

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #57

This is the second part of the transcript between T.A. McMahon and the late Dave Hunt recorded in 2003. The first half of this transcript program is found in Blessed Hope #54. I trust it will be instructional and edifying to your spirit as much as it was to me when I first listened to it almost 2 decades ago. I was a regular listener to the late Dave Hunt all the way back to 1996. Dave was a giant in teaching the Bible back in the 1990's and early 2000's. Dave even used the term prophecy as history told in advance.

Welcome to The Berean Call podcast. I'm T. A. McMahon, TBC's Executive Director. We're currently re-airing a discussion I had with Dave Hunt in 2003 featuring his book Countdown to the Second Coming.

In this segment, I recount a timeline of significant prophecies beginning with Genesis all the way to the Great Tribulation, which is indicated in the Book of Revelation.

Dave refers to those prophecies as “history written in advance.” He explains the difference between the Judgment Seat of Christ and the Great White Throne Judgment. The former has to do with a believer's works and the latter a person's judgment for rejecting Jesus Christ.

Dave also talks about the Antichrist and his false peace agreement with Israel. That—and much more—to come.

Significant Prophecies from Genesis to Revelation

Transcript:

Tom: Dave Hunt's book Countdown to the Second Coming has been and is our topic for this segment, and of course it addresses events which lead up to the return of Jesus Christ—which not only did the prophets foretell, but also angels who were present when He ascended to heaven. And we have the words of Jesus in John 14 that He would come again and receive us unto Himself.

Yet, while Dave's book has been our focal point, or syllabus, for discussion, we've taken a little detour—well, it was supposed to be “little”—to present our overview of key biblical events from Genesis through Revelation, and Dave adding a commentary of each event.

Dave: That's the problem. My commentary goes on and on and on.

Tom: [Laughing] Dave, that's also the good part! But nevertheless, this week we hope to finish the survey, the point of which is to inform our listeners who are not aware that historic events from creation to the present to future events are not random but are part of God's timetable and game plan for humanity.

Now, Dave, if you remember, last week we left off with the Rapture of the church and events that follow it in heaven—the judgment seat of Christ, and the marriage supper of the Lamb. So we’re going to continue on from there.

But here’s what I’d like to do. We’ve been at this—I think this is our fourth week. We hope to finish it this week. Let me just briefly go over the key events, and then we’ll pick up with the Tribulation, which is where we left off.

So we have the Creation; the Fall (that is the rebellion of man); the promise of a Redeemer; the flood—(again these are historic events); the rebellion at Babel; the establishment of a people through whom the Messiah would come; the promise of a land for the Jews; the exodus from Egypt and entrance into the Promised Land; the rebellion of the Jews in the Promised Land; the 70-year removal of the Jews to Babylon; the restoration of the Jews to the Promised Land; the first coming of the promised Redeemer; the resurrection of God’s Savior—His death, burial and resurrection; the establishment of the church; the destruction of the Temple in Jerusalem and the dispersion of the Jews throughout the world; 1948—the reestablishment of the nation of Israel; the preparation of the world for the Antichrist; the apostasy of the professing church; the Rapture of the true church; and the resurrection of the dead in Christ. And then in heaven: the judgment seat of Christ, the marriage supper of the Lamb...and, Dave, we believe once the Rapture takes place, there will be seven years of Tribulation. What are some details with regard to that?

Dave: Well, Tom, I just noticed that you forgot a really key item in there. I didn’t notice that before.

Tom: Dave, that’s been your job! I said check me out and that’s—okay what is it?

Dave: Okay. Anti-Semitism.

Tom: Right.

Dave: Anti-Semitism is foretold in detail in Deuteronomy 28:37 [and] many other places—that God’s people, the Jews, would be hated, persecuted, killed like no other people, and that certainly is true. No one has suffered like they have. And then, preservation—that in spite of that, a thousand Hitlers couldn’t wipe them out. That He would preserve as an identifiable ethnic people, bring them back into their land. Of course, you had that in there—the re-gathering in their own land and a nation born in a day. Remarkable—never happened to any other people, any other nation in history.

Tom: And this is history. And you can check your history books, because this is prophecy and history.

Dave: History told in advance. Right. And now you mentioned the judgment seat of Christ. There's a marriage in heaven...

Tom: Dave, some people confuse the Judgment Seat of Christ with what Revelation calls the Great White Throne Judgment. What's that?

Dave: Yeah, Revelation 20—the Great White Throne Judgment...

Tom: Which we're going to talk about.

Dave: Right. "I saw the dead, small and great, stand before God. The books were open..." and so forth. And these are the lost that stand before God in judgment. The Judgment Seat of Christ—Paul said we must all appear before the judgment seat of Christ to give an account for the deeds done in the body, and so forth. It says He will wipe all tears from our eyes. I think there will be some tears. Hard to imagine in heaven, but I think there will be when we see...

Tom: And it will be the end of those tears.

Dave: Right—be the end, absolutely. Good point. So then, we will be dealt with. There will be rewards, the Scripture says. Some people will suffer reward. You get a different perspective on that in 1 Corinthians 3, where Paul says the works will be tried by fire: "Every man's work will be tried by fire, of what sort it is," and wood, hay and stubble will be burned up. Gold, silver, precious stones will pass through the fire, be refined. Now, you know—as a former Catholic you know—this is one place from the Bible that the Catholic Church gets purgatory. But it doesn't say that the person will be burned in fire; it says their works will be tested by fire.

So then Revelation 19 says that the bride will be clothed in fine linen, white and clean, the "righteousness of saints," and there's a wedding in heaven. Now, these are scriptures, of course, for a pre-Trib Rapture. How could you have the Rapture at the end of the Great Tribulation, when Christ—in fact, it's the Second Coming when he comes to rescue Israel? It says that He brings all the saints from heaven with Him, clothed in fine linen, white and clean. They've been married to Christ. They've been through the Judgment Seat of Christ. There is hardly time for that when Jesus comes down and He catches His bride up, and He goes through all of this right there in mid-air on His way down and then brings His bride down into Armageddon? Not what the Bible teaches, and it's not reasonable.

So during that seven-year Great Tribulation period, there's a honeymoon up in heaven, a wonderful time of God's people with Him.

Now, Daniel 9 also talks about this. Verse 27 says of the Antichrist—that is, v. 26 says, “The people of the prince who will come will destroy the city and the temple.”

So this is—the prince who will come will of course be the Antichrist. He didn't destroy the city and the sanctuary. “The people of the prince who will come.” That was done by the Roman armies in A.D. 70. So that leads us to believe that the Antichrist will rise out of the revived Roman Empire. And it says he will impose—actually, the word in the Hebrew there...in the King James, I think it says confirm a covenant for one week. But the Hebrew says he will impose it.

Antichrist will force upon the nations of the world the rebuilding of the Jewish temple. It could very well involve the removal of the Dome of the Rock. I think it probably will, because the Dome of the Rock, as you know—I don't think we went over this before, maybe we did—is called Al-Aqsa. This is what the Muslims say: “This is Al-Aqsa.”

Now originally, the one verse in the Qur'an, Surah 17:1, that talks about Al-Aqsa, which is the farthest place of worship and says that Muhammad supposedly went on the night journey on his horse, there was recently an article in quite an authoritative paper in Egypt saying, “Well, that wasn't Jerusalem. There was no mosque in Jerusalem. Jerusalem was not the farthest place of worship. It must have been Medina,” okay? Now, I don't know what the Antichrist will say, but he could very well tell the Muslims where Al-Aqsa really is, and they would move that Dome of the Rock there.

Tom: Dave, I've got a question. Could the Antichrist—or does the temple have to be built on—you know, where God would have it? I mean this is a temple that you referred to earlier that's going to be destroyed, right? In other words, could it be placed anyplace? Or does it have to be placed where Solomon's temple was, where Herod's temple was?

