

The Blessed Hope!

“Looking for that blessed hope, and the glorious appearing of the great God and our Saviour Jesus Christ;” –(Titus 2:13)

Diamond & Nugget #60

Who are you planning to take with you?

I pose this question for you now since we have three “high watch” days beginning later this week, May 13th, 17th/18th, and the 23rd. I am attentive to impending signs our days are short. This “Diamond & Nugget” struck me two days ago at 4:00am. I touched on a topic in one of my Blessed Hope series, and for the life of my, I can’t remember which one it was. At the time, the world was not facing what began last year. However, its importance has been revealed in the event since February of 2020.

Satan’s activities went warp speed last year and from the very beginning it registered as a “Spiritual” war against the Church, Christianity, and anything related to God. The church was the very first institution that was force to close its doors. It did not matter what precautions were being taken, they had to stop meeting. No hymn singing outdoors, etc. Religious faith was not essential in the market places; however, liquor stores, abortion clinics, were considered essential services. I spotted the signs from the beginning and how easy it was for the powers that be were able to get public compliance. As time begin to go by, it was obvious the narrative lies were falling apart. Canada went full jack-boot tyranny in the church in Canada and is virtually a total communist state with Prime Minister Trudeau.

The reason for my excitement in this “Diamond & Nugget” is relative to what I was inferring about written many segments ago. As you see where I am going with this you will begin to see the larger drama that began as early as the days when Satan said to Eve, “Yea, hath God said,..” –(Genesis 3:1). Satan’s attack did not end with those words, and unless you stand back and take a closer look at the systematic view, one can easily miss the implications of Satan’s message. If you can stay with me in this, likely my last Blessed Hope articles, I think I can present the largest reason why we can expect God to say, “Son, the mansion is finished, now go and fetch your bride!”

Did you hear that? It was the sound of a PHA (potentially hazardous asteroid) more than two football fields long whizzing by as it nearly missed our planet this weekend. Experts tell us there is nothing we can do to stop it.

News sources stoked fears of the end of the world by reporting the near miss, and even quoted some scientists who say that a life ending impact sometime in the future is inevitable.

(Nevermind that near earth asteroids are not new, there are thousands of them, and by “near miss” astronomers mean 7 times farther than the moon.)

Stephen Hawking has even set dates for the end of life as we know it! Last year he predicted we have less than 1000 years to get off the planet. This spring he revised his date setting to a mere 100 years.

It is a myth that only religious zealots herald the end of the world. Actually, end of world scenarios are declared all the time by people in secular society. Actually they are far more common than religious zealots.

Technologists and futurists were wrong about Y2K.

Spiritualists were wrong about the Mayan calendar in 2012.

Wasn’t it politicians that stoked fear of nuclear annihilation during the Cold War?

It is in our nature to ponder the end of all things. We are drawn to it like flypaper. None of us want to be trapped by its allure, but we see it there.

Whole societies have been moved by public secular gospel preaching that follows end of world predictions. Everyone knows we are all going to die. It is only a matter of when, why, and how to solve it?

Hawkings solution is NASA. He advises us all to go to heaven: he wants to fly to Mars. He preaches the bad news of death from being in the wrong place at the wrong time. Then comes the gospel of more government funding to fly Matt Damon to the red deserts of Mars.

What if he's wrong and the robot apocalypse comes first? Their good news (gospel) is that you can live forever in a computer and exchange your worries about cholesterol for worries about latency. Elon Musk wants to download your brain to a CD, giving you eternal life through a computer.

Why do their solutions always sound worse than the beginning?

Like Hawking, the gospel I preach includes going to heaven, and like the transhumanists, the Bible solution involves eternal life, but not their way.

However, Scripture tells me that the gospel is Jesus Christ. The one man who defeated death for all humanity, and paid for their sins in doing so, is offering eternal life by grace through faith in him.

This is why God has not given us who are saved the "spirit of fear" -(2nd Timothy 1:7). Jesus Christ is our hope. Fear and alarm describe our culture today. The gospel of grace provides salvation, peace, and a sound mind.

Mars is not our salvation. Neither is technology nor science. Salvation requires faith in the creative genius and power of God that made you, to do the work to make you part of a new creature in Christ.

It is more certain that Christ will save you than that you will step one foot on Mars or that you will become the next killer app.

Everyone believes something will kill us all eventually. We're all dead men. To find the solution people need the one who started life to help us with the end.

"For ye are dead, and your life is hid with Christ in God. When Christ, who is our life, shall appear, then shall ye also appear with him in glory." -(Colossians 3:3-4)

Glory with Christ sounds a lot better than living in a CD.

The Jesuit Lapsed Catholic and discredited scientist Dr. Anthony Fauci used his opening interview at the Vatican health summit Thursday to combat vaccine aversion, reinforce mask-wearing and defend his much-criticized flip-flopping on a host of COVID-19 measures.

The chief medical adviser to the U.S. president told CNN's medical correspondent Sanjay Gupta that matching "the messenger with the audience" and connecting refuseniks with "people they trust" was "going to overcome a lot of the [vaccine] hesitancy."

"When you go into the trenches and you have someone who's a deeply religious person who will listen to their clergy, that's different than me with a suit, going into an area, telling people to do something," emphasized Fauci, an alumnus of Jesuit-run Regis High School.

Fauci, who is the highest-paid federal servant in the United States — earning more than the president — distanced himself from his Catholic roots by re-defining "faith" as "not necessarily religious faith," but "a combination of instinct, good judgment and calling back from experience." Jesuits are perhaps the best trained "word smiths" on the planet. They are trained to be pro or con in virtually every platform that exists. Their skills at debate are incredible, and their equals are few and far between. In spite of Dr. Fauci's flip-flopping, he manages to come out on his feet and smelling like a rose!

The immunologist, nevertheless, used his definition of "faith" to offer an apologia for his habitual somersaulting on a wide range of Wuhan virus restrictions — arguing he had to "almost completely" rely on "faith" when "starting with nothing" in the COVID crisis.

People don't appreciate how knowledge evolves during a virus outbreak and how "you're going to change some of your viewpoints," because even though "the data itself will not necessarily change, additional data changes the status of your knowledge," Fauci argued.

"Your knowledge may go from minimal and you're acting on 'faith,' as it were, versus the true substantive evidence in data, which really gives you a much greater foundation," he added, "because you're dealing with a virus in this case, a novel coronavirus."

Making matters worse is Fauci's willingness to say literally whatever fueled the narrative he preferred at the time.

The flip-flopper stressed the need to "be flexible, open-minded and humble to know that even though you have 40 years of experience, when you're dealing with something that is really in the realm of the unknown, you've got to expect the unexpected."

Labeling the spread of the COVID-19 virus in India as a "cautionary tale," the director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases blamed "the ceremonial feasts at the Ganges River" for the resurgence of the outbreak.

Despite Pope Francis' repeated pleas to make the jabs available to poorer nations in the "spirit of global responsibility," Fauci said in his opening statement he would oppose moves to force vaccine giants to abandon intellectual property rights so poorer countries could benefit. The hell with humanity, if they can't make a profit, that's just tough!

Instead, Big Pharma should be encouraged to increase production in the West and export doses to developing nations, Fauci insisted. India's laws allow it to temporarily override patent rights for medical products in the case of emergencies.

The scientist, who has been ridiculed the most for his flip-flopping on the efficacy of masks, reiterated that the "completely unprecedented" phenomenon of asymptomatic coronavirus infections "impacts the profound need to wear masks."

Notably, '50 to 60% of the people who will get infected, get infected from someone with no symptoms.' Note this because it becomes significant later in this Blessed Hope.

"When you say, 'Well, I don't worry. If I don't feel sick, why should I wear a mask?' Now we know that you could be spreading the virus," since we are "dealing with a virus where one-third to 40% of the people never get any symptoms," he explained.

Notably, "50 to 60% of the people who will get infected, get infected from someone with no symptoms," Fauci maintained, ignoring more recent studies damning face masks as not just ineffective against COVID-19, but as dirty, dangerous and dehumanizing.

Cardinal. Gianfranco Ravasi inaugurating the health conference

Despite the widespread confusion of correlation with causation in calculating COVID fatalities and the many peer-reviewed studies exposing manipulated statistics, the lockdown zealot insisted that the China virus had killed 570,000 people in the U.S.

The gloom-and-doom doctor also emphasized the ability of the virus ("a wily opponent") to "develop new variants," remarking, "And every single week that goes by, we get hit with another challenge" — first the Wuhan strain, followed by the South African, Kent and Indian variants.

CNN's Sanjay Gupta — a Hindu medical doctor earlier accused of using his medical degree "to provide the veneer of credibility to unseemly corporate marketing campaigns" by promoting Merck's Gardasil vaccine — endorsed Fauci's credibility during the prerecorded conversation.

