

The Blessed Hope!

"Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;" –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #96

In case you did not read Blessed Hope #95, I will bring you up to date since we are looking at the date of April 15, 2022 (the Hebrew or Jewish Passover) date as an extremely important date for the Rapture.

This Blessed Hope "Nugget" is going to be a brief one having covered the massive but very cogent amount of data in Blessed Hope #95. I trust that you have had the opportunity to have reviewed the material which corroborates the April 15, 2022. God operates through "patterns" as a means of His confirmation or validation from outside our time and space continuum.

Below is a link to a video by C.J. Lovik which discusses the Shemitah Cycle and I urge you to listen to it, if you can at all possibly do so. It explains the Shemitah Cycle and where we are currently in this time cycle.

<https://youtu.be/0E75SsdZ238>

A brother in Christ posted the following information several weeks ago and has noted an interesting date falling within the time frame of which we have been focused on for several months.

CAN YOU ANSWER THE FOLLOWING QUESTION?.....

Why did God deem it necessary to inform us that the resurrected / raptured Body of Christ Church have "palms in their hands" in the following Scripture according to: Revelation 7:9:

"After this I beheld, and lo, A GREAT MULTITUDE which no man could number, OF ALL NATIONS , and kindreds, and people, and tongues stood before the throne, and BEFORE THE LAMB clothed in white robes, and PALMS IN THEIR HANDS."

Could it be that God wants us to make a connection to THE ONLY OTHER Scripture in the New Testament which also speaks OF PALMS in conjunction WITH THE LAMB according to John 12:12-13:

"When they heard that Jesus was coming to Jerusalem, took BRANCHES OF PALM TREES, and went forth to meet Him, and cried, Hosanna blessed is the King of Israel that comes in the name of the Lord."

That day was NISAN 10 when Jesus rode into Jerusalem on a colt of a donkey to fulfill the prophecy of the perfect, without blemish, Lamb of God being selected ON NISAN 10 for sacrifice FOUR DAYS BEFORE His crucifixion. The DAY OF PALMS, NISAN 10, has since been commemorated all over the world as PALM SUNDAY. Originally it happened on a Saturday Sabbath, but the Roman Emperor Constantine moved it to Sunday. Nonetheless it happened on NISAN 10. I believe that God has given us good reason to think that the Day of our resurrection / rapture will occur on no other day than on NISAN 10.

Nisan 10, 2022 is Monday April 11, 2022 (Note how close it falls within our window of April 15th date!)

Nisan 10, 2023 is Saturday Sabbath April 1, 2023
Nisan 10, 2024 is Saturday Sabbath April 20, 2024

Scripture also tells us that we will enter into OUR REST just as God entered into HIS REST on the Seventh Day SABBATH.

GOD FOLLOWS HIS OWN SET PATTERNS WHEN FULFILLING PROPHECY.....

We have seen this consistently over and over again when we examine the Biblical Calendar and take note of occurrences of key or important events, people, and themes. You can see this pattern concept in Blessed Hope #95 for the month of Nisan.

After wondering in the wilderness for forty years God's people were led, by Joshua, across the Jordan River to the other side and delivered into the Promised Land. Could this be the pattern set by God for the fulfillment of the future prophecy of Jesus delivering His body of Christ Church into the Promise of Heaven according to Joshua 4:19:

"And the people came up out of the Jordan ON THE TENTH DAY OF THE FIRST MONTH (Nisan 10)"

SO, THERE YOU HAVE IT:

Could it be that after approximately 2,000 years God's people will be led, by Jesus Christ, across to the other side into the Promise of Heaven also ON THE TENTH DAY OF THE FIRST MONTH (Nisan 10)?

God set the “pattern” of the original perfect sacrificial Passover Lamb of God, in Egypt, to save His people from the Death Angel by selecting the lamb ON THE TENTH DAY OF THE FIRST MONTH (Nisan 10). God then followed His same set pattern when He selected Jesus to be the perfect sacrificial Lamb of God to be crucified for the remission of sins of man to again to save His people.