Dave: Yeah, I'm sure it wouldn't go over for the Jews to place it—where would you put it? No room anywhere else.

Tom: But it doesn't have to—my point is, does it have to be exact within the Temple Mount? Because they don't know.

Dave: Oh, it would have to be on the Temple Mount, I'm sure, to satisfy the Jews, for it to have any meaning at all. And 2 Thessalonians 2:4 says, "He as God will sit in the temple of God, declaring that he is God." So it sounds like this is where it was. He is going to cause it to be rebuilt. The sacrificial system will start up again, and then in the midst of the week—3 ½ years into the seven-year period, he will cause the sacrifice and the oblation to cease. He will betray—he'll double-cross the Jews. They thought he was their friend and building it for them. No, no, he has in mind that he's going to put his image in it and demand to be worshiped as God by the whole world.

Tom: Now, Dave, we've mentioned before that the Antichrist—"anti-" has two meanings. It means "against," and it also means "in place of." So do you see a certain time period in which this antichrist, a replacement, a false Christ, but a wonderful individual—at least from the way he's acting—where does he turn? Will it be gradually or...?

Dave: Well, he is Satan's man from the very beginning.

Tom: Right.

Dave: And he pretends to be a man of peace. It says through peace—Daniel 8:25: "Through peace he will destroy many." And it is very clear that it is the Antichrist there, because it says, "He will stand up against the Prince, but will be destroyed without hand." So he goes against Messiah.

No, underneath it's just a façade—his peacefulness—but he is a man that has all the power of Satan and can do lying signs and wonders, and so forth. So I would say he is, at the same time, he is both opposed to Christ, of course—and he is opposed to Christ in the most diabolically clever way it could be done, and that is by pretending to be Christ and therefore corrupting Christianity itself from the inside. Very dangerous time.

Now, of course the church is gone, but then there will be many multitudes who will come to Christ through the gospel during that period of time.

Tom: So there's going to be persecution because of what they're up against.

Dave: They will not take the mark of the beast, so they can't buy or sell. They will not bow down and worship the image, and they will be hounded and run down everywhere and martyred. So if there were a post-Trib Rapture, it would be a classic non-event. There's no one to rapture. All the believers have been killed by the Antichrist.

So this will be a horrible time, and the Bible talks about it. And Jesus, in Matthew 24:22, said, "It will be a time of destruction, persecution, tribulation such as never was nor ever shall be after it."

Tom: Dave, that moves us to the battle of Armageddon. My son asked me an interesting question. He said, "Well, Dad, what would draw all the nations to Israel? What would be their purpose of going there? Would it just be hatred of the Jews or would it be something more?"

Dave: Good question!

Tom: Yeah, I thought so!

Dave: Well, number one, God says He's going to bring them there. Ezekiel 38:16: "Thou shalt come up against my people of Israel, as a cloud to cover the land; it shall be in the latter days, and I will bring thee against my land, that the heathen may know me...." Or if you went to Zechariah 14:1: "Behold the day of the Lord cometh, and thy spoils shall be divided in the midst of thee...." So there's a spoil that they're coming for. I don't know what it will be. "...For I will gather all nations against Jerusalem to battle." Whatever it is, this is God's doing. He's going to bring them there.

Tom: But, Dave, you know, it seemed to me that at least midway through the Tribulation, when God pours out His wrath, I don't think He's going to pour out His wrath on Israel and Jerusalem.

Dave: I don't think so.

Tom: So, somehow, they're going to be preserved while the rest of the world is suffering. I would think that might draw them to—at least one, one bit of motivation.

Dave: It certainly would anger them.

Tom: Yeah.

Dave: I mean, I can think of a lot of reasons. Anti-Semitism, of course...

Tom: Sure.

Dave: ...is getting even worse and worse, believe it or not. It's amazing. The Jews are hated. A chosen people, favored of God and they certainly, I believe, will be favored of God during this Tribulation period. I think it will be like the land of Goshen, you remember—the Jews in the land of Goshen?

Tom: Right, the plagues never affected that land.

Dave: Right. That is going to infuriate the nations. They could even blame Israel, then, since it's not happening to them. Maybe they brought all of this—they've got some secret weapon or something. Also, you can see that we're getting to the point: "Why should we support this tiny nation Israel? They're just a burr under the saddle of the Muslims and the Arabs all around them. They have the oil. They're just a problem to the world. Let's get rid of them!" So, a number of reasons, but God is going to bring them there.

Okay, I believe—I think this is important—I'm in the very small minority of those who believe that Ezekiel 38 and 39 are Armageddon. Most evangelicals say, "No, this is a preliminary war before the Rapture or in the middle of the Great Tribulation, but not—this is not Armageddon."

Now, let me just give you some reasons why it is Armageddon.

Tom: Sure.

Dave: A very interesting prophecy—Ezekiel 38:11 says, "I will go..." Well, "You say in your heart [that is, Antichrist, and the armies of the world follow him], I will go up to the land of unwalled villages; I will go to them that are at rest that dwell safely, all of them dwelling without walls, and having neither bars nor gates...." Wow, that's interesting!

So, Israel right now is building a wall. That wall is coming down. We know that for sure. Now, you know Israel is not going to let it come down unless they have been deceived into thinking that it's all solved. And so, I quoted earlier the Antichrist—of him—it says, "Through peace he will destroy many." He's going to pretend peace and guarantee it for the world. But it says, "To take a spoil, to take a prey; to turn thine hand upon the desolate places that are now inhabited and upon the people that are gathered out of the nations...."

So these are the Jews who have been scattered. They are back in their land, "which have gotten cattle and goods, that dwell in the midst of the land." I don't know what all Israel has. They have the best anti-missile defense system in the world—the only really operational one. They could knock Scuds, if Saddam had sent them at them, out of the sky. The Patriot System couldn't do that, okay? They have technology far in advance, and you know that Silicon Valley companies have been buying out Jewish companies, Israeli companies, for a long time. I don't know what all there will be, but they're going to come to take the spoil. And then it says, "I'm going to bring you against my land."

There are two purposes for Armageddon. Number one, to punish the nations for what they have done to Israel. Number two, God is going to break the hard heart of the Jewish people. You have a verse that causes a lot of problems in Matthew 24:34. It says, "This generation shall not pass till all these signs are fulfilled." Well, what generation are you talking about? Some people, you know the preterists, reconstructionists, say, "Oh, that was the generation then. And so Jerusalem was destroyed A.D. 70. Nero was the Antichrist. It was all fulfilled then."

Tom: Right, Christ came with the Roman troops...

Dave: Right, to destroy Israel. Can you imagine? And then there are those who said, "No, no, it means the generation that sees Israel back in her land." So 40 years generation from 1948 when Israel was restored, everything will be finished. Subtract the seven-year Great Tribulation, Christ would come in '81. I remember that very clearly. There were bumper stickers: "Ride at your risk, I'm leaving in the Rapture."

I never believed either of those. There's another possibility. Jesus said, "This generation"—what did He mean by "this generation"? Generation of vipers, this faithless generation, this perverse generation, this corrupt, sign-seeking, Christ-rejecting generation? I believe that's what He meant.

And Israel as a whole—many Jews are coming to Christ—but Israel as a whole will remain in rejection of her Messiah and rejection of God until all is fulfilled, and we get that in Ezekiel 39:7: "So will I make my holy name known in the midst of my people Israel...."

By the way, verse 38 says, "I'm coming to this earth. My presence and everything is going to be shaken, even the creeping things, the fish, and so forth." God is coming back to planet Earth in the person of Jesus Christ, and He is going to change His people. They will never pollute His holy name again.

