

Vaccines Deliver Graphene Oxide Nanotubes for 5G Mind Control

What I am about to share with you may seem so science-fiction but I can tell you from my on-going study of wireless energy and what it can do is so alarming that I hesitate sharing it with folks. I will share it as a warning for those of you have been hesitant about taking the Vaxx. This will answer the question as to why Joe Biden wanted 70% of the nation vaccinated by July 4th, at this point not likely to happen on his time agenda!

I have tried to warn family members about 5G and what the Vaxx agenda was all about but in their eyes I am an old man who does not know much. I have only been studying and researching wireless communication since 1996. I was researching and studying this technology long before it was being censored on the Internet. I have written 90 articles on 5G, all posted on my web page www.pastorbobreid.com. I have written over 80 articles on Covid-19 and the Corona viruses. What I am about to share with you I saw coming more than twenty years ago. It's all about killing you! Killing you quietly!

them. Apparently this weapon was used on Iraqi soldiers during the first gulf war. Silent Sound can be transmitted through ordinary radio or television carrier frequencies. Only a speaker is necessary. But Silent Sound cannot only convey suggestions—it can transmit cloned emotions!

An article by Judy Wall entitled, Psy-Ops Weaponry Used In The Persian Gulf War, which appeared in the October/November 1998 issue of Nexus Magazine, stated, “Subliminally, a much more powerful technology was at work: a sophisticated electronic system to ‘speak’ directly to the mind of the listener ... and artificially implant negative emotional states—feelings of fear, anxiety, despair and hopelessness.” Shockingly, the article continued, “This subliminal system doesn't just tell a person to feel an emotion, it makes them feel it; it implants that emotion in their minds” by the transmission of “cloned emotional signatures, the result is overwhelming.”

Silent Sound can also be piped through the V2K medium and transmitted over a distance, according to retired engineer and Targeted Individual Eleanor White. So this means that subliminal messages can be transmitted over a distance, through walls, directly into a person's skull. In essence, into their subconscious mind. “All schematics, however, have been classified by the US Government and we are not allowed to reveal the exact details,” stated Edward Tilton, the President

HIGH TECH PSYCHOLOGICAL WARFARE ARRIVES IN THE MIDDLE EAST
(March 23, 1991) ITV News Bureau, Ltd. EAST DHAHRAN, SAUDI ARABIA

During the first Gulf War, the U.S. military deployed technology that resulted in the surrender of 150,000 Iraqi through the use of advanced brainwave communication through geophysical directed energy weapons mind control. The Iraqi soldiers said they were hearing voices that Allah was telling them to throw down their weapons and to surrender. The media reported the events but were unaware of what was being used in achieving to get Saddam's army to surrender. It worked like a charm!

Let's now jump forward three decades to where we are today!

Spanish researchers say that graphene oxide nanoparticles found in Covid vaccines are compatible with neurons and other brain cells. Nanotubes of grapheneoxide search and become attached to synapses. What did he say?

Building on last week's findings, two Spanish researchers believe that the "secret nanoparticles" found in Covid vaccines are nanotubes of graphene oxide. Say what?

The Andalusian biostatistician Ricardo Delgado who hosts an online program called La Quinta Columna. (the fifth row) and his partner Dr. Jose Luis Sevillano (a family doctor) analyzed the undeniable magnetic phenomenon present in most vaccinated people.

They found that graphene oxide nano particles are actually compatible with neurons and other brain cells. Nanotubes of grapheneoxide search the synapses and attach to them.

Graphene nanoparticles were excitable through frequencies-generating behavioral changes in the subjects. To be more exact: graphene nanoparticles find resonance in the frequency of 41,6 GHz microwaves of the 5G technology. I'm confused you are thinking! Bear with me as this is going to be easier than you may think!

Subjects inoculated with graphene oxide nanoparticles can be manipulated mentally by tuning into different frequencies inside the 5G wireless ranges. They can feel, think and see feelings, thoughts or things that don't actually exist. They could develop fake memories or delete real existing memories.

Even without a fully-enabled 5G network, people have reported they feel strange after taking the jab. Other studies say graphene nanoparticles are responsible for covid associated symptoms and blood clots.

The scientists maintain that the global vaccination program is an excuse to cage mankind into a dangerous covert global transhumanism program that will end in a catastrophe for the human race. In previous articles I shared similar information that suggests 5G is part of a cyborg world of part human part artificial intelligence.

5G is supposed to be fully enabled in July-August 2021. In order to stop the whole inoculation program, they call the people who suffer from this magnetic disorder to report it to doctors and health authorities. The Vaxx program will continue, count on it!

These conclusions are supported by other scientists and graphene producers (Graphenea Inc. and Nanografi) as well as research projects like Graphene Flagship, Project BrainSTORMS, the Obama Brain Initiative and DARPA.

An astute observer noted these comments:

*"No one is asking why people are becoming magnetic or even getting large iron build-ups post vaccines. I am making the connection which may be unpopular; here is another part of the puzzle. When the sh*t show started in March 2020, a lot of effort went into silencing, censoring the top of 5G, or written another way Penta-G which logically spells Pentagon. The agenda is a depopulation genocide, the bioweapon delivery system is these untested gene therapy vaxes. People are speculating about death by blood clots, and gradual degradation of health by top up vax shots leading to death within 5 years or more."*

"The purpose of changing your metal ionic balance, hence magnetism is to alter the bodies electro-chemical make-up. Our bodies are transmitters and receivers of electro-magnetic radiation. To alter the balance is to make us more or less susceptible to external energy inputs."

"5G is not about the internet of things; it is a military grade weapons system. They are building a kill grid, when energy inputs have been targeted very specifically to a larger area such as town or city, then to smaller area of a district, even smaller area to specific streets or buildings, and with pin point accuracy to a building, exact locations of buildings and even a targeted individual in the building."

"The symptoms of radiation sickness from 5G are respiratory difficulty, flu symptoms, altitude sickness which fits covid-19 symptoms. When an area has been mass vaccinated, the 5G frequency can be altered to kill frequency to cause mass deaths."

"The vaxed are walking targets for a mass culling with 5G weapon systems. The Wuhan area had mass vaccinations, then the 5G grid activated, then rapid deaths. In this information war disinformation has been spread to send you off scent or not to make the connection. A reliable estimate in Wuhan is 20M mobile phone numbers ceased to exist, unpaid bills or the owners were no longer alive."

The writer's comments in the paragraph above were corroborated from various sources as early as February of 2020. We know the 14 crematories in Wuhan, China were burning bodies 24/7 for many months, and confirmed by satellite pictures of the smoke emissions well into summer of 2020. The writer continues:

"I am not privy to the full agenda. 5G radiation deaths and the link between Covid-19, 5G and the superconducting vaxes have not been expanded. So join the dots. The communist gulags and Nazi work camps have been replaced with "lockdowns" we imprison ourselves, mask obedience or defiance is the new star of Covid."

"The weapon delivery system is the vax shots; it will create many collateral deaths, but too slow for 90% depopulation by 2030. The mass gas chambers and incinerators are populations being purged with 5G radiation attacks, like a microwave gun killing people silently in the street or in their homes as they sleep."

“These evil Luciferian scum are in a race to deceive and enslave humanity, building the death grid to murder millions including their disposable order followers in Police, Military and Health mafia. In theory they have created a kill grid that in a single day could genocide 100M in the world by a flick of the switch. I have followed different commentators including Mark Steele from North East in England, UK. 5G truth is the least discussed topic in mainstream and heavily censored in alternative media to stifle its discussion.”

Like the writer, I have also have followed experts like Mark Steele and Barry Trower for over ten years, two of the foremost experts in radar and wireless energy. After the Gulf War, my son once told me the military was fifteen years ahead of civilian technology applications. Today, you probably have GPS in your car because it first was what the military used to navigate the deserts of Saudia Arabia and Iraqi in 1990 and 1991. Eighteen satellites—six in each of three orbital planes spaced 120 degrees apart—and their ground stations formed the original GPS system. Using these man-made "stars" as reference points to calculate geographical position GPS is accurate to a matter of meters. More advanced upgrades can now even make measurements to better than a centimeter, or slightly smaller than a square inch.

The 5G satellite system will have at least eight companies and governments competing to send up fleets of from 150 to 42,000 satellites each. SpaceX, based in the United States, has plans for 42,000 satellites, is already launching 60 at a time, twice a month, and is developing a larger rocket that can launch 120 at a time. Elon Musk, CEO of SpaceX has confirmed that 800 satellites have been positioned in LEO or low earth orbit.

The FCC gave approval to SpaceX on March 29, 2018, to launch 4,425 satellites into low orbit around the Earth at approximately 320 mile from Earth. The total number of satellites that is expected to be put into low and medium orbit by several companies will be five times an original estimate of 20,000 satellites. 100,000 5G satellites will be akin to a space fence surrounding the planet! A prison planet is a better label!

5G uses Phased Array Antennas to shoot beams of radiation at cell phones back here on Earth. These satellites will use the same type of phased array antennas as will be used by the ground-based 5G systems.

This means that they will send tightly focused beams of intense microwave radiation at each specific 5G device that is on the Earth and each device will send a beam of radiation back to the satellite transceivers located in close proximity to all of humanity.

Previous generations of RF cellular communication used large antennas to send a blanket of radiation in all directions. The lower frequencies they used and the broad distribution of microwaves limited the numbers of cellular devices that could connect through an individual tall tower. 5G uses millimeter wave band spectrum, infinitely more powerful and more profitable as well.

The much shorter length microwaves used for 5G will make it possible to use small phased array antennas to send and receive signals wirelessly.

Phased array antennas consist of clusters of hundreds of tiny antennas that work together to shoot a ray of energy at a target just like a bullet. A cluster of these tiny antennas can be arranged in a 4 inch by 4 inch matrix.

The rays of microwaves they produce will be strong enough to pass through walls and human bodies. If they were not strong enough to do this, then everyone with a 5G smartphone would have to stand outside when using the devices. The energy level can be as low as 4-GHz but most will be in the 30-GHz to 300-GHz range to provide a strong signal beam. This is where it becomes dangerous to all life forms on earth.

Each 5G product will also have multiple phased array antennas which will be used to create a powerful beam of radiation back to the 5G devices mounted on electrical utility poles or toward a specific satellite in space.

These beams of radiation will also need to be strong enough to pass through walls and human flesh such as a hand or head to reach the intended destination.

This means that if you are in a crowded location, such as an airport or on a train, there will be hundreds if not thousands of invisible beams of radiation flying through the environment at the speed of light.

As people move about in that environment, their bodies will be penetrated by numerous beams of radiation as they walk or as other people walk around them with their 5G smartphones.

5G phones will be much more powerful than previous phones. The effective radiated power of the 5G phased array antennas in phones will be 10 times more powerful than 4G phones. Even more powerful when it comes to data download!

No one will be free from exposure to 5G wireless EMF.

In addition, 5G beams of microwave radiation will be received and transmitted from new computer equipment, household appliances, and automobiles. One estimate sees the number of devices connected to the 5G network as growing from 2.2-billion to over 5-billion in the next five years.

Stationary equipment such as Wi-Fi hubs in homes and offices will be permitted to use microwave beams that are 15X times stronger (300 watts) than the signals from 5G phones or 150 times stronger than 4G phones.

Why is 5G so much more dangerous than previous microwave communication systems? This is where the public is facing extinction without knowing much about the new technology.

Dr. Arthur Firstenberg, author, researcher, and advocate for limiting RF or radio frequency exposure from the environment, explains the analysis of 5G radiation that was published in 'Microwave News' in 2002. He stated: "When an ordinary electromagnetic field enters the body, it causes charges to move and currents to flow."

But when extremely short electromagnetic pulses enter the body [5G], something else happens: the moving charges themselves become little antennas that re-radiate the electromagnetic field and send it deeper into the body.

These re-radiated waves are called Brillouin precursors. They become significant when either the power or the phase of the waves changes rapidly enough.

5G will probably satisfy both requirements. This means that the reassurance we are being given—that these millimeter waves are too short to penetrate far into the body—is not true. This deception narrative has been slowly exposed by people waking up to the effects of wireless energy on the human body.

