Founder of the SMI, King Charles III opened the COP28UAE Business & Philanthropy Climate Forum at a ceremony in Expo City, bringing together World Leaders and private sector CEOs to build momentum on progress towards a more sustainable future, and the action needed to drive real-economy transition plans.

For more than five decades, King Charles III has been a champion for the fight against climate change and biodiversity loss.

At the conclusion of COP28, Dubai, King Charles is expected to address the world in a Christmas message to the world.

Via King Charles' SMI, Day six at #COP28, the SMI focuses is on the levers and pathways to support a just transition to 2030. A key element is to ensure governments are equipped with the knowledge and best practice insight to translate climate change pledges into programs and actionable items.

Through King Charles' Country Engagement team and Legal Task Force, the SMI has developed a cross-sector government training program, with an aim to help upskill Commonwealth governments so they can meet their Nationally Determined Contributions and drive sustainable progress to 2030 and beyond.

The Climate Training program, starting this January, 2024, will be delivered through a series of webinars by expert speakers from the Sustainable Markets Initiative's Task Forces.

Sustainable Markets Initiative launches Fusion Task Force to address alternate energy transition solutions Task Force to convene, align, and engage private sector companies to tackle the barriers to market adoption of fusion energy by 2030.

Dubai, United Arab Emirates: The Sustainable Markets Initiative announced today at COP28 the launch of its Fusion Energy Task Force, which will convene the sector's value and supply chain to accelerate the commercialization of fusion energy.

Task Force members include CEOs from industries which will be critical to enabling the transformative role that fusion can play in the energy mix. Building upon recent positive milestones and trends, the Task Force highlights fusion's potential to deliver at-scale, clean, reliable energy.

Christofer Mowry, CEO of Type One Energy Group and Chair of the Fusion Energy Task Force, said:

"Fusion is the power of the stars, the most powerful form of energy in the universe. Harnessing it is essential for delivering the transition to a long-term sustainable future. The science is now proven. Our challenge is to reimagine more ambitious market-driven, government-enabled, solutions that facilitate the market adoption of this clean technology in time to address climate change.”

In service of broad sustainability goals, the Fusion Energy Task Force will collaborate with other Sustainable Markets Initiative Task Forces to promote awareness of fusion energy’s readiness to enable the energy transition and seeks to establish the first projects under development by 2030s.

Jennifer Jordan-Saifi, CEO of the Sustainable Markets Initiative, said:

“Fusion’s near-term prospects offer a glimpse into a future where clean and efficient energy transforms not just our planet but enables us to power the horizon of human exploration. We must continue to fund the research and development into fusion and also begin serious work to the regulatory and economic frameworks that will evolve from limitless clean power being readily available. We are truly on the cusp of a pivotal moment.”

The Task Force will focus on the following key areas:

Explore ways to produce the market signals necessary to increase the pace of fusion’s commercialization. Seek to scale the fusion value chain related to the minerals, materials, and industrial processes.

Facilitate broader market participation from both private and public sectors.

Determine and demonstrate how to create investable opportunities for the private sector to fill the value chain gaps in enabling technologies, materials, engineered products, and industrial processes needed for final commercialization of fusion.

Address Private Sector Engagement, overcoming barriers to broader market participation and in public policy.

Identify and exercise mechanisms to foster industry and private sector understanding of fusion energy as a credible medium-term and long-term solution to achieving and sustaining a net zero economy.

Sustainable Markets Initiative launches Circularity Task Force addressing the future of environmental management and material repurposing solutions Task Force will help to build collaboration across sectors to support tangible, scalable, sustainable circular business practices.

London, United Kingdom: The Sustainable Markets Initiative announced today the launch of its Circularity Task Force, which is aligned to the Terra Carta articles and will work across sectors to drive a path forward to more sustainable, circular business practices. The Terra Carta sets ambitious and practical actions to help the private sector accelerate their progress towards a sustainable future. It is a strategic action plan putting Nature, People, and Planet at the heart of global value creation.

The Task Force will be coordinated by Gemini Corporation and its Chief Executive Officer, Kunaal Patawari will be Task Force Chair. Gemini is a global circular economy market maker and has extensive experience in the circularity sector.

