delay” that will have the capacity to enact “common visions” and make “concrete changes.”

According to the Holy Press Office, Pope Francis said the following on Sunday, December 3, 2023, in the Chapel of Saint Martha in Vatican City:

“I follow the work of COP 28 in Dubai with great attention. I am close. I reiterate my appeal for a response to climate change with concrete political changes; let us come out of the straits of particularism and nationalism, mindsets of the past, and embrace a common vision, all making every effort now, without delay, for a necessary global conversion.”

Pope Francis is indeed pushing for increased global cooperation and governance, especially when it comes to dealing with problems like climate change. Through his delegates, he has expressed the importance of leaders uniting at COP28 to tackle global issues. Although he emphasizes the value of international cooperation, his real objective is to see the creation of a single global political system with the authority to enact the necessary concrete changes. Who will lead such a political organization, and why? Rome feels that it is her responsibility to lead and shape the future, both politically and spiritually.

While the concept of global governance aims to address shared challenges and promote international cooperation, it also raises major concerns and potential dangers about the loss of individual freedoms. As international bodies and agreements exert influence over the world, there is a risk of diminishing the sovereignty of individual nations and the freedom of their people to choose their own paths. For example, a global government can declare a state of emergency for climate change, granting itself extraordinary powers that could drastically alter our daily lives and result in the suppression of those who dissent. One-world powers of this kind have the ability to discriminate, deny people their rights, and restrict information, media, or communication.

A call is being made to bring church and state into a close, intimate relationship. Pope Francis is attempting to unite political and religious powers into one common vision and mission. According to Pope Francis, this is how the world's problems will be solved. In reality, this will only precipitate the greatest crisis this world has ever known - (Revelation 13:15). We are seeing a religious power dictating public policies to the nations. Pope Francis is calling upon the world to adopt his views on climate, economics, and political development. This is the perfect fulfillment of what the Bible says will take place in the last days. Revelation 17 identifies a woman sitting upon a seven-headed beast, and we understand this to be an impure church (woman) having control over the policies of civil government (beast). It has always been characteristic of self-serving, apostate religions to try to unite church and state so that they can shape public policy and control the people at large.

“And the dragon was wroth with the woman, and went to make war with the remnant of her seed, which keep the commandments of God, and have the testimony of Jesus Christ. In the near future we shall see these words fulfilled as the Protestant churches unite with the world and with the papal power against commandment keepers. The same spirit which actuated papists in ages past will lead Protestants to pursue a similar course toward those who will maintain their loyalty to God. Church and state are now making preparations for the future conflict. Protestants are working in disguise to bring Sunday to the front, as did the Romanists.

It remains to be seen what that means for the world, as it hangs on the success of the climate summit he is leading, but after a tough start to Cop (as we covered in Down to Earth on Thursday), Sunday was a no good, very bad start to the week for the COP28 president.

At the start of the conference, Al Jaber was accused of abusing his position by trying to sign oil deals with other governments (he later denied having seen the briefing documents prepared by the COP presidency). He then faced evidence that he told an event there was “no science” indicating a fossil fuels phase-out was needed to restrict global heating.

Guardian environment editor Damian Carrington and Ben Stockton from the Centre for Climate Reporting revealed that Al Jaber made the comments during a live online event on 21 November. Addressing Mary Robinson, a former UN special envoy for climate, he went on: “Please help me, show me the roadmap for a phase-out of fossil fuel that will allow for sustainable socioeconomic development, unless you want to take the world back into caves.”

The reaction was swift, and the rebukes sharp. Prof Sir David King, the chair of the Climate Crisis Advisory Group, was blunt, describing the comments as “incredibly concerning and surprising”. “It is undeniable that to limit global warming to 1.5C we must all rapidly reduce carbon emissions and phase-out the use of fossil fuels by 2035 at the latest,” he said. “The alternative is an unmanageable future for humanity.”

Al Gore, in an exclusive interview with the Guardian’s Oliver Milman, had already made up his mind. “They made a mistake, let’s be honest, in angling to put a fossil fuel company CEO in charge of this Cop28,” he said of Al Jaber, who is the chief executive of the UAE’s state oil company, Adnoc. “I mean it’s absurd. It’s totally ridiculous.”