5G satellites will fill the skies and all life form on earth will be bathed 24/7 in an invisible soup of wireless energy.

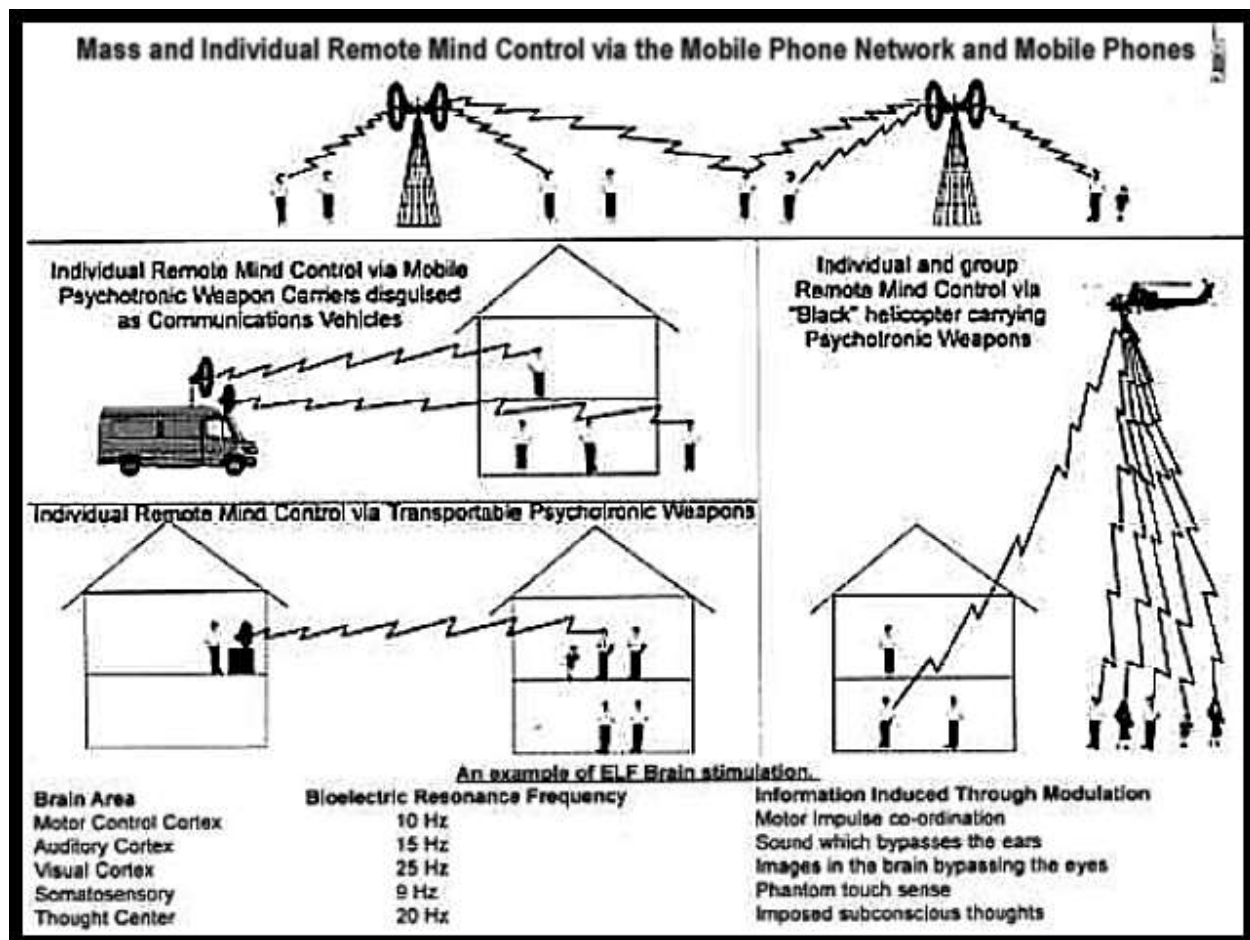

These are the companies with the biggest plans to deploy satellites:

- SpaceX: 12,000 satellites
- OneWeb: 4,560 satellites
- Boeing: 2,956 satellites
- Spire Global: 972 satellites

Between the telecoms AT&T, Hughes, T-Mobil, and Verizon, it is estimated that conservatively speaking, 100,000 satellites will circle the planet. We don't have data for other nations.

I have been investigating wireless energy for a long time, since the debut of the cell phone. My interest grew out of a newspaper report in the McKeesport PA 'Daily News' back in the fall of 1996. Two pages were devoted to a story about the collapse of bee colonies in the U.S. A few days ago there was a news report that 2021 bee colony collapse hit a new record. So this is not an issue that began to occur this year. It first got attention back in 1996. The EMF from 5G is known to disrupt the ability of the bees to navigate. All birds and bees included depend upon the Earth's natural magnetic frequency of 7.83 Hz to find their way to and from their hives as they pollenate flowers and gather honey for the colony and human consumption.

All life is oriented to the natural magnetic field (Schumann Resonance) of 7.83 Hz, a subject well covered in the scientific community. Technology is destroying all life forms. The telecom industry has never done a single study to determining the safety of wireless energy's impact upon animal, plant, and human life. EMF is a major risk to all life forms on the planet.

The drawing above comes from declassified obsolete military documents of what was in the works going back to the 1970s. The U.S. CIA conducted MKUltra for several decades, and probably long after they officially shut down the mind control research. Brain control work dates to the late 1950s up through the mid-1970s. Psychotronic weapons are legacy weapons of the CIA and the UK MI6.

The report just below was in a news article posted on June 23, 2021, as I was beginning this article on the potentials of wireless energy. What we are witness to is precisely what the book "Quiet Weapons for Silent Wars" set out to achieve. The U.S. Senate's actions validate a basic premise for 5G technology as a "weapons system!" This action by the U.S. Senate is a major acknowledgment of such things as 'psychotronic weapons', advancement and admission to the danger of Geophysical energy weapons. It will be a landmark decision in the days ahead. This is a huge admission that corroborates and validates my contention to the existence of exotic weapons.

US Senate Finally Admits that Neuroweapons Exist, Passes Bill to Help Diplomat-Victims / ALL The People Need Protection from Microwave Radiation Exposure!

Posted on June 23, 2021

In a reversal of the established commentary that those claiming victimization by electronic weaponry are crazy and delusional, the U.S. Senate has passed a Bill authorizing payment to CIA and State Department officials who have been attacked by this kind of exotic weaponry. Recent news reports have detailed these attacks on U.S. diplomats in Cuba and China.

Dubbed “The Havana Syndrome,” it was recently reported that CIA personnel have also suffered such attacks in Europe and Asia.

Senate Bill 1828, the “Helping American Victims Afflicted by Neurological Attacks Act of 2021, or the HAVANA Act of 2021,” authorizes payment to qualified employees for brain injuries inflicted by neuroweaponry.

In a letter to the Bill’s sponsors, Senators Susan Collins and Jeanne Shaheen, former NSA analyst Karen Melton-Stewart asked the following question: “Did you know that you are actually accidentally excluding a large and significant body of victims... who need help NOW?”

In the letter, dated June 2nd and also sent to Marco Rubio, Mark Warner and others, Stewart asks the Senators to “Please write an all-encompassing piece of legislation to stop this horror of the exploitation of innocent people with Microwave Weapons (and other DEW Directed Energy Weapons) attacks...” Referring to the placement of many such individuals on the Terrorist Watch list, Stewart goes on to state that “Innocent

According to Stewart, she received a response from her Maryland Senator's office, which stated that questions were being tendered to President Biden about this issue, and urged her to keep sending information. Stewart stated, "that no response was received from Senators Collins, Shaheen, Rubio or Warner."

In the Tulsa World (1-11-94), there was a small article entitled: "Weapons Designers Win Secret Award".

"The Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory won an award. The staff is very proud. The award is on display. But, they can't say what the honor was for. It's a secret. Its 21 member 'Project Woodpecker' team was cited. It won the Intelligence Community Seal Medallion.

PROJECT WOODPECKER

- modify weather
- create or trigger earthquakes and volcanoes
- spread viruses
- create the phenomenon known as "electromagnetic pulse"
- modify behavior control among the populous

And, many of them here in the U.S. are able to tie into the much smaller GWEN (Ground Wave Emergency Network) remotely controlled transmitter sites that have been built all over the U.S. in a grid pattern, with their antennas spaced about every 200 miles or so.

The original research concerning the "Electron Cyclotron Resonance Heating Method" was done by Nikola Tesla, and later expanded upon by not only Soviet scientists, but also by U.S. scientists, such as Bernard J. Eastland - a scientist who was associated with ARCO (Atlantic Richfield Oil Co.).

ARCO has traditionally been controlled by members of the CFR (i.e. Council on Foreign Relations).

Eastland, who was the "front man", died a few years ago, in 2007.

- He transferred the patent rights to APTI, Inc. (i.e. ARCO Power Technologies Industry, Inc.) in the late 1980s, which was a Los Angeles, CA subsidiary of ARCO
- APTI, Inc. then sold out to "E-Systems" on June 10, 1994, which company has pretty much, over the years, been under the control and influence of the CIA
- On April 3, 1995, "E-Systems" sold out to the still larger Raytheon Corp

Today, HAARP is operated by the University of Alaska. The U.S. and the Soviet Union first began secret cooperation on world weather engineering in about 1971. On July 4, 1976, the Soviets began generating powerful electromagnetic transmissions that were dubbed "The Russian Woodpecker" by western ham radio operators.

The Russian Woodpecker was used against the American embassy in Moscow and several ambassadors developed brain cancer and died. The U.S. Marines and staff went so far as to cover the glass area of the embassy with aluminum foil in order to reduce the low-frequency radar beamed into the building.

On June 18, 1977, the U.S. government OFFICIALLY became covert partners with the Soviets in these operations by sending them sophisticated scientific material and equipment for further research and development.

Russian Woodpecker signal

The secret code name given U.S. operations was Project Woodpecker.

The Lawrence Livermore National Laboratory located at Livermore, CA was and is the main research center for U.S. development of the Project. Covert funding for the Project was funneled through the CIA and the National Security Agency. The DOD and NASA have, of course, been cooperating in the Project from the beginning stages.

On January 10, 1985 there was officially filed of record a Patent No. 4,686,605 entitled: a "Method and Apparatus for Altering a Region in the Earth's Atmosphere, Ionosphere, and/or Magnetosphere". The Patent was approved on August 11, 1987. This Patent explains and describes the "Electron Cyclotron Resonance Heating" method that is presently being covertly and cooperatively used by the two super powers to help bring about their coveted NEW WORLD ORDER, which is a "One World Government". Note the words "used by the two super powers to....."

The current drought in the western U.S. is not from natural conditions. There is a weather war going on around the world. One of those battle fronts is the western portion of the U.S. My suspicion is that the rains in China last year and this year are a consequence of this weather war. I believe the U.S. is trying to break the Three Gorge River Dam in China. Even now heavy rains from the Himalayan Mountains are flooding China's over 100 rivers that feed into the Yangtze River. China's 2020 agricultural production was reduced by 80% in order to release the water pressure on the dam and caused flooding downstream and 2021 appears to be a repeat attempt to break the dam. The Three Gorges Dam is a hydroelectric gravity dam that spans the Yangtze River by the town of Sandouping, in Yiling District, Yichang, Hubei province, central China, downstream of the Three Gorges Dam. The Three Gorges Dam has been the world's largest power station in terms of installed capacity (22,500 MW) since 2012.

In 1993, researchers announced that they had discovered (back as early as perhaps 1985) a never before seen network of atmospheric rivers, some of which flow for thousands of miles ABOVE the earth's surface, that transport as much water in the form of vapor as the Amazon River. Apparently, these narrow streams of ATMOSPHERIC rivers are transient, but at any given time, there are at least a few of them in the atmosphere, typically around five in each Hemisphere. Dr. Peter Kirby in his book 'Chemtrails Exposed: The New Manhattan Project' deals with the geophysical means to change the Earth's weather.