In a couple early Blessed Hope segments I pointed out that the Exodus event was a “type” or “pattern” event of what illustrates the Rapture concept. “Type” or “Typology” as Biblical concepts was abandoned errantly by the church in the late 1800s. I have written extensively on the importance of Bible Types and Typology.

I strongly believe it is highly likely that God will also follow His set pattern of the very same DATE OF NISAN 10 for Jesus to fulfill His prophecy of the resurrection / rapture of His Body of Christ Church into the Promise of Heaven. What better day could there be?

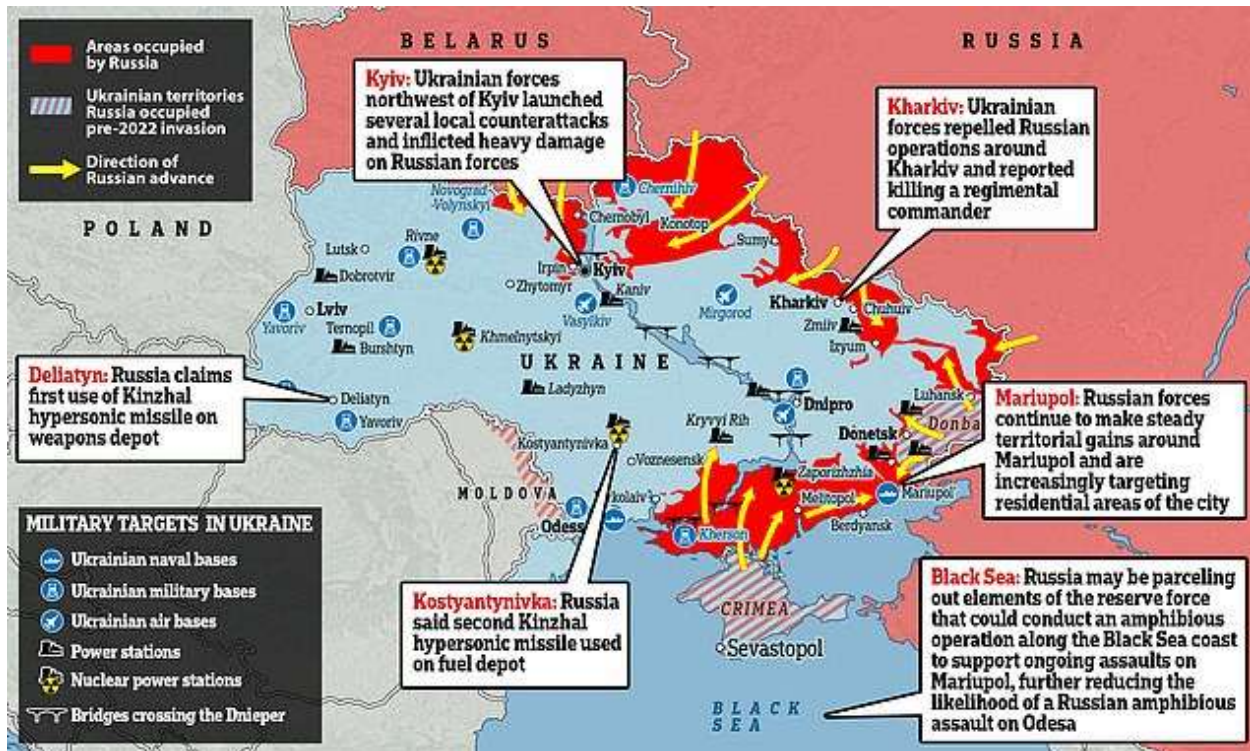

Now here is what is highly interesting about the Rapture happening on Nisan 10, 2022 which is also April 11-12, 2022:

IT IS EXACTLY 1,260 DAYS PRIOR TO the Feast of Trumpets 2025 which begins on the NEW MOON OF TISHRI 1, 2025 which is Monday September 22-23, 2025.

