

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #304

Current Events through a Biblical World View!

The terrorist world is preparing to lead the world into the fulfillment of prophecy essential to End Times' prophecy -- A Useless proclamation of a Palestinian State.

NEWS BRIEF: "The world prepares to recognize a Hamas Palestinian state", World Israeli News, February 26, 2024

"Hamas, Islamic Jihad, the PLO's Palestinian Authority and the other Islamic terrorist groups who make up the official 'Palestinian' leadership have been invited for unity talks in Moscow (In February 26). The terrorist unity talks scheduled by the Putin regime for the end of February are a homecoming for a 'Palestinian' movement invented by Soviet propagandists. Mahmoud Abbas, the long-serving dictator of the PA ..."

Note that this effort is being implemented by Russia and, secretly, China, not America!

"But Russia and Qatar are not alone. The Biden administration and the European Union are all pushing for a 'Palestinian' state after they force a ceasefire. And that state will inevitably include Hamas."

"With polls showing that Hamas would handily win an election, if Abbas is serious this time that means recognizing a 'Palestinian' state will mean creating a Hamas state inside Israel."

To reiterate this most critical point:

*"... recognizing a 'Palestinian' state will mean creating a Hamas state inside Israel."
"The Biden administration, the European Union (for now only being held off by Hungary), Russia and the rest of the international community are preparing to reward Oct 7 with a terrorist state. A 'Palestinian' state will be a state of the terrorists, by the terrorists and for the terrorists ... What happens in the next weeks will hand the Islamic terrorists and their enablers either one of their greatest defeats or their greatest victory: a Hamas 'Palestinian' state."*

What does Bible prophecy declare what will happen?

"They shall call its nobles to proclaim the kingdom, but nothing shall be there, and all its princes shall be no more." -(Isaiah 34:12)

Thus, the timeline may have just gotten a lot clearer, don't you think?

What will likely occur is that the 'Terrorist Faction', led by Putin, will cooperate with the Western faction, led by Biden, to jointly officially declare a Palestinian State.

But, Israel, led by God, will veto this declaration, and nothing can come of it!

Before a Palestinian State can be announced, the current Palestinian Government must disappear:

NEWS BRIEF: "PA Govt Resigns"; Biden State Dept. pleads "No comment" on future Palestinian State", Israel365 News, February 27, 2024

"Matthew Miller, the U.S. State Department spokesman, declined to comment during the department's press briefing on Monday about the resignation of the Palestinian Authority government."

" 'Miller added that the Biden administration welcomes 'steps for the P.A. to reform and revitalize itself' ... "Are the resignations part of the steps toward reform?" Matthew Lee, the diplomatic reporter for the Associated Press, asked Miller smiling."

"President Abbas has said he is going to take steps towards reforming and revitalizing the Palestinian Authority. He has said that directly to the secretary, and we welcome him taking those steps," Miller said.

In other words, President Biden seems to merely be "kicking the proverbial can down the road", not forcing any firm conclusion.

The fact is that the Palestinian Authority is identical to Hamas and does even more to brutalize and to terrorize Jews throughout the land. Saying that Palestinian Authority President Abbas is any more upright than is the Hamas collective leadership is to say that the black hungry wolf is any less dangerous than the white hungry wolf!

Bill Gates Praises India's Sweeping Digital ID System as a Model for Other Nations

India's digital ID system may have its critics among those opposed to digitization of people's identities, but it has received praise from Bill Gates as one of the country's innovations that are "changing the world."

Gates, as well as EU and UN officials, refers to such systems as digital public infrastructure (DPI) - a buzzword for introduction of digital ID and payments by 2030.

Gates announced on his blog that he is visiting India, and made sure to note that the Gates Foundation is involved in what he calls "efforts that are saving millions of lives."

This is a reference to India's production of another of Gates' "passions" - vaccines. As for DPI, Gates expressed his "admiration" for the country's massive biometric identity DPI component, Aadhaar, and the fact that over 12 billion transactions are processed by it.

And, the Microsoft founder has another "passion" - agriculture. He made sure to note that he would be visiting a monitoring center where agriculture meets Aadhaar. More whopping numbers: the government uses the center in Odisha that has a registry of 7.5 million farmers to give them "real-time guidance," Gates said.

It sounds like a surveillance state dream, at least as far as the "right" infrastructure is concerned: "Officials can keep track of who is growing what," Gates continued, but he says this is done for the sake of providing those farmers with "advice."

It has almost become a rule that projects like DPI effectively get tested in developing countries, orchestrated by globalist financial institutions like the World Bank.

Gates mentions that the developments around the implementation of DPI in Odisha are monitored by the World Bank, as well as Ethiopia and Sri Lanka, ostensibly in order for the example to be replicated there.

Related: Indian citizens that don't link account numbers to Digital ID will soon face financial blacklisting

Last fall, the United Nations Development Program (UNDP) unveiled a campaign called "50-in-5" that aims to "help" 50 countries "design, launch, and scale components of their digital public infrastructure."

This effort is one of those where the Gates Foundation shows up as a partner, while the program is supposed to promote "safe, inclusive and interoperable DPI" introduction in those countries.

When the campaign was announced, India was mentioned as a "success story" in the world of DPIs, while Africa was singled out as a particular target for "greater development of DPI." Bill Gates has since called for all nations to adopt the Indian digital ID system, no surprise there! I would expect nothing less from this demonic creep who has such a checkered past other than to be one of the world's richest individuals.

Bill Gates' 'Self-Spreading mRNA Vaccines' Are 'Ready to Deploy'

Hunter Fielding February 26, 2024

A new form of “self-spreading mRNA vaccines” has been developed that will allow governments to vaccinate entire populations without the need for injections or individuals’ consent.

The new technology, which was developed by Microsoft co-founder Bill Gates and his various organizations, is now reportedly “ready to deploy” to the public.

Investigative reporter Jefferey Jaxen brought the alarming reality to light on The Highwire.

Jaxen explains that Gates’s new technology means the ability to “vaccinate” the entire world without injecting large amounts of the population is upon us. What we’re referring to is self-spreading vaccines, a technology that was almost ready to be deployed for the coronavirus pandemic.

However, it was ultimately passed at the time for mRNA injections instead. So, it would be naive to think, four years later, that global health authorities wouldn’t push for its use in the event of another “global health crisis.”

The only thing stopping the mass use of this technology is this pesky thing known as informed consent. But the reality is, as evidenced by the COVID era, informed consent is not what it used to be.

The whole idea behind self-spreading vaccines is largely grounded in circumventing informed consent. Scientists like to refer to members of the general public consenting to vaccines as “behavioral barriers.”

A scientific paper from Timothy Notton et al. notes:

“Infectious disease control faces significant challenges including: how to therapeutically target the highest-risk populations, circumvent behavioral barriers, and overcome pathogen persistence and resistance mechanisms.”

“In a study from November, the Department of Health stated that self-spreading techniques could eliminate ‘vaccine delay.’”

The U.S. military and DARPA have also been researching self-spreading vaccines before Gates finally brought the technology to the market. DARPA, in particular, has been exploring antivirals to “evolve” in real-time against new viral strains.

However, if a self-spreading vaccine mutates in an unforeseen way, it could potentially pose grave risks for the entire population.

Attorney Aaron Siri issued a warning about self-spreading vaccines soon being deployed to the public.

“With this product, the whole idea is they release it to basically one person, and it spreads to every single person on the globe.