The longest of these atmospheric rivers runs for about 4800 miles. They are generally about 150 miles wide (the largest being almost 500 miles wide), and about a mile deep, with some 364 million pounds of vapor flowing past a given spot each SECOND---which is comparable to an average flow of the Amazon River. These atmospheric rivers are flowing at an altitude of no more than 1.9 miles above the earth's surface, which makes them readily reachable by low pressure weather cells. Years ago, the U.S. Air Force declared it would own the weather by 2025. They actually have done it much sooner than 2025.

In general, the atmospheric rivers head for the poles, but on the way, they can get deflected by the earth's Jet Stream. Their flow originates from along the equator. These vapor rivers sometimes get sucked into low pressure systems, and are the major sources of the massive flows of water that rains out of the storms and into the sky river's counterparts on land. HAARP has been used to change the direction of these atmospheric rivers.

In order to fully understand how the conspirators are able to use high powered radio frequency transmissions to trigger earthquakes and/or volcanoes, one must have some knowledge of the, "principle of sympathetic vibratory resonance".

Von Nostrand's SCIENTIFIC ENCYCLOPEDIA (Seventh Edition) defined RESONANCE:

"Every physical system (i.e. all bodies, structures, mediums, etc.) has one or more NATURAL (or Fundamental) VIBRATION FREQUENCIES, characteristic of the system itself and determined by constants pertaining to the system. If such a system is given impulses with some arbitrary frequency, it will necessarily vibrate with that frequency, even though it is not one of those NATURAL to it."

These "forced vibrations" may be very feeble, but if the impressed frequency is varied, the response becomes rapidly more vigorous whenever any one of the NATURAL (i.e. Fundamental or a harmonic of that Fundamental) frequencies is approached.

Its amplitude often increasing many fold as an exact synchronism (i.e. or at a harmonic of the NATURAL) frequency is reached. This effect is known as RESONANCE. The greatest vibration will be induced in a system at its NATURAL or FUNDAMENTAL frequency (or at a harmonic thereof).

The Earth's NATURAL (or Fundamental) frequency (also sometimes referred to as the Schumann Resonance) is about 10 Hz. (More precisely 7.83 Hz.)

This appears to be the Resonant Frequency of our Galaxy, so, all bodies, structures, mediums, etc. within our particular Galaxy will be found to be RESONANT at either this Natural frequency or around 10 Hz, or at a harmonic thereof.

In the triggering of Earthquakes or Volcanoes, the trick is in determining the unique resonant frequency of the Earth's mantle AT THAT PARTICULAR SPOT (or target!) on the Earth. Radar Tomography has been used to detect pools of oil and natural gas for several decades.

Once the conspirators determine this, they can unleash an ELF carrier frequency through the earth, and then SUPERIMPOSE the harmonic frequency of the "target zone" using a second set of transmitters.

This might be called: "Selective Targeting". Of course, the conspirators will also have predetermined that the target zone will have built up enough stress within the zone to be "ripe" for activation. This system of using ELF radio waves as a technique has many other applications.

Not only is it being used:

- to artificially trigger earthquakes and volcanoes
- to develop high and low pressure weather cells that are used to steer the Jet Streams
- to transport and deposit microscopic entities such as viruses and chemical agents
- to create a phenomenon known as an earth damaging "electromagnetic pulse" (EMP)

To understand how they do it, one must have at least some knowledge about the earth's magnetic field.

The earth's magnetic field is comprised of atoms which are gyrating about a magnetic field line as its guiding center. The atoms are comprised of negatively charged electrons and positively charged protons. If you would look at a cross section of earth at the equator, you would see a solid core at the center, ringed by a liquid layer of molten iron, which is in turn surrounded by the solid mantle and crust.

Within the liquid layer are several constantly circulating streams of iron called convection cells which work like oval conveyor belts.

Driven by heat from the core, material in these cells rises towards the mantle, where it cools and sinks back down, until the heat pushes it up again. Geologists believe that after these cells formed, early in the earth's history, the weak magnetic field that permeates the galaxy generated in them an electric current which in turn generated the earth's "magnetic field".

Now, in order for you to understand how the magnetic field lines of our earth work, you must understand the basic principal of how a simple "magnet" works. And, the way that most of us learned it back in our earlier school years, was WRONG WRONG WRONG! There is an "old concept" and, a "new concept" of the laws of magnetism.

In the "new concept", you will note that there is a "NEGATIVELY charged NORTH MAGNETIC POLE, and, a POSITIVELY charged SOUTH MAGNETIC POLE." (Draw it out on a piece of paper).

The atom leaves the South Magnetic Pole spinning to the right (or clockwise). It then dips to the surface of the earth (at its Equator), and changes its spin (or phase relationship) by 180 degrees. When it leaves the Magnetic Equator of the Earth, it travels with a left (or counterclockwise) spin to re-enter the earth at the North Magnetic Pole.

Douglas Vogt in his book, 'God's Day of Judgment: The Real Cause of Global Warming' says the Earth has been getting warmer since the 1890s. According to Douglas Vogt, our Sun nova's on 12,068-year time cycles! Current global warming is caused by our Sun's increase in output before the Nova occurs. Doug Vogt exposes the man-made global warming is wrong, and that we are headed for another polar reversal that will occur in October, 2046. At that time, our Sun will nova, the Earth will stop its rotation for approximately 8 hours and then rotate in the opposite direction. This action will cause a great flood, like the one described in Genesis. A great deal of ocean water will be evaporated during the nova. The water will quickly fall back to the Earth, first in the form of hot rain, then snow – thousands of feet of snow.

Douglas Vogt's book may be one of the reasons behind the report of (DUMB) Deep Underground Military Bases we have heard so much about for more than two decades.

Getting back to the electric magnetic poles, the negatively charged electrons and positively charged protons both follow helical paths around a field line, but they rotate at a certain gyromagnetic or 'CYCLOTRON FREQUENCY' in opposite directions. There is therefore linear movement along the Earth's magnetic field lines.

Thus, one can see, that this change in phase relationship between electrons and protons creates a different potential of magnetic energy in the Northern as compared to the Southern Hemisphere. By way of analogy, winds in low pressure weather cells circulate counterclockwise in the Northern Hemisphere, but they circulate clockwise in the Southern Hemisphere.

When side-by-side earth magnetic field lines are "altered" by speeding up one line's flow of negatively charged electrons, the magnetic field strength will combine to form a larger and stronger field. If the electron flow around one line is reversed or slowed down, the magnetic field strength between any two lines can be made to oppose each other and tend to cancel or lessen the magnetic field strength. The "force of gravity" in that particular local can thus be made to increase or decrease.

The atmospheric media that is being crossed by the earth's magnetic field lines is itself comprised of various molecules whose elements have different energy levels and which gyrate at different frequencies.

Relatively recent discoveries have established that there are naturally occurring radiation belts (sometimes referred to as the Van Allen belts) of trapped ionized particles, which particles bounce or oscillate back and forth at a specific cyclotron frequency, between so-called magnetic mirror boundaries, along the earth's magnetic field lines.

The scientific conspirators have also discovered that they can artificially increase the density of the charged particles within these radiation belts, and even create a radiation belt where none had existed, by injecting large clouds of gases - such as lithium, barium, hydrogen, etc. - from orbiting satellites or from earth launched rockets. These injected gases become ionized by the ultraviolet light of the sun, and by injecting them at a certain critical velocity.

The procedure is enhanced when they are injected during periods of so-called "high tidal forces" - such as at New or Full Moon. And, when the Moon is at "perigee" and/or when it is over the "Equator". Also, when the Sun is directing large Solar Flares and/or Coronal Ejections towards the Earth!

By using extremely high powered radio transmitters to transmit a "tuned" circular polarized ELF radio wave along or parallel to selected earth magnetic field lines, the charged electrons within that radiation belt will become "excited" or "heated". This causes the charged particles to move outward in a "plum" out of their mirrored boundaries. The plume of heated rising plasma is replaced by new plasma within the radiation belt.

The aforementioned Patent states that temperature within the target radiation belt can be raised by hundreds of degrees, which incidentally is sufficient to cause an air glow or a phenomenon known as aureole borealis. This might be the only way that you might know that such covert operations are taking place.

There may also be a sonic boom or noise that might occur from the referred bombardment.

To continue: The kinetic energy of the moving particles so developed is on the same order of magnitude as the total kinetic energy of stratospheric winds known to exist. These changes in temperature and winds aloft gives rise to the creation of high and/or low pressure weather cells that can alter the paths of the earth's Jet Streams.

By using multiple transmitters, these weather cells can be made to move or hover over selective locations on earth, thus causing torrential damaging moisture to occur in some areas, while devastating droughts are made to occur in other areas.

When the electromagnetic energy is suddenly released (by DECREASING the earth's magnetic field strength along that specific earth magnetic field line), the low pressure cell with its rising plume of air can be made to collapse - thus dumping the high winds and moisture that was present in that particular cell.

This would be called a microburst by the weather guys reporting on your local TVs. These damaging hurricane strength winds would be "straight line winds".

When the referred bombardment of a target radiation belt is extremely powerful, the negatively charged electrons and positively charged protons can be forcibly made to separate. This will cause an earth damaging electromagnetic pulse to occur that is very similar to lightning.

This EMP will couple to surface antennas and power transmission lines, which will destroy sensitive electronic equipment. Thus, power outages can be so induced over selective targets.

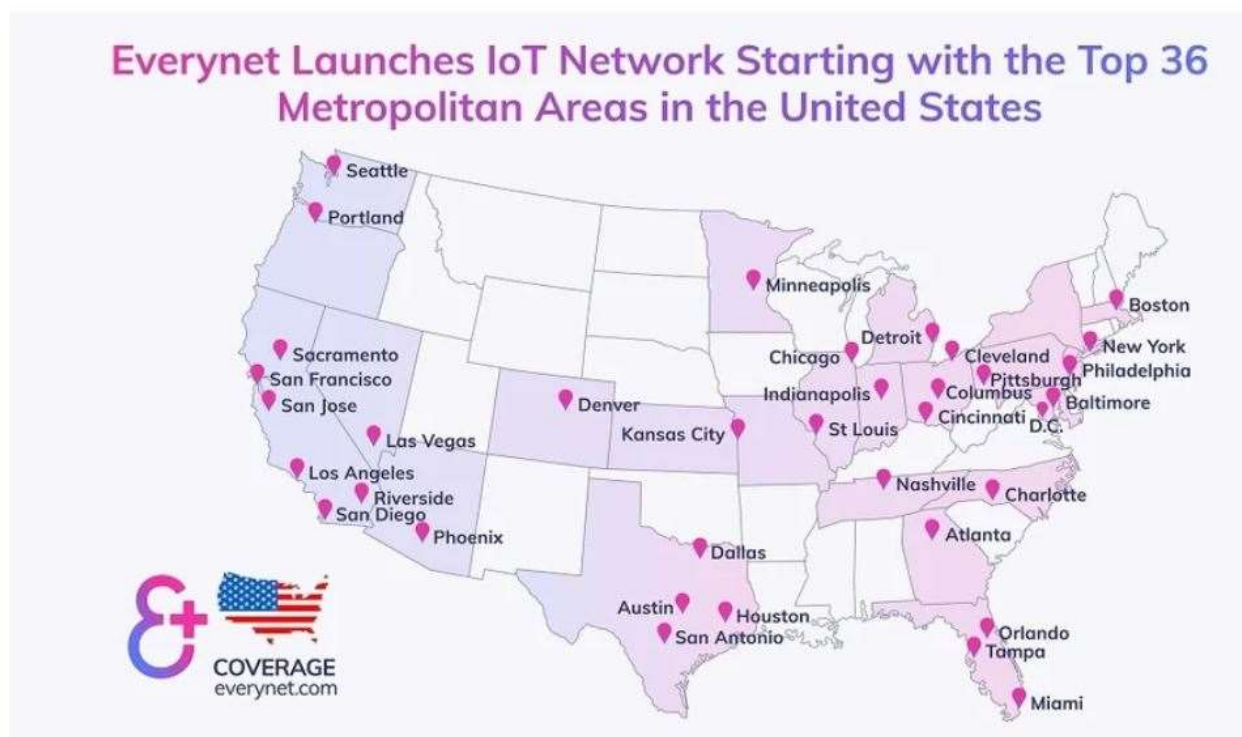

The 'Tulsa World' letter above is very important because of its content, it contained open public information at the time of its writing in 1994, but would be classified content in today's world of information secrecy . Note the specifics involved back twenty years ago on pages 10 & 13.