Fauci's "steadfast approach full of evidence and facts has provided a sense of reassurance," Gupta told the Vatican health forum, even though Fauci's "facts" have been contested by researchers and peer-reviewed studies. That is putting it mildly as Fauci's has been called a liar from the late Karri Mullis to Dr. David Martin of the University of Virginia. In recognition of his invention of the polymerase chain reaction (PCR) technique, he shared the 1993 Nobel Prize in Chemistry with Michael Smith and was awarded the Japan Prize in the same year. His invention became a central technique in biochemistry and molecular biology. Karri Mullis called Fauci a liar when Fauci tried to say the PCR could identify viruses, and Dr. Mullis shot that down faster than Dr. Fauci could react.

"Researchers are divided about whether asymptomatic infections are acting as a 'silent driver' of the pandemic," the prestigious journal *'Nature'* reported.

"The issue with putting a reliable figure on the rate of asymptomatic COVID-19 is distinguishing between people who are asymptomatic and pre-symptomatic," notes Medical University of South Carolina infectious-disease researcher Krutika Kuppalli.

One would be hard-pressed to think of anyone in government who's done more lasting damage to the country than Dr. Anthony Fauci. Recently, even the World Health Organization has refuted Fauci's mask efficacy!

*'Faucian Bargain: The Most Powerful and Dangerous Bureaucrat in American History'*, published in 2021 by Steve Deace and Todd Erzen, documents Fauci's biggest backtracks amid the COVID crisis, including his U-turns on masks, lockdowns, school shutdowns, singing in church, Trump's travel ban from China and the lethality of COVID-19.

"Making matters worse is Fauci's willingness/desire to say literally whatever fueled the narrative he preferred at the time," the authors write, contrasting Fauci's doomsday prophecies with the counter-narrative of top global experts in infectious diseases.

CNN's Sanjay Gupta was a star moderator at the summit.

"One would be hard-pressed to think of anyone in government who's done more lasting damage to the country than Dr. Anthony Fauci," observes Julie Kelly, senior contributor to American Greatness. "Emboldened by a media in full swoon and his own ego, Fauci inflicted untold pain and devastation across the country without a hint of remorse."

Catholic groups of clergy and laity reported that the Vatican's global health summit ending Saturday will host a lineup of highly controversial speakers who promote abortion, pansexuality, Hindu Vedic meditation, New Age spirituality, alternative medicine and yoga, alongside credible medical experts. Chelsea Clinton was to be one of those speaking. Several leading U.S. healthcare officials, the heads of two major companies that developed coronavirus vaccines and a number of celebrities will be taking part in a virtual Vatican-sponsored conference on advances in medical technology scheduled for May 6 to 8.

Among those taking part in the "Unite to Prevent and Unite to Cure" conference, co-hosted by the Vatican's Pontifical Council for Culture and the U.S. non-profit Cura Foundation, is Dr. Anthony Fauci, the chief medical advisor to President Joe Biden and director of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases.

In an email to NCR, Fauci said he was honored to be part of the event and hopes it will facilitate applying lessons learned during the coronavirus pandemic "in order to prepare to respond to future emerging and re-emerging infectious disease outbreaks and public health threats."

Other American officials that took part in the conference included Dr. Francis Collins, director of the U.S. National Institutes of Health; Dr. Peter Marks, director of the Center for Biologics Evaluation and Research at the Food and Drug Administration, and; Dr. Debra Houry, director of the National Center for Injury Prevention and Control at the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention.

Trump administration officials Dr. Scott Gottlieb and Dr. Amy Abernethy, both formerly at the FDA, were also taking part.

The CEOs of both Moderna and Pfizer, which developed competing coronavirus vaccines, spoke on separate panels on the first day of the conference. Fauci effectively opened the event that day, speaking after a welcoming statement from Cardinal Gianfranco Ravasi, president of the culture council.

Fauci told NCR that he will encourage those taking part in the conference to recognize that responses to the continuing coronavirus pandemic and future health crises will require "a novel coordinated and collaborative global effort of scientists, industry, and community partners."

"We must work together to develop the diagnostics, treatments and vaccines that are urgently needed to relieve the pain, suffering and death that we are seeing all around us," he said.

Titled "Exploring the Mind, Body and Soul: Unite to Prevent and Unite to Cure," the summit was being sponsored, among other controversial bodies, by the Mormon cult and Moderna vaccine-maker and has received \$750,000 from the John Templeton Foundation, which is committed to promoting contraception in partnership with faith-based organizations in the world's poorest countries.

Over the past 15 years, a shift in emphasis has occurred among the Church hierarchy and Catholic ethicists when it comes to abortion-tainted vaccines. Instead of emphasizing the right of conscientious objection, the Church is now emphasizing the supposed "common good" that comes from taking them, leading many Catholics to argue that one now has a duty, not to conscientious objection, but to cooperation with an abortion-tainted COVID-19 vaccine. This shift has occurred without Church leaders technically changing any moral teaching on the subject.

An epic law suit was filed in Canada earlier this year, named as defendants in the law suit include: Pope Francis, the Society of Jesus (Jesuits), HM Queen Elizabeth II, Global Vaccine Alliance (GAVI), UN WHO, Public Health of Canada, Bill and Melinda Gates Foundation, Prime Minister Trudeau, along with a group of mayors, and attorney generals.

The newest law suit was just announced by a team of over 1,000 lawyers and over 10,000 medical experts lead by Dr. Reiner Fullmich has begun legal proceedings over the CDC, WHO, the Davos Group for crimes against humanity. The suit contends the defendants have committed War Crimes against Humanity under the Nuremberg Treaty. The allegations are well supported by the Dr. Reiner Fullmich, a German lawyer who lives part-time in CA and part-time in Germany. This case will be instrumental as just how much power the UN WHO has to defend itself.

One wonders what the group had in mind by inviting Chelsea Clinton as a speaker. Chelsea Clinton has spoken out against freedom of vaccine-critical speech at a Vatican conference dedicated to dialogue.

Speaking during a pre-recorded online meeting, Clinton, 41, responded to a question about so-called "vaccine hesitancy" regarding COVID-19 vaccines by saying that there must be a global effort to crack down on vaccine-critical social media posts. "I personally very strongly believe there has to be more intensive and intentional and coordinated global regulation of the content on social media platforms," she said.

"We know that the most popular video across all of Latin America for the last few weeks that now has tens of millions of views is just an anti-vax, anti-science screed that YouTube has just refused to take down."

Clinton added that anti-vaccine content created in the United States "flourishes" across the world by way of social media platforms. Her attempts to convince the managers of these sites to remove the material has not worked, she said.

“We know that — because I have tried — that appealing to the leadership of these companies to do the right thing has just not worked, and so we need regulation.”

Chelsea Clinton is the Vice President of the Clinton Foundation’s personal piggy bank and the daughter of former President Bill Clinton and former Secretary of State Hillary Clinton. Like her parents, she is an outspoken advocate for abortion.

She appeared alongside Dr. Paul Farmer of Harvard Medical School and Dr. Walter Ricciardi, the Italian president of the World Federation of Public Health Associations, at a pre-recorded online meeting forming part of the Fifth International Vatican “Unite to Prevent & Unite to Cure” conference. Their meeting was first aired today.

Clinton said that the Clinton Foundation has been doing what it can to convince the “vaccine hesitant” and the “vaccine refusers” to take doses of the COVID-19 vaccines. She believes it is important to differentiate between people who are “hesitant” and those in the “refusal group.” The “hesitant” have questions that she can answer, for instance regarding the speed at which the vaccines were developed, their ingredients, and “conspiracies about microchips.”

The people in the “refusal group,” “often young people, don’t think they need the experimental vaccine or would prefer to wait a few years before taking it, Clinton added. They also include people in communities who “have been maltreated” by the American “health system for generations.”

Clinton said that her foundation thinks about “how we talk to black Americans, indigenous Americans, Latinos who know that members of their community have often been mistreated or even manipulated or exploited by our health care system.”

In response, the Clinton Foundation passes on advice to people trusted by those communities to convince them to take the COVID-19 injections.

“We try at the Foundation to really help equip trusted messengers, whether in health care settings or not,” Clinton said. “We’ve done work with a number of different religious communities, including some of our Catholic partners to really help ensure that whoever is able to have the conversation is really able to pre-empt or to answer any questions people may have.”

The message Clinton wants to get out to refusers is that the vaccines and vaccinators are waiting for them whenever they are comfortable.

“And we’re going to keep reaching out and try to help you get comfortable,” she added.

“So we’re just doing everything and anything we can ... and we’re increasingly thinking about how we can engage in this work globally, too, because unfortunately vaccine hesitancy and vaccine refusal are not uniquely American challenges.”

Clinton made it clear that her views about “regulation” of social media content were her own and not those of the Clinton Foundation.

The COVID-19 pandemic and COVID-19 vaccines have been central to the recorded deliberations broadcast by the Vatican’s Pontifical Council for Culture. The three-day “Unite to Prevent & Unite to Cure” conference began and continued into the weekend. Earlier this week, LifeSiteNews, a Roman Catholic laity news site was permanently banned from Facebook, undoubtedly upon Chesea Clinton’s suggestion.