“So if they mess it up one time, just once, just once, they can mess up the entire world,” he emphasized.

“What might even be the biggest victim ... if they ever release this thing, it’s going to be civil, individual rights... “Here, they’re going to release a product where you’re going to have no choice effectively but to take it.

“That is the ultimate crushing of individual and civil rights.”

Here’s How Russia Could Hit Back If West Seizes Assets

By Ilya Tsukanov – Sputnik – 27.02.2024

Some $300 billion in Russian assets were trapped abroad in 2022 after the escalation of the Ukrainian crisis into a full-on NATO-Russia proxy war. Western officials have threatened to seize these funds and transfer them to Ukraine for “reconstruction.” A pair of leading Russian economists tell Sputnik why that’s a very bad idea.

Treasury Secretary Janet Yellen has called on nations of the Western “coalition” against Moscow to “find a way to unlock the value of [Russia’s] immobilized assets to support Ukraine’s continued resistance and long-term reconstruction.”

“I believe there is a strong international law, economic and moral case for moving forward. This would be a decisive response to Russia’s unprecedented threat to global stability,” Yellen said at a meeting of G20 finance ministers and central bank governors in Sao Paulo, Brazil on Tuesday.

Tackling the question of the potential threats to the dollar’s status as the de facto world reserve currency that such an unprecedented move would entail, Yellen said that it it’s “extremely unlikely” that the greenback would be negatively affected. “Realistically there are not alternatives to the dollar, euro and yen,” she assured.

Yellen is the latest senior Western official to propose moving forward with the seizure of Russian assets as Western countries’ own desire to continue fueling the Ukrainian proxy war against Russia falters. Earlier this month, the European Union adopted a law allowing Brussels to bank windfall profits from Russian assets trapped in European banks and use them in Ukraine, a move characterized by Moscow as blatant “theft” which will be met with legal action.

Russian officials and independent economic observers alike have warned of the possible consequences stemming from what Yellen is proposing, with Russian finance minister Anton Siluanov saying Moscow has the means to issue a “symmetrical” response to this form of Western financial aggression.

"We have no fewer frozen [assets than Western countries]," Siluanov said in an interview with Sputnik on Monday. "Any actions taken against our assets would receive a symmetrical response."

Mechanism for Tit-For-Tat Response Already Exists

"Russia has already taken conservatorship of assets of a number of foreign companies which refused to operate in Russia," Dr. Andrei Kolganov, a professor of economics at Moscow State University and chief researcher at the Russian Academy of Sciences' Institute of Economics, told Sputnik, commenting on the folly of the West's asset seizure plans.

This instrument was already used against foreign investors with an ownership stake in the Baltika Beer Company, as well as the assets of Finnish energy concern Fortum, the professor noted.

"So in principle, the mechanism for the confiscation of foreign assets has already been worked out. Moving from conservatorship to confiscation is, in principle, a fairly simple technical procedure. The amount of assets that are 'frozen' on the territory of the Russian Federation, or which may be frozen, is now estimated at approximately $288 billion," Kolganov explained.

In other words, the professor said, Russia has control over a big chunk of Western assets which, if the U.S. and its allies proceed with confiscation, "will not escape to the West, but will work here in Russia, because we are talking about investment, first and foremost, in the manufacturing sector."

From there, these assets could become the property of the Russian state, or be transferred to Russian private owners and continue to work as before.

Confiscation of assets of Western companies in Russia would seriously impact their respective bottom lines, meaning they could try to put pressure on governments, both in their home countries and in Russia, to try to avoid having their capital seized.

"We have a lot of foreign companies working in Russia, including those from so-called unfriendly countries. We have more than 50 decently-sized American firms alone working here, and plenty of European companies," Dr. Georgy Ostapkovich, director of the Center for Market Research at the Institute of Statistical Research and Economics of Knowledge at Russia's Higher School of Economics, told Sputnik.

Sorry Yellen, Seizing Assets Won't Crash Russian Economy

Kolganov says that as unpleasant as a seizure of Russia's assets abroad might be it would not serve to tank the country's economy, with Moscow able to continue its international payments using its sizable and healthy foreign exchange earnings after reorienting its trade toward developing countries. The money frozen in Western banks constitutes reserves, which “were not actively used for international trade and international payments” anyway, the professor explained.

“For private businesses, the confiscation of assets would create a pretty big hole in their earnings and budgets. Therefore, it would be a rather sensitive measure if Russia had to resort to it in response to the confiscation of its assets,” the economist added.

Dr. Ostapkovich emphasizes that Moscow will have to be strategic and precise in the foreign assets it may choose to seize, to avoid the risk of friendly countries and companies doing business in Russia feeling threatened.

“Every operation” on Russia’s part “must take place with the help of legal services, that is, through the courts,” the veteran economist said. “We are a state based on the rule of law, and cannot just go ahead and close them, because they will naturally go to court. Moreover, they will file in the London court, which judges according to Anglo-Saxon law. This is case law. They will look for a precedent.”

In other words, Ostapkovich stressed, Moscow should expect a tug of war on the international stage regarding the seizure of assets by the West and Russia’s tit-for-tat response.

Pandora’s Box of Damage to the Dollar

In his interview with Sputnik, Russia’s finance minister mentioned the promising transition away from Western currencies in favor of new currencies among the world’s rising economies, especially China.

“The Chinese are reducing their holdings of American securities. This is a consequence of what’s happening [to Russia, ed.] The reliability of the dollar and the euro has been undermined,” Siluanov said.

And while it may be too early to speak about the collapse of the dollar or euro as a result of a decision to seize the assets of a sizable economy like Russia, Kolganov confirmed that it has the potential to seriously undermine Western reserve currencies’ reputation in a big way.

“The yuan’s share in international transactions has doubled over the past two years, but doubled to only about 4.6 percent of the total. This is not a huge amount, but still, an upward trend exists. The share of rubles in international payments has also increased, mainly in the form of payments with our country... Nevertheless, a gradual move away from the dollar will of course take place. Because here we’re talking not only about the confiscation of assets, which will undermine confidence in payments made in reserve currencies. Because any country and any central bank may feel threatened that if the geopolitical situation changes, they could be treated in a similar way.”

The problem is exacerbated by the fact that the United States and Europe are facing a loss of economic confidence at home, with the former facing debt levels that are off the charts, which in the future could cause serious shocks to the entire global dollar system, Kolganov noted.

Recipe for Action

Russia can already move forward with tit-for-tat measures against the Europeans over Brussels' law allowing the seizure and use of the interest earned on Russian assets frozen in Western banks, Ostapkovich says, noting if the EU moves forward with the seizures, Moscow could similarly start shaving dividends and interest on European companies operating in Russia.

Government Ordered Doctors to Kill Patients to Boost Covid Fears

Hunter Fielding February 27, 2024

Several doctors have come forward to blow the whistle with bombshell statements alleging they were ordered by the government to kill patients and list the cause of their deaths as "Covid" in order to boost fears about the virus among the general public.

The effort sought to create panic among populations in order to force compliance with lockdowns, vaccine mandates, and other tyrannical restrictions on public freedoms.

Doctors revealed that they have been living in fear since the pandemic over their own role in the conspiracy but can no longer remain silent on one of the greatest crimes against humanity the world has ever seen.

One of the whistleblowers is a veteran pharmacist with more than three decades of experience working for the United Kingdom's taxpayer-funded National Health Service (NHS).

