

Will President Trump Be “Trumped” By The Jesuit Vatican In The U.S. Supreme Court?

Will the U.S. Supreme Court turn a blind-eye to ruling on the 2020 Presidential Election? There are reasons that indicate that the U.S. Supreme Court may implode on behalf of its real handlers. The Dominion voting machines were accessible through Qsnatch, a malware threat dubbed QSnatch is known to target NAS (Network-Attached Storage) devices manufactured by the Taiwan-based QNAP Systems, Inc. Malware researchers at Finland's National Cyber Security Center (NCSC-FI) were the first to spot the activity of this new threat in the middle of October 2019.

Patrick Byrne exposed the Dominion voting machines used by 28 Democratic states could be hacked and voter fraud perpetrated by the Chinese Communist Party. Who is Patrick Byrne you are probably thinking.

Patrick Byrne is the former founder of OverStock.com and a PhD computer whiz has been a whistle-blower on the Democrat Party theft of the election using the CCP-owned voting machines by rigging six key cities in six states, which then threw the election into the camp of Joe Biden. Patrick Byrne is not even a Republican, he is a Libertarian. I have listened to a half-dozen interviews on the Internet in which Patrick tells his story. The FBI actually used him to trap Hillary Clinton into accepting a multi-million dollar bribe. That is no earth shattering news; however, his background in computer software got him a copy of the operating system of the corrupt Chinese Dominion voting machines, and with that it is history for how elections have been rigged for years and not just for national elections.

There were many other examples of voting fraud but it was Qsnatch malware that was the major tailored means to flip voting to Joe Biden.

For weeks, President Trump's push to overturn the results of the 2020 presidential election has soldiered on despite an ever-lengthening string of legal defeats. But that effort, already sputtering, now appears all but exhausted after the Supreme Court on Friday two weeks ago rejected Texas' challenge to President-elect Joe Biden's victory.

The justices' one-page order is about as definitive an answer as one could expect, with Electoral College delegates set to cast their ballots for president this past Monday. But for the president and his GOP supporters, the decision fails to answer one simple question: What next? Everyone seems to be placing their bets on the Supreme Court to rule on the election, but what if they punt, or worse, hand it to Joe Biden on a platter!

In a series of tweets posted early Saturday, Trump made clear his disgust with the Supreme Court, which in dismissing the widely derided case said that Texas lacked standing to challenge the results in four battleground states that swung for Biden — Georgia, Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. The president protested that the lawsuit, which he had previously hyped as "the big one," had been so quickly "thrown out and gone, without even looking at the many reasons it was brought."

The outgoing president vowed to "fight on!" He did not, however, immediately explain how he and his supporters would proceed, with a heap of courtroom losses in the rear-view mirror and his remaining legal options diminishing by the day.

Texas Attorney General Ken Paxton, too, expressed his disappointment with the Supreme Court decision. Paxton had led the failed effort, joined by 17 other GOP state attorneys general. In a statement Friday night, without offering details, Paxton promised "to tirelessly defend the integrity and security of our elections and hold accountable those who shirk established election law for their own convenience."

Perhaps the more complex conundrum, though, awaits Trump's supporters in Congress — most of whom, unlike Trump, won their elections and will still be in office after Biden is inaugurated on Jan. 20. Of the 196 Republicans in the House, 126 signed on to a brief supporting the lawsuit before it was tossed. Among those who joined that effort were the top two Republicans in the House — Minority Leader Kevin McCarthy of California and Minority Whip Steve Scalise of Louisiana.

Unlike Trump and Paxton, the Twitter feeds of the House Republicans who had signed the brief largely remained silent about Friday's decision. The offices of McCarthy and Scalise did not immediately respond to a request for comment on Saturday.

One exception to the prevailing silence was Rep. Bruce Westerman of Arkansas, who, in a statement, said that the Supreme Court had effectively "closed the books on challenges to the 2020 election results."

"The only milestone left in completing the election process will be Congress counting the [Electoral College] votes on January 6," Westerman said.

The Democratic speaker of the House, Nancy Pelosi, condemned her colleagues across the aisle for focusing on "election subversion" in the midst of a pandemic that has killed nearly 300,000 people in the U.S.

"The 126 Republican Members that signed onto this lawsuit brought dishonor to the House," Pelosi said in a statement. "Instead of upholding their oath to support and defend the Constitution," she said, "they chose to subvert the Constitution and undermine public trust in our sacred democratic institutions."

Unlike their colleagues in the House, several Republican senators had expressed their skepticism about the lawsuit, or outright criticism. After its rejection, Sen. Ben Sasse, R-Neb., emphasized that he was not sorry to see it go.

"Since Election Night, a lot of people have been confusing voters by spinning Kenyan Birther-type, 'Chavez rigged the election from the grave' conspiracy theories," Sasse said in a statement, "but every American who cares about the rule of law should take comfort that the Supreme Court — including all three of President Trump's picks — closed the book on the nonsense."

Meanwhile, most Republicans across the country have followed the broader party line in questioning the results of the presidential election, despite there being no evidence of widespread voter fraud. In a NPR/PBS NewsHour/Marist poll released earlier this week, just a quarter of Republicans surveyed. say they trust the election's outcome.

The evidence is without question that President Donald J. Trump won the election, and regardless of the efforts to hide the Democrat's corruption in the 2020 national election. No amount of dead people voting, algorithm ballot changing, trucked-in millions of counterfeit ballots from say they trust the election's outcome.

Although I am not expecting anyone to bring up the religious factor, it offers the world a prime opportunity to see how powerful the Jesuit Vatican will be in the final outcome since the Supreme Court is dominated by Roman Catholic Justices. The first sign of this issue reared its ugly head when the Court rejected the Texas Attorney General' suit on key points and chose to reject Texas "standing" in the suit. Conservative commentator Mark Levin's said "what the hell are they good for then", was a relevant comment in the rejection of the Texas petition to block swing states procedural changes in the election process. The Supreme Court dropped the ball making it more difficult to avoid civil strife and civil war!

What does the religious factor have to do with the election ruling and who really cares? To put it simply, the Jesuit Vatican cares and the Roman Catholic Institution cares. In the world of politics and religion the real important issues are always about control. The two part system is a product of the Jesuit five-century old method to control society. I have written about the Hegelian Dialectic. George Hegel was one of the most influential thinkers of the 19th century.

Hegel did not enter the ministry; instead, wishing to forgo leisure for the study of philosophy and Greek literature, he became a private tutor in Berne, Switzerland. For the next three years he lived there, with time on his hands and read books. He read Edward Gibbon, Baron de Montesquieu, as well as the Greek and Roman classics. He also studied the critical philosopher Immanuel Kant and was stimulated by his essay on religion, which is later reflected in his work. He escaped Roman Catholicism but his work captivated the Jesuits of his day and ever since. Jesuits have had five centuries to practice the "Dialectic" in manipulating societies and groups. Each time they use it they have an end goal in their desired outcome! This existential event, the election outcome is perhaps the quintessential of their moves in achieving global government. Never underestimate a Jesuit. They are brilliant by any standard, and they are renowned for their scholarship and mental abilities to control the narrative and events. This article will help you understand what might be the outcome of this recent election and massive voting fraud.

The meme above is the creation of the conservative Roman Catholic site “Church Militant”, Church Militant is as ultra-conservative Roman Catholic as they come, and often highly critical of the moral decadence inside the Vatican and among its homosexual priests around the world. ‘Church Militant’ despises Joe Biden and that is a gentle term to describe it. The point the meme is making here is that claiming your Roman Catholic faith is more important than the quality of the candidate’s words or deeds, in this case Joseph Biden. Church Militant is more vocal perhaps than was Martin Luther’s 95 Theses than any of the Roman Catholic laity movements today.

My question is will a Catholic majority Supreme Court vote according to the dictates of the law or will it like the meme suggests, vote its loyalty to the Jesuit Roman Catholic faith. Keep in mind in all this mix, President Trump nominated three of these Justices during his first term as President; furthermore, two of the President’s nominees are Jesuit-trained. The President himself was Jesuit-trained: 2 years at Fordham, and 2 years at the University of Pennsylvania with powerful Jesuit ties and Bank of America, a Jesuit bank, a title it bought through merger with the Bank of Italy in San Francisco in 1928. I have wondered about the President long enough at this point to now believe he is more of a “pragmatist” than an “ideologue”. His book, Trump: Art of the Deal most likely projects that philosophy. President Trump has grown in his understanding of God and faith, which undoubtedly has helped him understand how others have used him and disappointed him in the past four years. One has to question or consider the thought of who advised the President on nominees to the Supreme Court.

Justice Neil Gorsuch is the first member of a mainline Protestant denomination to sit on the Supreme Court since the retirement of John Paul Stevens in 2010. He also has strong ties to the Roman Catholic Church. Neil and his two siblings, brother J.J. and his sister Stephanie, were raised as Roman Catholics and attended weekly Mass. Neil Gorsuch later attended Georgetown Preparatory School, a Roman Catholic Jesuit school in North Bethesda, Maryland, from which he graduated in 1985. Gorsuch’s wife, Louise, is British-born; the two met while Neil was studying at Oxford. Louise was raised in the Church of England. The two married at St. Nicholas’ Anglican Church in Henley-on-Thames.

When the couple returned to the United States they started attending Holy Comforter, an Episcopal parish in Vienna, Virginia, where he also volunteered as an usher. Church records indicate that the Gorsuches were members of Holy Comforter. He later attended St. John’s Episcopal Church in Boulder, Colorado, considered a liberal church because it kept an open-door policy for the LGBT community prior to legislation establishing gender preference equality laws. The Episcopal Church and the Church of England are both members of the Anglican Communion, which considers itself to be both Catholic and Protestant but rejects papal authority. After marrying in a non-Roman Catholic ceremony and joining an Episcopal church, Gorsuch has not publicly stated if he considers himself a Roman Catholic who is also a Protestant or simply a Protestant.

American Intelligence Media reports that Neil Gorsuch is a “swamp” rat, and that he and Brett Kavanaugh are Pilgrim Society groomed, and out to destroy America, and the Constitution. The Pilgrim Society is a UK elitist group focused on returning the U.S. to UK control. American Intelligence Media posted that the U.S. Supreme Court had gone rogue: “Neil Gorsuch is a British Pilgrims Society sell out. His massive globalist relationships dictate his recusal from all matters relating to the 2020 election.” From what the American Intelligence Media report, suggests that Neil Gorsuch, Brett Kavanaugh, and Amy Barrett are not as conservative as we have been led to believe. AIM has connected the globalist ties with British Royals and Knights of Malta. The Knights of Malta is a powerful Roman Catholic “deep pockets” organization that wields huge political power.

One Justice John Roberts, was caught entering the Knights of Malta headquarters in Rome, the day after he declared the Obama Health Care Reform Act as being “constitutional” yet having publicly made statements that people could not be forced to purchase health insurance, if uninsured. The below photo was taken at the entrance of the Knights of Malta in Rome, where Justice Roberts was to be lecturing at before a conference, and picking up his honorarium, or two!

