

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #39

“No weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper; and every tongue that shall rise against thee in judgment thou shalt condemn. This is the heritage of the servants of the LORD, and their righteousness is of me, saith the LORD.” –(Isaiah 54:17)

I was headed in a different direction in this Blessed Hope, at least until I read Daymond Duck's post. Daymond Duck is a published writer on the subject of End Times, Revelation, and Bible Prophecy. I was elated to read this and so I want to share it with you as it is an encouragement for all of you!

Further down this “Diamond & Nugget” addresses the Antichrist and the False Prophet asserting their power with vigor recently, a clear sign of the nearness of the Pre-Tribulation Rapture!

Unprecedented - By Daymond Duck -

<https://www.raptureready.com/2020/12/06/unprecedented-by-daymond-duck/>

We are living in an unprecedented time, and although no one knows the day or the hour, the Rapture could occur at any moment, and people need to be ready.

This list of unprecedented events with prophetic implications is just a small indication of why I believe the Church could be removed soon.

One, in Pennsylvania on Nov. 25, 2020, a court judge stopped the certification of Biden as the winner of the Pennsylvania election pending a hearing on Nov. 27.

On Nov. 27, 2020, a panel of judges ruled against Trump, leading his attorneys to say they are headed to the U.S. Supreme Court.

Also, in Pennsylvania, on Nov. 25, 2020, at a hearing held by the State Legislature, an expert witness testified that at one point, information shows that Biden was credited with about 570,000 votes and Trump was credited with a little more than 3,200 votes, which is statistical evidence of voter fraud.

Attorney Rudy Giuliani told the State Legislature, the state reported that 1,823,148 mail-in ballots were sent out, 1.4 million mail-in ballots were returned, but officials recorded 2.5 million votes.

Giuliani also said 22,686 ballots returned on the day they were put in the mail, about 20,000 ballots were supposedly returned on the day before they were put in the mail, and 8,021 ballots were supposedly cast by people who are deceased.

On Nov. 26, 2020, 26 Republicans in the Pennsylvania House of Representatives introduced a resolution to decertify the election of Biden because of “substantial irregularities and improprieties associated with mail-in balloting.”

In Georgia on Nov. 25, 2020, Attorney Sidney Powell filed a 104-page complaint with 30 allegations asking for the results of the 2020 General Election to be set aside because of “evident fraud and multiple violations of the Constitution and Georgia’s laws in the running of the election.”

One piece of evidence that Powell presented was an affidavit from a highly respected Cyber-Crime expert that has worked for the CIA that says hundreds of thousands of votes were shifted from Trump to Biden in the battleground states.

There seems to be little doubt that the greatest Cyber-Crime in the history of the world has been used against the U.S. by U.S. citizens with outside help.

On Dec. 1, 2020, it was reported that billionaires George Soros and Michael Bloomberg are funneling $300,000 to the Democrats in the Georgia runoff election in an effort to take over the U.S. Senate (some say Democrat Warnock is a socialist).

In Michigan, Powell filed a similar complaint (Powell asked people to pray for her).

On Nov. 30, 2020, it was reported that a recount in Antrim County, Michigan, switched the election victory back to Trump.

According to the report, thousands of Trump’s votes were incorrectly given to Biden (nothing was said about how this will ultimately come out).

In Wisconsin, there was a 105% turnout in one Milwaukee District.

In Nevada, on Nov. 27, 2020, a judge ruled that the Republican legal team can issue subpoenas, depose witnesses under oath, etc.

The Democrats appear to fear what will be uncovered because it was reported that they have sent in a team of about 10 attorneys to try to stop the litigation.

It is impossible to predict how the judges will rule on the many cases, and it is a longshot for Pres. Trump, but until every lawsuit is dropped or litigated (including at the U.S. Supreme Court because there are questions about the constitutionality of some state laws), the election is not over.

(Note: It has been reported that Twitter is blocking the posting of some of Sidney Powell's charges of widespread voter fraud and information on her lawsuits).

Two, on Nov. 25, 2020, it was reported that Biden's special envoy for climate, former Sec. of State John Kerry, has assured the World Economic Forum (WEF) that Biden will advance the Great Reset (a globalist scheme to control the world) faster and harder than many might imagine.

On Nov. 26, 2020, it was reported that several of Biden's cabinet picks share one thing in common: they are members of the Council on Foreign Relations (evidence that the new normal will include the old shadow government if Biden wins).

On Nov. 27, 2020, it was reported that Trump suddenly fired 11 members of the Pentagon's Defense Policy Board (Henry Kissinger, Madeleine Albright, and 9 more swamp creatures).

It is about time.

Biden and Harris are just small-time players (puppets) in the Shadow government.

It is not enough to drain a puddle when the real pollution is coming from a lake.

Three, on Nov. 29, 2020, Amir Tsarfati showed about 40 seconds of a video produced by the WEF's Global Future Councils that says, "The U.S. won't be the world's superpower. A handful of countries will dominate."

Don't forget that the Bible teaches that 10 Kings (heads of 10 regional groups of nations; a handful of countries) will rise before the Antichrist rises (Dan. 7:7; 24).

Be aware that Phase I of the U.N. quest for a world government is to create 10 regional trading groups of nations (10 trading blocs; E.U., USMCA, etc.; an economic NWO); Phase II is to transform the 10 regional trading groups of nations into 10 political groups (a political NWO); and Phase III is to merge the 10 political groups into a one-world government (the NWO).

This explains why the shadow government is trying so hard to bring down Trump.

Their goal is to replace the U.S. as the world's only superpower with a handful of countries (10 Kings).

Also, do not forget that the Antichrist can't rise to power while the Restrainer (Church and Holy Spirit) is here.

By the way, according to the video, people will not own property in the future (wealth distribution; everything will belong to the government, and they will use it to control everyone), and the WEF is openly admitting it.

Here is the link to the Amir Tsarfati video (go to the 49-minute mark).

<https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=VGSJhXjmVDg&feature=youtu.be>

For your information, the WEF does not have the authority to put the Great Reset into motion.

They will submit their Great Reset recommendation to the World Bank, IMF, G-7 and G-20 for approval, and that will take a little time.

Four, on Nov. 20, 2020, European Commission President Ursula von der Leyen said she looks forward to working with Washington (the Biden administration) “on a new rulebook for the digital economy and digital society.”

This digital economy and society are a forerunner of the cashless society, and it will lead to the tracking of all buying and selling.

Five, concerning an economic collapse, some Democrats are proposing a universal income (everyone that pleases the government gets a monthly check); the cancellation of all debt; free college tuition; free healthcare; a two trillion-dollar stimulus package; a lockdown in the U.S. for up to six weeks (even though it will destroy many businesses and put millions of people out of work); and the cancellation of Trump’s “Make America Great Again” policies.

I know very little about economics, but this looks like a deliberate attempt to weaken the U.S. and boost the Great Reset.

One-third of the small businesses in New York and New Jersey have closed in 2020.

Six, concerning a rebuilt Temple, on Nov. 26, 2020, it was reported that Jordan is concerned that Trump may transfer control of the Temple Mount to Saudi Arabia in exchange for Saudi Arabia normalizing relations with Israel, and so Trump can further enhance his legacy as one who blessed Israel.

According to the article, Trump has not said anything about this, but the warming relations between Israel and Saudi Arabia has Jordan concerned that this is going to happen.

