

The Global Economic Reset Marks The Beginning of The Great Tribulation

Globalists Reveal That the “Great Economic Reset” Is Coming In 2021 But It Is More Insidious Than That!

Part 4

Most people are not history buffs; but nearly everyone loves a scandal story. The Democrats attacked President Trump first with sexual improprieties, as they did against Judge Kavanaugh to discredit his election chances to the U.S. Supreme Court. History is rich with scandals and character assassinations built around sexual liaisons.

Blackmail, the Federal Reserve, WWI, CFR, UN and a new world bank

1913: On March 4, Woodrow Wilson is elected the 28th President of the United States. Shortly after he is inaugurated, he is visited in the White House by Samuel Untermyer of law firm, Guggenheim, Untermyer, and Marshall, who tries to blackmail him for the sum of $40,000 in relation to an affair Wilson had whilst he was a professor at Princeton University, with a fellow professor's wife.

President Wilson does not have the money, so Samuel Untermyer volunteers to pay the $40,000 out of his own pocket to the woman Wilson had had the affair with, on the condition that Wilson promise to appoint to the first vacancy on the United States Supreme Court a nominee to be recommended to President Wilson by Untermyer. Wilson has little choice and agrees to this.

That same year they also set up their last and current central bank in America, the Federal Reserve. Congressman Charles Lindbergh stated following the passing of the Federal Reserve Act on December 23, 1913: “The Act establishes the most gigantic trust on earth. When the President signs this Bill, the invisible government of the monetary power will be legalized. The greatest crime of the ages is perpetrated by this banking and currency bill."

It is important to note that the Federal Reserve is a private company, it is neither Federal nor does it have any Reserve. It is conservatively estimated that profits exceed $150 billion per year and the Federal Reserve has never once in its history published accounts.

1914: The start of World War 1. In this war, the German Rothschild's loan money to the Germans, the British Rothschild's loan money to the British, and the French Rothschild's loan money to the French.

Furthermore, the Rothschild's have control of the three European news agencies, Wolff (est. 1849) in Germany, Reuters (est. 1851) in England, and Havas (est. 1835) in France.

The Rothschild's use Wolff to manipulate the German people into fervor for war. From around this time, the Rothschild's are rarely reported in the media, because they own the media.

1916: On June 4, Louis Dembitz Brandeis is appointed to the Supreme Court of the United States by President Wilson as per his agreed blackmail payment to Samuel Untermyer some three years earlier.

In the middle of World War 1, Germany was winning the war as they were being financed by the Rothschild's to a greater extent than France, Italy and England, because Rothschild's, did not want to support the Tsar in Russia, and of course Russia was on the same side as France, Italy and England.

Then a significant event occurred. Germany, although they were winning the war and not one foreign soldier had set foot on their soil, offered armistice to Britain with no requirement of reparations. The Rothschild's were anxious to make sure this didn't happen as they were expecting to make far more money off this war, so they played another card they had up their sleeve.

Whilst the British were considering Germany's offer, Rothschild agent Louis Brandeis sends a delegation from America to Britain to promise to bring America into the war on the side of the British, provided the British agree to give the land of Palestine to the Rothschild's.

The Rothschild's wanted Palestine for the following reason: they had great business interests in the Far East and desired their own state in that area along with their own military which they could use as an aggressor to any state that threatened those interests.

The British subsequently agree to the deal for Palestine. Suddenly all the major newspapers in America that up to that point had been pro-German turned on Germany running propaganda pieces such as: German soldiers were killing Red Cross Nurses; German soldiers were cutting off babies' hands, etc., in order to manipulate the American public against the Germans. Absolutely none of these claims were true at all. On December 12, 1916, Germany and her allies offer peace terms to end the war.

1917: As a result of Germany's offer of peace the Rothschild war machine goes into overdrive in America, spreading propaganda, which leads to President Wilson under the instructions of American Supreme Court Justice, Louis Dembitz Brandeis, reneging on his promise to the electorate and taking America into the first world war on April 6.

The Rothschild's order the execution by the Bolsheviks they control, and the murder of Tsar Nicholas II and his entire family in Russia, even though the Tsar had already abdicated on March 2. This is both to get control of the country and an act of revenge for Tsar Alexander I blocking their world government plan in 1815 at the Congress of Vienna, and Tsar Alexander II siding with President Abraham Lincoln in 1864.

It is extremely important for them to slaughter the entire family including women and children in order to make good on the promise to do so made by Nathan Mayer Rothschild in 1815. It is designed to show the world what happens if you ever attempt to cross the Rothschild's.

U.S. Congressman Oscar Callaway informs Congress that J. P. Morgan is a Rothschild front and has taken control of the American media industry. He states:

“In March, 1915, the J.P. Morgan interests, the steel, shipbuilding, and powder interest, and their subsidiary organizations, got together 12 men high up in the newspaper world and employed them to select the most influential newspapers in the United States and sufficient number of them to control generally the policy of the daily press. They found it was only necessary to purchase the control of 25 of the greatest papers...An agreement was reached. The policy of the papers was bought, to be paid for by the month, an editor was furnished for each paper to properly supervise and edit information regarding the questions of preparedness, militarism, financial policies, and other things of national and international nature considered vital to the interests of the purchasers.”

1919: In January, Karl Liebknecht and Rosa Luxemburg are killed as they attempt to lead another Rothschild funded Communist coup, this time in Berlin, Germany.

The Versailles peace conference is held to decide reparations that the Germans need to pay to the victors following the end of the First World War. A delegation of 117 headed up by Bernard Baruch, bring up the subject of the promise of Palestine for them. At this point the Germans realized why America had turned on them and under whose influence, the Rothschild's

The Versailles peace conference is also used as an attempt by the Rothschild's to set up a world government under the pretext of ending all wars (which they create). This was called the “League of Nations”. Fortunately not enough countries accepted it and so it soon died.

M. Rothschild & Sons' are given a permanent role to fix the world's daily gold price. This takes place in the City of London offices, daily at 1100 hours, in the same room until 2004.

1920: Winston Churchill writes in an article in the ‘Illustrated Sunday Herald’, dated February 8th:

“From the days of Illuminati leader Weishaupt, to those of Karl Marx, to those of Trotsky, this worldwide conspiracy has been steadily growing.

And now at last this band of extraordinary personalities from the underworld of the great cities of Europe and America, have gripped the Russian people by the hair of their heads and become the undisputed masters of that enormous empire.”