Figure 1: Meghan Keneally. (July 3, 2012). After joking about heading to Malta to escape criticism....Chief Justice Roberts heads to Malta as it emerges that he may have written for AND against opinions on Obamacare. The Daily Mail. <https://www.dailymail.co.uk/news/article-2168451/Chief-Justice-Roberts-heads-Malta-emerges-written-AND-opinions-Obamacare.html>

So, now “only” five, as opposed to six, of the nine Supreme Court Justices are Roman Catholic. That is, if you can really count Gorsuch as a Protestant. Anyway, he graduated from the Jesuit Georgetown Preparatory School, and so did Trump’s second nominee, Brett Kavanaugh who is a Roman Catholic like his predecessor Anthony Kennedy

What’s more concerning is they attended that same Jesuit school at the same time. Quite a coincidence, isn’t it? And, as it happens, the current Chairman of the Federal Reserve, Jerome Powell, also graduated from Georgetown Preparatory School, and later earned his J.D. from Georgetown University, the oldest Catholic University in America, and the Jesuit power base in the USA.

The four other Catholic Justices in the Supreme Court are:

Chief Justice John Roberts – Roberts has served as an adjunct faculty member at Georgetown University Law Center. As we will see, John Roberts is corrupt, very corrupt! Lin Wood, President Trump’s attorney on the stolen election has confirmed that Justice Roberts was at Epstein Island in the Caribbean and that his name on the flight log of Jeffrey Epstein’s private jet, and confirmation that he visited the pedophile “honey” trap at least once. Jeffrey Epstein and his girlfriend used sex with young girls to video tape important people in positions of power and importance for future purpose of blackmailing key people. See picture of flight log below.

Lyn Wood tweeted out: “Chief Justice Roberts is corrupt & should resign immediately. Justice Stephen Breyer should also resign immediately. They are “anti-Trumpers” dedicated to preventing the public from knowing TRUTH of @realDonaldTrump re-election.”

Clarence Thomas – Thomas graduated from the College of the Holy Cross, a Jesuit university in Worcester, Massachusetts. Earlier in life Thomas attended Catholic schools, and briefly also a Catholic seminary in Missouri.

Samuel Alito – Alito is a Knight of Columbus.

Sonia Sotomayor – Sotomayor has been an associate of Jesuit priest Joseph A. O'Hare, who was a long time president of Fordham University, and also a member of the New York based elite think tank Council on Foreign Relations (CFR).

The Rev. Joseph O'Hare, a Jesuit priest and the retired president of Fordham University who served with Sotomayor on a New York City campaign finance review council, told 'Catholic News Service' that he knew the high court nominee in the late 1980s. She was indeed a practicing Catholic, he said, adding that he has no reason to think that has changed.

Antonin Scalia, who was replaced by Gorsuch, was a devout Roman Catholic. He graduated from a Jesuit high school and later from Georgetown University with B.A. Scalia was allegedly a member of Opus Dei, the secretive Catholic organization. And according to Matthew Fox, a former member of the Dominican Order, Samuel Alito and Clarence Thomas are both Opus Dei members, and possibly even Chief Justice John Roberts are members.

Yes, it's widely known that Supreme Court Justices Antonin Scalia, Samuel Alito, and Clarence Thomas belong to Opus Dei—and that Justice Thomas Roberts may also be a member. Another Opus Dei member, former CIA director William Casey, gave millions of dollars to the Vatican and to the ultra-conservative Legionaries of Christ. Also, Daniel Ellsberg recently told the author of the book I mentioned in this article that some of the ranking commanders of our military are also Opus Dei. And what can we say about a whole new crop of right wing Catholic politicians such as Newt Gingrich and Rick Santorum.

The important man behind the nominations of Brett Kavanaugh, Neil Gorsuch, and also John Roberts and Samuel Alito, is Leonardo Leo.

https://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Leonard_Leo

“If all goes according to plan, Leonard Leo will be able to take credit for something no president has accomplished for decades: installing four Supreme Court justices. Both of President Donald Trump’s nominees come directly from a list Leo compiled. They join John Roberts and Samuel Alito, also shepherded by Leo, and dozens of lower court federal judges across the country.

As executive vice president of the Federalist Society, Leo has been the quiet architect of a pivotal shift to the right throughout the federal judiciary.”

Leo is a devout Roman Catholic, and also a Knight of Malta.

“Leonard Leo is a champion of global religious liberty, having served as chairman of the U.S. Commission on International Religious Freedom (USCIRF) as well as delegate to the UN Council and UN Commission on Human Rights. In the U.S., he promotes civil liberties as executive vice president of the Federalist Society for Law and Public Policy Studies. Leo is also an active leader in Catholic organizations, serving on the boards of the Catholic Information Center, Catholic University of America, and the Ethics and Public Policy Center. He is a founding board member of the National Catholic Prayer Breakfast and a member of the Sovereign Military Order of Malta.”

Sidney Powell and her investigators have exposed what is the crime of the century in voter fraud and a stolen election. Should the efforts of Sidney Powell fail, it will not be the result of anything originating from her efforts and work. She wrote the book ‘License to Lie’. She shines as a beacon of truth in this stealing of the 2020 election.

If you listen to the seditious main stream media you would believe that it is all over and anyone who does not think so is a tinfoil hat wearing traitor ... Just shut up and move along!!! But if you really believe this then how do you account for the mountains (and growing daily) of fact based evidence proving this the most fraudulent election in recorded history? How do you account for seven swing states sending a second slate of electors to Washington, chosen by the Republican congress in said states. NONE of this portends a fair election one single iota!

The chart below is an overview of the degree of voting fraud uncovered in the key six dates that were contested in legal challenges which have largely been upheld to support the Joe Biden/Kamela Harris challengers. In the case of Michigan, the state's attorney general permitted a full forensic evaluation of the Dominion voting machines. The discovery that Dominion is owned by the Chinese Communist Party through a pair of cut-outs in the U.S. has brought open challenge to all 28 states that used the Dominion voting machines. There is so much evidence to this issue of fraud that begs the question, can and will the U.S. Supreme Court act decisively to rectify the wrongs or will it disappoint the national population. China directly and indirectly did interfere with the U.S. 2020 election.

Since the beginning, the purpose of the Jesuits has included global political domination, as Loyola himself once said:

“Finally, Let all with such artfulness gain the ascendant over princes, noblemen, and the magistrates of every place, that they may be ready at our beck, even to sacrifice their nearest relations and most intimate friends, when we say it is for our interest and advantage” (emphasis added).

The world's wars and revolutions occur because the Jesuits want to establish a one-world government with the Papacy at its head. Even over a century ago their plans were succeeding, as 19th-century theologian Luigi De Sanctis tells us:

“At what then do the Jesuits aim? According to them, they only seek the greater glory of God; but if you examine the facts you will find that they aim at universal dominion alone. They have rendered themselves indispensable to the Pope, who, without them, could not exist, because Catholicism is identified with them. They have rendered themselves indispensable to governors and hold revolutions in their hands; and in this way, either under one name or another, it is they who rule the world.” (emphasis added).ii”

The Jesuits have been involved in—and even spearheaded—many of the world's worst wars, revolutions, and massacres. At times, the Jesuits are directly involved, at other times, they use their influence over the Freemasons and other secret societies. Jesuits Drs. Anthony Fauci and Robert Redfield are in powerful positions at the CDC and the NIAID. Having Jesuits at the directorship of these two public health agencies is alarming in a time where the country is under great threat. Most people are oblivious to the dangers lurking around these two men. The virus scam is a prelude to destroying the U.S. economic system, with Dr. Fauci as its spearhead! Sean Maclaren is one of a handful of writers who understand this global threat.

How the Jesuits have controlled the destiny of the USA

The Grand Lie: How The Deadlight Of The Black Pope And the Jesuit Militia Distort The History Of The United States Of America.

Sean Maclaren is the author of ‘Romanic Depression: How the Jesuits Designed, Built and Destroyed America’, a book that none of you are likely to be familiar with. You may call yourself an American but this book is an expose per se on how the Black Pope and the Jesuit Order has been engaged in distorting the history of the United States. It was published in November of 2016 around the time of the election. I share some of his information in this article as the current makeup of the U.S. Supreme Court is the perfect setting to allow the stolen election to stand. In the event this is what happens, the American people are in great danger, mortal danger. Sean Maclaren’s book compliments F. Tupper Saussy’s book ‘Rulers of Evil’, an essential expose of the Jesuits.

In the early 17th century, the Old World of Europe was becoming stale and unproductive, her workers and toilers growing uneasy with continued monarchical rule that favored the ruling elite and did little if anything useful for the working class and poor, which were more difficult to manipulate and control.

England appeared to be largely Protestant on the outside, with Queen Elizabeth I openly despising Catholicism and its Jesuit soldiers; the latter drove many Catholics from her shores to the New World.

The actual power behind the Tudor throne, Secretary of State William Cecil, and the Stuart throne, later his prime minister son Robert Cecil, didn’t care one way or the other what the ruling religion was, as long as their agendas were adhered to and goals met. Despite their indifference, their reigns remained anti-Catholic.

THE JESUITS BUILD THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

So the Jesuits set their sights on the New World and began designing a new form of government, one that would, on the public surface, appear to grant freedom and liberty (on paper, at least) to its citizens with the secret intent of creating a slave state of dutiful taxpayers and obedient workers. News of this new form of government and rule spread across Europe and attracted some of the brightest minds, who emigrated to the New World in search of prosperity, freedom of religion, and freedom of speech, among other promises of independence.

Underneath the gloss, though, the Jesuits operated behind the black curtain, creating a powerful and most-secret dictatorship that rules much the same even today. Those very bright immigrants soon learned the true nature of the Jesuits and their actions in America. Some chose to leave and not bear the burden of clashing with this powerful society, others chose to remain in America and learn how to work within the new system, despotic as it was to become.

In creating the illusion of such a paradise, the Jesuits had to establish a strong government of men who were strongly opposed to monarchical rule on every level and who were vehemently hostile to any rule whatsoever by the Vatican and its despotic Roman Catholic Church. So the Jesuits developed various schemes to fool, entice and coerce many future leaders of America to emigrate to the New World and help build the Jesuits' vision of this new sham government. These men had come from England and France, where liberties even too many of the non-aristocratic elite were few.

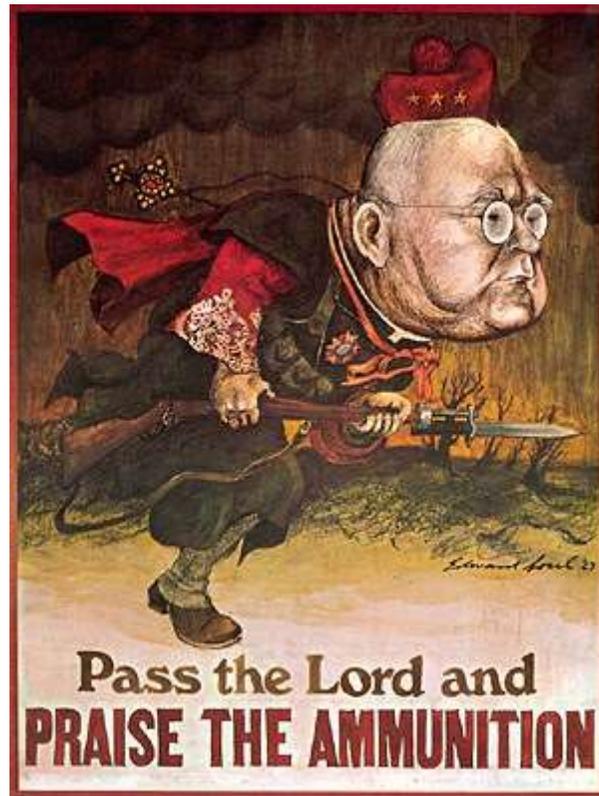

To appreciate the full picture of the Jesuits' new scheme, please consider this: if you had a high-value asset like the early American government, which represented the world's first platform of true liberty, with democratically elected leaders and unheard-of freedoms, would you dare leave it in the hands of ordinary men to run, i.e., those not in your complete control? Could you actually trust anyone on that extreme level with your grand prize? Of course not! It would be senseless!