Seven, concerning the Mark of the Beast, on Nov. 26, 2020, it was reported that Israel’s Chief Innovation Officer was talking about mandatory vaccinations in Israel when he said, “Government won’t force you to take the vaccine. Amazon will. Airlines will. Banks will. You won’t be able to buy, sell, or trade without the vaccine” (Israel expects to start Covid vaccinations in Jan. 2020; it is being reported that they will start sooner than that in the U.S. and U.K.).

Christians should thank God that we won't be here when the Antichrist and False Prophet demand that people take the Mark of the Beast if they want to buy and sell.

Eight, many Americans have good reason to be concerned about mandatory Covid vaccinations and what is in the vaccines (in addition to cells from fetal tissue, chemicals to change one's DNA, etc. — some require two vaccinations that producers claim are 95% effective or should I say 5% ineffective?).

On Nov. 4, 2020, it was reported that Shi-Hua Xiang, a virologist at the University of Nebraska-Lincoln, is in the early stages of developing a nasal spray to deliver a vaccine to the mucosal system in one's nose and mouth.

If successful, the vaccine will cause one's immune system to produce antibodies to attack the Covid virus before it moves to other parts of the body.

Hopefully, people will not have to go to a doctor and take a mandatory injection.

Pray that God will provide something that does not use cells from fetal tissue or change one's DNA, and believe that with God all things are possible.

Nine, concerning the dangers of ministry, Jesus said, "the brother shall deliver up the brother to death, and the father the child: and the children shall rise up against their parents, and cause them to be put to death" (Matt. 10:21).

These words appear to extend from the time of His disciples to the time of His Second Coming.

Anyway, on Nov. 26, 2020, it was reported that Vermont's governor asked the state's schools to question students about the size of their family Thanksgiving gatherings so those that had been in large gatherings could be tested, quarantined, and forced into remote learning (those that test positive for 14 days; those that test negative for 7 days).

Asking citizens to snitch on each other is becoming another part of the new normal, and another sign of where we are on God's calendar.

Ten, concerning the Battle of Gog and Magog, there has been a lot of speculation that Trump may launch an attack on Iran before he leaves office.

- Trump recently asked the military about his options for an attack on Iran and decided against it;
- Prime Min. Netanyahu and U.S. Sec. of State Pompeo flew to Saudi Arabia for a secret meeting with Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman;

- Saudi Arabia has given Israel permission for Israeli military aircraft to use Saudi airspace if Israel wants to;
- Trump sent several B-52H Stratofortress planes to the Middle East;
- Trump dispatched an Aircraft Carrier Strike Group to the Persian Gulf; Iran's top nuclear scientist was assassinated;
- Iran is threatening to attack Israel;
- Jared Kushner has scheduled a trip to Saudi Arabia this week to discuss a normalization treaty between Saudi Arabia and Israel;
- and an Iranian Revolutionary Guard Commander was assassinated in Syria this week.

It is impossible to predict what will happen, but this shows a flurry of activity and threats in recent days.

Finally, God loves you, and if you have not done so, sincerely admit that you are a sinner; believe that Jesus is the virgin-born, sinless Son of God, who died for the sins of the world, was buried and raised from the dead; ask Him to forgive your sins, cleanse you, come into your heart and be your Saviour; then tell someone that you have done this.

Daymond Duck is the co-author of the 'The Smart Guide to the Bible' series: a 22-volume series. I purchased his first two books on Daniel and Revelation back in 1994. His book 'Daniel: God's Word for the Biblically-Inept' was one of my favorites.

Daymond has a succinct style and to the point in encapsulating the headlines that speak to the times we are facing.

God was speaking to me the other morning when I read his post. Get ready for the Last Trumpet blast. We are going home so very soon. I am running on adrenaline as the many pieces of the puzzle are coming into focus now. That may be hard for the 12 million whose federal unemployment funds are expiring this week. I know that discouragement has set in for many folks, but please do not give up hope. If you know someone that has reached their breaking point, you can help by reminding them of the promises that God has made to believers in Jesus Christ. It might seem a real test of our faith and do not dismiss this as important as the clock runs out for the Church. The Church age has come to its end physically and as that reality sets in people's minds, we have great reason to be excited. The illegal lock downs are suffocating the physical church, when those who reopened attendance were down by 30%.

The False Prophet Francis the Jesuit is fulfilling all the details of Scripture in such detail that it rallies the devout Roman Catholics to reject his homilies and statements. He is the cheerleader for the Antichrist. He is telling people to take the vaccine as part of the Great Reset! There is no pandemic for Covid-19. It's all a huge Satanic psyop from the get go and part of the plan to reduce the world's population. You may be brain-washed into believing this nonsense, but there never was a pandemic. As proof of what I am saying, and if you read any of the last dozen articles on my web page, then you know it is all part of something much bigger.

As an example, there are only 3141 counties in the U.S., and if you count the District of Columbia you have 3142. The greatest single death toll labeled Covid was April 15th, 2020. The figures being pumped in the media are saying we are breaking the record for daily death to Covid. That is pure excrement! Here are the official figures for Monday, December 8th, 2020. This info is posted at a business web site and this is what the CDC, NIH reports to them and is as follows:

The U.S. new cases 7-day rolling average is 25.4 % HIGHER than the 7-day rolling average one week ago. U.S. deaths due to coronavirus are now 52.6 % HIGHER than the rolling average one week ago. U.S. hospitalizations due to COVID-19 are now 8.6 % HIGHER than the rolling average one week ago. Today's posts include:

- U.S. Coronavirus New Cases are at an elevated 192,299
- U.S. Coronavirus deaths are 1,404
- U.S. Coronavirus hospitalizations are at a record 102,148
- The 7-day rolling average rate of growth of the pandemic shows new cases worsened, hospitalizations again marginally improved, and deaths improved [note that there was the usual under-reporting over holiday periods and over-reporting for days after the holiday ends which accounts for the surge we are now seeing.]

Notice the figure for deaths – 1,404. Hold that in your thought for a second here and think about this. If there are 3,142 counties in the U.S., how can this be a pandemic, let alone an epidemic, when the daily death figure for the entire country is less than 1 death per county? Now go back and re-read that paragraph again. Note: This was copied exactly as it appeared. The only thing that I did was to bolden the real death number of 1,404. Can you see the deceit and deception here, this happens every day of the week at this business site.

Now if you want to get an honest picture of the death rate, you need to be honest with how the data and statistical analysis is measured. The country has a population of 327,000,000. Then we have to figure the true percentage by dividing 327 million by 1,404 deaths. 1,404 is 0.00042935779816514% of 327,000,000 residents. I'm not being disrespectful of death, I have officiated at 152 funerals and so I can related to grief and loss. At my age, I am at death's door myself. I had a class mate in seminary years ago who could not deal with death and fell apart from having to conduct a funeral service.

He soon dropped out of ministry after less than a year. Back to the numbers, if we had a pandemic or even something that bordered an epidemic, the death rate would be off the charts. A 1% death rate would be 3,270,000 for a single day. So, now we can see how the country has been fear-mongered into this non-existent virus. The NBC affiliated channel 11 in Pittsburgh reported this data today: "dates of the deaths ranged from Nov. 20 to Dec. 8. One person was in their 40s, one in their 50s, four people in their 70s, 16 in their 80s and 12 people in their 90s. Nineteen deaths were associated with long-term care facilities, the county reported." I'm quite confident that if we took a closer look at the cause of death we would find other health issues as the 'true' cause of death. But the media merely parrots the script written by CIA agents who control the press and media. You are being "gas lighted" when you watch any of the media channels today, and that includes the so-called "fair-and-balanced" nonsense of Fox!

There is something the media has not told you. If you have been reading my articles you know what it is behind all of this frantic lockdown, social distancing, masks garbage!