“With the Terra Carta as our guiding light, the Circularity Task Force will focus on the mission-critical objective of unlocking and embedding circularity into the pursuit of value creation,” said Mr. Patawari. “As part of the Sustainable Markets Initiative, we aim to influence capital allocation beyond numbers towards forming a legacy of responsible and impactful collaborations that deliver uncompromised returns. The equation is simple yet profound: in nurturing the planet and its inhabitants, we will sculpt a narrative of business triumphs that surpass conventional benchmarks. I would like to recognize and thank the Task Force founding members who have embraced this journey. Together, we invite you to collaborate with us towards a more sustainable, circular, and valuable future.”

According to Summa Equity, EU circular markets alone could be worth EUR 1.5 trillion by 2040. The move to circularity has the potential to reduce 650 Mt CO₂e per year. With significant research and innovation underway, there is tremendous potential for both environmental benefits and positive returns. The Circularity Task Force aims to:

- Provide guidance to private and public sector organizations on how they can incorporate ‘circularity’ into their corporate vision and business and operational activities;
- Leverage partner expertise to build, share and amplify best practices, leading strategies and supportive guides to action circularity across the private sector;
- Support the acceleration of the circular economy transition across the value chain.

Task Force member companies include:

- First Abu Dhabi Bank
- Dubai Airports
- Gemini Corporation
- Holcim
- Investcorp
- LGT Group

Hana Al Rostamani, Group CEO of First Abu Dhabi Bank, said:

“Finance has to be at the heart of the transition towards a more sustainable world, where circularity becomes second nature to all of us. The banking industry is stepping up to play its part in the creation of a stronger circular economy. Investment, especially in those areas that are energy intensive and regarded as “hard to abate”, is essential to accelerate the shift towards more sustainable business practices. FAB is committed to helping facilitate the transition, while supporting this circularity initiative for its clients globally.”

Paul Griffiths, CEO, Dubai Airports said:

“Airports have a unique opportunity to help accelerate the path to decarbonization across the value chain and in procurement practices. Through the implementation of circularity in this sector and collaborative efforts with stakeholders, we can collectively reduce our environmental impact and foster innovation for the next generation’s usability of existing materials. We need to shift gears and leverage our purchasing power in the supply chain and through our business operations to drive this change.”

Jan Jensch, Chairman and CEO of Holcim said:

“With our world’s rising population and urbanization, we need to build better with less to raise living standards for all while preserving nature. Circularity is a game changer to make this happen at scale. At Holcim we are driving circular construction across all metropolitan areas where we operate to build cities from cities, recycling construction demolition materials into new building solutions. I am excited to be joining like-minded organizations to accelerate the shift to a more circular future together.”

Rishi Kapoor, Co-Chief Executive Officer, Investcorp said:

“We believe the private sector will inevitably play a pivotal role in building high-performing sustainable businesses for long-term value creation, and also addressing the challenges of climate change. Through the integration of sustainable, circular initiatives into our own business as well as the businesses that we invest into, we can foster the decarbonization that lies ahead for consumers and corporates worldwide, while also creating greater financial and business value. A true triple net bottom line impact!”

His Serene Highness, Prince Maximilian of Liechtenstein, Chairman LGT Group, said:

“At LGT Group, we are committed to be forward-looking for generations and to think and act in a sustainable manner. As an investor and investment advisor we seek to assess and drive investment returns with a holistic perspective and with careful consideration for the various risk and impact dimensions. We invite you to join us in our journey towards a more sustainable, circular, and valuable future.”

Public-Private sector collaboration vital for unlocking renewable energy development in sub-saharan Africa: New report from the sustainable markets initiative energy transition task force Report sets out key priorities for electrifying Africa, including decentralized grid solutions, data and upskilling communities.

Dubai, United Arab Emirates: The Sustainable Markets Initiative’s Energy Transition Task Force today announced the launch of a pivotal report, “Global Grids, Money & Models: Unblocking Investment and Unlocking Africa’s Renewable Energy Future”, highlighting the profound potential that investments in electricity grid networks hold for sub-Saharan Africa.

The comprehensive report, developed together with Octopus Energy and RMI, provides a strategic blueprint for government and private sector engagement in electric grid development, particularly as transmission projects grow more attractive for investment.

These investments can pave the way for a just transition, providing clean and reliable energy to foster economic and social progress, while addressing the challenges impeding progress.

MEDIA ADVISORY

SUSTAINABLE MARKETS INITIATIVE PROVIDES TERRA CARTA ACCELERATOR INITIATIVE UPDATE

London, United Kingdom: In May 2023 the Sustainable Markets Initiative launched its Terra Carta Accelerator initiative, that includes a fund with a goal to reach £50 million (c.US$62 million) in private financing for nature and biodiversity projects and companies. Today at COP28, the not-for-profit shared it has increased its funding goal to US$125 million.