The fallout prompted Al Jaber to call an unscheduled press conference on Monday afternoon, in which he was asked directly about the Guardian report. He said he had been misrepresented, that he was both an engineer and economist by background, and that it was “the science, and my respect for the science ... that have allowed me to progress in my career”.

Al Jaber said he had repeatedly pointed out in the lead-up to Cop that the phase-out of fossil fuels was essential. “It needs to be orderly, fair, just and responsible,” he said.

Quite where this leaves the talks, on just their sixth of 12 scheduled days, is unclear. The science however is more obvious: most remaining fossil fuel reserves must stay in the ground if increasingly catastrophic damage is to be avoided.

A year ago, at COP27 in Egypt, the world struggled to repeat a previous agreement that unabated coal power should be phased down, but not out. Oil and gas didn’t rate a mention. This year, all three start on the negotiating table – a point Al Jaber stressed on Monday.

Whether almost 200 countries meeting in a nation built on oil money, and at a time of heightened geopolitical tension, can find a consensus on what should be done with them is another thing entirely.

They'll have to if they are to live up to what Al Jaber has promised going into Cop28 – and the focus on his leadership is sharpening each day.

It is interesting that a week or so before COP28 was to commence, at least two web sources suggested that the COP28 was set-up to fail for the reasons noted in this post from the UK 'Guardian'.

In Blessed Hope $254, I pointed out that this will not be a “setback” for HRH Prince Charles. Sultan Al Jaber is well aware of who really directs the COP28 agenda and it's very likely the world was being set-up for the purpose of getting the world's attention in such a way to gain greater public focus on where COP28 is being orchestrated in the days just ahead.

In the past couple weeks I have pointed out that HRH Prince Charles and his colleagues like Al Gore, Pope Francis, Klaus Schwab, António Guterres, and other high level voices are determined to eliminate fossil fuels, any and all of them period! They, meaning the world's elite, fail to or choose not to mention all of the things being done to create chaos in the global environment, such as HAARP, geo-engineering, chemtrail aerial spraying of toxic poison soup mix. The deliberate ignorance of such geo-engineering efforts are simply ignorance of how weather modifications continue to destroy the global eco-system.

A prime example of how this geo-engineering of the weather came this past week when delegates from Europe were unable to depart Munich, Germany due to a massive snow and ice storm which resulted in aircraft frozen to the runways. That same storm dropped 40-inches of snow on the Great Lakes from Geneva, OH, to Erie, PA to upstate New York. It's not particularly unusual to get snow in early December in that part of the country. However, it becomes fuel to the fire to blame this as Climate Change; to buttress the claims of the junk science and cover to help bring HRH Prince Charles agenda to support his Green Agenda. Remember, we have been told that humanity worldwide has to reduce their lifestyle by 82%, or 86% here in the U.S.

The president of COP28, Sultan Al Jaber, has claimed there is “no science” indicating that a phase-out of fossil fuels is needed to restrict global heating to 1.5C, the Guardian and the Centre for Climate Reporting can reveal.

Al Jaber also said a phase-out of fossil fuels would not allow sustainable development “unless you want to take the world back into caves”.

The marketing people of COP28 are using the old Hegelian Dialectic to get humanity to beg our leaders to solve this “Problem – Reaction – Solution” tactic and make you feel responsible for the pollution of the planet. This is not too far off the course about “chipping” your children.

The Freemasons have long stood at the epicenter of numerous conspiracy theories, their secretive nature adding fuel to the fire of speculation.

Now the introduction of the “MYCHIP” (MasoniCHIP) program, dressed up as a benevolent child protection tool, has provoked further debate.

But could there be concealed objectives beyond the surface?

The “MYCHIP” program refers to the MasoniCHIP program.

The MasoniCHIP stands for Masonic Child Identification Program.

It’s a community service initiative sponsored by North American Masonic lodges to allegedly aid in the identification and recovery of missing children.

The program involves creating a package of items for parents which allegedly helps to identify their child quickly.

This package usually includes:

- Fingerprints of the child
- A dental impression or cheek swab for DNA
- A video, still photo, and a general description
- Other pertinent information about the child

The goal, as stated by the Freemasons is to give parents a tool they can hand over to law enforcement quickly in the case of an emergency.