All of this information is well-known by those scientists sympathetic with the globalist agenda in the employment of the globalists and the Klaus Schwab World Economic Forum, including the Antichrist himself, Prince Charles of Wales outside of London at Surrey, UK. The UK home of the Pilgrim Society, the Rhodes Roundtable groups, manipulates the former British colonies in a way that such will one day lead to the return of the British Union. When we think of or mention the term UK or United Kingdom, it is for all intent and purpose the possession of the House of Rothschild's financial dynasty.

The American Intelligence Media for several months focused upon the Pilgrim Society, which goes back to Cecil Rhodes at the turn of the 19th and 20th centuries when the sun never set on Britannia and the British Empire ruled the world.

Most people will not understand that 5G is largely a spiritual issue, over and above the practical applications. This is not to say that the existence of wireless energy is not real. On the contrary, we are dealing with the Prince of the Air referred to in Ephesians 2:2. As I bring together the various threads of this science you will begin to see how these elements coalesce together in a way to expose their global goal to wipe out humanity, if not to validate the premise of the Georgia Guidestones located in Elberton, GA.

5G goes full power in the next few months, as early as July/August, 2021, and no later than the end of the year, in the U.S. and most countries around the world.

Everynet expects to go live by the end of this year.

Crown Castle enables Everynet's national IoT network. Everynet, which bills itself as the world's largest operator for national LoRaWAN networks, announced its plans for launching a LoRaWAN IoT network in the U.S.

Everynet is using Crown Castle's tower assets, initially targeting the top 36 metropolitan areas and key corridors across the U.S. It's expected to go live by the end of 2021. One of the operative words used to describe the new offering is "carrier grade," and yes, it will be competing with the IoT networks offered by wireless carriers in the U.S. In fact, wireless carriers could even become customers of Everynet, which expects to serve mobile network operators, MVNOs and ISPs....

Of course, Everynet can step in where some of the cellular 2G and 3G networks are stepping back. Like a lot of IoT solutions, it sees an opportunity to fill in where cellular operators are switching off old networks to make way for newer generations. Estimates vary, but by some accounts, 70 million devices are out there and in need of homes....

June 21, 2021 | Cheryl Scheurer, PhD | WireCalifornia_Source |

I'm Dr. Cheryl Scheurer. My PhD is in Business Administration and Financial Management, and I've been working through my TV show and podcasts for nine years to promote the safety of life and property – the exact purpose of the Telecommunications Act, under which AB.537 falls, but which AB.537 violates. As a fourth-generation Californian and a direct descendant of Charles Cotesworth Pinckney, one of the signatories of the U.S. Constitution, I also intend to ensure that our federal and state constitutions remain intact. However, AB.537 is clearly in violation of both, in offering an open-ended contract for FCC to do whatever it may want in perpetuity, even though the Telecom Act Conference report states any attempts by FCC to further preempt state and local authorities, "should be terminated".

. NOT hazardous wireless broadband deployed far too close to homes and, using excessive power. You must abide by Title 47 U.S.C. §324, Use of Minimum Power, which states:

“In all circumstances . . . all radio stations. . . shall use the minimum amount of power necessary to carry out the communication desired.”

Yes, every Wireless Telecommunications Facility is a fixed radio station with frequencies licensed from the FCC. Section 324 applies.

When a home in Sacramento had a so-called small cell Facility constructed 60 feet from their second story bedroom in 2019, four things happened:

1. The power inside the bedroom was professionally metered at 30 million times higher than needed for 5-bars telecommunications service. This is excessive and not the minimum power needed for communication.
2. The 3-year old and 6-year old girls sleeping in that room were sick within three weeks. They were diagnosed by their doctor with microwave radiation illness.
3. The family was forced had to spend over $15,000 to shield their home to address this child endangerment caused by the permit issued by the City of Sacramento
4. The family permanently lost the quiet enjoyment of their street and lost the use of their front yard.

There is no basis for AB.537 to saddle California with draconian deemed approved state laws which go far beyond the FCC guidance and preference. To be within the law, vote NO on AB.537.

I accept and appreciate your oaths of office.”

In the aforementioned testimony, four specific issues were noted and resulted in the placing of a 5G transmitter close to a home. Because of 5G's need to have point-to-point seamless signal strength, wherever it is installed, a transmitter will be needed approximately every other home or about 300-feet.

Every late model cell phone has a GPS chip in it. If you're paranoid about the ability of authorities to find you using your cell phone, you might want to be sitting down: The FCC required that cell phone service providers and Voice over the Internet Protocol providers ensure their products meet stricter standards for location accuracy that currently apply to phones with GPS capability. The FCC intended for these standards to be implemented beginning after 2019. Providers will be able to choose either a handset-based system (imbedded GPS type chip), a network-based system, or a hybrid of the two.

Devices that are not GPS-enabled must be tracked via triangulation with local cellular towers, a time consuming process that can only give an approximate location and can dangerously delay critical assistance. The new regulation will allow almost universal pinpoint location of 911 callers by emergency responders. No date was given for when non-GPS enabled devices must be discontinued, but given FCC estimates that by 2018, 75 percent of all mobile devices will be GPS capable, it is likely that the assumption is the sun-setting of obsolete devices will occur naturally as consumers chuck outdated gadgets for shiny new ones.

There may be interesting legal aspects to the new rule. In addition to increased safety for accident or crime victims, the regulation will affect all mobile phones, including pre-paid phones that don't require users to create accounts. This will make it possible for Law Enforcement agencies to locate people via mobile device regardless of service provider or phone model, and finally bring reality into full CSI/NCIS-compliance.

What anyone with a GPS chip in their cell phone needs to recognize, you are a walking target. Your cell phone becomes a homing device for wireless energy “bullets” aimed at the bull’s eye on your back. 5G wireless technology is a sure way to kill a person with an invisible bullet and no smoking gun evidence to prove from where it was fired. I have pointed this out in other articles in which I address the concept of Electroporation, which beams an invisible potentially a lethal dose of radio-frequency to organs deep inside the human body. 5G EMF wireless energy fully meets the requirements of a weapon that globalists were seeking to obtain as noted and the focus of the 1954 globalist publication ‘Silent Weapons for Quiet Wars’.

During the 1975 Senate Church-hearings, Senator Frank Church exposed the CIA “heart attack” gun that did similarly what I have described, except it quietly fired a poisoned toxin-tipped dart up to a hundred yards. CIA Director William Colby was on the carpet for the rogue CIA activities during those hearings.

Moving forward in time, we are confronted with what appeared recently in print: “Mad Science – Luciferase, Crispr, mRNA, What Could Go Wrong?” The opening remarks by a pair of very sharp intelligent Spanish researchers have provided us on a topic few of us knew anything about.

Published on June 26, 2021 and written by the Marshall Report. The technical language is complex but not too long. The big picture is what you need to be aware of relative to how it fits into the larger frame of reference to eliminate much of the human species. For those who doubt Covid was hoaxed to initiate global depopulation, all I can say is to watch what happens in the near future, two to eight months!

MICHAEL OSTERHOLM: The Man at the Center of OPERATION COVID
As CIDRAP Director, His Resume Tells It All
Submitted by Covid Crime Investigation Team
SOTN Exclusive

Michael Osterholm is the current Director of CIDRAP (Center for Infectious Disease and Research Policy) which was established in 2001 and is a Regents Professor at the University of Minnesota. He is also the McKnight Presidential Endowed Chair in Public Health, Teaching Professor with the Division of Environmental Health Services, Professor in Technological Leadership Institute College of Science and Engineering, as well as occupies many other key accredited positions.

Mike Osterholm is also an advisor to the CDC, WHO, NIH, FDA, DOD. He has advised various Presidents and foreign leaders such as the late King Hussein of Jordan. He was appointed to the National Science Advisory Board on Biosecurity by Michael Leavitt, Secretary of HHS in 2005.

In October 2008, Osterholm was appointed to the World Economic Forum working group on Pandemics. From 2001-2005, Osterholm was the 'special advisor' to Tommy Thompson, and in 2002 was appointed by Thompson to be his representative on the interim management team to lead the CDC. After Julie Gherberding was appointed director of CDC in 2002, Osterholm assisted in her transition, which was completed in January of 2003. He was the principal investigator and Director of the NIH-supported Minnesota Center of Excellence for Influenza Research and Surveillance from 2007-2014.

Osterholm has written many books and published many papers in 'JAMA', 'Lancet' and others influential medical journals. For example: The Compelling Need for Game-Changing Influenza Vaccines by Michael T. Osterholm, PhD, MPH.

Osterholm has been the International leader on biological agents targeting civilian populations. He's the past president of CSTE (the agency responsible for the surveillance of this pandemic for the CDC). He's also a member of ASM, IOM, IDSA, ASP, CEIRS, CLF, IVR, PPAC, COBRA, UNCOVER, VEIDOH.

CIDRAP is a Consortium Member Centre. Funding comes from many sources including the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, Wellcome Trust, The Carlsburg Foundation, Bush Foundation, Walton Family Foundation, Merck and Co, CDC Foundation, Mayo Foundation, Leaker Foundation, WHO foundation, CEPI, and many others.

How does someone with these accreditations, history, knowledge, experience go unnoticed? How is Michael Osterholm not in charge of pandemics, but they put fall guy Tony Fauci out front?

Michael Osterholm has been involved in more simulation and table top trainings than Dr. Fauci and Bill Gates combined. Everything from Atlantic Storm. to Spars 2025-2028, and everything in between.

Osterholm is responsible for changing medical language to fit epidemiology language, (i.e. “asymptomatic” in medical language it means healthy; in epidemiology it means a person who is a transmitter that doesn’t show illness.) Language matters!

The WHO did their first scenario with Osterholm’s help called “Disease X”; we’re still in it! Mike Pompeo came out in the beginning and said this was a live simulation and hardly anyone even noticed.

Now we have graphene showing up in the injections. Mike Osterholm just happened to start a business as a partner — using taxpayer funding — called Grip Molecular, which just happens to make graphene products. <https://www.gripmolecular.com/news/>

Mike Osterholm was the first one to receive the call about a “pandemic”. He was also instrumental in the pushing out the highly defective PCR test. How convenient for a lifelong Big Pharma vaccine representative who relentlessly pushes the Covid vax from behind the curtain.

Osterholm ordered synthetic RNA from IDT in Iowa. They specialize in synthetic genes. They are also the only company used by CDC for primers and probes. There’s only a certain group of labs that could process the tests, and they all get the reagents needed from the same companies. There has never been an isolated and purified virus; everything has been synthetic. On the CDC website, it states that no laboratory should try to isolate and purify the virus. You can guess why!

It should also be pointed out that Bill Gates has been much more than interested in Chromosome 8, which is the gene found in every human being, that is also the synthetic gene in the primer supplied by IDT.

Truly, Minnesota is ground zero for many things throughout the COVID-19 Plandemic. How do you spell: MAYO CLINIC?!?!?!?

Lastly, it should also be pointed out that Michael Osterholm is a Freemason, and sits on the board of the Council of Foreign Relations. That’s a nice way to wrap up a picture-perfect résumé for a member of the NWO globalist cabal carrying out the GREAT RESET. The GREAT RESET, of course, is directly related to the aggressive prosecution of the never-ending “War on Killer Germs”.

The CFR and the CIA were linked at the hip when it comes to the world of geopolitics and intelligence. David Rockefeller was instrumental in the creation of the CIA back in 1947. In all of these NGOs, the Rockefellers play major roles when it comes to policy, objectives, finance, and direction. Jay Rockefeller, senator of West Virginia sits on the Senate Intelligence Oversight Committee. DARPA and the CIA are deeply involved with all aspects of science and technology when it comes to cutting edge technology. DARPA stands for the Defense Advanced Research Projects Agency. DARPA and CIA sit at the pinnacle of anything related to climate geo-engineering.

