

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #52

Rapture / Great Tribulation

I have been waiting for a little over a year to use this meme. The signs have been there for over a year. Isaiah 5:20 has been all over the map for a number of years and increasing in frequency and intensity. “Woe unto them that call evil good, and good evil; that put darkness for light, and light for darkness; that put bitter for sweet, and sweet for bitter!”

Although the stock market hit a new high again 31,458 on Friday, February 12th, it is a given, that which goes up, must come down. This reality has never been more probable than it is today. Because of the silver debacle that resulted from the ‘naked shorts’ of those who pumped and dumped the stock of Gamestock. Because ‘gamers’ jumped on the bandwagon and began to buy and drive up Gamestock’s stock, it put those hedge funds and too-big-to-fail banks who sold Gamestock short are faced with a real problem. They lost big in this problem of naked shorts. The contracts or the holders of those contracts have to come up with $80-billion on February 24th to settle their accounts. No need for me to take time to go into the details, but this is one of those situations that the big guys are going to take a beating when they settle. J.P. Morgan has illegally kept the price of silver suppressed and the huge jump of little people investing in silver has added pressure driving the price of silver up. The collective issue now could start a domino chain reaction and engulf all markets.

However, there have been two incidents last week that are even of greater concern and portend of serious problems for the U.S. Dollar. The week before last the Federal Reserve Swift System clearing house of all financial activity went down for three hours. Then a few days later debit card terminals for Visa, Master Card, and American Express were down for a significant part of the weekend, and people could not withdraw cash! These are blips but have serious consequences.

China is pushing to become the Reserve Currency of the world, and the U.S. is likely to get pushed aside after China claims the #1 super economic power status. China just became India's largest trading partner edging out the U.S. for the first time in history.

The IMF is looking at creating a Global version of Bitcoin that will replace all fiat currencies, paper denominated bills. Klaus Schwab and his Global Reset and the IMF are moving the world to the "cashless" economy. The IMF is looking to replace currencies with SDR's, something that Klaus Schwab likes. SDR's are known as "Special Drawings Rights" and you can be sure that the Rothschild's are in the background here since they control world lending and credit. The global elite want to replace the dollar, Bitcoin, and gold with a digital currency. This is a year or two out the road, and so you will see propaganda about how bad the dollar and other currencies need to be replaced.

This could accelerate faster than you can blink your eye if a market crash occurs in the coming weeks. Inflation or super-inflation would become impotent and exacerbate the problem. The global financial markets are on the tip of a razor with the Federal Reserve's inflationary printing of dollars. 25% of all dollars created have been created in the past three years. The Rothschild-controlled Federal Reserve allowed the Trump administration to max out the credit card, thinking that President Trump would deliver Iran's national bank to the control of the Rothschild's "Fiat" money system. Trump believed he had a tiger by the tail and could control the Rothschild's. Of the seven business bankruptcies of Donald Trump's real estate world, Trump was bailed out by Rothschild-owned banks in each case. Anyone can see that did not work out well for Donald Trump, and now the U.S. is bombing in Syria again and senile Joe Biden is pushing a war in the Ukraine again with Russia.

World events have never been more precarious than they are today. As the world is in economic chaos from the false pandemic things are going from bad to worse on the world's stage. The Blessed Hope may be a week away or may be months at most but we can still be comforted in those words to be looking up.

The topic of the "Birth Pangs" comes up often these days and so the folks who have not been watching the signs will appreciate knowing what to be aware of. They serve as watchful signs of where we are on the prophetic spectrum of time. They are like flashing yellow signs at major traffic intersections. They get our attention and help us focus on matters that require our attention. God's warnings historically always came with adequate warning of what was coming to His people!

Birth pangs, in terms of Bible Prophecy, refers to certain convulsive geopolitical, geophysical, astrophysical and world-wide socio-economic events and issues scheduled to occur in the time leading up to Jesus Christ's Second Advent (second coming). These are likened to the contractions experienced by a woman about to give birth, with those episodes increasing with frequency and intensity. Jesus' foretelling of these birth pangs use the word "sorrows," in His Olivet Discourse on end time things to come.

"And as he sat upon the mount of Olives, the disciples came unto him privately, saying, Tell us, when shall these things be? and what shall be the sign of thy coming, and of the end of the world? And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many. And ye shall hear of wars and rumors of wars: see that ye be not troubled: for all these things must come to pass, but the end is not yet. For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places. All these are the beginning of sorrows." -(Matthew 24:3-8)

Jesus' prophecy is further expounded upon in another of the Gospels.

"And he said, Take heed that ye be not deceived: for many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and the time draweth near: go ye not therefore after them. But when ye shall hear of wars and commotions, be not terrified: for these things must first come to pass; but the end is not by and by. Then said he unto them, Nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven"

"And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring; Men's hearts failing them for fear, and for looking after those things which are coming on the earth: for the powers of heaven shall be shaken. And then shall they see the Son of man coming in a cloud with power and great glory. And when these things begin to come to pass, then look up, and lift up your heads; for your redemption draweth nigh." -(Luke 21: 8-11, 25-28)

All of the birth pangs were given by Jesus and the Old and New Testament prophets in context of the Tribulation of Daniel's seventieth week. This will be the last 7 years of human history leading up to Christ's Second Advent. Daniel 9:24-27 in recent years came into greater focus that it virtually jumps off the pages of the Bible in real form.

Scholars in Bible Prophecy believe that although the world isn't yet in that prophesied time of unprecedented horror, the stage is being set. The birth pangs are already being felt. Christians are commanded by Jesus to watch for the birth pang-like developments.

"What I say to one, I say to all; watch." -(Mark 13: 37)

“I am telling you now before it happens, so that when it does happen you will believe that I am who I am.” –(John 13:19)

Many who observe the times believe that God in His mercy and grace is allowing us to see foreshadows of the coming apocalyptic storm. One such observer likens the stage setting the birth pang symptoms to be not unlike a storm front. Prophecy is history told in advance. The storm front is in the horizon, the birth pangs are being felt as one feels the barometric changes of the storm.

Top 10 birth pangs: Count down from number 10 to number 1 in significance, relative to current issues and events.

10: Signs in Sun, Moon, stars

“And there shall be signs in the sun, and in the moon, and in the stars; and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity; the sea and the waves roaring” - (Luke 21:25).

The present world of earth dwellers has seen signs in the sun, moon and stars that no other generation has seen. From looking into the universe with our powerful telescopes, to spacecraft traversing the black void beyond the farthest planet of our solar system, we have seen things through the prism of photographic science something no other people in earth's history has known.

Whether considering the solar flares that disrupt earth's electro-magnetic mechanics, or looking with awe upon spectacular landings on the moon, or observing with horror the explosions of two shuttles, we have seen fearful signs. Who could but be mesmerized by watching the Shumaker-Levy 9 comet slam into Jupiter in July, 1994?

UFO sightings around the globe are becoming almost routine fare. Pilots, prime ministers, presidents and just plain people report seeing spectacular light shows, moving apparently with directed intelligence throughout the night skies.

We have seen the beginnings of this birth pang, scheduled to become much more intensive when the Tribulation begins.

9: Violence upon the whole Earth

“And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man” -(Luke 17:26).

“The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence” - (Genesis 6:11).

“And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth”
-(Genesis 6:13).

All one must do is to look at the headlines to know that the earth is filled with violence. Jesus’ words of the world being like in the time of Noah just before the flood certainly is an apt description of this generation, no matter what earth society one cares to examine.

If you go to the darkest regions, there are tribal slaughters. If one looks at the sophisticated societies of the western world, there is violence among gangs, among families, and one on one homicidal rage. Terrorism from the Middle East is indicative of violence that literally saturates the human condition. Persecution of those who identify themselves as Christians around the world has been alarming, and it has been occurring more frequently in our own country the past few years.

Violence in this last time is a symptom of the beginning of sorrows.

8: Famines, pestilence, earthquakes

“For nation shall rise against nation, and kingdom against kingdom: and there shall be famines, and pestilences, and earthquakes, in divers places” -(Matthew 24:7).