Which is why the Jesuits carefully chose their minions to fill certain stations within this new federal government and system of state governments, groomed future leaders from the ranks of Europe's ruling elite, and attracted other future leaders from the ordinary population, trained them according to their high standards, and retained only the most promising ones for various leadership roles.

As the Jesuits designed the new American government, they took a page from the playbooks of old: set up a system of built-in antagonism. Then divide and conquer. The Jesuits did not invent this method of control and manipulation, but they certainly have perfected it over the nearly 500 years they have been in power.

Take a population, slice into two parts, and control each part by pitting the two groups against each other in as many ways as possible, so members of the two parts see each other as mortal enemies. Repeat as necessary until you achieve the desired result, which is subjugation of the entire population. It has worked well in every single country the Jesuits have conquered, when they were unable to control an entire population as a whole.

This tactic also works well against those specific sectors of a given population (people of a particular belief, for example) that the Jesuits wish to attract and control. The Jesuits identify their targets, design and institute a new “attractant,” which may be a political party or some form of entertainment, hook their desired catch, and simply pull them in. Those who comply are rewarded. Dissenters are banished to the margins.

Fifty years ago, the political landscape was seen publicly as a gentlemen’s game: politicians who acted and looked the part, little rhetoric or personal attacks in the media, few publicly leaked scandals, toned-down presentations of any political affairs on TV. The 1950s and ‘60s were a quieter time in politics for the American public, because the Jesuits were still building the government’s infrastructure after WWII and instituting new departments to fit the prevailing climate and also to prepare for coming ones.

Television was a relatively new tool on the stage and, like the actors themselves, was being groomed for a much grander purpose: to unleash a new propaganda machine. For now, though, it was used by button-down reporters in dark suits, no smiles, deep commanding voices who reported on “serious” issues like the Vietnam War, anti-war protests by college kids at home, drugs and the hippie generation of do-nothings and misfits who smartly tuned out to all the goings-on. Most Americans still could not afford a television set, so the majority tuned in to radio news, shows and advertisements.

At that time, America seemed perfectly content having just two major political parties, Democratic and Republican, with a handful of minor ones that were too small and insignificant for the Jesuits to be concerned with. The Jesuits felt they could control American political sentiment and action via these two main mechanisms, which had worked well over the previous 50 years.

THE JESUITS CONQUER AND RULE FROM WITHIN

The Jesuits almost always rule from within: they start an organization via their faithful controlled followers or infiltrate an already established one whose leadership they either install or, if already in place, control via any means necessary, including bribery, extortion, kidnapping and murder of family members and close associates. This method has worked for hundreds of years across the world, and is still in wide use today. When any important Jesuit issue is threatened, they find some clever means to convince Americans to vote in favor of the Jesuits' preference.

Their method was deceptively simple: as stated previously, divide a population into two main parties, control them from within, and keep them at odds with each other by designing each with different political, social and moral ideals. The two main parties' ideals were thought to represent those of the American people at that time, and it worked well for decades until the American people began questioning their political leaders and the very system they had believed in all their lives, and we began to see the first big cracks appears in the late 1960s.

The Jesuits steered American politics in any direction they chose. Since they controlled our government and its puppet politicians, they also controlled the economy and all markets and were able to create highly effective economic depressions when they chose, or according to the points in cycles of celestio-physics, thus bringing the American people to their knees on a whim.

Being fluid in design and movement, and always evolving, the Jesuits over the years have reacted to the increased American people's distaste for either political party and so designed a third party they could use to control the new breakaway group of malcontents. In the 1970s, the Libertarian Party was instituted and, as with all other parties, controlled from within the organization. While the Libertarians never posed any major threat to Democrats or Republicans, they were successful in bringing together hundreds of thousands of those "malcontents" who may otherwise have somehow disrupted the political system, even at a state or local level. With so much to lose, the Jesuits were not willing to leave it to chance, so they instituted that safety valve.

Any major political party is used by the Jesuits to control a large portion of the American population, because it represents virtually every important issue affecting Americans, from political to economic to social to education to military. What this party does not control, other organizations, even non-governmental ones like Hollywood and Big-Entertainment, Big-Music, Big-Pharma, certainly do, using a billion-dollar PR machine that has made even the worst and most detrimental policies look completely disarming.

Witness: the tobacco industry's fight to manufacture poisonous cigarettes and cigars; the pharmaceutical industry's fight to manufacture harmful drugs, test them in Third World countries on an unsuspecting population, then unleash them on another ignorant population, the American people; the chemical industry's fight to manufacture harmful substances without regard for the safety and health of Americans; etc.

Today's political landscape is far from its cousin only 50 years ago: politicians no longer look and act the part; they are cartoon characters. Rhetoric and personal attacks are at an all-time high, and are being carried out openly in the media, where deeply personal issues are brought to the front, like so many dramas on popular soap operas and tele-novellas. Scandals abound like never before and are celebrated as big events by Big-Media- and Big-Entertainment-loving Americans. Distractions are a frequent diversion by the Jesuits, taking the national eye off of what really matters most.

The entire political arena is a laughable circus act, carefully scripted and choreographed by multi-million-dollar production companies and PR firms that create brilliant illusion and spin.

But, unlike a carnival show, this one is highly effective at attracting more and more Americans to its performances, and enticing them to do the bidding of the Jesuits. All one need do is to examine one of the results: Americans' public anti-political sentiment and actions are at an all-time high. So instead of bashing American politics, political parties and candidates, Americans have been pulled away to a new distraction and are now mesmerized by some dazzling form of entertainment. Hours a day. Three hundred and sixty-five days a year. All you can eat.

The Jesuits have evolved well: when politics failed to control the population, they simply designed and introduced new forms that would attract Americans and control their actions and behaviors.

On the outside, the formula is simple. And deadly effective on all levels. Again, one only need look at the results to affirm my points.

From its inception, the American political system has been controlled and run by the Jesuits, who have steered politics in any way they wished. As Americans became more educated, they wanted to learn how to have a hand in the decisions that affected their lives, so they got involved in that process, if only at a local level.

HOW AN AMERICAN PRESIDENT IS CHOSEN

In Europe during the inception of America, only the elite could vote. In America, nearly every man, regardless of his station, could vote. Not only this, since voting for the candidates of their choice was such a novel idea, never before seen in modern politics anywhere in the world, many of these farmers, merchants, fishermen, etc. took great interest in the political activities of their villages, towns and cities. These hard-working souls learned to vote for people who claimed to have similar values and morals, so those representatives would effectively stand for their own interests. It was a dream come true.

What those good trusting Americans did not realize then is that their representatives did not actually stand for anything other than a hook and line to attract and reel in new recruits that were soon under the control of men thousands of miles away.

Author J. Wayne Laurens, in his 1855 book The Crisis: or, the Enemies of America Unmasked, wrote:

“An American gentleman was passenger on board a merchant ship, bound from London to Rio Janeiro. There were among the passengers Englishmen, Germans, Frenchmen, Spaniards, and Portuguese; but the person we refer to was the only American. Between himself and the English gentlemen, there were frequent discussions about politics, to which such of the other passengers, as could speak English, would listen, sometimes taking a part.”

“Of course, our American was a great friend to the institutions of his own country; and defended republican forms of government, freedom of the speech and of the press, the vote by ballot, and all the other elements of popular sovereignty through thick and thin.”

“Assailed on every side, he found his office of champion of freedom no sinecure. Every calm morning and every pleasant evening witnessed a new controversy on the deck or in the cabin; but he manfully held his ground against a host of adversaries; and being fluent in speech, strong in argument, skilled in logic, and full of lively and sarcastic humor, he generally came out of the debate with honor, taking care always to terminate the action at precisely the right moment, and to quit the field with flying colors.”

“Among the persons who listened with the greatest attention to these debates, was a lean bilious looking old Frenchman, who always took care to be present, and who showed by his look and manner, that he was deeply interested in politics, although he never by any chance uttered an opinion or made a remark on political subjects, in the general circle of the passengers.”

“In point of fact, this man was a Roman Catholic priest, a Jesuit of high standing, who was going to some station in South America, in obedience to an order from his superior. He was a cosmopolite indeed.”

“Though not much past the middle point of life, he was rather aged in appearance, in consequence of the great variety and extent of the missions which he had performed in all quarters of the world, and in every kind of climate. From Canada to Calcutta; from the breezy heights of the Andes to the unwholesome marshes of Java, by sea and by land, in season and out of season, this man had journeyed on the secret errands of his order. Speaking fluently a dozen different languages, and possessing the most perfect power of dissimulation, as well as the most thorough devotedness to the church, and those carefully trained habits of obedience, which are so essential to the character of an able and faithful Jesuit, he had at length become one of the most accomplished men of his age.”

“As he listened to the conversation of the American passenger, he could not help noticing, that he was gradually making converts to republican views. Many of these passengers, he observed, sought private interviews with the American; and by careful eavesdropping, he ascertained that their object was to ask questions about his country, and gain information respecting the actual working of the American attempt at self-government.”

“When the passage was nearly over, the Frenchman happening to be alone with the American, in a retired part of the deck, where their conversation could not be overheard, commenced a quiet chat with him. Addressing him in English, which he spoke with ease and precision, he thanked him with apparent cordiality, for the entertainment he had derived from his conversation or rather eloquent haranguing to the other passengers, during the voyage.”

“He professed to have enjoyed their debates very greatly; and gave the American due credit for his wit, his logic, his humor, his address, and his unbounded good nature.”

“The American was much pleased at his compliments; for he had conceived a great respect for this silent and attentive auditor; and, in fact, had, in his own secret mind, set him down as a hopeful convert to Americanism; he thanked him, therefore, with much feeling, for his good opinion ; at the same time disclaiming any merit, for success in defending a truth so self-evident, as that which is expressed in these few words—that a nation ought to govern itself, and that by the popular vote of its own citizens.”

“ ‘This,’ said the Jesuit, with a quiet smile, ‘you supposed to be the system of your own country?’

“ ‘I do not suppose it,’ said the American, ‘I know it.’

“ ‘Now,’ said the Jesuit, ‘listen to me a few moments and I will tell you what I know. Your president is elected by the conclave of cardinals at Rome, the same who elect the pope. Your people nominate the candidates. Our confidential agents select from the number, the one whom they believe to be the most favorable to the interests of the church. His name with those of the other candidates is reported to the cardinals and the pope. When their decision is announced to the confidential friends of the pope and the cardinals, in the United States, they send forth their orders through the priests; and the whole Roman Catholic vote is thrown for the candidate who is favored by the church. He, of course, is always elected. Your parties are so equally divided on politics, that this Roman Catholic vote, which is cast on purely religious considerations, is always sufficient to turn the scale’.”

“The American looked rather blank at this announcement.”

Even today, very few people understand that their political system is a complete sham, and that any representatives of theirs are chosen not by them but by people who have a specific agenda counter to their own. How could this come about?