Verse 22: "The house of Israel shall know that I am the Lord their God from that day and forward." It's not some preliminary battle.

Verse 29: "Neither will I hide my face any more from them: for I have poured out my spirit upon the house of Israel."

Well, that's Zechariah 12:10, and other verses: "I will pour upon the spirit of supplication, they will cry out."

Jesus said, "You won't seem me again until you say blessed is he that comes in the name of the Lord." And they are going cry out, they will be in such desperate straits. Two-thirds of all the Jews will be killed, Zechariah 13 says. And they will cry out...

Tom: And these are Old Testament prophets.

Dave: Absolutely.

Tom: This isn't something you're making up.

Dave: Absolutely.

Tom: These are the Jewish prophets.

Dave: Absolutely, and then it says, "They will look on me whom they have pierced." And all Israel will believe. That generation of unbelief, of hatred of Christ and of God, will have passed away.

But notice verse 28, it's just a thrilling verse. This is Ezekiel 39:28: "Then shall they know that I am the Lord their God, which caused them to be led into captivity among the heathen, but I have gathered them unto their own land and have left none of them any more there." Not a Jew will be left anywhere on the face of this earth. Well, that takes you to Matthew 24 beginning at around verse 30, when Jesus says, "Immediately after the tribulation of those days, the sun will be darkened and the moon won't give it's light," and so forth. He will send His angels—with the sound of the trumpet they will gather his elect. "This is Israel, mine elect." This is not the Rapture. The angels are going to gather every Jew from every place on the face of this earth back to Israel, and these are the ones who will have believed in Christ, the survivors of Armageddon, and there He will rule and reign over them forever on the throne of His father David.

Tom: Yet the Muslims believe that every Jew must be killed before the last day. Wow!

Dave: Quite a contrast, huh?

We are getting so close to the Rapture now that it is becoming obvious and that it cannot be ignored, From where I observe the world, God's patience is likely to be wearing thin. We should be ready anticipating God to blow the trumpet and call us home! After posting the latest segment of "Mass Murder", I am of the view, and using the well-worn cliché of "the straw that breaks the camel's back", it is coming down to the issue of the vaccine, which is not a vaccine. It is "gene" therapy that modifies the DNA and is intended to make the natural immune system to "think" it is natural. It is designed to "trick" the immune system to accept the inoculation as if it was "natural". This is evident in the fact that most of the vaccines being offered the public are a 2-shot vaccination, and the need for a booster shot, yearly, or even semi-annually will be needed. The need for a booster suggests the human immune system can be manipulated only so long before it ceases to facilitate the invasive Gates QuantumDot/Hydrogel ID2020, the ultimate "Mark" of the Beast; however, it requires the body to be modified, i.e., changed, in order to not reject the "Mark" of the Beast. It is the "Mark" of the Beast, a bit more complex than many can grasp.

The issue of voluntary or mandatory is simply deception fear to gain control over the human body. Signed by all the nations of the world, the Nuremberg Treaty forbids human experimentation. What is being "injected" is not a vaccine, it is an "experiment." The Nuremberg Treaty states that no human being will be experimented upon without his or her consent, and before giving consent, one has the legal right to understand all of the implications, health problems and future health problems. We can at least thank Pfizer for their honesty in revealing this fact in advance so that people know they are gambling on their health well-being. Some 12,000 world-wide have so far lost their life in this gamble on an "experiment". It should be banned on experiments on babies and children based on what we now know!

In 1947, under UN General Assembly Resolution 177 (II), paragraph (a), the International Law Commission was directed to "formulate the principles of international law recognized in the Charter of the Nuremberg Tribunal and in the judgment of the Tribunal." In the course of the consideration of this subject, the question arose as to whether or not the Commission should ascertain to what extent the principles contained in the Charter and judgment constituted principles of international law. The conclusion was that since the Nuremberg Principles had been affirmed by the General Assembly, the task entrusted to the Commission was not to express any appreciation of these principles as principles of international law but merely to formulate them. The text above was adopted by the Commission at its second session.

Thus far we have seen the dread of the Antichrist kingdom and the fact that "power was given him over all kindreds, and tongues, and nations, And all that dwell on the earth shall worship him" -(Revelation 13:7-8).

You might ask, How can this man achieve such authority? It will be accomplished three different ways: force, coercion, and deception. My focus in this “Diamond & Nugget” is on Paul’s letter to the Thessalonians; 2nd Thessalonians 2:1-12, written in 51 A.D. We will analyze this segment of Paul’s letters in relation to the book of Revelation. In so doing, you need to remember, that Revelation (95-96 A.D.) is largely an overview or outline of last days history. To limit your study chronologically ignores the fact that many events are occurring concurrently, or what we would understand as simultaneously. All too often there is this tendency to limit study in chronological terms. The nuances of the Greek text support what I am saying here. You might want to disagree with me that we are living in the Antichrist’s kingdom because the world does not know the Antichrist’s identity. The objection of how are we worshipping someone we do not know exists comes to mind. What does it mean to worship this unknown entity? The A/C kingdom began evolving in 1992 with the Rio Summit!

Trying to define worship is a little like defining love or hope. An attempt to do so could go on forever. But I’ll try to keep it as short as possible. Put simply, worship is declaring the greatness of someone or something. It is the act of giving up your own glory to make sure everyone knows that the thing being worshiped is pretty awesome. To put it even more succinctly, worship is bowing down to lift up.

The first time the word “worship” appears in the King James Version is Gen 22:5 when Abraham told his servants he would go worship on the mountain with Isaac.

The Hebrew word the patriarch uses is “shachah” meaning to bow down. But the Hebrew word actually appears prior to this first translational occurrence. The real first appearance of “shachah” is in Gen 18:2.

In this passage, God appears to Abraham in the desert as three persons. Abraham recognized his God. In this instance the King James translates the word more literally. It says Abraham “ran to meet them and welcomed them, bowing low to the ground.”

So bowing down seems to be the appropriate action when meeting with the Creator. Bowing and kneeling – “sucking carpet” as an old pastor friend once told me – are certainly appropriate responses to God’s presence.

Matthew 2:2 is the first time “worship” appears in the KJV New Testament. The wise men had told Herod they had come to worship – “proskyneō” – the new King.

What is true worship? John 4:20-24 is possibly Jesus’ most direct definition of worship in the Bible. It could be the most well-known Scripture on worship, yet it leaves many readers saying, “huh?” I’ll try to unpack it.

Jesus says, “But the hour is coming, and now is, when the true worshipers will worship the Father in spirit and truth; for the Father is seeking such to worship Him.” But what does it mean to worship in spirit and truth?

Jesus says that God is a Spirit, so we should worship Him in spirit. -(John 4:24)

I'm going to go Greek here on you again. The English word spirit corresponds with the Greek word "pneuma" which literally means a gentle blast of wind. Certainly, Christ isn't referring to wind.

He's speaking of an invisible force, like the wind, namely the spirit of God or Holy Spirit. In other words, God can be everywhere and do all sorts of things all around you and even when you don't directly perceive him.

The same word is used to describe man's spirit: his essence, separate from the body that determines his will, actions, and decisions. We are created in God's image, so it's no surprise that we have a spirit too. For the moment, our spirit is confined to an enclosure (our body). God's is not. Let's come back to Earth for a minute. So we have a spirit and God is a spirit. So how do we worship him in spirit?

Worshipping God in spirit, I believe, means connecting with God on a non-physical level. Worship should not be about rituals, traditions, a physical building, or the order in which a church service flows. Neither does worship need to consist of rehearsed prayers or songs, individual or corporate. These can be vehicles of worship, but in the end, unnecessary. In my lifetime the institutional organization we call the church has focused far too-much on the styles, methods, trappings and procedures at the expense of the intimacy of relationship with God. You may know about Jesus but do you know Him? I talk all day long to him and communicate through my spirit (your intuition) as well. I really should go into that in greater but I have to keep this to my limit I set.