The present Establishment — the two major parties, mainstream media (90 percent of which is owned by six mega conglomerates), and Big Tech — especially Facebook and Twitter, which “fact check” or “dispute” links to truth-telling articles and videos almost as fast as we can put them up — ought to be at its lowest credibility ever. While you sit and wait for the Supreme Court to rule on the election outcome, you would better spend your time on watching what is happening on each coast of the country.

Steven Yates said it best, “Truth has been cancelled and it will take our freedoms with it.” For what it’s worth:

We have videos of poll workers in Georgia ordering observers out of the room, telling them counting was done for the night, then removing ballots from suitcases pulled from under tables. Then running them through their machines!

We have an account by an MIT mathematician showing how Dominion voting machines in Arizona counted each Biden vote as 1.3 votes and each Trump vote as 0.7 votes.

We saw vote spikes, plainly visible on charts, in wee hours of the morning November 4, always for Biden. Trump’s lead diminished and then vanished in Michigan and Wisconsin. There were countless other irregularities.

We have this, from Eric Mataxas, interviewing a computer specialist in Colorado who looked into Dominion Voting Systems and learned that one of their higher-ups had promised an Antifa higher-up a Trump defeat! Yes, names are named, and I am surprised that video is still up. Then we learned that Dominion Voting Systems is owned by the Chinese Communist Party through a group of cut-outs sold these voting machines to 28 states. Forensic analysis has revealed how they could rig votes by more than a dozen ways!

Some of this info (e.g., charts displaying vote spikes) was hard to find. Searches turned up mostly disinformation from “fact check” and “debunking” sites. AOL, Google and Yahoo search engines are clearly ratcheting down what we peons aren’t supposed to see. I have never seen censoring of the Internet like this before and I have had to deal with it for ten years running.

But yes, absent massive interference, Trump won overwhelmingly! And absent massive disinformation, this would be obvious!

Here is the best summation, in one place, of the stolen election:

One has to wonder what level of collective psychosis Trump Derangement Syndrome reached, that the entirety of mainstream media, Big Tech, and the Asylum on the Potomac, can first hide and then deny the vast evidence of fraud. This includes trying to ruin the lives of. Melissa Carone, who never sought publicity and was clearly nervous and awkward on video, is being made an example of. See this purported soap opera of possibly-libelous allegations, not to mention her being openly ridiculed on Saturday Night Live, a show that was funny four decades ago but now only recalls H.L. Mencken's adage that no one ever went broke underestimating the taste of the American public.

The point is to create as strong as possible a disincentive against others doing what this courageous woman did. There have been worse. Emily Murphy of the General Services Administration (who unlocked funds for a transition of administrations on November 22), wrote of receiving "threats online, by phone, and by mail directed at my safety, my family, my staff, and even my pets in an effort to coerce me into making this determination prematurely...."

Think of a bank robbery caught on camera from multiple angles, guns visible, boatloads of cash thrown in black bags by tellers and handed to the thugs. Then, bankers and police higher-ups simply declare that the videos do not exist ("baseless," "unsubstantiated," "evidence-free") and that anyone who says they do is an "unhinged conspiracy theorist." That person is then threatened . . . !

I've been saying all along, powerful people want Trump gone. But I had no idea of the lengths they'd go to make it happen. All the insanity hides even the truth about President Trump himself. I'll explain in a future 'Blessed Hope' segment.

Paul Craig Roberts wrote the other day:

"As I predicted in 2016, Trump had no understanding of Washington and no idea who to appoint."

Of course he didn't. He was an outsider, a non-politician, which is what the GOP base wanted: someone from outside the Asylum on the Potomac who would disrupt the status quo and chart a new, non-globalist course for the country.

Trump tried not to disappoint. "Americanism, not globalism," he told listeners in his inaugural speech in January 2017.

Roberts continues (I'm tempted to C&P the whole column): [I think he meant cut & paste.]

"... Trump was staffed by the Establishment with an Establishment government. Trump thought, based on his experience as boss, that the boss was the boss, but as I learned from my quarter century in Washington that is not the way Washington works.

"Trump's Establishment government has destroyed Trump, first by permitting the Russia gate hoax and refusing to hold the perpetrators—who clearly committed federal felonies—accountable. No indictments for the obvious felony of misleading the FISA

Court, for example, have been forthcoming from the DOJ Establishment figures of Barr and Durham.

“Second, the Trump ‘Justice’ Department permitted the hoax that Trump did what Biden clearly did—bribe the president of Ukraine with US foreign aid. Trump, who made no such bribe, was investigated and impeached in the Democrat House for something it was clear he did not do. In contrast, Vice President Biden, who boasted (you can watch it on video) to the Council on Foreign Relations that he threatened the president of Ukraine with the withholding of billions of US dollars unless he fired the prosecutor who was investigating the corrupt company that was paying Biden’s son a fortune for Biden’s protection, has not been investigated by the DOJ or FBI.”

“Neither has Biden been investigated for the incriminating information on the laptop of his son’s computer that is in the hands of the DOJ and FBI. The FBI will cover this up just as the FBI covered up the Hillary servers and the murder of Seth Rich who leaked the information that was blamed on Wikileaks and Julian Assange.”

Biden will not be investigated — unless Biden’s ill-chosen vice president demands it as ‘a person of color’ in order to displace Biden in order to complete the American color revolution that took place on November 3 and 4, 2020. Those were the days that American democracy was officially murdered by the Democrat Party’s carefully organized electoral fraud, about which not a peep was heard from the presstitutes.”

Roberts gets one thing wrong. The U.S. is not a democracy but a plutocratic oligarchy, and has been for decades. Otherwise the brazenness of this steal, combined with the avalanche of denial, would not be conceivable, much less possible. The stolen election did not “murder democracy.” Democracy” has been dead for a long time. Efforts to restore it are labeled authoritarian populism. This is Orwell’s ‘1984’ on steroids.

The present Establishment — the two major parties, mainstream media (90 percent of which is owned by six mega conglomerates), and Big Tech — especially Facebook and Twitter, which “fact check” or “dispute” links to truth-telling articles and videos almost as fast as we can put them up — ought to be at its lowest credibility ever.

Sadly, a critical mass of the public is buying into this catastrophe in motion. Though millions of Republicans are sure the election was stolen and will never trust the voting process again, they will be silenced — all it will take is a few more outspoken men and women made examples of losing jobs, “shamed” by the Twitter mob or on TV, possibly having their dirty laundry aired publicly, and their lives ruined.

The time to stand up to real power was decades ago. I spoke of the need to stand up to political correctness back in the 1990s, but that doesn’t scratch the surface. There was ample evidence of what was coming long before. Books such as Zbigniew Brzezinski’s ‘Between Two Ages: America’s Role in the Technetronic Era’ (1970) openly promoted globalism as a desirable outcome of “liberal democracy.” Brzezinski was a top-flight writer who was clear as crystal about where he believed the world should go.

Three years later, he, David Rockefeller, and Henry Kissinger used their vast resources and network of contacts to create the Trilateral Commission. Few paid attention. There's a sense in which first the space program and then Watergate were diversions, since even the comparatively well-educated public we had back then could be distracted with images from space and scandal on the ground.

Few pay attention now, as Klaus Schwab (World Economic Forum) writes openly about connecting Covid-19(84) to the proposed Great Reset. Predictably, to the 'New York Times', this last is another "conspiracy theory."