What most people are unaware of is that the idea of vaccines originated with Jesuits such as Edward Jenner and Louie Pasteur. The practice has been controversial since introduced. Dr. Fauci may be seen as a modern-day Edward Jenner. Jenner is recognized as the father of immunology. Jenner was Jesuit-educated and a Freemason, very active Freemason. Jenner was an active Freemason, serving in 1812 as Master of the Royal Lodge of Faith and Friendship, No. 270, based in Berkeley, Gloucestershire. This lodge was regularly visited by the Prince of Wales – the future George IV – and was a lodge that was to become associated with the Jenner family.

Vaccinations were actually invented by the Jesuit Order by soldier, Francis Xavier as a method to poison the Order’s enemies. Edward Jenner was a Jesuit-educated — who taught the medical world how to use the POISONED NEEDLE. He was the first to associate human diseases with that of animals. This idea paved the way for vaccination which is responsible for the deaths of multiplied millions of people around the world. The idea that humans and animals are related and share the same diseases led to the theory of evolution which is responsible for the spiritual death of multiplied millions more.

Jesuits introduce inoculation from India using Lady Montague as a smokescreen. Lady Montague wasn’t even a doctor. Women doctors did not appear until over 100 years later. In the year 1717, Lady Mary Wortley Montagu was the smokescreen that the Jesuits used to introduce this Indian religious rite into England. Lady Mary was not even a doctor. Inoculation or variolation was given the sanction of the Royal Family when 2 daughters of the Prince of Wales were inoculated. Barbaric as this religious rite was; it was the human disease of smallpox that was injected into the bloodstream. Inoculation was the FOOT-IN-THE-DOOR to prepare the people for something far worse.

Vaccination came from the Vatican via Great Britain at the exact same time as Darwin’s “Evolution of Species”. Coincidence? Maybe and maybe not. The practice, known as “variolation”, came into fashion in Europe in 1721, with the endorsement of English aristocrat Lady Mary Wortley Montagu, but was later met with public outcry after it transpired 2-3% of people died after inoculation, and further outbreaks were triggered.

In September 1798 a self-published book with an outlandish premise was about to change the world. At first sight, “An Inquiry into the Cowpox” looked more like a piece of vanity publishing than one of the greatest landmarks in the history of medicine. Its author, a doctor called Edward Jenner, was largely unknown outside rural Gloucestershire.

In a 75-page illustrated manual, Jenner explained how people could protect themselves from smallpox – a horrific brute of a disease that killed one person in 12 and left many survivors scarred for life – by inoculating themselves with cowpox, an obscure disease that affected cattle. This extraordinary process was to be known as vaccination, from the Latin for cow.

The “Inquiry” was an instant sensation. Within a few years, vaccination became mainstream medical practice in Britain, Europe and North America, while the King of Spain sent it as a “divine gift” to all the Spanish colonies. By the time Jenner died in 1823, millions had come to regard him as a hero. His admirers included Native Americans, the Empress of Russia (who sent him a diamond ring out of gratitude), and Napoleon, who “could refuse this man nothing” even though France and England were at war. In 1881 Louis Pasteur proposed that the term “vaccination” should be used for any kind of inoculation.

But not everyone thought Jenner was a saint. In 1858 Prince Albert unveiled a statue to Jenner in Trafalgar Square, amid much pomp and circumstance. There was such an outcry that two years later the statue was carted away to a lower-key resting place in Kensington Gardens. Jenner’s earliest and most vocal opponents had been men of the church, who reasoned that smallpox was a God-given fact of life and death. If the Almighty had decided that someone would be smitten by smallpox, then any attempt to subvert this divine intention was blasphemy. Vaccination was also bestial, because humans were being poisoned with disgusting stuff from an animal. Even religious people subscribed to the view that smallpox was a force for good because it tended to cull the children of the poor: if vaccination were allowed to take hold, society would quickly be overrun by the lower classes.

Doctors were also quick to clamber onto the anti-vaccination bandwagon. Many were making a tidy income from useless but lucrative “cures” for smallpox, like leeches, purgatives or silver needles to release the mayonnaise-like pus from the thousands of pustules that studded the patient’s skin. To them, Jenner’s “Inquiry” was an existential threat that had to be neutralized at all costs. Lurid reports of the dangers of vaccination began to appear in medical journals and the popular press. Writing as “Dr. Squirrel”, one physician claimed that vaccination could transmit bovine traits: affected children bellowed, ran around on all fours and, if the medical artist could be believed, developed distinctly cow-like facial features. Astonishingly, the belief that vaccination could turn children into cattle took hold in England.

Less fanciful hazards of vaccination were alleged to include tuberculosis, madness, blood poisoning, cancer and syphilis. An extensive list was laid out in “Crimes of the Cowpox Ring” (1906) by Lora C. Little, a fiery American activist and “natural” therapist. Little used her newspaper the Liberator to attack vaccination (as well as big business, sugar and the enforced castration of male sex offenders). She was convinced that vaccination was a cynical scam, foisted on the public by a conspiracy between doctors, vaccine manufacturers and government officials. “Crimes of the Cowpox Ring” contained over 300 graphic cases of serious and often fatal illnesses, which she believed were caused by vaccination. Case No. 275 was a young man with a torso-sized tumor apparently growing out of his vaccination site, while Case No. 30 was her own son who died (of diphtheria) at the age of seven, shortly after being dragged out of his classroom and forcibly vaccinated.

Supporters of vaccination pointed out that these cases – although tragic – could not definitively be blamed on vaccination. Unfortunately, there were some painful truths in the anti-vaccinationists’ claims. Vaccination could cause blood poisoning; this was not intuitive in the age before germ theory but is no surprise to us today, as cowpox pus was harvested under far from sterile conditions and often harbored farmyard bacteria. The link was reluctantly acknowledged by the coroner during the inquest on a 15-year-old girl who died of blood poisoning in 1865: “I can attribute the death to nothing but vaccination.” Syphilis could be spread by the common practice of first vaccinating a baby in a community, and then using the fluid from the baby’s vaccine blister to inoculate all the other children. Congenital syphilis, picked up by the fetus in utero, often went undetected in babies and was easily passed on by inoculation – as was clearly demonstrated by several outbreaks of syphilis following vaccination.

How did the pro-vaccination brigade respond to evidence that vaccination could be risky? In a word, badly. The 500 doctors who signed a letter to the ‘Times’ denying that vaccination could spread syphilis were either liars or inexcusably ignorant about the clusters of syphilis reported in newly vaccinated children. Jenner himself may have caused the death by blood poisoning of one of his young guinea pigs; the “Inquiry” glossed over the inconvenient fact that the boy was carried off by a “contagious fever” shortly after being vaccinated. Jenner was convinced that his discovery was perfect and insisted that a single vaccination in infancy provided lifelong protection. His diktat became standard practice in England, even after other countries introduced re-vaccination in early adult life because it was clear that immunity wore off and that people who had been vaccinated only once could still catch smallpox.

Since the dawn of vaccination there has been a war of disinformation, propagated by both sides. The anti-vaccinationists have lied, bent statistics, invented scare stories and buried facts that undermine their case. They have committed crimes against medicine, science and humanity, and exposed millions to the dangers of preventable infections. The other side may be guilty of far less heinous crimes, but it is not blame-free. The evangelistic desire to spread the benefits of vaccines as widely as possible led pro-vaccinationists to play down the risks, giving fuel to arguments against vaccination. Jenner’s invention has saved countless lives, but the bloody-mindedness of him and his followers ended up creating a culture of mistrust that lingers to this day.

Moses was given detailed instructions by God about sanitary conditions. He speaks of frequent bathing... and washing of clothes. Quarantine was commanded to prevent the spread of infectious diseases etc., etc.

God describes the Promised Land as a land flowing with MILK and honey meaning that there would be lots of COWS and bees in the promised land.

Moses' steps to good health were basic to being simplistic.

SERVE THE TRUE GOD DIET PERSONAL HYGIENE SANITATION

"If you will diligently hearken to my commandments I will put none of these diseases upon you which I put upon the Egyptians" -(Exodus 15:26).

Moses prohibited the Israelites from copying the Egyptian practice of inoculation.

"Thou shalt not ....make any cuttings in your flesh." -(Leviticus 21:5).

Wherever the children of Israel settled we can be sure that they brought those hygienic practices with them.

"For Moses in old time hath in every city them that preach him, being read in the synagogue every Sabbath day." -(Acts 15:21).

Diseases like smallpox were unknown in the Roman Empire because they know that disease was spread by flies, polluted water, lack of sanitation, dirty clothes, overcrowding, etc., etc. They never practiced inoculation because they had no need for it.

The secrecy of the "gene" therapy pharmaceuticals have created for themselves, the hesitation and outright refusal to submit to vaccinations. The simple fact is you do not know what is in the shots you are taking, and now after the fact people are being warned of mRNA spiked shedding. Note this point as my second reminder.

