

This is a Test

Dr. David E Martin recently joined Mike Adams during this latest phase of the Plandemic, in which tens of thousands of First Responders are being forced to resign and in which several large businesses and labor unions putting up a fight against this insane tyranny.

Dr. Martin is the CEO of M:CAM. Dr. Martin has presented some 4,000 patents on the so-called Covid-19 virus is nothing more than the common cold virus that has been weaponized by the CCP and U.S. government health agencies, that the virus was patented more than twenty years ago. He has provided the evidence for a RICO crime to the law suits filed against the World Health Organization by the International Trial Attorney German attorney Reiner Fuellmich. Dr. Martin's expertise in patents and proprietary property has made him a lightning rod against the hoax scandemic / plandemic the world has been subjected to for nearly two years. His recent interview with Mike Adams, the Health Ranger brings out a hidden agenda in which the elite of the world have subjected the world to a "Test", a test of how far they could push the public before the public would recoil in "Push Back!" You should pay close attention to what he has to say in this article. Since most of you are not Constitutional scholars, it will be in your best interest to know how the WHO and world elite are exercising a Psyop against humanity and pushing their bully pulpit approach upon the entire world to enslave you by submission without a fight.

KNOWLEDGE IS KING

"We have a situation where it's very clear that the plans that were laid out by the World Health Organization in the 'World at Risk' scenario for the Global Preparedness Monitoring Board in September of 2019 – and for people who haven't read it, I encourage you to read it because this is the playbook. We are playing through the whole playbook.

THIS IS A TEST

“What we’re trying to do is we’re trying to see exactly how far people will respond, on what level of motivation. So we started out with the pretend, ‘Oh, this is for your neighbor’s interest, this is for your grandmother’s interest.’ So we appeal to some of that familial guilt and shaming – and we got a certain number of the population that way – and then, we upped the ante, we decided that when grandma doesn’t work, we’re going to free beer and donuts, so we did the incentive play and we saw a number of states do the lotteries and the financial incentives and everything else, and Mike, this has been a market test.

“It’s a market test and it’s always been set up as a market test. That’s why I remind people, we don’t have to interpret the facts, we just have to read the facts. This was a market test to see at what level, what threshold we start getting pushback.

“And at each level, you saw, we hit a moment where we got the free donut people went, and then we got the donuts and beer people went and then we got the donuts and beer people and lottery tickets went and if you go back to the beginning of this pandemic, remember it started on cruise ships...

“It’s not surprising that we started the pandemic on cruise ships, because if you’re targeting a population, you want to target a population that was almost willing to dream – and see that we can destroy their dreams...”

COMPROMISING THE JUDICIARY

“And so we’ve done the whole continuum [i.e. playbook] and the last straw to fall – and as you know, President Biden made his statement about any employer of over one hundred people has to do the mandatory vaccines. This is now, going after, the assault of something that’s been around since 1217. This is an assault on the charter enforced in the Magna Carta. This is an assault on whether you have the right to a livelihood.

“And now, what we’re doing is we’re saying, unless you defile the sanctity of your life, you are not entitled to the right of livelihood. And the good news is, as you just said, we have now, poured into concrete the resolve of those people who are saying, ‘Hey, we aren’t going to fall for the donuts and the cruise ships and the lottery tickets or anything else and we weren’t going to fall for the restaurants. There’s not a restaurant in New York or LA worth violating the integrity of your body. I don’t care what the restaurant is, no restaurant in New York or LA is worth it.’

“We go through all this and we’re at the last ditch, which is, ‘I’m going to take your livelihood, unless you actually bow the knee to a belief in a technology, which has had an 80-year run and that run is over.’...”

“This was never about a virus or a public health issue or a pandemic or anything else. This was about a social cover story – and I said this in ‘Plandemic: Indoctrination’ – this is a moment of cognitive dissonance where we’re being asked to remember 2020 as a justification for a shift in the way the world is supposed to work.

“And what I love about this moment, Mike is that vaccines were just the foil. It’s a technology that’s being used to play a game: ‘How far can we indenture a population? How much deprivation can we have in that population, before the population draws a line under ‘enough’? And the great news is I think we got there.

“I do not believe – as much as the CDC wants me to – I do not believe that we’re close to 60% vaccinated. I think we’re a lot lower than that number and the fact of the matter is, if you look at New Zealand, New Zealand had to admit that they’re not even at 50% And this is for a locked-down nation that allegedly got everybody.

“What we know is that the effort to suppress humanity is actually backfiring and actually, what’s happening is we’re galvanizing a stronger resolve, not weaker...to further distance ourselves from accepting another one of these things.”

Mike Adams agrees. “Amen to that. The backlash against the blatant irrationality of what people are observing – for example, who, in their right mind, as a hospital administrator in the middle of a claimed pandemic say, ‘This is the time to fire all the nurses with natural immunity!’ What sense does that make?”

EXECUTIVE ORDERS CAN ONLY BE DIRECTED AT A FEDERAL AGENCY – NOT AT A PERSON

Dr. Martin then gets into another aspect of the PSYOP: “We take what we know is Federally illegal – we’ve got to remember this – President Biden’s Executive Order has no bearing on any individual. Let me say that one more time: The Executive Order has no bearing on any individual, because an Executive Order – by law – can only be a directive to a federal agency, it can never be a directive to a person.