“And great earthquakes shall be in divers places, and famines, and pestilences; and fearful sights and great signs shall there be from heaven” -(Luke 21:11).

It is an astounding paradox that there is at the same time plenty of every variety of life-sustaining foods, and medicines in most of the western world particularly in America, yet there are deadly pestilences and famines in places such as Ethiopia, the Sudan, and many other geographical regions. These are created in almost every case by ethnic cleansing ordered by dictators, just as Jesus foretold. “Nation shall rise against nation” The word for “nation” is the Greek word “ethnos,” from which our English word “ethnic” is derived.

Earthquakes are being reported at an exponentially growing rate. Not just quakes, but quakes of significant magnitude. The increase can be quantified and verified today, with the vast technological advances in monitoring. Seismic activity charted in graph form reveals just how the planet has seen these birth pangs skyrocket.

Earthquakes, Wars and rumors of war are birth pang precursors to the impending emergence of a time of unprecedented sorrows.

7: Nations in distress with perplexity

“And there shall be signs and upon the earth distress of nations, with perplexity, the sea and the waves roaring” -(Luke 21: 25).

Planet earth and all of the nations during this last time are filled with perplexities when trying to fix the things that seem to be broken. Economies are in trouble; there is ethnic rage around the world; no one can live in peace; terrorism threatens everyone, everywhere.

Yet, Jesus says these are just the beginning of sorrows announcing the Birth of a truly New World Order. It will be the Birth not of the time of Antichrist’s regime, but, ultimately, of Jesus Christ’s Millennial Kingdom. The Antichrist and his agents are in the process of doing a global reset of a different kind.

6: False prophets; false teachers

“And Jesus answered and said unto them, Take heed that no man deceive you. For many shall come in my name, saying, I am Christ; and shall deceive many” - (Matthew 24:4-5)

Jesus forewarned that there would be an assault on Truth by false teachers. A couple of recent examples of just these types of storm front type birth pangs are the attacks on the Deity of Jesus Christ. The secular entertainment and news industries as well as some within ‘Christendom’ are attempting to inculcate us with the message that Jesus didn’t really die on the Cross. It was a faked death and resurrection. That Jesus and Mary Magdalene were actually lovers, who produced offspring that now make up a progeny which will one day rule in some nebulous way that is never explained.

Documentaries have been shown time and time again, purporting that the bones of Jesus’ relatives perhaps even of Jesus, Himself, has been found in bone boxes in caves in and around Jerusalem. These are never backed by even the slightest of evidence – i.e., are fiction of the worst order. Every spring these alleged scholars produce another documentary designed to sow the seeds of doubt in the minds of the gullible.

Jesus, however forewarned of this, and told the generation who would begin seeing this type of false teaching to ‘believe it not’.

Jesus said they would come in His Name, and would even claim to be Him. Recent news accounts tell of individuals that claims just that, and each has received considerable news coverage.

“For the time will come when they will not endure sound doctrine; but after their own lusts shall they heap to themselves teachers, having itching ears; And they shall turn away their ears from the truth, and shall be turned unto fables” -(2nd Timothy 4:3-4).

Most troubling of all are the false teachers within Christianity. These proclaim a 'do-good' and 'feel-good' gospel. They totally stay away from preaching and teaching that people are sinners, thus are separated from the God who created them. They don't teach that a terrible price had to be paid to Redeem us from our sins. Jesus is Love, is the only message they want to teach. But, they refuse to fully reveal the extent of that Love. That God gave His Son, Jesus, as a sacrifice for the sins into which we are born since the fall in Eden.

They fear and their fears are well-grounded that if they preach the rest of God's Love offering to mankind, they will lose their huge audiences, who want only to hear the fairy tales they bring every Sunday in their gargantuan arenas, and through their multi-million dollar television forums.

The false teachers and itching ears of this last time are surely prime evidence that we are witnessing the birth pangs Jesus, and the Apostle Paul prophesied.

5: End-time Technology

“But thou, O Daniel, shut up the words, and seal the book, even to the time of the end: many shall run to and fro, and knowledge shall be increased” -(Daniel 12:4).

Daniel the prophet foretold a major birth pang. He prophesied a time when transportation and knowledge would increase. The past century to the present date has produced an explosion of transportation and knowledge experienced by no other people of any time in human history.

Man could mount a horse and ride at no more than 40 miles an hour or so from the time of the Garden of Eden, until the middle of the 19th Century. Since then man has progressed to the point of traveling at more than 20,000 miles an hour in a space craft, and his communication at the speed of light over wires, fiber optics, and beams of electronic transmissions through space and earth's atmosphere.

“And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name” (Rev. 13:16-17).

That explosion of knowledge has produced the technologies that can enslave the world. Antichrist will use satellite and computer technologies, no doubt, to put all earth dwellers in electronic bondage. Electronic funds transfer methodologies and devices are now capable of bringing all people into a cashless society one that can fit within the system foretold in Revelation 13:16-18. This represents a major birth pang. Today, there are 8-billion cell phones in use, That is more cell phones than there are people on the planet.

4: Nations Aligning for prophetic fulfillment

“Why do the heathen rage, and the people imagine a vain thing? The kings of the earth set themselves, and the rulers take counsel together, against the LORD, and against his anointed, saying, Let us break their bands asunder, and cast away their cords from us.” -(Psalms 2:1-3).

Nations today are aligning against God just as prophesied in the Psalms above. The birth pang-like convulsions are coming in contractions, as nation after nation pulls further from the prescription their Creator wrote for how life on earth must be conducted. Those nations specifically foretold to be end time players can be found in the following scriptures. They are in the news every day in our time.

Revived Roman Empire Daniel Chapter 2; 7; 8; 9; 11

Other nations:

China and “Kings of the east” – Revelation 9; 16

Russia, Iran (Persia,) and many others, Ezekiel, chapters 38; 39

3: Apostasy – One world church forming

Revelation, Chapters 13; 17

Revelation Chapter 13 prophesies that a false prophet will point all earth dwellers to Antichrist, who will, ultimately, demand worship. 2nd Thessalonians chapter 4 also speaks to this demand for the world to worship the “man of sin,” also known as the “son of perdition”.

There will develop an ecumenical amalgamation of many religions, leading to a one-world religious system, as outlined in Revelation, chapter 17. Pope Francis pushes unity so long as he is on top of the unity movement. His ‘Chrislam’ merging of Christianity and Islam is like mixing oil with water. Oil and water doesn’t mix because oil is made up of non-polar molecules while water molecules are polar. Oil will always float on water.

This apostate system will reign until Antichrist decides he wants all worship for himself. His regime will turn on all who run this one-world church, and destroy them.

There is a massive movement toward this system today. The cry is against Christianity, True Christianity that is that accuses adherents of Christ as the only way to Salvation, and Heaven of being narrow-minded and bigoted. There are many ways to God, they cry. They proclaim that the only way to end the religious bickering is to meld all religious beliefs into one system of religiosity.

The movement toward one-world religion is a major birth pang swelling and moving in our time.

2: One world Government forming, and at the same time, one world economy

The forming of a new world order is underway at a phenomenal pace. The so-called international community has arisen in this last time to pressure less powerful nations to conform to the developing one-world temple, or remain forever in destitution.

The European Union is the reviving Roman Empire, many prophecy observers believe, and is on the ascent in a swiftness that amazes. Daniel, Chapters 2, 7, 8, 9, and 11; Revelation 13, 17, chapter 18 all foretell of the rise of one world government.

We are seeing the development of world trading blocs, on the order of the EU. One such trading bloc is taking place in North America, and includes Canada, The U.S., and Mexico with smaller nations in the hemisphere most likely scheduled to be a part of the mix. These world economic blocs look to be what will eventuate in the 10 kings prophecy of Revelation chapter 17.

The economic convulsions taking place represent birth pangs that portend the coming Tribulation. This manifestation is now being advanced in the World Economic Forum as the 4th Industrial Revolution. This will result in every man, woman, and child on the Earth being microchipped with technology known as the QuantumDot:Hydrogel ID2020.