BIGMEDIA/ENTERTAINMENT INFLUENCE THE POPULATION

Big-Media is the megaphone of the Jesuits. It is the means by which they disseminate news to the American people. News about politics and their politicians. News about healthcare and their health. News about education of their children. Any news whatsoever is constructed by the Jesuits, presented in a very slick production by pretty people you can't help but ogle and drool over.

The average American can be led about quite easily, as evidenced by the latest statistics on how often Americans watch various forms of news and especially entertainment on TV: more than five hours a day, depending on age and ethnic group.

Imagine this: you are glued to the TV for hours at a time, watching mindless entertainment or manufactured news. How much of this information do you think you will absorb? One answer comes from sociological and psychological studies on what people tend to talk about in everyday conversations:

Poor people talk about characters in TV shows, the lottery, and how to get rich quick. They do not talk of wishes and dreams, how to attain meaningful goals, how to get educated and get a great job.

Poor people also gamble much more than any other economic group. They eat more junk food than any other group. They do more illegal drugs and abuse alcohol than any other group. And poor people watch more TV than any other group. Interestingly, poor people over the past 50 years have had a new neighbor introduced to their lowly society: the Middle-Class American.

Now, more than ever, the poor class is swelling to consume close to half of the American population. The Jesuits have nearly concluded their take-over of the American population, not just via politics but also by many other means that attract, hook and pull in unsuspecting people.

POLITICS IS JUST ONE MEANS TO CONTROL AMERICA

And that is its primary purpose: control you and your thoughts and behaviors, regardless of which candidate you vote for, what your stance is on certain policies and issues. Today's political landscape is tightly controlled by the Jesuits and the hundreds of top-tier corporations whose CEOs do their bidding and ensure their business runs according to the playbook designed and implemented by the Jesuits.

The average voter thinks he has a say in political issues because he takes the time to vote, donates to his favorite political candidate, and supports his party any way he can. That notion could not be further from the truth. Policies are decided not by popular vote but by predetermined actions and outcomes behind the scenes. And they have absolutely nothing to do with the average American, except that they steer him in the direction they wish for him at that time.

Since its inception, America and her politics have been designed and controlled and manipulated by the most prolific society in modern history. They are the finest ghostwriters of both secret and public works of law that work behind the scenes, of public policies that affect everyone, of popular books that influence millions of various ages. These men are the most persuasive recruits of world-class talent they use to create works of art that manipulate the minds and souls of the population: stories, paintings, etc.

The members of this highly successful society are worker bees and ants, never taking credit for their own work, but rather allowing some public figure to accept the credit because the Jesuits know the public will be drawn to this charismatic public person. And that person can be controlled and manipulated against their will to do the bidding of the Jesuits.

THE JESUITS CONTROL BY MURDER

American politics follows these patterns exactly, with controlled and manipulated politicians following prepared scripts written by the Jesuits. Those men and women who obey the rules are rewarded with long careers in politics or, even when they leave politics in total disgrace, in the private sector. Those unlucky few politicians who depart from the Jesuits' script or who stray too far from their party's politics are removed from office either through embarrassing scandal, threats or murder.

President William Henry Harrison served only 32 days in office as president, from March 4 to April 4, 1841, before the Jesuits poisoned him. As a message to all others who would oppose their authority, the Jesuits also brutally murdered all but one of President Harrison's family, leaving a son, John Scott Harrison, Esq., a member of Congress from Ohio, to carry the message to would-be dissenters in the future. Curiously, Congress granted the president's heirs (ultimately, only John Harrison) $25,000 in compensation for their loss, although the bill supporting it was hotly contested by parties on both sides. In 1865, after lengthy and involved preparation, the Jesuits murdered President Abraham Lincoln, using a complex system of spies, conspirators and co-conspirators in several different countries: Canada, Mexico, America, Austria and Italy. Lincoln knew of the assassination attempt, having been informed by close friends, including Reverend Charles Chiniquy, the priest he defended against the Jesuits years before. Lincoln said this about the Jesuits:

"The Jesuits are so expert in their deeds of blood, that Henry IV said it was impossible to escape them, and he became their victim, though he did all he could to protect himself. My escape from their hands, since the letter of the Pope to Jeff. Davis has sharpened a million of daggers, is more than a miracle."

Lincoln's assassin, John Wilkes Booth, not only escaped prosecution, he lived to old age under an assumed names (David E. George, John St. Helen among others). Booth died on January 13, 1903 in Enid, in the Oklahoma Territory, after voluntarily ingesting either strychnine or arsenic.

On July 2, 1881, President James Garfield was shot and killed by Charles J. Guiteau in another well-planned Jesuit operation.

Less than six months after his election, President William McKinley was shot and killed by Jesuit assassin Leon Czolgosz, thus emplacing Jesuit puppet Theodore Roosevelt. On November 22, 1963, President John F. Kennedy was gunned down by multiple assassins from the Jesuits' very own Murder, Inc., the Central Intelligence Agency.

The list of American political assassinations by the Jesuits numbers in the hundreds and includes not only high-ranking officials of both political parties in the government, but also the White House (Deputy White House Counsel Vincent Foster), Commerce Department (Secretary Ron Brown), Defense Department (Navy Secretary James Forrestal), military (Army General George Patton, Navy Admiral Jeremy Boorda, Army Corporal Pat Tillman), Justice Department (dozens of attorneys and aids), FBI, ATF, CIA, and many other departments. During President Clinton's presidency, more than 40 people, some close associates of the president, died suddenly under mysterious or suspicious circumstances, or were murdered outright. The probability of this many staffers and employees dying during this short period by chance alone is virtually zero.

While the vast majority of politicians since the birth of America have shrunk in terror and fear from the Jesuits, a brave few have stepped forward to warn us of the dangers. Consider what the inventor of the telegraph and Morse code had to say about the Jesuits:

“Popery [refers to the Jesuit-controlled pope and Vatican] is more dangerous and more formidable than any power in the United States, on the ground that, through its despotic organization, it can concentrate its efforts for any purpose with complete effect; and that organization being wholly under foreign control, it can have no real sympathy with anything American. Popery does not acknowledge the right of the people to govern, but claims for itself the supreme right to govern people and rulers by divine right. Popery does not tolerate the liberty of the press. It takes advantage, indeed, of our liberty of the press to use its own press against our liberty; but it proclaims in the thunders of the Vatican, and with a voice which it pronounces unchangeable, that it is a liberty never sufficiently to be execrated and detested. It does not tolerate liberty of conscience or liberty of opinion. They are denounced by the Sovereign Pontiff as a most pestilential error, a pest of all others to be dreaded in the State. It is not responsible to the people in its financial matters. It taxes at will, and is accountable to none but itself.”

Sadly, more than 150 years later, even with all the warnings from keen observers and insiders and egregious Jesuit behaviors, Americans still have not gotten the message, much less understood and acted on it. This unfortunate phenomenon is a grand testament to how brilliantly the Jesuits' PR machine functions.

The Jesuits' political reign of terror continues to this day, to ensure they maintain complete control over, and manipulation of, the entire political spectrum, not to mention every sector of American society.

The Jesuits were integral in the founding of the United States of America, even signing the founding documents.

The Jesuits were integral in the donation of the land for the capital, which was on a land that used to be called Rome by the previous owner, Francis Pope; and in the states of VIRGINia and MARYland.

The Jesuits were involved in the design of District of Columbia, with all of its Masonic/Satanic symbols; such as the upside-down pentagram, the Freemasonry compass, the owl, etc.; all of which attracts Satanic energy into D.C.

The Jesuits setup educational institutions, such as Georgetown University; to shape the minds of Americans, and to find people to use for their agenda.

The Jesuit caused the Civil War to bankrupt the United States Of America; which lead to the treasonous congressional Act of 1871, which created a new entity called the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, which is a city-state corporation, which has a new Constitution. Two other city-states make up the triad that rules the world: London, Washington, DC, and Vatican City.

The Jesuits fulfilled their evil Jesuit Oath, by killing Presidents John Adams, Thomas Jefferson, James Monroe, William Henry Harrison, Zachary Taylor, Abraham Lincoln and John F. Kennedy; who had stood up to them.

The Jesuits caused the stock market crash of 1929, so that they could have their people buy up the corporations for pennies on the Dollar.

The Jesuits caused the Titanic (actually it was the RMS Olympic) to sink, killing Benjamin Guggenheim, Isador Strauss, and John Jacob Astor; who were very wealthy and opposed the creation of the Federal Reserve Bank.

The Jesuit setup their IRS, which was never ratified by all of the states; to collect interest on their Federal Reserve Notes.

The Jesuits use the Rothschild's, Rockefellers, etc.; to steal the wealth of Americans via the Federal Reserve Bank, money printing and inflation; through fractional reserve lending; through stock market manipulation, etc. All done in the name of "Love!"

The Jesuit's setup the CIA, the Catholic Intelligence Agency; not to protect Americans, but to protect the Jesuits.

The Jesuits use over 50% of the U.S. budget for their war machine; which recently helped them take control of Afghanistan, Iraq and Libya. This is why Syria, Iran and North Korea, are being demonized by American leaders, as they have not bowed down to the authority of the Jesuit General, and do not have a Jesuit-Rothschild central bank.

At the end of the day, the script is very simple; In order for the Jesuit General to control every country in his One World Government, they need to control the money supply of every country.

The Jesuits use the District of Columbia as their war machine, to carry out their agenda, to push the world into their One World Government; and no doubt, to enforce the mark of the beast.

They steal the wealth of Americans via their Federal Reserve Bank, their illegal IRS, through manipulation of the stock market, through fractional reserve lending, etc.

They use the money to fund the military of their Zionist Israel, to control the Middle East.

They use the money to fund the massive war machine, which now has 900 military bases in 153 countries.

They use the money to fund, train, and arm ISIS rebels; as they are not fighting for Islam or Mohammed, but for the agenda of the Jesuits of Rome.

During the past 30 years, the District of Columbia has spent 14 trillion dollars on wars. Who paid for all of that? American taxpayers, America is the engine that drives the war machine.

The Jesuits of Rome control America, so it may appear that it is the beast, but it is only the tool of the Jesuits to carry out their Inquisition, to push the world into their One World Government, and to enforce the mark of the beast.

Before the United States of America was founded, the settlers were 98% Protestant, as they had fled Europe to escape the Inquisition of the Jesuits of Rome, who are the military arm of the Vatican. They banned Catholics from being a lawyer, from voting and from holding public office. But again, you were not taught that in public school history of America.

The Jesuits came to America to setup shop, to be able to control Protestant Americans. The Jesuit Carroll family played a huge role in founding the District of Columbia, which is used to control Americans. The Jesuits were expelled from some 80 countries, states, and nations. Why not the United States? It was because the Jesuits controlled Freemasonry, which has left its symbolic picture all over Federal Mall.

In the book 'Ark and the Dove: The Beginning of Civil and Religious Liberties in America', author J. Moss Ives reveals:

"The Jesuits came to America secretly on boats called the Ark and the Dove to start the Mary Land Colony."

MARYland, though Catholic-founded, had (like all the other colonies) laws excluding Roman Catholics from holding public office. Once these laws were nullified by the Maryland Constitution of 1776, Jesuit Daniel Carroll was elected to the Maryland Senate, serving 1777–1781.

Daniel Carroll (July 22, 1730 – July 5, 1796) was an American politician and plantation owner from Maryland, considered one of the Founding Fathers of the United States.