Sustainable Markets Initiative also announced that Pollination, a Global Climate and Nature Investment and Advisory firm, has been appointed as General Partner of the fund.

Additionally, White & Case, a global law firm, is acting as legal advisors to the Sustainable Markets Initiative for the Terra Carta Accelerator initiative.

The Terra Carta Accelerator initiative is being developed in response to His Majesty King Charles III's challenge to the Sustainable Markets Initiative to develop five land-based and five water-based initiatives per year through 2030.

The May 2023 press release can be found on the Sustainable Markets Initiative website at www.sustainable-markets.org on the News tab.

[If you can find a single example of what COP28 is really all about, from this press release you are a special person. This global information put out is a total pile of bovine excrement. The one thing that these people are skilled at is deception and manipulating human emotions. The take-away here is that HRH Prince Charles Christmas message to be delivered next week on December 12, 2023. Even then, old "sausage fingers" words will parse his agenda with "flatteries" and toxic words that may sound utopian or as Daniel 11:21-22 says,

²¹"In his place shall arise a contemptible person to whom royal majesty has not been given. He shall come in without warning and obtain the kingdom by flatteries. ²²Armies shall be utterly swept away before him and broken, even the prince of the covenant."

When you listen to HRH Prince Charles speeches and addresses he uses words and phrases designed to build empathy for him and his causes; he is a natural salesman. In his presence you would be asking the question, "where do I sign up?" before he has finished the sales pitch. He knows exactly what buttons to push. I would say that if he were a car salesman, he would break the record of the greatest car salesman in America. That title was held by Joe Girard, of Grosse Pointe Shores, MI until a few years ago. Joe Girard sold 13,001 cars from 1966 until 1977; and a record 1,425 cars in 1973. When I worked in the College Division of McGraw-Hill Publishing Company, we had winter meetings in January locations places like Freeport, Bahamas, Tampa, FL, and Hamilton, Bermuda. The company winter meetings were working vacations. Well-known motivational speakers were part of the winter meetings and this is where I first met Joe Girard. Joe could sell bagged ice to an Eskimo! The Bible has warned us about the Antichrist and his craftiness.

Scripture is abundant with verses speaking to the cunning of Satan's man. The Apostle Paul addressed this person in Romans 16:17-19.

¹⁷ I appeal to you, brothers, to watch out for those who cause divisions and create obstacles contrary to the doctrine that you have been taught; avoid them. ¹⁸ For such persons do not serve our Lord Christ, but their own appetites, and by smooth talk and flattery they deceive the hearts of the naive. ¹⁹ For your obedience is known to all, so that I rejoice over you, but I want you to be wise as to what is good and innocent as to what is evil."

Revelation 13:5-8 says, "The beast was given a mouth to utter proud words and blasphemies and to exercise his authority for forty-two months. He opened his mouth to blaspheme God, and to slander His name and His dwelling place and those who live in heaven. He was given power to make war against the saints and to conquer them. And he was given authority over every tribe, people, language and nation. All inhabitants of the earth will worship the beast – all whose names have not been written in the book of life belonging to the Lamb that was slain from the creation of the world."

Destruction of Ecclesiastical Babylon

“And the ten horns which thou sawest upon the beast, these shall hate the whore, and shall make her desolate and naked, and shall eat her flesh, and burn her with fire.” -(Revelation 17:16)

One of the Antichrist's first acts in gaining religious control will be the destruction of the first religious system of the Tribulation, the Ecclesiastical Babylon. Previously, this religious system had the support of the civil government, for the first 3-½ years. With all civil authority turned over to the hands of the antichrist, who is now in full control, civil government itself will destroy the domination of the Ecclesiastical Babylon.

When Adolph Hitler assumed the Chancellorship of Germany on January 30, 1933 the Protestant Churches acclaimed him as the savior. Some such as Karl Barth the theologian of Bonn University did not see any major significance to Hitler's appointment. Within one month civil liberties were extinguished. Within two months most political opponents were imprisoned or left the country. The Reichstag surrendered its powers and gave Hitler complete control of the legislative process. Within four months all the trade unions were dissolved. Within six months all opposition parties were suppressed and forced into voluntary liquidation leaving the Nazis as the only party in Germany.

The Christian Churches began to make voluntary compromises to the Nazis.

The following items were used to further Hitler's agenda.