1 Israel

Nation born in one day:

“A voice of noise from the city, a voice from the temple, a voice of the LORD that rendereth recompence to his enemies. Before she travailed, she brought forth; before her pain came, she was delivered of a man child. Who hath heard such a thing? who hath seen such things? Shall the earth be made to bring forth in one day? or shall a nation be born at once? for as soon as Zion travailed, she brought forth her children. hall I bring to the birth, and not cause to bring forth? saith the LORD: shall I cause to bring forth, and shut the womb? saith thy God.” -(Isaiah 66:6-9).

Zechariah 12; 14, Burden to the whole world Israel is without question the single most profound signal that we are on the edge of entering the Tribulation.

Key among factors surrounding Israel as the number one birth pang is that nation being at the heart of the cry for peace and safety. As a matter-of-fact, Antichrist's confirming of a covenant of peace is the act that will bring in the Tribulation, it is foretold in Daniel 9: 27.

With the proposed roadmap to peace, and other such proposals, there is an increasing cry from the world of diplomacy today for peace and safety. This is not without good reason. The threat of thermonuclear war is unthinkable, so deadly would be the results.

The Apostle Paul prophesied this would be the case for the last time, and what the final result of that cry would be.

“For when they shall say, Peace and safety; then sudden destruction cometh upon them, as travail upon a woman with child; and they shall not escape” -(1st Thessalonians 5:3).

There is great world-wide clamor for peace today. Whether considering the area surrounding the tiny Jewish state of Israel, the entire mid-East region, or other less Biblical geographic areas of the world, people are grasping for peace and safety.

Specifically, there is a great cry for safety today, seeking security from the threat of global terrorism. This terrorism is, for the most part, wrapped around the existence of Israel in the area known as the Holy Land. Added to the volatility and tension is the matter of oil, which likely will be the catalyst in the geopolitical sense– for bringing all nations to Armageddon. Israel is increasingly being seen by the world diplomatic community as the hold-up to establishing peace. Land for peace is the deluded mantra. If Israel will give up more territory, the Islamic terrorists will cease their murderous rage.

The prophet Zechariah foretold that the whole world will turn against Israel, and that this will bring on the worst time of war making in world history (read Zechariah 12: 1-3.)

The cry for peace and safety will be answered by the end-time world leader, but the people of the world will get more than they bargained for.

“And through his policy also he shall cause craft to prosper in his hand; and he shall magnify [himself] in his heart, and by peace shall destroy many: he shall also stand up against the Prince of princes; but he shall be broken without hand” -(Daniel 8:25).

Israel, and its threat to world peace, because of Satanic rage against God’s chosen people is the number one birth pang that indicates where this generation stands on God’s Prophetic Timeline.

Share this with your friends, coworkers, unsaved family members, and neighbors: the hour is late. We are down to the 1-week point of March 6th, 2021 as shared in the videos of Blessed Hope #51. Go watch the three videos if you have not already. I will include them again below. Could the presenter be correct? I am not God and so like most of you, but I do hold high expectations. I’ll save you the search and include those three video links again below.

It is always possible that something was overlooked, and in the larger scope of the forthcoming Rapture, if it is not correct, the one thing that we can be confident that it has to be very close. By that I am saying that I will not be surprised if it came a day or two either side of the March 6th date. Nor will I be shocked if it does not take place as late as Rosh Hashanah this year, September 6-8, 2021.

It has been a year since Herr Klaus Schwab announced at Davos, his call for the “Great Reset”. Klaus Schwab is the co-founder of the World Economic Forum, founded way back in the early 1970’s if my memory is correct. It was created as a NGO, or non-government agency think tank, about the time the Club of Rome decided the world’s population was growing too fast.

In the wake of the Wuhan virus and the chaotic disruptions caused to the health, political, and economic systems of the world, many powerful leaders are now taking advantage of the pandemic in an attempt to bring about a New World Order. The advocates of globalism are calling for a “Great Reset” that will redesign the way the world operates and forever change its economic and social foundations. Could the Great Reset movement be another key event that paves the way to global socialism and the prophesied one-world empire of the Last Days? I hold a more cosmic view of the “Great Reset” than does Herr Schwab. What I do find provocative is the profound similarities of what is about to occur on the world stage of history.

Joe Biden, the US Democrat Party candidate for President in 2020, has advocated for radical changes to our institutions in the wake of the Wuhan pandemic. Breitbart reported that Biden has repeatedly called for fundamental changes to our way of life. They reported on May 4th, 2020, that Biden called the pandemic an “incredible opportunity...to fundamentally transform the country”. On May 11th, he said that the U.S. needs to have “revolutionary, institutional changes”. On July 9, Biden then promised an “end to the era of shareholder capitalism”. And all of this in response to a pandemic!

That last statement by Joe Biden is exactly what those who want a ‘Great Reset’ plan to do. Many have said in the past, “Never let a crisis go to waste!” So in response to the virus crisis, they want to force businesses to operate based not upon sales and profits, but upon the principle of whatever is good for society as a whole. Some of the largest companies that are viewed as being too large and powerful, they want to nationalize and completely take over (i.e., healthcare and energy). These are the same strategies used by Marxists and socialists wherever they have come to power to justify total takeovers of major corporations and the elimination of free-market capitalism.

In the Nineteenth Century, Karl Marx and Friedrich Engels published their treatises that became known as the Communist Manifesto. They strongly argued against capitalism as well as the world financial system that created it. By highlighting the problems and divisions within the capitalist society, they forcefully advocated an alternative revolutionary system that they claimed would solve all of society’s problems. This deceptive Marxist path to rule is almost exactly the same impulse that drives the Great Reset today.

Klaus Schwab, the founder and executive chairman of the World Economic Forum, has said,

“The world must act jointly and swiftly to revamp all aspects of our societies and economies, from education to social contracts and working conditions. Every country, from the United States to China, must participate, and every industry, from oil and gas to tech, must be transformed. In short, we need a ‘Great Reset’ of capitalism”.

What began as a health crisis has now become a mechanism for enacting global change that will affect everyone. Schwab also said that our response to the virus thus far proves that a “reset of our economic and social foundations is possible”.

The illustration above is based on the Great Reset diagram that the World Economic Forum published earlier this year. As you can see, it is filled with all of the most popular phrases and social causes we constantly hear promoted by the globalists and the elite. In the end, it represents a high-level blueprint by the globalists to redesign the world with their ‘enlightened’ vision.

At a World Economic Forum meeting in early June 2020, Prince Charles was quoted as saying, “We have a golden opportunity to seize something good from this [pandemic] crisis.” We now know that Prince Charles was aware of and responsible for the scamdemic, and at a minimum he was well aware of where it was launched from at the nearby Pirbright Institute. He was instrumental in getting President Trump removed from office in the 2020 elections.

“Its unprecedented shock waves may well make people more receptive to big visions of change, and global crises like pandemics and climate change know no borders, and highlight just how interdependent we are as one people sharing one planet.”

“It is an opportunity we have never had before and may never have again.”

“So we must use all the levers we have at our disposal, knowing that each and every one of us has a vital role to play.”

However, this vision of global change is not all good. On October 25, 2020, the Archbishop of Ulpiana, Carlo Maria Viganò, sent an open letter to US President Trump warning him of the dangers of the Great Reset initiative. Viganò said in his letter:

“A global plan called the Great Reset is underway. Its architect is a global élite that wants to subdue all of humanity, imposing coercive measures with which to drastically limit individual freedoms and those of entire populations. In several nations this plan has already been approved and financed; in others, it is still in an early stage. Behind the world leaders who are the accomplices and executors of this infernal project, there are unscrupulous characters that finance the World Economic Forum and Event 201, promoting their agenda.”

Viganò’s warning contained great wisdom as well as privileged insider information of the Papacy’s role in what is forthcoming. He goes on to describe how this globalist ideology is supported by dark spiritual forces seeking to bring about global tyranny. Ultimately, this has little to do with a virus. They are just using the pandemic as a reason to bring about greater global control. In reality, this is a battle between good and evil, between the light of Christ and the darkness of Satan. Such tyranny ultimately will lead to the rise of the Antichrist and the Empire of the Beast as predicted in the Bible for the Last Days.