Carroll was sent abroad for his education. Between 1742 and 1748 he, and his brother John, studied under the Jesuits at the College of St. Omer in France, which was established for the education of English Catholics.

He supported the American Revolution, served in the Confederation Congress, was a delegate to the Philadelphia Convention of 1787 which wrote the Constitution, and was a U.S. Representative in the First Congress. Daniel Carroll was one of five men to sign both the Articles of Confederation and the Constitution.

One of three commissioners appointed to survey the newly designated District of Columbia and acquire land for the new federal capital in the District, Carroll was related to two major land-owners whose land was acquired by the government, his brother-in-law Notley Young and nephew Daniel Carroll of Duddington.

The new United States Capitol was to be built on the wooded hill owned by his nephew, Daniel Carroll of Duddington. As one of his first official acts as commissioner, on April 15, 1791 he and fellow commissioner David Stuart of Virginia laid the cornerstone for the beginning boundary line survey of the District at Jones Point, on the south bank of the Potomac near Alexandria, formerly in Virginia.

The land that was donated bordered Virginia and Maryland, which when combined means the “Virgin Mary(land)”. The land is located by Tiber Creek and Tiber Creek is a tributary of the Potomac River in Washington, D.C.

Originally called ‘Goose Creek’, it was renamed by settler Francis Pope. Pope owned a 400-acre farm along the banks of the creek which, in a play on his surname, he named it new “Rome” after the Italian city, and he renamed the creek in honor of the river which flows through that city. It was southeast of then Georgetown, Maryland, amid lands that were selected for the City of Washington, the new capital of the United States. It flowed south toward the base of Capitol Hill, then west meeting the Potomac near Jefferson Pier.

Cousin Charles Carroll (September 19, 1737 – November 14, 1832), known as Charles Carroll of Carrollton or Charles Carroll III to distinguish him from his similarly named relatives, was a wealthy Maryland planter and an early advocate of independence from the Kingdom of Great Britain.

The young Carroll was educated at a Jesuit preparatory school known as Bohemia Manor in Cecil County on Maryland’s Eastern Shore. At the age of eleven, he was sent to France where he continued in Jesuit schools; first at the College of St. Omer, and later the Lycée Louis-le-Grand (Louis the Great College) in Paris, graduating in 1755.

He served as a delegate to the Continental Congress and Confederation Congress and later as first United States Senator for Maryland. He was the only Catholic and the longest-lived (and last surviving) signatory of the Declaration of Independence, dying 56 years after the document was first signed.

From the book 'The Life Of Charles Carroll of Carrollton' by Lewis A. Leonard:

"George Washington had no truer, no stauncher friend than Charles Carroll, though the world has partially blinked the fact. Others of the Colonial fathers might waver here, and falter there, but Charles Carroll always upheld the hands of Washington as Aaron and Hur upheld the hands of Moses in his battle with Amalek."

"CHARLES CARROLL of Carrollton easily ranked next to Washington in the value of the services rendered the patriot cause in our Revolutionary struggle."

"He devoted more of his time and more of his money to the cause of the people than any other patriot. He spent more time with Washington at army headquarters than any other civilian, and was more closely identified with the purposes, impulses and activities of the great commander than any other man in or out of the army."

"During the critical year of 1776 he was a member of Congress, a member of the Maryland Assembly, Member of the Convention to draw a new constitution for the state, member of three different provincial committees, member of the War Board charged with the conduct of the war, and a commissioner from the United States to Canada. And in every position he was either the most active, or one of the most active in the work."

"He was the richest man that signed The Declaration of Independence, the first man that signed, the most useful man that signed, the only Roman Catholic that signed, and the last man to die of those who signed it."

Charles Carroll was the Jesuit handler of George Washington. No Jesuit would have been elected as President, but they didn't need to, as long as they controlled the President.

Brother John Carroll (January 8, 1735 – December 3, 1815[1]) was a prelate of the Roman Catholic Church who served as the first bishop and archbishop in the United States. He served as the ordinary of the Archdiocese of Baltimore, Maryland.

John Carroll joined the Society of Jesus (the "Jesuits") as a postulant at the age of 18 in 1753. John Carroll was educated at the Jesuit College of St. Omer in French Flanders. In 1755, he began his studies of philosophy and theology at Liège, Belgium. After fourteen years, he was ordained to the diaconate and later the priesthood in 1769. He was the richest man in America in late 1700's. John Carroll became the first catholic bishop in America, presiding over the See of Baltimore, which included Washington D.C.

Carroll is also known as the founder of Georgetown University (the oldest Catholic university in the United States), which to this day is used to train the minds of people to carry out the Jesuit's agenda. Georgetown alumni fill the ranks of the foreign services, military branches, and most of the government agencies.

Jesuits worked to change the laws of America, to allow Catholics to take control. The Jesuits covertly had the 1st Amendment created, not to establish religious freedom for Christians, as they already had it. They did it to create religious freedom for Catholics, and to pave the way for them to take control of the country. You may doubt all of what I have said or quoted directly from those who lived it and wrote of it.

The Establishment Clause of the Religion Clause is the first of several pronouncements in the First Amendment to the United States Constitution, stating,

“Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof...”

The Establishment Clause is a limitation placed upon the United States Congress preventing it from passing legislation respecting an establishment of religion. The second half of the Establishment Clause inherently prohibits the government from preferring any one religion over another.

Christians today believe that it was declared to ensure their religious freedom, but it really was designed to allow Catholics to practice their faith, and setup churches. Freemasons worship Lucifer according to the 19th degree of Albert Pike's work 'Morals & Dogma'. The Jesuits re-wrote Freemasonry in 1753 at the college of Claremont in Paris.

Even members of the New Age movement recognize this connection. Theosophist Helena Blavatsky says this:

“It is curious to note too that most of the bodies which work these, such as the Ancient and Accepted Scottish Rite, the Rite of Avignon, the Order of the Temple, Fessler's Rite, the "Grand Council of the Emperors of the East and West—"Sovereign Prince Masons," etc., etc., are nearly all the offspring of the sons of Ignatius Loyola. The Baron Hundt, Chevalier Ramsay, Tschoudy, Zinnendorf, and numerous others who founded the grades in these rites, worked under instructions from the General of the Jesuits. The nest where these high degrees were hatched, and no Masonic rite is free from their baleful influence more or less, was the Jesuit College of Clermont at Paris.”

Freemasonry carries on the legacy of the Knights Templar, a military order controlled by the Pope. Although the Knights Templar supposedly do not exist in the same form, a group associated with Freemasonry called the Knights Templar does still exist, and similar organizations such as the Knights of Malta also carry on the legacy.

Here is a quote from the book '50 years in the Church of Rome' by Charles P. Chiniquy, which summarizes their strategy:

“We are determined, like you, to take possession of the United States and rule them; but we cannot do that without acting secretly and with the utmost wisdom. If our plans are known, they will surely be defeated. ... Silently and patiently, we must mass our Roman Catholics in the great cities of the United States, ... Let us then multiply our votes; let us call our poor but faithful ... from every corner of the world, ... How sad will their awakening be, when with our out-numbering votes, ... we will rule the United States, and lay them at the feet of the Vicar ... that he may put an end to their ... impious laws of liberty ...”

The Jesuits caused many Irish and other European Catholics to immigrate to America, increasing their power. They designed the layout of Washington D.C. to invoke Satanic energy. The bottom point of the Satanic upside down pentagram is on the White House, which attracts Satanic energy onto those who are in the area. A masonic compass is clearly seen.

The layout of the U.S. Capitol clearly has a Masonic owl, which may point to the false god Moloch.

The Capital dome and Washington Monument Obelisk mirror the Vatican.

They both have an obelisk placed in front of them, which designates them as a temple of sun worship.

The Washington monument is 555 tall, 55.5 wide, 55.5 wide = 666 (555 feet when converted to inches = 666).

The site of the Capitol was originally property lot #666 when the Federal City was laid out by Jesuit-Masonic surveyors.

The goddess on the top of the U.S. Capitol dome is the goddess of war, statue of Persephone. Persephone is the queen of the Underworld in Greek and Roman. This is also not part of your learning in public school.

The American form of Asherah is known as Columbia, so naming it The District of Columbia is saying that it's her district, her territory where she rules.

At the top of the U.S. capital is the Statue of Freedom—also known as Armed Freedom, which faces east towards the sunrise, towards Rome.

She sits on a circular shape, representing the earth, and has “E Pluribus Unum” inscribed around its base, which means “out of many, one.” This points to the Jesuit’s mission for the United States of America, to use it to push the world into their One World Government.

She has many fasces symbols under her feet, which represent that the capital is under Roman authority. The fasces are a bundle of rods and a single axe which were carried as a symbol of magisterial and priestly authority in ancient Rome.

That is fitting as the city-state corporation of the District of Columbia is used by the Jesuits to control the world’s intelligence agencies and military powers, to carry out war against the leaders of countries who have not bowed down to their authority.

The fasces symbol shows that they have authority over our court system. You see these fasces symbols inside the U.S. House of Representatives, representing Rome’s authority in that building. Jesuit Pope Francis knows what those fasces symbols mean!

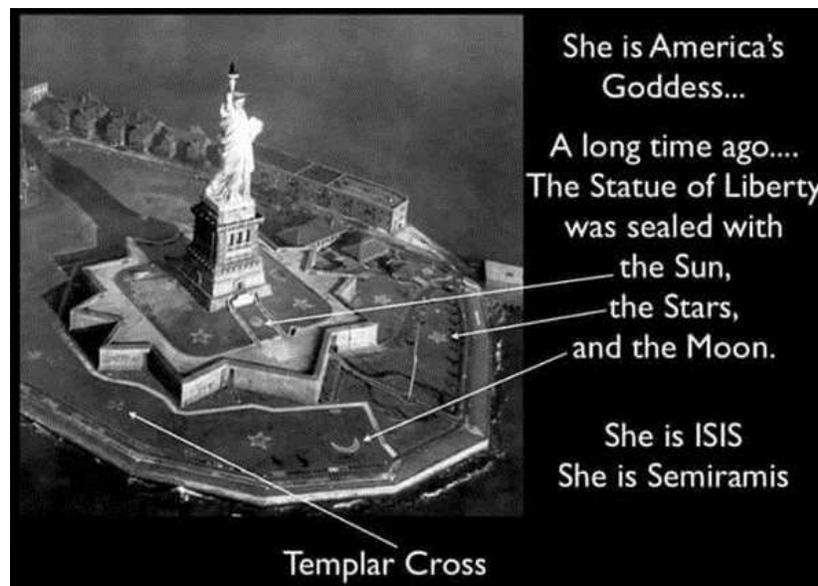

Washington, D.C. does not have a statute or memorial or Scriptural passage anywhere to honor the name of Jesus Christ, yet it honors Confederate General Albert Pike, author of the Masonic ‘bible’ known as ‘Morals and Dogma’. In the 19th degree of Masonic rites and rituals, it states that Lodge brothers worship Lucifer, the light bringer. The name Lucifer is found but once in the King James Bible, in Isaiah 14:12 – “How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! how art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations!” All but one or two modern translations of the Bible removed the word “Lucifer” and replaced it with “Morning Star”. You need to know that it was a Jesuit responsible for this in the publishing of the NIV Bible.

Note the Fasces on either side of the Speaker of the House Chair above.

The Statue of Liberty in New York is really ISIS, with her pagan god symbols. The Templar Cross points to Rome, who also uses the symbols of the sun and moon in their pagan god worship.