Today, fear is the prevalent control factor. Fear of getting sick. Fear of unemployment, Fear of being financially devastated. Fear of loss of your home, Fear of being shamed on social media. Fear of being called a racist (if you are white). Fear is effective. It results in paralysis and looking to the authorities for rescue. Sometimes, of course, fear is justified. Other times, not. The point is, fomenting it has proven to be a very efficient control mechanism. Get past the fear, this is in God's hands and he has an escape plan for the righteous. It's called the Rapture. I have always seen its prototype as that revealed in the Exodus crossing of the Red Sea at Yom Suph. God's timing was on time for deliverance before judgment. The beacon of freedom is being snuffed out by Marxists and communists. America is burnt toast! We are living in an illusion that we are free. The censorship of truth proves me correct.

In sum: truth has been canceled. It will take freedom with it. Highly visible truth-tellers today find themselves imprisoned in solitary confinement (Julian Assange) or in self-imposed exile (Edward Snowden). Others have faced career sabotage (Judy Mikovits) or just a struggle for financial survival (Paul Craig Roberts). To use one of Roberts's favorite descriptive terms, 'we now have a mostly insouciant public, fixated on celebrities, Tik Tok, whatever the Twitters are spewing, and consuming Covid fear porn'.

One aspect of narcopaths (narcissistic sociopaths) that is important to remember is that they live in their own little world in which their desires and bizarre dysfunctions are normalized. They believe themselves superior to most people because they are predatory, and don't suffer from annoying hang-ups like empathy and conscience. They generally tend to believe they have pulled the wool over everyone's eyes the majority of the time. They think that you are a submissive idiot, and that when they bark an order, you will simply jump to attention because you "believe".

Almost every aspect of the globalists and their behavior indicates they are a club or cult of narcopaths. Their obsessive need to control as well as to corrupt and destroy in order to get what they want is not an extension of mere greed, it is a deep-seated aspect of who they are as beings. It is a defining mechanism at the core of their character. They are real world monsters, like vampires attempting to blend into an unsuspecting population. The satanic code of the Freemasons, the Illuminati, requires that they tell you what they are going to do to us, it comes in subtle signs, movie scripts, cartoons like the Simpsons, magazine covers, press releases, and such flaunting their agenda is to rub your face in their propaganda.

In their arrogance, then tend to expect they can drain the public dry at will without being resisted or exposed. The problem is, as soon as they start to feed and destroy they draw attention to themselves. Eventually, they will attract the suspicions of the public, along with some vampire hunters. Unless they find a way to hide a stake through the heart is inevitable. They boast of their plans and their unrealistic technocratic dreams.

I have been writing about the threats of globalism for fifteen years now, and I have noted for some time a bifurcation agenda being afoot; one affecting the liberty movement and the other affecting the globalists:

1) First, criminals tend to brag about their crimes when they think that it's too late for anyone to do anything about them. I predicted the globalists would be very open in revealing their agenda the moment they believed themselves "untouchable". For the freedom loving public this suggests that in 2020 going into 2021 that the elites must think there is nothing that can be done to stop the machine; they are so blatant in their calls for the global "reset", a cashless society, totalitarian lockdowns and a surveillance state that no one in their right mind can claim these notions are "conspiracy theory" anymore. The "green" movement was so strong for President Trump to maintain his "America" first agenda. He was a David going against Goliath!

The fact is, the “conspiracy theorists” have been always been spot on, and now there is nothing anyone can say about it. Everyone will be forced to take sides.

2) Second, I have also argued in the past that the globalist push for a “new world order” was a double-edged sword that could very well end up annihilating them. As they attempt to initiate their reset agenda, they became more and more exposed; they can no longer lurk in the safety of the shadows and there is no going back once the process is started. Once the globalists became widely known, they must either swiftly take control through engineered chaos and collapse, or face retribution that could eliminate a cabal that took them centuries to build. Vampires must make the rest of the world a dark place before leaving the shadows, or they risk dying in the light of day. The secession movement is firming up for what looks to be a civil war.

There are two schools of thought in the liberty movement; one suggesting that the globalist agenda is fixed and unstoppable and that the best anyone can do is to survive. The second suggests that the reset can be stopped and the globalists can be brought to justice. From the Bible, I believe we can forget the second.

There are aspects of the reset that are indeed fixed and that cannot be undone. For example, numerous national economies including the US are in the midst of a stagflationary collapse and there is nothing that can be done to reverse it. Perhaps a decade ago we could have changed course, but now it is too late. The pain can be reduced if people quickly end their dependency on the system and create localized trade networks of their own, but the economy as we know it right now is dead and it is not coming back anytime soon. This is what Covid-19 was all about, to create fear.

This is not a win for the elites. Crashing the economy is one thing, rebuilding it into the collectivist dystopia they desperately want is another. It is flawed in so many ways. Everything depends on who rebuilds it. Bill and Melinda Gates recently were interviewed by the 'New York Times' and Melinda made the faux pau statement "that they did not consider the effect of damaging the economy", which was a confirmation this was all pre-planned. In a wide-ranging interview in the New York Times, Melinda Gates made the following remarkable statement:

"What did surprise us is we hadn't really thought through the economic impacts."

This has to be the 2020 version of “Let them Eat Cake’ ... ” the most famous quote attributed to Marie-Antoinette, the queen of France during the French Revolution. As the story goes, it was the queen’s response upon being told that her starving peasant subjects had no bread.

It’s a maddening statement, to be sure, as if “economics” is somehow a peripheral concern to the rest of human life and public health. The larger context of the interview reveals the statement to be even more confused. She is somehow under the impression that it is the pandemic and not the lockdowns that are the cause of the economic devastation that includes perhaps 30% of restaurants going under, among many other terrible effects. 110,000 restaurants have closed and will not reopen! Their Orwellian policies do not allow orderly transition, again an indicator of civil war.

The exploitation of the pandemic response as a means to ram through numerous draconian restrictions does not seem to be going exactly as the elites planned. Chaos is becoming the operative terms of what is ahead.

We have to look back at Event 201 to really gauge the state of the game, because what the elites planned and what has happened do not completely match up. For those not familiar, Event 201 was a type of “war game” held by globalists from the World Economic Forum and the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation. The scenario? A pandemic outbreak of a coronavirus which would spread like wildfire and kill a predicted 65 million people. The simulation was held only a couple of months before the real thing happened at the start of 2020. The 65 million number may have grabbed the media focus, but Bill Gates words that got my attention was when he said, “the next pandemic will get the world’s attention,” said with a smirky grin.

In the year since the outbreak, the globalists have attempted to enforce nearly every plan that was outlined during Event 201, including using social media to censor or restrict any news or information outside of the establishment approved narrative (Yes, narrative control was discussed at the event in great detail). Klaus Schwab of the World Economic Forum has consistently and excitedly applauded the pandemic crisis as a “perfect opportunity” to institute the “reset” that the globalists have been talking about for years. Klaus Schwab is a Nazi technocrat who does not act alone. He is just another lieutenant in the kingdom of Prince Charles and the House of Rothschild.

Unfortunately for them, the virus has not been anywhere near as deadly as they appear to have hoped. With a death rate of well below 1% for anyone outside of a nursing home with preexisting conditions, the establishment has now been forced to pump up infection numbers as a means to terrorize the populace because the death numbers are not enough to convince people to willingly hand over their freedoms. The Infection Fatality Rate (IFR) for Covid-19 not counting nursing home deaths with preexisting conditions is only 0.26% of those infected.