If the Gog-Magog War against Israel BEGINS on the NEW MOON of Nisan 1, 2022 on April 1-2 next month we can expect the Rapture to happen TEN DAYS LATER on Nisan 10, 2022 which is April 11-12, 2022.

As of this date, Vladimir Putin’s invasion of Ukraine has been underway a month as of March 23, 2022. He has incrementally applied military pressure on the Ukrainian defence forces and despite their resistance they have incurred heavy losses. The Russian military is ten times the size of the Ukraine in all respects, such as personnel, tanks, aircraft, and also have strategic strength in missiles, rocket-launched weapons, and this does not begin to nuclear weapons.

Putin launched this war on an important military historical date in Russian history. I noted in my two recent articles on Gog and Magog that President Putin sees himself as the reincarnation of Saint Vlad of Rus. The Russian people have revered the memory of Saint Vlad of Rus for centuries. Without going into great detail behind all the geopolitics of the Ukraine invasion, what is most important to understand is that this is first and foremost a spiritual war that goes back to the Orthodox Church split from Rome in 1054 AD, There are many different threads linking to this phase of the Gog and Magog war, and there will be further moves that will lead to nuclear war and God’s culmination of this larger conflict that is detailed in Ezekiel 38/39.

The map above shows the current military state of conflict and anyone believing that Ukraine will defeat the Russian military has been deceived and deluded into swallowing the propaganda that the Ukraine will defeat Russia. This cannot and will not happen. It is simply a matter of size between the combatants.

Russia has said it had fired a second 'unstoppable' hypersonic Kinzhal missile at a fuel depot in Kostyantynivka, in the southern region of Mykolaiv. A MiG-31K jet fired the aero-ballistic missile at the warehouse as it was flying over Crimea.

Igor Konashenkov, from the Russian Defence Ministry, said the target was the main supply of fuel for Ukrainian armoured cars in the south of the country. He claimed the missile had destroyed the depot. It is the second time Russia says it has used the missile in Ukraine, after a weapons storage site was destroyed in Deliatyn, in western Ukraine, on Friday.

Hypersonic missiles differ from ballistic ones in that they travel closer to the earth and as such can largely avoid radar detection. NATO deem the weapon so powerful it has been nicknamed The Sizzler.

Russia has never before admitted using the high-precision weapon in combat.

Moscow claims the 'Kinzhal'- or Dagger - is 'unstoppable' by current Western weapons. The missile, which has a range of 1,250 miles, is nuclear capable and is 26-ft long, weighing up to half a ton.

Russian President Vladimir Putin has termed the missile 'an ideal weapon' that flies at 10 times the speed of sound, which is 7,672.69 miles per hour, and can overcome air-defence systems. Hypersonic missiles differ from ballistic ones in that they travel closer to the earth and as such can largely avoid radar detection.

Both strikes so far have not been nuclear. We have evidence to suggest Putin could potentially resort to nuclear weapons. He began evacuation of Moscow on March 18th of key personnel to the underground bases built decades ago in the Ural Mountains east of Moscow. These underground bases are designed to house upwards of 50,000+ in the event of war with the West.

Thermobaric missiles are defined by their type of explosion, which sucks in surrounding air to prompt a high-temperature explosion, often called vacuum bombs.

Hypersonic missiles are defined by how fast they travel, which is at least five times faster than the speed of sound.

Russia claims their hypersonic Kinzhal missile travels double that, at 10 times the speed of sound.

Konashenkov noted that the Kalibr cruise missiles launched by Russian warships from the Caspian Sea were also involved in the strike on the fuel depot in Kostiantynivka. He said Kalibr missiles launched from the Black Sea were used to destroy an armour repair plant in Nizhyn in the Chernihiv region in northern Ukraine.

Russia also boasted in a chilling newly-released video how it is using adapted Israeli reconnaissance combat drone technology to kill in Ukraine.

The Russian defence ministry said: 'Unmanned aerial vehicles of the Aerospace Forces carried out missile strikes on a self-propelled artillery battery of 122mm howitzers and military hardware of the Ukrainian armed forces. A battery of self-propelled artillery guns, armoured vehicles and vehicles were destroyed by airborne weapons.'

