

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #77

This Blessed Hope article will not be very long; I will keep it brief and succinct to the major point of the imminent Rapture! We have less than two weeks at this point in time until the correct date for the Feast of Trumpets. I am going to share two posts by two brothers in Christ, James W. and Neil Lipken. They both give their reasons for October 7th, 2021. The second has a video link explaining and showing how the Feast of Trumpets is a month later than what has been observed by virtually everyone in 2021. This discrepancy is huge if you were or are watching for Rapture. Keep your boarding passes handy as we are inside of two weeks for the correct date of Rosh HaShanah.

The following is a short summary of why the Rapture is most likely to occur on Rosh HaShanah or the Feast of Trumpets. It has always been the prime candidate Feast Day for the Rapture. In fact, in 2017, I did an eBook on the Season of the Rapture. I did a thorough study of the Feast of Trumpets

Summary of Reasons: Rapture on the Feast of Trumpets / Rosh Hashanah

Summary of reasons why Christians expect to see the rapture happen on the Feast of Trumpets:

1. All the Spring Feasts were fulfilled at Christ's first coming, and on the exact day of the feast. All the Fall Feasts picture the second advent, and the Feast of Trumpets is the first of the fall feasts, picturing the Rapture. The Feast of Trumpets is when the "last trump" of the Rapture of 1st Corinthians 15 is blown.
2. The Feast of Trumpets is known as the Wedding of the Messiah, and the Church is the Bride of Christ, and the Rapture is when the Church is "caught up to heaven to be with Jesus Christ.
3. The Feast of Trumpets happens on the "new moon", which is 29.5 days after the last one, meaning it might occur on the 29th or 30th day, nobody knows for sure. "Of that day or hour no man knows" is an expression referring to this feast, and thus, the Rapture.
4. "Of that day or hour no man knows, but my Father only" is an expression used by a groom when asked when his wedding will be. He says this because it is his Father that will tell him when his preparations on the bridal chamber are completed and it is time. Again, the wedding pictures the rapture.
5. The "Open Door" of the Rapture in Matthew 25, and Revelation 3, & 4:1 is a symbol of the Feast of Trumpets. -(Ezekiel 46:1) "Thus says the Lord GOD: The gate of the inner court that faces east shall be shut on the six working days; but on the Sabbath day it shall be opened and on the day of the new moon it shall be opened."
6. We are told that the new moon and the Feasts of the Lord are a shadow of things to come in Colossians 2:16, 17. Since the Feast of Trumpets is the only Feast of the Lord that falls on a new moon, we should take particular note.
7. There are seven days of awe in between the Feast of Trumpets and the Day of Atonement. This pictures the seven years of tribulation. Atonement pictures Satan being defeated and cast away at the end of tribulation. If you add the two day Trumpets feast, and the day of Atonement, the 7 days of awe are "ten days of tribulation" which might be referred to in Revelation 2:10.
8. In the Jewish Wedding, a marriage takes place over a period of time known as the "bridal week". During the bridal week, the groom and bride have intercourse in the bridal chamber. At the end of the week, there is a marriage supper. Compare Judges 14, Revelation 19, and Genesis 29:22-28. This bridal week will be the tribulation week on earth, while the bride of Christ is in heaven.

9. In the Jewish Wedding, the groom comes for his bride "like a thief in the night" to take (seize / rapture) her away and into the bridal chamber for the bridal week at his father's house.

10. The Feast of Trumpets is also known as the coronation of the Messiah, when he will start reigning as king, thus the beginning of the "Day of the Lord", which includes the starting phase of the tribulation for Israel and the Jews.

11. It is also time for the bema judgment, or the judgement of the works of the righteous, and judgement must begin at the house of the Lord.

12. -(2nd Corinthians 11:2) "For I am jealous over you with godly jealousy: for I have espoused you to one husband, that I may present you as a chaste virgin to Christ."

The Hebrew Calendar is lunar-solar, meaning we use the sun and the moon to calculate His feasts. The issue in 2021 was this, the moon has a 354 day cycle, coming in 10 days sooner than the sun. Therefore 'intercalation' is necessary to keep the calendar in line. We add a 13th month 'roughly' every 3rd year to keep the seasons in place.