Worship should be equally possible in a prison or mega-church. No external force whatsoever can restrain worship in the spirit. It's wholehearted, unfettered adoration from within, in response to God's presence.

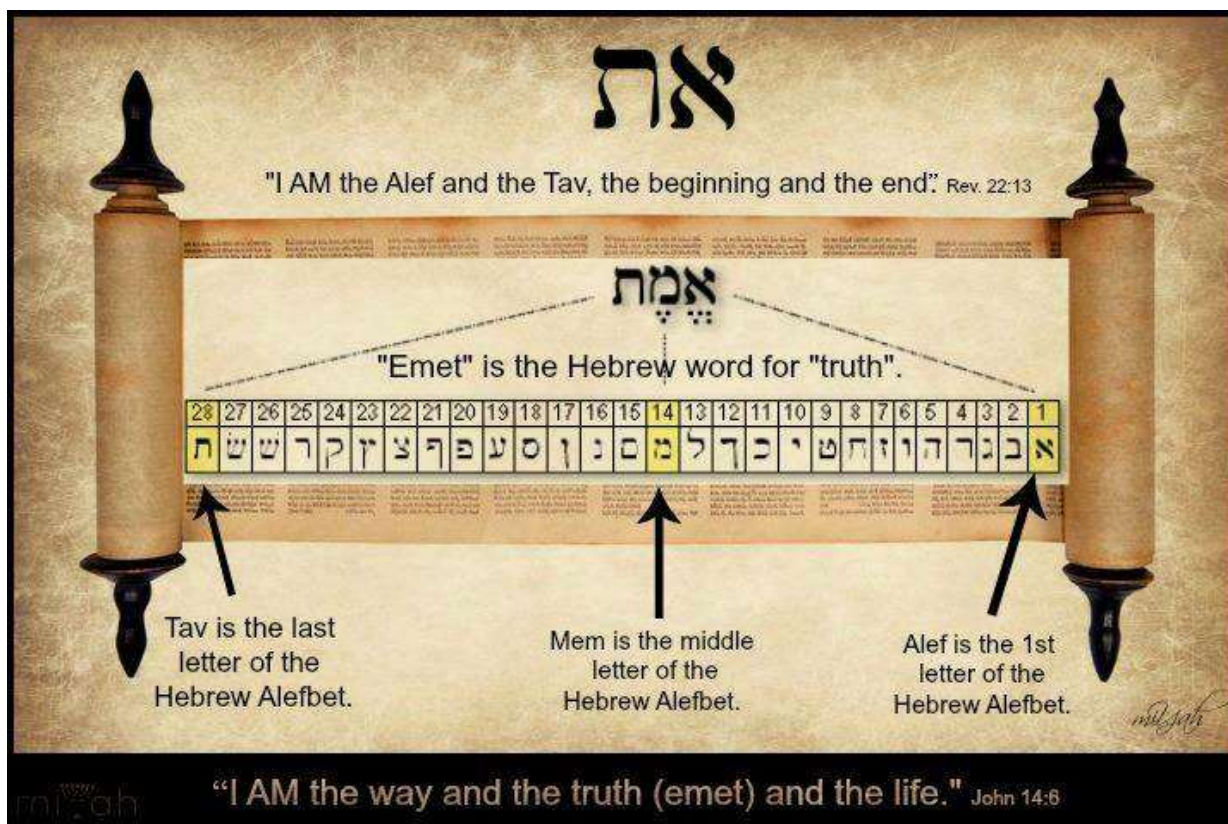

A good Biblical example of pure worship comes from 2nd Samuel 6 when David danced with all his might with leaping and dancing as he brought the Ark of the Covenant into the city. His wife even ridiculed him for his exuberant displays. This is worship in the spirit. Heartfelt, unscripted, unhindered, grateful connection with God.

Now to the aspect of worshipping in truth. There are no surprises when examining the word Truth in the Greek. It means just what it does in English: That which is true.

Worshipping in truth is to be in lock-step with worshipping in spirit. There should be no facades, faking it, ulterior motives. When you peel back a layer of an onion, you find more onion. A true worshiper, likewise, will be consistent all the way through.

I love it that Jesus says God is seeking out these true worshipers. It's exciting that God pursues you if you worship him in spirit and in truth. The Hebrew word for "truth" is the word "Emit". Interestingly, the three letters that spell "Emit" are the first, middle, and last letter of the Hebrew alpha-beit - Aleph – Mem – Tau, reading from right to left in Hebrew. As Christians we know that Jesus Christ is the Way, the Truth, and the Life. Jesus is the Word, made flesh, He is the Alpha and Omega, the Aleph and the Tau.

By what I have just stated defining worship is no easy task. You may sense that your worship experience was lacking something, or being squeezed out by thinking about something else. This attempt at defining one word has turned out to be quite a tour de force. If you've managed to read the whole thing, you are definitely wanting to be a true worshiper for which I can only applaud you.

The Prince of Wales was immortalized in bronze as a muscular, winged god dressed in nothing more than a loincloth two decades ago on March 7, 2002. He will be the first living member of the Royal Family to have a life-size statue dedicated in his honor.

Although the Prince is destined to become Defender of the Faiths when he becomes King of England, the inscription on the statue in Brazil honors him as 'Savior of the World'."

This designation just reeks of the title Antichrist is planning to take upon himself when he appears on the world scene. He will come striding through the smoke, dust, and destruction of the planned Third World War to establish "peace and safety", amidst great "lying signs and wonders". He will deceive the entire population of the world -- except for God's Elect -- because a mighty demonic spirit of lying and deception will blow through the world at the time he appears. We are feeling the effects even now!

He is shown naked, apart from the loincloth, with giant, angel-like wings protruding from his back. His arms are extended as if offering comfort and security. The statue dominates the town square, named after the Prince, in Palmas, the state capital of Tocantins on the edge of the Amazon rainforest. The sculpture, which will invite comparisons with the statue of Christ overlooking Rio de Janeiro from Corcovado, sets on a marble base. At its feet is an untidy mass of human bodies, one drinking from a bottle of wine, which is said to represent the world in a mess which the Prince is busy saving.

In order to understand more fully what I am dealing with in regards to the Antichrist and his methods of securing compliance of the people, he is able to bring about and garner the support of world leaders through his charisma. Behind the scenes, this man has all that support right now of world leaders, you just are not aware of it. People "bow low" to this man at his appearance, His Royal Majesty, Prince Charles of Wales. The world will soon be hearing a great deal more of this man who believes he was born to rule! Prince Charles "motto" is "Ich Dien". "Ich dien" is German, meaning "I serve"; the motto of the Prince of Wales, adopted with the crest of ostrich feathers after the battle of Crécy (1346), from John of Luxembourg, King of Bohemia, who was killed in the battle. The motto is spelt "ich diene" on the tomb of the Black Prince, Edward Prince of Wales, ...

He will use force. "And he had power to give life unto the image of the beast, that the image of the beast should both speak, and cause that as many as would not worship the image of the beast should be killed." -(Revelation 13:15).

He will use coercion: "And he causeth all, both small and great, rich and poor, free and bond, to receive a mark in their right hand, or in their foreheads: And that no man might buy or sell, save he that had the mark, or the name of the beast, or the number of his name." -(Revelation 13:16-17).

He will use deception: "Even him, whose coming is after the working of Satan with all power and signs and lying wonders," -(2nd Thessalonians 2:9). Follow with me in a closer look at this chapter.