14:12: “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!”

The luciferase gene from the firefly, Photinus pyralis, was used as a reporter of gene expression by light production in transfected plant cells and transgenic plants.

A complementary DNA clone of the firefly luciferase gene under the control of a plant virus promoter (cauliflower mosaic virus 35S RNA promoter) was introduced into plant protoplast cells (Daucus carota) by electroporation and into plants (Nicotiana tabacum) by use of the Agrobacterium tumefaciens tumor-inducing plasmid. Extracts from electroporated cells (24 hours after the introduction of DNA) and from transgenic plants produce light when mixed with the substrates luciferin and adenosine triphosphate.

Light produced by the action of luciferase was also detected in undisrupted leaves or cells in culture from transgenic plants incubated in luciferin and in whole transgenic plants “watered” with luciferin.

Although light was detected in most organs in intact, transgenic plants (leaves, stems, and roots), the pattern of luminescence appeared to reflect both the organ-specific distribution of luciferase and the pathway for uptake of luciferin through the vasculature of the plant.

Firefly Luciferase mRNA (ARCA, 5-moUTP) expresses luciferase protein which is initially extracted from firefly Photinus pyralis. The enzyme catalyzes ATP-dependent D-luciferin oxidation to yield oxyluciferin, a singlet-excited compound that emits light when returning to its ground state. Firefly Luciferase is a frequently used bioluminescent reporter for gene regulation and function study. It is applicable in assays for gene expression, cell viability and in vivo imaging etc.

Our Firefly Luciferase mRNA is provided at a concentration of 1mg/ml, it is ARCA capped, polyA-tailed and incorporated with modified nucleotides. The capping of ARCA (anti-reverse cap analog) ensures high translation efficacy. Poly (A) tail plays an important role in enhancing the efficiency of translation initiation. The addition of 5-moUTP and poly (A) tail suppress RNA-mediated innate immune activation and increase the stability and lifetime of the mRNA in vitro and in vivo.

Magnetofection™ is a novel, simple and highly efficient method to transfect cells in culture. It exploits magnetic force exerted upon gene vectors associated with magnetic particles to draw the vectors towards, possibly even into, the target cells. In this manner, the full vector dose applied gets concentrated on the cells within a few minutes so that 100% of the cells get in contact with a significant vector dose. This has several important consequences:

- Greatly improved transfection rates in terms of percentage of cells transfected compared to standard transfection.
- Up to several thousand fold increased levels of transgene expression compared to standard transfections upon short-term incubation.
- High transfection rates and transgene expression levels are achievable with extremely low vector doses which allows to save expensive transfection reagents.
- Extremely short process time. A few minutes of incubation of cells with gene vectors are sufficient to generate high transfection efficiency, compared to several hours with standard procedures.

Magnetofection™ Reagents

As the manufacturer of the Magnetofection™ technology, chemicell offers two types of ready-to-use Magnetofection™ reagents.

PolyMAG is a universally applicable magnetic particle preparation for high efficiency nucleic acid delivery. It is mixed in a one-step procedure with the nucleic acid to be transfected and has been used successfully with plasmid DNA, antisense oligonucleotides and siRNAs.

CombiMAG is a magnetic particle preparation designed to be combined with any commercially available transfection reagent such as polycations and lipids and can be associated with plasmid DNA, antisense oligonucleotides, siRNAs or viruses. It allows you to create your own magnetic gene vector based on your favorite transfection reagent.

I know this is a complex topic for the unscientific mind, yet that is precisely why one needs to understand the implications of taking one of the many Vaxx being given for the non-existent Covid virus. One needs to recognize and treat it as one of the technical aspects of the “Mark” of the Beast technology. I wrote about this in one of the last segments of my series “666/999, 5G, Mark of the Beast and the UPC Code.

What can be used for good has reached Frankenstein proportions in pushing mankind into transhuman goals for mad scientists who want to see what happens when they do it. Transhumanism is mingling of man's seed, turning them into a cyborg creation of the man/beast, controlled by man, soulless, a mind controlled robotic thing. This is all way above any human's pay grade to understand. The one fact that is clear to understand is MAN IS PLAYING GOD producing man-made souless creatures and they have now crossed the line of health and fitness into creation of monsters.

Transhumanism is the globalist RESET future for humanity. This is “as the days of Noah” and in the end, God will destroy all of it – forever. Like it or not, this is where we are. Behold, this is what they do.

A couple years ago I was researching Brucellosis Mycoplasma, I found links to Linda Emmanuel. Back in 2015, Linda Emmanuel wrote a short piece for the magazine 'The Healthy Planet', a St. Louis publication. Linda Emmanuel lived in St. Louis County and once did a series of podcasts, and then she dropped completely from the scene. Her web page was taken down, and all of her podcasts removed. She discussed in most of those podcasts the roll out of 5G and its "kill zones", stating that 5G would be used to reduce the world population by invisible wireless energy.

Perspective: What Is Mycoplasma

By Linda Emmanuel

Mycoplasma are the smallest living organisms, even smaller than viruses. Mycoplasma are so small that they can cross the blood-brain barrier. A mycoplasma is the DNA strands of a bacterium, encased in a membrane. Since it has no cell wall, it is parasitic, needing a host for survival. There are 100+ species of mycoplasma. Some attack plants and some attack animals. Mycoplasma and other bacteria flourish in an acidic pH. Mycoplasma membrane is made of fat and sugar, which it needs to replicate.

Do mycoplasma have a purpose?

When I was a child, I remember my parents warning me, “Don’t touch that dead cat! You’ll get sick!” They were right. That dead cat was full of anaerobic disease-causing bacteria, blowfly larvae, yeast and mold, all breaking down the body.

What awakens mycoplasma?

An event—some kind of emotional or physical trauma awakens mycoplasma which monitors your immune system, your pH and the oxygen level in your body. Ask anyone who is sick if they suffered a trauma before they got sick and they will always answer, “yes.” They might say, “I got a divorce,” or “I lost my job,” or “My spouse died.” Extreme stress can cause your body to go into “fight or flight” mode, and your body becomes “acidic” (pH).

Depending where you are genetically weak is where mycoplasma attacks. Doesn't the lion attack the weakest zebra? Mycoplasma will always take the path of least resistance, attacking degenerative and/or damaged cells first. That's their job, breaking down “weak, defective or dead” tissue, except the host is very much alive.

Mycoplasma Infections:

Alzheimer's, Parkinson's, leukemia, non-Hodgkin's lymphoma, diabetes, multiple sclerosis, rheumatoid arthritis, lupus, colon cancer, breast cancer, lung cancer, prostate cancer, lymphoma, Irritable Bowel Syndrome, Crohn's, psoriasis, Carpal tunnel, chronic fatigue, fibromyalgia, heart disease, cataracts, Grave's disease, hormonal imbalance (depression, loss of libido and unable to sleep), Lou Gehrig's disease, scleroderma, urinary tract infections, kidney failure, pancreatic cancer, brain cancer, asthma, and many more.

About the Author:

In 2001, Linda was disabled with lupus, Crohn's, fibromyalgia, RA, and chronic depression. In 2003 she found out about mycoplasma and in 2005 she found an effective treatment. After just two treatments, she was no longer sick. Flex is the only wellness center in the St. Louis area using this protocol. This protocol kills staph, the Lyme spirochaete, and other disease-causing organisms.

The last podcasts Linda did was in the summer of 2020. The last podcasts I listened to were 107 and 108. They were aired in June, 2020, and were all about what the Globalists was planning for September and October, 2020. I was fascinated by what Linda Emmanuel had to say about Mycoplasma almost as much as what she shared about 5G and these “kill zones” to which she referred. I tagged mycoplasma as the “death gene”. It functions like composting as a decomposition factor living off the dying tissue of a dead rodent or animal.

Just about the time the World Health Organization declared the Pandemic, I began nightly listening to all of Linda's previous podcasts. I kept a pad checklist by my computer of all her podcasts as I became interested in what she had to say about Mycoplasma and the roll out of 5G. I had one e-mail conversation with her where I discussed my Lymphedema issue and our having Wi-Fi installed in our home. My leg issues began within a week of having Wi-Fi installed in our residence in 2010. My wife developed Tinnitus as well, a ringing in the ears.

My research suggests that wireless energy was attacking my legs through electroporation of wireless energy from a close-by cell tower. I managed to come up with a protocol of treatment whereby I could mitigate the wireless energy, through a combination of steps. Although I still have the Lymphedema problem, it has been under arrest from continued deterioration and further damage, the weeping of my lower legs has greatly diminished and I would go so far as to say that I believe it is being reversed. Back to the mystery of Linda Emmanuel and 5G technologies.

Linda Emmanuel published two books from what I found on Amazon, 'Alternative Revelations' and 'The Messenger'. I concluded that she was in her mid to late 60's age wise. In her podcasts she talked about someone call "Mish" in her pod casts as if he was an angelic being speaking for God with her. This "Mish" was helping her navigate through the 5G network being installed in St. Louis County, MO. At times I had the impression she was being stalked by individuals who were targeting to kill her with directed energy weapons. Because of the content of her podcasts, relative to 5G being used as a "Silent Weapon" to eliminate humanity, I thought she may have had psychic gifts from the content of her podcasts. This "Mish" or "Mosh" revealed to her by the Creator the globalist plan to eliminate seven billion people by "Depopulating" the world.

Now before you dismiss any of this, hang in there with me. I have been reading 'Chemtrails Exposed: A New Manhattan Project: 2nd edition' by Peter A. Kirby. This by far, has been the most informative book on Chemtrails to date. The book reveals that the hundreds of aircraft being used for spraying chemtrails are actually being flown remotely. Government agencies and the military have been flying aircraft and helicopters for more than seventy years by remote control. This fact explains why there has been very little revealed by pilots. Very few people are aware of this capacity of wireless communications application.

The author reveals that what is being sprayed over the U.S. and many countries is basically fly-ash from coal-fired power-plants. I had known that fact some five years ago from a source I had been communicating with in my home state of Pennsylvania. Peter Kirby's book confirms it as fact and reveals that the EPA is able to identify the location from which the original coal fly-ash originates. Who would have imagined that it is possible to identify the particular source location of the mined coal? But the EPA is able to do it!

Peter A. Kirby's discussion of drone or remote controlled Boeing KC-135, 707, C-141, aircraft handle the upper level of the aerial spraying, above 25,000-feet. Their capacity, air frame, and range enable them to meet tasks that Air Force C-130 Hercules cannot handle. The smaller aircraft such as the C-130s also equipped for remote flight, and used for aerial spraying operate below the 12,000-foot altitude range.

Five years ago I began researching patents and scientific abstracts looking for proof for much of what the science is able to do without public knowledge. We live in an electrical universe and the applications being developed marvel the mind. The HAARP facility in Gakona, AK is considered legacy technology today. There are at least a dozen "mini-HAARPs" around the world today. Even your local Doppler radar has the capacity to change your weather. I learned that from <https://www.dutchsinse.com> Dutch Sinse web site monitored seismic activity and weather patterns. He showed weather maps where Doppler radar would precipitate or cause rain to occur from the Doppler radar signals. The New Manhattan Project is all about owning and controlling the weather. It may be an aspect of destroying the planet intentionally!

Below and the few pages that follow are illustrations from patent information of what can be done with technology already on the shelf for many years. The surprise in my research was finding the 2009 patent drawing for an Army AR-16 rifle equipped with what is a smaller version of the Active Denial System, which the U.S. Army mounts on a Humvee platform or a 5-ton truck chassis platform.

Peter A. Kirby in his book, 'Chemtrails Exposed: The New Manhattan Project', is a huge chronicle history of the U.S. interest in the atmosphere, weather modification, and technology that has been utilized over the past eighty years. It identifies names, companies, agencies, working individually and collectively towards an agenda to control the planet and its air waves. I am only half way through the book, but what I have read so far, leaves no doubt in my mind that 5G is everything I have suggested and perhaps even more. All of the government entities such as DARPA, CIA, are deeply ensconced in this dark world of research and development to control the world and its inhabitants.