The import-substituted Forpost-R drone is a licensed version of the Israeli Searcher MkII. This use of an Israeli weapon is further proof that Israel has place profits over security when it comes to selling military technology to Russia and China. Israel has been caught selling U.S. military technology to both countries in the past.

Since Putin's invasion on February 24, most of the fighting has taken place in Ukraine's east - closer to Russia - as Moscow's forces struggle to make significant gains further into the country.

Having said this, Ukrainian Pres. Zelensky recently said, "The end of the world has arrived." No, the end of the world will come, but not before every jot at tittle of the Word of God is fulfilled. Zelensky was an entertainer/actor before being elected as Ukraine's President.

As we understand Scripture, the future sequence of events, there will be the Rapture of the Church -(1st Thessalonians 4:13-18), the 7-year Tribulation Period -(Daniel 9:24-27), the Second Coming of Jesus -(John 14:1-6; Acts 1:10-11), the 1,000-year reign of Jesus on earth -(Daniel 2:35; Zechariah 14:9; Matthew 25:31; Revelation 5:10; 20:1-6), Satan will be released on earth for an unspecified length of time (Revelation 20:7-8), and eventually there will be a new heaven and new earth -(Psalms 102:25-26; Isaiah 65:17; 66:22; Matthew 24:35; 2nd Peter 3:13; Revelation 20:11; 21:1-2).

Here are a few of recent current events that appear to be prophecy-related.

1. Concerning the Mark of the Beast and tracking all buying and selling: on March 8, 2022, it was reported that Australia will quickly stop using physical money and could go cashless as soon as 2024 (no later than 2031).

2. Concerning the Battle of Gog and Magog: on March 11, 2022, it was reported that the E.U. asked Israel to export natural gas to Europe through Egypt.

Income that was going to Russia could soon be going to Israel, and I have said that this is likely to be the hook that entices Russia to attack Israel.

On March 13, 2022, it was reported that Russia has asked China for military equipment and aid to support its war in Ukraine.

On March 14, 2022, Bloomberg reported that “Russia’s economy is fraying, its currency has collapsed, and its debt is junk. Next up is a potential default that could cost investors billions and shut the country out of most funding markets.”

On March 14, 2022, it was reported that the U.S. warned China that there will be consequences if China gives military equipment aid to Russia to support its war in Ukraine.

On March 15, 2022, it was reported that so many Russian citizens started buying gold bars, the Russian Central Bank has indefinitely suspended gold purchases.

3. Concerning strong delusion: on March 11, 2022, at 1:20 am (exactly two years from the date, March 11, and time, 1:20 am, that Iranian Revolutionary Guard Gen. Qasem Soleimani was assassinated in 2020), 12 ballistic missiles were fired from Iran at a U.S. military base in Irbil, Iraq.

Iran attacked the U.S. base at a time when Biden was removing sanctions on Iran, planning to give Iran billions of dollars, and trying to negotiate a deal that will let Iran get nuclear weapons. How can a man that wants to give terrorists billions of dollars and nuclear weapons when they are firing missiles at U.S. troops not be strongly deluded?

Biden’s Assistant Secretary of Health is Rachel Levine. As a man, Rachel was married and the father of two boys, but Rachel divorced his wife, started wearing a bra and identifying as a woman. On Mar. 13, 2022, it was reported that Rachel is one of USA Today's Women of the Year.

4. Concerning hyper-inflation and an economic collapse, some pundits think we are seeing the beginning stages of an economic collapse now.

With the U.S. debt now more than $30 trillion, on March 9, 2022, the U.S. House, and on March 10, 2022, the U.S. Senate, passed a $1.5 trillion spending bill that was more than 2,700 pages long, loaded with pork projects, and few, if any, legislators had time to read.

(More: On Mar. 15, 2022, The U.S. Bureau of Labor Statistics said producer prices increased 10% in the year ending in February. According to the report, the situation will continue to worsen.)