1921: Under the orders of Jacob Schiff the Council on Foreign Relations (CFR) is founded by Bernard Baruch and Colonel Edward Mandell House. Schiff gave his orders prior to his death in 1920, as he knew an organization in America needed to be set up to select politicians to carry on the Rothschild conspiracy and the formation of the CFR was actually agreed in a meeting on May 30, 1919 at the Hotel Majestic in Paris, France.

The CFR membership at the start was approximately 1000 people in the United States. This membership included the heads of virtually every industrial empire in America, all the American based international bankers, and the heads of all their tax-free foundations. In essence all those people who would provide the capital required for anyone who wished to run for Congress, the Senate or the Presidency.

The first job of the CFR was to gain control of the press. This task was given to John D. Rockefeller who set up a number of national news magazines such as ‘Life’ and ‘Time’. He financed Samuel Newhouse to buy up and establish a chain of newspapers all across the country, and Eugene Meyer also who would go on to buy up many publications such as the ‘Washington Post’, ‘Newsweek’, and ‘The Weekly Magazine.’

The CFR also needed to get control of radio, television and the motion picture industry. This task was split amongst the international bankers from Kuhn Loeb, Goldman Sachs, the Warburg’s, to the Lehmann’s.

1926: Maurice de Rothschild has a son, Edmond de Rothschild. M. Rothschild & Sons refinance the Underground Electric Railways Company of London Ltd, which has a controlling interest in the entire London Underground transport system.

1929: The Rothschild’s crash the United States economy by contracting the money supply.

1930: The first Rothschild World Bank, the “Bank for International Settlements (BIS)” is established in Basel, Switzerland.

1933: On November 16, President Roosevelt recognizes the regime of Stalin in Russia without consultation with Congress even as 8,000 Ukrainians march in protest in New York. Also this year, President Roosevelt orders the all-seeing eye to be placed upon all new dollar bills along with the motto, “Novus Ordo Seclorum.” This is Latin for, “A New Order of the Ages.” This action confirms how old this global government agenda has been “in process”, and in reality was much earlier with the ratification of the Federal Reserve Act of December, 2013.

Historian Carroll Quigley called the Bank of International Settlements ... a system designed for ... "nothing less than to create a world system of financial control, in private hands, able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the world as a whole." 'Tragedy and Hope', Macmillan, 1966. I first read the book as a junior in college. Even as a college Junior and as a student-pastor of three rural Methodist churches, I never fully recognized or grasped the significance of Dr. Quigley.

Professor Quigley was the historian for the Illuminati for two year at the Jesuit Georgetown University. He was William Jefferson Clinton's mentor during Bill Clinton's education.

"The world banking system is coordinated by the Bank for International Settlements whose seat is in Basel, Switzerland. It was founded in 1930 by some central banks of Germany, Italy, French, Britain, Belgium and two private groups, one coming from Japan.

The BIS was created purportedly to support the Jesuit Eurasian crusade named World War II. The alibi for its creation was the Treaty of Versailles: "...After World War I, the need for the bank was suggested in 1929 by the Young Committee, as a means of transfer for German reparations payments - see Treaty of Versailles...."

In the German page of Wikipedia on BIS (translated below), they tell you it explicitly: "During the Nazi age from '33 to '45 the BIS was considered a Nazi-friendly bank with a strong German internal influential group. Emil Puh was both president of BIS and vice-president of Nazi Reich bank. After the Austrian Anschluss (1938) BIS took the Austrian gold and was involved with the Nazi robbery of the Nazi occupied Tschoslovakey. Norman Montagu, who was at the same time the president of BIS and of the England Bank, didn't obstacle the National-Socialist robbery. From the April 1939 the American lawyer Thomas McKittrick was drafter in the BIS in order to achieve a democratic façade. During the end of the II Thirty Years was ('39-'45) the BIS worked as clerk for the financial business of the Third Reich. The U.S. financial minister Morgenthau and the exiled Norway government tried unsuccessful to loose the bank (but Morgenthau was a Judenhof of the pope, he merely played a comedy). The British minister for finance affairs opposed to the loosing stating that the bank was useful for the post war re-building of Europe. Only in March 1945 they decided to add a special realistic effect to their fantastic comedy, blocking the financial transaction of the Third Reich as "...the pressure of the U.S. government was no more avoidable by the Swiss !...". Wow! What a panic! In fact the past dealings of the BIS with the Nazis (BIS IS a Nazi bank...), vanished to re-appear only in the 90ies...."

Clear now? A true Swiss beauty. And a similar bank couldn't avoid the Saturnalia occult symbology. It has 55 central bank members, so 5 X 11. The five is related to Venus, to the female principle, so to the liquids of whom the circulating financial liquidity are a strong metaphor. Then the eleven, which is the judgement. Money as a medium for the 'divine' (read: Luciferian) judgement? All that joined, packed and sent in every corner of the world by the Canonical based Admiralty International law. International as allusion to Universal as allusion to Catholic."

There has been much that has already been written about the Rothschild crime syndicate. We acknowledge that for those who are not part of the general global awakening and the truth movement, such discussions could get too confusing and even overwhelming. As such, it has been my intent in this series of article to unravel and shed light on any still-lingering confusion by speaking to common people and not just my fellow intellectual elites, academicians, and fellow independent researchers.

Before I begin, I want to emphatically state the following: To those Freemasonic architects of control whose aim has always been to lie and confuse the masses by muddying the truth, let it be clear that what I am about to discuss is NOT a “conspiracy theory” – a pejorative they commonly use when they yearn to assassinate articulate dissent. No, we are academics; we are not interested in “conspiracy theories”. However, we are [and should be] very much interested in conspiracy FACTS since it is our job to investigate and expose lies and spread the truth. I remind you of the old Christian proverb that the biggest trick the devil has ever pulled [throughout human history] were to convince the masses that he doesn’t exist. With that preface in mind, I now get into the crux of the matter.

For approximately 250 years, the multi-faceted Zionist Rothschild crime family, with its prototypical Luciferian, anti-Christian, anti-religion, globalist aspirations, has tirelessly worked to intertwine and morph itself into the already existing global financial power structure as well as take over the helms of the mass brainwashing apparatus that we now call the controlled western mainstream media.

And up to now, they have mainly succeeded. But in the last two decades or so, albeit slowly but surely, things have been finally turning against them, thanks primarily to the general global awakening and the truth movement facilitated through an unprecedented proliferation of knowledge, courtesy of the information technology revolution that is connecting us all together.