Today, we stand at the precipice of global change. Viganò says that the plan to use the pandemic crisis will be to force universal vaccination “accompanied by a requirement of a health passport and a digital ID, with the consequent contact tracing of the population of the entire world. He says, “those who do not accept these measures will be confined in detention camps or placed under house arrest, and all their assets will be confiscated.”

Those people calling for a Great Reset are using the Wuhan virus scam as a justification to bring about a complete overhaul of the global economy. They are also using it as an excuse to move quickly toward global governance. Cardinal Viganò warns that in this process the globalists want to mark everyone with a digital ID as proof of vaccination and compliance with their safety protocols. Does this remind you of the Mark of the Beast? How much longer will it be before these prophecies come to pass? The tenets of capitalism - especially the relatively free-market capitalism practiced by the United States and most of its key allies in the West - has been an ongoing frustration to the goals of the globalist agenda. Those that are trying to bring about the vision of a global socialist or Marxist society cannot do so if some nations staunchly maintain their freedom and independence. This is why President Trump is so hated by the globalists. He has interrupted their plans to transform the U.S. into a socialist nation with globalist control over its economic, social, and political systems.

The Great Reset website also advocates strongly for this proposed global change, and they make it all sound so good. However, what they really want is not just to change capitalism into another system, but to also shut down or scale back major industries to 'save the planet' from their alleged environmental damage. They want everyone to consume less, which on the surface sounds great; however, if the world maintained the consumption levels of the shutdown phase of the Wuhan pandemic, then hundreds of millions of people would be without work indefinitely. Even now, because of the recent spike in Coronavirus cases, Europe and other countries are moving back to the dark days of complete shutdown. This move is likely to be disastrous for the economies of the world.

The use of economic shutdowns to stem the spread of a virus is simply not sustainable. Not only will it not stop the virus, but many people and families could become homeless as they can't pay their rents, mortgages, loans, or leases. In addition, countless small businesses across the globe might have to permanently shut down due to a lack of customers, and as a result, even more people would lose their jobs.

The Great Reset website openly says that they want to go beyond just a temporary virus shutdown. They want to completely eliminate entire industries starting with oil, gas, and coal which produce carbon emissions, to the auto industry which builds vehicles that run on gasoline, to grounding airplanes that consume massive quantities of jet fuel. These extreme positions are similar to the proposals of the political left when they speak of a Great Reset. These radical reactions to a virus pandemic are being used by the globalists to create revolutionary changes that many people will foolishly accept in exchange for "safety".

For the last 40 years, political progressives have tried to use global warming and climate change as harbingers of fear to justify their globalist objectives. Their latest attempt at revolutionary change is the Great Reset as a result of the coronavirus pandemic, which is the most radical plan yet devised.

'Politico Magazine' has said, "A crisis on this scale can reorder society in dramatic ways, for better or worse". Unfortunately, governmental response to any crisis has almost always resulted in greater power for the state and less freedom for people. As evidence of this shift from freedom to tyranny, some state governors in the U.S. have taken away basic constitutional rights from their citizens in the name of safety (The Times USA). The Independent reported that in the UK, the government is considering nationalizing the airlines, railways, and bus services to better provide safety. In Spain, the government has already nationalized all private hospitals to control the virus response

Today, leftists and progressives are at the leading edge of the globalist agenda. They sit poised like a loaded spring ready to explode at every crisis to create global change and increase control. To the globalists, this ultimately means establishing supranational governing authorities. This will eventually include a true governing World Parliament with authority over all nations, a World Court to rule on global legal disputes, a World Revenue Service for global taxation, and ultimately a world leader to move all countries into their global socialist vision of utopia.

All of these events and forces are coming together to prepare for the End Times rule of the Antichrist during the last 7 years of this age. His rule over all nations will be the ultimate fulfillment of the globalist agenda. Thousands of years ago, the prophets of the Bible predicted these events would occur just before Christ returns. When the Antichrist rises to power, Daniel tells us that he will “think to change the times and laws” - (Daniel 7:25). Dramatic change will be his mantra. The world is now crying out for a Great Reset and transformation. How much longer will it be before the Man of Sin arises to power and takes over the world? My analysis leads me to believe we are only talking a few months. That said, the proof of Prince Charles of Wales being the Antichrist or false Jewish messiah can be found in two books published more than twenty years ago.

It may never have occurred to you that the antichrist of the book of revelation is actually Prince Charles. I hadn't realized it myself until I stumbled on this in May, 1996. I was in Jo-Beth bookstore in Lexington, KY. I was killing time between two final exams and decided to do it at Jo-Beth's bookstore. A book on an end-cap grabbed my eye, it was Laurence Gardner's book 'Bloodline of the Holy Grail'. Two years later Tim Cohen came out with his book 'Antichrist and a Cup of Tea.'

The Order of the Garter is the secret mechanism through which the British monarchy had run the world since 1349. What is the Order of the Garter, one will ask. The Order of the Garter was founded as a means of covertly running France. The monarchy is actually the most powerful man on the planet and the order of the Garter is the control mechanism for the New World Order. Prince Charles is going to become King of Europe, and, soon, the King of Israel after it is admitted to the British Commonwealth.

A single bloodline connects the royal families of Europe. They see themselves as an exclusive and superior breed – genetically, morally and intellectually. For centuries they have used wars, economic sabotage and extensive political intrigue to advance their cause. Now that a federal Europe is finally taking shape, they are anxious to extend their reach even further and create a New World Order. They are far closer to achieving this aim than most of us would imagine.

We know this as the “Divine Right of Kings” or the doctrine that kings derive their authority from God, not from their subjects, from which it follows that rebellion is the worst of political crimes. It was claimed in Britain by the earlier Stuarts and is also associated with the absolutism of Louis XIV of France.

The groundwork was laid in the 17th century. By creating two global super-powers – first the British Empire and then the United States of America – they were able to mold large parts of the world in accordance with their totalitarian doctrine. Through their world-wide system of secret societies, business monopolies and family connections, as well as their stranglehold on the international banking system, they have been able to infiltrate the political structure of virtually every country in the world and install client or puppet regime of one kind or another.

Democracies do not impede their activities in any significant way since each democracy, whether large or small, is really a system of rotating puppets. In fact, democracies are often their preferred system of governance since they reinforce the illusion that a free and popular consensus is directing each country.

Using these invisible levers of power, the Elite have been able to play one country against another and bring about further change, all in conformity with their long-term plan to establish a One World Government. For example, they created the state of modern China by subjecting her various provinces to over one hundred years of drug trafficking, criminal intrigue, military invasion, widespread famine and civil war, with the result that today, after tens of millions of innocent people have been murdered, and many more imprisoned and tortured, they have an obedient serf economy which they are now using to destroy America.

Nearly half of American industry has been 'outsourced' (given away) over the past 30 years, most of it to the totalitarian, Marxist police-state known as China. This enables the Elite to undercut wages in each sector to such a degree that American industry simply cannot compete. And when a nation can't compete commercially with her principal rival and potential enemy, she is well on the road to destruction.

This segment is not about the coming collapse of the United States, or even the confederacy of super-rich families which control the world, but merely the religious affiliation of just one member of one super-rich family – Queen Elizabeth II of England. While this may seem a very modest topic by comparison, it actually sheds great deal of light on the Ruling Elite, their disturbing agenda, and their remarkable capacity for duplicity and deception.

The Queen as Supreme Governor of the Church of England

The Elite are not atheists or agnostics, as they often pretend. Neither are they Christian, as some of their most prominent members would have us believe. Rather, they are profoundly committed to the old religion. This is the ancient system of pantheism, Gnosticism and idolatry which rejects the LORD God of the Bible and is generally identified in the public mind with the worship of pagan deities. In short, the people who rule this world are not simply indifferent to Christianity, but reject it completely.