2:1. It is important to take note of the events which will take place at the Second Coming of Christ. There will be a Rapture of the Church. There will be a Great Tribulation. There will be the return of Christ Jesus in judgment to judge His enemies.

The sequence of events is a matter of controversy, which often finds good people on opposite sides. Some believe Jesus Christ will come in the Rapture before the Tribulation, others in the middle of the Tribulation, and others at the close. A large segment of believers concur in the pre-Tribulation view. I have stated my view many times, I have held to the Pre-Tribulation view since 1967. here for those who are not familiar with my views.

When Paul speaks of the "coming of our Lord Jesus Christ," he is referring to the entire scope of the Second Coming. It is the reason for his advice in the following verses of this chapter of Thessalonians.

2:2. Instead of acting like intelligent people with sound judgment, the Thessalonian Christians were departing from their senses like a ship blown from its moorings. Thus they were greatly disturbed (frightened, agitated) and filled with feverish anxieties.

The cause of all this confusion was the false teaching spread by people who claimed to have authority both from the Holy Spirit and from Paul. They seem to have produced forged letters purporting to come from Paul upholding their new teaching, which was that the Day of Christ (the period of time in which Christ will bring His judgments) had already come. Thus they taught that the persecutions and tribulations the Thessalonians were then experiencing were part of the Day of Christ, and they could not therefore be encouraged by the prospect of a literal rapture of believers. It is possible also that these false teachers taught that Christ Jesus had already returned spiritually, thus ignoring the plain statement of Acts 1:11. As we can see, Satan was weaving his deception long before the Mormons and Jehovah Witnesses were founded by Freemasonic Lodge brothers.

Some of the older manuscripts have "the day of the Lord" instead of Christ. This then refers to the Old Testament use of this expression as a period of divine judgment at the end time.

2:3. No matter how logical the false teachers might have seemed, they were still wrong. The Day of the Lord could not have come because there must be a falling away first, and the "man of sin," the "son of perdition," must be revealed. Some take "first" in the sense of "prior," that is, before the Day of Christ. A more common meaning of "first," however, is first in sequence. That is, the first thing after the Day of the Lord begins will be the falling away and the revealing of the man of sin. Since these had not happened, the Day of Christ had not yet begun, and the Thessalonians could still expect the Rapture. The nuances do not preclude there will be people like myself who have studied this man in great detail like Tim Cohen, and others that are convinced Prince Charles meets ALL the requirements for the Antichrist. There are 58 specific markers to confirm Prince Charles as "THE" Antichrist of the KJV Bible. Orthodox Jews are saying their Messiah Ben David has come last month, I would not bet on it!

Some take the falling away to mean “religious apostasy”, a great abandonment of spiritual religion that will give the Antichrist opportunity to take over. Others take it to be a rebellion against truth and justice, a defiance of God's authority among all nations. It's all of that and more.

The late Dr. E. Schuler English suggests another possibility: that the word apostasia has a secondary meaning of "take away" and point to the Rapture, the “catching away” of the Church. I am of the opinion both are applicable based upon the concept of “dual” fulfillment of passages. God has used the “dual reference” grammatical form for prophecy many times throughout the Bible.

Some ancient manuscripts have "man of lawlessness" instead of "man of sin." This person will put himself above the law and make his will supreme as an absolute dictator. His reign will be short however. He is also the son of perdition, that is, he is doomed to eternal loss just as Judas was -(John 17:12). This does not mean Judas will come back as the Antichrist.

2:4. Paul wrote that the man of sin will continue long enough to set himself up against "all that is called God" (everything divine) and against every object of worship. He will tear down all the established religions of the world and all the minor religions and cults as well. He will claim to be God and will sit personally in the temple of God, claiming it as his possession. "Temple" (sanctuary) is used by Paul elsewhere of the Church or the Christians. Thus, some think the Antichrist's temple will be the apostate church. However, the sanctuary here is clearly referencing the Holy Place, and it is better to take it as a literal temple. Even now, the False Prophet is promoting his Chrislam idea. Pope Francis meets with Prince Charles a couple times a year in privacy, who promotes the same view as well. Francis has pushed his unity of Christianity and Islam from the beginning of his election. The real problem is that like oil and water, Chrislam doesn't mix at all.

2:5. Paul had already explained this in his preaching at Thessalonica, but his explanation is not given here. It was a reminding of his previous words.

2:6. "What withholdeth" (or, "holds back") is neuter in gender. Many commentators (both ancient and modern) take this to refer to the Roman Empire. Some ancient writers took it to be the preaching of the apostles. But since Paul uses the neuter to refer to the Holy Spirit (because the word spirit is neuter), many take it that the power that holds back the revelation of the Antichrist is the Holy Spirit. Having examined the structure of the Greek in this verse, it can read: "You are experiencing the power which holds the Wicked One back now, so that he will be revealed at the proper time, and not before". No theory can be held to be satisfactory and as Augustine realized long ago in his book 'The City of God', we must acknowledge our ignorance".

2:7. The many contradictory views on this verse emphasize how little many people know. Some interpreters of the "historic school" of theology have held that the masculine "he" refers to the Roman emperor, others the apostle Paul, and still others the popes who stepped into the gap after the fall of Rome. Modern post-Tribulationists may think the withholding power is of "law and order." I would say most of us pre-Tribulationists hold that the neuter form of verse 6 and the masculine form of verse 7, the power and character which "withholdeth" the Antichrist, is the Holy Spirit. There is little to debate in my opinion.

Some pre-Tribulationists believe the power is the Christian Church. During this age the Holy Spirit works through believers, whose bodies are His living temples. As a unit believers comprise a temple of the Spirit -(1st Corinthians 3:16; 6:19). Thus the masculine words of verse 7 are thought to refer to the "gathered" believers who are caught up in the Rapture. Given how the church so easily caved into the civil powers at be this past year, it seems that the institutional church caved and are unlikely to resist the powers of the state and the globalist agents of the Antichrist asserting their lockdown measures. The church was impotent since a year ago and with only limited opposition who held their ground and those who did face fines and penalties for their defiance. Fear became the dominant response around the world. The powers at be exposed their real agenda by shutting down churches but allowed liquor stores and abortion clinics to be considered essential businesses. This is a "spiritual" war!

I viewed a Calgary, Canada pastor let loose on Canadian police trying to disrupt Good Friday services at his church last week. Seven officers were impotent to shut down his services. He screamed "Out of here you Nazis, Gestapo, brown shirts," Clearly the power of the Holy Spirit enabled him to drive them from his church's entrance way. They were helpless to react to his almost "driving out the money changers" style. They cowered to his screaming and yelling, calling them Nazis, Gestapo, brown shirts. etc. This is what the church should have done a year ago March.

At least this point is clear: this passage speaks of a power and/or a person strong enough to withhold Satanic influences, so the man of sin cannot be revealed as long as this power is at work in the world. Prince Charles works behind the scenes avoiding needless publicity, unless he wants to use it for his purpose!

2:8. When this restraining influence is removed, the Antichrist, that wicked or lawless one, will immediately be revealed. But even at that very time his doom will already be sealed. When He comes in flaming fire -(1:7, 8), Jesus will consume (destroy) him with the spirit (breath) of His mouth. The way Jesus will destroy the Wicked One parallels the actions of the Lord Jehovah in Isaiah 11:4: "He shall smite the earth with the rod of his mouth, and with the breath of his lips shall he slay the wicked." (See also Revelation 19:15.) One word from the Lord is all it will take.

Two closely related words are used to describe the coming of Christ, "epiphaneia" ("appearing") and "Parousia" ("coming"). "Epiphaneia" was used in the Septuagint to describe an epiphany or revelation of God -(2nd Samuel 7:23; 2nd Maccabees 2:21; 3:24). It was used in Hellenistic Greek to describe visits from emperors and other dignitaries. It was also applied to the Messiah's first coming -(see 2nd Timothy 1:10). Parousia is the common term used to describe the Second Coming of Christ Jesus.