If we aim to truly expose and eventually derail and defeat the satanic Illuminati agenda and the New World Order mechanism – or more accurately translated, New Secular (godless) Order which is a more precise translation of the Latin phrase, “Novus Ordo Seclorum” – which has been in making for centuries, then we must arm ourselves with the up-to-now hidden knowledge of not just the version of history that has been [and still is being] taught to students in our Western, mainstream, so-called educational systems, but instead turn to the alternative, hidden version of history which used to only be available and known in various so-called “elite”, occult, and esoteric circles throughout the world, especially in the Western so-called “civilization”. Yes, information was always power as it will forever be. At any rate, it is nearly impossible to delve into such matters without stumbling on the name Rothschild.

George Orwell put it best in his legendary book, ‘1984’: “He who controls the past controls the future. He who controls the present controls the past.” Throughout the Western, mainstream, so-called educational systems, the Rothschild’s are what I call the ultimate, obsessive-compulsive architects of control – so meticulous that there have been few examples in modern [or postmodern] history that matches them.

Note: Do not be alarmed by the word “occult” which literally means, “clandestine, hidden, secret or knowledge of the hidden”. This, of course, does not have to be satanic in nature but it could be. However, by shedding light on such matters, this up-to-now hidden knowledge will no longer be occultic but transparent, apparent, and self-evident. Hence we take away its occultic mystique and in this case diabolic nature. Let us be comforted by the Word of God as delivered through Apostle John, peace be upon him, some 2000 years ago:

“The light shines in the darkness, yet the darkness has not overcome it” – John 1:5.

Let us glance back with some brief and on-the-surface facts about the Rothschild’s, especially their hidden hand in the Middle East region:

In 1917, the British subsidiary of the Rothschild crime syndicate effectively arm-twisted and forcibly lobbied the British Government to promise to grant them Palestine in exchange for getting the United States to get involved in World War I on the side of Britain and thus ensure a British victory over Germany, et al.

Thus the Balfour Declaration was conceived. This was a one-page official letter (business executive-summary style) from the British Foreign Secretary at the time, Arthur James Balfour, to Baron Rothschild stating the following: “His Majesty’s government views with favor the establishment in Palestine of a national home for the Jewish people, and will use their best endeavors to facilitate the achievement of this objective.”

There was a big problem with this scenario: Palestine was never Britain’s to grant away. It rightfully belonged to the Palestinian Arabs who had dwelled there for centuries – ever since time immortal as recorded in the Old Testament, albeit portrayed in a negative light due to the Israelite bias. Thousands of years later, in walked the Rothschild Zionists, usurping their way in, as usual, since this has been their traditional method of stealing power and resources for centuries. Slowly but surely, they started to brutally and forcefully evacuate the land and take over. In the past several decades, the Zionists have murdered and victimized millions of innocent and defenseless Palestinians. They are still committing genocide to this day with the full blessing of Washington, London, and Brussels but more importantly the Rothschild crime family who are the behind-the-scenes agents of the highest echelons of diabolic earthly power with a lust for control and domination. I will not elaborate on the nature of their esoteric Luciferian agenda since that could be a separate topic for another article.

According to the Jewish English historian, Simon Schama, the Rothschild’s own 80% of what they have opportunistically called “Israel” – a blasphemy unto itself according to true Torah Jews who correctly point out (according to academic Judaic Biblical understanding) that after the destruction of the Jewish Temple in Jerusalem in 70 A.D. by the Roman General Titus, as prophesized by Jesus Christ some 40 years earlier, that a nation of Israel can ONLY be assembled by the Messiah himself and absolutely by no earthly power or authority and that the contrary is nothing short of a satanic agenda and contrary to the will and directions of the Divine Providence.

The creation of the Zionist State of so-called “Israel” was massively unjust right from the beginning: an entity conceived in treachery, theft, and cruelty and politically justified vis-à-vis the evil of the burnt offering which is the exact meaning of the word Holocaust. In this manner, the evil Rothschild’s cult of Moloch belief in human sacrifice, in this case the Holocaust, was a precursor and a required harbinger for them to steal and carve their own nation state.

Naturally, this profound inequity continues to breed conflict today, as has been the case all along. It is no exaggeration to state that the founding of this Rothschild Zionist State, along with the blind and absolute ideological and financial support by their corrosive AIPAC and JDL lobbyists among other traitors in Washington, London, Brussels, and Tel Aviv may dangerously be a contrived forerunner to World War III itself, as we have been gradually witnessing this possible trend taking place in the Middle East in the past several years, starting with the invasion and occupation of Iraq in 2003 followed by other covert wars and anarchies to follow which is dangerously drawing in global powers such as Russia as well as China and India (in rhetoric) and regional powers such as Iran and Saudi Arabia.

It's hard to fathom that this puny, desert-stricken patch of Rothschild Zionist-created entity which measures no more than 8019 square miles – all of it illegal and stolen of course – practically controls the Middle Eastern foreign policy mechanisms of the governments of the US, EU, UK, Canada, France, and many others in the Western world. Apparently, at least for now, size doesn't matter. What matters is that the Rothschild's have always been fully behind this Frankenstein golem, falsely and blasphemously called, "Israel", in which the Rothschild's are both the Frankenstein and the golem.

At any rate, here are more facts about the broad spectrum of the power of the Rothschild crime syndicate:

The Rothschild's own the Reuters and the Associated Press (AP), the two biggest news media agencies in the world which naturally have stayed subservient to their master's propaganda talking points, albeit with a clever twist of what seem like "objectivity" which it totally is not. The Rothschild's also have a controlling share in the Royal Dutch Oil Company, the so-called "Bank of England" which in reality should be called, "The Bank of Rothschild's" as part of their original five European banking branches in London, Paris, Frankfurt, Vienna, and Naples, as exhibited in the Rothschild five arrows coat-of-arms, symbolizing the five sons of the criminal godfather Mayer Amschel Rothschild who lived from 1744 to 1812 in Frankfurt, Germany still the financial capital of the Federal Republic of Germany courtesy of the Rothschild's.

They also own LBMA (London Bullion Market Association), exert tremendous covert influence at the Federal Reserve, the ECB (European Central Bank), IMF, World Bank, and the Bank of International Settlements. The Rothschild's also have ownership of the majority supply of actual physical gold in the world. They own the London Gold Exchange which sets the price of gold every day. It is estimated that the Rothschild's own over half of the wealth of the entire planet – estimated by Credit Suisse to be $231 trillion which is reportedly managed and controlled by the 85-year old Lord Evelyn Rothschild, the current head of this crime family.