There is a propaganda meme being passed around these days that tries to exaggerate the danger of death from Covid, and it goes a little something like this:

“Covid has killed more people that the Vietnam War and the Gulf Wars combined in a single year, therefore your freedoms are forfeited”

This is an idiotic talking point but luckily no one is buying it. Over 40% of Covid deaths are people that are already sick and on the verge of dying anyway any one refusing to wear masks are not the same as endorsing “death panels”, because a death panel is about socialists refusing treatment to people at risk because of their age. No one is suggesting that old people be refused treatment and they always have the option of staying under quarantine if they fear they will become infected. They are already retired and receiving social security,

Hundreds of thousands of people die every year from diseases and illnesses including the flu, common colds and pneumonia, yet, the prospect of abandoning the Bill of Rights, submitting to economic shutdowns and wearing a diaper on our faces wherever we go was never brought up before. The daily average death rate in the U.S. is approximately 7,900 to 8,000 for the entire country. The government data being provided confirms less than 1 person per county in the U.S. died of the alleged Covid. There are 3,142 counties in the U.S., and so even at the rate of 1 person per county dying of confirmed Covid is relatively small. What shocks me most is the failure of people to use some sense and look at the real data and statistics.

Why should we ask 99.7% of Americans or the world to accept medical tyranny just to make .26% of the population feel safe? People who question the mandates are called “selfish”, even “unpatriotic” but as one of the people susceptible (I’m in my 80s) to the alleged virus, I would NEVER demand that 99% of the population bow to totalitarianism at the off chance that I might live a little while longer. Now THAT would be selfish.

As more and more studies and data are released, the mask mandates are also coming into question. Though Big Tech has sought to suppress or censor studies that run contrary to the mainstream narrative, this has only led more people to question the motivations of government pushing the mandates. After all, the mainstream media keeps saying that we should “listen to the science”, but they ignore or censor the science. So, if the pandemic response is not based in science, then it must only be about control.

Many Americans are not as stupid as the elites think. They see the inconsistencies in the rhetoric and the data and they are increasingly prone to refuse to comply. This might be why the establishment is suddenly rushing out at least two Covid vaccines in the span of half a year; they have to get the vaccine phase of the Reset underway before too many people jump from the panic bandwagon.

The vaccine rush and the claims of effectiveness of 94% to 95% from Pfizer and Moderna are suspect. The average effectiveness of most vaccines is around 50% or less, and these are vaccines with hundreds of trials and years of usage. Somehow, Pfizer and Moderna were both able to produce a vaccine for a SARS type virus when multiple governments tried for over a decade to produce vaccines for SARS in China and were unsuccessful, and they were able to achieve 95% effectiveness? A Wyoming state official, Dr. Igor Sherman said the vaccines are a bioweapon. He ought to know since as a citizen of the former USSR, he was a medical bioweapons expert!

Many people are not buying the vaccine story, and this is perhaps why the elites are jumping headlong into vaccination so fast. Consider this fact:

Numerous polls indicate that at least 1 in 3 Americans plan to refuse the Covid vaccine when it is released to the general public. 60% of Americans have stated in polls that they will not take the vaccine unless it is proven to be at least 75% effective.

Here is where I think we have our explanation for the vaccination bonanza. The elites know that a third of Americans will not take the vaccine regardless of any propaganda they dish out. They also know that 60% of Americans are unlikely to take the vaccine unless they can show an effectiveness rate of at least 95%. Neither Moderna nor Pfizer have actually produced any evidence that their vaccines are capable of preventing severe illness or death from Covid, so, their effectiveness rate is based on “projections” of success according to their minimal trials. Meaning, the effectiveness rate of 95% is completely arbitrary. Six of Pfizer’s volunteers have died so far as of December 12th, 2020.

Why did they go with such a high number instead of a more realistic 50% to 60%? Because the polls say they need an epic effectiveness rate in order to convince Americans to take the vaccine. I think it is really as simple as that. With what we now know about mRNA vaccines, the harm will backfire on the likes of Dr. Fauci, Dr. Birx, Dr. Redfield, and even eugenics advocate himself Bill Gates, No one knows with total certainty what is in those vaccines. And even if you did, you cannot be sure of the long term consequence. 65 million Americans got the tainted SV-40 cancer cells in the Salk/Sabin polio vaccine from 1952-1962. Then there was the “swine” flu vaccine fiasco that took 100,000 lives in 2009. Need I go on or have you forgotten?

Americans are skeptical of the vaccines for a number of reasons. The reality that they are minimally tested and rushed out in less than a year is one reason. Under the best conditions, a vaccine requires 5-7 years to be considered safe. The fact that the government and the media have been caught censoring or lying about Covid data is another reason. People just don't trust the elites, and who can blame them? Who would trust this cabal of psychopaths to inject them with an unknown viral cocktail? Maybe their intentions are not so pure?

The public is right to be suspicious. A former Pfizer vice president, Dr. Michael Yeadon among other medical professionals have recently warned that the vaccines have not been adequately tested and that there is a risk of “indefinite infertility” for women who take the current Covid vaccine due to damaging autoimmune response. In other words, the vaccine could make many women barren and unable to have children.

Maybe this is what Bill Gates meant when he stated in his Ted Talk that “vaccines and reproductive services” could help contribute to a reduction of the Earth's population of 10% to 15% as a means to “stop global warming. Bill Gates was a college drop out in his second year at Harvard, and as I have noted before his arrogance betrays his stupidity. His own words convict his bias towards eugenics and depopulation.

Why would Bill Gates mention vaccines in the same breath as “reproductive services” in reference to population reduction? Aren't vaccines supposed to help people live longer? Well, the Pfizer VP's warning about the Covid-19 vaccine is setting off alarm bells. Maybe the Covid-19 vaccine won't make you sick, or kill you, but what about the second booster shot. Maybe you will live a long life free of coronavirus, but you'll find out a few years after taking the vaccine that you won't ever be able to have kids.

Watch the movie ‘Children of Men’ to get a sense of what the future might be like if the globalists get their way.

In the meantime, the elites are trying with everything they have to convince the public that they must abandon notions of civil liberties in the name of survival and “the greater good”. They were already talking about how things will never go back to normal, and the changes being made today will stay in place for many years to come, forever!

Governments are in the media right now claiming the vaccines “will not be mandatory”. Don't bet the bank on that one. This is a lie from the get go. At the same time they are putting mandates in place to require you to prove you are vaccinated in order to go to public places and even to go to work. Qantas Airlines and six other airlines will require proof of vaccination or you do not fly on their airline. Basically, you take the vaccine or you die from poverty. This is certainly not a choice.

Millions of Americans are awakening and standing in opposition to this agenda. The protests in lockdown states like Michigan, California and New York will not be peaceful much longer. Mass protests in Europe have been violent for months and it will happen here too. The Klaus Schwab Reset scheme is being exposed and the truth breaking into the mainstream.

I'm not pessimistic about the future. I know a crash is coming. I know a fight is coming. I hold a Biblical worldview and so all of the past year has reinforced by point of view. But right now what I see is a fight that can and will be won by those that respect the principles of freedom. The globalists may have overplayed their hand, as some are saying. This week the globalists put their cards on the table!

It was announced this week that a “historic new partnership” between the Vatican and “some of the world’s largest investment and business leaders” called the “Council for Inclusive Capitalism” has officially launched. Oh, and did we mention it is being helped along by a member of the Rothschild family, Lynn Forester de Rothschild?

The “council” says its formation “signifies the urgency of joining moral and market imperatives to reform capitalism into a powerful force for the good of humanity”, according to a release published Tuesday.

“Under the moral guidance” of the Pope, it says it “invites companies of all sizes to harness the potential of the private sector to build a fairer, more inclusive, and sustainable economic foundation for the world.”