He says that doctors in Great Britain were told to roll out "just-in-case" killer drugs after learning that a novel disease for which there was no treatment had "escaped" from China. That disease would later be called COVID-19.

Graham Atkinson, also a pharmaceutical industry consultant, decided to quit the profession in October 2021 after witnessing what his country's government was doing by ordering doctors to basically kill patients with drugs like midazolam.

"I watched while this happened," Atkinson recalls about the horrors he saw with his own eyes during that time.

Based on the presumption that there would be outbreaks of the then-novel disease in care homes just prior to the first lockdown in early March 2020, midazolam and other "just-in-case" drugs were being administered to end the lives of possibly infected patients on purpose.

"Lots of things changed nationally in early March," Atkinson added.

“The death certification rules were changed.

“The cremation rules were changed, and the NICE guidelines.”

Kill Every Patient Who Tests Positive for Covid

One of the key changes that Atkinson observed was the NICE NG163 guideline, which was changed to allow for those who tested “positive” for COVID to “die more comfortably” with “a good death.”

“The National Institute for Clinical Excellence (‘NICE’) is an executive non-departmental public body, sponsored by the UK Department of Health and Social Care (‘DHSC’),” explains The Exposé about the group behind the changes.

It is an agency of the National Health Service (‘NHS’) and develops guidance and recommendations on the effectiveness of treatments and medical procedures.

On Oct. 13, 2020, later in the year, NG163 was replaced with NG161, though an archived copy of the former is available on the Wayback Machine.

The “just-in-case” drugs that UK doctors were told to administer to their “COVID-infected” patients are designed to reduce breathing and render the patient unconscious – “and then there are drugs to reduce your anxiety before that,” Atkinson explained.

“There are five drugs that are used that are commonly called the ‘just-in-case’ drugs,” Atkinson further said.

“For years, these have been used for cancer patients or maybe somebody with COPD, a respiratory disease that are ... struggling to breathe, so they get very distressed just before they die.

“So, there are drugs to help them feel less anxious about not being able to breathe, drugs to reduce their pain, drugs to relax them, and midazolam, as we know, takes away your consciousness.”

When used in tandem, in other words, these five drugs basically euthanize the patient, killing them in a more peaceful way.

“It’s going to progress you rapidly towards your final days because [your final days are] expected,” Atkinson continued. All of this, mind you, was based on the lie that there were no viable treatments for the novel disease, which the world would later learn is not the case.

Ivermectin, hydroxychloroquine, and other remedies did, in fact, help many patients who thought they had COVID recovered without issue.

"We now know all this is false, but what was being told to clinicians at the time was this is a new novel disease," Atkinson said.

"Because this was the time when people were being put on ventilators and were expiring rapidly around the world." "You know we were all seeing it on our TV."

The COVID "pandemic" will likely go down in history as the worst covert genocide to ever occur.

Unfortunately this is not the first report of state sanctioned genocide, as over the past four years I have shared dozens of reports confirming the powers at be do not want to save lives but rather shorten and end life for the elderly. There is now an abundant list of whistle blowers and independent health and medical sources that are on record to state the governments are deeply involved in the murder of their elderly citizens,

A world-renowned professor has given an explosive testimony to expose the globalist agenda behind the Covid vaccinations.

Dr. Harvey Risch testified before a United States Senate hearing that the World Economic Forum (WEF), the United Nations (UN), the World Health Organization (WHO), the Biden administration, and Bill Gates's various organizations have been secretly pushing to force-vaccinate the entire world's population in order to advance their globalist agenda.

Risch makes a damning case that the global push to force vaccinate the world was a strategic move to protect the bioweapons industry from scrutiny and justify its existence.

During his testimony, Risch stated:

"So my hypothesis, what I believe, is that both the virus origin cover-up and the forced vaccination of the entire planet were orchestrated to protect the integrity of the bioweapons industry."

"Once the general public understood the reckless and cavalier behavior of this industry that had operated under a false and misrepresented pretense of vaccine development that has never been successfully commercially realized, it would then clamor to shut down the industry."

"And so, the suppression of knowledge of the industry's reckless involvement in the Wuhan leak is an obvious cover-up. And we have proof of that cover-up from the FOIA documents involving Fauci, Collins, Jeremy Farrar, and others."

U.S. Sen. Ron Johnson led a roundtable discussion titled, "Federal Health Agencies and the COVID Cartel: What Are They Hiding?" where a panel of experts exposed the truth about Covid.

The speakers exposed how the Covid Cartel – federal health agencies, Big Pharma, legacy media, and Big Tech – engaged in censorship and cover-ups.

This discussion also shone a light on the failures and corruption of the global elite and their institutions.

SPEAKERS:

Senator Ron Johnson
Dr. Robert Malone, MD
Dr. Jessica Rose, PhD
Mr. Ed Dowd
Mr. Kevin McKernan
Dr. David Gortler, PharmD
Dr. Harvey Risch, MD, PhD
Ms. Barbara Loe Fisher
Dr. Brian Hooker, PhD
Mr. Del Bigtree
Dr. Sabine Hazan, MD
Dr. Pierre Kory, MD
Dr. Christian Perronne, MD, PhD
Dr. Raphael Lataster, PhD
Ms. Lara Logan
Mr. Jason Christoff
Mr. Rodney Palmer
Dr. Mattias Desmet, PhD
Dr. Bret Weinstein, PhD
Mr. Randy Hillier
Dr. Sorin Titus Muncaciu
Mr. Rob Roos
Mr. Phillip Kruse

24,000 US Army positions cut amid recruitment woes

FEBRUARY 27, 2024 TIMOTHY FRUDD

The United States Army is reducing the size of its force by roughly 24,000 troops as the military service continues to struggle to meet recruitment goals.

According to a new document on the structural transformation of the U.S. Army, the decrease in the size of military service is intended to position the Army to be better equipped to fight future wars. While the document outlined multiple ways the Army is planning to invest in a restructuring of the force, it claimed that force reductions were necessary.

“While making these investments and adding formations, the Army must also reduce force structure to protect readiness in light of decreased end strength,” the Army stated.

“The Army is currently significantly over-structured, meaning there are not enough soldiers to fill out existing units and organizations.”

Fox News reported that a considerable portion of the jobs that will be eliminated by the Army were counter-insurgency positions that increased during the Iraq War and Afghanistan War. The Army noted that most of the positions are already empty and that the Army “is not asking current soldiers to leave.”

The Army added, “As the Army builds back end strength over the next few years, most installations will likely see an increase in the number of soldiers actually stationed there.”

The Army’s plan includes the reduction of approximately 10,000 positions connected with counter-insurgency operations, 2,700 positions from units that are not regularly deployed, and 6,500 additional posts and training positions. Additionally, roughly 10,000 positions from cavalry squadrons, security force assistance brigades, and infantry brigade combat teams, and Stryker brigade combat teams will be cut.

On the other hand, the Army’s plan also announced the addition of 7,500 troops for critical operations, such as counter-drone units, air-defense units, and five new task forces.

The Army’s plan to reduce the size of its military force comes amid persistent recruitment challenges that have resulted in the Army missing its recruitment goals over the past two years.

The Department of Defense previously reported that the Army, Navy, and Air Force fell short of their recruitment goals for Fiscal Year 2023, which ended in September. While the Army gained over 50,000 recruits, it was well short of its goal of 65,000 new recruits. According to The Associated Press, the Army also missed its Fiscal Year 2022 recruitment goal by roughly 15,000 troops.