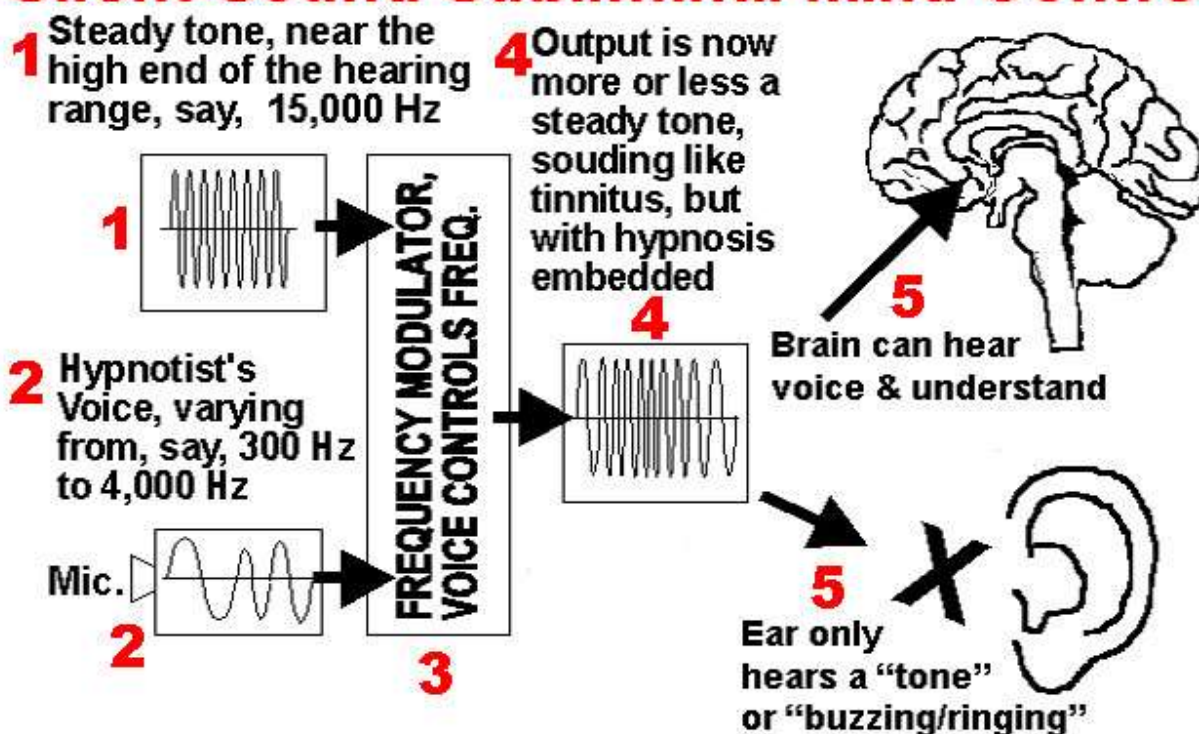

For those so naïve as to believe that this weapons system was originally produced for military purposes and would never be used against innocent civilians, I would simply remind you that humanity became expendable with the publishing of Paul Erhlich's book, 'The Population Bomb' published in 1968. The globalist powers through Agenda 21, Agenda 30, and every agenda put forth by the UN has been built upon on the idea of depopulation and sustainable development. This was the reason for the Rockefellers and the UN commissioning the Club of Rome. The only thing they are interested in is to protect their own hides in the efforts to poison the air, the water, and the food of the world with chemicals, pathogens, and biological weapons. Scientists working with viruses have like clockwork introduced a new virus (bioweapons) every two years beginning in 2000 A.D., all created for the purpose of depopulating the world.

In a series I began some time ago, "Depopulation #1 Global Issue Since 1968", Part 21 dealt with a historical chronological time line of our government's abuse of the public in its testing of biological, chemical, and nuclear weapons. Almost everyone has heard of the Tuskegee study of 1932, in which 400 black Americans were infected for observation purposes with syphilis and allowed to die slow torturous deaths for the purpose of documenting their demise. For a period of forty years, between 1932 and 1972, the genocidal Tuskegee Study continued. It was not until 1972, when one newspaper finally had the courage to break the story to the public, that the Tuskegee Study was finally terminated.

As Catherine Austin Fitts has shown along with Dr. Mark Skidmore at the University of Michigan, the CIA and its ilk have stolen at least $21-trillion dollars from the American public through black budgets and off-book theft. The nation is at a crossroads with a National Debt pushing $30-trillion and no visible means with which to pay that back. The government steals from you through inflation and taxation, and the politicians of both parties merely ignore the day of reckoning.

That day of reckoning really will come down to a point one day that will require them to get rid of the source of its stolen funds. They are unlikely to own up to their evil deeds and tell us they stole it and so what are you going to do about it? It will be so much easier for agencies of secrecy that operate rogue under national security and black operations to simply flip a switch that will result in global genocide, just as occurred in China in late 2019 where 21 million cell phone accounts were scrubbed from the records. That number of people do not simply give up their cell phones.

The latest budget for the Pentagon is pushing $800 billion and much of taxpayer dollars is skimmed off by graft, corruption, theft, waste, and poor products for the men who are called to fight the endless wars. A few weeks ago in May, 2021, the Pentagon budget was set at $752.9 billion dollars. A great deal of that money is wasted on technology designed to be used against the American public. Spying on the public is big time and it is illustrated in the bottom image on the next page. Almost every other week there will be a news article about the F-35's problems.

British Plans to Depopulate the World

If you had been following the American Intelligent Media narrative lately you might have noticed that their shared research with Americans4Innovation has focused on the British sources of the current “false flag pandemic” coronavirus. Their research led us to the doorsteps of the British company Pirbright who owns the patents for the Covid virus and the vaccine for the virus. Obviously, a clear case of a man-made biological weaponry created for the sole purpose of killing people – essentially depopulation or what the elites call “eugenics.”

Their reporting, always backed up by evidence, has shown who the British and ex-U.S. intelligence officers are who run these program – corporations like QinetiQ. And each time we look closer, we find more British corporations pulling the strings and hiding behind shell corporations who obfuscate the true sources of evil. But they have rooted them out, again and again.

To demonstrate just how blatant these people are with their killing sprees, genocide, and wars, and how proud they are of their accomplishments to kill millions through “germ warfare”, they present here just a few articles taken from the public domain to show that the British brag about being the best at killing with inoculations, vaccinations, and pharmaceutical “wonder drugs” – they hardly hide their crimes at all and often roll them up into a charitable trust so they don’t even have to pay taxes through the groups who are giving out “free shots” to the world.

The Germans, Russians, and Japanese were formidable germ warfare experts during WWI and WWII, but the British joined with the Americans and have cornered the market with many patents of man-made viruses that kill. So, we aren’t exaggerating at all when we say that we must sever all ties with the United Kingdom, end our “Five-Eyes” intelligence sharing agreement, end all SERCO contracts and end all associations with any British corporate intelligence or media group.” Until we cut the ties with the British monarchy, we still live under the thumb of an archaic system that protects the monarch and its elite aristocracy – including its Pilgrim Society branches in America.

Father of British “Germ” Warfare – Lord Fildes

From: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Paul_Fildes

“Sir Paul Gordon Fildes OBE FRS (10 February 1882 – 5 February 1971) was a British pathologist and microbiologist who worked on the development of chemical-biological weaponry at Porton Down during the Second World War. Fildes served as a lieutenant-commander in the Royal Naval Volunteer Reserve, stationed at the Royal Naval Hospital Haslar (1915–19) during the First World War. In 1919 he was made an Officer of the Order of the British Empire. After working at the London Hospital as an Assistant Bacteriologist he moved in 1934 to work at the Middlesex Hospital. He was also elected a Fellow of the Royal Society in 1934.

In 1940 Fildes was put in charge of a newly created department, the Biology Department, Porton (BDP) at Porton Down to study the defensive implications of a bacterial attack and there built up a team of microbiologists to study the use of biological weapons, including anthrax and botulinum toxin. An early project was the creation of a stockpile of a million anthrax impregnated cattle cakes to be used in a possible retaliatory attack. In 1942 it famously carried out tests of an anthrax bio-weapon developed at Porton Down at Gruinard Island. He also assisted with the anthrax strain tests on Gruinard Island, performing necropsies on the bodies of anthrax-exposed sheep, to determine if they had died as a direct result of anthrax poisoning. This work produced the world's first working anthrax bomb in the summer of 1942.

Fildes was known as the “father of germ warfare.”

“The Royal Society was the force behind the Puritan Pilgrims in America. At that time they were very involved in the promotion of what was termed ‘In-grafting’ which became known as inoculations. During the 1700s the term vaccination would be used, taken from the French for Cow. In-grafting was a procedure by which they took juice from a postal of pox or some such virus or disease, and then placing it in a legion on the arm or other part of the body they would study the results. This script would be a part of what they termed Enlightenment science. As a religious group they would push for the inclusion of Enlightenment Science into religion which would show itself in the rise of Harvard, specifically it's grouping of scientists allied to the Royal Society that formed Harvard grouping of colleges. The Royal Society is also responsible for the formation of Yale University in 1701 by Elihu Yale, at the behest of Puritan and Harvard medical scientist, Cotton Mather.

Meanwhile, in England, a new biology department is established at Porton Down with Fildes as its head. His initial research focuses on botulism and anthrax. Since 1916 more than 25,000 servicemen took part in tests at Porton Down, in the development of chemical weapons and also protective attire and equipment to prevent exposure. It is the longest-running program of chemical warfare tests on humans in the world.’

Porton is home to two Government facilities, a site of the Ministry of Defence's Defence Science and Technology Laboratory (Dstl) – known for over 100 years as one of the UK's most secretive and controversial military research facilities, occupying 7,000 acres. The laboratory's remit was to conduct research and development regarding chemical weapons agents used by the British armed forces in the First World War, such as chlorine, mustard gas, and phosgene.

When the Second World War ended, the advanced state of German technology regarding the organo-phosphorous nerve agents, such as tabun, sarin and soman, had surprised the Allies, who were eager to capitalize on it. Subsequent research took the newly discovered German nerve agents as a starting point, and eventually VX nerve agent would be developed at Porton Down in 1952.

In the late 1940s and early 1950s, research and development at Porton Down was aimed at providing Britain with the means to arm itself with a modern nerve agent-based capability and to develop specific means of defense against these agents. Tests were carried out on servicemen to determine the effects of nerve agents on human subjects, with persistent allegations of unethical human experimentation at Porton Down.”

History of Biological Warfare

From: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/History_of_biological_warfare

“In the United Kingdom the preoccupation was mainly in withstanding the anticipated conventional bombing attacks that would be unleashed in the event of war with Germany. As tensions increased, Sir Frederick Banting began lobbying the British government to establish a research program into the research and development of biological weapons to effectively deter the Germans from launching a biological attack. Banting proposed a number of innovative schemes for the dissemination of pathogens, including aerial-spray attacks and germs distributed through the mail system.

With the onset of hostilities, the Ministry of Supply finally established a biological weapons program at Porton Down, headed by the microbiologist Paul Fildes. The research was championed by Winston Churchill and soon tularemia, anthrax, brucellosis, and botulism toxins had been effectively weaponized. In particular, Gruinard Island in Scotland, during a series of extensive tests, was contaminated with anthrax for the next 48 years. Although Britain never offensively used the biological weapons it developed, its program was the first to successfully weaponize a variety of deadly pathogens and bring them into industrial production. Other nations, notably France and Japan, had begun their own biological-weapons programs.

When the United States entered the war, mounting British pressure for the creation of a similar research program for an Allied pooling of resources led to the creation of a large industrial complex at Fort Detrick, Maryland in 1942 under the direction of George W. Merck. The biological and chemical weapons developed during that period were tested at the Dugway Proving Grounds in Utah. Soon there were facilities for the mass production of anthrax spores, brucellosis, and botulism toxins, although the war was over before these weapons could be of much operational use.