And get this – the council is led by a “core group of global leaders” called the Guardians for Inclusive Capitalism.

This group, who you have likely never heard of until today, apparently “meet annually with Pope Francis and Cardinal Turkson” and represents “more than $10.5 trillion in assets under management, companies with over $2.1 trillion of market capitalization, and 200 million workers in over 163 countries.”

Pope Francis said in the council’s press release: “An economic system that is fair, trustworthy, and capable of addressing the most profound challenges facing humanity and our planet is urgently needed. You have taken up the challenge by seeking ways to make capitalism become a more inclusive instrument for integral human wellbeing.”

And by linking what appears to be the most powerful people on Earth – overseeing an ungodly amount of money – to the Vatican. Can we get an Amen?

Lynn Forester de Rothschild, Founder of the Council and Managing Partner of Inclusive Capital Partners, commented: “Capitalism has created enormous global prosperity, but it has also left too many people behind, led to degradation of our planet, and is not widely trusted in society. This Council will follow the warning from Pope Francis to listen to ‘the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor’ and answer society’s demands for a more equitable and sustainable model of growth.”

Among the list of “Guardians” are:

- Edward Breen, Executive Chairman, Dupont

Hello New World Order!

This man and his son are waiting for the world to call for him to be their leader. We know from the evidence which I presented in Part 6 of “The Satanic Talmud and the Synagogue of Satan” he is the Antichrist. He simply may not recognize that he is the Antichrist, at least for the present, but he was called the Savior of Humanity at the Earth Summit. In 2002, “Winged Prince is ‘Savior of the World’ ”, Fox News Life, March 7, 2002.

“LONDON — The Prince of Wales is to be immortalized in bronze as a muscular, winged god dressed in nothing more than a loincloth. He will be the first living member of the Royal Family to have a life-size statue dedicated in his honor. Although the Prince is destined to become Defender of the Faith when he becomes King of England, the inscription on the statue in Brazil will honor him as ‘Savior of the World’.”

Although Israel is God’s “Time Piece” to be watching for events that will signal the Rapture, this member of the Royal Family is yielding signs of his assuming the seat of global power. Jose Wilson Sequeira Campos, the Governor of Tocantins, in central Brazil, said: "It is Prince Charles saving the world. We think he is deserving of it." While the muscular physique of the statue, complete with bulging pectorals, may not immediately shout Prince Charles, the facial features are unmistakable, even if he has a full head of hair and small, pinned back ears.

Prince Charles saving the world? Don't laugh or scoff! Many people remember him as being proud and haughty, and mean to the beloved Princess Diana; however, Charles traveled a long way back in many people's minds when he went to Diana's defense against the Queen, after Di had been killed in 1998. Further, remember that the man who will ultimately be Antichrist will be a practitioner of Black Magick Witchcraft, just as Daniel 8:23-25 foretells; therefore, he will absolutely ooze charm once he appears on earth, for there are powerful charm rituals guaranteed to "charm" anyone not saved by the Blood of the Lamb! Charm is a common expression used to describe Prince Charles by those who have met him in person.

Mr. "Sustainable Development", Prince Charles' side-kick the False Prophet has just threw his backing for the Antichrist plans note above. A report from VATICAN CITY, December 10, 2020 by LifeSiteNews said Pope Francis joined forces with major global corporations such as the Rockefeller Foundation and Bank of America to promote a new "economic system" of capitalism based on the United Nations' Sustainable Development Goals.

Launched on December 8, the feast of the Immaculate Conception, the Vatican partnership with the "Council for Inclusive Capitalism with the Vatican" is apparently a response to Pope Francis's desire "to build inclusive and sustainable economies and societies." The Council describes itself as "a movement of the world's business and public sector leaders who are working to build a more inclusive, sustainable, and trusted economic system that addresses the needs of our people and the planet."

The press release on the group's website hailed the news as "historic," adding that the group is "inspired by the moral imperative of all faiths." The new partnership "signifies the urgency of joining moral and market imperatives to reform capitalism into a powerful force for the good of humanity."

It all sounds so positive but it is this that leads to the kingdom of the Antichrist if you can't see.

Among the 27 Guardians are CEOs, chairmen, presidents, and other high ranking officials from companies such as Mastercard, DuPont, the U.N, Johnson & Johnson, VISA, BP, Bank of America, and The Rockefeller Foundation.

According to its own guiding principles, the Council declares that "capitalism must evolve to promote a more sustainable, trusted, equitable, and inclusive system that works for everyone." Its various members must commit to "promoting sustainable, inclusive, strong and trusted economies around the world,” saying it will “define and implement” its various actions.

The numerous commitments of the Council are divided into four categories: “People, Planet, Principles of Governance, Prosperity.” As part of its overall vision, the Council proposes “Equality of opportunity for all people to pursue prosperity and quality of life, irrespective of criteria such as socio-economic background, gender, ethnicity, religion or age.”

A number of companies' commitments reflect this, with specific policies relating to net carbon emissions and racial issues. All actions, however, are fundamentally to promote “environmental, social, and governance measures” in order to “achieve the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals.” The Council challenges business and investment leaders of all sizes” to adopt its principles.

Pope Francis previously expressed support for the UN’s Goals, despite the UN Calling for “universal access to sexual and reproductive health care services, including for family planning, information and education, and the integration of reproductive health into national strategies and programs,” which includes contraception and abortion.

Speaking to the Council for Inclusive Capitalism, Pope Francis said, “An economic system that is fair, trustworthy, and capable of addressing the most profound challenges facing humanity and our planet is urgently needed. You have taken up the challenge by seeking ways to make capitalism become a more inclusive instrument for integral human wellbeing.”

Lynn Forester de Rothschild, founding and managing partner of Inclusive Capital Partners and of whom the Council is the brainchild, said in a statement, “Capitalism has created enormous global prosperity, but it has also left too many people behind, led to degradation of our planet, and is not widely trusted in society. This Council will follow the admonishment of Pope Francis to listen to ‘the cry of the earth and the cry of the poor’ and answer society’s demands for a more equitable and sustainable model of growth.”

‘Forbes’ magazine noted the irony of the news, since the very people whom the Pope is partnering with are “the people that the pope points to when he calls out wealth inequality.”

Alliance as a part of the Pope’s Great Reset support? This latest alliance between the Vatican and global corporations would appear to be the next step in the Pope’s desire to conform global politics to the United Nations. In 2019, he made a speech advocating for globalist world practices, calling for “globalization to be beneficial for all.”

Referring to a “supranational common good,” the Pope added that “there is need for a special legally constituted authority capable of facilitating its implementation.” Say good bye to the U.S. Constitution!

The Pope once again signaled his concern that the UN Sustainable Development Goals be implemented. “There is a risk of compromising already established forms of international cooperation, undermining the aims of international organizations as a space for dialogue and meeting for all countries on a level of mutual respect, and hindering the achievement of the sustainable development goals unanimously approved by the General Assembly of the United Nations on 25 September 2015.”

Earlier this year at an event called “New Forms of Solidarity,” the Pope spoke to national finance ministers as well as the director of the International Monetary Fund. He suggested that “We have to choose what and who to prioritize.”

Pope Francis will now be able to directly affect such global policy and financial decisions since the Council’s alliance with the Vatican means that it is now under the “moral guidance” of the Pope. This is the “False Prophet” of Revelation 13 asserting his power through the UN. It is the False Prophet who will require all people who want to buy or sell to have the “Mark” on their forehead or right hand –(Revelation 13:16-17). We know the number of that “Mark” of that Beast is “666” –(Revelation 13:18).