The Army announced that while the current structure of the military service is designed to have 494,000 soldiers, the total number of active-duty soldiers is currently 445,000. Based on the restructuring plan, the Army is striving to achieve a goal of 470,000 active-duty troops by Fiscal Year 2029.

The real reason for the cuts in Regular Army forces is really all about money and the absence of it. This is a story where the pig gets the lipstick. The current military budget is the largest in history at $842 billion dollars. Recruiting is and has been a major problem since O’Brien stole the election in 2020. Fewer young people see the military as the avenue for serving their country because of the senile CEO at 1600 Pennsylvania Ave., where the military is the laughing stock of the world. Between CRT and gender equality issues the leaders of the politicized military has turned priorities upside down!

A number of U.S. military branches have struggled to entice new enlistees, the Army facing the worst of it. The Army has continuously lowered its standards to increase their ranks, such as no longer screaming at the recruits, and allowing greater flexibility on weight limits and tattoos. The Army has been so desperate to shovel in fresh soldiers they have resorted to using E-girls to entice young men to enlist.

Meanwhile, the Army is having trouble keeping itself funded. As noted in an exclusive report by CNN last week, the Army has been left to flip the bill in order to support Ukraine's defense against Russia, leaving officials concerned that they will be forced divert funds from other areas to continue to support Ukraine.

CNN wrote: 'Without a 2024 budget approved by Congress, and without additional funding specifically for Ukraine, the command has roughly $3 billion to pay for $5 billion of operations costs, a second senior Army official explained. That includes not only the operations related to Ukraine support — training and ferrying weapons and equipment to Poland and Ukraine — but other operations for the U.S. command throughout Europe and Africa.'

A senior Army official explained the veracity of the situation to CNN:

"If we don't get a base budget, if we don't get Ukraine supplemental [funding package], if the government shuts down, if we get nothing else and nothing changes from today ... we will run out of (operations and maintenance) funding in May.

We would cease to exist, (if these funds were not allocated from elsewhere within the Army's budget)."

The Army official said. Those operations include training exercises for Army forces in Europe and Africa and equipment moving into the theater. Contracts also wouldn't be paid on time and would garner penalty fees, he added.

Army Secretary Christine Wormuth told CNN she expects the Army would "have to sort of rob Peter to pay Paul."

Every incremental dollar I have, it's very important where I put that dollar. And I'm constantly choosing between, do we put it on barracks? Do I put it on enlistment incentives? Do I put it on exercises? Do I put it on modernization? I don't have spare cash to be just sort of donating some of that.

This was money that we anticipated to be replenished, obviously, by the supplemental. This is just embarrassing. We've examined a number of instances of how the U.S. military is deliberately being weakened, and this is another example. To think that the Army is running out of money and needs more of it, just so we can go fund a Neo-Nazi country run by a literal actor playing President, that's getting smoked right now, and have a lot of this money fall into corrupt official's hands, is just astounding.

Putin's World War III Warning: "If Ukraine Joins NATO, you won't even have time to Blink Your Eye when you Execute Article 5"

Most of us are so concerned about our own lives that we are unaware that political leaders seem fully committed to dragging us into another catastrophic world war. Leaders around the world continually incite war in Ukraine and are about to cross a line that can never be uncrossed. However, since they are basically playing with fire, they won't be the only ones who suffer if they take things too far.

This week we learned that Jens Stoltenberg, the Secretary General of NATO, an intergovernmental military alliance, announced this week that Ukraine will be the organization's newest member. In response, Russian President Vladimir Putin said that if Ukraine were to join NATO, they wouldn't even have time to blink when they carried out Article 5. In other words, there is a risk that NATO and Russia will escalate their rhetoric to the point where it sparks World War III. If they carry out their threats, there is no doubt that a global war will break out.

NATO is saying that they will expand their military alliance by accepting Ukraine into membership. This means that NATO's power and influence would reach the border with Russia, which might lead to the stationing of NATO forces and weapons in Ukraine. Russia claims that this would be a problem that they will not tolerate. Instead of de-escalating the situation, why are world leaders agitating for more war and conflict? Why would they do this? This is a very dangerous game that will only lead to more death and destruction.

Many of us are aware that a very chaotic chapter in human history is about to begin. Although the last few years have undoubtedly been quite unprecedented, the years ahead of us will bring things to a completely new level. What we are actually witnessing are the signs of the second coming of Jesus. Numerous biblical and prophetic verses give us a glimpse into the events that will precede the glorious return of Jesus in the clouds of heaven.

“Why do the nations rage and the peoples plot in vain? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the Lord.” –(Psalm 2:1-2)

Here, with prophetic accuracy, the Bible describes the nations of the earth during the end-times as a tumultuous assembly, raging with violent commotion and with fury like the raging of the sea. Most of these acts, if not all, are described as being “against the Lord.” This means that, for the most part, the nations will be scheming to resist God’s moral law, His authority, and His plan for our lives. This is leading to all sorts of strange events, social agitations, armed conflicts, threats of war, and demonstrations that once again show how completely unsettled our world is.

“There is no peace, saith the LORD, unto the wicked.” –(Isaiah 48:22)

As the nation’s marshal their forces together to wage war against their “supposed” enemies, the Bible takes our thoughts forward to the day when God will bring about the final destruction of all the enemies of Christ.

“And they shall go into the holes of the rocks, and into the caves of the earth, for fear of the LORD, and for the glory of his majesty, when he ariseth to shake terribly the earth.” –(Isaiah 2:19)

It is folly when men make threats of annihilating millions of people who are the “enemies” of our civilization. How will those who threaten the lives of so many be able to hide from the wrath of God when He rises up to shake the earth? Where will they hide and find shelter? The shaking of the earth will be a terrible ordeal to all those whose hearts and minds are set on the affections of the things of this world.

“Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth...When Christ, [who is] our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory.”—(Colossians 3:2, 4)

Christ is the only shelter and refuge for any sinner who wants to escape the coming judgment against sin. Jesus is the only cover from the wind, both in this life and in the life to come. Idolatry, selfishness, greed, pride, and evil will be brought down—either by the grace of Christ when we open our hearts to Him or in the great day of the Lord when He comes to end rebellion and sin. The day of the Lord will be both the most glorious day and the most awful day. Glorious to those who put their trust in Him, and terrible to those who have rejected the warnings from a loving God.

“Because I have called, and ye refused; I have stretched out my hand, and no man regarded; But ye have set at nought all my counsel, and would none of my reproof: I also will laugh at your calamity; I will mock when your fear cometh; When your fear cometh as desolation, and your destruction cometh as a whirlwind; when distress and anguish cometh upon you. Then shall they call upon me, but I will not answer; they shall seek me early, but they shall not find me: For that they hated knowledge, and did not choose the fear of the LORD.”—(Proverbs 1:24-29)

The current situation, with all the talk of nuclear conflagration, is a crisis that should only awaken us to our senses. As we hear of all these terrible reports of war, murder, robberies, shootings, and tragedies, these are all indications that we need to be preparing for the second coming of the Lord.

Fluoride Action Network SUING to stop water fluoridation nationwide

By Ethan Huff / Feb 27, 2024

A landmark legal case against artificial water fluoridation in the United States is moving forward with mostly flying colors as the illustrious Michael Connett of Waters Kraus and Paul is asking the court system: Does fluoridation present an unreasonable risk of neurodevelopmental effects?