And here's a very interesting relatively recent fact: One week before September 11, 2001, the ZIM Shipping Company broke its lease which it had held for 30 years with New York's World Trade Center Building Complex which of course were owned by Silverstein Properties. ZIM Shipping Company is 50% owned by the Rothschild's, hinting that they possibly had a hand in 9-11 via quo bono circumstantial evidence that is just begging to be officially investigated but of course is not because the Rothschild's are way too big and encompassing. Here's a crucial side-note addendum: ZIM Shipping Company was formerly known as ZIM Israel Navigation Company Ltd. and Zim American Israeli Shipping Inc. It is the biggest cargo shipping company in Israel, and one of the top 20 global carriers.

Back to the past, in 2005 'Forbes' magazine ranked Mayer Amschel Rothschild, the original godfather of this criminal family back in the 18th and early 19th century, as number seven in its list of "The 20 Most Influential Businessmen of All Time". Incidentally, Mayer Amschel Rothschild is referred to as the "founding father of international finance".

The Rothschild's were directly involved in financing the British in their War of 1812 when England invaded Washington D.C. and burned our nation's capital to the ground. Three years later (in 1815), the Rothschild's took complete control of the Bank of England, but kept the name as a decoy, of course, with all the other national banks that they now own throughout the globe.

The Rothschild's were also directly involved in financing the Southern secessionists during the American Civil War of 1861-1865. President Abraham Lincoln's assassin, John Wilkes Booth, was in fact a Rothschild agent.

After their hostile takeover of the Bank of England in 1815, the Rothschild's have been expanding their banking control literally all over the world. Their method: Pressuring various countries' corrupt politicians to accept massive IMF loans, which they can never repay, of course, and thus go into a form of debt slavery to the Rothschild banking powers. If a leader refuses to accept the loan, he is oftentimes either ousted or assassinated. And if that fails, invasions can follow. Does that sound familiar?

As stated above, the Rothschild's also exert powerful influence over the world's major western mainstream news media outlets. By repetition of the same deceitful propaganda throughout their news cycle, the masses are duped into believing exaggerated horror stories about "evil dictators" such as Saddam Hussein of Iraq, Moamar Gadhafi of Libya, and now Bashar Assad of Syria, etc. Again, does THAT sound familiar?

The Rothschild crime syndicate has had their hand in fomenting nearly every European war during the past 250 years, two of which were meticulously designed to become world wars in the 20th century alone. They also install presidents and prime-ministers, dethrone and install kings (with Freemasonic puppet replacements), foment false revolutions and coup-d'états', create and stimulate social, ethnic, moral, cultural, political, and geopolitical divisions and sectarianisms, bankrupt nations through wars and rumors of wars, use and abuse of economic tools (their favorite modus operandi) such as interest rate manipulations, contrived economic bubbles followed by financial collapses, recessions, and full economic depressions, in addition to currency exchange manipulations, and the list goes on and on. Like vermin, the Rothschild blood-suckers live to profit from all these societal and economic ills.

On the cultural front, they have always worked hard [again from behind-the-scenes] vis-à-vis the hidden hand of the immoral and godless Freemasonic power structures to corrode long-cherished moral values and spread all manners of sexual deviations and perversions which their godless liberal surrogates have worked hard during the past 50 years to make these filth into a competing norm across Western Europe and North America. By abusing sacred phrases such as human rights and democracy, these utterly deprave, morally corrupt, liberal surrogates are directly arm-twisting tradition and moral societies to adopt their decrepit moral relativism and ethical ambiguity vis-à-vis the modern, secular so-called educational systems which they had a major hand in designing.

In other words, a multiple decades-long cultural campaign of mass brain-washing to mislead the peoples of the world, especially in Western Europe and North America regions to persuade the public to call what is good evil and to call evil what is good. This of course was prophesized by Prophet Isaiah in the 8th century B.C. when he wrote, “Woe to those who call evil good and good evil, who put darkness for light and light for darkness, who put bitter for sweet and sweet for bitter.” -(Isaiah 5:20).

From the gecko, they aimed to destroy Western Christianity (Catholicism and later on Protestantism) which unfortunately to a great extent they have succeeded. They infiltrated the very Catholic Church in the 15th and 16th centuries during the Italian Renaissance vis-à-vis the Borgia popes who were Spanish Marino’s in heritage.

They tried to do the same with Eastern Orthodox Christianity but utterly failed – then and now. Today, we must be grateful for the enthusiastic resurgence and hopeful revival of the Eastern Orthodox faith as a viable moral, ethical, and political force to be reckoned with, especially among the youth of Russia and Eastern Europe. This is one of the many reasons for their fanatical Russia-phobia media campaign. They typically insert this via their news media neuro-lingual programming of repeatedly calling this or that world leader a “dictator”, as they continue to do so, for example, with Russia’s President Vladimir Putin, Iran’s Supreme Leader Ayatollah Ali Khamenei and Iran’s former President Ahmadinejad, Venezuela’s recently deceased former President Hugo Chavez and current President Nicolás Maduro, Bolivia’s President Evo Morales, and the recently CIA-deposed Brazilian President Dilma Rousseff as well as Philippines’s new President Rodrigo Duterte. These world leaders (among many others) are continuously singled-out and red-flagged because of their stern and courageous audacity to openly oppose [and expose] the Rothschild Illuminati power structure, albeit without directly invoking their name. They are frequently (if not repeatedly) character assassinated via all the western mainstream media outlets which they happen to own and operate.

Back to the resurgence of religion and traditional values, the surge in traditional Catholicism should also be celebrated in countries like Poland, et al., although this is a sensitive topic for Russia, especially after the fall of the USSR in 1991. Nevertheless, this Catholic resurgence does serve as a force to combat moral relativism and cultural decay that is running rampant in the North America and Western Europe regions, albeit we are at the threshold of a great modern revival of traditional values in both aforementioned regions.

And as for the true, revolutionary, modern, righteous, political Islam, the Rothschild Zionists perceive that as their greatest threat while all along, they foment and fund the most brutal and savage-like versions of false Islam such as Wahhabism and Salafism via their Saudi and other Gulf Arab puppet proxies vis-à-vis the bloody ISIS savage mercenaries, in order to distort, confuse, and muddy the perceptions of the peoples of the world and even Muslims themselves towards Islam.