But could there be a concealed and sinister objectives beneath the surface?

Let me remind you that in the book, ‘Codeword Barbelon’ by P.D. Stuart, on page 500, it reveals the “Secret Doctrine” of the highest degree is that “the Mason’s path to eternal life is the sexual violation of little children.”

In Freemasonry this is known as the “Royal Secret”. Doubt it not as Albert Pike would say! Also, the world’s senior Freemason is none other than HRH Prince Charles, the head of the Order of the Garter in Freemason, to which all Masonic Lodges are subservient to in the power structure.

Their ‘climate change’ and CO2 propaganda is largely all lies and deception and is about setting up a global police state dictatorship. Nothing else.

Carbon dioxide (CO2) is only a trace gas in the Earth’s atmosphere currently constituting only about 0.04% or (400 parts per million). Even if the amount of CO2 in the atmosphere were to double, it still would have only a minute effect, if any, on climate change or global warming. What predominantly influences climate change, global warming or changes in the climate are the levels of irradiation from the sun and water vapor in the atmosphere. Certainly not increased levels of CO2 which, if anything, would be beneficial, making plants grow much faster.

Royal Television Society: Prince Charles' control of global television & media

The Royal Television Society <https://rts.org.uk/> today was founded as The Television Society on September 7, 1927 when television was still in its experimental stage. The Society was granted its Royal title in 1966 and The Prince of Wales became its Chief Patron in November 1997.

Now headed by Prince Charles as Royal Patron, the Royal Television Society controls the television networks of virtually the entire world. Because of this, Prince Charles now possesses almost unbelievable global persuasive power over global television and media.

The City of London Corporation controls the Anglo/American global media, and therefore the minds of almost everyone throughout the world. Here is a good general documentary about the control of the media titled, "Devastating Expose on American Journalism and Media Concentration: Leading Thinkers"

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Kc90HBHtho8>

The green plot starts to get a little thicker doesn't it?

Of course, nothing to worry about, Prince Charles supposedly has no influence, and rarely does the Commonwealth ever get much of a mention by the global media as a global power implementing Prince Charles's global warming and climate change initiatives. Yet this one organization alone, headquartered at Marlborough House in London, with its 53-member states from the former British Empire – covering almost a quarter of the world's total land 173 area, spanning six continents and containing an estimated population of 2.328 billion people – behind the scenes, actually set the stage for the COP28 Agreement.

Firstly, it must be remembered that the City of London Corporation is structured not only as a huge private financial and banking "corporation," it is also a giant Masonic lodge and high-level witchcraft coven.

All of its religious services, rituals and emblems, although they may claim to be Protestant or Christian – are anything but. Absolutely none of their supposedly "Christian" rituals are to be found in the Bible at all, and every one of the City's emblems come from ancient Babylonian and Egyptian witchcraft.

The City of London Great Red Dragon

As historians and archaeologists now know, the "dragon" in ancient Babylonian mythology and relief represented the pagan sun-god Marduk incarnated in the king of Babylon. There are reliefs of dragons on the original walls of the Processional Way and Ishtar Gate, that led to the sanctuary of Marduk and temple of Ishtar and others in ancient Babylon with the Pergamon Altar from the temple of Zeus (Satan's Seat - Revelation2:12) now relocated in the Pergamon Museum in Berlin, Germany.

In temples dedicated to Ishtar in Assyria and Babylon, two giant human-headed winged lion statues, (symbol of the goddess) stood either side of the entrance gate. Two that stood either side of the Ishtar Gate of the entrance to King Ashurnasirpal II's(883-859 BC) palace at Nimrud (just north of Baghdad in Iraq today) are now in the British Museum in London.