"Be mindful to keep the times of the festivals, with the intercalations of the year, and to observe the rotation thereof"

Deuteronomy 16:1 Aramaic Targums

Here's the issue. The modern day Jewish calendar comes from a Rabbinic doctrine established by Hillel II, in the 4th century:

"While the Sanhedrin (Rabbinical Supreme Court) presided in Jerusalem, there was no set calendar. They would evaluate every year to determine whether it should be declared a leap year.

When Hillel II instituted the perpetual calendar in anticipation of the disbandment of the Sanhedrin, he also incorporated leap years into the calendar. This was done to keep the calendar aligned with the seasons.

Hillel's calendar runs in nineteen-year cycles, each cycle containing seven leap years: the 3rd, 6th, 8th, 11th, 14th, 17th, and the 19th years."

The current Jewish calendar that is widely used by the 'Torah community' is set by Rabbinic standards, instead of using the heavenly luminaries in the heavens above (as they formerly followed). In many instances, this calendar is correct, but every so often, they add the 13th month on the wrong year, because of the 'set' numerical rotation given by Hillel II, instead of using the heavenly luminaries themselves to dictate. 2021 is one of those years. I know many still do not accept Enoch as scripture, however Enoch does make it very clear, that the new year cannot be started unless the Sun goes into the 4th gate; what we know as the spring equinox. Even so, before the Hillel II decree, the standard was to use the equinox as Enoch lays out anyways.

The Hebrew Calendar Before the Fix

“Sanhedrin considered several factors in the course of their deliberations whether to declare a leap year on a given year. The primary factor, which overrode all others, was the spring equinox”. This sets the dates for the rest of the Biblical calendar year, beginning with Passover.

So even if you don't consider Enoch scripture, this is the way the Jews did it before the Hillel II decree, in fear of how it would be done in the future days without the Sanhedrin. Let's take a quick look at Enoch:

“And first there goes forth the great luminary, named the Sun, and his circumference is like the circumference of the heaven, and he is quite filled with illuminating and heating fire. The chariot on which he ascends, the wind drives, and the sun goes down from the heaven and returns through the north in order to reach the east, and is so guided that he comes to the appropriate portal and shines in the face of the heaven. In this way he rises in the first month in the great portal, which is the fourth...”

Enoch 72:4-6

For a full discussion on how we are led to operate the lunar-solar calendar, please see this study for an in depth understanding as to why we added the 13th month this year. Because of this, we are celebrating Yom Teruah (Feast of Trumpets) on October 7th.

Long story short, the sun must have crossed the 4th gate/portal before the new year can commence, and this year, it didn't happen in March, so we added a 13th year. The 4th gate in Enoch is the spring equinox, which is when the sun crosses the equator. This method we have been led to use incorporates the sun, moon and stars to calculate His feasts. By doing it this way, we have been able to produce a repeatable 1092 day, 3 year rotation: [See chart on page 7 below]

The first article I want to share below is by James W.

“Jesus said no man knows the day or hour. This may be also a reference to the Feast of Trumpets, (FoT), because since no one knew which day or hour the new sliver moon would be seen was understood in the days of Jesus, to refer to the FoT. So it is possible that the rapture could happen on the Feast of Trumpets is a reasonable clue. But the majority are not watching at all so they will be caught unawares, whenever it happens.

Following the Karaite literal interpretation of the Scriptures here is the analysis of the Feast of Trumpets for the Hebrew year 5782 and which is also the year 2021 A.D., from March 22 on. The start of the religious year at Nisan 1 begins when there is a new moon on or after the spring equinox. The spring equinox starts after March 22 every year. For 2021, the modern rabbinical interpretation put Nisan 1 before the equinox in 2021. The Karaites stay with the Old Testament so they look for the new moon to be after the spring equinox. The modern priests placed the start of Nisan 1 too early, claiming that the FoT started in September 7, 2021 when it should be in early October.