5. Concerning natural disasters increasing in frequency and intensity at the end of the age: on Mar. 13, 2022, it was reported that a 6.4 earthquake struck the Philippines, and a 6.6 earthquake struck Indonesia moments later. It was too early for reports on injuries or destruction. A few days ago Japan was hit with an earthquake registering in the 7 category.

6. Concerning famine, on March 14, 2022, an official with the International Monetary Fund (IMF) warned that the inability of Ukrainian farmers to plant crops, especially wheat, is causing massive uncertainty over global food supplies. The rapture of farmers could greatly exacerbate this problem.

7. Concerning a rebuilt Temple: on March 14, 2022, it was reported that the Mikdash (Temple) Education Center has minted a 10-gram, pure silver coin that they are selling to fund "a practical effort to establish the third Temple."

8. Concerning the decline of America: on March 16, 2022, the Gatestone Institute reported that an Iraqi political analyst (Ali Al-Sarraf) said, "The Biden administration is very foolish" (for ignoring the concerns of Saudi Arabia and the UAE while listening to Iran and Venezuela).

Al-Sarraf said Saudi Crown Prince Mohammed bin Salman and UAE Crown Prince Sheikh Mohammed bin Zayed rejected Biden's attempts to contact them, "not because they want to abandon the alliance with the U.S., but because they do not see a president in the White House. This president is deaf. He cannot be trusted."

Biden's rejection of "America First" and turn to "Globalism First" is hurting the U.S. in the worst of ways. Energy is the leading example of Biden's loyalty or lack of!

I was working on a study of the term "Passover" in the entire Bible when I was taken to the ER of a local hospital with pneumonia and respiratory issues. The "theme" suggests there is a lot more to the term than we realize. The various forms of “Passed Over”, “Pass Over”, “Passing Over”, “Passover” are found a total of 559X times. While that number is not divisible by “seven”, I have not had time to do an exhaustive study for data that may yield the Heptadic Design Feature. The root word “Pesach” “Passover” is found 49X or $7 \times 7 = 49$. As I noted, I was in the middle of an exegetical study of the most important of all Hebrew concepts when I was taken to the ER. The essential basics for the word “Passover” is that the word can be as a Noun and as a Verb. I am including this information although my work is incomplete, it does provide the reader the deeper meaning implications of what God applied to it as a template of “deliverance”; a central concept unto salvation.

פסח pesach

noun

passover, sacrifice of passover

Synonyms זבח zevach (2160)

חג chagh (2374)

צדקה tsō'n (6887)

שח seh (7902)

- Exo. 12:11 it is the Lord's passover
 12:21 to your families, and kill the passover
 12:27 the sacrifice of the Lord's passover,
 12:43 This is the ordinance of the passover:
 12:48 and will keep the passover to the Lord,
 34:25 feast of the passover be left unto the morning
- Lev. 23:5 at even is the Lord's passover
- Num. 9:2 keep the passover at his appointed season
 9:4 that they should keep the passover
 9:5 they kept the passover on the fourteenth day
 9:6 they could not keep the passover
 9:10 he shall keep the passover unto the Lord
 9:12 to all the ordinances of the passover
 9:13 forbearth to keep the passover,
 9:14 will keep the passover unto the Lord;
 9:14 according to the ordinance of the passover,
 28:16 the passover of the Lord
 33:3 on the morrow after the passover
- Deut. 16:1 keep the passover unto the Lord
 16:2 therefore sacrifice the passover
 16:5 Thou mayest not sacrifice the passover
 16:6 thou shalt sacrifice the passover