The New Testament clearly reveals the “dragon” is an epithet of Satan. For example, here is what the book of Revelation plainly prophesies about him, with some links to him in London:

“And the beast which I saw was like unto a leopard, and his feet were as the feet of a bear, and his mouth as the mouth of a lion: and the dragon gave him his power, and his seat, and great authority.” -(Revelation13:2)

“And they worshipped the dragon which gave power unto the beast: and they worshipped the beast, saying, Who is like unto the beast? Who is able to make war with him?” -(Revelation 13:4)

“And I beheld another beast coming up out of the earth; and he had two horns like a lamb, and he spake as a dragon.” -(Revelation 13:11)

“And I saw three unclean spirits like frogs come out of the mouth of the dragon, and out of the mouth of the beast, and out of the mouth of the false prophet.” - (Revelation16:13)

“And I saw an angel come down from heaven, having the key of the bottomless pit and a great chain in his hand. And he laid hold on the dragon, that old serpent, which is the Devil, and Satan, and bound him a thousand years.” -(Revelation 20:2)

Dragon Boundary Marks of the City of London

The chief emblem and demon deity of the City of London Corporation is the Great Red Dragon. In fact, he not only supports the crest of the City's Coat of Arms, you cannot enter the City without passing ten special identifying Dragon boundary marks that designate the entire City.

Lord Mayor's Dragon Awards

The Dragon Awards were founded in 1987 by the then Lord Mayor, Sir David Rowe-Ham, to try and give the impression the City "cares" for others and is not entirely preoccupied with endemic greed and corruption. These fascist "Corporate Social Responsibility" awards are given to business employees who have exhibited a broad range of initiatives for corporations or through partnering with corporations, to maximize the impact on the voluntary sector, serving as mentors for schoolchildren, charities, and helping get families and unemployed people into employment. They are simply a refined program based on the former Nazi 'Hitler Youth.'

Can you ever imagine being given a "dragon" statuette, symbol of Satan, as an award for public service? Well that's what is happening now in Mansion House, in the City of London – and it is going to be expended out into every corner of the globe soon.

We often wonder how stupid many Germans were in the Third Reich for wearing the Skull and Crossbones, symbol of death, on their uniforms and parading it as the "Jingling Johnnie" in their Nazi military parades. But are the City's current Dragon Awards any different?

City of London Guardians: Gog and Magog

Gog and Magog are the two heathen, demon deities who are the Guardians of the City of London. Their effigies normally reside in Guildhall, but during the Lord Mayor's Show each year, wicker copies of their effigies are paraded through the streets of the City.

As the consorts of St George (the mystery Babylonian sun-god) Gog wields the Morning Star of Lucifer on a chain, while Magog, dressed as a Roman centurion, carries a spear and shield decorated with the New World Order Phoenix.

The Bible prophesies about Gog and Magog in Ezekiel 39:6 explain: “And I will send a fire on Magog and among them that dwell carelessly in the isles: and they shall know that I am the LORD.”

Could this particular prophecy possibly have some relevance to the city and their demons made of wicker in the near future? Interestingly, the corporate holding company of the British Sovereign in the British Isles is sometimes called the “Club of the Isles.”

Here are some photos of Gog and Magog in Guildhall. Note the Star of Lucifer hanging on a chain carried by Gog: <http://www.ianvisits.co.uk/blog/2011/04/24/photos-the-city-of-londons-800-year-old-guildhall/> <https://lordmayorshow.london/history/gog-and-magog>

Lord Mayor’s Show

This show represents the City of London Corporation’s fascist control of the wealth and assets of the whole world. The year 2015 was not only the 800th anniversary of Magna Carta, but it was the 800th anniversary of the Lord Mayor’s Show;

Here is an exceptionally good video of the Lord Mayor’s Show 2014: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=wCVHYn8XkFc>

Queen’s Gold State Coach

This first video clip reference shows Queen Elizabeth II in her Gold State Coach stopping at Temple Bar, entrance to the City of London, in a ritual whereby the Lord Mayor offers his obeisance to her by presenting the Pearl Sword hilt (handle) with blade pointing downwards to himself symbolizing his subjection to her. Note there are four tritons, sons, messengers and heralds of Neptune, god of the sea, on the coach. Two Roman fasces are carried by two tritons on the rear of the coach, symbolizing that the Sovereign is a FASCIST monarch. There is a trident on top of each of the fasces, which in Greek and Roman mythology gives them not only the power over the sea, it gives them the power to create earthquakes, tidal waves and tsunamis. There are also two tritons at the front of the coach blowing conch shell trumpets. In Greek mythology, the god Triton’s special function on behalf of his father Poseidon, who was god of the sea, was to strongly blow their conch shell trumpets loudly to resemble the roar of a dark wild beast, to put their enemies to flight. Rather appropriate, when you read Revelation 13 about the “beast.” Quite an achievement for a Sovereign who at the same time is the official head and Supreme Governor of the Protestant Church of England!