If successful, the case, said to be airtight and "near impossible to argue against," to quote the advocacy group Fluoride Alert, will force the Environmental Protection Agency (EPA) to take action to address the risk, as required by law. It has the potential to end artificial water fluoridation all across America.

Simply put, fluoridation chemicals are drugs, which means Americans are entitled under the law to informed consent. This means that public water systems would no longer be allowed to automatically fluoridate everyone's water without each household's express permission.

Every American household that currently receives fluoridated water would have to be informed of the risks involved with consuming the drug, which has been linked to decreased IQ in children, neurodevelopmental damage and other health problems.

"Fluoridating the water supply is a de facto medication, administered with the alleged goal of promoting dental health," Fluoride Alert says. "The government does not solicit informed consent from the patient (the public) prior to dumping fluoride into the water supply."

"The government is in violation of informed consent."

Fluoride damages the brain! We know from copious scientific research that the chemical fluoride drugs added to public water supplies across the United States accumulate in regions of the brain responsible for memory and learning. This is especially problematic in young, developing children, but is also toxic to adults.

The current maximum contaminant level goal (MCLG) for fluoride is 4 mg/L, a level that is not at all protective against the drug's adverse effects on the brain. Of the 18 published studies that provide water fluoride concentrations, 13 of them found deficits at levels below the MCLG, the average elevated level being just 2.3 mg/L, and the lowest being a mere 0.8 mg/L.

What this means is most Americans who live in fluoridated cities, towns and communities are drinking far more fluoride than what established science says is at the lower end of what causes brain damage in babies, infants, children and adults.

"Exposure to fluoride is associated with reduced intelligence in children," warns The 'Journal of Neurosciences in Rural Practice'. "We have found a significant inverse relationship between intelligence and the water fluoride level, and intelligence and the urinary fluoride level."

If Washington was really in the business of protecting the public interest, it would immediately and voluntarily remove all fluoride drugs from public water supplies. Instead, the establishment is fighting tooth and nail to keep fluoride flowing through people's taps.

"The question must be asked: what interest would the government have in lowering the IQ of the public it oversees?" asks independent journalist Ben Bartee. "How would a lobotomized public serve its interests, in this, Our Sacred Democracy™?"

"Is the benefit merely limited to generating more MSNBC viewers?" Bartee further jokes.

It is important to note further that water fluoridation is not currently supported with a Medical Product's License, despite continued establishment claims that the drug is perfectly safe and effective for Americans to consume from the tap, shower with, water their lawns with and bathe their babies in.

"When derived from air pollution scrubbers, the fluoride is also not purified to pharmaceutical standards," one of Bartee's Substack readers also noted. "So it still contains other neurotoxins as well as heavy metals such as arsenic, beryllium, cadmium, lead and mercury."

[Drinking fluoride chemicals is dangerous. It has never prevented tooth decay as was originally promoted. Without going into greater detail here, it became the primary reason that I began drinking distilled water more than fifty years ago. When I became disabled from wireless-induced energy and unable to do the shopping, I ordered a water distiller and began making my own distilled water in my kitchen. Every few days my wife now handles the process of distilling tap water from the local water authority. If you choose to buy distilled water from Walmart or other retailers, you can be confident that it is really distilled water. Distilled water is usually used in medical settings where they need the purest water possible without any possible contaminants. Since distilled water is required for medical devices such as a C-pap machine, oxygen assistance or steam irons there are EPA federal laws regulating water.

Since 95% of American water sources are unhealthy, there are trade-off issues to consider. The use of distilled water does remove the so-called minerals and other nutrients and does get a bad rap on the Internet. With vitamins and supplements, one can replace what is lost from distilling water. One needs to consider that most water sources in the U.S. are known as hard water, and there is a high risk for kidney stones and other chemicals from using tap water. Tap water contributes a whole clientele for the Urologists. I happen to live in a region known for its limestone and sandstone which both contribute to kidney stones. Then there is the Flint, Michigan story where the water is anything but drinkable.

Two weeks ago the husband of a family member required medical intervention for a 9mm kidney stone. The medical bill was $44,000 and even with good health-care insurance he still had a balance of over $2,000 that was his to pay. How they removed it was interesting but that is for another time. You can prevent kidney stones and urinary tract infections by drinking lemon-water or take a supplement of lemon peel. Swanson's Vitamin Supplements sells a Full Spectrum Lemon Peel 400 Milligrams 60 Capsules (2 month's supply) for less than $8.00.

The one thing that the various Internet public health sites have in common in their "knocking" distilled water is they only give a biased one-sided view. For example, contaminants found in public drinking water include:

- microorganisms and bacteria, which occur naturally and in animal waste
- disinfectants like chlorine, which treatment plants add to water to eliminate microbes
- inorganic chemicals like arsenic, asbestos, and copper, which leach into water systems from the ground
- organic chemicals like herbicides that come from crop runoff

For more information on the Pros and Cons of distilled water, I recommend this site:

Water Tech Advice

<https://watertechadvice.com/is-distilled-water-safe-to-drink>

I was diagnosed January 8th of 2024 with aggressive bladder cancer and have chosen to follow the track of dealing with it like 25% of those who refuse Chemo, Radiation, or Cutting; by following a regimen of nutrition, supplements, and a Naturopathic Medicine alternative. The surgeon told my wife that if I did not go with their treatment I would be dead in a year.

I have long outlived the promise of Psalm 90:10 and as such I have nothing to lose by following the regimen I have chosen. For me the quality of life is more important than is quantity of life. The Lord has greatly blessed me and I know where I am going and so I trust His plan for me. I was hoping to make the Rapture Departure and it is always possible that I still might make it with the unfolding events around the world and especially with Israel's Grand Plan now moving to the forefront. Time is growing short for all of us on this earth. Israel is as I write has stepped up it's bombing of Damascus.

Hamas boldly predicts more brutal attacks like Oct 7!

"Incitement Against Israel In Qatari Press Continues: Only More Attacks Like October 7 Will Restrain It: Conflict Will End Only With Disappearance Of Israel", MEMRI.com, Feb 28, 2024.

"Only More Operations Like October 7 Will Restrain Israel; The Exalted Goal Is The Liberation Of All Of Palestine."

More military attacks like the one on October 7, 2023, where innocent blood was shed by the bucket-full as civilians were butchered and then dismembered, decapitated, and then slaughtered.

Female babies were also brutally raped by grown men.

Women of all ages were routinely raped and brutalized.

At first, the world was repelled by the terrorist camera footage, and leaders from all areas of the world were united in condemnation. But, then, as the world repeatedly watched the footage over and over and over, the brutality seemed to lessen until today, tens of thousands of Westerners were more controlled by the ancient hatred for God's people.

Today, the world could accept a repeat of the attacks of Oct. 7th, destined to be repeated until every Jew is eradicated!

Israel even expects Ramadan attacks, even against the Dome of the Rock!

"Defense Minister Yoav Gallant said that terror groups are seeking to leverage the upcoming Ramadan as an opportunity for further terror attacks targeting Israel. The groups are looking to take advantage of increased Muslim sensitivity towards perceived Israeli aggressions during the month-long Islamic festival, he said."

If Arab "sensitivity" does not produce an outpouring of love and support for the Jews slain on that day -- if it only produces more hate -- then we know for certain that this entire movement is rotten to the core and ripe for God's judgment!