This is so since their ultimate geopolitical plan in the greater Middle East region is to first evacuate big chunks of it vis-à-vis chaos, anarchy, lawlessness, and the wars that cause depopulation by horrific deaths which are then followed by the current refugee crisis across the massive war-torn areas of the Middle East and North Africa. This is intentionally done so in order to once-and-for-all implement their evil “Greater Israel” project which comprises confiscating all the lands from the Nile River (in Egypt) to the Euphrates River (in Iraq).

Long ago, they even codified this hegemonic concept in their despicable Rothschild Zionist flag which is on a white background falsely symbolizing peace, comprised of two blue stripes symbolizing the Nile River and the Euphrates River (at the top and bottom) with their so-called “Star of David” which in actuality is their Star of Remphan – a Babylonian and Egyptian symbol signifying the satanic cult of Saturn worship that the Israelites most probably plagiarized and adopted from the Egyptians while wondering around in the desert for 40 years after their liberation/expulsion from Egypt. Please refer to Amos 5:26 as well as Acts 7:43 for a specific mention of this Star of Remphan.

Besides, King David absolutely had no star or symbol, as many Orthodox Jewish rabbis would gladly testify. The eternal and true symbol of true Torah Jews is none other than the Menorah, symbolizing truth and light. However, King David’s son, the mystical King Solomon certainly did have a star (or symbol) and that was the upright pentagram symbolizing humanity. Turn it slightly to the left or right and you have the Luciferian Baphomet symbol – an idol or deity that the Knights Templar was accused of worshipping.

Anyway, why is the Rothschild’s obsessed with their ominous control and conquest of big chunks of the Middle East? The answer is very cryptic and mysterious which I may elaborate in future articles. In brief, in order to directly control and spiritually abuse the powerful and esoteric energy vortexes of these very ancient and magical lands. And their trump card if their hegemony is ever challenged or threatened? The so-called “The Samson Option”, Israel's deterrence strategy of massive retaliation with nuclear weapons against any country whose military may defensively attack Israel. These are but just a few exoteric examples of the wicked strategies of the Rothschild's and other so-called “elite” powerful families who are numbered to be 13 who rule the earth today with a clear satanic agenda for those who have the eyes to see and the ears to listen.

Back to some of the geo-economic strategies of the Rothschild's, here comes the Iran dossier. Revolutionary and modern Islamic ideology aside, could gaining control of the CBI (Central Bank of Iran) with its sizable gold deposits be one of the main reasons that Iran has been intensely targeted and demonized for close to 40 years by the western media and the warmongers in Washington, NATO, and Tel Aviv? Objective researchers point out that Iran is now one of only three countries left in the world whose central bank is NOT under Rothschild control. Before 9-11, there were reportedly seven: Afghanistan, Iraq, Sudan, Libya, Cuba, North Korea, and Iran – not that they would amount to much in the macroeconomic global sense. But in the case of Iraq and Libya, their supply of physical gold was vast, as is reported with Iran.

By 2003, however, Afghanistan and Iraq were completely swallowed up by the Rothschild system and by 2011 Sudan and Libya followed. In Libya, a Rothschild bank was even established in Benghazi while the country was still at war!

Again, objective researchers contend that Iran is not being demonized because they are a nuclear threat, as facts have proven over-and-over that Iran is clearly NOT a nuclear threat. And yet, the Rothschild-controlled mainstream media along with puppet politicians relentlessly keep repeating this lie even after the signing of JCPOA, the acronym for the Joint Comprehensive Plan of Action between P5+1 (Russia, China, US, UK, France + Germany) and the Islamic Republic of Iran.

What then is the real reason? Is it the trillions to be made in stolen oil profits, or the trillions to be made in war profits (a two-centuries long Rothschild specialty), or is it to start World War III for whatever diabolic financial incentive, or is it to simply destroy the CBI (Central Bank of Iran) so that no one is left to defy Rothschild's money racket? It might be any one of those reasons or worst, it might be all of them!

To sum up, what used to be pejoratively referred to as a “conspiracy theory” is now being discussed openly among credible academics, cutting-edge independent think-tanks, and ultimately the governments of the nations of the world.

Lastly, an old John Maynard Keynes & E. F. Schumacher concept for a global currency called the Bancor may still be a viable Rothschild global currency scam and along with it their proposed, controversial, octopus-like global central bank swindle, dominating every financial aspect of today's modern life.

The criminal Rothschild godfather, Mayer Amschel Rothschild, famously said, “Give me control of a nation’s money and I care not who makes her laws.” Whoever continues to control the monetary system of the world will in effect control the policies and laws – globally speaking. What is the Rothschild’s strategy in achieving this? One of the preliminary measures of incorporating a global currency seems to be the destruction of all currencies around the globe in order to justify its inception.

As stated, calls for a global currency began to come about after World War II, when British Economist John Maynard Keynes and the British government proposed the Bancor as a world reserve currency. The current ongoing economic crisis, especially ever since the Great Recession of 2008, has set the stage for the demise of the dollar as the current world reserve currency in order to possibly make way for this proposed Bancor or whatever other name or electronic/ digital currency system they come up with, to make their propaganda more marketable since the cat is totally out of the bag with the Bancor, figuratively-speaking.

One thing is for certain, Washington, the Fed, and their allies are in on the plan, as the Fed continues to devalue the dollar through “quantitative easing”, better put, printing more and more worthless paper money. Washington continues to grow by spending more-and-more only to exacerbate the problem. Perhaps, this is all part of the Rothschild plan to destroy the dollar once-and-for-all.

Timothy Geithner, former president of the New York branch of the Fed and later on Barack Obama’s Secretary of Treasury from 2008-2012 openly endorsed the one world currency. He, more-or-less, admits to it (in this brief video) from a meeting at the Council of Foreign Relations in Washington, incidentally a major political & economic think-tank arm of the Rothschild power structure: http://youtu.be/ds_qGXbxK-4

Some argue that the US housing market bubble, US auto industry’s near collapse and its subsequent U.S. Government bailout, Wall Street and banker bailouts, as well as the drastic reduction in manufacturing here in the U.S. are all contrived events in order to systematically crush the US economy and the dollar in particular, with the ultimate goal of making way for phase two of the ominous Rothschild and other elite families’ final takeover of the world’s monetary systems and the completion of a New World Order feudalistic dictatorship, better put, the New Secular/Godless Order. The writing is certainly on the wall.

Now, let the real people’s social, political, economic, but most importantly spiritual revolution begin. We are at the threshold – and some would say in the midst of – a grand new global reality. If we are to defeat this Rothschild satanic agenda, we must all work together, shoulder-to-shoulder and hand-in-hand, or we are doomed.