Officially, the Queen is a member of the Church of England, an Anglican convocation similar to the Lutheran church in Germany or the Episcopalian in the United States. She was baptized at five weeks by the Archbishop of York in Buckingham Palace on May 26, 1926. Under British law, as reigning monarch, she is the Supreme Governor of the Church of England. All members of the British royal family are officially affiliated with the Anglican Church, but not one of them has ever been known to testify to the atoning power of the blood of Christ. Indeed, it is doubtful whether any influential member of the British ruling class is a Bible-believing Christian.

The Anglican Church is the official state religion or Established Church of England. Having been under the covert control of the ruling elite almost from its inception, it is the principal means by which true Christianity in England has been suppressed. Through its empty formalism and shallow doctrines, its seasonal ritual and genteel pageantry, it offers a comforting substitute for true Biblical Christianity. In order to keep the commoners and lower classes in thrall, the nobility themselves profess to be Anglican and participate in certain annual services.

Behind the scenes, however, the ruling elite have for centuries been Freemasons, atheists or Unitarians. They all reject the deity of Christ. The Anglican Church has long been primarily a system of social control whereby the rich and powerful maintain their privileged positions and at the same time imbue the masses with the mindless patriotism that is needed to run an Empire.

Paganism and the Royal Family

Prince Philip, the husband of Queen Elizabeth, was initiated into Freemasonry at Navy Lodge No 2612, London, on December 5, 1952:

“Present at the initiation were the Earl of Scarborough, grand master...and Geoffrey Fisher, archbishop of Canterbury. The lodge has many ties with the royal family as King Edward VII served as its first master in 1896 when he was Prince of Wales. King George VI...served as master when he was Duke of York. In 1928 H.R.H. Duke of Kent...was master and later became grand master of the Grand Lodge of England.” – William Denslow, ‘10,000 Famous Freemasons’, 1957.

There is more than enough information on record to prove beyond all doubt that the British royal family is not Christian but really pagan. The Prince of Wales – the Queen's eldest son [Charles] – is a well-known advocate of New Age philosophy and paranormal science. Numerous members of the royal family down the years, including Queen Victoria, attended séances where professional mediums channeled ‘messages’ from demonic source. They have also availed routinely of the services of psychic healers and paranormal advisors. Prince Charles himself was counseled for many years by the shamanic fantasist, Laurens van der Post.

You will shortly learn that the Queen too is a non-believer. Her membership of the Anglican Church is immaterial. What matters is whether or not she openly professes that Jesus Christ is the Son of God and that she has accepted him into her heart as Lord and Savior. The evidence clearly shows that she has not.

It may seem strange that the official head of the Church of England is a not a Christian, but it is doubtful whether any senior cleric in the Church of England is a Christian. It is virtually impossible to advance into a position of influence in the English system of social-political control without being a Freemason, a Unitarian or someone who has otherwise demonstrated his or her rejection of both the deity of Christ and the authority of Scripture. There are bound to be exceptions, of course, but they are few and have little practical bearing on how the system operates.

For example, we have already noted that the Archbishop of Canterbury was present at the induction of Prince Philip into Freemasonry, while the current incumbent, Rowan Williams – like each of his predecessors during the 20th century – rejects the account of Creation given in the Bible, and has even expressed the view that it should not be taught in schools as an alternative to Evolution.

In Her Own Words

Instead of drawing on secondary sources or informed reports, we can confine ourselves to the Queen's own words. Among the best primary sources of evidence about her real beliefs is the set of Christmas Messages that she has delivered annually since her coronation in 1952. The Queen was born on April 21, 1926, and will be 95 in just over a month.

Given that these messages are delivered on a major feast day in the Christian calendar, by a professing Christian, to a primarily Christian audience, one would expect at least some of them to give a clear endorsement of her Christian faith. There are some 70 messages in all, comprising a total of about 50,000 words, and yet nowhere in any of them do we find a clear reference to the deity of Christ. In fact, we find the very opposite, namely a consistent portrayal of Jesus as nothing more than a well-meaning, peace-loving idealist who wanted to make this world a better place.

It is truly remarkable that, over a seventy year period, the official head of the Anglican Church has failed to make even a single statement that would demonstrate her belief in the most basic doctrine of Christianity, namely the deity of Christ.

Before we examine her words in detail, we need to consider the general attitude of the British aristocracy toward the person of Christ. As we have seen, this has been shaped in the main by Freemasonry, Gnosticism, and Unitarian theology, all of which deny his deity, his substitution atonement, and the inerrancy of the Bible. They regard him merely as a good man who had a talent for healing and preaching.

The Unitarian/Masonic Christ is very similar to the New Age Christ, a guru-type figure possessing a more elevated or spiritual state of consciousness than the average man.

For centuries Freemasons have stealthily but aggressively promoted a humanistic message which they express as two principles with universal application – the brotherhood of man and the fatherhood of God. By this they mean that all men, regardless of their religious affiliation, are of equal spiritual standing, both in relation to each other and in relation to God. As it happens these same beliefs also figure prominently in the New Age movement.

Taken together these principles are proclaiming that the Bible is wrong when it makes an absolute distinction between believers and unbelievers, between those who are saved and those who are lost. Freemasonry and the New Age movement completely reject original sin, the fallen state of man, and the need for redemption through the saving blood of Christ. In their view, man is not lost but continually evolving through experience into a higher spiritual state.

The Queen's definition of Christ

From a study of her Christmas Messages we find that the Queen's portrayal of Christ differs little, if at all, from the Masonic/New Age Christ, namely, a holy man – and nothing but a man – who tried to teach the people of his time the importance of kindness and tolerance, that we are all one human family, and that we should live together in peace and harmony. This definition places him on a par with men like Mahatma Gandhi and Albert Schweitzer, Bishop Tutu and the Dalai Lama. And as flattering as this might seem to the average atheist or humanist, it is an appalling distortion of reality.

The first point to note is that, although she was (and still is) the official head of the Established church in England, the Queen made no reference whatever to Christ by name in her annual Christmas Messages during the first 20 years of her reign! Not one. Why not search the file yourself to confirm this? A complete compilation of the Queen's Christmas messages may be found at: <http://www.scribd.com/doc/93046264/Christmas-Messages-by-Queen-Elizabeth-II>.

The same material is also available in serial form on her official website: <http://www.royal.gov.uk>. Perhaps her advisors realized that such an attitude was bound eventually to attract adverse attention. In any event, she finally made her first reference in 1973:

"Christ taught love and charity and that we should show humanity and compassion at all times and in all situations."

When read in context, this otherwise innocent statement can be seen to sit neatly with the Masonic brotherhood-of-man philosophy:

"I believe that Christmas should remind us that the qualities of the human spirit are more important than material gain. Christ taught love and charity and that we should show humanity and compassion at all times and in all situations.... A lack of humanity and compassion can be very destructive – how easily this causes divisions within nations and between nations. We should remember instead how much we have in common and resolve to give expression to the best of our human qualities, not only at Christmas, but right through the year." (1973)

Two years later she made her second reference to Christ, but this time she didn't even bother to refer to him by name:

"We are celebrating a birthday – the birthday of a child born nearly 2,000 years ago, who grew up and lived for only about 30 years. That one person, by his example and by his revelation of the good which is in us all, has made an enormous difference to the lives of people who have come to understand his teaching." (1975)

Note that the teaching of Christ is described as "his revelation of the good which is in us all". But this is completely false! The Bible teaches the very opposite. Christ came to save man from his wretched, fallen state and not to reveal "the good that is in us all" – since the Bible clearly teaches that there is none! ["I know that in me (that is, in my flesh) nothing good dwells..."] –(Romans 7:18)

It is ironic that, in the same breath, she refers to people "who have come to understand his teaching", and yet she doesn't seem to understand it herself.

Note the blasphemous incorporation of the Ark of the Covenant. Both through his words and through his actions, Christ confirmed the basic message that runs through the entire Bible, namely, that man in his natural state [apart from Christ] is a fallen, sin-filled being, blindly headed for eternal damnation. So which philosophy is the Queen actually citing, that of the Bible or that of Freemasonry?