" Hamas's main goal is to take Ramadan, with an emphasis on the Temple Mount and Jerusalem, and turn it into the second phase of their plan that began on October 7," said Gallant.

" 'This is the main goal of Hamas, it is being amplified by Iran and Hezbollah," he continued. 'We must not give Hamas what it has not been able to achieve since the beginning of the war and converge the combat fronts.'"

"Ben-Gvir has proposed barring the entry of Palestinian Authority residents and Israeli Muslims under the age of 60 from the Temple Mount during Ramadan. Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has reportedly agreed to that policy..."

If Arafat revealed that he had plans to destroy the Palestinian's holy places that is most assuredly the Illuminist plan by which World War III will be started. If the Dome of the Rock (al Aqsa Mosque) were to be destroyed, all 1.2 billion Muslims in the world would fly into such a rage that, instantly, Jerusalem would become the "Cup of Trembling" foretold in Zechariah 12.

The Illuminati does, indeed, plan to destroy the Dome of the Rock so that the Antichrist can proceed on to the Temple Mount, in order to be duly proclaimed as Jewish Messiah and be enthroned. Listen:

"Consequently, the New David (Antichrist) will have simply to be acclaimed as such (as Messiah) as he enters the Haram es-Sharif by the Golden Gate ... long centuries of Jewish tradition maintain that the future Messiah will, indeed, enter Jerusalem via this very gate ... True, he must duly be enthroned and anointed with oil ... amid the rubble of the Dome of the Rock, close to the site of the former Holy of Holies." ('The Armageddon Script', by Peter Lemesurier, pg. 235)

At long last, the global Fraternity of Freemasonry led by HRH Prince Charles can begin to construct the new Temple, the Temple of Antichrist, which the Masons will call the restored Temple of Solomon. The Global Freemasons MUST rebuild Solomon's Temple or they believe they will wither and die.

If I were the Arabs carrying out attacks against Israel, I would rightly be concerned that leadership is too concerned by their secret Jewish-based plans to rebuild that Third Temple!

Arabs just might suffer a back-stabbing attack just when they believed their war might succeed! Ramadan begins Sunday, March 10 (in 9 days) and ends Monday, April 8, 2024.

Now if you have been following all the articles about the April 8th, 2024 Great Eclipse, various indicators suggest that war will break out and that it will spill over into the Muslim world; and breaking out with the Isaiah 17:1-2 and Ezekiel 38/39 scenarios. Be on guard and alert to the events forecasted to coalesce over the coming weeks.

Today (February 29th) marks exactly 40 days until the Total Solar Eclipse on April 8th 2024 that forms the “X” over America as it goes through Jonah, Texas and Jonah, Oklahoma as well as through all the towns named Nineveh and RAPTURE, Indiana.

Jonah 3:4- Yet 40 days, and Nineveh shall be overthrown.

Daniel 8:19- For at the TIME APPOINTED the end shall be.

Using the Strong's Concordance.....

Strong's 1840 = Daniel.

Strong's 2165 = Appointed time.

1840 + 2165 = 4005.

Strong's 4005 = PENTECOST.

02/28/2024 + 40 days = 04/08/2024 Total Solar Eclipse.

04/08/2024 + 40 days = 05/18/2024 The Eve of Pentecost.

Daniel (1840) + Appointed time (2165) = Pentecost (4005).

Acts 2:1- When the day of PENTECOST came, they were all together in one place.

If any of this above does not get your attention, or make little sense perhaps what I am about to share will. Historically, the month of March is a time for men to go to war.

For the Romans, the month of March (Martius) marked “the time to start new military campaigns.” Is it a mere coincidence?

In recent history, from the Vietnam war to the present, the month of March has been chosen by the Pentagon and NATO military planners as the “best month” to go to war.

With the exception of the War on Afghanistan (October 2001) and the 1990-91 Gulf War, all major US-NATO and allied led military operations over a period of more than half a century –since the invasion of Vietnam by US ground forces on March 8, 1965– have been initiated in the month of March.

The Ides of March (Idus Martiae) is a day in the Roman calendar which broadly corresponds to March 15. The Ides of March is also known as the date on which Julius Caesar was assassinated in 44 BC.

Lest we forget, the month of March (in the Roman Calendar) is dedicated to Mars (Martius), the Roman God of War. For the Romans, the month of March (Martius) marked “the time to start new military campaigns.”

As in the heyday of the Roman Empire, the US Department of Defense has a mandate to plan and implement a precise “timeline” of military operations. Does the month of March –identified by the Romans as a “good time” to initiate new military undertakings–, have a bearing on contemporary military doctrine?

Throughout history, seasons including the transition from Winter to Spring have played a strategic role in the timing of military operations.

Do Pentagon military planners favor the month of March? Do they also –in some mysterious fashion– “idolize” Mars, the Roman God of War? March 23 (which coincides with the beginning of Spring) was the day “Romans celebrated the start of the military campaign and war fighting season.”

“Homage was paid to Mars the god of war with festivals and feasting. ... For the Romans March 23 was a huge celebration known as Tubilustrium”. Under these festivities which celebrated the Roman god of war, a large part of the month of March “was dedicated to military celebration and preparedness.”

Timeline of March US Military Interventions (1965- 2020)

Recent history confirms that with the exception of Afghanistan (October 2001) and the 1990-91 Gulf War, all major US-NATO led military operations over a period of more than half a century –since the invasion of Vietnam by U.S. ground forces on March 8, 1965– have been initiated in the month of March.

The Vietnam War

The US Congress adopted the Gulf of Tonkin Resolution, which authorized President Lyndon Johnson to dispatch ground forces to Vietnam on March 8, 1965.

On 8 March 1965, 3,500 U.S. Marines were dispatched to South Vietnam marking the beginning of “America’s ground war”.

NATO’s War on Yugoslavia

NATO’s war on Yugoslavia was launched on March 24, 1999.

The NATO bombing of Yugoslavia code-named by the US Operation “Noble Anvil”. started on March 24, 1999 and lasted until June 10, 1999.

The 1991 Gulf War on Iraq

The 1991 Gulf War on Iraq began on 17th January.

However, after the 28th February ceasefire was agreed and signed – following the Basra Road massacre of withdrawing soldiers and fleeing civilians on 26th/27th February –

The US 24th Infantry Division slaughtered thousands on the 2nd March.”

The 2003 Iraq War

The War on Iraq was launched on March 20, 2003. (Baghdad time)

The US-NATO led invasion of Iraq started on 20 March 2003 on the pretext that Iraq possessed Weapons of Mass Destruction (WMD).

The Iraq War Atrocities. Fallujah

The Covert War on Syria

The US-NATO Covert War on Syria was initiated on March 15, 2011 with the incursion of Al Qaeda affiliated mercenaries and death squads in the southern city of Daraa on the border with Jordan.

The terrorists were involved in acts of arson as well as the killings of civilians. This incursion of terrorists was from the very outset supported covertly by the US, NATO and its Persian Gulf allies: Saudi Arabia and Qatar.

NATO's "Humanitarian" R2P War on Libya

NATO commenced its bombing of Libya on March 19, 2011. The United Nations Security Council passed an initial resolution on 26 February 2011 (UNSC Resolution 1970), (adopted unanimously).

A subsequent United Nations Security Council Resolution 1973 was adopted on 17 March 2011. It authorized the establishment of "a no-fly zone" over Libya, and the use "all necessary measures" "to protect the lives of civilians".

Libya was bombed relentlessly by NATO warplanes starting on March 19, 2011 for a period of approximately seven months.