The Prime Meridian is zero degrees longitude that passes through Greenwich England. This is the start of time called UTC, Universal Coordinated Time, or GMT, Greenwich Mean Time. To avoid confusion, the 24 hour count is used based on UTC and will also avoid confusion when using daylight time (DT) and standard time (ST) until it is needed for the area when in use. When a country is using DT then 1 hour will be added to use DT.

The Feast of Trumpets, the fifth of 7 Feasts, is the only Feast that starts on the new moon. For October 7, 2021 the new moon is at 11:05 UTC/GMT.

Israel is 2 hours east of the Prime Meridian, and since Israel is on daylight time in October, therefore the new moon starts at 14:05 IDT.

Sunset in Jerusalem as of October 7 is 16:16 IDT. For North America Eastern Daylight Time, EDT is 7 hours back from Jerusalem, and Pacific Daylight Time, PDT, is 10 hours back.

The moon moves east in its orbit at the rate of about 13.186 degrees per day. That makes the motion of the moon about 0.549 degrees per hour. The moon's diameter is close to one degree. Whether the priests see the new sliver moon is unknown at the present time, because the moon may be too much in the glare of the setting sun to see the sliver moon.

In Israel the position of the moon will be 14.05 IDT as a new moon, so at sunset at 18:16 IDT, the moon will have moved about 4 hours eastward in its orbit, which is 4 x .549 degrees/hour which is about 2.4 moon diameters. It may be possible to see the sliver moon on Oct 7 Jerusalem time. If it is not seen that day it will be seen the next day Oct 8 Jerusalem time. Whichever it is, the Feast of Trumpets will start when the sliver moon is seen.

When the sliver moon is seen for Eastern daylight time, the time would be about 11.16 EDT, October 7 and will be October 7, 8:16 PDT, depending upon atmospheric conditions. In Israel, if it is not seen October 7, it will be seen October 8.

So when the Rapture happens, it will be instantaneous worldwide whatever the time zone is.”

The second post I want to share is by Neil Lipken below:

If the Rapture is not going to happen on the Feast of Trumpets 2021, will God leave it another year? Or will world events build to a point that sudden war starts, and then God takes us off. There is no predicting that timing.

The gentleman in this video demonstrates how every year the sun is in a particular position relative to the constellations at Rosh Hashanah (the Feast of Trumpets). Well, this year (2021) that was not the case for September 7th, the date for Rosh Hashanah listed on our calendars. However, on October 7th the sun will be in its proper position among the constellations! What that means is that TRUE Rosh Hashanah this year is on October 7th! This is the one Jewish feast that is associated with the Rapture. Jesus died on Passover, rose again on the Feast of First Fruits (Easter), and the Holy Spirit descended on Pentecost. So, will the Rapture occur one year on the Feast of Trumpets? This feast is a two day feast (Oct. 7th and 8th this year), so one "could not know the day nor the hour" if the Rapture is on this feast! The next feast, Yom Kippur, parallels the Second Coming, and Sukkot (the Feast of Tabernacles) parallels the 1000 year Kingdom Age following the Second Coming.

This year (2021) happens to be the "test year" for Psalm 90:10 that the years of our lives are 70, or if due to strength, 80 years. Could that also be a "generation", as in the "parable of the fig tree" (in both the New and Old Testaments) the "generation" to see Israel's return (1948) will see all end time events fulfilled. This year Israel turned 73 years old, leaving just 7 years till 80. If the Rapture was this year and the 7 year Tribulation began, then 73 years + 7 years = 80 years.

Israel believes that Iran should have enough enriched uranium by October to build nuclear weapons, and Israel will not allow Iran to develop nukes! If you remember your history, in 1981 Israel bombed the Iraqi nuclear weapons facilities, and I don't believe Israel will refrain from doing the same thing to Iran. We know from Scripture that the Rapture is associated with an event of "sudden destruction" -(1st Thessalonians 4:16-18 and 1st Thessalonians 5:1-3). So, October is looking most interesting!

I believe very strongly that the "mask mandate" and "vaccine push" are conditioning people to accept the "MARK" -(Revelation 13:16-18), which will be implemented shortly after the Rapture during the 7 year Tribulation Period. People will not be able to buy or sell without it.