Two years later she made another brief reference to the person whom her words were meant to honor. This too was in the 'holy man' mold:

"Christians have the compelling example of the life and teaching of Christ and, for myself, I would like nothing more than that my grandchildren should hold dear his ideals which have helped and inspired so many previous generations." (1977)

Note that it is his ideals that she holds dear – not his deity, his resurrection, or his redemption of mankind.

The Masonic Parliament of Man

Following a brief reference to "the birth of the child who transformed history and gave us a great faith" (1979), she quoted liberally in 1980 from a peculiar poem by Tennyson which referred to "the" Christ. This is highly suggestive since Tennyson was also the author of a poem, Locksley Hall, which was well known (and well understood) by the luminaries of Victorian England.

They knew that Tennyson rejected Christianity and drew his inspiration exclusively from pagan authors. These included the pantheist, Baruch Spinoza, and the eminent occult philosopher, Giordano Bruno. He was also a member of an exclusive secret society at Cambridge, known as the Cambridge Apostles, which was audaciously non-Christian in outlook.

Locksley Hall contains one of the most celebrated statements of the Masonic vision of a New World Order:

For I dipt into the future, far as human eye could see,
Saw the Vision of the world, and all the wonder that would be;
Heard the heavens fill with shouting, and there rain'd a ghastly dew
From the nations' airy navies grappling in the central blue; ...
Till the war-drum throb'd no longer, and the battle-flags were furl'd
In the Parliament of man, the Federation of the world.

He envisaged a parliament of man, a federation of the world. These words have been quoted many times by top Freemasons and key players in the long-range plan to create a unified World Government, a parliament of man. Tennyson's poem was greatly admired by leading architects of the New World Order, Winston Churchill and Harry Truman, while Andrew Carnegie, one of the richest men in America in the 19th century and a high-ranking member of the Ruling Elite, wrote in Triumphant Democracy (1893):

“The Parliament of Man and the Federation of the World have already been hailed by the poet, and these mean a step much farther in advance of the proposed reunion of Britain and America.”

Note his final words – a step much farther in advance of the proposed reunion of Britain and America.

Reunion of Britain and America? Yes, and more, as Carnegie says, a step much farther in advance of that. So when a reigning British monarch quotes a poem by Tennyson, we should pay close attention. Here are the verses she quoted (from Ring Out, Wild Bells):

"Ring out false pride in place and blood,
The civic slander and the spite;
Ring in the love of truth and right,
Ring in the common love of good ...
Ring in the valiant man and free,
The larger heart, the kindlier hand,
Ring out the darkness of the land,
Ring in the Christ that is to be."

Given that Tennyson had no regard for Christianity, the Christ figure to which he refers is clearly not Biblical. Christians seldom, if ever, put a definite article before Christ because there is only one Christ, but Freemasons, Gnostics and pagans often refer to ‘the Christ’ since they regard it as a cosmic or celestial office separate from the one who holds it.

In their occult philosophy, the Freemasons envisage the future incarnation in human form of their Angel of Light – known variously as Apollo, Horus, Helios, Lucifer, etc– whom they will enthrone and honor as their Messiah in their long-planned federation of the world. This is “the Christ that is to be” in Tennyson’s poem, though born-again Christians will recognize him as the Antichrist.

Did the Queen realize the significance of this? Given that the royal family has been a patron and protector of Freemasonry in Britain for generations, it would be astonishing if she didn’t. Her consistent espousal of the brotherhood-of-man-fatherhood-of-god philosophy demonstrates her familiarity with the tenets of Freemasonry, which includes a belief in the arrival of a Messiah-type figure once the New World Order has been established. (This is the true meaning of the catchphrase, ‘If you build it, he will come,’ from the sugar-coated occult movie, Fields of Dreams.)

The Masonic Trivialization of Christianity

Her Christmas Message the following year, 1981, included the following:

"Our Christian faith helps us to sustain those convictions. Christ not only revealed to us the truth in his teachings. He lived by what he believed and gave us the strength to try to do the same – and, finally, on the cross, he showed the supreme example of physical and moral courage. That sacrifice was the dawn of Christianity and this is why at Christmas time we are inspired by the example of Christ as we celebrate his birth.” (1981)

Even though she takes a seemingly bold step and mentions the cross, it is immediately neutralized by two references to Christ as an ‘example’. According to Masonic philosophy, the Cross of Calvary achieved nothing. As the Queen says, it was just an example of exceptional moral courage and something that should inspire us. This is a patent trivialization of Christianity, where the whole basis of our faith is reduced to a courageous symbolic act, an inspiring example, but certainly not the atoning work of the incarnate Son of God for the sins of mankind.

The following year, Her Majesty took the opportunity to inject even more Masonic philosophy into her message. In three short paragraphs she managed to depict Christianity as just one of many “religious groups” in the world today and to equate the Christian message with “the Commonwealth” – meaning the common weal or common good:

Again, with shameless candor, a central tenet of Freemasonry is fed to the nation on prime-time television by the official head of the Anglican church. The common spiritual source of all religious traditions was again emphasized in the year 2000 when she said: “This spirituality can be seen in the teachings of other great faiths. Of course religion can be divisive, but the Bible, the Koran and the sacred texts of the Jews and Hindus, Buddhists and Sikhs, are all sources of divine inspiration and practical guidance passed down through the generations.” (2000)

If she was really a Christian the Queen would know that the Koran and the religious writings of the Hindus and Buddhists were not divinely inspired. She would also know that they reject outright the divinity of Christ. So, on a feast day that is supposed to recognize and honor the incarnation of Christ in human form, she boldly asserts the broad equivalence of all religious traditions, including those which reject the deity of Christ.

His deity is completely erased. Instead we are presented with the image of a little boy who, because he was greatly loved by his mummy and daddy and raised “according to the traditions of their faith”, succeeded in doing something useful with his life.

The ‘love’ taught in Freemasonry and the New Age movement is not the love we find in the Bible. Scripture teaches – in the strongest possible terms – that God’s love cannot touch and redeem man in his sinful, fallen state without the atoning work of Christ, and yet this is precisely what Freemasonry and the New Age movement reject! The Queen confirmed her Masonic perception of love when she said:

"But these technical skills [invention, scientific progress] are not enough by themselves. They can only come to the rescue of the planet if we also learn to live by the golden rule which Jesus Christ taught us– "love thy neighbor as thyself"." (1989)

Here she is discussing environmental issues such as pollution of the rivers and seas. Incredibly, she equates the 'love' needed to 'rescue' the planet with the love that Jesus was speaking about, a love which has no meaning – and no power – when divorced from his divinity and obedience to his Word.

Jesus did not teach 'the golden rule' of Freemasonry, as the Queen implies; rather he taught the commandments and precepts of the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel. These are vastly different from, and in fundamental conflict with, the morals and dogma of Freemasonry, a philosophy that flagrantly rejects the saving blood of Christ and his atoning sacrifice on the cross.

Man as an Animal Species

Prince Philip once stated during a televised documentary that humans are a "plague" on the planet. This implies that humans are just one of the many animal species living on earth today. It is obvious from her remark that his wife subscribes to the same materialistic philosophy. However, true Biblical Christianity completely rejects the popular idea that humans are an animal species. Man is made in the image and likeness of God. He is not an animal of any kind, but a unique creation.

Animals cannot sin, only man can sin. This is why Freemasonry, the New Age movement, and atheistic humanism subscribe so strongly to the theory of evolution or any similar theory that portrays man as just another animal species. If man is just an animal then he cannot sin, and if he cannot sin then he cannot be judged by God.

After all, the Masons, atheists and evolutionists who control the Anglican Church regard man as just another animal species. A Masonic restatement of the Christian Message One of her most Masonic, New Age and ecumenical renderings of the Christian message was given in 2001 when she quoted the words of a well-known hymn, but failed to include the most important part:

"I believe that the Christian message, in the words of a familiar blessing, remains profoundly important to us all: Go forth into the world in peace be of good courage, hold fast that which is good, render to no man evil for evil, strengthen the faint-hearted, support the weak, help the afflicted, honor all men."