Sovereignty and Secrecy of the Rothschild BIS

It is not surprising that the BIS, its offices, employees, directors and members share an incredible immunity from virtually all regulation, scrutiny and accountability.

In 1931, central bankers and their constituents were fed up with government meddling in world financial affairs. Politicians were viewed mostly with contempt, unless it was one of their own who was the politician.

Thus, the BIS (i.e., the Rothschild's) offered them a once-and-for-all opportunity to set up the "apex" the way they really wanted it - private. They demanded these conditions and got everything, and then some; and I mean everything possible in what they demanded.

A quick summary of their immunity, explained further below, includes

- diplomatic immunity for persons and what they carry with them (i.e., diplomatic pouches)
- no taxation on any transactions, including salaries paid to employees
- embassy-type immunity for all buildings and/or offices operated by the BIS
- no oversight or knowledge of operations by any government authority
- freedom from immigration restrictions
- freedom to encrypt any and all communications of any sort
- immunity from any legal jurisdiction

Further, members of the BIS board of directors (for instance, Alan Greenspan) are individually granted special benefits:

- "immunity from arrest or imprisonment and immunity from seizure of their personal baggage, save in flagrant cases of criminal offence"
- "inviolability of all papers and documents"
- "immunity from jurisdiction, even after their mission has been accomplished, for acts carried out in the discharge of their duties, including words spoken and writings"
- "exemption for themselves, their spouses and children from any immigration restrictions, from any formalities concerning the registration of aliens and from any obligations relating to national service in Switzerland "
- "the right to use codes in official communications or to receive or send documents or correspondence by means of couriers or diplomatic bags"

Lastly, all remaining officials and employees of the BIS have the following immunities:

- "immunity from jurisdiction for acts accomplished in the discharge of their duties, including words spoken and writings, even after such persons have ceased to be Officials of the Bank"
- "exemption from all Federal, cantonal and communal taxes on salaries, fees and allowances paid to them by the Bank..."
- exempt from Swiss national obligations, freedom for spouses and family members from immigration restrictions, transfer assets and properties - including internationally - with the same degree of benefit as Officials of other international organizations.

Of course, a corporate charter can say anything it wants to say and still be subject to outside authorities.

Nevertheless, these were the immunities practiced and enjoyed since 1930 onward to this present day.

On February 10, 1987, a more formal acknowledgement called the "Headquarters Agreement" was executed between the BIS and the Swiss Federal Council and basically clarified and reiterated what we already knew.

Conclusions

Our credo is "Follow the money, follow the power." This report has endeavored to follow the money. We find that:

- The BIS is central bank to all major central banks in the world
- It is privately owned by central banks themselves, most of whom are also private
- It was founded under questionable circumstances by questionable people
- It is accountable to no one, especially government bodies
- It operates in complete secrecy and is inviolable
- Movement of money is obscured and hidden when routed through the BIS
- The BIS is targeting regional currency blocks and ultimately, a global currency
- It has been hugely successful at building the New International Economic Order, along with its attendant initiatives on global governance.
- As to "follow the power," another article will more fully explore the influence of power that the BIS exerts over other banks, nations and governments. For your own consideration in the meantime, Proverbs 22:7 provides a useful compass: "The rich rule over the poor, and the borrower is servant to the lender."

The Tower of Basel: Secretive Plans for the Issuing of a Global Currency Do we really want the Bank for International Settlements (BIS) Issuing our Global Currency?

One of the best reads today is 'Web of Debt' by Ellen Brown. Ellen Brown developed her research skills as an attorney practicing civil litigation in Los Angeles. In 'Web of Debt,' her latest book published in 2013, she turns those skills to an analysis of the Federal Reserve and "the money trust." She shows how this private cartel has usurped the power to create money from the people themselves, and how we the people can get it back. Her earlier books focused on the pharmaceutical cartel that gets its power from "the money trust."

Ellen Brown's book is one of my most important resources when it comes to the mystified image that exists around who issues our money. Over a decade ago, Ellen Brown had written on how the G20 had moved a step closer to the "Global Currency".

Ambrose Evans-Pritchard wrote: "A single clause in Point 19 of the communiqué issued by the G20 leaders amounts to revolution in the global financial order. We have agreed to support a general SDR allocation which will inject $250bn (£170bn) into the world economy and increase global liquidity," It said. SDRs are Special Drawing Rights, a synthetic paper currency issued by the International Monetary Fund that has lain dormant for half a century.

In effect, the G20 leaders have activated the IMF's power to create money and begin global 'quantitative easing'. In doing so, they are putting a de facto world currency into play. It is outside the control of any sovereign body. Conspiracy theorists will love it. Indeed they will. The article was subtitled, "The world is a step closer to a global currency, backed by a global central bank, running monetary policy for all humanity." Which naturally raises the question, who or what will serve as this global central bank, cloaked with the power to issue the global currency and police monetary policy for all humanity? When the world's central bankers met in Washington, they discussed what body might be in a position to serve in that awesome and fearful role. A former governor of the Bank of England stated:

"The answer might already be staring us in the face, in the form of the Bank for International Settlements (BIS). . . . The IMF tends to couch its warnings about economic problems in very diplomatic language, but the BIS is more independent and much better placed to deal with this if it is given the power to do so."

And if the vision of a global currency outside government control does not set off conspiracy theorists, putting the BIS in charge of it surely will. The BIS has been scandal-ridden ever since it was branded with pro-Nazi leanings in the 1930s. Founded in Basel, Switzerland, in 1930, the BIS has been called "the most exclusive, secretive, and powerful supranational club in the world." Charles Higham wrote in his book 'Trading with the Enemy' that by the late 1930s, the BIS had assumed an openly pro-Nazi bias, a theme that was expanded on in a BBC Timewatch film titled "Banking with Hitler" broadcast in 1998. In 1944, the American government backed a resolution at the Bretton-Woods Conference calling for the liquidation of the BIS, following Czech accusations that it was laundering gold stolen by the Nazis from occupied Europe; but the central bankers succeeded in quietly snuffing out the American resolution.

In 'Tragedy and Hope: A History of the World in Our Time' (1966), Dr. Carroll Quigley revealed the key role played in global finance by the BIS behind the scenes. Dr. Quigley was Professor of History at Georgetown University, where he was President Bill Clinton's mentor. He was also an insider, groomed by the powerful clique he called "the international bankers."