George Washington was a Freemason. Freemasonry is controlled by the Jesuit's Illuminati. President Washington's slave attendants tell of his death bed conversion to Catholicism in the present of a Jesuit priest. The story is that Father Leonard Neale, S.J, was called to Mount Vernon from St. Mary's Mission across the Piscatawney River four hours before Washington's death. Tradition also holds that shortly after Washington's death Father Neale sent a heavily sealed packet to Rome. If this be true, it may yet turn up in the Vatican archives, or it may have been lost during the Jesuits' hidden years.

Washington's body servant Juba is authority for the fact that the General made the Sign of the Cross at meals. He may have learned this from his Catholic lieutenants, Stephen Moylan or John Fitzgerald. At Valley Forge, Washington forbade the burning in effigy of the Pontiff on "Pope's Day." Several times as President he is reported to have slipped into a Catholic church to hear Sunday Mass.

It was a long tradition among both the Maryland Province Jesuit Fathers and the Negro slaves of the Washington plantation and those of the surrounding area that the first President died a Catholic. These and other facts about George Washington are reported in the Paulist INFORMATION magazine by Doran Hurley. It is surprising to some as to why so much of the influence of Roman Catholicism is not taught in public schools, School books have been so whitewashed clean of the influence of the Jesuits and Freemasons.

George Washington was in full Masonic attire when they laid the cornerstone of the US Capital in 1793.

The Great Seal on THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA One Dollar Bill proclaims the Jesuit's mission for their District of Columbia.

The Great Seal was first used publicly in 1782.

The Latin words point to one place, Rome.

“ANNUIT COEPTIS,” meaning “He favors our undertaking.” The ‘he’ is the Jesuit General, and/or Satan.

NOVUS ORDO SECLORUM = “New Order of the Ages”. The Jesuits helped found the country, to use it to push the world into their One World Government.

On the right side is a Satanic hexagram above the head of the eagle (phoenix); which has 32 feathers on one side and 33 on the other, pointing to the levels of Freemasonry; 13 stripes on the shield, 13 leaves, 13 arrows and 13 tail feathers; and the motto E Pluribus Unum, which is Latin for “out of many, one”, pointing to the formation of their One World Government.

The capital letters of THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, point to their D.C. Corporation. The all-cap version is incorporated in Joe Biden's State of Delaware.

The pyramid with the all-seeing eye is Satanic, representing His watchful eye.

IN GOD WE TRUST is not pointing to the Elohim of Scriptures, but rather to the god that is represented on the dollar bill with the all-seeing eye, Satan.

George Bush Jr. made a speech which pointed out that our founders created America to fulfill the goal of the Babylonian system, a New World Order, where Satan reigns supreme over mankind.

“When our founders declared a new order of the ages, they were acting on an ancient hope that is meant to be fulfilled.”

The Jesuit Oath

Here is some of the text of the Jesuit Extreme Oath of Induction as recorded in the Journals of the 62nd Congress, 3rd Session, of the United States Congressional Record (House Calendar No. 397, Report No. 1523, 15 February, 1913, pp. 3215-3216)

I furthermore promise and declare that I will, when opportunity present, make and wage relentless war, secretly or openly, against all heretics, Protestants and Liberals, as I am directed to do, to extirpate and exterminate them from the face of the whole earth; and that I will spare neither age, sex or condition; and that I will hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics, rip up the stomachs and wombs of their women and crush their infants' heads against the walls, in order to annihilate forever their execrable race.

That when the same cannot be done openly, I will secretly use the poisoned cup, the strangulating cord, the steel of the poniard or the leaden bullet, regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons, whatever may be their condition in life, either public or private, as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus.”

When you read the underscored portion of the Jesuit oath, think of Dr. Anthony Fauci and Dr. Robert Redfield, both Jesuit-educated coadjutors (.The term coadjutor (or coadjutor, literally "co-assister" in Latin) is a title qualifier indicating that the holder shares the office with another person, with powers equal to the other in all but formal order of precedence. Dr. Fauci and Dr. Redfield turned this year of 2020 upside down for the nation. Jesuits are the originators of the vaccines. Hard to believe? Yes, Edward Jenner was an S.J. (Society of Jesus) -- a Jesuit -- who taught the medical world how to use the POISONED NEEDLE. He was the first to associate human diseases with that of animals. This idea paved the way for vaccination which is responsible for the deaths of multiplied millions of people around the world. The idea that humans and animals are related and share the same diseases led to the theory of evolution which is responsible for the spiritual death of multiplied millions more.

In the countryside in Gloucestershire, England, where Jenner lived, the farmers had a legend or superstition that catching cowpox (a disease of cows which was transferred to the cows' udders by unwashed or bleeding hands) would act like a charm or amulet to make them immune from catching the human disease of smallpox.

Medicine man Jenner took this local legend or old wives' tale and turned it into a scientific FACT. He did this by first getting some scientific credentials (M.D., F.R.S. - Fellow of the Royal Society). Next he wrote a book and on the title page only he used the term VARIOLAE VACCINAE. This means in Medieval Latin: smallpox of the cow. Thus associating a human disease with a disease of the cow. There never was such a disease as smallpox of the cow until "Dr." Jenner invented it for the title of his book.

Dr. Charles Creighton— a brilliant Scottish doctor—exposed Jenner's clever sleight of hand in his masterly tome: 'Jenner and Vaccination'. When Jenner invented his Variolae Vaccinae or smallpox of the cow, he planted the insidious seed that men and beasts share the same disease . . . and therefore must be related. This opened the door to vaccination or the injecting of animal diseases into humans. This new bizarre rite spread like the plague all over England. It was not confined to England however, it soon spread to Continental Europe and even crossed the ocean to America. Despite the lies of Dr. Anthony Fauci, God never intended the body to be injected with a poison to develop immunity. It is one huge JESUIT LIE! Incidentally, the name Anthony is from Anthony an Egyptian hermit and the founder of the Roman monastic orders. He was the patron saint of pigs. As a Jesuit, Dr. Fauci is orchestrating mass genocide on humanity!

Here's how the oath of these Jesuits has been carried out through American history.

John Adams wrote to Jefferson about the rebirth of the Jesuits in 1814, and the danger they were to America. "I do not like the resurrection of the Jesuits. They have a General now in Russia, in correspondence with the Jesuit in the United States, who are more numerous than anybody knows. Shall we not have swarms of them here, in as many disguises as only a king of gypsies can assume. If ever any congregation of men could merit eternal perdition on earth and in hell, it is this company of Loyola."
Source: 'Codeword Barbelon' by P.D. Stuart

Jefferson replied back, "Like you, I disapprove of the restoration of the Jesuits, for it means a step backward from light into darkness." Are we not experiencing a step backward in the nation's life?

At the Congress of Vienna in 1814, which was led by the Jesuits, the leaders of Europe formed a plan to destroy the America government, because if they didn't, the concepts of a Republic that is for the people would spread to destroy them.

At the Treaty of Verona in 1822, the leaders of Europe and the Pope/Jesuits gathered to discuss the ways to destroy the U.S.

Their main strategy was to send as many catholic immigrants to the American shores as they could, in order to takeover and destroy this government. Between 1820 and 1860, the Irish (most of which were Catholic) were never less than a third of all immigrants. link Irish Catholics are among Catholics some of the most loyal to Jesuit Catholic values.

Note: Today they are doing the same thing, by allowing illegal immigration from Mexico, Central and South America which is 95% Catholic. This gives them more people to support their agenda.

Jefferson told President Monroe that “we need to do everything in our power to stop this Holy Alliance from the Pope, to destroy America.”

America’s response to the two European congresses was the Monroe Doctrine, which said, “You stay over there, we’ll stay over here. If you ever colonize in the Western hemisphere, we will consider it any act of war.”

John Adams and Thomas Jefferson, who both opposed the Holy Alliance of the Papal Church, both died on the very same day, on July 4, 1826, the 50th anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

What are the odds of such being a coincidence? And no autopsies were performed that may have proved that they were poisoned.

President James Monroe died on July 4, 1831, five years later, on the anniversary of the Declaration of Independence.

Again, what are the odds? He supposedly died from TB, but the symptoms are basically the same as arsenic poisoning.

President William Henry Harrison was elected March 4, 1841 and served for only 35 days, then he got sick and died.

He had defied the Jesuits in his inauguration speech, as he defied their kings, and said that no man should have that power. He also opposed the annexation of Texas, which the Jesuits needed to push the slavery issue.

John Tyler took his place and the annexation of Texas was approved within a few months.

President Zachary Taylor only served from March 1849 until his death in July 1850, when he got violently sick on July 4th (go figure). He fought the poison for 5 days and avoided the July 4th curse, he died on the 9th.

He opposed the expansion of slavery and refused to sign a compromise which the Jesuits wanted.

Millard Fillmore took his place, who was more malleable to the Jesuits will. He signed the compromise that Taylor refused to sign.

Do you now see the Jesuit's oath fulfilled against the U.S. Presidents?

"I will secretly use the poisoned cup... regardless of the honor, rank, dignity, or authority of the person or persons... as I at any time may be directed so to do by any agent of the Pope or Superior of the Brotherhood of the Holy Faith, of the Society of Jesus."

There's just no way that so many Presidents who opposed the Jesuits, died suddenly from being sick; especially on the anniversary of our founding.

The primary goal of the Jesuits for the Civil War was to bankrupt America. They funded both sides and caused them to get into massive debt.

Abraham Lincoln had proclaimed, "The war (the American Civil War) would never have been possible without the sinister influence of the Jesuits."

"I feel more and more every day that it is not against the Americans of the South along that I am fighting; it is more against the Pope of Rome, his perfidious Jesuits and their blind and bloodthirsty slaves." Abraham Lincoln to Charles Chiniquy

The civil war could have been ended early, but bad war strategies (they were made bad on purpose from people who were controlled by the Jesuits) caused the war to continue, so that 100's of thousands of Protestants were killed in the Southern states of Georgia, North Carolina, South Carolina, etc.

When you eliminate Protestants and import lots of Catholics, the balance of power shifts.

Lincoln had funded the war by printing his own money, called Greenbacks, which opposed the Jesuits control of the money supply.

After the war Lincoln had to obtain financing quick, and he turned to the Jesuit Rothschild's, to secure funding, which caused him to make many compromises with them.

Abraham Lincoln said, "I have two great enemies, the Southern Army in front of me and the financial institutions in the rear. Of the two the one in my rear is my greatest foe." He was assassinated later that year.

Lincoln was killed by John Wilkes Booth who was a Catholic, who was being supported by the Jesuits. He was supported both financially and with their protection plans.

Booth's co-conspirators were Lewis Powell and David Herold, who were assigned to kill Secretary of State William H. Seward, and George Atzerodt, who was to kill Vice President Andrew Johnson. By simultaneously eliminating the top three people in the administration, Booth and his co-conspirators hoped to sever the continuity of the United States government. The rest of the conspirators' plot failed; Powell only managed to wound Seward, while Atzerodt, Johnson's would-be assassin, lost his nerve and fled to Washington.

Four of the planners of Lincoln's assassination were hung.

"It would seem that the Jesuits had had it in mind, from the beginning of the war [the American Civil War of 1861-1865], to find an occasion for the taking off [i.e., the assassination] of Mr. [Abraham] Lincoln. The favorite policy of the Jesuits [is] that of assassination." Source: U.S. Army Brigadier General Thomas M. Harris; "Rome's Responsibility for the Assassination of Abraham Lincoln"; 1897; Page 19)

JFK was killed because he defied the Jesuits. President Kennedy declared the privately owned Federal Reserve Bank would soon be out of business.