The very brightness of Jesus Christ's coming, a glory which blesses the believers, will help bring violent destruction to the Antichrist and his armies.

2:9. To the people who do not know the Antichrist is doomed, his coming will seem supernatural. It is also called a "coming" (parousia, presence). It will be according to the working or energizing of Satan in all sorts of deeds of power, miraculous signs, and amazing wonders. But all these will be lies. ("Lying" applies to all three. See John 8:44.) Satan will use these signs and lying wonders to get the attention of the people of the world. Something that few know about is Prince Charles' secret life of his occult worship.

2:10. These false signs and wonders will entice those who make pleasure or money as their god. The Antichrist will tempt them with every kind of wicked deception. The connotation of this ties it in with the seduction that comes from his wealth -(Matthew 13:22), sin -(Hebrews 3:13), reveling in deceptive pleasures -(2nd Peter 2:13), and every kind of deceitful lust -(Ephesians 4:22).

This seductive deception will be effective in those who are already perishing, lost, gone astray, already on the broad road leading to destruction -(Matthew 7:13). This will further lure those who are unsaved and anxious to fill the positions suddenly emptied through the Rapture. When the believers are "caught up" the world will experience an incredible need to fill empty jobs that are needed to continue business as usual!

Satan's false signs will also deceive those who did not welcome the love of the truth that they might be saved. That is, they did not become real disciples of Jesus but continued to follow their own ways. -(Compare with John 8:31, 32.) They have bought into the Big Lie that Satan has set forth to snare the gullible, even many fence sitters or those who may even be church members but are there for business and social reasons. I knew many over the years who wanted their children to be exposed to Christian values and teachings yet standoff in terms of their own involvement at church. They might come to social events, even come to church on Easter and Christmas, but their commitment was not there, and obviously so!

"Saved" here does not refer to conversion, however, but to the salvation and inheritance which will be believers' when they are changed into Christ's likeness.

2:11. Because they have no love for the truth God will send them a strong, deluding influence. "A power is set in operation within them which makes them prone to embrace error" This will lead them to "believe a lie" (literally the lie, not any lie that happens to come along, but the big lie, the false claims and pretensions of the Antichrist). These are also likely to take the injections as a result of the Judas Goats who sold out to the New World Order. Most of these larger para-church ministries and television platforms are only a financial shoestring from collapse once the money ceases to flow in.

Many Christians will be saved during the Tribulation, but many will be deceived by the Antichrist. Revelation 7:9-14 discusses this but one might consider that text a little deeper. I have heard it said that fence sitters and marginal Christians will be saved after the Rapture when they suddenly realize their mistake and come to faith in Jesus Christ. I know a pastor who suggests a different view on this message means the exact opposite. Those who reject the Gospel message in this age of the church will find it easier to believe the lie. My colleague points to the event between Moses and Pharaoh. Pharaoh's hardened heart and refused Moses request "7" times. While it says that God hardened his heart. Was God to blame for Pharaoh's spiritual condition? I don't think so. When a person continually resists the voice of God's Word, he hardens his own heart and finally becomes deluded, believing a lie.

It might be argued that the Antichrist's deception will be so great that men could be excused for following him, but these are not unwilling believers. They find pleasure in their ungodly lifestyle. I consider this issue of deception as an old cope out line used by the comedian Flip Wilson, and his character Geraldine, "The devil made me do it!"

2:12. The result will be that all who have not welcomed the love of the truth will "be damned" (judged, called to account, and condemned). The first and most important ground for their judgment will be the fact that they did not believe (and obey) the truth. Second, they took "pleasure in unrighteousness." They approved, considered good, took delight in, and sought satisfaction in wrongdoing, injustice, wickedness, and evil. In other words, they kept going along with sin, considered it normal, and promoted it as desirable. Strong delusion is already making many believe that those who practice the works of the flesh can still be acceptable to God. But the Bible clearly warns that "they which do such things shall not inherit the kingdom of God" -(Galatians 5:19-21). God expects believers to cultivate the fruit of the Spirit and crucify the flesh with its affections and lusts or desires -(Galatians 5:22-24). Those who do not do so will be well prepared to accept the Antichrist's false claims.

Unfortunately men do not change, and their reasons for rejecting the Truth in every age are the same. If you doubt that take a second look at John 3:19. Romans 1:32 reminds us further to this effect. I occasionally reflect back to my past, and how a single event changed my life and how my life might have differed otherwise. In 1962, I took out a utility light standard in a shopping mall at 40-mph. I had dropped my wife off for her 1-9 pm shift at Gimbels Department Store in the Eastland Shopping Center. I took a short cut through the mall parking lot and somehow failed to see the 4-ft. square concrete support base for the mounted 40-ft. high light standard. My almost new robin-egg blue 1964 Ford Galaxy 500-XL hit the concrete support base almost dead-center. The concrete base did not push back. The car climbed the support, climbed the pole and cut it off at the 8-ft. height, and flipped the car onto its side.

I climbed out through my door window bleeding from my face. The horn-rim cut my nose off like a knife through hot butter. The responding officer gave me a tile to wrap around my face and put me in the front seat of his cruiser. We were headed for the hospital in McKeesport, PA and the officer said to me, “You should thank God you are still alive!” At the hospital they rushed me to the O.R. and the Dr. sewed my nose back on without any anesthesia. She skillfully sewed my nose back in places with 33-stitches. Through the surgical cloth covering my face, I could see and feel her every stitch. She packed my nose with cotton and released me. For six months I lost my sense of smell. I spent the next week resting and healing. I dealt with the officer’s words over the week while listening to Oliver B. Greene, a gravelly voice preacher from South Carolina. As it turned out the first of two near-fatal car accidents brought me face-to-face with the Spirit of the Lord.

That said, we cannot presume that God will plead for ever. A deadline was set before the flood, and after one hundred and twenty years of opportunity the deluge came. The door of mercy was closed by God.

Persistent rejection of Jesus Christ makes it easier to believe the devil’s lie. In Noah’s days, God said, “My spirit shall not always strive with man” –(Genesis 6:3). “And as it was in the days of Noe, so shall it be also in the days of the Son of man. They did eat, they drank, they married wives, they were given in marriage, until the day that Noe entered into the ark, and the flood came, and destroyed them all.” -(Luke 17:26-27).

For those who, in the period we refer to as the Age of Grace, willfully resist God’s Spirit, there might not be a second chance after the Rapture. Actually, they will not want a second chance, because their hardened hearts will be so deceived as to welcome the Antichrist and his New World Order team.

2:13. Paul did not dwell long on the deceptions of the Antichrist. He quickly went on to say in a positive way how he felt bound (under obligation) to keep giving thanks at all times for his brothers (and sisters). They had received the love of the truth. They were loved not merely by Paul, but also by the Lord. In contrast to those who will be deceived by the Antichrist, they will be brought into salvation. God has chosen them for this end. God’s purpose for believers is not only that they enjoy salvation but also reach Christian maturity.

Having assured the Thessalonians that they were not in the Day of the Lord, and the Rapture of the Church must precede the revealing of the Antichrist, Paul goes on by encouraging them to live for Christ in full view of that coming day. He gave thanks and that “God hath chosen you to salvation.” -(2nd Thessalonians 2:13).

God has not only chosen that believers be brought into ultimate salvation where they will be changed into Christ's likeness -(1st John 3:2), He has also chosen the means to bring them to this goal. They only reach the goal through a continued sanctification by the Spirit and a steadfast belief of the truth. The Holy Spirit consecrates believers and separates them from sin, and at the same time He separates them to God and to obedience to His will. He also gives help and power to live a holy (dedicated) life. The believer's part is a continued faith in the truth, a faithful, obedient acceptance and practice of the truth.