The coach is gilt in gold to symbolize the Sovereign in it is the spiritual incarnation of the pagan sun-god. <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=WiGP50miQvQ>

Jay Rockefeller - Internet should have never existed:

The New World Order conspiracy has been going on for hundreds of years by these oligarchical psychopathic families, and is now coming to full maturity and fruition.

Only now, through the Internet, are millions of documents, (some of which are referred to in this book), that previously were entirely unavailable through libraries, and largely kept secret, can they be freely accessed by ordinary members of the public – and this is increasingly being recognized as a serious threat by the oligarchy at the top.

As the result, the Internet is being increasingly censored and monitored, but at least for now, there is still a very short 'window of opportunity' left for whistle-blowers and all that are concerned to get the truth out. Unfortunately, however, if the censorship continues to its logical conclusion, unless people soon wake up in greater numbers – God help all of humanity.

Here is a short video clip showing Jay Rockefeller actually saying that he believed “the Internet should have never existed:” <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Ct9xzXUQLuY>

As I stated in a recent statement that this might seem like a defeat for HRH Prince Charles, his hidden power has always been in his and the Rothschild's ability to trump these issues with no difficulty. As I have noted in recent segments of my Blessed Hope series, HRH Prince Charles and the House of Rothschild control credit, lending, and interest rates for all but Cuba, North Korea, and Iran that do not have Rothschild central banks.

IMF boss says governments need to impose global carbon tax on citizens to punish them for using energy

Kristalina Georgieva, a Bulgarian economist who serves as the managing director of the International Monetary Fund, said Monday that the IMF wants to see countries implement punishing new carbon taxes to “fight climate change.”

She delivered her dire message at the United Nations COP28 climate summit, where globalists in attendance flew in on jets and you can bet they are being chauffeured around in luxury automobiles and dining on the finest cuts of beef and other delicacies.

“We are very keen to give the biggest possible incentive for decarbonization, which is putting a price on carbon,” Georgieva said at the summit in the United Arab Emirates.

“That price needs to go up, up, up if we are to speed up decarbonization.”

The IMF boss also tried to justify carbon taxes by saying they would raise revenues for governments.

“We are a huge proponent of carbon price,” she said, in a bold statement that seems to indicate only the rich will be allowed to maintain their current lifestyles if the globalists get their way on climate change policies.

Georgieva has broken it down in very simple terms for us serfs. Climate change means more money for governments to expand their power and control over the way we live our lives. It will provide a wonderful new excuse to reach into our pockets and rob us of your hard-earned money, then using that stolen money to hire more bureaucrats whose sole purpose will be to disrupt the middle-class lifestyle while creating new barriers for poor people seeking to rise up into the middle class.

Georgieva is a globalist elitist sitting there at COP28 under the banner of the IMF and World Bank, admitting in the wide open that what the globalists want is a global tax that punishes people for driving gas-powered cars, heating their homes, cooking on gas ranges, eating meat, flying on planes, etc.

These are all things that your typical middle-class family sees not as luxuries but as everyday necessities. If the globalists get their way, only the rich will be able to afford these things. The rest of us will be left to fend for ourselves in cold, dank little apartments, riding our bicycles to work, or catching the bus, while coming home to a dinner of meal worms and crickets.

No thanks.

These people sitting on their high and lofty perches at these globalist summits have somehow gotten the mistaken idea that they can lord their perverse ideology over us and make us conform to a lifestyle fit for the Middle Ages, while they dine on filet mignon and caviar and move about in their expensive SUVs and private jets.

As more people figure out what decarbonization and net zero emissions will actually mean for their own way of life, you can bet these globalists are going to have to run for cover.

That’s why we do what we do here at LeoHohmann.com, reporting and informing in an effort to wake up the sleeping masses. We must get them to realize that if we remain on the current trajectory, we will live as slaves.