After Rosh Hashanah comes Yom Kippur (the Day of Atonement) ten days later, and at sundown beginning Yom Kippur is Kol Nidre, at which time there is a "great trumpet blast". Jewish tradition teaches that at Rosh Hashanah the "portals of Heaven" open, and they close at Kol Nidre at that "great trumpet blast". Could that be "the last trump" at which time the Rapture happens? We don't know, but that is an interesting possibility as opposed to the Rapture happening on the two day Rosh Hashanah feast.

So, this October looks most interesting! We are not given details in the Bible about the "sudden destruction" event that is associated with the Rapture. There are some possibilities that I won't go into here. I have seen many dreams and visions over the last 41 years that "missiles are coming into America as we are going up in the Rapture". Here is another thought. Do you think Joe Biden looks weak in the eyes of Russia and China? Could that invite an attack upon America?

Well, we now wait until we move into October..... And should that not yet be the time, we will continue to move through these End Times! The hour is still late!

The video link above is an excellent visual overview of what happened this year that became the reason for a September Rosh HaShanah to be premature because an intercalary year had to be added to keep the lunar/solar in proper alignment.

The nation of Israel is not a religious nation as you might think and so the government failed to factor in the standard of the Biblical calendar; they continue to use the Rabbinic calendar of Hillel of the 4th century A.D. About two decades ago the Karaite Jewish sect sought to bring back the Biblical calendar based upon the Sun, Moon, and Stars.

Nehemia Gordon provides this overview of Karaite Judaism, which is the original form of Judaism as shown throughout the Tanakh from the time of the Revelation beginning at Har Sinai. Karaites are a religious sect of Judaism that believes only in the authority of the Tanakh, Old Testament. Karaite Judaism truly began with the national revelation at Har Sinai. Those who followed God's laws were at first called "Righteous."<sup>1</sup>

Do not take bribes, for bribes blind the clear-sighted and upset the pleas of those who are in the right. [צַדִּיק]. (Shemot 23:8)<sup>2</sup>.

It was really only in the ninth-century CE that the followers of God's law began being called Yahadit (יהדות) Qara'it (קראית). At first, everyone who followed Torah were of one mind and one sect – that of the Yahadit Qara'it. Throughout Jewish history a variety of sects – such as the Sadducees, Boethusians, Ananites, and Pharisees – came into existence. It was in this atmosphere that the followers of Torah became known as the Yahadit Qara'it.<sup>1</sup>

At the end of the Biblical period – in the first century BCE – two opposing sects came into being in Yisrael. The Sadducees (also known as the Zadokites) followed only the Torah as sacred text. Josephus explains that the Sadducees "take away fate, and say there is no such thing, and that the events of human affairs are not at its disposal; but they suppose that all our actions are in our own power, so that we are ourselves the causes of what is good, and receive what is evil from our own folly."<sup>3</sup> The Pharisees taught of an "Oral Torah" that was added to the Written Torah. This sect taught "that some actions, but not all, are the work of fate, and some of them are in our own power, and that they are liable to fate, but are not caused by fate."<sup>3</sup> Two additional sects arose during the Second Temple Period – the Essenes and the Boethusians. The Essenes was a sect of Judaism that added several books to the Torah. They taught "that fate governs all things, and that nothing befalls men but what is according to its determination."<sup>3</sup> The Boethusians were a sect like the Sadducees who only follow the Written Torah and rejected any additions to the mitzvot given to Moshe haNavi.<sup>1</sup>

In the early Middle-Ages the Pharisees continued to thrive and began calling themselves "Rabbis." In the seventh-century the Muslims completely swept the Middle-East. They had no real interest in imposing Islam on the Jews and gave them a degree of autonomy under a system of Rosh Galut (ראש גלות), also known by the Greek name Exilarch. With the establishment of the Rosh Galut, the Rabbinate became a political power throughout the Middle-East. They began to force upon all Jews within the Empire the Rabbinate laws contained within the Talmud Bavli. There was fierce resistance to the Rabbinate by those who had never heard of the Talmud Bavli. One resistance leader, Abu Isa al-Isfahani, led an army of Jews against the Muslim government. However all attempts to cast off the Rabbinate rulers failed.<sup>1</sup>