Only days ago, Pope Francis used the phrase “build back better,” the slogan that has become synonymous with globalist polices. The phrase is the name of Joe Biden’s website, BuildBackBetter.gov, on which he claims to be “restoring American leadership.” To build back better can be expressed another way, the new world order!

Klaus Schwab, head of the World Economic Forum, is a prominent proponent of the Great Reset, stating, “In short, we need a ‘Great Reset’ of capitalism.” Schwab has actually published a book titled ‘COVID-19: The Great Reset,’ in which he outlines the “changes” necessary for a more “sustainable world going forward.”

The letters of the name «VICARIUS FILII DEI» really add up to 666:

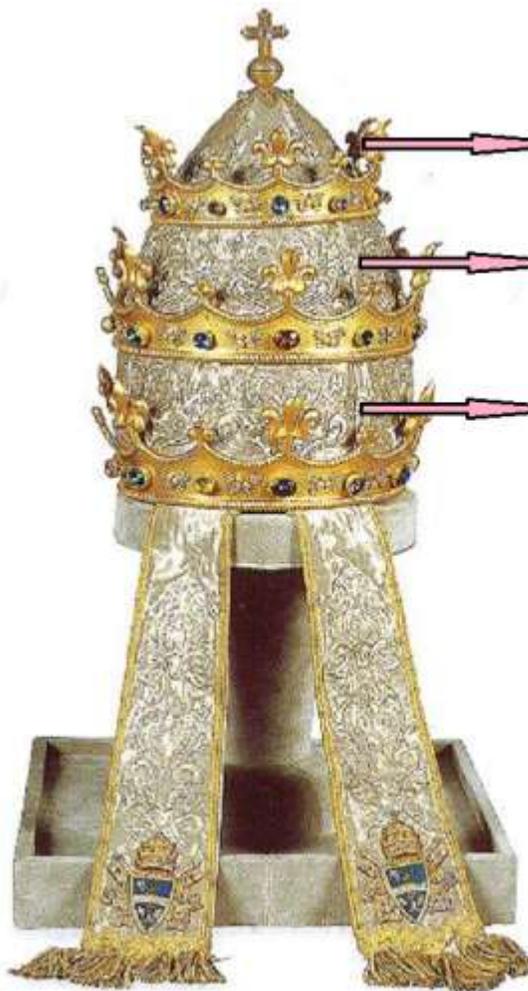

V	I	C	A	R	I	U	S	F	I	L	I	I	D	E	I

It must be noted that the Romans wrote the «U» as a «V». Thus, the word «VICARIUS» was written «VICARIVS», which explains why the «U» in «VICARIUS» is worth 5.

«The number of his name.»

Below is the symbol of the original Babylonian Magic Square Amulet to the Worship of the Sun God. The numbers 1 to 36 added = 666. In ancient Babylon they had an occultic device called the 'Magic Square' which the pagan priests wore as a sacred amulet around their necks and used them in the worship of their Sun god. Moreover, this Magic Square was based on a 6 X 6 sided square with numbers ranging from 1 to 36, and the total numerical value of the entire square was equal to 666. This is the origin of this mystery number and is identified with Satan and his domain "MYSTERY, Babylon the Great" throughout the Bible. For the full history background

Count the Number of the Beast

And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name.

Here is wisdom. Let him that hath understanding count the number of the beast: for it is the number of a man; and his number is Six hundred threescore and six.

NASICH CHARLES ME WALES

Prince Charles of Wales reeks of charm to the rich and famous of the world but what can the world expect from him when he is selected to become the King of the World. If we look close at his many pet projects we can gain something of an image of a dictator by his Royal Rulebook.

Prince Charles has banned washing lines, satellite dishes and boozy behaviour on his new housing development in Cornwall. The Prince of Wales has imposed 85 rules on the Nansledan estate - with slamming doors and loud arguing also strictly off limits.

The rules are to "protect the character" of the housing development. The housing development is a 540-acre extension to the town of Newquay built by the Prince's Duchy of Cornwall.

Residents are banned from flying flags and must keep their trash bins out of sight unless on collection day. A 35-page rulebook sets out that homeowners cannot have satellite dishes, plastic blinds, external drainpipes, solar panels, bubbled skylights, porches and caravans. Reminds me of Penn Township's ordinance about the height of my grass back in Westmoreland County, PA.

Slamming doors, loud arguing, prostitution and drunkenness, are also prohibited, according to the documents. The guidelines tell residents they must not "act offensively, abusively or in an insulting manner", "cause offence through drunkenness", “make any unnecessary or excessive noise including by arguing or slamming of doors”, and “cause any annoyance or nuisance by pets including barking and fouling”.

Urban planner Peter Kelly called the restrictions “pretty terrifying”. He said on Twitter: “Have a read of the very strict design and social code for Prince Charles's latest toy town - Nansledan. It's pretty terrifying. No flags in windows or on walls, satellite dishes, caravans, repairing of vehicles or washing lines allowed...”

The rules were set by the Duchy of Cornwall, not by the Prince himself, according to the Telegraph. The estate has been built using traditional Cornish methods and the rules are to “protect the character” of Nansledan. All stone and slate must be from a West Country quarry - with no red bricks allowed in the development. In April, planning permission was granted for the latest phase of 265 homes which cost up to £500,000 each. In U.S. dollars these tiny matchbox townhouse will set you back $660,000+ and from my knowledge of building a home, they are not more than 800 square-feet.

Rumors about Queen Elizabeth’s possible abdication have been making rounds on the cyberspace for quite some time now. Aside from her advanced age and weakening health, the Queen is, allegedly, planning to spend more time with her 98-year-old husband, Prince Philip. Though neither of the royal family members has confirmed these speculations, some followers are convinced that this might happen sooner or later.

Recently, psychic Craig Hamilton-Parker made a fearless forecast about the fate of Queen Elizabeth and the British monarchy in 2020. The soothsayer claimed there is a huge possibility that Prince William and Prince Harry’s grandmother will retire this year. He added that Prince Charles, who is the heir apparent to the British throne, will be taking more of his mother’s duties and responsibilities.

“We’re going to notice Queen Elizabeth becoming more and more tired and see a lot more of Charles doing her engagements and speeches while she takes more of [the] backseat,” Craig said, “This is the gradual winding down of an era as Charles begins to head towards the throne,” he went on.

This is not the first time that Her Majesty was rumored to be stepping down from the throne to live a private life. In Dec. 2019, royal expert Richard Berthelsen told CTN News that Queen Elizabeth will be following to steps of her better half, who retired at the age of 95. The abdication rumors emerged amid the Duke of Edinburgh’s alleged health problems.

“She’s about two years away from that now, the Duke of Edinburgh is 98,” Richard claimed. “I think the Queen would, if she felt she couldn’t perform the duties to the full extent she would like to do, she would probably feel it would be appropriate for her to either make way for a regency or to out and out abdicate,” he continued.

However, 'Reader's Digest', previously, reported that Queen Elizabeth is very unlikely to consider abdication in this lifetime. The publication even cited royal insider, who claimed that Her Majesty will never step down and give up the throne. Instead, she could, possibly, appoint a regent to perform her tasks as the British monarch.

Prince Charles turned 72 in November, 2020 which means that eventually he'll be the oldest king to assume the British throne from his mother, Queen Elizabeth II.

But that's not the only record he has broken at his age. He's also the oldest and longest-serving heir apparent in British history. (The current record is held by William IV, who succeeded to the throne in 1830 at 64 years old.)