JFK starting printing $5 bills to replace the Federal Reserve Notes, he opposed the Vietnam War, he defended the Constitution over the Roman Canon Law, and he said that he was going to expose the secret societies. Five months later he was assassinated.

President Reagan reestablished diplomatic relations with the Vatican. Christians largely make Reagan out to be a good guy, but he was the first President to be sworn in on the West Front of the United States Capitol Building, that faces the Satanic obelisk, which is a phallic symbol of the sun god. Jesuit Roman Catholicism is about "Sun" worship, and not "Son worship".

And it was Reagan who caused the United States to have full diplomatic relations with the Holy See for the first time since 1867.

Diplomatic relations seem to have been stopped in 1867, because it was proven that the Jesuits caused President Lincoln to be assassinated; and the previous Presidents to be killed.

The rights of states and therefore the citizens of those states were killed in 1868, when the Jesuits had the 14th amendment, one of the Reconstruction Amendments, ratified.

It was written under the guise of an amendment to give rights to former slaves following the American Civil War, but in reality it created a new empire, one that serves the Jesuits.

Before this amendment, people were citizens of their state, not the Federal Government. Now everyone has a Social Security Number and they are a U.S. Citizen, and they are controlled by the U.S.

Part of the 14th Amendment says “No State shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States;”

That is saying that the Federal government rules supreme, and that all of the rights that we were given in our Constitution are now just privileges that can be taken away by the Federal government.

Before this amendment, the Federal government was the servant of the states. But now the states are subservient to the national government, and the citizens are slaves to their new master.

The ‘Act of 1871’ created the Jesuit-owned city-state corporate of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Under no constitutional authority to do so, Congress being in dire straits, created a separate form of government for the District of Columbia, which is a ten mile square parcel of land.

They created the city-state corporation of the UNITED STATES OF AMERICA, that uses an altered version of the constitution, titled in all capital letters as “THE CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA”

The United States of America as founded by our forefathers is bankrupt and dead. The UNITED STATES OF AMERICA of the Jesuits controls the people of America, via their corporation. The leaders in Washington work for the interest of the corporation, not the people; but they feign working for the people, as to not incite a revolt.

“Behind the ostensible government sits enthroned an invisible government owing no allegiance and acknowledging no responsibility to the people. To destroy this invisible government, to befool the unholy alliance between corrupt business and corrupt politics is the first task of the statesmanship of today.” – Theodore Roosevelt.

The UNITED STATES OF AMERICA is a federal corporation, not a country. Search 28 U.S.C. § 3002

The Titanic was sunk to eliminate people who stood in their way of establishing the Federal Reserve Bank.

The evil ones sunk the ship on purpose to get rid of a few key people who opposed the creation of their Federal Reserve Bank. Benjamin Guggenheim, Isador Strauss (the head of Macy's department stores) and John Jacob Astor, probably the wealthiest man in the world; were all killed when it sank. These three men were the main opposition to the creation of the Federal Reserve Bank.

The ship that was sunk was the RMS Olympic, which was the Titanic's sister ship, and made to look like the Titanic.

They control the Federal Reserve Bank

Thomas Jefferson warned "If the American people ever allow private banks to control the issue of their money, first by inflation and then by deflation, the banks and corporations that will grow up around them, will deprive the people of their property until their children will wake up homeless on the continent their fathers conquered."

President James A. Garfield said, "Whoever controls the volume of money in our country is absolute master of all industry and commerce and when you realize that the entire system is very easily controlled, one way or another, by a few powerful men at the top, you will not have to be told how periods of inflation and depression originate." He was assassinated two weeks later in 1881.

Mayer Amschel Rothschild said: "Let me issue and control a nation's money and I care not who write the laws." When we report on the Rothschild's, they tend to be singled out as the world's most evil family. We need to recognize that in 1823/24, the Papacy designated the House of Rothschild as the Vatican "Fiduciary Agent". This is being the equivalent of a "Power of Attorney", making the Jesuit-controlled Vatican partners in crime. Remember, it was the Congress of Wilhemsbad where the Jesuit Adam Weishaupt set about to control the world and the wealth of the Rothschild's began the Illuminati. That Congress was held at the Rothschild's estate in Hanau, Germany an hour north of Frankfurt, Germany.

They setup private central banks in each country, and then enslave the country and its people into debt with wars, inflation and depressions.

Since the Federal Reserve Act was established in 1913, the US Dollar has lost 98% of its value in relation to gold. So not only are they enslaving our country in debt, but they are reducing the value of our hard earned money.

When they increase the money supply, such as with the recent Quantitative Easing programs, this causes the prices of commodities, food and goods to rise (inflation).

“History records that the money changers have used every form of abuse, intrigue, deceit, and violent means possible to maintain their control over governments by controlling money and its issuance.” – President James Madison

Since the Fed was created... President Roosevelt confiscated our gold. After JFK was killed, they took away silver certificates. President Johnson removed silver from our coins. And Nixon removed us from the gold standard on August 15th, 1971.

They gave us Federal Reserve Notes, which are not backed by gold or silver, and can be devalued at any time.

President Woodrow Wilson, who signed the Federal Reserve Act into Law, later said “I am a most unhappy man. I have unwittingly ruined my country. A great industrial nation is now controlled by its system of credit. We are no longer a government by free opinion, no longer a government by conviction and the vote of the majority, but a government by the opinion and duress of a small group of dominant men.”

Their money printing debt scheme is the biggest fraud EVER conceived. The Fed creates credit out of thin air via their computers; or they pay the treasury a small printing fee for currency. For every Dollar they create, our government has agreed to pay them interest. Every year our national debt increases from the cost of wars, bailouts, social programs, etc., so we have to pay more interest.

The U.S. debt is now so large, that we can't pay it off, so we're enslaved forever paying interest to the Fed. This is what Thomas Jefferson warned us about!

“We are in danger of being overwhelmed with irredeemable paper, mere paper, representing not gold not silver; no sir, representing nothing but broken promises, bad faith, bankrupt corporations, cheated creditors and a ruined people.” – Daniel Webster

The CIA was created by the Jesuits. The founder, Alan Dulles, was a Knight of Malta. President Harry Truman was a Freemason. William J. Donovan, called the 'Father of Central Intelligence, was a Knight of Malta.

Every director of the CIA, has had some connection, whether through a Jesuit priest handler, their college, the society of Skull and Bones, Freemasonry, etc. For example, former President George H.W. Bush Sr. was CIA Director, and he was a Skull & Bones member.

It's the Jesuits main intelligence agency to gather intel on Americans and people worldwide. They also control the Israeli MOSSAD and MI6 of the UK.

In 1981, CIA Director William Casey said, “We'll know our disinformation program is complete when everything the American public believes is false.”

President Obama passed NDAA 2017, which gives the CIA authority to regulate 'fake news sites'.

CIA

Who formed the CIA? It was a Catholic Knight of Malta, William "Wild Bill" Donovan. He was considered the "father of the CIA." he was also the former head of the OSS before he was used to create the CIA.

FBI

Who Formed the FBI? It was a powerful Roman Catholic who was also a Knight of Malta and a trustee of The Catholic University of America. Charles Joseph Bonaparte.

The National Security Agency logo features a silver key, which represents Rome's universal temporal power – the right to rule all kings, nations and peoples. See logo below.

Above right: Papal regalia and insignia; the gold key represents the Popes' claim to universal spiritual power (no salvation outside of the church) and the silver key represents Popes' claim to universal temporal power - the right to rule all kings, nations and peoples. It is obviously no coincidence that the NSA includes a silver key in its emblem. The NSA was formally established by the Jesuit-handled Masonic president "Dirty Harry" Truman - the NSA upholds the temporal power of the Pope and therefore is a surveillance/cyber-war tool of the Jesuits' neo-Roman empire.

The UNITED STATES OF AMERICA is the war machine of the Jesuits. This is perhaps one of the most difficult things to discover by millions of men and women who have served in the five branches of the Military Establishment.

Yet, we know that rising to the officer grade of O-6 and higher one has to be a Lodge brother of Freemasonry or a practicing Roman Catholic. I know this from personal communications I had as an enlisted man in the U.S. Army with two officers who held the grade of Lt. Colonel who were on promotion lists being considered for promotion of full-bird Colonel. Each of these two men were battalion commanders of nuclear artillery battalions in West Germany during the late 1950s.

America has been at war 222 out of 239 years since 1776. The American public has rarely ever challenged this nation's policy with perhaps the exception of the protest movement during the Vietnam War era.

WW I – They caused the Lusitania to be sunk, to draw America into the war.

WW II – Do you really think that the Japanese took Pearl Harbor by surprise? No! They incited Japan to attack, and they let them do it; to justify entering WW II.

Vietnam War – They used the Gulf of Tonkin incident, also known as the USS Maddox incident, to draw the United States more directly into the Vietnam War. But the incident was made up.

The Jesuit CIA created/trained/armed/funded Al Qaeda and ISIS, to carry out their agenda, to justify endless military action in other countries. Photographs of the late Senator John McCain exist with the senator meeting with Al Qaeda and ISIS leaders in Syria during 2013. Picture on page 44.

Afghanistan and Iraq Invasions – The CIA/MOSSAD caused 9/11, to justify military action in Iraq and Afghanistan, saying that Iraq had 'weapons of mass destruction', which proved later to be a lie.

Look at the recent actions of the President of the Jesuit's District of Columbia corporation:

President Carter – El-Salvador, Guatemala, Angola and Afghanistan.

President Bush Sr. – The Gulf War, Panama, Somalia, and the Soviet Union.

President Clinton – The Balkins, Iraq, Sudan and Rwanda

President Bush Jr. – Iraq and Afghanistan

President Obama – Libya, Syira, Yemen, Afghanistan and Ukraine.

President Trump – Syria and Iraq, with North Korea and Iran in the cross-hairs.

“If Tyranny and Oppression come to this land, it will be in the guise of fighting a foreign enemy.” – President James Madison

They control our Educational System. The Jesuits have openly created 28 colleges and dozens of secondary schools, to shape students minds, and to find people who they can use for their agenda.

Georgetown University is the primary college that has been used to take control of America. The list of alumni serving in government, military, is in the hundreds.

Click on this link to see a Georgetown University alumni list, which includes the following people who have been used for military actions against other countries:

President Bill Clinton, pushed military action in the Balkins, Iraq, Sudan and Rwanda.

President Lyndon B. Johnson, pushed America into the Vietnam War, and was complicit in the Israeli attack on the USS Liberty.

Donald Rumsfeld, Secretary of Defense during CIA/MOSSAD 9/11 false flag, and the invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq

George Tenet Director of Central Intelligence during 9/11 and the invasions of Afghanistan and Iraq

Robert Gates, Director of the CIA, Deputy National Security Advisor, and Secretary of Defense.

Steve Bannon, White House Chief Strategist and Senior Counselor to the President, 2017–present

Jesuits have infiltrated and control many of the formerly Protestant Universities, such as Harvard, Yale, Princeton, etc.

The National Education Association was founded by John D. Rockefeller, who said “I don’t want a nation of thinkers, I want a nation of workers.”