1. Churches were supported with state taxes (church married to the state).
2. There was a split between public and private morality (one for the state and one for the private person-the doctrine of two spheres).
3. Human ideas were substituted for God's Word -God was irrelevant- Enlightenment thinking was advanced.
4. Hatred for the Jews flourished under Hitler which originally started with Martin Luther.
5. The authority of the Bible which condemns these things was ignored.
6. The Third Reich claimed complete control over all churches in Germany.
7. The Nazis stopped the Bible from being published and disseminated.
8. Mein Kampf, Hitler's book replaced the Bible in Churches.
9. All crosses were removed and replaced by swastikas.

As I have noted in previous segments of this series, there is huge similarities between the Nazi Third Reich and what is currently occurring in the rise of HRH Prince Charles' Fourth Reich.

As best I can recall the best book on the Antichrist until the late 1990s was by the late A.W. Pink. I bought a copy back in 1993 when doing graduate school work at Asbury Theological Seminary. I have to admit that I have since been hooked on this entity and spirit since I first read Laurence Gardner's book on 'Bloodlines of The Holy Grail: The Hidden Lineage of Jesus Christ'. Certainly, the book 'Antichrist and A Cup of Tea' by Timothy Huckabee Cohen is a compliment of the other. These two books came out in 1996 and 1998 respectively and therefore few people showed any interest in the identity of Prince Charles of Wales as “THE” Antichrist back then.

When I read Joan Veon’s book, ‘Prince Charles the Sustainable Prince’ and ‘The United Nations Global Strait Jacket’ the only question that I have had ever since was “When?” I was referring future tense in regards to when he shows his hand! It’s here in spades!

A.W. Pink wrote in his book, ‘Antichrist’ there is a distinct science of nomenclature, a system of names, in the Word of God. Probably every name in Scripture has either a historic, a symbolic, or a spiritual significance. The names are inseparably bound up with the narrative, and it frequently happens that the meaning of a proper noun is a key to an important passage. Names are not employed by the Holy Spirit in a loose and careless manner — of course not! — but with definite design. A variety of names for the same individual are not given in order to prevent monotonous repetition, but because the significance of each separate appellation is best fitted to express what is recorded in any given instance. “Devil” and “Satan” are not synonyms, nor are they used at haphazard, but with Divine discrimination. Upon the meaning of names found in Holy Writ rests a whole scheme of interpretation; even the order in which names occur is not fortuitous but designed, and constitutes a part of each lesson taught, or each truth presented.

There is here a wide field opened for study, a field which few have made serious effort to explore. It is strange that it has been so neglected, for again and again the Holy Spirit calls attention to the importance and meaning of names. In the first book of the Bible we find that children and places were given meaningful names, which called to remembrance incidents, experiences, characteristics of interest and importance. Examples are given where names changed to harmonize with a change in the person, place, experience, or situation where it occurred. Abram and Sarai will at once occur to mind. For a place, take Luz, which was changed to Bethel! — “House of God” — because by reason of a vision he received there it became that to Jacob. Jacob’s name is changed to Israel; and in the New Testament an example is furnished in Simeon being re-named Peter. In Hebrews 7:1, the Holy Spirit calls attention to the significance of the names Melchizedik and Salem (Jerusalem). These are sufficient to show the importance of this line of study.

Names are used in Scripture with marvelous discrimination, and it was this fact which first demonstrated to the writer, the verbal inspiration of Scripture. The precision with which names are used in the Bible is especially noticeable in connection with the Divine titles. The names Elohim and Jehovah are found on the pages of the Old Testament several thousand times, but they are never used loosely or interchangeably. Over three hundred names and titles are given to the Lord Jesus Christ, and each has its own distinctive significance and to substitute any other for the one used would destroy the beauty and perfections of every passage where they are found.

Names are employed to express character; titles are used to denote relationships. It is only as we make a careful study of the various and numerous names and titles of the Lord Jesus Christ, that we are in a position to appreciate His infinite excellencies and the manifold relationships which He sustains. From an opposite standpoint the same is equally true of the Antichrist. As we pay careful attention to the different names and titles which are given to him, we then discover what a marvelously complete delineation the Holy Spirit has furnished us with of the person, the character, and career of this monster of wickedness. It is unfortunate that the great variety of names bestowed upon him has led some brethren to the conclusion that they must belong to separate persons, and has caused them to apportion these out to different individuals; only confusion can result from this. There is almost as much ground to make the Devil and Satan different persons, as there is to regard (as some do) the Beast and the Antichrist as separate entities. That the Devil and Satan are names belonging to the same person, and that the Beast and the Antichrist is the selfsame individual, is proven by the fact that identically the same characteristics under each is found belonging to the one as to the other. Instead of apportioning these names to different persons, we must see that they denominate the same individual, only in different relationships, or as giving us various phases of his character.