Charles is also the longest-serving Prince of Wales, a title he was awarded in 1958. Charles Philip Arthur George Mountbatten-Windsor, @ClarenceHouse @RoyalFamily, was born at Buckingham Palace at 9:14 p.m. on November 14, 1948. He is the first child of then Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip, and will be the 63rd king of Great Britain.

"The perpetual prince," as he's sometimes called by the British media, responds to his age records with a sense of humour, noting that he doesn't see himself on "standby," but simply doing another job and enjoying the freedom. Perhaps the appeal of an invitation to become King of the World will prevail, thus allowing his son William to become the King of England, breaking UK and Commonwealth protocols.

Meanwhile, he keeps up a heavy load of duties that sees him working seven days a week and attending to an increasing number of royal duties that the Queen has relegated due to her advanced age.

As Prince of Wales, he undertakes official duties on behalf of the Queen and the Commonwealth. He founded The Prince's Trust in 1976, a charitable organization under whose umbrella are more than 15 institutions which have been working for years and he's a patron, president and member of over 400 other charities and organizations.

"Prince Charles, whose title is also the Duke of Cornwall, wants to turn his country - as well as the whole world - into a place that is more environmentally aware, filled with culture, more social and above all, greener." "He planted an entirely new forest in honour of his grandson George."

Prince Charles frequently talks about his role helping to protect the future of younger generations. Rather than taking things easy at 72, he's been performing more royal duties than ever in recent years. Back in 1997 when Joan Veon wrote her book, 'Prince Charles: The Sustainable Prince' we were afforded a glimpse of the future King of England and the World! As a result of covering two dozen United Nations and U.N.-related conferences in the last four years, Joan Veon has come to believe that the connection between the British royal family and the United Nations is not coincidental but provides the way for America to be rejoined with Britain. She states that when the Senate ratified the United Nations Charter, America reverted back under British rule thus fulfilling the goals of Cecil Rhodes, the diamond and gold magnate, who left his fortune to achieve this very goal. What this means is that Prince Charles, as heir to the British throne, has a bigger role to play in world affairs than what people could imagine. She knows that he is a "Renaissance man" and a man with a mission. As a result of his behind-the-scenes role at the United Nations, Prince Charles is responsible for changing the order of life from the biblical perspective of man having dominance over the earth to one in which the earth has dominance over man. One of the major environmental philosophies which run tantamount to this is that of "sustainable development." Because of his global orchestrations, she dubbed Charles "the sustainable prince." This is an important book for those who seek to understand the day and the hour and the powers that rule over us. When Joan Veon wrote her treatise on Prince Charles, I suspect she may have had an inkling thought of his destiny.

Although the Bible indicates that the world will not know the identity of the Antichrist, I can honestly say I knew in the spring of 1996 that Charles would be the Antichrist. Even at the age of 72, he is still young enough to be instrumental to sign the peace treaty with the many of Daniel 9:27, "And he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week: and in the midst of the week he shall cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease, and for the overspreading of abominations he shall make it desolate, even until the consummation, and that determined shall be poured upon the desolate." I think many are not mentally prepared for Prince Charles to be the Antichrist based upon how they interpret 9:27.

Prince Charles is on record at Davos last January 22, 2020. Only a revolution in the way the global economy and financial markets work can save the planet from the climate crisis and secure future prosperity, Prince Charles warned on Wednesday.

"We can't go on like this, with every month another record in temperatures being broken," he told CNN in an exclusive interview at the World Economic Forum in Davos, Switzerland. "If we leave it too long, and we have done, just growing things is going to become difficult."

The heir to the British throne and lifelong environmentalist was speaking to CNN after he threw down a challenge to the global business and finance elites in Davos to lead a "paradigm shift, one that inspires action at revolutionary levels and pace" to avert the approaching catastrophe.

"Do we want to go down in history as the people who did nothing to bring the world back from the brink in time to restore the balance when we could have done? I don't want to," he told the audience at the WEF's 50th annual meeting.

"And just think for a moment — what good is all the extra wealth in the world, gained from 'business as usual,' if you can do nothing with it except watch it burn in catastrophic conditions?"

Just this year, huge forest fires exacerbated by climate change have devastated vast areas of land in Australia and killed millions of animals. Recent research shows that the world's oceans are absorbing as much heat as that generated by five atomic bombs every second. Toxic smog continues to choke India's cities despite repeated promises of cleaner air from the government, and the last decade was the warmest in recorded history.

The climate crisis stole the headlines on the first full day of this week's meeting in Davos. Teenage activist Greta Thunberg on Tuesday admonished the business and political elite for doing "basically nothing" to reduce the carbon emissions that are fuelling global warming.

Bushfires have destroyed huge areas of Australia in recent months.

Speaking later, President Donald Trump — who has pulled the United States out of the 2015 Paris Climate accord — signed up for a global initiative to plant 1 trillion trees, but dismissed climate activists as "perennial prophets of doom" and the "heirs of yesterday's foolish fortune tellers." He said breakthroughs that result from the dynamism of market economies were able to solve any problem.

Prince Charles, who discussed climate change with Trump last summer, met Thunberg for the first time after his speech.

"She's remarkable, she represents one of the main reasons why I've been trying to make all this effort all these years," he told CNN. "I've always worried about the fact that so often, in terms of humanity, we leave things too late so you have to hit a brick wall and experience a catastrophe before anything happens."

The Prince of Wales used Wednesday's address to launch his "Sustainable Markets Initiative." He said urgent action was required to reconfigure markets to put people and the planet "at the heart of global value creation."

Britain's next head of state, who gave his first speech on the environment in 1968, said bold and imaginative action was needed to tackle the greatest threat humanity has ever faced. He outlined a 10-point plan to put the natural world at the heart of the business world.

"Nature's contribution to the global economy is estimated to be worth $125 trillion annually," he said. "Nature is, in fact, the lifeblood of our financial markets and, as such, we must — rapidly — realign our own economy to mimic nature's economy and work in harmony with it."

The steps advocated by the prince include reversing damaging subsidies, investing in technological innovation, creating new sustainable products and services, and giving consumers much greater transparency about supply chains.

Last year's global climate summit in Madrid saw some progress in tackling the crisis, but fell far short of what many climate activists and scientists had expected and failed to finalize the rules of a new global carbon market — a key element of the Paris accord.

Could Prince Charles be a lunatic with delusional maniacal tendencies? Just asking!

There have been eye-catching promises by some of the world's top companies in recent weeks. Microsoft (MSFT) said it planned to become emissions "negative" by 2030 as a step towards eradicating its entire historic carbon footprint. And BlackRock (BLK), which manages $7 trillion in assets, promised to ditch investments it considers a risk to sustainability.

Prince Charles said he would be convening a series of discussions across a range of industries with innovators, investors and decision-makers to help design a new course and form a global alliance to mobilize the trillions of dollars needed to put the economy "on the correct path."

"I intend to do my utmost to ensure that the message of urgency, systemic change, collaboration and integration is heard," he said. "We simply cannot waste any more time — the only limit is our willingness to act, and the time to act is now."

The identity of the Antichrist will not be known by the world for certainty until he signs the treaty guaranteeing peace for the nation of Israel —(Daniel 9:27). This is when he will be revealed —(2nd Thessalonians 2). Pastor Bob's calling the identity of the Antichrist is with a 99.99999999 confidence level. Since I do not plan to be here much longer, I will not take wagers since I have not figured a way to know how I could collect my winnings!

Blessings and keep looking up, keep an eye open on the "Sustainable Prince"!