Jani Allan writing for RT focuses on the larger issue which promotes "collectivism" or the "collective good" taking place over "individual rights." It smacks of tyranny and totalitarianism.

The mainstream media and the medical orthodoxy is adamant that everyone needs to get the jab – or face exclusion from everyday freedoms and be shunned from society. Don't they realize how fascistic this view is? They do and do not care!

This is not an anti-vaccine rant. It is a sober discussion of the matter of civil liberties. Since March 2020, we have been forced to wear masks as a collective.

The mask is a crucifix. It signals to society that you are a believer, (In Covid-19) It tells society that you are compliant and have submitted.

Like taking the knee, it is virtually signaling. It says you are happy with the lockdowns because, hey, you don't have to go to work and you still get a 'stimmy' check. The single most effective way of breaking down a human being is social isolation and distancing. Irreparable harm is being done to children, especially, by enforced mask wearing. Suicides are at a record high among teens.

In any free society, we should be able to ask questions and make our own choices about receiving medical treatment, or not. But anyone who asks questions is automatically branded “anti-science”. The notion that there is just one scientific doctrine to follow is actually anti-scientific in itself. And that’s not just my view, but that of scientists.

The notion that freedom of speech still exists in America today is nonsense. Those that dare question the efficacy of the smorgasbord of vaccinations are cancelled and shamed. They are dehumanized and ‘othered.’

The First Amendment to the United States Constitution prevents the government from making laws which regulate an establishment of religion, prohibit the free exercise of religion, or abridge the freedom of speech, the freedom of the press, the right to peaceably assemble, or the right to petition the government for redress of grievances. It was adopted on December 15, 1791, as one of the ten amendments that constitute the Bill of Rights.

The premise of the First Amendment is unique. Allowing freedom of speech means allowing someone who disagrees with you the right to voice their opinion, however offensive it might be.

It is precisely this freedom of speech that made America great. Be prepared to be offended. How tragic that the press are now the government lapdogs. “The View”, a daily talk show on ABC, is just one of many outlets that seek to humiliate and shame those who are not following the approved Covid narrative. For the last couple of weeks, Sunny Hostin, insult Americans whom she brands the ‘vaccine hesitant.’

Here’s her take on life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness in 2021 America: “When you look at the folks that are not getting vaccinated because it’s a quarter of Americans that are not getting vaccinated, white evangelicals, 45% said they won’t get vaccinated... Republicans, almost 50% are refusing to get the vaccine. We won’t reach herd immunity because of those particular groups.”

“I say we need to shun those that refuse to get vaccinated. Just like now in certain states... there are signs on storefronts on businesses.. [stating] no mask, no entry. I think if you have not been vaccinated, no entry. You want to get on a plane? You have to be vaccinated. ... You don’t get the liberties that come with immunity. Something has to break. If that’s your personal choice not to get vaccinated, you don’t then get to infringe on the rights of those who have chosen to protect their fellow citizens.”

And, of course, all these glossy women in the mainstream media, with their big, strong teeth, concur that Donald Trump must be banned from every platform and be punished for his alleged mishandling of the virus.

“So many people hang on his every word. He is still a public safety threat,” Hostin explains. “He can harm public safety and harm this country. He is too much of a danger. He doesn’t need to contaminate the airwaves.”

This subjectivity of censorship is why the cure is worse than the illness.

We live in a post-truth world whose emblem is stupefying hypocrisy. The leftists view on abortion is: “My body, my choice.” However, the leftists’ view on vaccines is: “Your body, my choice.”

The consensus of these people – and they are to be found on every other mainstream channel and newspaper, not just ABC – is that they don’t want unvaccinated people around them. Unvaccinated people are the unclean and should be punished. They shouldn’t be allowed to take their children to schools, go to restaurants, take cruises or even walk in the park. Don’t you dare come near me without a vaccine you leper.

Does that mean I am to be banned from planes, shops and offices, as Hostin advocates?

Can the state compel you to take a vaccine with the reward of everyday freedoms? Technically, no. Roe v. Wade decided that no one can be discriminated against based on an aspect of their medical history, so unless the U.S. Supreme Court overrules that case, vaccine and vaccine passports are in fact unconstitutional and illegal.

The Texas pediatrician Peter Hotez, backed by Bill Gates, wrote in ‘Nature’ magazine recently. Hotez claims there is “anti-vax aggression” and he equates anti-vaxxers with cybercriminals and nuclear terrorists. He wants the United Nations to establish shock troops to hunt down and eliminate them.

Last time I looked, the groups that are actually committing violence are BLM and Antifa. But they are never called to account. The mainstream media now effectively designates anti-vaxxers as terrorists. Vaccine sceptics are the dangers and risks to society, while BLM and Antifa are the good guys.

The latest attack on the bone-headed populace – aka, those that haven’t been vaccinated – by Hostin and her fellow travelers is chilling. Even her co-presenter Whoopi Goldberg was a little taken back: “Requiring proof that one has been vaccinated in order to travel – is this crazy?” Hostin was unmoved: “It’s not a radical idea, the vaccine is solid.” That is where I push back. There is no evidence to prove that, nor has the virus been proven to exist. We have been down this road so many times it is nauseating, yet true. It has been confirmed the PCR test was rigged to show people they had the Covid virus!

“At what time do we give up on these boneheads?” another host, Joy Behar, demanded. “You have to have proof of vaccination. Everyone must be inconvenienced. You don’t get to certain events. This is not a political issue.”

Behar, Hostin et al. obviously concur with the Michigan Governor, Gretchen Witmer, who has made her entire state hostage to being vaccinated. Get the jab or suffer gunpoint-enforced lockdowns: they won’t end until 70% of the state’s adults surrender to being injected.

This is fascistic coercion that violates restrictions against medical experiments, violates fundamental human rights and the requirement for informed consent. Surely such tactics should never be deployed or tolerated in a free society?

Are we who choose to stay vaccine-free, who declare we have sovereign rights over our own bodies, to be publicly singled out, excluded and punished? After the Nuremberg Race Laws were passed in Germany in 1935, Jews were ostracized, discriminated against, and later had to wear a yellow badge so as to make ‘the enemy within visible.’

Are those of us in the 21st century unable to provide proof of being vaccinated against Covid, going to suffer a similar fate? (And, just to be clear, I am not making any comparisons to the later, heinous genocide that occurred, but simply to how a majority can go down the road of singling out and discriminating against a minority).

Today’s mainstream media seems intent on creating a two-tier society: the virtuous vaccinated and the unclean unvaccinated. Covid-apartheid, anyone?

I am about to drop a truth bomb now and there may be an even larger issue that is overlooked, yet significant that we ponder the deeper meaning of the Covid shots. Twice above I noted you hold the thought for a reason and we are at the point where you need to understand what is happening in the Spiritual War between Satan and God!

Israel, the Most Vaccinated Country in the World, Has a Ticking COVID Time Bomb.

Israel's vaccine data is impressive, but it will pay a hefty price for not vaccinating West Bank Palestinians – living under its control – against coronavirus, on reporter suggested.

90% of Israelis over the age of 50 have been vaccinated or have recovered from COVID-19, said Israeli health minister Yuli Edelstein on Wednesday.

75% percent are eligible for a “Green Pass,” noted Edelstein, meaning that they received their second vaccine more than a week ago, or have recovered from the virus and have antibodies.

After receiving his first dose of the COVID vaccine in December, Jonathan Livny, 77, assumed life would at last return to normal for Israelis like him.

Livny, who lives in Jerusalem, was among the first Israelis to take the shot, and became fully vaccinated in January. He received his “green passport” — an official certification that he was immune to the disease.

But nearly one month later, the passport hasn't done him much good. Even though he's now at much lower risk, Livny still must obey the country's strict lockdown measures, which bar everyone from a wide range of leisure activities whether or not they've been vaccinated.

The restrictions hit home for Livny a couple weeks ago. He and his wife, a plastic surgeon, travel frequently, and had planned a trip to Dubai late last month for a medical conference. Their trip was canceled, however, when Israel shut down its airport to limit the virus' spread.

“I thought it would be a passport to health and a passport to freedom,” Livny said. “Now they say they're not sure the vaccine works against the British variant or the South African variant. Then I thought it would be a passport for travel. But now if I want to travel, I need to do a test 72 hours before I leave and then when I come back I need to do it again. So what good does it do me?”

Israel's aggressive vaccination drive has become a national source of pride, but it has not yet heralded the return to pre-pandemic times that many had expected. Even as more than 40% of Israelis have gotten at least one dose of the vaccine, far outpacing the rest of the world, COVID rates remain stubbornly high, and the vaccination campaign has slowed.

Now, as Israel is emerging from a six-week lockdown, its third since the pandemic began, businesses and their patrons are rebelling against a reopening that they feel has been too sluggish. Three large shopping malls – in the cities of Bat Yam, Karmiel and Petach Tivkah – opened Thursday in violation of government regulations. It was part of a revolt instigated by a forum that represents 400 mall owners, restaurant owners and chain stores.