In order to truly enforce such a dystopian society, they will crash the dollar and the rest of the global fiat currencies, replace them with digital and programmable CBDCs

(Central Bank Digital Currencies), and require biometric digital IDs of all people, with your digital ID tied to your bank account. Once this enforcement mechanism is in place, its game over. I believe this is all set to be accomplished by the end of 2025. That means 2024 will be a pivotal year in which a series of crises are launched aimed at getting more of us into a desperate situation. For only a desperate people will accept a life of techno-slavery in a 24/7 surveillance state.

Live free. Never comply. Use cash whenever possible. Never submit to a digital ID. There's been too much compliance already, which is why we stand at the door of domination by these evil parasites.

The dates of Hanukkah are aligned with the timing of COP28! No Coincidence!

In the world of news, there is no good news, and so that is in fact a promising indicator of the Lord's intervention. I monitor sources from all areas of the world and society, and the best part of that is to sense the nearness of His Call for us to come up hither! I do a number of things to keep upbeat and positive.

From the archives of Pastor Bob's Studies on Deliverance before Judgment / Pre-Tribulation Rapture Why the Rapture Occurs Before the Revealing of the Antichrist!

In this segment of God's Master Plan for "Deliverance before Judgment", which represents the basis for the Pre-Tribulation Rapture, I am going to share the views of Nathan Jones who is co-host of Dr. David Reagan's "Christ in Prophecy" weekly television program under the banner of Lamb and Lion Ministry of McKinney, Texas. I have been listening to Dr. Reagan's program since it aired on radio many years ago. In fact, I have listened to Dave since 1992.

Serving as Dave's web-minister and co-host, Nathan recently posted his commentary on "Why I Believe in a Pre-Tribulation Rapture". I am sharing it because it is Biblically solid. What follows are the words of Nathan E. Jones:

11 reasons why Jesus will come back before the Tribulation

"Frequently I am asked to explain or defend the end-time view of the Pre-Tribulation Rapture of the Church. For that topic, lots of Bible verses, readings, and references rattle around in my skull. I can extract each like a Powerball out of an air machine and present it to the inquiring mind, but never in a linear, comprehensive manner in which I particularly appreciate. And so, this article is my attempt to organize my brain on the Pre-Tribulation Rapture view. You're welcome to come along on the journey!

Taking It to the Bedrock

My belief that there will be a Pre-Tribulation Rapture of the Church stands on the bedrock of the following foundational tenets:

A. The Bible is the Word of God

The 66-book canon called the Bible is God's inerrant, infallible message to mankind, explaining His purpose and plans for the ages – (2nd Timothy 3:16-17; 2nd Peter 1:20-21). No other document can be reliably trusted, or remotely reach the bar for the requirements of authentication that the Bible attains to so easily.

B. The Bible is to be Interpreted Literally

God means what He says and says what He means. God wants His creation to know His will plainly. While God does indulge in picturesque descriptions and parables, an explanation almost always follows on context to provide for explanation. Spiritualizing of text, therefore, has no proper place in interpreting Scriptures. Any eschatological viewpoint must then be thrown out, if it is based on the reader's desire to spiritualize the Bible into whatever ethereal meaning they desire. Take the Bible for its plain sense meaning.

C. The Church and Israel Are Separate Entities

Israel is not the Church and the Church is not Israel. A believer in Christ becomes a member of the Church, whether Jew or Gentile –(Romans 1:16), but a member of the Church does not become a form of spiritual Israel. God's promises to Israel as a people and nation (see next tenet) are not the same as for the Bride of Christ, the Church.

D. A Literal 1000-Year Millennium

The Bible describes a future, literal 1,000-year time period. The Greek word "chilies" for "one thousand" appears six (6X) times in Revelation 20, clearly marking the time-period as having 1,000 literal years. The purpose of this time period is for Jesus Christ to have an earthly kingdom from which to base His rule and to fulfill His promises found in -(Genesis 13:14-17; 15:5, 18-21; 2nd Samuel 7:16-19; Isaiah 10:21-22; 11:1-2; Jeremiah 23:5-8; 30:22; 31:31-34; Ezekiel 11:18-20; 34:24; 36:24-28; Micah 7:19-20; Hosea 3:5; Romans 11:26-29).