In the eighth-century, Anan ben-David organized various non-Talmudic Jewish groups and lobbied the Caliphate to establish a second Rosh Galut for those Jews who refused to follow the man-made laws of the Talmud Bavli. The Muslims granted Anan and his followers the freedom to practice Judaism as their ancestors had practiced it. Anan was not a Karaite but he did reject the Talmud. His followers became known as Ananites and this group continued to exist until the tenth-century. Another group of Jews who continued to practice Judaism only according to the Tanakh became known as B'nei Miqra (Followers of Scripture). Their name was shorted to Kara'im (Scripturalists) which became transliterated to Karaites. This name is derived from the Hebrew word for the Tanakh – Miqra and its root Kara. The name Kara'im means “Scripturalists” and distinguished these Jews from the Rabbis who call themselves Rabanyin (Followers of the Rabbis) or Talmudiyin (Followers of the Talmud).<sup>1</sup>

Even though Karaites live and worship only according to the Tanakh, the Tanakh is not taken literally. Karaites believe that every text, including the Tanakh, needs some type of interpretation. However, Karaites believe that the interpretation of the Tanakh must be based upon the peshat (plain) meaning of the text as it would have been understood by the Yisraelites when it was given. It is up to each individual to learn Tanakh and ultimately decide on their own the correct interpretation. Of course, this interpretation must be based upon proof-texts from the Tanakh, the peshat meaning of the text, and the Hebrew grammar of the text.

Karaites do not accept the idea of an “Oral Law” or “Oral Torah.” They also do not believe or follow the teachings as set down in the Mishnah or Talmud. Karaites are known to study the Mishnah and Talmud as well as other Rabbinical writings but this does not mean that Karaites believe these books are divine writings or the rulings must be followed. Karaites believe that these Rabbinical writings can hold clues to help everyone understand the Tanakh and Jewish history and philosophy. These writings are simply used as commentary and nothing more. In addition, Karaites completely reject the Zohar, Tanya, and any other mystical teachings since they are completely anti-Torah.

Karaites do not accept the “New Testament” as Scripture. There are unfortunately individuals and groups that are calling themselves “Karaites” but they actually follow Christian doctrines – just as Rabbinic Judaism is plagued by so-called “Messianic Judaism.” The New Testament is not considered divine nor is it considered scripture by Karaites. In addition, just like Rabbinic Judaism, Karaite Judaism also rejects the idea that Jesus was the messiah, prophet, part of a trinity, or God-incarnate.

Unlike Rabbinic Judaism that declares “Rosh Hashanah” to be the beginning of the year, Karaites follow the Tanakh and declare the beginning of the new year at the sign of the first new moon after the sighting of the Aviv (ripening of the barley) in Eretz Yisrael. The Karaites follow the mandates of the yomim tovim (holidays) as prescribed in the Tanakh which means that they are often followed differently than how the Rabbinate follow them. Two other major differences between Rabbinate and Karaites involve tefillin and mezuzot and familial descent. Karaites do not take the passages from Shemot and Devarim literally and as a result do not wear tefillin or place mezuzot upon their doors. Karaites, unlike Rabbinate, follow the Tanakh when it comes to determining familial descent. Karaites maintain that a child is born a Jew only if the father is a Jew – the opposite of Rabbinic Judaism. This is the tradition according to the Tanakh and is therefore the tradition amongst the Karaites.

Karaite Judaism is the original form of Judaism. The Torah was given to Moshe ha-Navi and the entire Tanakh is considered sacred text. Karaites believe that only the Tanakh must be consulted for the determination of how one is to live according to God's will. There is no "Oral Law" and Rabbinical law is not valid. Karaites maintain the original path of following God's laws.

I first became aware of the efforts to restore the Biblical Agricultural calendar with the Karaites some twenty years ago and I followed Nehemia Gordon and his yearly ventures into the barley fields around Jerusalem to determine if the Barley was in Abib (ripe). I was greatly impressed for what the Karaites were attempting to bring Israel back to its original focus on observing the Biblical Agricultural calendar, and Torah observance. Unfortunately, Judaism is fractured with over a dozen different groups vying for peoples allegiance and support. The Jewish Knesset tends to avoid confrontation from the various religious parties, and their numbers in the Knesset are small enough to be of little consequence in government, but becomes like annoying pests.