He wrote:

"I know of the operations of this network because I have studied it for twenty years and was permitted for two years, in the early 1960's, to examine its papers and secret records. I have no aversion to it or to most of its aims and have, for much of my life, been close to it and too many of its instruments. . . . In general my chief difference of opinion is that it wishes to remain unknown, and I believe its role in history is significant enough to be known."

Modest beginnings, BIS Office, Hotel Savoy-Univers, Basel

First Annual General Meeting, 1931

Quigley wrote of this international banking network:

“The powers of financial capitalism had another far-reaching aim, nothing less than to create a world system of financial control in private hands able to dominate the political system of each country and the economy of the world as a whole. This system was to be controlled in a feudalist fashion by the central banks of the world acting in concert, by secret agreements arrived at in frequent private meetings and conferences. The apex of the system was to be the Bank for International Settlements in Basel, Switzerland, a private bank owned and controlled by the world’s central banks which were themselves private corporations.”

The key to their success, said Quigley, was that the international bankers would control and manipulate the money system of a nation while letting it appear to be controlled by the government. The statement echoed one made in the eighteenth century by the patriarch of what would become the most powerful banking dynasty in the world. Mayer Amschel Bauer Rothschild famously said in 1791:

“Allow me to issue and control a nation’s currency, and I care not who makes its laws.”

Mayer’s five sons were sent to the major capitals of Europe – London, Paris, Vienna, Berlin and Naples – with the mission of establishing a banking system that would be outside government control. The economic and political systems of nations would be controlled not by citizens but by bankers, for the benefit of bankers. Eventually, a privately-owned “central bank” was established in nearly every country; and this central banking system has now gained control over the economies of the world. Central banks have the authority to print money in their respective countries, and it is from these banks that governments must borrow money to pay their debts and fund their operations. The result is a global economy in which not only industry but government itself runs on “credit” (or debt) created by a banking monopoly headed by a network of private central banks; and at the top of this network is the BIS, the “central bank of central banks” in Basel.

Behind the Curtain

For many years the BIS kept a very low profile, operating behind the scenes in an abandoned hotel. It was here that decisions were reached to devalue or defend currencies, fix the price of gold, regulate offshore banking, and raise or lower short-term interest rates. In 1977, however, the BIS gave up its anonymity in exchange for more efficient headquarters. The new building has been described as “an eighteen story-high circular skyscraper that rises above the medieval city like some misplaced nuclear reactor.” It quickly became known as the “Tower of Basel.” Today the BIS has governmental immunity, pays no taxes, and has its own private police force. It is, as Mayer Rothschild envisioned, above the law.

One Bank to Rule Them All: The Bank for International Settlements

The BIS is now composed of 55 member nations, but the club that meets regularly in Basel is a much smaller group; and even within it, there is a hierarchy. In a 1983 article in ‘Harper’s’ Magazine called “Ruling the World of Money,” Edward Jay Epstein wrote that where the real business gets done is in “a sort of inner club made up of the half dozen or so powerful central bankers who find themselves more or less in the same monetary boat” – those from Germany, the United States, Switzerland, Italy, Japan and England. Epstein said:

“The prime value, which also seems to demarcate the inner club from the rest of the BIS members, is the firm belief that central banks should act independently of their home governments. . . . A second and closely related belief of the inner club is that politicians should not be trusted to decide the fate of the international monetary system.”

In 1974, the Basel Committee on Banking Supervision was created by the central bank Governors of the Group of Ten nations (now expanded to twenty). The BIS provides the twelve-member Secretariat for the Committee. The Committee, in turn, sets the rules for banking globally, including capital requirements and reserve controls. In a 2003 article titled “The Bank for International Settlements Calls for Global Currency,” Joan Veon wrote:

“The BIS is where all of the world’s central banks meet to analyze the global economy and determine what course of action they will take next to put more money in their pockets, since they control the amount of money in circulation and how much interest they are going to charge governments and banks for borrowing from them. . . .

When you understand that the BIS pulls the strings of the world’s monetary system, you then understand that they have the ability to create a financial boom or bust in a country. If that country is not doing what the money lenders want, then all they have to do is sell its currency.”

The Controversial Basel Accords

The power of the BIS to make or break economies was demonstrated in 1988, when it issued a Basel Accord raising bank capital requirements from 6% to 8%. By then, Japan had emerged as the world’s largest creditor; but Japan’s banks were less well capitalized than other major international banks. Raising the capital requirement forced them to cut back on lending, creating a recession in Japan like that suffered in the U.S. today. Property prices fell and loans went into default as the security for them shriveled up. A downward spiral followed, ending with the total bankruptcy of the banks. The banks had to be nationalized, although that word was not used in order to avoid criticism.

Among other collateral damage produced by the Basel Accords was a spate of suicides among Indian farmers unable to get loans. The BIS capital adequacy standards required loans to private borrowers to be “risk-weighted,” with the degree of risk determined by private rating agencies; and farmers and small business owners could not afford the agencies’ fees. Banks therefore assigned 100 percent risk to the loans, and then resisted extending credit to these “high-risk” borrowers because more capital was required to cover the loans. When the conscience of the nation was aroused by the Indian suicides, the government, lamenting the neglect of farmers by commercial banks, established a policy of ending the “financial exclusion” of the weak; but this step had little real effect on lending practices, due largely to the strictures imposed by the BIS from abroad.

Similar complaints have come from Korea. An article in the December 12, 2008 Korea Times titled “BIS Calls Trigger Vicious Cycle” described how Korean entrepreneurs with good collateral cannot get operational loans from Korean banks, at a time when the economic downturn requires increased investment and easier credit:

“The Bank of Korea has provided more than 35 trillion won to banks since September when the global financial crisis went full throttle,’ said a Seoul analyst, who declined to be named. ‘But the effect is not seen at all with the banks keeping the liquidity in their safes. They simply don’t lend and one of the biggest reasons is to keep the BIS ratio high enough to survive,’ he said. . . .

“Chang Ha-joon, an economics professor at Cambridge University, concurs with the analyst. ‘What banks do for their own interests, or to improve the BIS ratio, is against the interests of the whole society. This is a bad idea,’ Chang said in a recent telephone interview with Korea Times.”