We have already seen that Paul is not referring to salvation from the guilt of sin, but deliverance from the presence of sin at the Rapture. The context is about the Rapture and the Great Tribulation. It was of their promised deliverance was a good reason to give thanks.

2:14. The means by which God called the Thessalonians to this salvation was Paul's preaching of the one true gospel ("good news"). It was the same gospel preached by the other apostles -(Galatians 1:16, 17; 2:2). Any other "gospel" can only bring a curse - (Galatians 1:7-9).

The fulfillment of this salvation will be when Christians enter into the full possession of the glory of our Lord Jesus Christ. All who keep believing will enter the glory - (Ephesians 1:4-10). Also implied here is the truth clearly expressed at Philippians 3:21 which says that Christ "shall change our vile body, that it may be fashioned like unto His glorious body." Something we may not recognize here is, that all three persons of the Godhead are wonderfully involved in our salvation. The Father knows beforehand who will believe and has provided for all to be save. The Holy Spirit strives with us to create a sense of need and point us to Jesus Christ, while the blood of Christ Jesus washes away our every sin the moment we first believe. This very principle was "loud and clear" to me as I recuperated from my accident and recalling the officer's statement in his police cruiser on the way to the hospital. Christ Jesus has chosen all those who thus believe to share the glory of Christ at the Rapture!

2:15. In view of the glory to come, Paul challenged the Thessalonians to stand fast and keep holding on to the traditions (teachings) taught them by the Word (in his preaching) and in his epistles. Human traditions are not meant here. The word "traditions" in this case speaks of teachings handed down from God through Jesus. Paul was emphasizing that his teachings did not come from his own mind. He was simply passing along the message handed down by the Lord. Like the Old Testament prophets who spoke for God, he was not free to change it or mix in any of his own ideas. -(See 2nd Peter 1:20, 21.)

For believers, this means taking a stand on and being true to the entire Bible. Careful examination of the Book of Acts and the Epistles shows that Paul and all the apostles preached the truths recorded in the four Gospels, truths Jesus repeated again and again in the many places where He preached and taught. They also preached the gospel from the Old Testament which was the only written Bible they had.

2:16. To his exhortation to stand firm, Paul added a prayer. In the final analysis, Christians cannot stand in their own strength or hold to the Scriptures through their own understanding. Believers need Jesus Christ himself and God the Father to help them. They can expect God to do this because of His love. He demonstrated and proved His love by giving His Son to die on Calvary -(John 3:16). He pours that love into the believer's heart when He gives him the Spirit -(Romans 5:5).

Believers have further assurance that God will always encourage and strengthen them because He has already given them everlasting consolation -(eternal, unending, inexhaustible comfort and encouragement) and a "good hope" by His grace -(His unmerited, undeserved favor).

2:17. As Christians stand firm, holding on to the teachings of God's Word, they can expect God and Christ to comfort (encourage) their hearts and to strengthen and confirm or firmly fix them, not merely in their minds, but in every good word and work. (Here some important ancient manuscripts place "work" before "word." This is the correct order for the Christian witness. The believer's works must be established in the grace of God before his words can mean very much.)

In order to stand fast, we need a plumb line of God's Word. A plumb line is a simple device that a brick layer or carpenter uses to keep something from looking like the leaning Tower of Pisa. A plumb line doesn't change or move with the whims of the carpenter. It remains true, and all work must line up with it or risk being crooked and causing one problem after another in the construction process.

Modern versions of the Bible have brought confusion and uncertainty about the words of Scripture, but the Psalmist tells us in Psalm 12:6: "The words of the LORD are pure words: as silver tried in a furnace of earth, purified seven times." There's that Covenant word again "seven times". It was the Apostle Paul who said, "All Scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness: That the man of God may be perfect, thoroughly furnished unto all good works." The reason we have been given the Word of God is first to bring us to salvation, and then to spiritual maturity in Christ Jesus.

I should note something important here. What am I saying when I use the term Jesus Christ vs Christ Jesus? In the truest sense of the grammar phrase, Jesus Christ is reference to the Lord before the Cross, and Christ Jesus is contextually referring to post-Cross. All too often writers will use the term for the Messiah as the Christ, and avoid any reference to Jesus. In Biblical times, the name Jesus was common as the name Donald or Bill. So when we refer to the Lord Christ Jesus we are showing worship and respect for His Divinity. Some religious groups will use the word "Christ" but often have a different meaning attached than what a Bible-believing Christian would know it to mean.

As a believer, our plumb line is the Word of God. Almost fifty years ago, I built a 10-room, 2,556-square foot house that I designed myself, and had to build myself because my contractor went bankrupt, and so I provided 90% of the sweat labor, the rest was by a bricklayer I contracted. One of my proudest moments came on a Saturday morning when we were both working, was his remarks he made about laying the brick was how plumb and square it was for an amateur like me. He knew the foundation had a problem caused by my original contractor who originally built the foundation, who had built it out of square. I was able to redeem his mistake since my building plans called for 12" wide foundation block, hence giving me a few inches leeway enough to build the deck of the first floor area to square. Otherwise, we would have to change from brick to aluminum siding, without the few extra inches needed for a brick exterior.

I started writing this over a month ago, and it got side-tracked with other articles I was working on. I try to do an important article a day, and at any given moment, I may have upwards of eight articles in process in my Word Document working file. This past year was a time of hypnotic powers being spread across the world, a Blitzkrieg of spiritual warfare. People were like deer in the headlights of an oncoming freight train, frozen!

The evil agents of the Antichrist are correct in at least this point, that there will be no going back to what was called "normal" if that was not already a lie. There will be a Global Reset, and it is not going to be what the brothers Jacob and Evelyn de Rothschild, or Klaus Schwab, or Prince Charles, or the fake Vicar of Christ Pope Francis have planned for the world.

It has been such a special privilege to be living today, as witness the End of Days. You are at the culmination point of unbridled human rule on this planet. I was convinced of that fact when I learned of the plan to provoke a war between China and the U.S. that was hatched in Wuhan, China, but was executed some 7,000 miles away at the "satellite" farm located on the Rothschild-owned Pirbright Institute located in Surrey, UK, 25 miles outside of London. As the UK satellite passed directly over Wuhan, China, a series of events took place simultaneously that led to MI6/CIA operatives activating a "hijacking in progress" of China's new 5G "Smart" city technology.

On the next page, I have enlarged a picture of the Surrey satellite command center at the Rothschild's Pirbright Institute, at Surrey, UK, they call it the "farm" like the CIA refers to their "farm" at Camp Perry, VA. Sounds so rustic, for a special reason. Its home for 25 satellite dishes and one brand new "special" 5G satellite, installed in early 2019, with the specific purpose to hijack the Chinese newest technology. If you look close enough at the picture, you can see the satellite's orbit pattern as it passes over the eastern land mass of China in the three monitor screens at the ceiling area below.

At the precise time the satellite passed directly over the city of Wuhan, China, British MI6/CIA operatives coordinated a "DEW" or Directed Energy Weapons attack on Wuhan's 5G base station. It took control of the Chinese power remotely from the satellite and "modulated" the energy level to likely 60-GHz, a level that consumes all the oxygen in people's lungs, resulting in instant death. People using their cell phones at that very moment were killed instantly, falling to the ground in their own footprints. It is estimated that at least 21 million Chinese citizens were killed in a matter of two seconds. You will never see this in the media, I only know of two others beside myself and possibly a fourth recently to talk about this, but there are others who know and are not going to ever reveal it publicly. All parties involved have their own reasons to deny any of it ever happened. Satellite pictures showed continuous smoke for months coming from the 5 crematories in Wuhan, China, and in nearby cities.