Yemen

On 25 March 2015, an international coalition led by Saudi Arabia and supported by the US launched air strikes against the Huthi armed group in Yemen.

Coincidence:

The Ides of March, March 15 44 BC, was also the day Emperor Julius Caesar was stabbed to death by the Roman Senate.

On top of all this heretofore history recall, Pastor Mark Biltz told Janie Duval in an interview just three weeks ago stated Biblical history timelines provide confirmation that all eclipses are followed by war. Pastor Biltz has documented the relationship between solar eclipses and war. That interview is found at the link here:

<https://youtu.be/f37hOM-Dj0A>

In a related news report, Craig Bong mentioned HRH Prince Charles had made an announcement relative to the Sustainable Markets Initiative this week. On Thursday, February 29th, 2024 ~ THE SMI HAS UPDATED THE SEARCH ENGINE TO REVEAL THE KING'S VISION ~ London, United Kingdom: The Sustainable Markets Initiative's Legal Task Force today announced McCarthy Tétrault as the first Canadian-based law firm to become a member.

McCarthy Tétrault CEO Dave Leonard will serve as a member of the Legal Task Force, contributing to SETTING STRATEGIC OBJECTIVES and DEVELOPING KEY PROJECTS with the support of its working group.

"I'm proud McCarthy Tétrault is the first law firm based in Canada to be joining this important initiative," Leonard said. "This is a STRATEGIC PARTNERSHIP for our firm as we LOOK TO ACCELERATE the contributions of THE LEGAL SECTOR in tackling sustainability-related issues. We are excited to be part of the Sustainable Markets Initiative and HELP DRIVE ITS MISSION FORWARD across our sector."

The Sustainable Markets Initiative Legal Task Force brings together leading law firms with an INTERNATIONAL FOOTPRINT AND EXPERTISE across the full spectrum of legal services and industry sectors.

"The Legal Sector plays a CRITICAL ROLE IN DEFINING and SETTING A PATH to real action across multiple sectors whether it is POLICY, REGULATIONS, BUSINESS ACTIVITIES, OR EMERGING AREAS, we need the greatest legal minds to help address climate change" said Jennifer Jordan-Saifi, CEO of the Sustainable Markets Initiative. "We are proud to have McCarthy Tétrault on the Legal Task Force to bring their expertise and HELP SHAPE a more sustainable future."

McCarthy Tétrault brings decades of experience advising prominent Canadian organizations on sustainability and access to the firm's multidisciplinary ESG and Sustainability Group, consisting of experts with profound industry insight, excelling in identifying and addressing emerging opportunities and challenges within the sector.

With the addition of McCarthy Tétrault, the Legal Task Force will continue to help address sustainability and climate-related issues across the leadership field and DRIVE IMPACT as part of THE MANDATE of the King's TERRA CARTA.

Craig Bong noted, "If we do not recognize the extremely dangerous ideological path we are being forced onto, the so-called rights of the planet may be written into law with abominations like the Terra Carta, replacing the Magna Carta's fundamental enlightenment principles; the natural rights of Man. So-called 'stakeholder capitalism' is the new collectivist mechanism for propelling people worldwide into the grandest form of totalitarianism ever imagined: a global eco-dictatorship; green on the outside, red on the inside."

The UN Sustainable Development Goals is the mechanism to achieve this goal of saving the planet by 2030. In a bold gesture, the Terra Carta aims to provide the roadmap perverting the Magna Carta and twisting its namesake into evil that will attempt to enslave humans under the guise of saving the planet. By placing Mother Nature above man, this tyrannical king seeks to place God's kingdom above God himself.

Founded by King Charles III in 2020, as Prince of Wales, the Sustainable Markets Initiative has become the world's 'go-to' private sector organization on transition. Launched in 2021, the Terra Carta serves as the Sustainable Markets Initiative's mandate with a focus on accelerating results for Nature, People and Planet through real economy action via governments, businesses and institutions.

McCarthy Tétrault LLP will work with all levels of government to develop laws and regulations that shape the sustainable development market in the industries driving global economies.

Canada Moves to Criminalize Christianity

Hunter Fielding February 29, 2024

Canada's far-left government is moving to criminalize Christianity, with Bible reading and prayer considered "hate speech" – a "crime" punishable with prison time.

Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau's World Economic Forum-controlled government is planning to outlaw Christianity with the introduction of an amendment to the Criminal Code that could see believers face jail time for expressing historic Christian teachings.

The legislation, Bill C-367, will make it illegal to reiterate certain parts of the Bible, stripping away the "good faith" defense for what is deemed by the state as "hate speech" or "antisemitism."

Traditional Christian practices such as celebrating Christmas or attending church service will be considered crimes that carry severe penalties.

The proposed amendment aims to remove the provision that allows individuals to defend themselves by claiming they genuinely believe in and were merely expressing religious teaching already found in the Scriptures.

This means that citing religious beliefs as justification for words or actions that the state effectively regards as “heresy” will no longer be accepted as a valid defense under the law.

The bill states:

“The enactment amends the Criminal Code to eliminate as a defense against willful promotion of hatred or antisemitism the fact that a person, in good faith, expressed or attempted to establish by an argument an opinion or a religious subject or an opinion based on a belief in a religious text.”

The bill has prompted outrage online with opponents expressing concerns about freedom of expression and the potential for targeted persecution of Christians in Canada.

Dr. Joseph Boot, President of the Ezra Institute, a Canada-based evangelical think-tank, said:

“If ratified, Canada’s anti-Christian legal apparatus created over the last decade will overtly persecute Christians with the force of criminal law.”

“Everything is already in place,” he warned. “Buckle up.”

Dr. Boot went on to explain that evangelism, preaching, counseling, statements in the workplace, on social media, and in books that condemn homosexuality or transgenderism on biblical grounds could be “subject to criminal prosecution and with heavy fines or jail time.”

The legislation will also include statements deemed “anti-Semitic,” which Gab CEO, Andrew Torba warned means:

“Christians who maintain traditional orthodox perspectives about Jews—views that have been part of our faith for 2,000 years, are the primary obstacle to the Ruling Regime.” Torba said, “As a result, we are the most targeted and vilified group in the Western world.”

This is just more evidence of that. Bill C-367 is still under consideration in Parliament. It has passed the first reading but faces further debate. It is expected to pass, however, and PM Trudeau has expressed his full support for the bill.

Secret Docs: Canada Worked with China to Create Covid as 'Bioweapon'

Hunter Fielding February 29, 2024

Leaked secret documents have exposed a “clandestine relationship” between Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau’s government and the Chinese Community Party to develop COVID-19 as a “bioweapon” to unleash on humanity.

The documents reveal the agenda by Trudeau, a World Economic Forum (WEF) “Young Global Leader,” to trigger a pandemic to roll out major new restrictions on public freedom. Trudeau ultimately sought to usher in WEF leader Klaus Schwab’s “Great Reset” agenda which uses Communist China as a societal model.