An old writer has said the name Devil is most suggestive of his character. If “d” is taken away, evil is left. If “e” is taken away vile is left. If “v” is taken away ill is left. And if “i” is taken away and the next letter be aspirated, it tells of hell. It is equally true of the Antichrist: his names reveal his character, expose his vileness, and forecast his career and doom.

The names and titles given to the Antichrist are far more numerous than is commonly supposed. We propose to give as complete a list as possible, and offer a few comments on their significations. We shall not expatiate on them at equal length, for that is not necessary; instead, we shall say the most on those cognomens which are of the greater importance, or, which because of their ambiguity call for a more detailed elucidation.

I want to now turn to more information about the role of Freemasonry in Prince Charles world. Freemasons are Satanists, and Prince Charles is the senior Freemason in the power hierarchy of the Order of the Garter. There is much that people do not understand about Prince Charles leadership of worldwide Freemasonry.

Freemasons, who worship Lucifer, nature, the sun, moon and stars, celebrate two major witchcraft feasts throughout the year. Both are called feasts of St. John. https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/St. John%27s Day, Masonic feast

One is dedicated to the Feast of St. John the Baptist and falls on 24th June, and the other is dedicated to St. John the Evangelist and falls on 27 December, roughly marking the Midsummer solstice and Mid-winter solstice. (A solstice is a major astronomical event that occurs only twice each year as the sun reaches its highest or lowest point relative to the celestial equator – the word solstice comes from Latin sol ‘sun’ and sistere - ‘to stand still’ – because at the solstices, the sun stands still in declination along its path as seen from earth before it starts to reverse its direction.) In ancient witchcraft and nature worship these feasts have always been held in high esteem because supposedly at these times the influence of the sun, moon and planets is much greater.

This is why officially Freemasonry’s world headquarters, the United Grand Lodge of England, was officially founded in London on the Feast of St John the Evangelist December 27, 1813, with the first Grand Lodge in London founded on the Feast of St John the Baptist, June 24th, 1717.

Nowhere in the Bible are we told the exact dates of birth or death of either of these two “Johns.” The Roman Catholic Church simply “Christianized” these old pagan Roman/Babylonian feasts and gave them new “Christian” names.

Alexander Hislop in his book ‘The Two Babylons’ Chapter III Section III ‘The Nativity of St. John,’ explains: “John the Baptist was born six months before our Lord. When, therefore, the pagan festival of the winter solstice had once been consecrated as the birthday of the Saviour, it followed, as a matter of course, that if His forerunner was to have a festival at all, His festival must be at this very season; for between the 24th of June and the 25th of December – that is, between the summer and the winter solstice – there are just six months. Now, for the purposes of the Papacy, nothing could be more opportune than this. One of the many sacred names by which Tammuz or Nimrod was called, when he reappeared in the Mysteries, after being slain, was Oannes...

To make the festival of the 24th of June, then, suit Christians and Pagans alike, all that was needful was just to call it the festival of Joannes; and thus the Christians would suppose that they were honoring John the Baptist, while the Pagans were still worshipping their old god Oannes, or Tammuz.

Thus, the very period at which the great summer festival of Tammuz was celebrated in ancient Babylon, is at this very hour observed in the papal Church as the Feast of the Nativity of St. John. And the fête of St. John begins exactly as the festal day began in Chaldea. It is well known that, in the East, the day began in the evening. So, though the 24th be set down as the nativity, yet it is on St. John's EVE – that is, on the evening of the 23rd – that the festivities and solemnities of that period begin.”

<http://www.biblebelievers.com/babylon/sect33.htm>

Traditionally, from ancient times, on Midsummer's Eve, (St. John's Eve among apostate Christians) pagans would light bonfires to protect against evil spirits. In Babylon and the land of Canaan they would also offer up their children as sacrifices to be burned to appease the sun-god Baal and Marduk, who was sometimes represented by a red dragon.

Election of Lord Mayor: Feast of St. Michael the Archangel – 29th September (Michaelmas Day)

Each year, the new Lord Mayor is elected on the Feast of St. Michael, September 29th. This is a very important date in paganism and witchcraft.