Josh. 5:10 kept the passover on the fourteenth day
 5:11 on the morrow after the passover,
2 Ki. 23:21 Keep the passover unto the Lord
 23:22 there was not holden such a passover
 23:23 this passover was holden to the Lord
2 Chr. 30:1 to keep the passover unto the Lord
 30:2 to keep the passover in the second month
 30:5 to keep the passover unto the Lord
 30:15 they killed the passover on the fourteenth day
 30:17 the killing of the passovers
 30:18 yet did they eat the passover otherwise than 35:1 Josiah kept a passover unto the Lord
 35:1 they killed the passover on the fourteenth day
 35:6 So kill the passover, and sanctify
 35:7 all for the passover offerings,
 35:8 the priests for the passover offerings
 35:9 the Levites for passover offerings
 35:11 And they killed the passover,
 35:13 they roasted the passover with fire
 35:16 to keep the passover, and to offer
 35:17 kept the passover at that time,
 35:18 there was no passover like to that 35:18 such a passover as Josiah kept,
 35:19 of the reign of Josiah was this passover
Ezra 6:19 children of the captivity kept the passover
 6:20 and killed the passover for all the children
Ezek. 45:21 ye shall have the passover, a feast

The Hebrew term pesach means "Passover" or "Passover sacrifice" and is derived from the verb pāsach (HED #6698), "to pass over," "to spring over."

Cognates are attested to in the Samaritan Pentateuch, Syriac and later forms of Aramaic. The Septuagint and New Testament transliterate the Hebrew noun. In the Old Testament pāsach refers to the night of the tenth plague involving the angel of death who "passed over" the Israelites, but struck Egypt, killing the firstborn sons of those who did not mark their doorframes with sacrificial blood. Thus, pesach denotes both the festival held each spring in remembrance of Israel's deliverance from Egyptian bondage (Exodus 12:48; Leviticus 23:5; 2nd Kings 23:21) and the actual sacrifice offered in commemoration of the Passover event (Exodus 12:11, 21, 27; Deuteronomy 16:2; 2nd Chronicles 30:15, 18).

The Passover is the oldest of Jewish holidays, commemorating the Hebrews' release from 400 years of bondage and signifying Israel's birth as a nation of God's chosen people, who would come under the Covenant. Although separate rites, the Feast of Passover and the Feast of Unleavened Bread were combined to celebrate God's intervention during the Exodus. The Passover celebration began on the fourteenth day of the first month of the Hebrew calendar -(Exodus 12:6; Leviticus 23:5; Numbers 28:16; 2nd Chronicles 35:1), while the Feast of Unleavened Bread started the following day - (Exodus 12:15; Leviticus 23:6; Numbers 28:17; 2nd Chronicles 35:17).

Most of the regulations concerning the observance of the Passover are contained in the Pentateuch. The celebration was to begin at the full moon upon the first month of spring, which marked the beginning of the barley harvest (i.e., Abib, cf. Exodus 13:3f; Deuteronomy 16:1; it was later called Nisan). On the tenth day of the month, each man was to select a year-old lamb or goat without defect, and if the animal contained too much meat for one family to eat, it was to be shared with a neighboring household (Exodus 12:3ff). Next, on the fourteenth day of the month, at twilight, the chosen lamb or goat was to be killed (vs. 6). Some of its blood was to be drained into a basin and applied with a hyssop (a plant) to the door-frames of the houses where the people gathered to eat (vv. 7, 22) as a signal to the angel of death to pass over that house. That same night, the meat was to be properly roasted over a fire and eaten with bitter herbs (which symbolized Egyptian bondage) and bread made without yeast (which symbolized a hasty departure, vv. 7ff, 46). The meal was to be eaten quickly, with the cloak tucked into the belt, sandals on feet and staff in hand, also indicating that the Israelites did not delay in leaving Egypt to begin their journey (vs. 11). Any remains of the meat were not to be consumed, but had to be burned (vs. 10). Also, slaves and aliens were prohibited from partaking in the meal unless they had been circumcised (vv. 44, 48). Finally, all future generations were to celebrate the Passover in commemoration of the Lord's greatest miracle which He performed for the Israelites (vv. 14, 24, 42, 47). The Feast of Unleavened Bread, lasting one week, began the next day and required that the Israelites only eat bread without yeast.