These words are from a benediction in the 1928 version of the Anglican Book of Common Prayer. While they are certainly edifying, they cannot be considered "the Christian message" in any meaningful sense. So what's missing? See for yourself. Here is the complete version:

"Go forth into the world in peace. Be of good courage. Hold fast that which is good. Render to no man evil for evil. Strengthen the faint-hearted. Support the weak. Help the afflicted. Honor all men. Love and serve the Lord, rejoicing in the power of the Holy Ghost. And the blessing of God, the Father, the Son, and the Holy Ghost, be upon you and remain with you forever. Amen."

Since the British royal family like their counterparts across Europe, reject the deity of Christ, they also reject the Scriptures. They do not believe in the Triune God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel –(Mark 12:26), but in a different god entirely. The Anglican benediction has no distinctively Christian element without the words which they Queen chose to omit. Her version does nothing more than encapsulate the interfaith morality and brotherhood-of-man philosophy of Freemasonry.

In The 'Lost Keys of Freemasonry', Manley Palmer Hall, who is widely respected by Freemasons as one of their supreme authorities, stated:

"The true Mason is not creed-bound. He realizes with the divine illumination of his lodge that as a Mason his religion must be universal: Christ, Buddha or Mohammed, the name means little, for he recognizes only the light and not the bearer. He worships at every shrine, bows before every altar, whether in temple, mosque or cathedral, realizing with his truer understanding the oneness of all spiritual truth."

Masons reject Christ as "the way." As Hall says, "the name means little."

However, as every true Christian knows, this is one of Satan's greatest lies. The Word of God tells us that salvation is found only in the name of Jesus Christ:

"And this is His commandment: that we should believe on the name of His Son Jesus Christ..." -(1John 3:23); "...for there is no other name under heaven given among men by which we must be saved." -(Acts 4:12)

Here is how the Grand Lodge of Louisiana stated the Masonic position in their secret handbook:

"To the altar of Freemasonry all men bring their most votive offerings. Around it all men, whether they have received their teachings from Confucius, Zoroaster, Moses, Mohammed or the founder of the Christian religion – just so long as they believe in the universality of the fatherhood of God and universality of the brotherhood of man – meet upon a common level. The Jew returns to his synagogue, the Mohammedan to his mosque and the Christian to his temple – each better prepared for the solemn duties of life by the associations in this universal brotherhood." - Louisiana Monitor, 1980

So, under the pretense that she is a Christian, the Queen is preaching the philosophy of Freemasonry. The fact that her messages are couched in Christian terminology is irrelevant. Freemasonry does this all the time, packaging and disguising its ancient occult beliefs in a deceptive, vernacular form.

Conclusion

Christians need to understand that the people who rule this world are NOT Christian – though they often pretend to be. They worship another god and loath Christianity, Christ, the Cross of Calvary, the blood of the Lamb, the Resurrection, and the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac and Israel. They are busily preparing the scenario set out in the Book of Revelation, where their ‘messiah’ or godman takes on human form and rules over the entire earth.

In order to make this possible they are working hard behind the scenes to create a unified global system of governance (‘If you build it, he will come’). Since their messiah has no power against Christ, they are also determined to radically reduce the number of true believers, chiefly by getting professing Christians to adopt a soft, New Age version of ‘Christianity’ which has no power to save.

The Power Elite controls much of Europe and North America through Freemasonry. However, many national and world leaders pretend to be Christian in order to retain the confidence of the public. Most Presidents of the United States during the past hundred years or so was a high-ranking Freemason or a member of a secret occult society.

For example, both George Bush senior and George Bush junior pretended to be Christians when in fact they were initiated members of the Society of the Skull & Bones, a dark Luciferian fraternity based at Yale University. The god of Freemasonry is Lucifer, the Light Bearer, the beguiling ‘angel of light’ face that Satan presents to his acolytes. The British like to refer to him as Helios or Apollo, the sun god of Greek mythology. Every Mason who rises to the 19th degree and above learn this fact which is found in Albert Pike’s ‘Morals and Dogma’ – ‘The Rites and Rituals of Scottish Freemasonry.’

The Queen of England may or may not adhere to all of the beliefs and doctrines of Freemasonry, but her Christmas Messages are profoundly Masonic. She clearly rejects the deity of Christ and cannot be regarded as a Christian. In reality, she is a senior member of a pagan ruling caste that is gradually bringing the world ever closer to a One World Government and a One World Religion.

Words say a lot and all too often people fall into the trap where it may seem a person, like the Queen of England, and her son Prince Charles of Wales leave you with the wrong impression. The art of discernment requires that one look for what is omitted rather than what one says. This is so very true of the one who is about to be presented to the world as their messiah. We know him as the Antichrist of the Bible.

The Order of the Garter is the core of the Committee Of 300 (aka Olympians). Queen Elizabeth II is the leader of this organization.

Its members include most if not all of the royal British family along with, many peers of the realm including Lord Rothschild, as well as other European nobility, and a slew of other wealthy individuals scattered across Europe and America.

These elite own businesses on every level, especially the oil and banking industry. George Bush is a recent member who was knighted by the Queen on December 20, 1993, as a Knight Grand Cross of the Most Honorable Order of the Bath.

This was for his leadership in the Gulf War, when he sent American soldiers to die for England's interest of their petroleum in Kuwait. General Colin Powell and General Norman Schwarzkopf were given also lower order of knighthoods. Lord Peter Carrington, who is a member of the satanic Order of Osiris and other demonic groups is a member of the Order of the Garter.

By the way, Prince Charles Coat of Arms has another symbol - The Order of the Garter. The Order of the Garter is the parent organization over Free Masonry, world-wide. When a man becomes a 33rd Degree Mason, he swears allegiance to that organization, and thereby to Prince Charles.

Sooner or later we come down to the main question: "Will Christians see the Antichrist, or will the rapture occur before then?" I have read many different interpretations and most are inadequate to help us to understand. The best way that I have seen this explained is from the web site "Got Questions".

Answer: There are different views regarding the timing of the rapture in relation to the events of the tribulation period and the appearance of the Antichrist. Our ministry holds to a pre-tribulational view of the rapture - the view that all believers in Christ will be taken to heaven before the events of the Tribulation period begin. First Thessalonians 4:13–18 describes the Rapture, giving the order of events like this: Jesus comes from heaven -(1st Thessalonians 4:16), the dead in Christ rise first -(1st Thessalonians 4:16), and living believers are "caught up" to meet the Lord in the air. We believe this event ends the church age, and believers will "be with the Lord forever" following the Rapture - (1st Thessalonians 4:17).

We believe that, after the Rapture, the seven-year Tribulation period that is described in Daniel and Revelation will begin. Revelation 13 refers to a "beast" who will rule with absolute authority during the second half of the Tribulation: "The beast was given a mouth to utter proud words and blasphemies and to exercise its authority for forty-two months" -(Revelation 13:5). The Antichrist will be defeated at the second coming of Jesus described in Revelation 19.

Since Christians will be Raptured before the beginning of the Tribulation, we who are alive during the church age will not see the Antichrist's rise to power. It is possible that we will see him on the world stage, but we will not recognize him as the beast, because he will not yet have made his move toward world domination.

The fact that the Antichrist is not revealed until after the Rapture is taught in 2nd Thessalonians 2. Speaking of the Day of the Lord, Paul writes that the Tribulation will not begin until after the Antichrist is already revealed: “That day will not come until the rebellion occurs and the man of lawlessness is revealed, the man doomed to destruction. He will oppose and will exalt himself over everything that is called God or is worshiped, so that he sets himself up in God’s temple, proclaiming himself to be God” -(verses 3–4). Also, the revelation of the Antichrist must come after something else, because right now there is something “holding him back, so that he may be revealed at the proper time. For the secret power of lawlessness is already at work; but the one who now holds it back will continue to do so till he is taken out of the way. And then the lawless one will be revealed” -(verses 6–8). We believe this One who “holds back” the Antichrist is none other than the Holy Spirit. When the restraining influence of the Spirit is removed from this world - along with the church that the Spirit indwells - then the Antichrist will have free rein.