In the Bible, Michael is called an archangel -(Jude 1:9). In the book of Daniel, chapter 10, Michael is prophesied to be the special protector of Israel in the last days, and later, in Revelation chapter 12, he leads the war against the great dragon also called the Devil and Satan. There is no doubt about it, he is a very special angel. But nowhere in the Bible are Christians instructed to venerate angels or saints, and more especially the archangel Michael.

In Hebrew, Michael means 'who is like God.' False teachers in the Christian Church, such as Seventh Day Adventists and Jehovah Witnesses, erroneously claim the archangel Michael is Jesus Christ. He is not.

The apostle Paul in his epistle to the Galatians -(Galatians 1:6-8) warned: “I marvel that ye are so soon removed from him that called you into the grace of Christ unto another gospel: Which is not another; but there be some that trouble you, and would pervert the gospel of Christ. But though we, or an angel from heaven, preach any other gospel unto you than that which we have preached unto you, let him be accursed.”

Many Christian denominations have “Christianized” these old Babylonian and Egyptian pagan deities and changed them into the archangel Michael and made him into someone who he isn’t according to the Bible. The biggest culprit, false teacher and false prophet is the Roman Catholic Church, where it has his name capitalized as “Archangel” while he is called “Holy Michael” and “Saint Michael.” As such, he is the Guardian of the Catholic Church and Guardian of the Vatican.

In the Roman Catholic Church’s false teachings, Saint Michael has four primary roles:

- 1) To be the leader of the Army of God [by implication the Catholic Church] and of heaven’s forces in their triumph over the powers of hell.
- 2) In his second role Michael is the Angel of Death, carrying the souls of all the dead to heaven. Supposedly, at the hour of death, he descends and gives each soul the chance to redeem itself before passing on, and Catholic prayers often refer to this role.
- 3) In his third role, he is said to “weigh souls in his perfectly balanced scales” and hence, throughout Roman Catholic art and sculpture over the centuries Saint Michael is often depicted holding balancing scales.
- 4) He is also the patron saint of Knighthood.

In ancient Greek pagan art and sculpture the god Thanatos is usually shown as a naked winged man or boy with a huge scabbard and sword hanging over his left hip. In Greek mythology he was looked on less as a god, but more as the Angel of Death – who inherited from Zeus his role as a judge of who shall live and who shall die. He did this by weighing the living on a balance-scale. The Greeks got their pagan ideas about Thanatos from the ancient Egyptians.

In the Egyptian Book of the Dead, Anubis engages in the ‘Weighing of the Heart,’ in which he decides the fate of the dead by balancing on a giant scale his or her heart against a feather – the feather of Justice, the feather of Maat.

Two of these feathers, bound around a central element woven from ‘green’ plant stems represented the Egyptian trinity, and were shown on the triple Atef Crown of Osiris, the great sun-god of Egypt, worn by Pharaoh. It is from this deity and crown today the “three ostrich feathers” emblem of the Prince of Wales is originally derived. Statues of Osiris were green, to symbolize his sun-god power over the ancient world’s plant growth and his patronage of environmentalism.

The truth is, the Masonic, Roman Catholic Church and Church of England pagan deity, the Archangel St. Michael, is the literal ANGEL OF DEATH.

So it is not without significance that the new Lord Mayor of the City of London Corporation is elected each year on the Feast of St. Michael the Archangel – the Angel of Death.

Order of St Michael and St George, Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England and Prince Edward, Duke of Kent

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Order_of_St_Michael_and_St_George

Founded in 1818, one of the most important pagan Masonic orders of chivalry headed by the apostate British Sovereign is the Order of St Michael and St George. Appropriate really, as St Michael is in reality the Angel of Death, and St George is the “Christianized” supreme Roman sun-god Jupiter (more about St George following).

The Order of St Michael and St George is commonly awarded to individuals, both male and female alike, who have rendered important services to the Sovereign in relation to the Commonwealth or the City's dealings with foreign nations – to expand the City of London's global financial power and dominance through world trade.

From 1967 to the present, the Grand Master of the Order of St Michael and St George is Queen Elizabeth II's first cousin, Prince Edward, Duke of Kent. Also, standing in for the Queen, as global head of World Freemasonry, he is Grand Master of the United Grand Lodge of England.

For over 50 years Prince Edward Duke of Kent has carried out numerous royal duties for the Queen, although now, because of his health and age (80+), he has retired from many of these duties. He is a member of the Worshipful Company of Cloth-workers in the City of London and for many years was the Queen's Special Representative for International Trade and Investment.