Back in March of 2021, I was looking to see if the Karaites went into the barley fields to see if they had determined that the barley was in Abib and ripe for picking. I saw nothing at the time about a late date for Passover, and so I concluded this would not be a year in which a thirteenth month needed to be added. Nehemia Gordon's site showed Rosh HaShanah as the same date as all the other Jewish sites. This meant Rosh HaShanah would be observed on September 7/8th of this year.

In the distraction of Covid-19 and the roll out of 5G, my time was focused on the geo-political world of the Middle East conflict, Klaus Schwab Rothschild and his Great Reset. As the young man in the video link provided above has proven, there was no way that Rosh HaShanah could occur after the full moon of the Autumnal Equinox. If we are to be on God's calendar, even the Torah calendar web site was wrong. I found that troubling since the Torah Calendar.com site has been highly respected and trusted for its accuracy. Critics called them out on it but they held to their idea of a 12 month calendar for 5782. Even the Chabad.org site called Rosh HaShanah for September 6th, 2021. Mark Biltz's calendar for 5782 is also wrong with September 7th/8th as Rosh HaShanah. So a lot of people got it wrong, some of the most well-known and respected experts. Hopefully we have restored God's Biblical Agricultural calendar just in time! We have 10 days as I began to write this.

Dr. Barry Awe did a video after September 7th came and went. My research and study has led me to conclude that we have been victims of inaccurate information and you might want to go back and re-watch Dr. Barry Awe's 2-hour long video.

RAPTURE SMILES FOR MILES 😄😄😄😄😄😄😄

Damond Duck posted an ominous bleak and telling picture of where we are as a Nation that you might ponder if you are interested in staying behind.

After Moses died, Joshua became the leader of the Jewish people. Joshua led them across the Jordan River, took them to a place called Shiloh, and gave Shiloh to the largest and most powerful tribe called Ephraim. The Jews erected a Tabernacle there, priests served there, offered sacrifices there, felt God's presence there, and it was a special place to God for more than 300 years. But the Jews eventually abandoned God, started worshipping a false God, angered God, stirred His wrath, and He destroyed Shiloh -(Psalm. 78:56-67).

- Those that think that God won't destroy a nation should go and look at Shiloh (Jer. 7:12).
- Those that think that God won't destroy a city should go and look at Sodom and Gomorrah.

On September 16, 2021, several members of the media reported on an interview that former White House Press Sec. Sean Spicer had with former Pres. Trump.

Trump said, "Our country has gone really downhill in the last eight months like nobody's ever seen before. And we're not going to have a country left in three years; I'll tell you that."

Is Biden really the end of America?

Will America's Deep State and the global Deep State succeed in bringing about the demise of America before 2024 and the establishment of a godless world government and religion by 2030 or sooner?

Perhaps, it is time for the Lukewarm Laodicean churches and those that think that God won't destroy a godless world government and religion to go and look at the tower of Babel.

Without God, America is gone.

Consider the following:

- Vice Pres. Harris was part of a group that raised funds to bail rioters, looters, and arsonists out of jail, and one has now committed murder.
- The Biden administration knows that human traffickers, drug dealers, terrorists, and people infected with Covid are crossing the U.S. border with Mexico, but they are ignoring it or, in some cases, assisting it.
- Biden said he would not leave American citizens in Afghanistan, but he has left hundreds there.
- Biden let Taliban terrorists have up to 80 billion dollars of U.S. weapons.
- The FBI destroyed Hillary's cell phones for her.
- Biden lied about his knowledge of Hunter Biden's alleged crimes (he boasted about threatening the Pres. of Ukraine if he didn't fire the man investigating Hunter; e-mails on Hunter's laptop have been confirmed to be legitimate), but that is okay with the Democrat Party, and the FBI and DOJ have done nothing.
- Pelosi, Schumer, and the Democrats impeached Trump over something he didn't say in a phone call to Russia, but they are ignoring Gen. Milley's treasonous calls to China, even though he could have endangered the security of the U.S.
- Biden has been warned that too much spending can collapse the U.S. economy, but he continues to propose multi-trillion-dollar stimulus packages.
- The U.S. Supreme Court has ruled that mandated vaccinations are unconstitutional, but Biden is trying to force people to get one.
- The Biden administration is trying to force average citizens to get vaccinated, but he has exempted Congress, their aides, the DOJ, the U.S. Supreme Court, and postal workers.
- Fauci lied to Congress about funding Covid research in Wuhan, China, but the Biden administration supports him.