In Britain, the 1950s saw the weaponization of plague, brucellosis, tularemia and later equine encephalomyelitis and vaccinia viruses. Trial tests at sea were carried out including Operation Cauldron off Stornoway in 1952. The United States initiated its weaponization efforts with disease vectors in 1953, focused on Plague-fleas, EEE-mosquitoes, and yellow fever – mosquitoes (OJ-AP). However, U.S. medical scientists in occupied Japan undertook extensive research on insect vectors, with the assistance of former Unit 731 staff, as early as 1946. The United States Army Chemical Corps then initiated a crash program to weaponize anthrax (N) in the E61 1/2-lb hour-glass bomblet.

Around 1950 the Chemical Corps also initiated a program to weaponize tularemia (UL). Shortly after the E61/N failed to make standardization, tularemia was standardized in the 3.4” M143 bursting spherical bomblet. This was intended for delivery by the MGM-29 Sergeant missile warhead and could produce 50% infection over a 7-square-mile (18 km²) area. Although tularemia is treatable by antibiotics, treatment does not shorten the course of the disease. US conscientious objectors were used as consenting test subjects for tularemia in a program known as Operation Whitecoat. There were also many unpublicized tests carried out in public places with bio-agent simulants during the Cold War.”

Cancer Epidemic Due To The Introduction of Viruses Through Vaccinations, SV-40 On Trial

This article tells the hidden history of the polio vaccine and the unintended consequences that led pharmaceutical companies to create vaccines that kill.

From: <https://thebridgelifeinthemix.info/history/cancer-epidemic-due-introduction-viruses-vaccinations-sv-40-trial/?fbclid=IwAR2d30exLOpksOBmCYhoEoPiuErhxMhZOQz3gbO-tqALa5pIHPQzTsWm8Yq#sthash.Gi6Wgffo.dpbs>

Between 65 and 95 million U.S. children received a cancer-laced polio vaccine in the 1950s and 1960s.

Not forgetting they were also aware of the dangers of injecting viruses into humans which they knew was the cause of cancers, tumors and leukemia, again is a clear indication we are not dealing with balanced caring empathetic human beings, we are dealing with paid up puppets of the pharmaceutical corporations, minds that never actually think about the results of their actions, they just keep on going in order their masters make billions in an industry that is self-perpetuating in that it procures more and more customers as more and more parasites and viruses are injected into humanity. This is the real core of the race war, it is the moneylenders of the entire world.”

Fort Detrick – US Home of Biological Warfare

From: https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Fort_Detrick

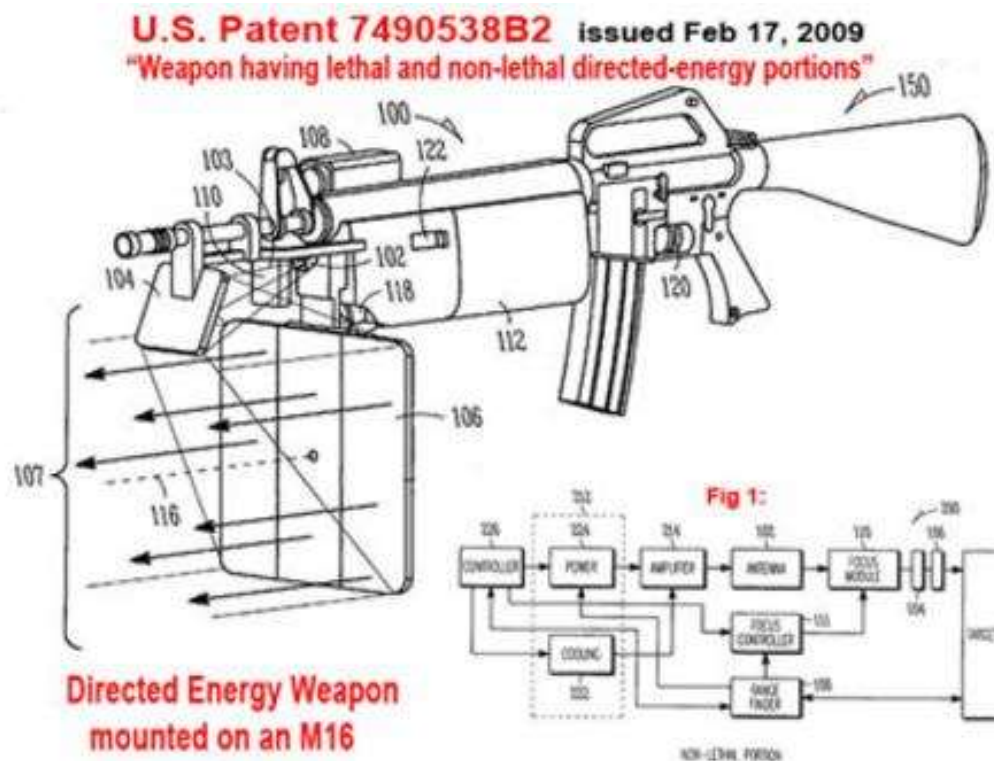

Fort Detrick is a United States Army Medical Command installation located in Frederick, Maryland. Historically, Fort Detrick was the center of the U.S. biological weapons program from 1943 to 1969. Since the discontinuation of that program, it has hosted most elements of the United States biological defense program.

As of the early 2010s, Fort Detrick’s 1,200-acre campus supports a multi-governmental community that conducts biomedical research and development, medical materiel management, global medical communications and the study of foreign plant pathogens. It is home to the U.S. Army Medical Research and Materiel Command (USAMRMC), with its bio-defense agency, the U.S. Army Medical Research Institute of Infectious Diseases (USAMRIID). It also hosts the National Cancer Institute-Frederick (NCI-Frederick)[1] and is home to the National Interagency Confederation for Biological Research (NICBR)[2] and National Interagency Biodefense Campus (NIBC).”

Using the illustration from page 31, and again below, you clearly see how the U.S. Air Force can track a target and eliminate that target as part of the Silent Weapons for a Quiet War. You must understand that this did not come about overnight. Documented proof exists to show this was part of a global plan to depopulate the world as early as the first meeting of the Bilderberg Group meeting in 1954 and possibly before that. From the declassified military documents of the 1970s, we know the ultimate goal was to weaponized wireless energy against the general public, foreign or domestic!

Military Active Denial System And 5G Wireless Radiation Connection – Shocking!

By Dr. Bob Morr posted on April 25, 2018, August 14, 2019 Updated on August 14, 2019.

5G is a high-frequency high-density wireless radiation in front of our homes emitting 90 billion waves per second to our body and cause all kind of health effects. The 5G waves are shorter that is the reason why they can penetrate our skin and affect our inner organs.

The 5G Frequency band ranges from 24 to 90 GHz.

The government is still lying to us how 5G is perfectly safe. Why is at the same time military using the same frequency for crowd control as a biological weapon. The biological weapon is called Active Denial System. This same frequency range from 24 to 90 GHz is capable of delivering serious harm and even death to a target.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Active_Denial_System

The army claims that active denial system has a range of nonlethal capability. It is being used for protesters, groups of unruly people or riotous crowd. It only penetrates 1,64th inch of your skin and affects your nerve receptors. Military claims there is no permanent damage caused by it. Most people described it as a hot oven or grill being opened up. It is designed to incapacitate enemy combatants with an unnerving nonlethal sensation of intense heat.

The military claims that active denial system has three features. It is safe, highly effective and has a tremendous range.

Active Denial System uses almost the same frequency as 5G that is coming soon to our homes.

The military truck that is equipped with an active denial system emits 100 kW of the radio frequency beam. It is operated by a joystick and an operator. The beam of wireless radiation is highly targeted and focused. When the operator detects the troublemaker he just blasts him with a high-frequency microwave radiation. The microwave radiation travels from the source to the individual at the speed of light. It can travel very far. In an army demonstration video, the range was 3 football fields.

Microwave Ovens and Active Denial System Biological Weapon

Active denial system radiation is similar to microwave oven radiation. They both work on the same principle. The water molecules that are being targeted become excited and heat up.

The military claims that active denial system is different from microwave ovens because it only focuses on a specific frequency and only affects the top layer of our skin by using the frequency of 95 GHz. That is highly misleading as to be disarming resistance.

Read about 5G danger here....

Remember 5G frequency ranges from 24 to 90 GHz. So basically the government is building the active denial system antennas around our homes which is tremendously stupid and dangerous. On one side the military is using it to disperse the troublemakers, and on the other side will use almost the same frequency for the wireless network.

The military claims 95 GHz frequency reaches only 1/64th of an inch into the human body and that is the outermost layer of the skin. It is equivalent to three sheets of notebook paper. It affects the pain nerves in the outermost layer of our skin heating them up and causing immediate repeal effect. But who believes government/military these days? They lie to us all the time.

People who experienced an active denial system claim, that it's like somebody opened a very hot oven door. This causes people to freak out and try to get out of the way of the microwave beam.

Active denial system was used in the Afghanistan war of 2010. The government plans to use this weapon on prisoners to break prisoners fights. The burns from an active denial system are similar to microwave burns but only on the skin surface due to shorter waves of active denial system.

Even insurance companies do not cover the houses and people living in them from wireless radiation, same goes for asbestos. That means that the wireless radiation health effects are something you cannot get insurance for. It is treated the same as asbestos from insurance companies. Something you can't get insurance from. VERY INTERESTING:...

Although the effects are described as simply "unpleasant", the device has the "potential for death". – – – -Hambling, David (October 10, 2008). "Army Orders Pain Ray Trucks; New Report Shows 'Potential for Death'"

Do people really get side effects from 5G antennas?

We did a 5G interview with a resident in Geneva, where 5G towers are already turned on. He experienced some adverse health effects right after the 5G was turned on in Geneva Switzerland. He experienced tinnitus, strong heart palpitations. He had to go to medical checkup just to confirm his heart is ok and he is not having a heart attack.

Dr. Barrie Trower, the leading microwave weapon expert who worked in the British Navy said the following: "The rollout already started in Vienna, the unsuspecting people immediately suffered from nosebleeds, cardiac problems, chest pains, fatigue, dizziness, vomiting in fact all of the symptoms of microwave sickness ... known since 1932."

"The USSR experimented on humans and animals with 5G in 1977, 1972 and 1997, in a proper military experiment. The humans suffered metabolic problems, i.e., everything started to fall apart, blood problems, immune system dysfunction, severe medical and neurological problems. With animals, since they were able to dissect them, they found the bone marrow was suffering (which produces the immune system), respiration damaged, enzyme activity damaged, nuclear DNA damaged, and the total exposure time was only 15 hours over 60 days. Roughly 15 minutes a day and the levels were not high. Not as high as you are going to get in a classroom.” Dr. Barrie Trower

And here are a few reasons why you should listen to Barrie Trower and not the government:

- He was trained at the Governments Microwave Warfare establishment in the 1960's in the UK
- He was employed as a Secret Service as a microwave weapons expert for the British Royal Navy
- He helped in de-briefing spies trained in microwave weapons in the 1970's
- He worked in the underwater bomb disposal specialist unit which used microwaves
- He is properly educated and has a degree in physics (specializing in microwaves), a research degree and a diploma in human physiology.

The above picture of the Army's ADS system is mounted on a five-ton truck chassis. The picture on the next page is that of a turret mounted ADS system on the Stryker platform. The last picture below that is the ADS on a Humvee vehicle. Though touted as non-lethal, there is nothing about the 24-95 GHz frequency that is non-lethal. Videos the military use to demonstrate the effects are most likely dialed down to a modest heat beam, likely to be between 12 and 20 GHz.

One of the most important aspects of 5G wireless energy is that when it is modulated up to the 60GHz range, it will consume 98% of the blood-oxygen in the lungs, and results in instant death. This has been proven in lab experiments and has been done in Wuhan, China when CIA/MI6 agents posing as military participants in the World Military Games in Wuhan, China in the fall of 2019.