The group made their own rules dictating whom to allow into stores — finally allowing Israelis to make use of their “green passports.” Entrance was restricted to those older than 60 with two vaccine doses, or anyone younger who had either received at least one shot, recovered from COVID or tested negative in the past 72 hours. Children 16 and under also were allowed in. Police officers visited the stores and ordered them to close but did not issue fines.

“There is no difference between malls, which are closed, and supermarkets or drugstores, which are open,” said Yaakov Kantrowitz, 26, the branch manager of a housewares chain in a strip mall in the central city of Rishon Lezion. He complained that the government “said that people were getting corona in malls, but they've been closed for the past six weeks and the infection rates haven't gone down. That proves we are not the reason for infections.”

Kantrowitz hasn't fully reopened but found an innovative workaround: His store began offering "take-away" shopping on Sunday.

"We have a table up front at the entrance with a catalogue, people choose what they want, and [employees] bring it to them," he said. "Restaurants are allowed to do take-away, so why aren't stores as well?"

Police have not visited his store, Kantrowitz said, and he is careful not to allow anyone inside even though it is spacious, measuring 10,000 square feet. The store has been closed for a total of four months over the past year, and all 30 workers were put on furlough. Now Kantrowitz has hired back five workers and hopes that stores and malls will reopen soon.

The government is considering a series of regulations that will limit entry to places like gyms, concerts and museums — and eventually cafes and restaurants — to those with either "green passports" or a negative COVID test from within 72 hours. Some schools also reopened on Thursday after six weeks of remote learning — the most recent in a series of school closures in Israel that have spanned months. The government may require all teachers to either vaccinate or be tested every two days.

Israel is also considering an agreement with Greece to allow tourism between the countries for those who are vaccinated.

But a segment of Israelis remains reluctant to get the shot. While Israel's vaccine rollout had ramped up to 200,000 people vaccinated daily, the pace has slowed significantly in the past week. According to government data, while more than 90% of Israelis older than 60 have been vaccinated, the equivalent figure is 70% for Haredi, or ultra-Orthodox, Jews and 64% for Arab Israelis.

With some vaccination centers half empty, local municipalities are trying to find incentives to get rates back up. In the Haredi city of Bnei Brak, where vaccination rates are among the lowest in the country, first responders told residents that if they got vaccinated on Thursday night, they'd get a free serving of cholent, a meat stew popular with Orthodox Jews. Even Israel uses incentives and inducements like Krispy Kreme

"We welcome the initiative by Bnei Brak to give out bags of cholent to those who are vaccinated tomorrow," Zaka, an Orthodox emergency medical service, posted on Twitter. "We've already been putting non-vaccinated people in [body] bags for more than a year. Go vaccinate!"

Haredi Israelis tend to vaccinate at lower rates even as the percentage of deaths in their community has been especially high. A recent investigation found that 1 in 73 Haredi Israelis over the age of 65 had died from COVID, about four times the rate of the general population. Despite the lockdown, some Haredi Israelis have defied restrictions and reopened schools, in addition to gathering in large crowds for funerals.

Vaccine skepticism extends beyond the Haredi community. While older and high-risk Israelis have rushed to be vaccinated, some younger Israelis are more torn about taking the vaccine.

Adina Arazi, 47, who lives in the southern city of Netivot and teaches hydrotherapy, said she is not an anti-vaxxer. Her two children, a 20-year-old son with special needs and a 16-year-old daughter, got all of their traditional childhood vaccines. But this time nobody in her family is being immunized from COVID.

“I feel like we’ve moved a little too fast,” she said. “I think it will take a long time to see the long-term effects. They are basically doing a study on people, which I find really unethical.”

With all swimming pools closed, Arazi has been out of work for the past year. She said she’s cut back on anything that isn’t a necessity, and her family in Canada is helping out. Arazi said will not get the vaccine even if it means she won’t be able to go back to work.

Deborah, 44, who asked that her last name not be published because she doesn’t want some of her relatives to know she will not be getting the vaccine, feels even more strongly that she and her family shouldn’t vaccinate. Despite assurances from doctors that the vaccine will not cause infertility, Deborah plans to wait until the end of the year before she and her four children take the shots.

“There is a complete lack of evidence that the vaccine will have any effect on male or female infertility,” Dr. Hagai Levine, an epidemiologist at Hadassah Hospital, told a news conference Thursday.

But for Deborah, who said she has read the entire Pfizer study online, those assurances are not enough. Israel has an exclusive contract with Pfizer for the Pfizer shots.

“Being a mother is a big responsibility for me, and my daughter just turned 16, so I started researching it,” she said. “They didn’t test the vaccine on 16-year-olds. No doctor can say there won’t be any side effects.”

“What if in a few years she can’t get pregnant? It would be the end of her life and I would feel responsible.”

Death Rates in Israel Pfizer Experimental vaccine

By Brian Shilhavy

“This is a new Holocaust” Haim Yativ and Dr. Seligmann said. We have previously reported how Israel rapidly vaccinated the highest percentage of their population with experimental COVID vaccines after the Israeli government struck a bargain with Pfizer to secure millions of doses of their mRNA COVID vaccines.

Vera Sharav wrote:

It is astonishing that the government of Israel entrusted the health of the people to Pfizer; by entering into a secret contract that enrolled the Israeli population to become research subjects, without their knowledge or consent. Note that point as well along with the other two points.

To date, Israel has vaccinated over 60% of their population, twice the percentage of the next closest nation, Britain, with 26.9%.

The “official news” published by the corporate media claiming that the vaccines have been effective in reducing rates of COVID in Israel has been scrutinized and examined by Aix-Marseille University Faculty of Medicine Emerging Infectious and Tropical Diseases Unit’s Dr. Hervé Seligmann and engineer Haim Yativ, who published their results on a discussion forum website called “Nakim.”

The information quickly went viral, and has now been translated into several languages and addressed on various news sites around the world, including Arutz Sheva 7, IsraelNationalNews.com.

Mordechai Sones writes:

A front-page article appeared in the FranceSoir newspaper about findings on the Nakim website regarding what some experts are calling “the high mortality caused by the vaccine.”

The paper interviews Aix-Marseille University Faculty of Medicine Emerging Infectious and Tropical Diseases Unit’s Dr. Hervé Seligmann and engineer Haim Yativ about their research and data analysis.

They claim that Pfizer’s shot causes “mortality hundreds of times greater in young people compared to mortality from coronavirus without the vaccine, and dozens of times more in the elderly, when the documented mortality from coronavirus is in the vicinity of the vaccine dose, thus adding greater mortality from heart attack, stroke, etc.”

Dr. Hervé Seligmann works at the Emerging Infectious and Tropical Diseases Research Unit, Faculty of Medicine, Aix-Marseille University, Marseille, France. He is of Israeli-Luxembourg nationality. He has a B. Sc. In Biology from the Hebrew University of Jerusalem, and has written over 100 scientific publications.

FranceSoir writes that they follow publications, data analyzes, and feedback from various countries on vaccination, and have therefore taken an interest in the Nakim article, asking to interview them in order to understand their analysis and its limitations.

The authors of the article declare they have no conflicts or interests other than having children in Israel.

After a presentation, the authors discussed their data analysis, the validations carried out, limitations, and above all, their conclusions that they compare with data received via a Health Ministry Freedom of Information Act request.

Their findings are:

- There is a mismatch between the data published by the authorities and the reality on the ground.
- They have three sources of information, besides the emails and adverse event reports they receive through the Internet. These three sources are Israeli news site Ynet, the Israeli Health Ministry database, and the U.S. federal Vaccine Adverse Event Reporting System (VAERS) database.
- In January 2021, there were 3,000 records of vaccine adverse events, including 2,900 for mRNA vaccines.
- Compared to other years, mortality is 40 times higher.
- On February 11, a Ynet article presented data related to vaccination. The authors of the Nakim article claim to have debunked this analysis based on data published by Ynet itself: “We took the data by looking at mortality during the vaccination period, which spans 5 weeks. By analyzing these data, we arrived at startling figures that attribute significant mortality to the vaccine.”
- The authors say “vaccinations have caused more deaths than the coronavirus would have caused during the same period.”
- Haim Yativ and Dr. Seligmann declare that for them, “this is a new Holocaust,” in face of Israeli authority pressure to vaccinate citizens.

They also invite specialists to complete their analyses, and intend to pursue legal follow-up to their discovery. The Health Ministry was not available for comment on a FranceSoir query regarding the findings.

The authors also deplored “the fact of not being able to communicate on this vital information” to their fellow citizens.

Mordechai Sones also has his own radio broadcast in Israel, and a few weeks ago he began his broadcast by reading the names of 28 people who have died following the Pfizer experimental COVID mRNA injections.

The list begins with some elderly Rabbis, but also includes young people who reportedly had no existing health problems and died suddenly, including a 25-year-old woman.

After reading these 28 names, Mordechai states:

“The list continues, but cannot be brought here in its entirety due to time constraints.”