The above list shows that the America most of us grew up in is already gone, but there is no need to worry because the Church will soon be gone (Raptured) too.

FYI: Trump's slogan was "Make America Great Again" (Strengthen America don't weaken it). Biden's slogan was "Build Back Better" (Get rid of the old America and build it back with a different America. That is what he is doing). Obama called it "The Fundamental Transformation of America").

This writer believes the length of the above list could easily be doubled, but readers will get the point, and there are other things that need to be mentioned.

One, concerning the decline of the U.S. and the establishment of the Ten Kings: on Sept. 20, 2021, it was reported that the Community of Latin American and Caribbean States (CELAC) met to discuss weakened ties to the U.S. and the restructuring of CELAC into a block of nations patterned after the E.U.

Ten groups of nations patterned after the E.U. with a leader over each group (Ten leaders or Ten Kings) that would eventually cede their power to one leader has been a globalist goal for many years.

- Also concerning the decline of the U.S.: Biden's surrender to the Taliban in Afghanistan has triggered calls for the E.U. to establish a military that does not have ties to NATO.
- Also concerning the decline of the U.S.: France has recalled its ambassador to the U.S. for the first time in history over a deal the U.S. and U.K. made to provide Australia with the technology to build submarines.

Two, concerning world government: the globalists have weakened America, and now China wants to replace America, take over the New World Order (NWO) and dominate it, not submit to it.

The globalists are just as much against China dominating their New World Order as they were against America dominating it.

George Soros and some of his globalist buddies are now getting worried about the growing power of China. They are even trying to cut off investments in China to weaken China like they weakened the U.S.

According to the Bible, the E.U. will be the main power in the coming world government, not China.

Expect China to resist and invade the Middle East as one of the Kings of the East, but don't expect China to defeat the Antichrist and head up the coming world government.

Three, concerning the Mark of the Beast: it will be a global mandate to identify and track everyone on earth, and it will go into effect at the middle of the Tribulation Period.

There is good reason to believe that Covid-19 vaccine certificates are on the way to becoming a global mandate to identify and track people.

On Sept. 15, 2021, it was reported that 35-40 nations (Israel, the E.U., and other nations that want to join) will have a digital system in place by early October to identify and track those that have been vaccinated and those that have had Covid-19 and recovered. Those that get an approved certificate will be allowed to travel, enter restaurants and other venues, but those that don't get one will not be allowed to do these things.

Four, concerning Israel and Jerusalem: America's Deep State has manipulated Pres. Biden into many mistakes since putting him into office.

It seems that God is willing to let America's Deep State and Biden weaken America because He said He will allow them to establish a godless world government and religion for seven years.

But now, these godless people appear to be preparing to weaken Israel by reopening America's special consulate for the P.A. in Jerusalem and canceling America's recognition of Jerusalem as the undivided capital of Israel.

God will allow them to do this for three reasons:

1. He is letting Israel learn to trust Him and not the nations.
2. He is letting the nations choose their own judgment (what they try to do to Israel will come back on them; Zechariah 12:3).
3. He is letting the world know that He is God, He restored Israel, and Israel cannot be destroyed (Amos 9:11-15).

FYI: America's Deep State apparently does not know, believe, or understand the story about Shadrach, Meshach, and Abednego in the fiery furnace (a type of Israel in the Tribulation Period). One like the Son of God delivered them out of it -(Daniel 3:25), and all Israel, all that believe in Jesus/Yeshua, will be saved in the wilderness -(Matthew 25:16-22) by a Deliverer out of Zion -(Romans 11:26).