Prince Edward, Duke of Kent is also a Royal Knight of The Most Noble Order of the Garter and St George.

Order of the Garter

The Order of the Garter, with its 26 members, and many “Supernumerary Members” worldwide comprise most of the real “ring leaders” of global “City of London banking piracy.”

The Most Noble Order of the Garter and St. George, founded in 1348 by King Edward III, is still the world's highest order of Freemasonry. The order is dedicated to England's patron Saint St George, and the Arms of the Order show a blue witch's garter surrounding the red colored Cross of St George. The motto of the order inscribed on the witch's garter is in French: “Honi soit qui mal y pense” ‘Shame on him who thinks evil of it.’

The Order is made up as a witch's coven, led by 26 members (2x13), at present headed by a Queen Witch and High Priestess, Her late Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, with a Vice-Royal Companion, HRH The Prince of Wales. The Order is limited to the Sovereign, the Prince of Wales, and no more than 24 companion members. One of the titles of the Sovereign of the Order of the Garter is: ‘Arch-treasurer of the Holy Roman Empire.’

During Order of the Garter ceremonies, the Sovereign wears a special gold collar about the neck, of a specified weight, thirty ounces troy. This, it is said, is in memory of the thirty pieces of silver for which Joseph was sold. The truth is, of course, Joseph was sold for twenty pieces of silver – and it was Judas Iscariot, the treasurer of the Lord's ministry, and one of his very own disciples who betrayed Jesus for thirty pieces of silver.

George means 'Earth worker.' 1st Corinthians 15:45-47 advises, “And so it is written, The first man Adam was made a living soul; the last Adam was made a quickening spirit.” ...“The first man is of the earth, earthy: the second man is the Lord from heaven.”

Membership of the Order is strictly limited, and the Sovereign alone appoints members to it.

As head of the Order, Queen Elizabeth II was known as the Sovereign of the Garter and the Prince of Wales is known as the Royal Knight Companion of the Garter. In addition to the full 26 members of the Order, there are what are called “Supernumerary Members,” who do not count towards the limit of 24 companions, but nevertheless are seconded members. These people include some of the most powerful and wealthy individuals in the world.

New appointments to the Order of the Garter are always announced on St George's Feast Day, April 23rd.

St George's Feast Day in ancient Rome celebrated on April 23rd each year was dedicated to the worship of JUPITER and called the Vinalia. THIS WAS THE GREATEST PAGAN FEAST IN ANCIENT ROME. It was held in honor of Jupiter as a type of “Messiah” of the grape vines and wine harvest. Hence, Jupiter, now “Christianized” and called St George, is the modern pagan counterfeit of Jesus Christ.

During his earthly ministry Jesus said to his disciples: “I am the true vine, and my Father is the husbandman... I am the vine, ye are the branches. He that abideth in me, and I in him, the same bringeth forth much fruit: for without me ye can do nothing.” -(John 15:1-5). Just before he was led away to be crucified he said to his disciples: “For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins. But I say unto you, I will not drink henceforth of this fruit of the vine, until that day when I drink it new with you in my Father's kingdom.” - (Matthew 26:28-29).

Around the time of Constantine in 323 AD, or shortly thereafter, the Roman Church “Christianized” this chief pagan feast to the god Jupiter of Rome, and changed his name to Saint George. Not only is St George (in truth JUPITER) patron saint of England, he is now the chief deity of many churches, countries, cities, and organizations all around the world. He is also patron saint of Moscow.

These individual members of the Order of the Garter comprise many of the top “ring leaders of global piracy – a CONS-PIRACY that has been metamorphosing over centuries and centuries and is now coming to a head quickly.

But their apostasy and hypocrisy gets worse.

Lord Mayor’s Banquet: Loving Cup and Holy Grail

The Lord Mayor’s Banquet takes place in Guildhall on the Monday after the Lord Mayor’s Show, and is an occasion where the Prime Minister normally attends and makes a speech on government policy. The Lord Mayor and two Sheriffs are joint hosts, and leading figures from throughout the City are guests.

During his year in office the Lord Mayor traditionally gives some eight dinners at Mansion House to various bodies and organizations such as the Masters and Prime Wardens of Livery Companies, the Diplomatic Corps, the Archbishop and Bishops, Her Majesty’s judges, and the bankers and merchants of the City of London.