An Israeli man who posted this reading on YouTube stated:

“I made this short video with an audio broadcast of Mordechai Sones; so that I could pass on the information that many people here in Israel have been dying after receiving the Pfizer Covid-19 Vaccine.”

“But none of this information seems to be making it into the mainline media.

I am calling on everyone to pray and seek the Lord to have this evil thing stopped immediately.”

I think it is safe to conclude that what is happening in Israel right now with the massive roll out of the experimental Pfizer COVID mRNA vaccine is a test of what the Globalists desire to roll out in other countries around the world, so everyone should be watching carefully what Israel is doing right now to see what is probably coming to the U.S. and other countries around the world.

Israel has now started a “Green Pass” program that requires people to show proof of COVID vaccination to gain entrance to “registered” places of business. This was published yesterday, 2/28/21 in ‘The Jerusalem Post’:

“The country is expected to further return to routine on Sunday and to facilitate this, the Health Ministry will roll out its “green passport” program.”

“A green passport will be required to enter certain places and to participate in certain activities. Only people who have been vaccinated or have recovered from coronavirus will be eligible for one.”

“As part of the program, registered gyms, theaters, hotels, concerts and synagogues will be able to operate starting next week.”

“We are giving a huge line to vaccinators,” Health Minister Yuli Edelstein said on Thursday during an extensive briefing.”

“This is the first step back to an almost normal life.”

Welcome to the new “almost normal.” Will the Israelis and other populations around the world comply with this?

Most Americans are saying no to Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19) vaccines despite the deep state’s best efforts to sway them. It may not matter, though, because the jabs could be self-spreading, meaning the vaccinated could be effectively vaccinating the unvaccinated simply by “shedding” it onto them.

A Johns Hopkins University (JHU) paper explains how self-spreading vaccines work to spread through both vaccinated and unvaccinated populations by design. Even if you forego the jab, in other words, you could still end up becoming vaccinated if someone you come into contact with was recently injected.

Ironically, this makes vaccinated people the true “super-spreaders” who are putting society at risk. Since there is still no real proof that viruses even spread through the air at all, who is actually responsible for spreading disease throughout society? The answer is the vaccinated.

“Self-spreading vaccines – also known as transmissible or self-propagating vaccines – are genetically engineered to move through populations in the same way as communicable diseases, but rather than causing disease, they confer protection,” the JHU paper explains.

“The vision is that a small number of individuals in the target population could be vaccinated, and the vaccine strain would then circulate in the population much like a pathogenic virus. These vaccines could dramatically increase vaccine coverage in human or animal populations without requiring each individual to be inoculated.”

The paper goes on to explain the two different types of self-spreading vaccines: recombinant vector vaccines and live viral vaccines. It would appear as though Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19) injections constitute the former.

“Recombinant vector vaccines combine the elements of a pathogenic virus that induce immunity (removing the portion that causes disease),” the paper explains. “Cytomegalovirus is one candidate vector for recombinant vaccines because it is highly species-specific and moderately transmissible.”

You could already be “vaccinated” without even knowing it

As for the Chinese Virus, scientists were already brainstorming last summer how to make self-spreading vaccines for it. The Bulletin reported that because of vaccine “hesitancy,” eugenicists are trying to figure out how to maximize the self-propagating properties of injections.

“For at least 20 years, scientists have been experimenting with such self-spreading vaccines, work that continues to this day, and which has gained the attention of the U.S. military,” The Bulletin reported, admitting that the risks of such technology are high.

“Once released, scientists will no longer be in control of the virus. It could mutate, as viruses naturally do. It may jump species. It will cross borders. There will be unexpected outcomes and unintended consequences. There always are.”

Like everything else that comes out of Big Pharma, self-spreading vaccines are fake. Genetic engineering is required to make them “work,” and they function like a virus, which suggests that vaccines are the true virus that threatens us all.

“The idea, essentially, is to vaccinate a small proportion of a population through direct inoculation,” The Bulletin further explained.

“These so-called founders will then passively spread the vaccine to other animals they encounter either by touch, sex, nursing, or breathing the same air. Gradually, these interactions could build up population-level immunity.”

Self-spreading vaccines were invented for “pest control”

Ironically, the idea for self-spreading vaccines was birthed out of a desire among scientists to develop a new way to control pest populations. In other words, self-spreading vaccines exist for the purpose of pest control.

Some of the earliest self-spreading vaccines used in animals effectively sterilized them. This form of “immuno-contraception” hijacked the immune systems of injected mice and prevented them from fertilizing offspring. This is eerily similar to what is now happening to men and women who are suffering reproductive problems after getting injected.

The official story is that self-spreading vaccines have not yet been “tested” on humans, but we know better than that. By the time the media has reported that something like this exists, chances are it has already been in use for quite some time. This is how the establishment plays the game.

Mike Adams, the Health Ranger, calls this “out-of-control” science. It is an existential threat to humanity itself because once the cat is out of the bag, there is no way to ever again contain it.

“If an action or policy has a suspected risk of causing harm to the public or to the environment, the burden of proof that it is NOT harmful falls on those taking the action,” Adams warned back in 2012.

“In other words, scientists must PROVE their experiments are NOT dangerous before being allowed to unleash them upon the world!”

The only problem is that today’s scientists seem to want their experiments to be dangerous – that is the whole point. In this case, the Wuhan coronavirus (Covid-19) plandemic, including the mass vaccination component, is all about exterminating most of humanity and leaving behind only a very small remnant of survivors.

It will come as no surprise that billionaire eugenicist Bill Gates has long played a role in this agenda. Every single vaccine and other “medical” intervention he has concocted has had one purpose, and one purpose alone: mass genocide.

“We are watching a genocidal transgenerational plan unfolding. Bill Gates is executing it on behalf of dead men and others who shared their goals,” writes Vince Morreno.

“This is diabolical. Satanic. Civilization is facing a hugely clear and present danger.”

But suppose there is another purpose here, that none of the nations are aware of. We know the nation of Israel has been ahead of the rest of the world in vaccinating its population. Given what Mike Adams has stated “out-of-control” science. Is it possible that this is Satan’s last effort to destroy the “promises” God established with the Jews. Man has a 6,000 year reign (50 Jubilees X 120 years). This is where all my comments about noting a point begin to take on the diabolical plan!

WHY SATAN BELIEVES HE MUST DESTROY ISRAEL

Dr. Thomas S. McCall wrote about this as well as Dr. Chuck Missler in his commentary on the book of Revelation. Let’s look at what Dr. Thomas S. McCall has stated.

Why does Satan believe he must destroy Israel from off the face of the earth? For thousands of years Satan has demonstrated an insane and insatiable drive to wipe out the Jewish people, but so far has not been able to fully accomplish his goal. Let’s review some of his major attempts:

- When Abraham went to Egypt and lied about Sarah, nearly causing Pharaoh to violate her.
- When Abraham had Ishmael with Hagar, bypassing Sarah.
- When Ishmael ridiculed Isaac, attempting to usurp Isaac’s position.
- When Esau attempted to gain Jacob’s blessing from Isaac.
- When Pharaoh ordered all male Hebrew infants to be murdered.
- When Pharaoh attempted to destroy Israel backed up against the Red Sea.
- When Israel decided to worship the Golden Calf at Mt. Sinai.
- When Israel decided to stay in the wilderness rather than go into Canaan.
- When Moab tried to destroy Israel and stop them from entering Canaan.
- When the Canaanites amassed all their armies to destroy the invading Israelites.
- When the surrounding nations tried to destroy Israel during the time of the Judges.
- When the surrounding nations tried to destroy Israel during the time of the kings.
- When the Assyrian army destroyed Israel and much of Judah.
- When the Babylonian army destroyed the Temple and Jerusalem.

- When the refugees from Babylon and Persia were restoring the Temple and Jerusalem
- When Haman attempted to destroy all the Jews throughout the Persian Empire.
- When the Greco-Syrian forces tried to Hellenize Judea under Antiochus Epiphanes
- When the Roman army destroyed Judea and Jerusalem twice (70 AD and 135 AD)
- When the Jewish people were scattered and persecuted throughout the world for 2,000 years.
- When Hitler organized the Holocaust and destroyed over Six million Jews.
- When the Jews attempted to return to Israel against extensive international opposition.
- When Israel declared its independence in 1947 and was invaded by Egypt, Jordan, and Syria.
- When Israel was invaded in 1967 and 1973 by its surrounding neighbors
- When Israel was disrupted by numerous intifadas from Palestinians and Jihadists.
- When Hamas hurled thousands of rockets from Gaza into Israel in 2014.
- Where we are today.

So we see, for 4,000 years the Jewish people have faced relentless persecution, opposition and attempts to annihilate and destroy them. If it were any of other people, it would seem totally irrational and insane. However, with Israel, there appears to be a certain rational, though Satanic, strategy behind this animosity.