Five, in May of this year, terrorists in Gaza fired more than 4,000 rockets into Israel, but many were shot down by Israel's anti-missile Iron Dome System.

Israel needs to replace and boost her stock of Iron Dome missiles.

In June of this year, U.S. Sec. of State Lloyd Austin told Israel's Defense Min. Benny Gantz that the U.S. plans to replace Israel's Iron Dome missiles. On August 27, Pres. Biden met with Israeli Prime Min. Bennett and said the U.S. will replace Israel's Iron Dome missiles. Nancy Pelosi recently put $1 billion to replace Israel's Iron Dome missiles in a bill to raise the U.S. debt ceiling, but the Squad and other leftist Democrats strongly objected to spending money on the defense of Israel. Pelosi removed the money but promised to put it in a later bill.

The Biden administration has made many mistakes (Afghanistan, border with Mexico, etc.), but nothing could be as bad as abandoning its promises to defend Israel.

Six, concerning the division of Israel and the Battle of Armageddon: on Sept. 21, 2021, Pres. Biden repeated his support for the Two-State solution in a speech at the U.N. (but he did say it will be a long time before it happens).

Seven, concerning wickedness and corruption at the end of the age: on Sept. 16, 2021, Special Counsel John Durham got an indictment against a Democrat lawyer for creating and giving false information (lying) to the FBI to smear Pres. Trump during the 2016 Pres. Campaign. According to the indictment, the lawyer's lies were used to suggest that Trump was colluding with the Russians.

In 2016, the FBI questioned him about it, and he gave the FBI false information while claiming to be an ordinary citizen and denied that he was being paid by anyone to give the FBI a false story.

It is now 5 years later, and the FBI says it has proof that the Democrat lawyer was billing the Clinton campaign, and Clinton's group was paying him for his work. There are now rumors that Durham plans to go after Mrs. Clinton, but this writer is skeptical. It would not be surprising if Durham goes after some of Clinton's aides, but Clinton is a prominent member of America's Deep State.

Some say George Soros is destroying America, and Obama is in his third presidency, but nothing is ever done about what they are doing. Why?

The DOJ and FBI appear to be treating America's Deep State as a protected class of people. If this is not true, why haven't they been prosecuted for some of the things they have done? If it is true, it means the DOJ and FBI are protecting the wickedness, corruption, and treason of America's Deep State (like in the days of Noah when the wickedness of man was great).

FYI: Here is some good news.

If (a big "IF") God allows the Antichrist to confirm a 7-year covenant with many for peace in the Middle East by 2030, Jesus will be sitting on the throne of David in Jerusalem, and the Kingdom of God will exist on earth by 2037. Christians will be here in new bodies with their loved ones; Christians won't get sick or die; there will be peace, justice, and righteousness on earth; no Covid, etc.

The bad things mentioned above are signs that a new world is coming soon.

Eight, concerning a falling away in the Church: on Sept. 21, 2021, LifeSiteNews reported that Pope Francis has a history of praising pro-abortion politicians, he supports serving communion to pro-abortion politicians, and he has endorsed gay civil unions.

Pope Francis has the spiritual qualifications of the False Prophet (supports world government, world religion, etc.), but he is getting old. If he is the False Prophet, the Rapture could be very soon.

Before closing, here is a personal message.

I get a little uncomfortable when other ministries ask me to publicize what they are doing because if they or some of their people go astray, I don't want it to have a negative impact on Rapture Ready or my ministry. Having said this, a Christian group called Tactical Civics is seeking God-fearing patriots that want to restore America. I am thankful for (and support) anyone that wants to restore America. A member of the group has asked me to encourage people that Love Jesus and America to watch the 11-minute video at this link: www.tacticalcivics.com/video

The group wants more people to know what they are doing and perhaps get involved.

Finally, are you Rapture Ready?

If you want to be rapture ready and go to heaven, you must be born again -(John 3:3). God loves you, and if you have not done so, sincerely admit that you are a sinner; believe that Jesus is the virgin-born, sinless Son of God who died for the sins of the world, was buried, and raised from the dead; ask Him to forgive your sins, cleanse you, come into your heart and be your Saviour; then tell someone that you have done this.

Blessings,