Quotes about the Jesuits, which expose them for who they are:

“I have learnt most of all from the Jesuit Order. So far, there has been nothing more imposing on earth than the hierarchical organization of the Catholic Church. A good part of that organization I have transported direct to my own party. The Catholic Church must be held up as an example. I will tell you a secret. I am founding an order. In Himmler (who would become head of the Nazi party) I see our Ignatius de Loyola (Jesuit founder).” –(Adolph Hitler)

Hitler was a Roman Catholic, in good standing with the Vatican, and was never excommunicated by Rome.

“The Jesuits...are a secret society – a sort of Masonic order – with super-added features of revolting odiousness, and a thousand times more dangerous.” –(Samuel Morse (1791-1872; American inventor of the telegraph; author of the book ‘Foreign Conspiracy Against the Liberties of the United States’)

“It is my opinion that if the liberties of this country – the United States of America – are destroyed, it will be by the subtlety of the Roman Catholic Jesuit priests, for they are the most crafty, dangerous enemies to civil and religious liberty. They have instigated MOST of the wars of Europe.” –(Marquis de LaFayette (1757-1834; French statesman and general. He served in the American Continental Army under the command of General George Washington during the American Revolutionary War.)

There is so much more that I could include about the real controllers of the United States of America, but my case is made that perhaps we should not expect the U.S. Supreme Court to rule in the way many Americans hope and expect.

The Supreme Court's form of denial of the most compelling and legitimate legal cases has been used by the New World Order globalist cabal for many decades. In this way, the SCOTUS has been systematically used to greatly advance the NWO agenda, particularly those having to do with the rapidly expanding Cultural Marxism and Communism in America.

These two highly destructive pillars of the globalist's NWO platform are being implemented at breakneck speed to collapse the American Republic by profoundly undermining the territorial integrity of the United States as well as by destroying national sovereignty with every SCOTUS ruling.

The most recent and corrupt incarnation of the Supreme Court of the United States began with the highly unusual appointment of John Roberts.

The following data point is essential to understanding the extraordinary degree of complicity Chief Justice Roberts has in the ongoing attempt to overthrow President Donald Trump:

Everything now points to the great likelihood that President Trump was deceived into appointing three Roman Catholic justices who are really died-in-the-wool Jesuit globalists. All three Trump appointees were traitors and sided with the Jesuit communists by refusing to accept the petition of the Attorney-General of Texas. The other possibility was President Trump was required to make these appointments to show his true loyalty in this polemical issue of who really rules this country.

Neil Gorsuch, Brett Kavanaugh and Amy Coney Barrett all cut the political profiles of being stealth candidates who will flip just like John Roberts and Anthony Kennedy did. As loyal Jesuit Roman Catholics they voted on behalf of Pope Francis and Fr. Arturo Sosa, the Jesuit Black Pope.

As a matter of fact, all three just did flip! And they did so regarding the most important judicial decision of their careers. So what else needs to be said? Their loyalty is to their Papal handlers over at Georgetown University and the Vatican.

In the meantime, the following highly consequential investigative report is provided for the education of the readership. It graphically elucidates why BAR-registered attorneys were explicitly prohibited from holding public office in the United States by the Founding Fathers. It also cogently explains why this Supreme Court is hopelessly corrupt and treacherous. If the highest court in the land will not address the greatest voter fraud and election theft in U.S history, then who will? To be a member of the BAR means one is a member of the "British Accreditation Regency," Each State has its own branch of the BAR, but it is In the U.S., they're collectively called everything from "attorney" to "lawyer" to "counselor." Are these terms truly equivalent, or has the identity of one been mistaken for another? What exactly is a "Licensed BAR Attorney?" This credential accompanies every legal paper produced by attorneys - along with a State Bar License number. As we are about to show you, an 'attorney' is not a 'lawyer,' yet the average American improperly interchanges these words as if they represent the same occupation, and the average American attorney unduly accepts the honor to be called "lawyer" when he is not.

In order to discern the difference, and where we stand within the current court system, it's necessary to examine the British origins of our U.S. courts and the terminology that has been established from the beginning. It's important to understand the proper lawful definitions for the various titles we now give these court related occupations.

The legal profession in the U.S. is directly derived from the British BAR system. Even the word "bar" is of British origin. The details are quite lengthy, but in the short answer, our Supreme Court is in reality agents of the UK, and many decisions are made in consultation with the UK high courts.

The SCOTUS has proven itself to be irrelevant and impotent. It is also the most crooked court in the land and, therefore, certainly not deserving of the respect and deference that so many folks pay it.

The upshot of this profound betrayal of the American people is that "We the People" will be forced to take matters into our own hands. For it is the governed who give their consent to the government; and that governed can withdraw that consent in a D.C. flash. Consider it done as a result of that catastrophic Texas suit ruling. We are looking at the potential end to the USA!

President Trump said it best when he tweeted the following:

"The Supreme Court had ZERO interest in the merits of the greatest voter fraud ever perpetrated on the United States of America."

Were such an injustice to stand, this nation would cease to exist and will shortly devolve into the Banana Republic that Obama, Clinton, Biden, Harris et al. are desperately pushing for. There is further evidence that Vice-President Mike Pence is also corrupt and guilty of acts considered to be treasonous and seditious.

It was an understatement to say many were disappointed when the Texas lawsuit about the election from the Attorney General Ken Paxton against the four swing states went nowhere.

The members of the Supreme Court did not want to even hear the case, and according to a news report today (December 17) from the Republican Congressman Mike Patrick from Texas, he said he overheard the following:

"...When the Texas case was brought up, - he said he heard screaming through the walls as Justice Roberts and the other liberal justices were insisting that this case not be taken up. - When Justice Thomas and Justice Alito were sighting Bush vs Gore, - ...from John Roberts were, I don't give #$$% about that case. I don't want to hear about it. At that time we didn't have riots. - So what he was saying was that he was afraid of what would happen if they did the right thing. - And I am sorry, but that is moral cowardice."*

George Eaton states that President Trump can stay in office, and he cites a few reasons why it is literally EASY for him to remain the President:

1) Trump can issue a series of Executive Orders nullifying the election, simply on the grounds Dominion Software was used and Dominion Software is a "national security threat" and therefore its use invalidated the results in 28 states.

2) Trump can re-do the election at any time after it is nullified. He can set a date, set the parameters (no electronic machines shall be used), only paper ballots, and so on. He can declare that states that fail to comply with Federal guidelines are attempting succession from the Union and as such, war will be declared on them and Federal troops will occupy them.

3) Trump can use the Insurrection Act at any time, raise the Defcon level, declare War on China (for example), declare Martial Law, and a multitude of other things, to suspend the Constitution and remain in power, without even having to address the legality of the election.

4) Trump can direct his DOJ and FBI to arrest Biden and Harris on multiple charges of fraud, money laundering, treason, and so on. It's easy for the Feds to cook up charges to begin with, and in this case, they would be legit anyway. It would be painfully easy to connect Biden AND Harris to various felonies and arrest them (this is tiddlywinks! Look what they arrested Roger Stone over, NOTHING!).

5) Trump can use his 2018 EO and the upcoming DNI report to completely nullify the election, on grounds of foreign interfere from China and the fraud that resulted.

This is an international disgrace and the Supreme Court has shown it no longer can be trusted to defend the Constitution. If Trump is wrong, then just rule that way and end the rising hostility. Avoiding this issue that confirms we even have a real right to vote is a confirmation that the Supreme Court is no longer valid.

It was the Supreme Court that created immunity for police, politicians, and prosecutors along with judges out of thin air claiming they could not do their job if they could be sued. The Entire Black Lives Matter movement has been played for fools. The Democrats could have passed a law removing that immunity in 15 minutes. Instead, they have exploited the racial tension for political purposes and allowed the defunding of police to take place instead of correcting the wrong created by the Supreme Court.

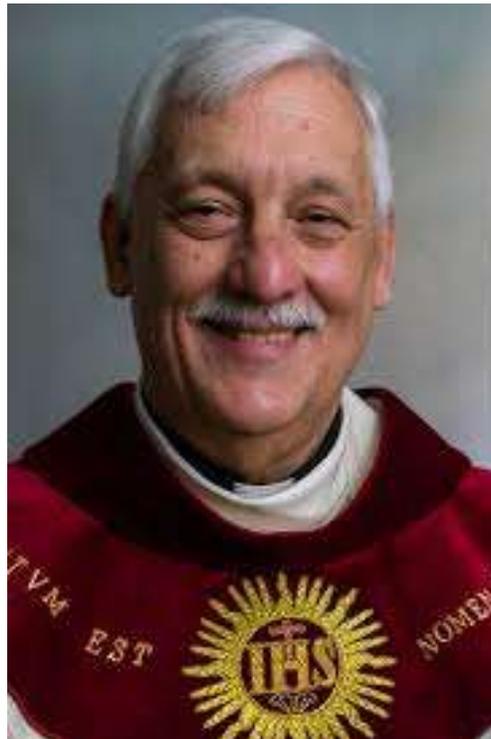

Civilization cannot exist without the rule of law. The Supreme Court could have easily ruled it was insufficient evidence to show there was a fraud and this the election thus stands. Avoiding the issue indicates that they did not want the evidence to surface and are thus also conspiring against the people to end our liberty which was granted by the Founding Fathers. Refusing to rule can not only be seen as not wanting to address the evidence because it is serious. For the leftist press and the Democrats to even claim there was no fraud is a blatant lie. EVERY election has fraud. Dead people have been voting all the time. The honest thing to say is that the fraud DID NOT rise to the level of changing the outcome. That would at least be an argument. Claiming this is no fraud is a cover-up.

I close this long article with my point about the 6-3 Jesuit Roman Catholic control of the Supreme Court noted on page six above. If the Supreme Court rules in favor of Biden, the Vatican will be the winner and have sealed the fate of "Mystery, Babylon the Great", as well as exposing the Jesuit plan to destroy the Republic. The Jesuits operate with long-term plans, 50 or a hundred years as their minimum.

The "Jesuit/Freemasons/Vatican/Rothschild/Black Nobility" cabal will have destroyed the Republic, after a near four-century effort!

The Supreme Court has lost all its integrity. The courts in America have become part of the Deep State. The worst is yet to come as the Republic collapses into rubble.

Just a bit more proof that Roman Catholicism is the Whore Religion leading Billions to Hell!

Breitbart – The head of the Jesuit order, (Black Pope and chief Luciferian) Father Arturo Sosa, has denied the existence of the devil as a real being, suggesting rather that humans invented Satan as a “symbolic” figure to represent evil.

In an interview with the Spanish newspaper El Mundo, Father Sosa was asked whether he believes that evil is a process of the human psychology or comes from a superior being.

“We have created symbolic figures such as the devil to express evil,” Father Sosa said. “Social conditioning can also represent this figure, since there are people who act like this because they are in an environment where it is difficult to act to the contrary.”

Why do I bring up the “religious” matter? Nobody today dare touch it, lest they violate the essence of Vatican II, 1962-1965. In the faux ecumenism there was an agreement among the religious denominations and the Vatican to observe what is called “Pluralism”. The short of that is “we will not criticize you as long as you don’t criticize us or bring up our religious past sins.” Protestants before the Jesuit-led Vatican II were called heretics. After Vatican II we were called lost brethren. The Papacy never changes, but it will hide its goals and intent in subterfuge and word spin! These are the final days leading to the Biblical Tribulation of the prophet Daniel. There is no going back and the old normal has evaporated.