In a May 2002 article in The Asia Times titled “Global Economy: The BIS vs. National Banks,” economist Henry C K Liu observed that the Basel Accords have forced national banking systems “to march to the same tune, designed to serve the needs of highly sophisticated global financial markets, regardless of the developmental needs of their national economies.” He wrote:

“National banking systems are suddenly thrown into the rigid arms of the Basel Capital Accord sponsored by the Bank of International Settlement (BIS), or to face the penalty of usurious risk premium in securing international interbank loans. . . . National policies suddenly are subjected to profit incentives of private financial institutions, all members of a hierarchical system controlled and directed from the money center banks in New York. The result is to force national banking systems to privatize

BIS regulations serve only the single purpose of strengthening the international private banking system, even at the peril of national economies. . . . The IMF and the international banks regulated by the BIS are a team: the international banks lend recklessly to borrowers in emerging economies to create a foreign currency debt crisis, the IMF arrives as a carrier of monetary virus in the name of sound monetary policy, then the international banks come as vulture investors in the name of financial rescue to acquire national banks deemed capital inadequate and insolvent by the BIS.

Ironically, noted Liu, developing countries with their own natural resources did not actually need the foreign investment that trapped them in debt to outsiders:

Applying the State Theory of Money [which assumes that a sovereign nation has the power to issue its own money], any government can fund with its own currency all its domestic developmental needs to maintain full employment without inflation.”

When governments fall into the trap of accepting loans in foreign currencies, however, they become “debtor nations” subject to IMF and BIS regulation. They are forced to divert their production to exports, just to earn the foreign currency necessary to pay the interest on their loans. National banks deemed “capital inadequate” have to deal with strictures comparable to the “conditionalities” imposed by the IMF on debtor nations: “escalating capital requirement, loan write-offs and liquidation, and restructuring through selloffs, layoffs, downsizing, cost-cutting and freeze on capital spending.” Liu wrote:

“Reversing the logic that a sound banking system should lead to full employment and developmental growth, BIS regulations demand high unemployment and developmental degradation in national economies as the fair price for a sound global private banking system.”

The Last Domino to Fall

While banks in developing nations were being penalized for falling short of the BIS capital requirements, large international banks managed to escape the rules, although they actually carried enormous risk because of their derivative exposure. The mega-banks succeeded in avoiding the Basel rules by separating the “risk” of default out from the loans and selling it off to investors, using a form of derivative known as “credit default swaps.”

However, it was not in the game plan that U.S. banks should escape the BIS net. When they managed to sidestep the first Basel Accord, a second set of rules was imposed known as Basel II. The new rules were established in 2004, but they were not levied on U.S. banks until November 2007, the month after the Dow passed 14,000 to reach its all-time high. It has been all downhill from there. Basel II had the same effect on U.S. banks that Basel I had on Japanese banks: they have been struggling ever since to survive. The stock market and all the markets are gamed and rigged through “key strokes” on a computer in the basement of the Fed. The rug beneath the stock market will be ripped from beneath the house of cards.

Basel II requires banks to adjust the value of their marketable securities to the “market price” of the security, a rule called “mark to market.” The rule has theoretical merit, but the problem is timing: it was imposed ex post facto, after the banks already had the hard-to-market assets on their books. Lenders that had been considered sufficiently well capitalized to make new loans suddenly found they were insolvent. At least, they would have been insolvent if they had tried to sell their assets, an assumption required by the new rule. Financial analyst John Berlau complained:

“The crisis is often called a ‘market failure,’ and the term ‘mark-to-market’ seems to reinforce that. But the mark-to-market rules are profoundly anti-market and hinder the free-market function of price discovery. . . . In this case, the accounting rules fail to allow the market players to hold on to an asset if they don’t like what the market is currently fetching, an important market action that affects price discovery in areas from agriculture to antiques.”

Imposing the mark-to-market rule on U.S. banks caused an instant credit freeze, which proceeded to take down the economies not only of the U.S. but of countries worldwide. In early April 2009, the mark-to-market rule was finally softened by the U.S. Financial Accounting Standards Board (FASB); but critics said the modification did not go far enough, and it was done in response to pressure from politicians and bankers, not out of any fundamental change of heart or policies by the BIS.

And that is where the conspiracy theorists come in. Why did the BIS not retract or at least modify Basel II after seeing the devastation it had caused? Why did it sit idly by as the global economy came crashing down? Was the goal to create so much economic havoc that the world would rush with relief into the waiting arms of the BIS with its privately-created global currency? The plot thickens

In these four articles, I have covered the origin of the BIS, the family who the Bible refers to as the “Synagogue of Satan” in Revelation 2:9 and 3:9. I have provided the history on how the Rothschild’s secured Swiss “Neutrality” assuring the House of Rothschild remains above the law in all of this. You have more than enough knowledge about how the House of Rothschild has become the center of the world’s money supply, all of which is created out of nothing.

The bottom line of all this is the world is at the precipice and transition to the “Cashless Society” in the form of what the Bible calls the “Mark” of the Beast. As Catherine Austin Fitts shared in Part 2, the Central Bankers pressed the “Reset” button to transition the world into the Rothschild Global Plantation. In simple terms, “human enslavement” is a matter of months away! You are already under the lockdown of Jesuit Dr. Anthony Fauci’s in the requirement to wear the useless face masks that are detrimental to one’s health. The mask is your submission to what comes next!

First, the mask. Then, the mark.

Resist like your life depends on it.

Mark of the Beast Rev. 13:16-18

The news on this is not all negative, there is a ray of light in all this chicanery and “winner take all” game of Monopoly being played for real with real assets and Bible-believing Christians will be delivered from this Global Enslavement, metaphorically called a “Reset”. The House of Rothschild represent Lucifer’s last hurrah!

1. God has reserved Daniel's 70th Week, especially for dealing with the Zionist House of Rothschild, along with all of those who embrace the Anti-Messiah, Prince Charles of Wales. Even as we see the world devolving into chaos and destruction, Prince Charles prepares for his debut on the world stage as the Masonic Messiah. Skeptics can read the evidence in Part 6 of the "The Satanic Talmud and the Synagogue of Satan" - [PDF]

The Satanic Talmud & The Synagogue of Satan

Doubt it not folks, those of you who have doubted the Bible, the offer of Salvation, and those who have sold their soul to Lucifer for mammon are doomed at the end of the day of the Lord's wrath. The hour glass of time is about to run out forever. The prophet Ezekiel said it so loud and so clearly.

"They will throw their silver into the streets, and their gold will be treated as a thing unclean. Their silver and gold will not be able to deliver them in the day of the LORD's wrath. It will not satisfy their hunger or fill their stomachs, for it has caused them to stumble into sin." -(Ezekiel 7:19).