Will Christians see the Antichrist? No, at least not in his role as described in the book of Revelation. The removal of the Restrainer’s influence precedes the revealing of the Antichrist. Evil is hindered right now, but, once the church age ends, the obstruction will be gone, and the rebellion will have the upper hand, at least temporarily. At the end of the Tribulation, “the Lord Jesus will overthrow [the Antichrist] with the breath of His mouth and destroy [him] by the splendor of His coming” -(2nd Thessalonians 2:8). The ultimate doom of evil is sure.

We should note that there will be people who come to faith in Christ during the tribulation period. Many of these people will be Jews who believe in Jesus -(Revelation 7). These believers will not only see the Antichrist but endure severe persecution because of him. These tribulation saints will either die during the Tribulation or live to see the second coming of Jesus Christ -(Revelation 19).

That said, does it mean we will not know who the Antichrist is? Not in my way of thinking. In the philosophy of logic as related to biblical studies and theology, we have three ways of coming to a specific conclusion: Abductive, Deductive, and Inductive.

Abductive reasoning, also referred to as the abductive approach is set to address weaknesses associated with deductive and inductive approaches. Specifically, deductive reasoning is criticized for the lack of clarity in terms of how to select theory to be tested via formulating hypotheses. Inductive reasoning, on other hand, criticized because “no amount of empirical data will necessarily enable theory-building”. Abductive reasoning, as a third alternative, overcomes these weaknesses via adopting a pragmatist perspective.

At the same time, it has to be clarified that abductive reasoning is similar to deductive and inductive approaches in a way that it is applied to make logical inferences and construct theories.

In the abductive approach, the research process starts with 'surprising facts' or 'puzzles' and the research process is devoted their explanation. 'Surprising facts' or 'puzzles' may emerge when a researchers encounters with an empirical phenomena that cannot be explained by the existing range of theories.

When following an abductive approach, researcher seeks to choose the 'best' explanation among many alternative in order to explain 'surprising facts' or 'puzzles' identified at the start of the research process. In the course of explaining 'surprising facts' or 'puzzles', the researcher can combine both, numerical and cognitive reasoning.

The figure below illustrates the main differences between abductive, deductive and inductive reasoning:

Despite its increasing popularity in business studies, application of abductive reasoning in practice is challenging and you are advised to stick with traditional deductive or inductive approaches when writing your dissertation.

Before closing of this Blessed Hope, I want to add a little more about this Order that has become to signify control of the world. The origin of the symbol of the Most Noble Order of the Garter, a blue 'garter' with the motto Honi Soit Qui Mal Y Pense will probably never be known for certain as the earliest records of the order were destroyed by fire, however the story goes that at a Ball possibly held at Calais, France. Joan Countess of Salisbury dropped her garter and King Edward seeing her embarrassment picked it up and bound it about his own leg saying in French, "Evil, (or shamed) be he that that thinks evil of it" this is almost certainly a later fiction. This fable appears to have originated in France and was, perhaps, invented to try and bring discredit on the Order. There is a natural unwillingness to believe that the World's foremost Order of Chivalry had so frivolous a beginning.

It is thought more likely that as the garter was a small strap used as a device to attach pieces of armor, it might have been thought appropriate to use the garter as a symbol of binding together in common brotherhood. Whilst the motto probably refers to the leading political topic of the 1340's, Edward's claim to the throne of France. The patron saint of the Order of the Garter is St George and as he is the patron saint of soldiers and also of England, the spiritual home of the order has therefore always been St George's Chapel in Windsor Castle.

With Prince Charles becoming more vocal about his pet peeves, he is becoming anxious to fulfill his reason he believes he was born to achieve as Savior of the World! This statute below is symbolic of a larger than life size of Prince Charles beneath in Brazil, South America.

Way back on March 7, 2002, a larger than life-size statue depicting Prince Charles saving the world wearing nothing but a loincloth and a pair of wings was announced and erected in a remote Amazonian town. Leaders in Palmas, the capital of Tocantins state on the edge of the Brazilian rainforest, are so impressed by the heir to the throne's environmental activism that they decided to place the bronze figure in the main square of the town.

An amazed Charles was presented with a miniature 2-foot high model of the sculpture – which shows him with bulging muscles, larger than life at a height of 12-feet, hovering like an angel above a jumble of distraught figures – during a visit to the state on Wednesday. He was said to be “deeply touched”.

Artist Mauricio Bentes molded the statue of the then 53-year-old prince using pictures downloaded from the internet. Jose Wilson Sequeira Campos, governor of Tocantins state, explained its significance, saying: "It's Charles saving the world." I suspect that statute has influenced his personal self-esteem.

The Prince of Wales, dressed for the trip in a khaki safari shirt, was in the region to visit a global warming station, as part of his five-day tour of Latin America. The royal tour continues on Thursday with a visit to the Mexican port town of Veracruz.

Prince Charles has created the most powerful banker enforcement arm to date for the Green New Deal. This is the Task Force on Climate-Related Financial Disclosures, which includes 34 central banks and large private banks and funds, headed by Carney and Sir Michael Bloomberg. Carney aggressively demands that banks enforce the "taxonomy" to cut down all fossil fuel investment, saying repeatedly that companies that don't comply "will cease to exist."

Prince Charles launched on January 11 the "Terra Carta for Nature, People and Planet (Earth Charter)," to push through a green genocide program of radical population reduction, shutting down agro-manufacturing production, and building a $40 trillion green speculative-financial bubble, all implemented through a central bankers' dictatorship. If this Prince and his associates are not stopped, they will destroy the cognitive powers of man, halt capital-intensive, power intensive development of agriculture and industry, and bring down civilization.

Using the wealth of the House of Windsor, but much more from the City of London-Wall Street banks, insurance companies, and a host of governments, HRH the Prince of Wales has been building toward this strategy for the past five decades.

Charles derives this capability, certainly not from himself, but from being embedded in a network of institutions. One such institution is the monarchy, which consists not just of the royals, but hundreds of persons, from Oxford and Cambridge universities, financial institutions, and law firms. Indeed, the monarchy is embedded in a Quartet consisting of the monarchy, the City of London, the Bank of England, and the intelligence services, which has been in operation since the 1694 creation of the Bank of England.

Charles works with more than a hundred governments, but he emphasizes that corporate private business is necessary to implement his policy, as governments need to and can enunciate the policy, but do not have the power to carry it out. This is an embrace of corporatist-Synarchist top-down control, above and beyond government, as was the case for Hitler, Hjalmar Schacht, and Mussolini.

From what I have shared in this ongoing move to global government, it is becoming obvious that Prince Charles will keep the foot to the pedal and the world will not have to wait much longer for his biggest role as King of the World. The relevance of all this comes down to the event we are awaiting – the Rapture. Given what we know about the actions set forth by the World Economic Forum this past year, we know that destruction of the dollar is now in motion. At the August, 2019 annual meeting of the world’s central bankers held at Jackson Hole, WY, the decision was made to move the world economies to a new reserve currency system built upon a “digital” currency, a platform controlled from the top down, which allows no room for individualism!

Patrick M, Wood's 2018 book, 'Technocracy The Hard Road to World Order' lays it all out for those unfamiliar with Agenda 21, Agenda 2030, and the end of national sovereignty. This world is being shaped by Prince Charles of Wales in what he calls "Sustainable Development".

I was a regular follower of Patrick M. Wood's at his web page "Technocracy News" until about a year ago, at which time AOL began blocking his articles on the Internet. As censorship of the Internet commence, Patrick Wood was one of the first to be blocked. If anyone has read Patrick Wood's book, you would understand why this happened so early on in Internet censorship. Living in the Antichrist's New World Order will be like living in a Fishbowl!

I find it difficult to see this being dragged out much longer, so do not be discouraged! Keep looking up as we enter the home stretch! And I am thinking here of our "going home stretch."

Blessings,