E. A Literal 7-Year Tribulation

An upcoming time period has been set aside for God to pour out His wrath upon the evil world, to regather Israel back into its land, to force Israel to acknowledge Jesus as their Messiah, and for the Messiah to return and fight for His believing remnant – (Deuteronomy 4:26-31; Isaiah 13:6-13; 17:4-11; Jeremiah 30:4-11; Ezekiel 20:33-38; Daniel 9:27; 12:1; Zechariah 14:1-14; Matthew 24:9-31). This time period begins with a covenant between Israel and the Antichrist –(Daniel 9:27). The length of the Tribulation is seven years long, described in a variety of ways as "one seven" year bloc –(Daniel 9:27), consisting of two "time, times, and half a time" –(two years + 1 year + half a year; Revelation 12:14), or two "1,260 days" periods –(Revelation 11:3), or two "42 month" periods –(Revelation 11:2; 13:5).

F. Jesus Will Return to Earth

The Bible says Jesus will physically return again to Earth –(Zechariah 14:1-21; Matthew 24:29-31; Mark 13:24-27; Luke 21:25-27; Revelation 19). Jesus return is to defeat His enemies, set up His throne, restore Israel, rule with "a rod of iron" and share His authority with those who overcame in Him –(Mathew 19:28; 25:31; Acts 1:3-6; Revelation 2:26-27; 3:21).

G. The Bible Teaches About a Rapture

1st Thessalonians 4:17 speaks of an event called “the Rapture”, Latin “radio”, Greek “harpist”, which means “to catch up, to snatch away, or to take out”. “After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever.” Paul states that the concept of the Rapture is meant to encourage believers during this Age. –(1st Corinthians 15:51-58; and 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18”. These bedrock statements about the Bible and its interpretation provide the foundation in which to analyze the following reasons for why I believe the Bible teaches a Pre-Tribulation Rapture of the Church.

1. The Bible describes the Rapture and Second Coming as different events

The Bible must see the Rapture –(John 14:1-4; 1st Corinthians 15:51-58; 1st Thessalonians 4:13-18) and the Second Coming –(Zechariah 14:1-21; Matthew 24:29-31; Mark 13:24-27; Luke 21:25-27; Revelation 19) as separate events, because, when the verses are compared, they describe two very different scenarios.

- Rapture – Believers meet Christ in the air.
- Second Coming – Christ returns to the Mount of Olives to meet the believers on Earth.

- Rapture – Mount of Olives is unchanged.
- Second Coming – Mount of Olives is divided, forming a valley east of Jerusalem.

- Rapture – Living believers obtain glorified bodies.
- Second Coming – Living believers remain in same bodies.

- Rapture – Believers go to heaven.
- Second Coming – glorified believers come from heaven, earthly believers stay on Earth.

- Rapture – World left unjudged and living in sin.
- Second Coming – world is judged and righteousness is established.

- Rapture – Depicts deliverance of the Church from wrath.
- Second Coming – depicts deliverance of believers who endured wrath.

- Rapture – No signs precede it.
- Second Coming – Many signs precede it.

- Rapture – Revealed only in the New Testament.
- Second Coming – Revealed in both Old and New Testaments.

- Rapture – Deals with only the saved.
- Second Coming – Deals with both the saved and unsaved.

- Rapture – Satan remains free.
- Second Coming – Satan is bound and thrown into the Abyss.

Nathan provides 11 Biblically solid reasons to have confidence in God's Master Plan for "Deliverance before Judgment". As the evidence accumulates on behalf of the Pre-Tribulation Rapture, readers should begin to recognize and appreciate our blessed hope!

Since I wrote and posted Nathan Jones' article back in 2015, I recall a separate article that was more comprehensive and listed 32 specific compare and contrast examples of differentiation on the Rapture and the Second Coming. Here is the link to that article showing 32 ways the Rapture and the Second Coming are uniquely different.

Since we could be out of here as early as December 7th and as late as December 12th I can't say whether there will be another Blessed Hope after this one. There are so many reasons to be optimistic about our soon departure and I hope and pray you are as excited as I am. At my age, I have felt I might not get the thrill of what the Apostle Paul revealed about the Rapture. I have been on God's borrowed time especially the past two years and knew I might go before that Blessed Hope would shake the world like nothing ever experienced.