The Wuhan, China "smart city" 5G network was hijacked by CIA/MI6 agents posing as military participants at the World Military Games. As a Pirbright Institute passed over the Wuhan area, the CIA and MI6 agents hijacked the Wuhan base stations, initiated a technical glitch, "modulated" the 5G transceivers up to 60 GHz. Anyone with a 5G phone in the target zone was hit with an invisible "bullet" of 60 GHz energy, dropping them in their own footprints. The instantaneous result was death. The Chinese technicians likely did not realize what was happening at the base stations as the incident happened in seconds. It was all over in less than ten seconds! This was all done remotely from the "farm" of Pirbright Institute in Surrey, UK, 25 miles outside of London. The CIA/MI6 agents simply coordinated and tweaked the execution as the 5G satellite passed above Wuhan.

The Covid Scamdemic explained – as if you needed any explanation.

Over the past few days, Alexis Bugnolo has referred to the Covid Scamdemic as “the Masonic takeover of the world” by issuing a warning about 5G technology, the covid scamdemic and to not trust the establishment’s COVID “scamdemic” vaccine and to never take the vaccine.

Reports are coming in from all over the world where “Covid Vaccines” are being administered...people are dying and real numbers are hidden.

Covid “vaccine” death reports are horrifying and alarming

While there are very large numbers of individuals who are having adverse reactions from fainting to temporary nerve incapacitation, others are falling into life-threatening conditions, such as blood clotting in the arteries and heart attacks.

Hundreds of vaccinated people are dying, or better said, dropping dead for no reason at all...and people still line up for the jab.

It’s believed the covid “vaccine” contains tracking utilities as well. Read more about Covid Vaccine tracking in the posts “vaccinated people are being tracked” and Dr. Carrie Madej talks about covid vaccines and their possible uses and decide for yourself.

What is being reported on the Covid Vaccine is the tip of the iceberg.

Covid is organized fraud perpetrated on the human race. The fraudsters (Bilderberg group, Rockefellers, Rothschild's, Deep State) have changed the meanings of the words they are using in their terrorist psyop.

PANDEMIC — Initially their name for 140 deaths which they attributed to Covid-19. Pandemic is now the name for any cause of death, except when death is related to the Covid Vaccine.

VACCINE — Their name for the gene therapy-induced trauma by the mRNA Covid Vaccine shots which allegedly grant you immunity to Covid, but which really cause your cells to produce spike proteins which cause your own lymphocytes to attack them as enemies and kill them (your body shuts down.)

MEDICAL EXPERT — Their name for anyone they pay to enforce the narrative of “pandemic” and “vaccine.”

NEGATIONIST / DENIER — Their name for anyone who speaks the truth and says it's a scamdemic and not a pandemic.

If you die before taking the Covid “Vaccine”, your death will be reported as COVID.

If you die after taking the Covid “Vaccine”, your death will be reported as natural or from pre-existing conditions.

Their Covid scamdemic is now a religion; they believe in the existence of only ONE TRUE VIRUS. The flu no longer exists; the lying news media hasn't reported any flu cases in MONTHS...the flu is gone. It was replaced by Covid.

Those taking the Covid “Vaccine” think they are gaining an advantage. The “medical experts” say immunity from Covid after getting the Covid Vaccine (not a vaccine) is not certain and does not last, so, repeated vaccinations are required.

The “experts” have made it clear; don't think you will be free after being “vaccinated” because you still have to observe social distancing, still have to wear a mask, and in some cases, won't be allowed to work or travel UNTIL THEY SAY SO.

Covid is a fear tactic to scare people into getting the “vaccine” and the “vaccine” is the problem they want you to have. The Vaxx is the “kill shot” that will be fired from an invisible beam of 5G wireless energy.

When Flu Season Comes The CHAOS Will Begin – Brother Bugnalo

If this video is true, and many signs are pointing that it is, the world will be a completely different place by 2023, which was their plan all along.

World depopulation and a New World Order will consume the world as we know it. For those who took the vaccine, it will be too late. For those of us who did not take the vaccine, be prepared to be blamed for those who died from the Vaxx.

The virus and the Masonic Covid Scamdemic and Freemasonry

Covid was a hoax to fear people into taking the “vaccine”, which is what will ultimately kill.

Why are governors and politicians (puppets) resorting to bribery to get people to take the vaccine?

Why do you think governments are pushing so hard for you to get their Covid Vaccine?
Is this a covid pandemic or scamdemic?

Is the covid scamdemic to establish world-wide tyranny to enslave us all and kill off billions? Through the process of elimination, one can only come to such a conclusion. The Covid “Pandemic” is not the only and last attack. It’s rumored they are planning to shut down all food production by shutting down all agricultural service production they control, to end seed distribution, fertilizer distribution, agricultural machinery sales and repairs.

You will not be able to grow your own food. Many communities in the U.S. forbid the collection of rain water from their gutters using cisterns and rain collection systems.

With their people in the governments, there is no one to call martial law to force these factories to reopen. Without them, billions will be forcibly starved to death.

This is what they mean by the threat of coming “food shortages.” They’re even looking to create lab-grown-meat for “our healthy lifestyles.”

Is Covid real? Does the government care about the people? Is the government racing to inject everyone with a vaccine that will save lives.....

OR...

Is Covid a scamdemic, a diabolically maligned plot of psychopathic mass murder.

As you know, Bill Gates openly talks about world depopulation and has for years. Bill Gates’ father also talked about world depopulation. Bill Gates has the patent on the Covid “vaccine.” Richard Rothschild and Bill Gates patented Covid-19 in 2013 and 2017. This is a massive red flag out of many.

There is something you can do about it and it’s simple.

Stop obeying, believing and collaborating in the Scam. Stop wearing the mask, refuse the vaccine, educate those who will listen and get ready. Most states have lifted the mask but it will be back in a month or two.

Covid Vaccine Dangers

Covid Vaccine deaths are rising and the CDC is hiding the numbers. A 39-year-old healthy single mother from Utah died four days after taking a second dose of the Moderna Covid-19 vaccine. According to her family, Kassidi Kurill “had more energy than most people around her”. She was a happy person with no... health issues.

It has been known since the end of May, according to the CDC, that COVID is a 99.8% survival rate virus, similar to flu, which is 99.9%. While it is true that severe cases of COVID can have serious after-effects, this is true of any serious case of a respiratory disease, including the flu.

Defense One, a defense industry trade website, writes in “A Military-Funded Biosensor Could Be the Future of Pandemic Detection.”

“Why are pandemics so hard to stop? Often it’s because the disease moves faster than people can be tested for it. The Defense Department is helping to fund a new study to determine whether an under-the-skin biosensor can help trackers keep up — by detecting flu-like infections even before their symptoms begin to show. Its maker, Profusa, says the sensor is on track to try for FDA approval by early next year.”

According to a Profusa press release the biosensor is:

Inserted under the skin with a syringe, the string includes a specially engineered molecule that sends a fluorescent signal outside of the body when the body begins to fight an infection. The other part is an electronic component attached to the skin. It sends light through the skin, detects the fluorescent signal and generates another signal that the wearer can send to a doctor, website, etc. It’s like a blood lab on the skin...

Once implanted the chip is permanent, fusing with living tissue and blood vessels:

Smaller than a grain of rice, each biosensor is a flexible fiber about 5-mm long and half a millimeter wide, comprised of a porous scaffold that induces capillary and cellular ingrowth from surrounding tissue...The data is relayed to a smart phone for an encrypted personal record and historical tracking. Data can be shared securely via digital networks with healthcare providers.

Profusa says the sensor: "is on track to try for FDA approval by early next year."

Critics of the technology, such as Dr. Carrie Madej, assert that the chip represents a total control platform which links humans to an artificial intelligence network, which can track and read every facet of a person's life, including mood, fear, anxiety, even level of sexual activity, by detecting and reading the body's complex chemistry at all times.

A key director of the Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, Dan Wattendorf, who specializes in "Innovative Technology Solutions," comes from a military background at DARPA, the US military's spook technology arm. Wattendorf oversees the foundation's strategy to develop and implement "new biomarkers."

DARPA is a "partner" of Profusa, which received DARPA funds at its inception.

The Gates Foundation Funded Imperial College's Professor Neil Ferguson, who made lockdowns possible, through his exaggerated death claims for Covid-19.

The public record now shows that Bill Gates gave nearly $8 million to Imperial College's Professor Neil Ferguson, author of the now discredited report which forecast over 2 million dead in 2020 in the U.S. if it did not lock down and implement mask laws. The report became the basis, cited by Dr. Anthony Fauci and other international health officials, for the present lockdowns. The report is entitled "Report 9 – Impact of non-pharmaceutical interventions (NPIs) to reduce Covid-19 mortality and healthcare demand"

Because the country of Sweden decided it would not lock down, and never closed bars, restaurants, most schools, sports, or other businesses, Ferguson's report forecast Sweden's Covid death count would be 100,000 by June. It is presently under 6,000, with the rate steadily declining. Sweden now has a far lower death rate than the U.S., Italy, Spain, UK, and Belgium, countries which engaged in devastating lockdowns.

The website MedicalXpress.com reported in "Sweden bucks trend in refusing to recommend masks":

While most of the world has come to terms with covering their noses and mouths in crowded places, people in Sweden are going without, riding buses and metros, shopping for food, and going to school mask less, with only a few rare souls covering up...Sweden never closed its schools, businesses or cafes and restaurants, allowing the virus to circulate, and has therefore had a consistently high level of community transmission.

Sweden's actions defied the WHO and serve as a visible proof discrediting the entire Imperial College's Professor Neil Ferguson yelling the sky is falling!

Former Ronald Reagan Assistant Secretary of the Treasury and a senior editor at the 'Wall Street Journal', Dr. Paul Craig Roberts has called Bill and Melinda Gates "the worst threat faced by human health and human freedom."

Despite efforts to paint critics of Gates as "conspiracy theorists," the public record and his own statements cannot be escaped. Gates has worked hard to swat away talk of simpler remedies for Covid such as hydroxychloroquine, backed by scientist-doctors such as Yale's Dr. Harvey Risch, and insisted that a ramped-up, worldwide system of vaccinations are the future.

The Gates Foundation has funded the initiative the "Decade of Vaccines," One of the talents tapped by Gates to drive the initiative is Dr. Anthony Fauci. As Dr. Paul Craig Roberts has said, Bill Gates is humanity's worst threat or nightmare! Bill Gates boasted at the 2020 Davos winter meetings of the WEF. He told a CNBC reporter that his investment in vaccines has proved to be a 20-to-1 return on his investment. How is it that Bill Gates and Warren Buffet are so successful in their investments. I long ago discovered that Warren Buffet's closest friends are the Rothschild's in the UK.

In wrapping up this article, be sure to watch the linked video on page 49. This is a 19-minute lesson on the real story of what a virus is. When I was a young teenager, my dad would always say, "son, knowledge is power" and by that he would go into his sales pitch about getting a good education. You see, I was bored in school! I thought I was just a dumb kid in school.

Dear {{ first_name }}

Imagine an enemy that is invisible, like a ghost or demon, except to those who have special visionary powers. It lurks in unsuspecting places, turning every person and every place into a potential threat.

Once it takes hold, there's no stopping it without the help of an arsenal of powerful poisons provided by the trusted protectors who are practiced at such exorcisms and know that their work inevitably results in some collateral damage.

It's a necessary sacrifice to exterminate the enemy. All bow to those who might protect us from this demonic takeover. There is no sacrifice too great if it promises to save us from such possession.

What if we told you that there is as much evidence for germs causing (or being the primary cause of) illness as there is for demonic possession with invisible entities that make us cough, purge, and waste away?

And what if our collective belief in contagion, infection, and associated precautions, preventatives, and treatments is actually a belief system that has been leveraged for a century in service of population control and even depopulation?

In this special report, Dr. Kelly Brogan and colleagues assert that the notion of the SARS-CoV-2 virus causing “COVID” is a recapitulation of the international infectious disease coup that took hold in the 1980s, namely, that HIV causes AIDS.

The aim here is to present findings to propose that AIDS was essentially a dress rehearsal for the present entrapment of citizens worldwide using the dominant COVID narrative.