To run a psyop cover story on this amazing event, the story of a virus escaped the Wuhan BSL4 lab, they had the cover story of the “imagined” Coronavirus to hide the truth about 5G being a weapon of mass murder. Through fear the global elite got people to believe the words of Bill Gates that 65-million could die. The attempt to provoke the war failed in part, but another war may be yet coming to central Europe in the Ukraine, which for NATO Treaty reasons could spill over into Western Europe and the U.S. Tension runs high between China and the U.S.

Being disabled and home-bound may sound like a prison sentence, and yet God’s power is visible in unusual ways to which Scripture provides us snap shots of unfolding events bringing us to the coming departure. Klaus Schwab came out today, April 5th, and declared unvaccinated people to be a threat to humanity.

WEF head Klaus Schwab, who looks an awful lot like an aged Heinrich Himmler of the Nazi SS, says humans who refuse to go along with the plan are a threat to everyone else. He, and U.K. Prime Minister Boris Johnson, French President Emmanuel Macron, German Chancellor Angela Merkel, and many of the other usual suspects all agree.

These international “leaders” signed on to a letter that says the next phase of the plandemic transition into a New World Order necessitates that the world’s social engineers and societal architects “build a more robust international health architecture that will protect future generations.” This is another of Satan’s lies to impose his New World Order. If you really want to understand what is happening around the world, a must read is Patrick M. Woods’ book, ‘Technocracy: The Hard Road to World Order’. I guarantee once you have read this book, your perception of how things are moving into the area the Bible calls as the Great Tribulation. I recently finished reading the book in morning hours and it was a must read even for someone who is widely read and informed as myself.

The letter goes on to declare the Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19) as the “biggest challenge to the global community since the 1940s,” adding that there will definitely be “other pandemics and other major health emergencies” in the years to come.

“No single government or multilateral agency can address this threat alone,” the letter adds.

“The question is not if, but when. Together, we must be better prepared to predict, prevent, detect, assess and effectively respond to pandemics in a highly coordinated fashion. The Covid-19 pandemic has been a stark and painful reminder that nobody is safe until everyone is safe.”

The Chinese virus “vaccines” are the first piece of the Mark of the Beast. Klaus Schwab stated just a few weeks ago that he believes “nobody will be safe” unless “everybody is vaccinated.” They believe the masses are stupid as rocks.

It does not matter if a “vaccine” is experimental and still undergoing clinical trials, which is the case for all Chinese virus vaccines currently being distributed. If the government says you should get it, then you have to get it, Schwab contends. This man is a carry-over from the post WWII era. His family was making “heavy water” at Ravensburg, Germany near the Austrian border with Lichtenstein for Hitler’s nuclear weapons program but the war ended before Hitler succeeded. He was educated at Harvard and a protégé of Dr. Henry Kissinger. He is another of the neo-Nazi uber-wealthy of central Europe based in neutral Switzerland.

The other signatories have essentially declared that they believe the same thing. All injections, no matter their purpose or the risks involved, must be taken by all humanity in order for everyone to feel “safe” against scary germs from China or elsewhere. The pandemic narrative lie is breaking down big time at this point. Yesterday, April 5th, 2021, the CDC reported 277 Covid-19 deaths. Statistically speaking, the 277 deaths can be stated as less than 1/100,000th of a percentage point. This has to be one of the lowest days recorded; and the day before, April 4th was just 748 deaths. Covid-19 cases have collapsed in Florida, Texas and Arkansas which has dropped all requirements for masks, social distancing, etc. Dr. Fauci stated he had no explanation for the huge decline. Perhaps we were all being scammed in order to get people to take the “Mark” of the Beast by using fear of an imaginary virus! Dr. Fauci has to be sweating heavy these days as the entire narrative collapses. The Christian has received some grace on the Divine time line, meaning the pressure is off for a while before the elite scramble for another trick in their bag of demonic toys!

This will bring about a “public good” that will fulfill the tenets of the New World Order as long planned by the secret societies, and as delineated on the Georgia Guidestones, in the Noahide laws, and in other key deep state texts that function as blueprints for a future totalitarian New World Order. Unfortunately, there are many out in the world beating the drum and intimidating, coercing, and cajoling their vaccines with tasty seductions.

The Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19) plandemic is just one piece of this much larger agenda, which involves injecting all of humanity with the first piece of the Mark of the Beast. Once the vaccine “software” is installed, more components will be added later to bring about total and absolute worship of the “beast.” They have told us “booster” shots will be required yearly, or possibly twice a year.

Nobody will be able to buy or sell anything without first being “vaccinated.” By agreeing to get vaccinated, people are giving their worship and allegiance to the New World Order beast system known as Western “medicine,” which is forever enslaving them through lies and deception.

“The main goal of this treaty would be to foster an all of government and all of society approach, strengthening national, regional and global capacities and resilience to future pandemics,” the letter further reads.

“This includes greatly enhancing international co-operation to improve, for example, alert systems, data-sharing, research and local, regional and global production and distribution of medical and public health counter-measures such as vaccines, medicines, diagnostics and personal protective equipment.”

To wrap this up, don't spend your stimulus checks on anything of real value, such as a new vehicle, as Klaus Schwab has said you will own nothing and you will enjoy it. Spiking inflation will eat up that stimulus check faster than you can spend it Vegas. You are about to experience the greatest "Deliverance before Judgment" event since Noah and family were removed from the evil world of his day; and certainly the Exodus crossing of the Red Sea under the leadership of Moses. Jesus is coming, better get ready folks.

When this 7-Year period begins? Daniel 9:27 states, "he shall confirm the covenant with many for one week (7 Years)." Only when Antichrist confirms the Covenant with Jewish religious leaders does this 7-year period begins.

The Christian Church will be raptured out before his pen touches the paper. Convincing the Orthodox Jew that he is their Messiah may take months, and the Church may still be here.

In summary, we Born Again Christians may be here when Antichrist is on the world scene. Too many Christians falsely believe the Rapture will occur when Antichrist comes to the world scene, and will be susceptible to his many "lying signs and wonders". Last year, I revealed that it was Prince Charles of Wales, who orchestrated from behind the scene the 1993 Oslo Accords. Most of you remember that it was President William Clinton who hosted the event on the White House grounds. I recall well telling my congregation the following Sunday that this was an important event, but it would be a while before we knew its significance.

This time when the curtains are pulled back, you will see that it will be HRH, Prince Charles of Wales that will "confirm" the covenant of Daniel 9:27. The Hebrew word for "confirm" is "gāḇar" and the KJV Bible renders the correct word choice. In Hebrew it uses the Hiphil stem form. We know this with certainty as there are three other forms that could have been used for its meaning, but in this case, the word is in the Hiphil form.

The Hiphil stem is generally used to express causative action in the active voice. In many cases the noun derived from the same root is the object or result of the hiphil verb associated with that root. For example, the Hiphil verb הִמְטִיר means "to cause to rain down"; the noun מָטָר means "rain". In Hebrew the secret to learning the language is to know the root word which in almost all cases is composed of a 2 or 3 letter word. C.J. Lovick is the author of an excellent series of books teaching Hebrew and the word-picture meanings through illustrating the 2 or 3 letter root word.

There are many prophecy teachers that get hung up on this important language rule. When you see people insisting the Antichrist will be from Turkey, you can be sure they do not understand or have a working knowledge of the Hebrew language and how it is used.

My most important point is keeping your eyes on anything in the media when Prince Charles of Wales pops up in the news. I try to keep up with his press every couple days and so he is our sign of our soon Rapture! There is a lot of chatter beneath the surface that from my view are signs of something big coming forth.