An ancient ceremony that features at these Mansion House Dinners and also at most Livery Company Dinners in the City, is called the Loving Cup. This is a silver cup, filled with a spiced wine known as ‘sack,’ which is profanely passed around immediately after Grace.

Each diner drinks in turn and as he stands to do so, those on either side of him also stand. The holder of the Loving Cup bows to his neighbor on his left hand, who removes the cover with his right hand, and holds it while the guest drinks. At the same time the neighbor on the right faces outward, thus protecting the drinker’s back. The Cup is then passed to the left. And the procedure is repeated, so that there are always three people standing at the same time.

This abominable Christianized” Masonic, time-honored witchcraft ritual, which consecrates the drinker to the left-hand worship of the Babylonian sun-god Tammuz, Bel or Baal, supposedly is a reminder of the ancient days when assassins sometimes found this a convenient moment to strike a deadly blow at their Christian victim while his head was deep in a cup, and he could not see. Apparently, or so the story goes, King Edward the Martyr died this way in 978 while drinking from a stirrup cup offered to him by his stepmother, Elfrida, at Corfe Castle, Dorset.

However, those in the “know,” identify this brazen witchcraft ritual as representing something very much deeper – as a ritual of hate against Jesus Christ. Just as the Sovereign of the Order of the Garter defiantly wears the Gold Collar of thirty ounces troy acting in the role of Judas Iscariot deceptively claiming it represents Joseph – an Old Testament type of Jesus Christ. So, the Lord Mayor wears a Satanic Gold Chain of SS's around the neck, while celebrating the ritual of the Loving Cup in hate of both Joseph and Jesus Christ.

We remember, Joseph (who was an Old Testament 'type' of Jesus Christ) is the only person in the entire Bible who possessed a silver cup. After having been left for dead, he was betrayed and sold into Egypt by his very own brethren under the overruling right hand of God.

Like Jesus Christ, Joseph was thirty years old when he commenced his ministry (Genesis 41:46). During the famine Joseph revealed himself to his Brethren, the children of Israel, TWICE. The first time he revealed himself to his brethren, “they knew him not.” -(Genesis 42:8). At his first coming, Jesus revealed himself to his brethren, Israel, and as a nation, “they knew him not.”

Then, immediately before Joseph revealed himself to his brethren the second time, he instructed his steward to put his silver cup into young Benjamin's sack -(Genesis 44:2) before his brothers (Israel at Christ's second coming) had their eyes opened -(Genesis 45:12) and recognized and loved him. -(Genesis 45:14-15).

Is not this “loving silver cup” of Joseph's a picture of the “Passover cup” of Jesus Christ? “Likewise also the cup after supper, saying, This cup is the new testament in my blood, which is shed for you. But, behold, the hand of him that betrayeth me is with me on the table.” -(Luke 22:20-21).

Is not this ‘Loving Cup’ witchcraft ritual being blasphemously conducted by the Lord Mayor and Protestant Masonic fraternity in the City of London today, with the Lord Mayor's Fascist Gold Chain of SS's, and the apostates Queen's Order of the Garter 30 ounces troy Gold Collar, a treacherous memorial not to Joseph, but in actual fact to Judas Iscariot – the very hand that betrayed Jesus Christ?

In high level world witchcraft and Freemasonry in the City of London today – this “Loving Cup” is called the Holy Grail.

Stay tune for HRH Prince Charles deliver his Christmas message on December 12th, 2023. It has been pre-recorded from formal sources. As J.D. Farag's message last week was titled, “Be Prepared for the Unexpected!” might be appropriate from now until the delivery of HRH Prince Charles message!

CONFIRMING THE COVENANT

THE KING'S CHRISTMAS BROADCAST

The dates of Hanukkah are aligned with the timing of COP28! No Coincidence!

In the world of news, there is no good news, and so that is in fact a promising indicator of the Lord's intervention. I monitor sources from all areas of the world and society, and the best part of that is to sense the nearness of His Call for us to come up hither! I do a number of things to keep upbeat and positive.

Count down to 'Confirming the Covenant with the Many is merely a few more days'

Hanukkah 12/7/23 – 12/15/23
Days to end COP28 December 12th as of 12/7/23 – 5 days

Praise God!

ADMIT THAT YOU ARE A SINNER.

BELIEVE THAT JESUS
PAID FOR YOUR SIN
ON THE CROSS. †

CONFESS THAT JESUS IS LORD AND CALL UPON HIM FOR SALVATION.

Blessings in the Precious Name of Jesus Christ, Lord of lords, and King of kings!