For Satan, the destruction of Israel is a matter of self-preservation. Ultimately, the survival of Israel results in the eternal perdition of Satan. How can this be? Because when Israel repents and nationally invites the Lord Jesus Christ to be their own Redeemer/Messiah, that generation of Israel will be saved, and Satan's plan to destroy the Jews will be finally defeated. Christ will return to the earth, destroy the Satanic Antichrist and his armies at Armageddon, establish His Kingdom over Israel and the world for 1,000 years, and then cast Satan into the Lake of Fire forever and ever.

The key is that Israel must survive to receive Christ nationally as their own Messiah. As Jesus said when He lamented over Jerusalem from the Mount of Olives a few days before He died and rose from the dead at His First Coming:

Matthew 23:39 – 24:1 39 “For I say to you, from now on you shall not see Me until you say, ‘Blessed is He who comes in the name of the Lord!’”

While the remnant of Israel in every generation would receive Him all during the long period between His First and Second Comings (the Church Age), the nation Israel will not receive Him until after the Rapture of the Church and the Seven Year Tribulation. Thus, when Israel receives Christ, this will usher in the events that spell the doom of Satan.

From Satan’s point of view, he must keep Israel from surviving to the point in time when they will be ready to receive Jesus as their long awaited Messiah/Redeemer. They had a great opportunity to receive Him at His First Coming, but as John states:

John 1:11-12 <sup>11</sup>“He came to His own, and those who were His own did not receive Him. <sup>12</sup>But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name.”

Israel did not know it’s great “hour of visitation” when Jesus came the first time, but when He comes again, the nation of Israel as a whole that survives the Tribulation will at last be ready, willing and eager to receive Him as Savior and Lord.

Thus Satan has strived mightily to destroy Israel through the centuries up until this present time so that there would be no Israel to invite Jesus to return to the earth. Why hasn’t Satan been able to accomplish his repeated purpose to kill off this small nation of only a few million people? It is because God has promised to preserve His covenant nation forever, as Jeremiah so eloquently explains:

Jeremiah 31:35-36 <sup>35</sup>“Thus says the LORD, Who gives the sun for light by day, And the fixed order of the moon and the stars for light by night, Who stirs up the sea so that its waves roar; The LORD of hosts is His name: <sup>36</sup>If this fixed order departs From before Me,” declares the LORD, “Then the offspring of Israel also shall cease From being a nation before Me forever.”

God here states what it would take to destroy Israel. One would have to first destroy the sun, moon and stars. Once that had been accomplished then, and only then, could someone go about destroying Israel. The last time I looked, the sun, moon and stars were still functioning, so that must mean Israel has not ceased being a nation.

Satan wants to destroy Israel so that he can keep God from sending him into eternal perdition, but God will not allow Satan to destroy His Chosen Nation. Israel is the apple of God’s eye, so it must survive as a nation before Him for all time.

Don Stewart has said the Devil has tried to thwart the plan of God from the beginning. He has attempted to do it in five different ways. His five target areas of destruction have been:

1. The Human Race
2. The Nation Israel
3. The Promised Line
4. Jesus Christ
5. The Church

Target 1: The Human Race

When God created humanity, He made them according to His image and likeness. Adam and Eve were created perfect, and placed in a perfect environment. Yet Satan tempted them to sin, and they gave in to the temptation. The race that was created perfect would now have to be judged. Sin continued to have its way. Satan attempted to corrupt the human race to the point where God would destroy everything that He had made. It almost came to that.

“The LORD saw that the wickedness of humanity was great in the earth, and that every inclination of the thoughts of their hearts was only evil continually. And the LORD was sorry that He had made humanity on the earth, and it grieved Him to His heart.” -(Genesis 6:5,6).

God sent a Flood to destroy the entire world, except for eight persons. The human race was spared Satan's attempt to annihilate it.

Target 2: The Nation Israel

A second target of the Devil has been the nation Israel. Four thousand years ago God gave a man named Abram a number of promises.

“The LORD had said to Abram, "Leave your country, your people and your father's household and go to the land I will show you. "I will make you into a great nation and I will bless you; I will make your name great, and you will be a blessing. I will bless those who bless you, and whoever curses you I will curse; and all peoples on earth will be blessed through you" -(Genesis 12:1-3).

Among other things, God promised that the descendants of Abraham would exist forever. If the nation that came from Abraham's descendants, Israel, were ever annihilated as a nation, then the Word of God would be untrue. It is for this reason that Satan has paid special attention to Abraham's descendants.

Esther

In the Book of Esther we have an example of the attempted destruction of the entire nation. A decree went out to destroy all the Jews.

“Then were the king's scribes called in the first month, on the thirteenth day thereof; and there was written according to all that Haman commanded unto the king's satraps, and to the governors that were over every province, and to the princes of every people, to every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language; in the name of king Ahasuerus was it written, and it was sealed with the king's ring. And letters were sent by posts into all the king's provinces, to destroy, to slay, and to cause to perish, all Jews, both young and old, little children and women, in one day, even upon the thirteenth day of the twelfth month, which is the month Adar, and to take the spoil of them for a prey. A copy of the writing, that the decree should be given out in every province, was published unto all the peoples, that they should be ready against that day” - (Esther 3:12-14).

God providentially intervened and saved the nation from annihilation. If Satan would have been able to destroy the nation Israel, then the promises of God would not be true.

Target 3: The Line Of The Messiah

From the beginning, Satan has attempted to destroy the chosen line of the Messiah. If the chosen line were destroyed, then God's plan would be thwarted. God promised to judge Satan through the promised Messiah.

“I will put enmity between you and the woman, and between your offspring and hers; He will crush your head, and you will strike His heel” -(Genesis 3:15).

From The Beginning

He has persisted in this effort from the very beginning. Cain, the first child born to Adam and Eve, killed his brother Abel. The Bible says of Cain.

We must not be like Cain who was from the evil one and murdered his brother. And why did he murder him? Because his own deeds were evil and his brother's righteous -(1st John 3:12).

When Abel was killed, another son was born to Adam and Eve. His name was Seth. He was in the promised line of the Deliverer. Throughout history, the serpent has continued his attempt, with no success, to destroy the promised line.

Target 4: Jesus Christ

A fourth way in which Satan has attempted to stop the plan of God is in the mission of Jesus. Satan attempted to keep Jesus from fulfilling His destiny.

The Slaughter Of The Innocents

We find Satan behind Herod in the slaughtering of the innocent babies in Bethlehem. In attempting to kill the baby Jesus, Satan was trying to keep Jesus from fulfilling His mission.

Temptation

At the temptation of Jesus, Satan attempted to thwart God's plan by having Jesus worship him. “and he said unto Him, All these things will I give You, if You will fall down and worship me.” -(Matthew 4:9).

Jesus refused, and Satan was again defeated.

Bypass The Cross

When Peter attempted to get Jesus to bypass the cross, Jesus rebuked him, and declared that Satan was behind such talk.

“And Peter took Him aside and began to rebuke Him, saying, "God forbid it, Lord! This must never happen to You." But He turned and said to Peter, "Get behind Me, Satan! You are a stumbling block to Me; for you are setting your mind not on divine things but on human things" -(Matthew 16:22,23).

Mission Accomplished

The mission that Jesus set out to do was indeed accomplished. Right before He died, He uttered these words.

“When Jesus therefore had received the vinegar, He said, It is finished: and He bowed His head, and gave up His spirit” -(John 19:30).

Jesus came as promised and fulfilled His mission - in spite of all the efforts by Satan.

Target 5: The Church

Jesus said He would build His church and nothing would stop it.

“And I tell you, you are Peter, and on this rock I will build My church, and the gates of Hades will not prevail against it” -(Matthew 16:18).

The church, the true believers, in Jesus, is carrying out His plan to spread His message throughout the earth. However, from the very first mention of the church by Jesus, a warning was given that it would be opposed by Satan. The Book of Acts, as well as two thousand years of church history, gives testimony to the fact that Satan has tried to stop its mission. But just like in all the other cases, the Devil has failed to stop the plan of God.

Until The End

Before Christ returns, the dragon, or Satan, will still attempt to destroy the people, and the plan of God.

“Then the dragon was angry with the woman, and went off to make war on the rest of her children, those who keep the commandments of God and hold the testimony of Jesus” -(Revelation 12:17).

Summary

From the beginning, Satan has attempted to thwart the plan of God. First, he has attempted to destroy the human race, then the chosen people - Israel. Next, he has tried to cut off the Promised line of the Messiah. He has sought to interfere with the mission of Jesus to the earth. Finally, Satan has tried to destroy the work of God in the world today, the church. In all of these attempts, he has miserably failed. Satan has lost, the Lord has prevailed! What we are seeing, I believe is Satan's last hurrah in the use of vaccines to wipe out the Jewish nation!

Putting all of this into a contemporary time frame, we have what is an excellent framework for God to tell the Bridegroom, the home for your bride is finished, and it is now time for you to go and bring your bride home. We have three high watch dates for a Pre-Tribulation Rapture: May 13th, May 17th/18th, and May 23rd

SATAN AT WAR WITH CHRIST

Satan declared war on God when he attempted to overthrow God long before Adam and Eve were here. We believe Satan whose name was Lucifer lived on the planet Earth ruling over all of God's angels. There was plant and animal life plus all of God's angels. Lucifer planned an invasion of heaven taking a third of God's angels with him.