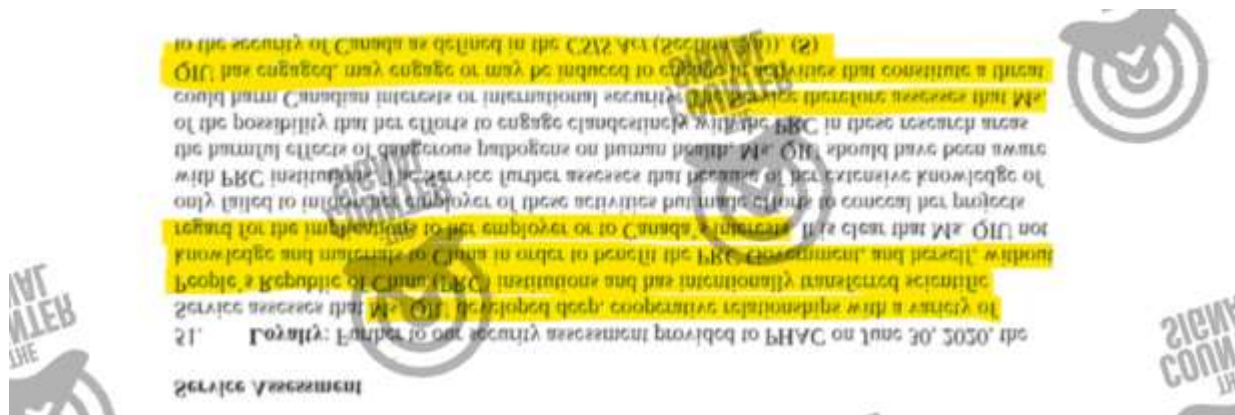

The newly leaked documents, authored by Canada’s top intelligence service, reveal the long-awaited explanation behind the abrupt departure of two virologists from Canada’s top bio laboratory.

The documents have been published by The Counter Signal to expose the Trudeau government for hiding the true reason for the departure of Dr. Xiangguo Qiu from Canada’s Public Health agency.

Despite the Liberals citing the departure as a private “personnel issue,” the Canadian Security Intelligence Service (CSIS) accuses Dr. Qiu of a long history of clandestine actions that put Canadians’ health and security at risk, along with directly assisting military research in China.

Alongside selling deadly pathogens to Chinese authorities at the Wuhan Institute of Virology for just $75, Qiu was also found to have hidden a Chinese bank account from CSIS.

“Further to our security assessment [...], the Service assesses that Ms. Qiu developed deep, cooperative relationships with a variety of People’s Republic of China (PRC) institutions and has intentionally transferred scientific knowledge and materials to China in order to benefit the PRC Government, and herself, without regard for the implications to her employer or to Canada’s interests.”

"It is clear that Ms. Qiu [...] made efforts to conceal her projects with PRC institutions. The Service further assesses that because of her extensive knowledge of the harmful effects of dangerous pathogens on human health, Ms. Qiu should have been aware of the possibility that her efforts to engage clandestinely with the PRC in these research areas could harm Canadian interests or international security."

"Ms. Qiu repeatedly lied in her security screening interviews about the extent of her work with institutions of the PRC Government and refused to admit to any involvement in various PRC programs, even when documents [REDACTED] were put before her."

Catherine Austin Fitts shreds Trump acolyte in the most brutal 7 minutes you will find on the internet

The former president 'put $10 billion into a military program to depopulate Americans'

There are truths and then there are inconvenient truths.

Why did President Donald Trump sign off on Operation Warp Speed in July 2020 and place U.S. Army General Gustave Perna in charge of it?

I have heard many reasons for this strange move. None of them ring true. It remains one of the more closely guarded secrets of U.S. presidential history. Even the corporate mainstream media, which regularly compares Trump to Adolf Hitler, seems uncurious about Operation Warp Speed and what led up to Trump's decision on that policy matter. How was the deal made? We may never know.

There are only two options, according to Catherine Austin Fitts, a financial expert and former assistant secretary of the U.S. Department of Housing and Urban Development. Trump either knew what he was doing would be tremendously destructive to human life and did it anyway. Or, he did not know and got rolled by smarter people in unelected positions that hold much more power than the man holding the office of the president. Watch Fitts explain below in this fascinating video.

While I don't know why Trump approved Operation Warp Speed, I do know what it accomplished. By declaring a "public health emergency" and placing the injections under "medical counter measures" overseen by the military, Trump was able to bypass a landmark component of the free world — informed consent as required by the Nuremberg Code. Whether he knew it or not, this one single move empowered the Luciferian death cult to have its way with millions of people's lives.

Catherine Austin Fitts drops a lot of truth in the above clip, but if you take away nothing else, take away this one statement:

"There is no right versus left, there is no Trump versus Biden. There is a machine in control of a spending machine that is financed with our taxes, and debt barred in our names, that is being sold into our pension funds and into our retirement accounts. There is that machine, and that machine, to keep balancing the books, is implementing a depopulation plan. That is the reality that has to be faced. And changing the president won't matter."

We are not up against any single man or woman in this fight for our freedom. We are up against a "machine," or as I would call it, a system. A beast system.

And just like there is no single man or woman who personifies our enemy in this battle to live free, there is no person who alone will save us from it.

Fitts says if she had been the president, "I would have taken a bullet in the head before I would implement a culling of the American population."

That's a person who stands on principle. That's exactly the type of person this beast system in control of Washington will never allow to be elected president of the United States. They want an individual who will cut deals and make trade-offs.

Deal making may be a virtue in business but not in politics. It's often a cover for cowardice and the propensity to always take the path of least resistance. This is the route that politicians gravitate toward. Then they lie to us about what really happened. And the media covers for them.

If the corporate media really hated Donald Trump as much as they pretend to hate him and believed he was as evil as they say he is, all they would need to do to take him down is admit that the mass injection program placed toxic chemicals into the bodies of millions of Americans of all ages, and then blame him for setting it all in motion. The shots had known side effects up to and including death. But they won't do this. That is the one Trump policy they won't touch.

Fitts says:

"In October 2019, when everybody in America was being entertained by the teenage sex life of the Supreme Court nominee, Kavanaugh, the House, the Senate, Democrat and Republican, both sides of the aisle, got together and approved Statement 56 of the Federal Accounting Standards Advisory Board, which said that they could keep secret books. That was everybody, together, OK? So there is no right versus left, there is no Trump versus Biden. There is a machine ..."

So we have an all-powerful machine, a system (I call it a beast system), that runs the country and the world. This system is satanic at its core and the sole reason for its existence is to kill and injure as many people as possible through multiple vectors: Vaccines, poisons in the food, air and water, and wars.

Inevitably people will chastise me for this article because it bursts their idealic imaginations of what America is. Please don't misunderstand. If the choice is between Trump or Biden I'd take Trump any day of the week. But that's not much of a choice. All I am suggesting is that conservatives should not attribute superhero status to Trump. He isn't deserving of it. He gets weak-kneed like any other politician. He's a man whose feet need to be held to the fire every day to make sure he stays true to conservative values. And if he by some miracle ends up back in office, he will be difficult to hold accountable given the fact that he will be a lame duck on day one. Trump has already softened his position on abortion and has proven he's in favor of injections meant to cull the population. What other surprises would a Trump 2.0 have in his bag of tricks?

Readers can listen to Katherine Austin Fitts' by going to LeoHohmann.com.

Blessings,

Pastor Bob, EvanTeachr@aol.com
www.pastorbobreid.com

THE ABC'S OF SALVATION

ADMIT

Admit you are a sinner and have made mistakes.

BELIEVE

Believe that Jesus is God's Son, died on the Cross for you, and rose up from the grave on the third day.

CONFESS

Confess Jesus as the Lord of your life. And commit yourself to a life of following Jesus, and serving others.

(Romans 3:23; John 1:12; Romans 10:9)