“So what happens is, what we’re trying to do is actually trying to subordinate all of the order of actual legal practice, to see how much of the thuggery that the establishment wants to do, can be done by the henchmen called ‘employers’, called ‘healthcare workers’, called ‘public health officers’.

“What we’re actually doing is a cunning abuse of the way the Commerce Clause was set up, the way the entire structure of our country was set up. We’re using this cunning abuse to say, ‘We can’t do it but we’re going to wink-wink, nod-nod, suggest and insinuate that this is a thing that should be done, and we’re now going to see whether or not, under the guise of legality, do willfully illegal acts.

“Bear in mind, there is no law that allows any federal agency...to use any one of the current injections. And the reason, Mike is because under the law that allows for compulsory vaccination or compulsory medicine – even in the military – you have to have had an approved Institutional Review Board of that study that included safety data that included animal studies.

“None of these clinical trials had any safety data. So, there is no legal IRB ...and every single one of the clinicians and every single one of the scientists who have been involved in this process know they are violating the law and this is a way to get blackmail and dirt...this is a fraternity hazing done badly.

“It is to see how many people can get dirt on each other so that for the rest of time, you will all know – every time you shake a hand, every time you see each other at a convention, you’ll know you were complicit in an evil act and because it’s your secret and their secret and everybody’s secret, you’re going to pretend like it didn’t happen...”

YOU CANNOT COMPEL PARTICIPATION IN A CLINICAL TRIAL

“The CEOs of all the airlines are violating the law...You cannot compel participation in a clinical trial under any circumstances. It is illegal to do that. It’s a violation of the law and every airline CEO who has done that has violated Federal Law. They are participating in what is effectively Domestic Terrorism and War Crimes. And those are the laws that cover these actions.

“When you compel someone against their will or when you coerce someone against their will into a behavior, those are Domestic Terrorism and War Crimes violations. Those are felony violations and so, he’s [Southwest CEO Gary Kelly] admitting on CNBC to violating Federal Law.”

Mike asks him, “Why are these CEOs, in your opinion...making themselves vulnerable to the prosecutions that must be coming for the crimes that they are admitting to carrying out on camera?”

Dr. Martin responds, “One of the things that I have found fascinating is that we have had, in this pandemic such clear and egregious violations of federal and state laws. We have the CDC putting together PowerPoint presentations for its own employees, pointing out that the very famous last turn-of-the-century Jew Ho v. Williamson case...which essentially said that you cannot quarantine a healthy population. That’s a Supreme Court decision. You cannot quarantine a healthy population.

“But do you realize that the only case we ever hear about in the Mainstream Media are Jacobson v. Massachusetts, which allegedly gave rise to allegedly justification for valid vaccine mandates. If you read what that case is...you can either get a vaccine or pay a $5 fine. That’s the Jacobson Case! The Jacobson Case did not establish that vaccines, for the rest of time are legal...”

“We are willfully emasculating the judiciary and I’m going to say this really precisely. If you take the judiciary offline, it’s a very powerful thing to do, because the judiciary is the public’s point-of-access to address grievances against the government...Having a compromised judiciary closes the door to the public getting redress for their grievances.”

THE “CHIP SHORTAGE”

Dr. Martin thinks the vaunted chip shortage is part of the script. “I don’t think we have any chip shortage, I think we’re designing chips that play into what is going to be the digital and e-economy, where the control of who we are and what we do and what we experience is based on an intermediated decision-making process that says that your access to things, whatever they are, which include, by the way, what you have in your home, what you have in your car, where you can travel.

“Things that are being done are not chip shortages, absolutely. We didn’t have a fab facility go down that can’t start up, what did do is we actually have engineering manipulation of chips right now that is altering the experience going forward and we are...actually redesigning the communications protocol and we’re redesigning the actual physical architecture, so that we have the ability to turn on and off, make access to or remove access from each individual, so that the command-and-control systems that people have desperately wanted to see in place can actually be implemented.”

Most of you are oblivious to how the educational system has been used to dumb down the population of this country. That did not happen overnight, it has been in the works for a very long time. Everyone complains about the government, but few bother to do anything about it. If you have a computer or access to a computer, you are only a few clicks away from making your legislator pay attention that you will not submit to the tyranny being applied illegally to disenfranchise you of your freedoms and rights. Stand up and speak up. Take back what belongs to you under the Constitution and the Bill of Rights, or lose them and become a communist slave like those in China.

Members of Congress are demanding answers from White House medical adviser Dr. Anthony Fauci after it came to light that his agency funded experiments that included cutting the vocal cords of beagle puppies to silence their cries. Researchers also locked beagles in cages overnight in the desert to use them as bait to attract sand flies.

The letter noted that as director of NIAID, Dr. Fauci had directed $1.68 million in taxpayer money to fund medical testing on at least 44 beagle puppies in 2018 and 2019.

An invoice sent to NIAID included a line item for “cordectomy,” a procedure in which the animal’s vocal cords were slit “to prevent them from barking, howling or crying,” the letter said.

"This cruel procedure, which is opposed with rare exceptions by the American Veterinary Medical Association and others, seems to have been performed so that experimenters would not have to listen to the pained cries of the beagle puppies. This is a reprehensible misuse of taxpayer funds."