During the celebration of Passover, the father of the household was responsible for explaining the meaning of the ceremony to his children when asked -(Exodus. 12:26f; 13:8, 14). Although Passover began as a festival observed at home, Deuteronomy looked ahead to the time when the wilderness wanderings would end, giving way to permanent residence in Canaan and a centralization of the celebration in a place of God's choosing (Deuteronomy 16:2, 6f). Chronicles records that later in Israel's history two great Passover celebrations took place in the temple in Jerusalem -(2nd Chronicles 30:1-27; 35:1-19).

𐤏𐤐𐤔 𐤓𐤁𐤕𐤕

verb

to pass over, to be lame

Cognates 𐤏𐤐𐤔 𐤓𐤁𐤕𐤕 (6699)

𐤏𐤐𐤔 𐤓𐤁𐤕𐤕 (6700)

𐤎𐤓𐤓 pissfiach (6701)

Exo.	12:13	and when I see the blood, I will pass over	1
	12:23	the Lord will pass over the door,	1
	12:27	who passed over the houses of the children	1
2 Sam.	4:4	that he fell, and became lame	2
1 Ki.	18:21	How long halt ye between two opinions?	1
	18:26	And they leaped upon the altar	3
Isa.	31:5	and passing over he will preserve it	1

Defined as "to pass over," or "to be lame," pāsach has cognates in Middle Hebrew, Arabic and Akkadian. Pāsach describes the physical handicap of Mephibosheth, who was dropped by his nurse at the age of five and became permanently crippled -(2nd Samuel 4:4). Also, the priests of Baal were illustrated as "leaping" around their altar in their showdown with Elijah upon Mount Carmel -(1st Kings 18:26). This verb figuratively refers to "limping" or vacillating between two opinions (vs. 21), specifically, Israel's indecision resulting from not following the Lord wholeheartedly.

Pāsach is used in the story of the Passover pertaining to the angel of death who "passed over" and "spared" those Israelites who had marked their door frames with sacrificial blood -(Exodus 12:13, 23, 27). Pesach (HED #6699), a derivative of pāsach, denotes the Feast of Passover, as well as the sacrificial lamb.

Recap Summary on Nisan 10, 2022 as a High Watch Date

WATCH FOR IT TO HAPPEN NEXT MONTH IN APRIL 2022.....

The following Scripture tells us that God's tribulation judgement exclusively upon the Nation of Israel will BEGIN on a NEW MOON over Israel according to:

Hosea 5:7-10

"They (Israel) have dealt treacherously against the Lordnow shall a NEW MOON devour them with their portions.....Therefore I will pour out My wrath upon them like water."

Next month the NEW MOON of Nisan 1, 2022 over Israel will occur on Friday April 1, 2022 @ 9:24 AM thru Saturday April 2, 2022 .

If, and I said IF , the Russia-Iran coalition attacks Israel during the NEW MOON over Israel next month on April 1-2 it will BEGIN the Gog-Magog War, and set the date for the rapture to occur TEN DAYS LATER on Nisan 10, 2022 which is Monday April 11-12, 2022.

Now here is what is highly interesting about the rapture happening on Nisan 10, 2022 which is also April 11-12, 2022 :

IT IS EXACTLY 1,260 DAYS PRIOR TO the Feast of Trumpets 2025 which begins on the NEW MOON OF TISHRI 1, 2025 which is Monday September 22-23, 2025.

SO, THERE YOU HAVE IT:

If the Gog-Magog War against Israel BEGINS on the NEW MOON of Nisan 1, 2022 on April 1-2 next month we can expect the rapture to happen TEN DAYS LATER on Nisan 10, 2022 which is April 11-12, 2022 .

If it does not happen next month in April, we will have to wait until April of next year,

According to Your Holy Word, come Lord Jesus !

All things considered, we have never been so close as we are to being Raptured out of this evil world.

Keep looking up and your ears open for the Trumpet Call! Your redemption draws near!

Blessings from our Lord Jesus Christ,

Pastor Bob, EvanTeachr@aol.com
www.pastorbobreid.com
<http://jesusisthewaythetruththelife.com/node/22>