Isaiah the prophet tells us, "How art thou fallen from heaven, O Lucifer, son of the morning! How art thou cut down to the ground, which didst weaken the nations! For thou hast said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God: I will sit also upon the mount of the congregation, in the sides of the north: I will ascend above the heights of the clouds; I will be like the most High" -(Isaiah 14:12-14).

Satan aspired to be like unto God. He rebelled against his Creator, and left the earth waste and void and without form as we find it in Genesis 1:2. But God restored this ruined earth and placed another (Adam) over His creation and gave Adam the dominion that Lucifer once held. This man who now held sway over god's earth became the target of Satan's vicious attack and Satan succeeded. Man came under the curse of the Almighty God when he sinned in the Garden of Eden. But God thwarted the ultimate victory of Satan, and revealed a plan of redemption whereby Satan would be ultimately defeated.

God made His declaration in Genesis 3:15. God spoke to Satan and said, "And I will put enmity between thee and the woman, and between thy seed and her seed: It shall bruise thy head, and thou shalt bruise his heel."

War is declared on Satan. We are told that the head of the serpent would be crushed and complete victory for the seed of the woman would follow. War is declared and Satan now learns how he will be defeated. The seed of the woman is the Lord Jesus Christ Himself. This phrase "the seed of the woman" indicated unmistakably the fact that this coming Redeemer and this coming seed would have a human mother, but not a human father. The reference is to the virgin birth of the Lord Jesus Christ.

Satan's only hope of victory lay in the prevention of this "seed of the woman" from being born, or to destroy it after it did come. If Satan could only interrupt the line of this coming promised seed, who is Christ, and prevent His coming, he would gain the victory without even a battle.

So now Satan concentrates on the birth of the children in the line of the seed of this coming Redeemer. Satan's first attempt was when Eve gave birth to her first two sons, Cain and Abel. In Genesis 4:1 we read, "And Adam knew Eve his wife; and she conceived, and bare Cain, and saith, I have gotten a man from the Lord." Literally Eve says, "I have gotten the man, even Jehovah." Eve evidently believed that Cain, her first-born, was already the promised seed. But Satan knew that Abel was to be in the line of the seed, and so he uses Cain to destroy Abel, the supposed promised seed, believing that in this way he could defeat God's promise of Genesis 3:15.

We know that the murder of Abel was Satan inspired because we read in I John 3:12, "Not as Cain, who was of that wicked one, and slew his brother." God gives Eve another child Seth through whom the Messiah would come. He also banishes Cain to the land of Nod. This is just one in a whole series of attempts by Satan to thwart God's plan.

In Genesis chapter six we learn how Satan caused the whole human race to become corrupt except for one man and his family. This was through the systematic breakdown of the home using marriages of believers with unbelievers. The whole human race had to be destroyed except for Noah and his family. They were the only believers left on the earth.

Next at the Tower of Babel in Genesis chapter eleven, again the human race is corrupted through a political religious system that God thwarted by the confusion of tongues that caused them to scatter abroad. Again one man is singled out as the one through whom the Messiah would come. Abraham was told that he would be the one.

Christ was to come through Abraham. "Now to Abraham and his seed were the promises made. He saith not, and to seeds, as of many; but as of one, And to thy seed, which is Christ." -(Galatians 3:16) But Sarah was unable to have a child. We believe that Satan had shut up her womb. God miraculously intervened and Sarah conceived and bore Isaac.

Isaac married Rebecca and she was also barren. Genesis 25:21 says, "And Isaac intreated the Lord for his wife, because she was barren: and the Lord was intreated of him, and Rebecca his wife conceived." Satan again attempted to prevent this child from being born and God overruled.

Jacob and Esau were born to Rebecca and Isaac. Jacob was the one through whom the Messiah would come. Later we see Esau attempt to kill Jacob. Again Satan wants to prevent the Messiah from being born.

Satan tries to destroy the whole nation of Israel in Egypt. Pharaoh, a type of antichrist, orders all males to be killed. Again God intervenes and raised up Moses to lead the children of Israel out of Egypt.

At one point in Israel's history, Satan was successful in killing "all the seed royal of the house of Judah." One boy was hidden in the temple for six years during this awful threat. II Chronicles 22:10-12 tells us that Joash was spared. He was the only person on the earth through whom the Messiah could come.

Later in history during the time of Esther, Satan uses a man named Haman to make a decree to kill all Jews young and old, including women and children in one day. Read Esther chapter three. God used the woman Esther and Mordecai to spare the nation.

Satan is the prince of the power of the air. I am sure that he was well aware of Gabriel's visit from heaven to Nazareth. The devil's search had ended for Mary was the one who would bare the Messiah. Perhaps Satan inspired Caesar Augustus to make a decree for the entire world to be taxed in their own city where they were born. Mary as a result had to make a very difficult and dangerous journey through mountainous country for over one hundred miles to reach Bethlehem. She was great with child and so we believe that this was another attempt of Satan to prevent the birth of the Messiah--the seed of the woman. There were robbers and thieves along the highways in those days that would often kill or leave for dead their victims.

One of the most ruthless attempts of Satan was the edict of Herod to kill all of the babies two years old and younger in Bethlehem and in all the coasts thereof. Revelation 12:4 tells us, "...and the dragon (Satan) stood before the woman (Israel) which was ready to be delivered, for to devour her child (Jesus Christ) as soon as it was born."

There were also numerous attempts to kill Christ during His earthly ministry. Finally Satan used Judas Iscariot to betray Christ which led to the cross. Satan must have thought he had the victory over his enemy the Lord Jesus Christ. Little did Satan realize that Christ's death set the whole human race free from the penalty of sin and death. Also, that death could not hold Christ in the grave.

Jesus is the One who said, "I am He that liveth, and was dead; and behold, I am alive forevermore." -(Revelation 1:18). Also, "Verily, verily, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life." -(John 6:47).

As we get closer to the end of time that God has allotted for man to rule and reign, fear and panic begins to sets in unexpected ways. The past fourteen months have been an excellent example of what insanity we are living in. It has been an awesome time to be alive provided you have a Biblical World View. Surprisingly, most churches do not have a Biblical World View and have no answers for their people than to be compliant citizens. I find that tragic but not all that surprising.

We are closing in on the window of Daniel's 70th Week prophecy; the soon unveiling of the Antichrist and his global one-world economy, a one-world political system, and a one-world religious system (Pope Francis' Chrislam). The prelude that launched this early phase began with the fraudulent scandemic of Covid-19 in March of 2020, social distancing, face diapers, endless vaccines, booster shots, lock downs, downfall of the petrodollar; all instruments of breaking the human spirit, control, conditioning society to be compliant with their globalist leaders. There is no going back and whatever people saw as "normal" is gone forever. This was planned in 2010 at the Rockefeller Institute in what is called "Operation Lockstep".

Most Christian believers lack any real understanding of where we are in history, or where things are moving globally, or eternally. "Say to them that are of a fearful heart, Be strong, fear not: behold, your God will come with vengeance, even God with a recompence; he will come and save you." -(Isaiah 35:4). Today there are so many naysayers within the body of faith that it is easy to become discouraged and without hope.

I trust that you have been able to see what I have been trying to awaken you to. I have like solving puzzles since I was a young boy, entertainment in my days. Because of the Promises of God beginning in Genesis and ending in Revelation, God will not abandon His people, the Jews, or his disciples, Bible-believing Christians. God has to my knowledge, never broken a promise He made in the Bible. Herbert Lockyer did what are known as “the All the.....” series, a ten-volume library on the Bible decades ago. I once owned the hard-bound set but donated it to a Bible College in Pennsylvania where I taught. In 2016, I bought a paperback copy of ‘All The Promises of the Bible’.

You can be sure God is well aware of how Satan is attempting to destroy the Jewish people today through the Pfizer “gene” therapy. It appears the ‘Sephardic’ Jews, descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, are not buying into the Satanic plan of those coercing and cajoling the people to get vaccinated. It has been stated that vaccination of 49% of the population would ultimately spread to the entire population. At this point, we know that Israel has stated they have reached 71 or 72%. The implications of this are ominous and exciting at the same time.

From all of what I have shared in this Blessed Hope, count on the Lord to be calling his Bride home imminently. He has to because of His Promises to all His children, Jew and Christian. The Pre-Tribulation Rapture will do more than anything I can think or imagine of how to get the attention of those who call themselves the descendants of Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob. Who would have associated the Corona/Covid-19 scamdemic and vaccines as Satan’s last hurrah to wipe out the Jewish people? There is much more that I could add to this but I am running long. I just don’t want you to be one of those who quote 2nd Peter 3:4 since you might have to eat those words.

“And saying, Where is the promise of his coming? for since the fathers fell asleep, all things continue as they were from the beginning of the creation.” -(2nd Peter 3:4).

Blessings, be watching and stay alert!
